Bro. Dunlap, a member of the M. E. Church, departed this life June 13, aged 49. His last words were, "I am going home," and he then fell asleep in Jesus. He came here from Mississippi about seven months ago. He leaves a wife and grand-daughter.

W. J. Cunningham, P. C.

Rosemeath, Miss.—On the 29th of May Sister Lillie Cole departed this life. She was a faithful member of the M. E. Church for several years. She was ready and willing to die. She leaves a husband and son to mourn.

P. H. Hill.

June 5, little Willie Linsey, 9 years of age, departed this life. She was the daughter of William and Lucy Linsey, and a member of the Sunday school at Wesley Chapel.

P. H. Hill.

WHEN I began using Ely's Cream Balm my catarrh was so bad I had headache the whole time and discharged a large amount of filthy matter. That has almost entirely disappeared and I have not had headache since.—J. H. Sommers, Stephney, Conn.

How to Help Your Pastor

It is probable that our pastors do not all possess a good family sewing machine, but all should and can, and here is our plan for giving them one: For only 25 new subscribers from any one charge or circuit, with $37.50, (the prepaid cash rate), we will present one of the Premium Singer Machines to the pastor of that charge or circuit, or to any one getting up the club. This offer is open to all denominations, and is very liberal. This does not hinder any member of the club from getting one under our regular offer. Any of them paying $14 gets the paper and the machine, and will count one in the club if so stated.

As our object in making this offer is to increase the list, we stipulate that they shall be new subscribers. Old subscribers still have the privilege of the standing offer as heretofore published. If they have already paid for their paper they can send $12.50 and get the machine.

The following letter recently received from the manufacturers ought to inspire full confidence in them, should there be any doubt. We are aware that traveling and local agents of other machines are telling the people that we cannot supply them at such a low price, but more than a hundred of our patrons can attest to the genuineness of our offer.

CHICAGO, May 28, 1891.
The "Southwestern Christian Advocate," New Orleans, La.

Referring to your esteemed favor of recent date, would say that the machines you are advertising in connection with single yearly subscriptions to your paper, and as premiums for clubs of subscribers, are fully covered by registered certificate of warranty for five years, which accompanies each machine.

These machines are manufactured out of the very best material the market affords, and the workmanship is the very best that can be accomplished by the highest quality of skilled labor. The machines are facsimiles of the original well known "Singer" machine. The fact that we are able to furnish them at such low prices is due to our system of marketing them. We make a specialty of furnishing them to the newspaper trade, and by marketing our machines in this way we can afford to furnish them at prices that net us but a very small profit over and above the actual factory cost of building them.

The Rochester Lamp.
Perfect in Construction.
Artistic in Design.
Matchless in its Light.
Absolutely safe and unbreakable. Its light is purer and brighter than gas-light, softer than electric-light, more cheerful than either. A thousand tongues could not say more! A beautiful and good lamp it is indeed and it is made in over 2,000 artistic varieties.—Hanging and Table Lamps, Banquet, Vase, Study and Piano Lamps, in Bronze, Porcelain, Silver, Brass and Black Wrought Iron.
A written guarantee goes with every lamp. Ask for the lamp and the guarantee, and insist upon seeing the stamp of the genuine.—"The Rochester." If the lamp dealer has not the genuine Rochester and the style you want, send to us for illustrated price list, and we will send you any lamp safely by express.
ROCHESTER LAMP CO.,
42 Park Place, New York.
Manufacturers, and sole owners of Rochester Lamps. The Largest Lamp Store in the World.

Your readers should all understand that every machine is sold subject to approval upon inspection and trial. Any subscriber receiving one of these machines not fully satisfied with it can return it and have their money refunded, as we do not want any purchaser to keep a machine unless they are satisfied. We are dependent upon every machine sent out selling several others, and this policy has increased our business to its present proportions.

You have now been handling these machines, we believe, about one year, and we do not think one has been returned or that we have had any complaint in reference to them from any person to whom one has been shipped. This should be a sufficient guarantee as to their merit to any person contemplating the purchase of one of them.

Believing that your present demand for them will not only be maintained throughout the coming season, but will be largely increased, we beg to remain

Yours very truly,

CHICAGO SEWING MACHINE CO.

Now, Brethren, here is your chance, and if you don't take it, it is your own fault.

HAVE you ordered extra copies of our Jubilee number of the SOUTHWESTERN to be published next month? Only a few days remain wherein you can order. We ought to get 20,000 copies of that very valuable issue out among our people. The smallest charge ought to order at least a dozen or more copies. In no way can a quarter, half a dollar or a dollar be more profitably spent. Rally brethren; rally. The paper is not Dr. Albert's, but yours.

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine which can truly be said, "One Hundred Doses One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Peculiar in its medicinal merits, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "good name at home,"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly. Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

DUTY.

Straight and firm mark out the furrow,
Drop therein the golden grain;
Do thy task, and rise to-morrow
Ready to begin again.
One day like another passing,
Acts and deeds of little show,
Garnered seeds may be amassing,
Whence the harvest fields shall glow.

Bravely, then, the plowshare driving,
Faint not, nor withdraw thy hand;
Duties done by earnest striving Leave their traces o'er the land.
Hard the labor, but the pleasures,
Dull the task no others share;
But each step that duty measures
Leadeth up a golden stair.

Sing, then, in the early morning,
Going forth to work alone;
Sing at evening, home returning,
Counting up the day's work done.
Light the footsteps ever wending
Duty's worn and dusty ways;
Light the heart itself expending,
Dead to thought of human praise.

Dead to self, intensely loving,
In the noble throbs that move Hearts which weary not in giving
Life for life, and love for love.
Love of souls and love of duty,
Fear of falsehood, hate of wrong—
These shall clothe thy life with beauty
Worthy of the poet's song.

BY G. W. HUBBARD, M.D.

The Physical Effects of Narcotics.

Narcotics are substances which impair or destroy nervous action; their primary effect is usually of a stimulating character. Many of the most useful medicines are classed among the narcotics. We shall not speak of narcotics as regards their medicinal properties, but of their habitual use for the agreeable sensation they are supposed to produce.

The two which are most generally used are tobacco and opium. The world got along very well without tobacco, until it was carried from America to England, by Sir Walter Raleigh, and from that country its use has extended to nearly all the civilized regions of the world. The habit of using tobacco is one of the easiest to form and the most difficult to get rid of.

The narcotic power of tobacco is owing largely to an oily and volatile alkaloid, nicotine, of which it contains from two to eight per cent; this substance is a deadly poison, and a drop of it is sufficient to kill a dog; and it is said, that a single pound of tobacco contains enough to kill three hundred men, if it could be taken in such a way as to secure its full effects.

Tobacco, by its deteriorating effects upon the system lessens the vital resistance of the body to disease; it produces an irregular action of the heart; it impairs digestion and it induces dyspepsia. There are good reasons for believing that a large share of cancers of the lip, tongue, and throat are produced by its use; and the case of General Grant and many others might be cited as examples. It poisons the blood and disturbs the circulation through its influence on the nervous system. Smoking in youth is no uncommon cause of consumption. A certain form of paralysis has been attributed to it. Tobacco-blindness is very common in Ireland where very strong tobacco is used.

Books and Current Literature.

A wonderful story of progress is S. N. Dexter North's account of The Evolution of Wool Spinning and Weaving, in the July Popular Science Monthly. Prof. G. Frederick Wright contributes an illustrated paper on Man and the Glacial Period. Sanitary Improvement in New York during the Last Quarter of a Century, is the subject of an Article by General Emmons Clark, Secretary of the New York Board of Health since its organization in 1866. Paul Reichard writes on Department of Savage Negroes, describing their attitudes and gestures in performing familiar acts. In Scientific Dreams of the Past, by Albert de Rochas, curious evidence is given which shows that the telegraph, phonograph, and other developments of modern science, were imagined centuries ago. In the Editor's Table, "General" Booth's colonization scheme is discussed under the title The New Jesuitism and Social Reform, and there are a few words on Charity as a Fetish. New York: D. Appleton & Company. 50c. a number, $5 a year.

If it is true that "not one American in a hundred knows how to take a vacation," the July number of the Ladies' Home Journal has a distinct educational value, for it quite overflows with new and good counsel for summerings. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy; is issued by the Curtis Publishing Co., 433, 435 Arch St., Philadelphia.

The June number of Guide to Holiness contains Golden Lessons from the Great Teacher; A Sermon, "Refined by Fire," by Rev. G. C. Wells; and articles by a number of distinguished writers. The magazine, containing thirty-two pages, is published monthly at one dollar per year, postage included.

The Chautauquan for July has the following in its table of contents: Symposium—Where Should a College be Located? by Prof. Julius H. Seelye, D.D., LL.D.; Henry Wade Rogers, LL.D., Pres. James B. Angell, LL.D., Prof. Hjalmar Hjorth Boyesen, Pres. W. R. Harper, Ph.D., Prof. Herbert B. Adams, Ph.D.; Sunday Readings, selected by Bishop Vincent. The Disagreeable Truth About Politics, by George Hepworth; Horace Greeley's Boyhood, by Theodore Temple; The Spanish Creole, by Annie R. King; besides the usual editorial departments.

How the moon looks when viewed through the great telescope of the Lick Observatory (the largest in the world) will be shown by reproductions of photographs in the July Century. Prof. Edward S. Holden, chief astronomer of the Observatory, has prepared a brief paper describing the principal features exhibited in these views. By the aid of a series of lunar photographs now being taken, it is expected to settle definitely the vexed question of changes on the moon's surface.

The advance number of the Chautauqua Assembly Daily Herald, for the season of 1891, has reached us. It contains a full program for every day in the season of 1891. This is the sixteenth volume. Price $1 each; in clubs of 5 or more, to one postoffice address, 90c. each. Thirty issues from July 22 to August 25, Sundays excepted. Address Dr. T. L. Flood, editor and proprietor, Meadville, Pa.

The House of Bondage, or Charlotte Brooks and Other Slaves, by Mrs. Octavia V. Rogers Albert, a neat volume of nearly 200 pages, is upon our desk. The Test, in order to do fullest justice to the authoress, will lend this volume to any cultured lady who will promise to furnish us for these columns a review of it. We never read white man books upon aspects of the Negro question, for they are written for speculative purposes, but we want to do the most for Negro authorship in these lines. New York: Hunt & Eaton. Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe. Weekly Test.

The Book News for May is devoted to the University Extension idea, and is full of contributions from eminent sources in advocacy of the same. It shows how university education may be obtained by whoever wishes to obtain it. It proposes practically to bring university education to the homes of the people, who may have the ambition, but lack the means of attending such institutions. John Wanamaker, publisher, Philadelphia. 5c a number, 50c a year.

We have received the catalogue of the Central Alabama Academy, Huntsville, Ala.

Our Symposium.

We notice with regret that the daily papers of New York show a disposition to magnify unduly these Haytian emeutes and to insist that the Haytian blacks are incapable of self government; while as a matter of current history there is hardly a month in the year in which there is not a revolution of some sort in progress in some one of the South American Republics, which these papers dignify by the respectable designation of "war." A republican form of government is the very hardest sort to maintain, because it must be built upon the patriotism and the general intelligence of the masses. Even France is not regarded as a stable Republic, because the people have not been educated in the forms of self government.

Let us be charitable to Hayti. It must have time and opportunity to work out its destiny as a Republic.—N. Y. Age.

You can't draw a boundary line around a moral evil and say to it, "You may continue, but you must keep within these particular limits." The only way to keep it from aggressive warfare is to keep it fighting for its very existence.—The Voice.

The essential truths are those which Christ by his teaching and living and dying has shown to be essential.—Rev. C. H. Parkhurst, D.D.

Let us always remember that holiness does not consist in doing uncommon things, but with doing everything with purity of heart.—H. E. Manning.

It is an old story—the failure of "good men." They did not mean to, but they slid down the declivity by carelessness, by grasping for more, by speculating with other people's money. They awoke some fine morning to find the sun shining on the ruins of their fortunes and their reputations. It is wretched, dismal, cruel, disheartening business. The cruel Christian honesty. There is no other honesty. This alone is honest to the core of the spine of a man. Preach it. Practice it. In all its length and breadth. It is dishonest to be carelessly indulgent to your friends with that property. It is dishonest to take risks with your own goods which may endanger the goods of others. It is dishonest to go in the way of temptation. The abuse of trust funds by honest men! The thing is impossible.—Western Advocate.

A FORTUNE

Inherited by few, is pure blood, free from hereditary taint. Catarrh, consumption, rheumatism, Scrofula, and many other maladies born in the blood, can be effectually eradicated only by the use of powerful alteratives. The standard specific for this purpose—the one best known and approved—is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the compound, concentrated extract of Honduras sarsaparilla, and other powerful alteratives.

"I consider that I have been SAVED several hundred dollars' expense, by using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and would strongly urge all who are troubled with lameness or rheumatic pains to give it a trial. I am sure it will do them permanent good, as it has done me."—Mrs. Joseph Wood, West Plainsburgh, N. Y.

Dr. J. W. Shields, of Smithville, Tenn., says: "A regular Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best blood medicine on earth, and know of many wonderful cures effected by its use."

"For many years I was laid up with Scrofula, no treatment being of any benefit. At length I was recommended to give Ayer's Sarsaparilla a trial. I did so, and about 18 months ago she began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and after taking three bottles was completely cured."—E. Caffall, P. M., Losce, Utah.

By Taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla

MONEY FOR SOLDIERS.

BOUNTIES. PENSIONS.

Nearly every soldier who served in the late War is entitled to arrears of pay, clothing or bounty, under the various Acts of Congress. We give special attention to bounty claims of soldiers who served in the colored troops. Under the recent law every soldier who is totally or partially unable to earn his living is entitled to pension, whether the disability was contracted in the service or not. Every widow of a soldier is entitled to a pension under the same law. Send us a statement of your case immediately as the pension begins from date of filing.

Remember we charge no fee unless successful, and soldiers will never receive what is justly due them unless they make application for it.

The girl who likes to be flattered.
The girl who knows she is pretty.
The girl with a mania for feathers.

The girl with fingers loaded with rings.
The girl who thinks of nothing but style.

The girl who wears a millinery store on her head.

The girl who snaps when her brothers and sisters address her.
The girl who imagines her personal charms a substitute for beauty of mind.

The girl who becomes hysterical, and bursts into tears every time she cannot have her own way.—
Epworth Herald.

Dear Uncle Cephas: This is my second letter. I was much pleased when I read my first in the dear SOUTHWESTERN. My mother takes the SOUTHWESTERN. I attend Sunday school. Our pastor is Rev. F. J. Yeargin. The middle verse in the Bible is found in the 118th psalm. I wish some one would tell me where the word wife is found in the Bible!

Your Nephew,
WILLIE MCKENER.

Friendship, Tenn.

Dear Uncle Cephas: This is my first letter to the Children's Legion. I am a boy 15 years old. I go to Sunday school, and every day school. I am the secretary of our Sabbath school. My sister Mary Elsie is our treasurer, and my cousin Nellie Williams is our librarian. Mr. S. S. Riley, of Flatonia, Texas, is our teacher, both in every day and Sunday school. We like him splendidly. I wish to ask my cousins a question. How many times does the word And occur in the Old Testament? I do not take the SOUTHWESTERN but Mr. Riley does, and I enjoy reading it ever so much.

Your Nephew,
WISDOM ELEY.

Stonewall, La.

Dear Uncle Cephas: This is my first letter to you. I do not take the SOUTHWESTERN, but my uncle does. I enjoy reading it very much. I belong to the M. E. Church. Our preacher is Rev. H. C. Dunlap, we all love him. We have a very good Sunday school. I am one of the teachers. I do not go to day school now, but I intend to go this summer. I am 15 years of age.

Your Niece,
LULU A. MURPHY.

Lockesburg, Sevier county, Ark.

For Over Fifty Years,
Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over FIFTY YEARS by MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE SUFFERING WITH COLIC, WHOOPING COUGH, SOOTHES THE CHILD, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALLAYS ALL PAIN, CURES WIND COLIC, AND IS THE BEST REMEDY FOR DIARRHOEA. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other. Twenty-five cents a bottle. [ad 97]

THE Epworth League numbers over half a million members, a very small proportion of whom are of our people. No pastor or Presiding Elder has done his full duty to our young people until he has done all in his power to gather and organize them into the Epworth League. Let us see to it that every church throughout the South has an Epworth League connected with it during the next sixty days. Now is the time to organize. Write to Dr. J. L. Hurlbut, 150 Fifth Ave., New York, for full instructions.

FOR DYSPEPSIA
Use Brown's Iron Bitters.
Physicians recommend it.
All dealers keep it. $1.00 per bottle. Genuine has trade-mark and crossed red lines on wrapper.

An Unprecedented Offer!

We have made arrangements with the Chicago Manufacturing Company to supply one of their first-class Singer machines for only $14 cash. We will order a machine like the cut here shown, and send the SOUTHWESTERN a full year besides! It is a handsome oil-polished walnut, of latest design, Gothic cover, with beautiful panels, four end drawers and a swing drawer, nickel-plated, and warranted five years.

Each Machine is furnished with the following equipment: One Foot Hemmer, One Oil Can with Oil, One Gauge, and Screw, One Extra Check Spring, One Package of Needles, Five Bobbins, One Ticker, One Foot Ruffler, One Set of Plate Hemmers, four different widths up to seven-eighths of an inch, One Binder and One Thread Cutter. The Improved Tension and Thread Liberator is used on this Machine. The manufacturers offer to refund the money if purchaser is not fully satisfied with the machine.

We receive many letters inquiring about the sewing machine premium, and how to obtain it. In order that all may understand the matter, we state in addition to the announcement, that remittances should be made to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, either by check, money order, or by express, naming the nearest or most convenient freight depot to which it is to be sent. Then we order the factory in Chicago to ship the machine. The company ships it, and receives from the railroad a bill of lading which, with the warranty, is sent to us, and which we send to the subscriber. This bill of lading is good and sufficient evidence that the machine has been forwarded, and holds the railroad company responsible for its safe delivery at the station named as its destination, and in due time, save unavoidable delays. In case of its loss the railroad which caused its loss is responsible, under the laws of the land. If not arriving in due time, show the bill of lading to the station agent and he will look it up. Don't give up the bill of lading, but it may be shown to the railroad agent. All orders are sent the same day as received, and the bill of lading is sent to the subscriber the same day we get it. We started this scheme with a view to helping our patrons, and shall carefully and faithfully carry out our part of the agreement in every case.

A LIFE SAVED!

READ THE TWO STATEMENTS.

An Extraordinary Case!

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Nov. 22, 1890.

Last April I was attacked with Chagres Fever in Spanish Honduras and was given up to die by two physicians. During that spell and since I have used a pound of quinine and quantities of other medicine without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered untold agonies. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Royal Cornet. I have had no further since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind. Am gaining strength very fast. Can walk miles at a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Germetour has been a God-send to me. I can say no more but in my praise. Any who wish to do so may call on me.

DANIEL PAPKON,
421 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1, 1891.

My improvement continued, and soon after writing the above statement I was able to go to work and have been working ever since. My health is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony gladly, because I know that Germetour saved my life.

DANIEL PAPKON.

Chagres Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Germetour has been tried in an number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It is a similar remedy as a remedy for Swamp Fever and Malarial troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quickest and most infallible remedy for Fevers of all kinds. Dyspepsia, Debility, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidence from thousands of the best people in the country, and the evidences multiply in our midst every day.

For sale by druggists and country merchants, and at the Germetour office, 202 Canal street, New Orleans. For full information, circulars, etc., call on or address Kit Williams, Agent, 202 Canal street. $1 bottle; six bottles for $5.

GOLDEN TEXT.
The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us. (John 1:14.)

LESSON HYMN, L. M.
Author of faith, eternal Word,
Whose Spirit breathes the active flame,
Faith, like its finisher and Lord,
To-day as yesterday the same;

To thee our humble hearts aspire,
And ask the gift unspeakable;
Increase in us the kindled fire,
In us the work of faith fulfill.

To him that in thy name believes,
Eternal life with thee is given;
To himself he all receives,
Pardon, and holiness, and heaven.

Introductory Statement.—The Gospel of John was written about 90 A. D., in the second or third generation of the Christian Church. It was not, like the other gospels, written largely for the benefit of inquiring heathen, but rather for the "new type of humanity which had been developed by the Gospel," men and women trained under Christianity and able to comprehend divine truth. It is the profoundest work ever penned by mortal man. Let it be our prayer and endeavor through the second half of this year to come into close fellowship with the Son of God, whose words this evangelist repeats to us. This lesson has only one historic incident, that contained in the fifth and sixteenth verses. The date of that incident was probably A. D. 26.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY

1. The Word Was God, v. 1, 5. What three things are here said about the Word?

With whom did the Word at first dwell?

What is said about his power? What does Paul say was made by him? (Col. 1:16.)

Where did the light shine? How well was it understood?

2. The Word became Man, v. 6, 13.

What messenger is here spoken of? For what purpose was John sent?

To whom was he to bear witness? Who is the true Light of the world?

On whom does the true light shine?

What three things does verse 10 say about the Light?

To whom did the Light come and was rejected?

What blessing came to all who received it?

How were these born?

3. The Word Reveals the Father, v. 14, 18.

What glory was thereby revealed? What was John's testimony to the Word?

What did he say about fulness and grace?

What about Moses and Jesus? Who has ever seen God?

Who only has revealed him?

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.

Where in this lesson are we taught

1. That Jesus was God?

2. That Jesus was a man?

3. The only way to the Father?

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG MEMBERS.

Find to whom the coming of John was foretold?

What disciples of John left him to follow Jesus?

Who beheaded John?

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

[For the entire school]

1. What name does the apostle give to the eternal Son of God? The Word.

2. What was the Word? The Word was God.

3. What did the Word become? The Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us.

4. What came by Jesus Christ? Grace and truth.

5. Who came for a witness of the Light? A man sent from God, whose name was John.

EXPLANATIONS.

In the beginning—Before all history. The Word—"As men's minds manifest themselves by spoken words, so the manifestation of the eternal Mind is here described as the eternal Word."

Whedon. Was God—Truly divine. In the beginning—Before Christ came to earth as a human babe.

In literal truth there can be no beginning to the eternal God. All things were made by him—Christ in heaven and on earth constantly performed his Father's will.

Doctrinal suggestion—The incarnation of Christ.

THE CHURCH CATECHISM.
68. How many sacraments has Christ ordained in his Church? Two: Baptism and the Lord's Supper. (Matt. 28:19; Cor. 11:23-26.)

69. What is a sacrament? An outward and visible sign of an inward and spiritual grace.

The worst cases of scrofula, salt rheum and other diseases of the blood, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Camp Meeting.
The Huntsville district camp meeting will take place near Phelps, Texas, August 10th to 24th. Introductory sermon will be preached by Rev. W. Hamilton, Presiding Elder of the Marshall district. Persons from abroad wishing to attend these series of meetings by railway can do so by buying a ticket over the International & Great Northern Railway and changing cars at Phelps station, thence to the camp ground. Excursion rates have been secured over the Great Northern and International Railroad. Everything will be done for the good and comfort of all. In addition to the camp houses already on the grounds you are kindly requested to build others, and second tents and live in them during the whole two weeks. Besides all the ministers of the Huntsville district, other eminent ones are expected. Special attention will be given to entertaining all ministers who may visit us. Brethren, come fully consecrated to God.

The Editor or Business Manager will attend as many of these district conferences and special meetings as possible, but whether they are able to be there or not, we will send sample copies of the "Southwestern" to each of them, when we hope a general and united rally will be made to double our present circulation. It can be done. Will you do it?

A Correction

The notice of the camp meeting to be held at Bolton, published in the "Southwestern" last week with my name attached to it, was without my authority. I did not write the notice, in fact I knew nothing of any camp meeting to be held in the Jackson district until the public were being notified by printed bills. Therefore I take this method to make correction.

Editorial Notes.

Happy they whose joys abound
Like Jordan's swelling stream;
Who their heaven in Christ have found,
And give the praise to Him.
Mearest follower of the Lamb,
His steps I at a distance see;
I the chief of sinners am,
But Jesus died for me.

AFTER several weeks absence, the Christian Herald, of this city, found its way to our sanctum.

THE anniversary edition of the Atlanta Times, is highly creditable to all concerned. We congratulate Editor Lovingsgood on his marked success.

LAST Saturday, July 4, the citizens of this city celebrated with unusual ceremony the 115th Anniversary of the Declaration of American Independence.

EMPEROR William of Germany, Queen Victoria's grandson, has gone on a visit to England. He was received with royal grandeur in Holland, in England, and wherever he tarried. The world wonders what will be the outcome to the peace of Europe from this visit.

THE Editor, Rev. J. F. Marshall of Louisiana, M. C. B. Mason of Savannah, L. M. Hagood, M. D., of Lexington and W. P. Ryder, of Washington Conferences, found pleasant homes in the hospitable home of Bro. and Sister T. A. Howard, devoted members of Wiley Memorial Church during the Presiding Elder's Convention at Chattanooga.

LAST Monday morning a terrible cyclone visited Baton Rouge. It blew down part of the penitentiary and killed ten and wounded thirty of its inmates; destroyed the Governor's mansion; demolished and unroofed houses in all directions, especially in the southern portion of the city. We go to press too early to get the details, but the indications are that many lives and much property will be found to have been destroyed by the terrible storm that is sweeping from Galveston through Baton Rouge and intervening sections.

WE most heartily commend Bishop Mallalien to all our friends in the North who take an interest in the real welfare of all our colored people. His heart is set on building up a strong, first-class Medical School, on principles as broad and beneficent as the Gospel. To do this it will need two hundred thousand dollars. Already the Bishop has nearly fifty thousand. Our people are praying that he may soon secure the balance.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Homiletical Department of the Southwestern.

REV. E. M. JONES.

The writer has watched the Homiletical column of the SOUTHWESTERN with peculiar interest since its introduction as a part of the paper. And have been anxious to see it succeed and come up to all expectation. This anxiety has been gratified and this department of the paper intensifies the preachers interest.

This feature of the SOUTHWESTERN adds another good quality to the many which the paper possesses.

The SOUTHWESTERN already takes the front rank of news papers edited by colored men, and such prudent and helpful steps as the column of homiletics, is destined to keep it in the lead and add to its already well won and honored record and unspeakable usefulness, and profitable career.

The SOUTHWESTERN is a necessity, and this is saying a good deal. For when anything grows to be a necessity then all must and will have it.

Our preachers and others cannot and will not do without the SOUTHWESTERN. They hail its weekly visits with increased joy and delight. They read its pages with an interest akin to that of their Bibles. For it brings them fresh and wholesome news of the Old Church and her matchless enterprises, that we so much love, and in whose successes and victories we take special delight. It enables us to hear from our brethren and their work, in whom we are deeply interested, and keeps us informed as to what is happening in the world. It ably defends our cause against misrepresentation, it uproots evil seed which has been sown, informs and trains our people in the principles and doctrines of Methodism.

But the ministers are the special class interested in the homiletics of the SOUTHWESTERN, as they are engaged weekly, and almost daily, in sermonizing. They are on the alert for new ideas and suggestions in making sermons, that they may preach effective sermons which will result in the edification of Christians and the conversion of sinners.

1. This homiletic column is SUGGESTIVE in sermon making. It is not always an easy task to find suitable themes for sermons. And some of our ablest and best preachers, who devote nearly all of their time in reading and studying, are glad of suggestions which lead them to appropriate subjects for pulpit use. And how much more so is this when preachers are necessitated to divide their time in other lines of work, but must preach two or three times on the Sabbath. They may be over-crowded with work, weary and worn out, still necessity is laid upon them and they must preach. And if the SOUTHWESTERN can give suggestions which will lead to suitable texts and themes, it must be helpful.

2. Doubtless these sermon outlines of the SOUTHWESTERN are not intended to encourage idleness or to make plagiarists, but to aid the industrious and to afford passages of Scripture for study and investigation. With this object in view, they must be beneficial, and especially to some of our brethren who have not had the advantage of a theological training.

3. In the third place, these outlines start us to thinking. As we read division after division, and subdivision, they set us to thinking along certain lines which will develop into sermons. Just as we pour a little water into the pump to start it to flowing, so are these outlines and suggestions.

It is always best it possible to select our texts and themes upon our knees, but some time God answers our prayers through our brother's suggestion—since he must work through instruments. Some time the most original and jealous for the success of the cause of God and the up-building of the church, and those who are least helped, are the first to acknowledge the sources of help. These outlines will be most helpful to those who can think for themselves and can't do more than aid in preparation. A preacher would be as unnatural and awkward in using these outlines, as they are, as if he would appear in another man's clothes. To use material well and successful it must be our own, and then this material must be the outgrowth of our convictions and experience. And the class most benefited will use them as they were intended.

4. These are Gospel outlines. This is a good feature in cultivating the habit of preaching the Gospel, and not taking the pulpit on Sundays to deliver historical and scientific addresses. Some are inclined to make the pulpit the medium for all kinds of communication. The more of the Gospel we put into our sermons, the better they are and the more good we can hope to accomplish.

This is an age when Gospel sermons are much needed, and there ought and must be a returning to the preaching of the fundamental doctrines of the Gospel, if Christianity would keep pace with the increase of population and the growth of wickedness in the world and church.

And if the wise and sagacious editor of the SOUTHWESTERN succeeds in keeping this idea before the readers of this column, he will accomplish much for the cause he labors to promote.
Montgomery, Ala.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

What Will Cure.

REV. STEPHEN PRIESTLEY.

Mr. Editor: I would like to get some information through your valuable paper of the cause of the letters addressed to the Louisiana Conference, and the circulars calling for a convention of preachers. Why this wide-spread soreness throughout this broad land; charging the Louisiana Conference with corruption, and even calling in question the administration of our bishops? Is this right?

First. Has the Discipline of our Church been set aside? Or have we no Discipline to guide us as ministers?

Second. Who and what are the names of these men and corporations?

Third. What brethren have wronged or taken another brother's charge, congregation or appointment from him?

Fourth. What young men have been pressed or driven from our church? Only those men who by their own deeds and their own actions leave us.

Have these brethren been false to themselves—false to the Old Church—these many years in making their reports? The best cure for a toothache is to go to the dentist and have it pulled out.

REVS. J. E. Lowery, A. M., of the South Carolina, and E. W. S. Hammond, D. D., of the Lexington Conference, were the co-ordinate secretaries of the Presiding Elder's Convention at Chattanooga. We inadvertently called them secretary and assistant secretary respectively, in last week's paper.

Schools and Colleges.

Mr. F. S. Thomas and Mrs. Tillie Jones Thomas, managers of the Glee Club, which we published as a frand some weeks ago, because it assumed the name "New Orleans University Glee Club," explain their connection with that name as follows: "We are managers of a company known as the New Orleans University Singers, and travelling on our own merits, since we finished our mission in the interest of LaTéche Seminary, under Dr. Godman, ex-president of New Orleans University. We finished our work with him in 1881, and have been travelling since upon our own merits." We would not do Mr. Thomas and his troupe any injustice, but it is but just to the University and its friends that the fact be known that the New Orleans University has no troupe giving concerts for its benefit in the North.

Good News to Teachers.

You can make money during vacation canvassing for the SOUTHWESTERN, "The House of Bondage," and "The Colored Man in the M. E. Church." Write for terms to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, New Orleans, La.

Teachers desiring schools to teach; and communities in need of teachers can find no better means of securing what they want than by advertising their wants through the SOUTHWESTERN. Forty thousand people read our paper every week. Write for terms.

The Colored Teachers' State Association of Mississippi held a very well attended and profitable session at Jackson, Miss., July 4. The following officers were selected: President, Prof. J. H. Bnrrus, of Rodney; Prof. E. H. Triplett, of Meridian, vice-president; Prof. W. H. Reynolds, of Vicksburg, secretary; Miss M. J. Spellman, of Jackson, assistant secretary; Prof. J. D. Tuston, of Canton, corresponding secretary. Next meeting July 4, 1892.

Why not enter the New Orleans University Medical School next October? You can go through a whole year and pay off all expenses with $90.

Get ready to send your boys and girls to one of our schools. As loyal Methodists, we should support our own institutions.

City Church Notes.

Children's Day at First Street Church was grand. Collection, $10. Misses Florida Flemming, Emma Anderson, Elizabeth Cochran, Ezrenia Shepard, M. Johnson, Griffin, Slede, Maria Bell, Carrie Jackson, Emma Smith, and Minnie Griffin performed their parts in a most creditable manner. The school is getting on nicely; 125 new scholars reported this quarter. Bro. J. Gordon Taylor is superintendent, and Rev. T. G. Montgomery pastor.

Presiding Elder Williams held his second quarterly conference at Pleasant Plains on the 18th. He was full of good advice, Bible comment, and church polity. "Twenty years a Presiding Elder" speaks for him. Reports were as good as ever. Paid pastor, Presiding Elder, and Sunday School Agent their quarterly apportionments.

Boynton Chapel, Gretna, La., Rev. H. C. Wilson pastor, will have a grand financial rally on the third Sunday in July. The Christian workers organized since the storm will turn out. President, Eliza Rose. Revs. Emperor Williams, Frank Walker, I. H. Williams of the A. M. E. Zion Church, Samuel Bell of Kennerville, and several societies, will be in attendance.

The Excelsior Bell Circle of Wesley Chapel celebrated the 4th of July with a picnic at Loeper's Park.

The sacramental services last Sunday, at Pleasant Plains, Rev. D. J. Price pastor, were highly edifying. A large number partook of the elements.

Personal.

—Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, the authoress, quietly passed her eightieth birthday in Hartford, Conn., recently. Mrs. Stowe is but a shadow of her former self mentally; she talks in broken sentences like a child. The least company makes her nervous and excitable.

—Dr. J. M. Buckley, editor of the New York Christian Advocate, delivered the commencement sermon at Vanderbilt University recently.

—In the one hundred and seven years since Mr. Wesley ordained Thomas Coke a bishop and sent him to America to ordain one assistant bishop and organize Methodism, there have been forty-two bishops and four missionary bishops, three of them for Africa and one for India. Bishop Coke and James were each thirty-seven years of age at their election, and Bishops Roberts and Fitzgerald were each thirty-eight years; Asbury was thirty-nine; Whatcoat was sixty-four; Newman, sixty-two; Peck, sixty-one; and E. O. Haven was sixty. Taylor, the missionary bishop for Africa, was sixty-three. Twelve were fifty-two and over, up to fifty-nine. The average age of all the bishops at election was forty-eight and three-fourths years. Twenty of these bishops were elected from the pastorate or presiding eldership, eight from the educational work, six had been secretaries of great benevolences, and six editors, while four had been book agents. Wilbur Fisk was elected from the educational work, but he was never ordained; and of the twenty elected from the pastorate, Joshua Sonle had been a book agent for four years, but at the time of his election and consecration he was taken from the pastorate.—Western Advocate.

—Bishop Mallalien has left for the North. He will be hard at work during the summer trying to raise two hundred thousand dollars to establish and endow our medical college. This is a department of the New Orleans University, and it is of the greatest importance that the bishop should succeed in his undertaking.

—Prof. Harvey J. Clement of New Orleans University is enjoying his vacation at his home in Washington, Ind., where "The SOUTHWESTERN" keeps him posted every week with news from the South. His alma mater, Moore's Hill College, has conferred upon him in cursu the degree of Master of Science. His many friends will be glad to welcome him at his accustomed place in New Orleans University next fall.

—Prof. Alex. P. Camphor, A. B., of New Orleans University, has gone to Chantanooga, N. Y., where he will spend his vacation and take advantage of the many intellectual bounties that are daily spread before the visitors that gather there every summer, from all parts of the world.

—Rev. H. C. Armston, Algiers, informs us that Rev. Nelson Burton of Waxla, La., reached this city June 28 very sick with fever and is now at his home in this city sick. We hope he will soon be convalescent.

—Rev. W. P. Ryder, P. E., of the Washington, (D. C.) district, returning from the Presiding Elder's Convention spent Sunday, June 28, in Montgomery, Ala., and preached an able sermon at the St. Paul M. E. Church, of which the Rev. E. M. Jones is pastor.

—Rev. S. B. Darnell, B. D., president of Cookman Institute, Jacksonville, Fla., is enjoying his well-earned vacation at Ocean Grove, N. J. In a personal note he says: "Our institution has had such a marvelous growth that I have had my time and energy fully taxed to keep it in trim."

—Rev. Mack Henson, Presiding Elder of Anstin district, West Texas Conference, passed through this city on his return from the Presiding Elder's Convention, and gave us a pleasant visit. He dined with the editor at his home, visited New Orleans University and made arrangements to send one of his sons to school there next fall, and preached at La Harpe and Wesley Chapel on the Sabbath.

—Presiding Elder W. H. Logan of the Navasota district, Texas Conference, passed through on Wednesday, having stopped over a day or two in Atlanta, Ga. He too remembered us with a call.

Letters from the Districts.

Austin District, West Texas Conference.

M. HENSON, P. E.

Dear Dr. Albert: At the close of the published exercises for Austin District Conference, you asked a very important question: "What about the SOUTHWESTERN; did Bro. Mason and his committee forget it?"

Being very busy and away on the extreme southern portion of the district, and in order to refresh the memory of the brethren relative to the work to be done at the next session, I wrote a note requesting Bro. Carmichael to prepare and send the programme which was adopted before adjournment of the last session for this district conference, and I believe he performed that duty fairly well.

Being so crowded in my work, I did not chance to see the manuscript after he prepared it, before it was sent to press. Which may partly account for the non mention of the SOUTHWESTERN.

Though he failed to say a word for our faithful old friend, the SOUTHWESTERN, in that brief notice, its great worth and just claims were clearly set forth and favorably discussed at our last session, and commendatory resolutions were adopted. And the good results are shown by an increased list of subscribers on the district for 1891.

Its high claims are urged upon merit, and sound basis, at every quarterly conference, and next to the necessity of procuring the prescribed course of books for local preachers and exhorters, they are vigorously urged to subscribe for and read the SOUTHWESTERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

And among the younger and better qualified, we recommend to stewards, class leaders and trustees the important duty of taking the SOUTHWESTERN, the official journal for our territory. It is made the test of our Christian fealty and qualification for official position in the church. And we trust this slip of a secretary in the performance of his unsaid duty will not lead to the conclusion that we are negligent to perform a plain duty.

The paper has, under its wise management, and its bold defense of the rights of our people everywhere, as well as the doctrine and policy of a great church, gained for itself a deservedly wide reputation. It is regarded as a true guide to cleanliness and holiness and a safe monitor.

Bro. Simon S. Brewer, who came to us from the Missionary Baptist Church, after staying with us a short while, returned from whence he came, without doing us any harm.

Brethren applying for license to preach must know something about English grammar, geography, Ridpath's History, and arithmetic to common fractions.

W. R. R. DUNCAN, P. E.

Bowling Green District, Lexington Conference.

L. M. HAGOOD, M. D.

I have just completed the first round of visits. Most of the brethren entered their work with a determination to make the charge better for their baying been sent there. Most of the appointments have moderately good churches, while several have buildings beyond the ordinary. There has been no discord so far, aside from some who are desirous to have everything go in accordance with our excellent book of discipline.

I found an established rule to pay no class dues, but to pay twenty-five cents per month to the pastor, and the same every three months to the Presiding Elder, and then declare, "I have done my duty."

Where pastors try to discipline our people the friction arising is hardly worthy being called discord.

All the pastors are faithfully working to make full proof of their ministry.

Rev. Isaac Horton, one of the fathers at Sonora, had a very severe attack of "la grippe" immediately after conference, when his life was all but despaired of, but is well and at it again.

Rev. A. Posey, of Hardinsburg, who came to us many years ago from the Washington conference, also had a very dangerous attack of sickness, but is now well. He is a man of sterling qualities, and, like Bro. Horton, one of the veterans of our Methodism.

The younger brethren of the district will compare favorably with any other class of Methodist preachers whose chances have been similar. So far as I know, each and every one of them is striving for the mastery along the line of religious, moral and intellectual stamina. In the community where they are they are respected and revered.

The laity is fast coming to the plane of the ministry intellectually, and, indeed, some of them are already there.

A mistaken idea prevails on this district that the estimating committee is to decide what the church they represent can pay the pastor as salary. They usually estimate this without regard to the number or condition of the pastor's family, but base it upon how well the pastor pleases the committee. We have been (and intend to keep at it) trying to teach that it is their duty not to estimate what they can pay, nor what they intend to pay, but "to estimate the amount necessary to furnish a comfortable support." Because of this mistake the wives and children of some of the pastors have had to hire out in order to have sufficient clothes to attend church.

But few, if any, of our schools on this district have been made auxiliary to the Sunday School Union of our church. No school is a Methodist school because taught in one of our churches, unless they have adopted the constitution for Sunday schools laid down in our discipline. I have succeeded in organizing every Sunday school on this district, this quarter, into a missionary society, and hope, by conference, to see some happy results. On the second visit I hope to be able to organize an Epworth League in every appointment; have regular class meetings where Christians can meet to tell their experiences and pay their class dues.

The pastors have striven to have every official make a written report to the quarterly conference. They have, without a single exception, vied with each other to make me feel welcome and comfortable, and they have succeeded admirably. Several of the charges held what they denominated the "P. E.'s receptions." I called them ovations.

At Morgantown the white people absolutely crowded the church to such an extent that our people had to go to the neighbors' houses and get chairs for themselves.

On Monday night, by invitation, I preached for the whites, in their church, to an overflowing mixed audience. The blessed Holy Spirit attended the effort. The same is true of Hall's Creek, Sonora, Eddyville and Vine Grove. I do not mention these things for personal laudation, but to exhibit the kindly feelings existing between all classes of religious people. While thus engaged, who could blame me for shouting the midst:

"One family we dwell in Him;
One Church above, beneath."

It is too early to prophesy. And yet I have succeeded in raising the estimate for every pastor's salary on this district from 10 to 100 per cent above last year's.

At each quarterly service, I rejoice to say, the glad shouts of the faithful, the fervent prayers of the righteous, the reclamation of backsliders, the cries of poor sinners, and the "God bless you" from aged servants of the Lord, and the glad acclaims of the young people have made me buckle the armor tighter, grasp the sword of the spirit firmer and shout, "If God be for us who can be against us."

Texarkana District, Arkansas.

A. J. PHILLIPS, P. E.

I began my first round Feb. 12, and finished May 4. My first point was at Locksburg. Bro. H. C. Dunlap has been appointed to this. The people purchased a house for him. I spent one week there.

At Center Point, Bro. B. H. Johnson, a transfer from the Texas conference, does good work. We had a grand quarter.

My next point was at Clow. Bro. T. Thompson is a young man, and the people love him. He is doing good work in repairing the churches on the circuit.

My next point at Hope and Washington. Bro. W. H. Moore deserved the work. I supplied it by giving it to Bro. M. H. Foster, in connection with the Gordon work. Bro. Foster had been sick and had not been able to do anything.

My next point was at Hot Springs. Bro. W. O. Emory is in the hearts of his people, and is doing a good work. A grand quarter here. I was sick, so that I could not work while here.

My next point was at Texarkana, Ark. We have two charges. Bros. Calvin and Babers were appointed here. I found all the Methodist churches had united against sin and for the salvation of sinners. All the churches were enjoying a season of revival. Both churches on the Arkansas side had been greatly blessed.

My next point was at Lewisville. Bro. McDonald, a transfer from Louisiana, was having some success. He has the deeds for a lot in New Lewisville and will build there this year. I had a man for Canfield, but he failed to go there, and I gave Bro. D. McDonald charge of that also.

My next point was at Magnolia. Bro. C. W. Thompson had a set back, but he was pulling things through all right. Bro. Thompson is in the confidence of all the people.

At Camden we have no work organized. Bro. J. M. Airhart is here. On the account of sickness he was delayed in getting to his charge, but has rented a hall and is holding services. If we can keep him here a while we will succeed. At Camden the people want our church. Bro. Airhart is trying to purchase a lot for a church. We want to find 100 friends who will give us $1 each to help us buy a lot.

My next point was at Fulton. Bro. A. Spears, a transfer from the Louisiana conference was appointed. Bro. Spears is a good man and the people love him, and will do a grand work. Bro. Spears thinks of having the district conference at Fulton.

The Texarkana district conference convenes the 27th of August at Fulton, Ark.

P. R. Woodson, Murfreesboro, Tenn., and G. C. Harden, Nolenville, Tenn. The Local Preachers' Theological Institute of the Nashville district, Tennessee conference, convened in Scott chapel, M. E. Church, at Shelbyville, Tenn., April 29th, with Rev. J. P. Price, president; Rev. G. C. Harden, secretary; W. Ellison, assistant.

Many of the pastors and local preachers were present. The session was quite a success.

Holly Springs District Conference.

B. F. WOOLFOLK.

The first district conference of the Holly Springs district, Upper Mississippi conference, convened in Sewell's chapel, M. E. church, at 9 o'clock a. m., at Oxford, Miss., June 5, Rev. H. R. Revels, D. D., presiding. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. J. C. Coggin with great power.

The Presiding Elder's report showed the district to be in a prosperous condition. All of the different enterprises of the church are being looked after, especially the SOUTHWESTERN. The well prepared reports from pastors showed an increase of 278 members, probationers 185, and benevolent money $135. The local preachers, exhorters, class leaders, S. S. superintendents, and stewards' reports show success on all lines. J. A. Slate, C. Weatherow and W. A. Dawson were licensed to preach. Rev. C. W. Whitehead preached an acceptable sermon.

Messrs. T. A. Green, of Rust University, and H. C. Walton addressed the Sabbath school. Love feast was conducted by Revs. J. W. Parks and L. C. McClellan.

At 11 a. m. edifying sermons were preached by Revs. C. W. Butler, D. P. Shaw and J. W. Parks. Collections during the conference, $60. Resolutions of thanks were adopted to the good people of Oxford for their hospitality.

A resolution was passed requesting each pastor to pay $2 for the Presiding Elder's traveling expenses to the Presiding Elder's Convention that met in Chattanooga, Tenn., June 23. Vaiden circuit was chosen for the seat of the next district conference. Monday night Rev. S. D. Troup preached the closing sermon.

Gainesville district S. S. convention met at Harmony Grove, Ga., May 29, Rev. M. M. Alston, P. E., in the chair. Thomas Riggins, Sunday school superintendent from Seneca, S. C., was introduced and made an instructive address. The convention was in every way a success. All reports showed improvement on all lines. Our young people were instructed to read books, papers, and especially the SOUTHWESTERN. Saturday evening was devoted to children. The Sunday school was ably addressed by M. M. Alston and others. One of the young ladies in our Sunday school procession was unfortunately struck on the back of her head by lightning. Rev. E. Kirby deserves much credit for the way he provided for the comforts of the delegates. Collection, $45. M. M. Alston, president; E. Kirby, vice president; P. H. Travis, secretary and treasurer.

Letters from the Pastors.

SPECIAL TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Please take notice, 1st. That all anonymous letters go directly to our waste basket; 2d. Letters must be written on only one side of the paper; 3d. No frivolous questions will be noticed; 4th. Abbreviations should not be used; 5th. Notes and items must be condensed so as to insure brevity; 6th. We return no manuscript.

C. T. Roberts, Troup Factory, Ga.

Our second quarterly conference was held May 9, 10, and was a great success spiritually and financially. As the Presiding Elder, Rev. E. L. Hammett, could not be present, the Rev. V. D. Jenkins, of Greenville, presided. The reports showed marvelous progress on all lines. Paid the pastor this quarter, $73; Presiding Elder, $17.90; education, $7.78. Rev. Jenkins preached two able sermons and assisted the pastor in administering the sacrament to 150 persons. We have one of the largest and best Sunday schools in the district.

F. Frazier, Sandy Creek, Ala.

My first quarterly conference was held at Plyan Hill May 16, 17, with Rev. W. F. Smith in the chair. We had a lovely time. The Elder preached an able sermon on Sunday, and administered the Lord's Supper to 65. Collection, $7.60.

J. C. Owens, Marshall, Tex.

Our quarterly conference was held May 16. We had a grand time. Elder Hamilton preached a soul-reviving sermon on Sunday. Five joined the church and many came forward for prayer. The Lord's Supper was administered to 50.

W. S. Leake, Shuqualak, Miss.

Our second quarterly conference convened May 16, 17, with Rev. W. McDonald in the chair. Reports showed general prosperity. Paid Presiding Elder, $16.10; pastor, $72.65. Received 33 persons in full membership. The Elder preached one of his soul-stirring sermons. The Lord's Supper was administered to 125 persons.

A. M. Mason, Oakland, Texas.

My first quarterly conference was held April 11, by Presiding Elder C. L. Madison. He preached two soul-stirring sermons. Also, Rev. E. Cogswell, one of the former pastors, preached a fine sermon in the evening to a crowded house. One hundred and thirty-nine partook of the sacrament. Collection, $22.75. Easter was a big day for Oakland and Brown Chapel. Collection, $8.55.

A. Quinn, Derola, Miss.

Bro. Smith and A. B. Critin gave a pond party at Silver Springs. We had a grand time. One hundred and fifty pounds were given.

J. A. Tircuit, Jackson, La.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 13 and 14 by Rev. J. F. Marshall, P. E. The classes reported $42.50 collected this quarter, as against $22.05 the first quarter. Stewards' report showed $133.20 collected for all purposes. The conference was a grand one, showing vast improvement and unprecedented success in every line of church work.

The several committees reported all monies for conference purposes raised.

My advice to the brethren is, never defer this important question till the last of the year, as then there are so very many disadvantages against which to labor. It is always better to raise every assessment on or before the second quarter.

We have built a new fence in front of the church and parsonage, repaired the side and back fences, built a flue in the church and are now planning for general improvement.

The church and Sunday school are alive and are marching Zionward. However, a visit from our Sunday school agent would greatly stir up the latter institution. Come, brother, our Sunday school wishes to see you.

Brother Marshall is very acceptable to these people, and they always look with much joy to the time of his coming. His sermons are always instructive, edifying and full of good things to believers and full of uncomfortable dynamites to church drones and the unregenerate.

May God multiply the Marshalls a hundredfold.

At our rally, May 10th, we raised $76.20.

William Perry, New Berne, Ala.

Our second quarterly conference convened at Walthal, circuit May 16 and 17, with Rev. H. N. Brown, our beloved Presiding Elder, in the chair. The conference was a lovely one. The SOUTHWESTERN was brought before the conference and a good many promised to take it.

Sunday was a lovely day with us. We enjoyed two noble sermons from our Presiding Elder—at 11

a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. Raised for Presiding Elder $20; for pastor $49.75. Total amount raised this quarter for all causes $75.19.

There were seventy-five communicants at the Lord's table. Eight children were baptized.

Tenola Edwards, Sloan Street, Houston. Presiding Elder Scott, D. D., held our second quarter March 9 and 10. Reports showed the work in growing condition. Some improvement has been made on the church. His sermon on getting gold left a lasting impression on the minds of the people. Forty-four communed at the Lord's table. Twenty-nine have been added to the church this quarter. Collections this quarter: For pastor, $53.25; Presiding Elder, $9.30; benevolence, $40.30.

L. J. S. Bell, Edwards, Miss.

We had a grand rally on May the 10th to raise money to remodel our church. It was a success. We raised $126.35.

John Qualls, Pine Bluff, Ark.

Our first quarterly conference convened in St. James M. E. Church May 9th and 10th. Rev. G. W. Lacy, Presiding Elder, in the chair. Rev. A. J. Phillips, Presiding Elder of the Texarkana district, being in our conference, was cordially invited by Rev. G. W. Lacy to preside. His ability to preside is grand, and the work was carried out with pleasure. We have raised during this quarter $337.75. The Presiding Elder gave a short talk concerning our paper and its editor, but he found the writer working along this line. Sunday was a grand rally day, beginning with a love feast and ending with sacrament.

F. L. Teague, P. C., Marion County, Ala.

Our second quarterly conference was held May 9 and 10. It was a success. One hundred and four communed; 34 conversions. The church is spiritually alive. Paid Presiding Elder $28.50. We want to raise for all benevolences, this year, $100. Pray for us.

WHEN I began using Ely's Cream Balm my catarrh was so bad I had headache the whole time and discharged a large amount of filthy matter. That has almost entirely disappeared and I have not had headache since.—J. H. Sommers, Stephney, Conn.

Books and Current Literature.

Ritualism and Dogmatic Theology. A series of essays on the causes of declension in the Society of Friends, by Thos. H. Spearman, is before us. While ostensibly published in the interest of the Society of Friends, the essays will be read with profit and interest by any one reading them. Philadelphia, Friends Book Association, Southwest corner 15th and Race streets.

Rev. J. B. Middleton, the popular secretary of the South Carolina conference, has kindly furnished us with copies of the minutes of the last session of his conference, for which we return thanks. It is quite neatly gotten up.

The address of the representatives of the Religious Society of Friends to their fellow-citizens in behalf of the Indians, is just such a document as might have been expected from that source. It pleads for justice in their behalf from the American people. Friends Book Store, 304 Arch street, Philadelphia.

The Eighth Annual Report of the Executive Committee of the Indian Rights Association shows that there are humanitarians in this country who are still interested in this neglected and cruelly wronged people. A careful reading of this report would make many converts to the cause of that unfortunate and much abused people. Philadelphia, Indian Rights Association, 1305 Arch street.

The Miracle of the Nineteenth Century, Do Missions Pay? by B. R. Cowen, furnishes the very kind of argument necessary to a forcible presentation of the cause of missions. Send for a copy. Price, 15 cents. Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe, New York: Hunt & Eaton.

DR. Kynett, wants a political party to suppress the saloon. There is no doubt that the saloon is the greatest curse of our civilization, and should be suppressed. Our faith and fervent hope is that God will raise up a party that will finally destroy it.

NOTWITHSTANDING the efforts of our minister to Chili, to reconcile the belligerents in that country, the civil war between the Congressional, and President Balmaceda's party continue. The terribly destructive war continues with no indications as to its termination.

WE have received a number of very emphatic protests against the proposed convention of presbyters in charge of the Louisiana Conference, to meet at Baton Rouge next week. It is urged that the call is inspired by a spirit of insubordination and rebellion to the Discipline and the constituted authorities of the Church, and should not be attended by any loyal minister in the Louisiana Conference. Better be careful, brethren, and follow the Discipline, for the cure of every and all grievances.

HAVE you ordered extra copies of our Jubilee number of the SOUTHWESTERN to be published next month? Only a few days remain wherein you can order. We ought to get 20,000 copies of that very valuable issue out among our people. The smallest charge ought to order at least a dozen or more copies. In no way can a quarter, half a dollar or a dollar be more profitably spent. Rally brethren; rally. The paper is not Dr. Albert's, but yours.

BISHOP Merrill's article on the secular press and the church, in the Northwestern of June 24 shows the reckless presumption with which the editors of the secular press discuss current theological and ecclesiastical controversies of which they are so often unpardonably ignorant. They pronounce their verdicts upon the action of the church, upon given cases of heresies or ecclesiastical discipline as if they were inferring oracles, when they know absolutely nothing of the principles involved. The article is timely, and demolishes the presumptuous assumption.

THE magnificent statue of Henry Ward Beecher recently unveiled in Brooklyn, N. Y., is pronounced to be a master piece. Accessory figures which serve to give expression to Mr. Beecher's pre-eminent character, are those of a Negro slave girl, reaching up palm leaves to him, and children with their tributary wreaths. It was in the feeling for the slave that animated so much of what may be called his political career, and in the love of little children that abode with him all his life long, that these sympathies were most conspicuously shown.

Our Colored Membership and the "New Bishops."

Whenever reference is made to the election of a man of African descent to the episcopacy in the Methodist Episcopal Church, there are persons who are ever apprehensive of some terrible consequences.

With full knowledge of everything involved in the premises, we desire here and now to warrant all whom it may concern that the colored members of the Methodist Episcopal Church are as instinctively and perfectly loyal to the church as the day is long, and that all fears in this connection are absolutely groundless, in so far as our people are concerned.

It may be that there are some people in our church who, if a colored man were elected to that office, whether thoroughly qualified or not, would scatter out of the church, "as rats from a sinking ship." But our people, thank God, haven't that kind of religion, neither is their loyalty and devotion to our Methodism based upon the election or non-election of a man of this or that race to the episcopacy. They are in the old church because they believe in her doctrines and polity, in her cosmopolitan and universal character, in her history and traditions, and for her very work's sake. They believe in her because she is the church of Bishops Simpson, Wiley, Haven and Mallalien; of Doctors Rust, Hatfield, Ried and Braden, and the host of humanitarians and patriots, men and women, whose devotion to the cause of Christ, justice and human rights will emblazon their names and memory among the best men and women of all the ages. They love and believe in her for what she has and is doing for them, and for her mission in the elevation and unity of our triune humanity. They believe in her for the prophecy of what she will yet do for them in the future. This faith is immovably grounded upon her faithfulness to them, and in the life and sacrifices of many of her choicest exponents, whose blood drenched our Southern soil, and whose scattered dust sleeps under our Southern skies.

They know, too, that in such an extensive organization there are men and women whose prejudiced souls look upon the devotion of the old church to them with indifference, and in some quarters with a spirit of dormant or active antagonism; but they know that these do not represent the heart, but rather the effete accumulation that hang on to the grand old church. They are the historical successors of the mixed multitude that followed Israel out of Egypt, but who were not Israelites indeed. They are of the number that sympathized with the secessionists of 1844, but were not sufficiently manly to have joined them. They belong to the race of Northern copperheads that sympathized with the South in the rebellion, and declared the war a failure, but were too cowardly to openly favor secession, and to take the field and fight for it.

The greatest danger is that this class in our church may hinder and retard some of her best intentions and purposes toward our people, as their predecessors, the mixed multitude caused Israel to sin, and thereby delayed their entrance into the goodly land, and the copperheads who protracted the war. But salvation and victory, although considerably delayed by such influences, finally came to Israel and to the Union. So in the mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church toward this and every question, involving the recognition of human equality and fraternity, she may be delayed in the accomplishment of her divine world-wide mission, but she cannot, and the faith of the million and a half of our colored members and adherents is that she will not be permanently hindered. This, we repeat, as we said in an editorial on this same subject some weeks ago, "is the rock on which we immovably stand;" and what is more to the point, our people intend to stay in the old church until they come to the full realization of their faith. They intend to stay there until the last member of the mixed multitude and copperheads is either swung into line or crushed under the wheels of the car of progress.

There is absolutely no room for fear touching the attitude of our people in connection with the subject of the election of a colored bishop, in so far as they are concerned, from any quarters.

Dr. Potts, in the Michigan Christian Advocate, says:

"If we could be assured that our colored brethren really had the 'material,' we would heartily advocate its utilization. But we are not so assured. If a colored man is elected bishop at all it should be on account of his manhood, scholarship and other accomplishments, and not on account of the accident to his skin."

This is exactly where our people stand. They would rather wait the next quarter of a century for the "proper material" than to have a makeshift of a bishop of their race. They do not want one that would "do pretty well for a colored man," but one who, in his manhood, scholarship and other accomplishments, would be the peer of any other bishop on the bench. Again the Doctor says:

"Dr. Albert should make haste very slowly in creating any expectation along this line."

Dr. Albert has not, and is not "creating any expectation along this line," slowly nor otherwise.

Whatever expectation has been created "along this line," has been created by our General Conference secretaries, bishops, and other representatives that have been visiting our annual conferences during the past twenty-seven years. They have been telling our people, all these years, that whenever the race, in our church, could present such a well rounded man, as we have just described, that his merit would not be overlooked, and that they would not need fear that his color would serve as a bar to his selection as a bishop.

Our people entertain no "expectation along this line," neither is Dr. Albert creating such expectation that is not qualified by the conditions above set forth.

We thoroughly agree with Dr. Potts that, "to elect a Negro to this high office simply to gratify race clamor," without the necessary qualifications, "would be supreme folly."

We disagree with him, however, when he says that, "the suggestion, the nomination and the responsible share of the election should come from the white race." It is true, that the less one has to do with a man the more he knows of him, then Dr. Potts would be right; but because exactly the reverse is true, he is a very unwise guide when he gives it as his philosophy that, "the suggestion, the nomination and the responsible share of the election of a colored bishop should come from the white race." This is equal to saying that to secure the best possible delegation in the next General Conference, from the Detroit Conference, is to request the Louisiana Conference to suggest, nominate and elect the delegation. That idea, if not grounded in race prejudice, is illogical and perfectly absurd.

That the Doctor entertains "no prepossession in favor" of the election of a colored bishop, is not at all surprising to our readers. They will rejoice to learn, however, that he believes that, "it will come when our brethren in black develop the man. And it ought not to come one hour before." Neither do our people expect or desire it an hour before. The difference between Dr. Potts, and men who believe like him, and our people, is that our people believe all the Fred Douglasses, Brnces, Lynches, Greeners, Strakers, Langstons, etc., are not in politics, and law, but that some of them, doubtless, have developed in the church during the last quarter of a century or more. With this faith, they ask that in the election of bishops, at the next General Conference, that such material, if anywhere to be found in the church, as they believe it can be found, should not be overlooked. This they ask in consideration of their number, loyalty and devotion to the church; and because of the "expectation along this line" that has been created by our bishops and others, when the proper material might be found. If the material really has not developed, no one need be apprehensive; for our people are thoroughly loyal and devoted, and will remain so until the material does develop, and makes itself evident to the most obtuse, but unprejudiced observer. We are free to say in this connection that we know of no one in the ranks of our colored ministry that is actuated by any selfish motives in this matter. They are actuated entirely by the overwhelming power for good which such a consummation would enable them to accomplish among the millions of our people whom we cannot now reach, but who could then be readily reached. We warn the Protestant churches against the insidious invasions of infidelity, ruin and Rome among the colored people; and we plead with them to bury all their prejudices, "prepossessions, etc." against that people, which prevent them in any wise from sheltering all of them under the aegis of our holy religion!

They should remember too, that the Negro is a man, with all the aspirations and possibilities common to human nature, and is susceptible to all the influences that control human actions. To imagine the contrary is to gratuitously assume that the Negro is a machine, a thing, and not a man.

Not as Inconsistent as You Thought.

The Crusader charges us with inconsistency, in that it says that we condemn the color line in other people, while we supported a call for, and attended "A conference of colored presiding elders of the M. E. Church at Chattanooga." Our confere is in error. We advocated no such a call and attended no such a conference. What we did was to advocate and attend the convention of the Presiding Elders (white and colored) of the colored conferences of the M. E. Church. The conference was composed of at least a half-dozen or more white men. The Methodist Episcopal Church is a cosmopolitan and world-wide organization. In its folds are people of all races, tongues and nationalities. It is fashioned after our American Union, E Pluribus Unum. We have our German, French, Italian, Swedish, Indian, Chinese, Japanese, Colored and other Annual Conferences and missions, just as we have our Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies in contradistinction to the other general societies of the church. But all these are equal, united and inseparable in our federal autonomy. These local divisions exist by the voluntary action of those concerned, to meet local needs. The German, French, Italian, Swede, Indian, Chinese, and Japanese when available prefer pastors of their own kith and kin. The colored people are no exception. They have white missionaries among them, who labor in different capacities. They help proper pastors and leaders for the people among whom they labor. When these are prepared for the work, they fill the places formerly filled by such missionaries. To meet the demands in the annual appointment of pastors, it becomes necessary to segregate into such conferences the men who are to supply the pulpits of those conferences. Only that, and nothing more. We have Annual Conferences of each of the several races and languages, whenever and wherever their number warrants the establishment of such distinctive conferences, to meet the conditions to which we have here referred. This serves to facilitate the "transfer system" among us.

We have isolated colored churches and pastors in a number of the white conferences, which would be greatly inconvenienced if they were in conferences from which they might get pastors of their own preference, without having to have them transferred from distant conferences. The recent Chattanooga convention was not a colored convention, but a convention of all the Presiding Elders, white and colored, engaged in this special work. Our work is divided into many sections, but it forms only one comprehensive whole, every part of which is equal.

The several departments of our work have conditions surrounding them which are peculiar to them; hence the propriety of calling the men engaged in any one of them to discuss those conditions as is often done. When our humanity shall have grown in grace to the degree where race, and national instinct no longer influence preferences for pastor's of its own over that of another race, and when "blood" ceases to be "thicker than water," there will no longer be any necessity for German, French, Italian, Swede, Indian, Chinese, Japanese and Colored Annual Conferences, just as there is now no necessity for separate General Conferences among us. Our Annual Conferences are to the General Conference, what the states are to the National Government with a capital N.

Mob Law in Terrebonne.

A reign of terror is reported from Beattieville, near Terrebonne Station, or Gibson, in the parish of Terrebonne. An eye witness says: "All our hopes for this place have been blighted. July 2 was a day of horror and massacre. About three weeks ago a colored man by the name of Charles Campbell was whipped nearly to death, at about midnight, by twenty-five men. This caused other colored men to prepare to protect themselves in their homes. Some of the planters had Campbell to make a charge against the men that whipped him. They were taken to Houma, the parish seat, and given the form of a trial and turned loose. As soon as the judge dismissed the court, they commenced whipping, beating and shooting the colored men who were in any way connected with the case, and many others. They whipped them all along the road from Houma to Beattieville, nine miles. About 4 o'clock in the evening, some forty or fifty white men, armed with rifles, shot guns, bull whips and clubs, ransacked and searched every house, and clubbed and horse-whipped every colored man they caught, and shot at some. This was an awful scene. It was pitiful indeed to see our poor women and children. Mr. Willis Smith and Mr. Cozen, colored justice of the peace and constable, were both made to resign their offices. The people are all leaving here. Such is our condition."

Only a few days before, the same kind of treatment was visited upon colored citizens of Lafayette. A week or two before, a colored man was actually roasted alive at the stake, in North Louisiana. All this, and much more of the same kind of outrages, are almost daily visited upon colored citizens of this State, and nothing, absolutely nothing is said or done by the authorities or the good people of this State to bring the guilty parties to justice. Is it possible that such things are to continue indefinitely, without anything being said or done from any quarter to put down such blood-curdling inhumanities? Has the Nation lost its conscience, its sense of sympathy and justice? Have we run out of the seeds of Garrisons, Wendell Phillips, Calvin Fairbanks, Gerritt Smiths, Lucretia Mott, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Charles Sumners, John Brown, Benj. F. Butlers, and the race of humanitarians who used to plead for justice to the despised races in America? Where is Gov.

Nicholls, President Harrison and his diplomatic Secretary of State and other advisers? Are we a nation of blood-thirsty, pale-faced savages, or a civilized and christian people? We are ready for a revolution to defeat the Lottery, but we can look on with perfect indifference the whipping, massacre, and roasting alive of our fellow-citizens, whose blood was spilled to save this nation. What hypocrites! Straining at gnats and swallowing camels!

Special to Teachers?

In accordance with the notice which appeared in the SOUTHWESTERN some weeks ago, a number of teachers have written us for the important information we desired to impart to them, but many have thus far failed to do so. Again we would urge every teacher reading this paper, to send his address to the editor of this paper at once; and he will learn something greatly to his advantage. Only a few more weeks remain, wherein you may answer this request to your advantage. Address Rev. A. E. P. Albert, D.D., 139 Poydras street, New Orleans, La.

AMONG the ministers attending the Presiding Elder's Convention whose names we inadvertently omitted were those of Presiding Elder A. Phillips, Tennessee Conference; and Rev. T. C. Warner and W. W. Hooper, D.D., of Chattanooga.

Political Review.

The President has gone to Cape May to spend his vacation.

Among appointments made by the President, is that of Henry Kearnegan, of Mississippi, to be register of the land office at Jackson, Miss.

Many of the best element among Pennsylvania Republicans demand the retirement of Mr. Quay from the chairmanship of the National Republican Committee. The New York Press demands it in the interest of the party.

The Republican State Convention in Iowa last week was the most enthusiastic, and the party so thoroughly united as it has not been in many years. The following were nominated: for Governor, Hon. Hiram C. Wheeler; Lieutenant-Governor, Geo. Van Houten, who is a Farmers' Alliance man; Supreme Judge, S. M. Weaver; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Henry Sabin; railroad commissioner, Frank T. Campbell. The platform indorses the McKinley tariff law in the warmest terms, and particularly commends the reciprocity provisions, and its interpretation and observation by President Harrison and Secretary of State Blaine. Liberal pensions to disabled soldiers and their widows are urged. The prohibition plank of the platform of last year is reaffirmed, and the Democratic party and Democratic officials are arraigned for conspiring with the law-breaking element for the violation and non-observance of the prohibitory law.

The Democrats of Iowa have renominated Governor Boies on a platform declaring for free silver, a revenue tariff, government control of railroads, and repeal of prohibition.

The Democratic state Executive Committee of Mississippi will meet in Jackson next Saturday.

The Legislature of Maine has submitted to the people of that state an amendment to the Constitution providing that no one shall be allowed to vote or hold office who cannot read the Constitution in English and write his name.

The report that the colored Republicans of the South are opposed to the renomination of President Harrison and in favor of Mr. Blaine, is the silliest bosh. Outside of a few political soreheads, we do not know of a dozen Negroes in a dozen states that desire the nomination of Mr. Blaine. They do not particularly worship at that shrine.

DAILY BREAD.

Thou on the Lord rely,
So, safe shalt thou go on;
Fix on His work thy steadfast eye.
So shall thy work be done.
No profit canst thou gain
By self-consuming care;
To Him commend thy cause; His ear Attends the softest prayer.
—Tr. by John Wesley.

Your concern is with the present moment; your business is to live to-day. In every sense let to-morrow take thoughts for the things of itself.—John Wesley.

My brother and I set out on two principles: (1) None go to heaven without holiness of heart and life; (2) whoever follows after this, whatever his opinions may be, is my brother; and we have not swerved a hair-breadth from either the one or the other to this day.—John Wesley.

Tempted you are, and will be; otherwise, you could not know your own weakness and the strength of your Master. But all temptations will "work together for good," all are for your profit that you may be partakers of his holiness.—John Wesley.

There is danger of every believer mistaking the voice of the enemy, or of their own imagination for the voice of God. And you can only distinguish the one from the other, not by any written rule, but by the motion of the Holy One.—John Wesley.

You will have no reward in heaven for what you lay up; you will for what you lay out; every pound you put into the earthly bank is sunk; it brings no interest above. But every pound you give to the poor you put into the bank of heaven. And it will bring glorious interest.—John Wesley.

It is certain every promise has a condition; yet that does not make the promise of more effect; but by the promise you are encouraged to fulfill its condition. You might like it better were there no condition; but that would not answer the design of him that makes it.—John Wesley.

Whatever you do, make it short. Some man's dying boast was, "I've done many a wrong thing, but I never did a long thing."

If you are going to buy anything, find out what you want, and buy it. Do not haggle. Make it short.

Write short. If you must rush into print, cultivate the laconic style.

Sing short. Ten verses have asphyxiated many a congregation. Pray short. Don't pray for anything but what you want. Nobody really ever wanted more than two or three things at one time. When you get through with these, stop. Upon the tombstone of many a once prosperous prayer meeting might be written the epitaph: "Killed by long prayers."

Speak short. In the class meeting, the Epworth League, or any testimony meeting, say a few words that are real. Whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil. These are no places for ancient history.—Selected.

When one reaches a point in christian life where he thinks it safe for him to neglect the means of grace, it is almost certain that he has but little grace to cultivate. Such persons, however, often think themselves most amply furnished with grace. There are some who say that the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, the prayer-meeting, and the preaching of the Gospel are outward forms which they no longer need. An old story is told of a sea captain who left a man at the helm while he went below to sleep. "You see that star?" said the captain to the helmsman; "steer for that star till I return." The captain had not slept an hour when the helmsman called him saying: "Come up and give me another star." "Steer by the star I give you," replied the captain.

"O, I have passed that long ago, and left it far in the rear," was the confident response. The ignorant helmsman had gone so far out of his way that his vessel was turned completely around, and the star which had been before was now far in the rear. Many christians who imagine that they have left behind them the means of grace which God appointed for our spiritual improvement have only gone out of the way. And in some cases turned completely around.—Selected.

He was such a little fellow that when he wanted to see the basket of fine, ripe pears which mama had left on the table, he had to bring his little stool and climb upon it to reach high enough.

O my! how nice they did look! And what a delicious smell! They must taste very good; how could he help taking one? Surely it would not be missed, the basket was so full; and nobody was by to see if he did it, so what was to hinder.

For a moment, Teddy almost put his hand upon the nicest one in the lot. But I am glad to say the little hand was drawn away, and the bright-eyed little man said firmly, "No, I won't! Mama told me not to touch them, and I won't do it. I promised her I wouldn't; and if I do it would be telling a story. No, Mister Pear, you must stay right there in the basket, and I'll run away for fear I might do it if I looked too long."

Down hopped Teddy, and off he went. Mama smiled to find him busy with his red horse-lines when she came back, and found the fruit undisturbed.

I think Teddy was a brave little boy, even if he did run away from temptation. It is braver to run than to stay sometimes, and Teddy was a better boy for having gained that small victory over his appetite.—Selected.

Hymns 304, 350, 393.
Scripture Lesson, Hebrews 2.
Text, Matt. 6:33. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Introduction.—These words of the text were taken from the Lord's sermon on the mount.

This sermon was the most wonderful sermon that was ever preached.

This sermon shows that Jesus spoke as never any other man had spoken.

It contains all necessary instruction for a perfect christian life.

It all men would observe the teachings of this sermon the world would be filled with joy and gladness, and all hearts and homes would be happy and full of peace.

I. The text corrects a universal mistake.

Men generally seek for earthly and temporal things before they seek Christ and his great salvation.

(a) Multitudes seek first of all for pleasure, in amusements, in sinful indulgence.

(b) Multitudes seek for earthly honors—the praise of men. They are very anxious that everybody may speak well of them; They want to be put into some official position.

They are very unhappy if they fail to secure these things.

(c) Multitudes seek for wealth. They work day and night and wear themselves out trying to be rich.

They resort to unlawful means to secure money—stealing, gambling, buying lottery tickets, refusing to pay honest debts, mean stinginess. But they take no comfort in money thus obtained.

II. It is the highest wisdom to seek for the most important things first.

(a) There is only a little while to do this for life is very short, and if we fail of getting the greatest good in this life it is lost forever.

(b) There are many things in this world we do not need at all. If we spend time in seeking them and miss the great thing we can never repair our loss.

(c) In all worldly affairs we always attend to the most important things first, why should we not in eternal things? Why not treat our souls as well as we do our bodies? III. If we seek God and his righteousness all earthly blessing will be added.

(a) This does not mean that all who thus seek will be rich. Great riches might be the ruin of our souls.

(b) Nor live in palaces. Some of the most unhappy people in the world live in palaces. Some of the happiest people live in very humble homes.

(c) Nor be clothed in purple and fine linen. Dives was thus clothed and when he died he went to hell, but Lazarus who was clothed in rags went to heaven. Fine clothes do not satisfy the needs of the soul.

(d) But it does mean that in some way God will care for his own children.

It means that what he does for them will be for the best. Poverty may be the best for some, and the only way God has of weaning them from this world. Sickness and pain may be made great spiritual blessings.

Some practical lessons.
(a) It may be that in seeking God we may be called to endure pain and persecution.

(b) Whatever we lose in this world God will have all eternity to make it up to us again.

(c) It is of the greatest importance that all young people make the wise choice and seek God to day.

(d) If we fail or neglect to seek God, no matter what we gain of this earth, when death comes we shall be stripped of all earthly things and we shall be lost and wretched forever. We must be driven away from heaven and banished with the rich man to hell.

Obituary.

Darrow, La.—June 18, Sister Henney Corniat, aged 52, was struck by lightning, returning to her home after visiting her mother, and was found dead at the gate. She was a faithful member of the Hope M. E. Church. She had joined the M. E. Church in her early days. We hope to meet her again. She leaves a mother, three sons and one daughter to mourn her loss.

Also, June 20, Mr. George Cohen departed this life, aged 75. He leaves a wife, two sons and one daughter to mourn his loss.

June 5, Little Redix, the son of Bro. Jos. Redix.
Alfred Vincent, P. C.

Hazen, Ark.—Sister Emma J. Nelson, wife of Rev. D. W. Nelson, passed from labor to reward, May 21. She was a faithful member of the M. E. Church for eleven years and was a great helpmate to her husband. She was of that noble christian family, Jacob McDonald, of Lynchburg, South Carolina, and the second daughter of Rev. John Morris McDonald. Age, 26 years, 8 months and 3 days. Her last words were, "Tell all of my people to meet me in heaven, for I am going home to die no more." She said to her husband, "Husband, the Lord has blessed us by keeping us together nine years. Now he is going to take me home to rest, in that bright world above where we shall meet to part no more. Her death was a translation to mansions in the skies. She leaves a husband, three little children, a mother, other relatives, and a host of friends to mourn her loss. Rev. W.

McIntosh attended the funeral services. Rachel Owen.

Spring Hill, Tenn.—The resolutions of condolence concerning the death of Rev. J. Thompson, which appeared some weeks ago, were written from Spring Hill, Tenn. Respectfully, J. W. STEPHENSON.

Aberfoil, Ala.—Sister Candies Homfres departed this life June 13. She joined the church in 1874, and lived a faithful Christian until death. She leaves a husband, five children and a host of friends to mourn her loss.
J. B. Webb, P. C.

Fleming Chapel, Tensas, Ala.—Sister Cathan Wetherford died June 14. She was a faithful member of the M. E. Church. She leaves a husband, three children, a mother, other relatives, and a host of friends to mourn her loss. Our loss is heaven's gain.

Sister Sallie Williams, a faithful member of the M. E. Church, was drowned April 19; also, little Laura and little Judie Wetherford.
A. C. Carter, P. C.

Willis, Tex.—June 25, the little son of Bro. Nick Lewis, member of the M. E. Church here, was drowned in a tank while bathing. Johnnie was a lively member of the Sunday school and a good boy. Age, 13 years.

Sister Margaret Tolbert died suddenly at her home. She was a member of the Church for several years.
C. G. Curtis, P. C.

Jeannerette, La.—The church mourns the loss of Bro. Geaster Feast. He died June 8, in full triumph of faith. He leaves a wife and three children.
M. J. Dyer, P. C.

Lewisburg, Tenn.—Sister Lee Patterson's infant died April 7.
Anna Atkins, April 27.

Frances Jenkins, May 10.
George Jenkins, May 26.
Jane Neil, June 17.

These all died in full triumph of faith, showing that it is worth more than all the world to live for Christ, that we may have Him with us in death and eternity.
C. E. Alexander, P. C.

Clinton, La.—June 20, Sister Mary Matthew, after eight months' illness, died in full triumph of faith. She was a probationer of Macedonia M. E. Church. Her last words were, that she was only waiting for the hour to come, for she had made her peace with God. She asked her husband to meet her in heaven. She leaves her husband and a host of friends to mourn her loss. Age, 58 years.
D. M. Seals, P. C.

Oak Forest, Ark.—Rev. W. H. Higgins, pastor, and wife, are left to mourn the death of their babe, born Sept. 7, 1890, died June 15, 1891.
G. F. Scruggs.

The brother of the writer departed this life in the 24th year of his age, in Magnolia, S. C., June 14, after three months' illness. He bore his affliction with patience. He was converted one year ago, and we have every reason to believe that he is at rest with Jesus.
W. McIntosh, Little Rock, Ark.

Sister Martha Shelly, a motherly, settled woman of kindly disposition, whose health will not permit her to do anything else, is anxious to get employment as a nurse for one or more children. Her charges are very reasonable. Any one in need of such help would confer a favor by calling on or addressing her at No. 10 L'Abadie street, Third District, this city.

MUSICAL.

There seems to be little going on in musical circles of late, but there is much talk, among musical people, of the marvelous cure of Miss B., the high contralto singer, who has long suffered from a severe throat or bronchial affection, superinduced by Catarrh in the Head, and who has been perfectly cured by the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, coupled with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. For all bronchial, throat and lung affections, and lingering coughs, the "Discovery" is an unequalled remedy. When complicated with Chronic Nasal Catarrh, its use should be coupled with the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Of all druggists.

In our reference to the Penny Savings Bank, Chattanooga, Tenn., last week, our types made us refer to it as "An institution overrated by our people in Chattanooga," what was intended was an institution operated by our people there. The institution cannot be over-rated. It is a marvel of success and justly deserves the confidence of our people everywhere; and should be duplicated by our people in every city in the South. And it can be done. The plan is simple, the advantages immense and should be carefully studied and utilized.

The Penny Savings Bank is designed to meet the wants of a large class who earn money in small sums, and yet are desirous of saving such parts as they can conveniently spare.

The bank receives deposits as small as 2 cents, and gives a liberal rate of interest. Not only does it furnish a safe depository for those desirous of saving, but it affords a profitable investment to its stockholders. The capital stock of $50,000 is divided into 2,000 shares of $25 each, and the assessment upon the same is 50 cents per month per share. The Penny Savings Bank of Chattanooga is now no longer an idle project, but its existence is an assured fact.

Many of the most substantial white citizens of Chattanooga and nearly all the delegates to the Presiding Elder's Convention have signified their confidence in the bank and its excellent management by subscribing liberally to its capital stock.

M. J. W. Wright is president and H. N. Willis, cashier. Address either of these gentlemen and they will furnish you all necessary information if you desire to avail yourself of the advantages which the bank offers, or if you would profit from their experience in the organization of a similar project.

In buying Hood's Sarsaparilla, for it is everywhere recognized as the standard building-up medicine and blood purifier. It has won its way to the front by its own intrinsic merit, and has the largest sale of any preparation of its kind. Any honest druggist will confirm this statement. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy anything else instead. Be sure to get Hood's.

REV. E. W. S. Hammond, D.D., of the Lexington Conference has a strong and timely article in the Pacific Christian Advocate of June 24, in which he pleads in favor of training schools for lay deacons. Through such a movement he sees the solution of the great problem, "How to reach the masses in our great cities."

How to Make Money.

DEAR SIR:—Having read Mr. Sargent's experience in plating with gold, silver and nickel, I am tempted to write of my success. I sent H. C. Delno & Co., of Columbus, O., for a $5 plater. I have had more tableware and jewelry than I could plate ever since. I cleared $27 the first week and in three weeks $97. Any one can do plating and make money in any locality the year round. You can get circulars by addressing the above firm.

WILLIAM GRAY.

OUR people at Jackson, Miss., entered their beautiful new brick church last Sunday, with shouting and great joy. It is valued at $10,000, and is completed in the most approved modern style of church architecture. It is a credit to our people and to the capital city of the great State of Mississippi. The first subscription to ward the erection of this splendid edifice was collected less than a year ago. To the indomitable courage and progressive spirit of the Rev. A. M. Trotter, pastor, and his faithful officers, the success of this enterprise is largely due. Because they were deserving, they enjoyed the co-operation and help of all classes of the citizens of that city. The pastor preached the first sermon at 11 a. m., Dr. Albert, of the SOUTHWESTERN, the entrance sermon at 3 p. m., and Rev. J. C. Hibbler at night. Fully a thousand people packed in and about the church at 3 p. m. Among many of the first citizens of both races that were present, were the Rev. Dr. Hunter, of the Presbyterian Church, who was accompanied by many of his members; Col. W. L. Nugent, a prominent lawyer; Major R. W. Milsap, benefactor of Milsap College; Col. J. L. Powers, proprietor Clarion Ledger; Judge Horton, Messrs. J. J. Spellman and H. McLeod of Jackson, Postmaster James Hill of Vicksburg, and others. The music was most charming. Miss Sallie N. Rother, of the State Normal School, at Holly Springs, presided at the organ. Collection, $230.

It is important to trustees and building committees that we should say, "Do not fail to consult Mr. Frink before you decide on the question of lighting your church." Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the sympathetic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

The Physical Effects of Alcohol

Alcohol is found in both fermented and distilled liquors. Ale, beer and porter contain from 2 to 10 per cent, wine from 8 to 25 per cent, whiskey, brandy, gin and rum, about 50 per cent.

The use of alcohol as a medicine, has in past years been excessive, and its effects on patients often disastrous. A much smaller quantity than formerly is now employed, and many physicians entirely dispense with its use.

We shall now speak of its use as a beverage. The healthy man has no occasion to use it, the moderate drinker is injured by it, while those who partake of large quantities are hurried to premature graves. It is not required by arctic explorers nor by equatorial travelers. Stanley says, "No drunkard can live in Africa."

The following maladies have been attributed to the direct or indirect effects of alcohol: Gout, rheumatism, heart disease, dyspepsia, disease of kidneys, dropsy, obesity, disease of the liver, apoplexy, degeneration of the muscles, tremors, ulcers, insanity, palsy, jaundice, epilepsy, consumption, melancholy, cancer, amaurorism, paralysis, hysterics, convulsions, gas tritis, enteritis, ophthalmia, carbuncle, boils, fatal obstruction of lacteals, tabes, syncope, diabetes, lockjaw, idiocy, impotency, mania, delirium tremens, bright's disease, disease of the arteries, atrophy of the liver, congestion of the liver, and numerous other organic and functional derangements.

Alcohol decreases the number of red blood corpuscles, diminishes the amount of fat in the blood, and increases the heart's action, lessens muscular strength, and lowers animal heat.

Alcohol increases the susceptibility to the influence of disease. In Warsaw during the epidemic of 1832, 90 per cent of all who died from cholera were habitual drinkers. In the late epidemic of yellow fever in this country, the proportion of victims was nearly as large. A very slight injury to an intemperate man is likely to produce fatal results.

The use of alcohol shortens human life. Dr. Willard Parker, of New York, shows from statistics that for every ten temperate persons who die between the ages of twenty-one and thirty, fifty-one intemperate persons die. Nelson a distinguished English actuary states, that the temperate man has at twenty years of age an average chance of living forty-four and one-fifth years, the drinking man has a prospect of only fifteen and one-half years of life. It has been found by London Life Insurance Companies that the mortality has been one-fourth less among abstainers than among the moderate drinkers. It is said that the natives of the Sandwich Islands are being rapidly exterminated by the use of strong drink. In Norway the spirit duty was removed in 1825; in the next ten years insanity increased 50 per cent, and the number of children born idiots increased one hundred and fifty per cent.

If the drunkard himself were the only sufferer the consequences would not be so bad, but unfortunately he transmits his depraved appetite to his innocent offspring and they also inherit from him a predisposition to insanity, idiocy, epilepsy and other affections of the brain and nervous system. "The iniquities of the fathers are visited upon the children unto the third and fourth generation."

Magnie's Home Plant has been used for a number of years in our Army, and has proved a most valuable remedy for Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, etc., etc. SISTER'S OF ST. JOSEPH, Catholic Male Orphan Asylum, St. Louis, Mo.

Lincoln, and by the attaches of the United States legation. Mrs. McKee and Mrs. Russell Harrison were immediately driven to Mr. Lincoln's residence, where the travelers will remain as the United States Minister's guests during their stay in London.

The Philadelphia Bulletin is authority for the statement that the phonograph has been employed in New York to report the utterances of monkeys, scientific men having become convinced that their chattering is a language intelligible among themselves. Their phonograph talk has been repeated to the animals with startling effect, and they have endeavored with their long arms to draw out the ape concealed in the instrument. The next thing to be done is for mankind to study and interpret the speech thus recorded.

A war between Honduras, Salvador and Guatemala is predicted about the 15th of September.

A cloudburst occurred last Friday at Chillicothe, Texas, and four men who were on the Lindsay ranch were drowned.

P. T. Barnum left a personal estate which inventories $1,285,599, and 5 per cent of that sum, less the $1,000 limit, amounts to $64,229.94, which the state will get as its share of the sum total.

Mrs. General Grant is aging rapidly. There has been a marked change both in appearance and in her manner within two years. Her hair is silvered and her slow and uneven steps betoken her advanced years.

General Church News.

The completion of the Memorial Buildings at Epworth, England, erected in honor of Wesley, was celebrated with appropriate exercises on June 1. The Memorial Chapel, a beautiful Gothic structure, with its schools, manse and caretaker's house, stands upon at least an acre of ground planted with beautiful shrubs. The total cost of the whole premises was £6,300.

There are 90,000 preachers in the United States. That looks pretty formidable. But there are 200,000 liquor sellers. Ah! what opposition.

There are 120,000,000 gallons of whiskey, the amount estimated by the Commissioners, manufactured in the United States during the present year. Follow this poisonous stuff as it enters the thousands of homes to work its ruin in misery and death, death to all that is good, death of body and damnation of soul, and then remember that we who uphold it with license and taxing it are partakers in the results and responsibilities.

The statue of Henry Ward Beecher was unveiled in Brooklyn, June 24.

Our Symposium.

Thousands of deluded mortals are crowding to this city to be cured of their bodily ills through the agency of Father Mollinger, a Romish priest. He cures them with the relics of some of the old saints, such as pieces of bone and skin. Saint Anthony is his particular patron saint, and helps him through with all his wonderful things. It is astonishing that people should be so credulous. But the sick, like drowning men, will catch at straws. What the imagination can do for them comes to pass—and no more.—Pittsburg Christian Advocate.

The slave dealers extend their activity even to the very doors of Biskra, the headquarters of the recently organized order of Warrior Monks of the Sahara, and one of the most dramatic features of the ceremony of the consecration of the monks was when Cardinal Lavigerie led to the altar a little brown girl barely nine years old, who had succeeded in concealing herself, and in effecting her escape from a slave caravan passing through the desert a few miles to the south of Biskra. A sudden movement of the child caused her to drop something that she was holding concealed beneath the folds of her djehba. The venerable prelate bent down and raised it from the ground. It was a small dusky hand—the hand of the little girl who stood beside him, and which in sheer wanton cruelty had been cut off by her captors. Holding it aloft, and pointing it southward ward the great Sahara, while with his own hand he raised the child's arm, so that all present could see the mangled stump, the cardinal exclaimed, in tones which seemed to ring forth as a clarion: "I would to God that all Europe could see this little hand! May it serve to direct your line of march. En avant for God, for France, and for humanity."—Harper's Weekly.

The best evidence of fitness for any calling is the living up to one's possibilities in that situation where he is, without regard to where he might better like to be.—Sunday School Times.

If you have ability for some special work that has not yet been recognized, why not go to your pastor, and honestly offer your services? If you are out of employment you do this persistently until you have secured a position, by means of which you may support your family. Why not do as much for Christ as you are willing to do for self or family?—United Presbyterian.

THE HAIR

When not properly cared for, loses its lustre, becomes crisp, harsh, and dry, and falls out freely with every combing. To prevent this, the best and most popular dressing in the market is Ayer's Hair Vigor. It removes dandruff, heals troublesome humors of the scalp, restores faded and gray hair to its original color, and imparts to it a silky texture, and a lasting fragrance. By using this preparation, the poorest head of hair soon

and beautiful. All who have once tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, want no other dressing. Galbraith & Starks, Druggists, Sharon Grove, Ky., write: "We believe Ayer's Hair Vigor to be the best preparation of the kind in the market, and more of it than of all others. No drug store is complete without a supply of it."

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor with great benefit and know several other persons, between 40 and 50 years of age, who have experienced similar good results from the use of this preparation. It restores gray hair to its original color, promotes a new growth, gives lustre to the hair, and cleanses the scalp of dandruff."—Bernardo Ochoa, Madrid, Spain.

After Using

A number of other preparations without any satisfactory result, I find that Ayer's Hair Vigor is causing my hair to grow."—A. J. Osgood, General Merchant, Indian Head, N. W. T.

"Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only preparation I could ever find to remove dandruff, cure itching humors, and prevent loss of hair. I can confidently recommend it."—J. C. Butler, Spencer, Mass.

"My wife believes that the money spent for Ayer's Hair Vigor was the best investment she ever made. It has given her so much satisfaction."—James A. Adams, St. Augustine, Texas.

A LIFE SAVED!

READ THE TWO STATEMENTS.

An Extraordinary Case!

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 22, 1890.
Last April I was attacked with Chagas Fever, a Spanish flu-like disease, and was given up by two physicians. During that spell and since I have used a pound of quinine and quantities of other medicines without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered untold agonies. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Nerve Tonic. I have had no other since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind.
Am gaining strength very fast. Can walk miles at a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Germineur has been a great benefit to me. I can not say too much in its praise.
Any who wish to do so may call on me.

DANIEL PAPPOU,
481 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1, 1891.
My improvement continued, and soon after writing the above statement I was able to go to work and have been working ever since. My health is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony gladly, because I know that Germineur saved my life.

DANIEL PAPPOU.

Chagas Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Germineur has been tried on a number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It has a similar record
as a remedy for Swamp Fever and Malarial troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quickest and most infallible remedy for Fevers of all kinds, Dyspepsia, Debility, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidences from thousands of the best people in the country, and the evidences multiply in our midst every day.

For sale by druggists and country merchants, and at the Germineur office, 202 Canal street, New Orleans. For full information, circulars, etc., call on or address K. Williams, Agent, 292 Canal street. $1 bottle; six bottles for $5.

The Best Remedy in this world, says J. H. Horth, of Syracuse, N. Y., is Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic, because my son, who was partially paralyzed three years ago and attacked by fits, has not had any symptoms of them since he took one bottle of the remedy. I must heartily thank for it.

Prejudiced, Yet Convinced.
So, Norwalk, Conn., May, 1890.
Although I took pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic with a certain prejudice, it has done so much good that I must thank him for it, because now
I can sleep again. Since the terrible catastrophe of the Johnstown flood, where I lost five members of my family, terrible fancies occupied my mind, so that I was quite dependent. But now I come to myself again, and attribute this to the good effect of the Tonic.

FREE—A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.

This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koening, of Fort Wayne, Ind., since 1876, and is now prepared under his direct supervision.

Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.
(John 1. 29)

LESSON HYMN, 7. 6.
I lay my sins on Jesus,
The spotless Lamb of God;
He bears them all, and frees us
From the accursed load;
I bring my guilt to Jesus,
To wash my crimson stains
White in his blood most precious,
Till not a stain remains.

I rest my soul on Jesus,
This weary soul of mine;
His right hand me embraces,
I on his breast recline:
I love the name of Jesus,
Immanuel, Christ, the Lord;
Like fragrance on the breeze,
His name abroad is poured.

when St. John gives us his first glimpse of him, was thirty years of age. John the Baptist had recognized him as the Messiah at the baptism. The forty days of temptation had passed since then, and now for the second time, John bears public witness to "the Lamb of God."

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY

1. The Lamb of God, v. 29-34.
Who was the Lamb of God?
Who first called him the Lamb of God?

What good work did he come to do? (Golden Text.)
What did John say of himself and Jesus?

Why did John baptize with water?
What did John see at Jesus's baptism?

Of what was this to him a proof?
What record did John bear to Jesus?

Who bore similar record at the baptism of Jesus? (Matt. 3. 17.)
2. Followers of the Lamb, v.
35-42.

Who were with John the following day?
What did John say to them about Jesus?

What did the disciples do?
What question did Jesus ask them?

What did they ask in return?
What was his reply?
What did the disciples then do?
Who were these two disciples?
What name did Jesus give to Simon?

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.

Where in this lesson are we taught:
1. That Jesus is the only Saviour?
2. That we ought to follow
Jesus?
3. That we should point others to the Lamb of God?

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG BE-LIEVERS.
Find how far apart Jesus and John spent their youth?
What classes of people crowded to the Jordan to see and hear John?

Find what Jesus said about John's greatness?

THE LESSON CATECHISM.
[For the entire school.]

1. What did John say when he saw Jesus? (Golden Text.) "Behold, etc."

2. What did he say he had seen descending like a dove from heaven upon Jesus? The Spirit.

3. Of what did he bear record?
Jesus is the Son of God.

4. What did Jesus say to John's two disciples who asked him where he dwelt? Come and see.

5. As soon as Andrew had found the Christ, whom did he bring to him? His brother Simon.

EXPLANATIONS.
Lamb of God—God's great sacrifice for men, of which all other sacrifices were typical and emblematic. Taketh away the sin—"As if it were one great burden." I said—Here comes a quotation from an earlier statement made by John, but not recorded in the gospels. (See verse 15, Lesson 1).

Knew him not as the spiritual Messiah; though he may have known him as a cousin, and also as the coming King who should be made manifest to Israel. Therefore am I come—He preached the truth as far as he understood it.
Baptizing with water—A ceremony not unknown to the ancient Jews, but bearing an entirely new meaning as administered by John. Bare record—Gave testimony. The Spirit—Precisely what John's hearers understood him to mean by this phrase it is not easy to decide; they were without our theological definitions; but that some sort of divine manifestation was referred to, they would not doubt.
Like a dove—Perhaps only Christ and the Baptist saw this. It abode—"The Spirit of God, not the dove, abode." I knew him not—Until this sign was given. As he walked—This was probably the last meeting of the Baptist and Christ. Tenth hour—About four o'clock p. m.

Doctrinal suggestion.—The atonement for sinners.

THE CHURCH CATECHISM.

70. What is the outward sign in baptism? Water, applied in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. (John
3. 5; Matt. 28. 19.)

71. What is the inward grace signified in baptism? A death unto sin, and a new birth unto righteousness.

Eternal Vigilance

Is the price of health. But with all our precaution there are enemies always lurking about our systems, only waiting a favorable opportunity to assert themselves. In purities in the blood may be hidden for years, or even generations, and suddenly break forth, undermining health and hastening death. For all diseases arising from impure blood, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the unequalled and unapproached remedy. It is King of them all, for it conquers disease.

Camp Meeting.

The camp meeting at Hattiesburg will begin July 23 and continue eleven days.
All are invited. Some of the ablest ministers in this and the adjoining States have been invited. We hope to have the editor of the "Southwestern" with us.
Great preparations are being made to make the meeting a success.

Camp Meeting.

The Huntsville district camp meeting will take place near Phelps, Texas, August 10th to 24th. Introductory sermon will be preached by Rev. W. Hamilton, Presiding Elder of the Marshall district.
Persons from abroad wishing to attend these series of meetings by railway can do so by having a ticket over the International & Great Northern Railway and changing cars at Phelps station, thence to the camp ground. Extension rates have been secured over the Great Northern and International Railroad. Everything will be done for the good and comfort of all. In addition to the camp house already on the grounds, you are kindly requested to build others, and secure tents and live in them during the whole two weeks. Besides all the ministers of the Huntsville district, other eminent ones are expected. Special attention will be given to entertaining all ministers who may visit us. Brethren, come fully consecrated to God.

Rev. F. PARKER, Pres.

L. J. HOGAN, Secretary.

It was Ben Johnson, we believe, who,
when asked Mallock's question, "Is life worth living?" replied, "That depends on the liver." And Ben Johnson doubtless saw the double point to the pun.
The liver active—quick—life rosy, everything bright, mountains of trouble melt like mountains of snow. The liver sluggish—life dull, everything blue, molehills of worry rise into mountains of anxiety, and as a result—sick headache, dizziness, constipation. Two ways are open. Cure permanently, or relieve temporarily. Take a pill and suffer, or take a pill and get well. Shock the system by an overdose, or coax it by a mild, pleasant way.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the mild means. They work effectively, without pain, and leave the system strong. One little sugar-coated pellet is enough, although a whole vial costs but 25 cents.

Mild, gentle, soothing and healing is Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Only 50 cents; by druggists.

admitted otherwise. We cannot afford it. Neither can we publish

Editorial Notes.

Faithfulness in the humblest part
Is better at least than proud success;
And patience and love in a chastened heart
Are pearls more precious than happiness:
And in the morning when we shall awake
To the spring-time freshness of youth again,
All troubles will seem but a flying flake,
And life-long sorrow a breath on the pane.

MR. H. H. LANIER, teacher at Meadville, Miss., informs us that the cyclone of July 6, played destruction with crops, fences, houses, etc., in that section, but fortunately no lives were lost and none seriously injured.

In describing our beautiful new church at Jackson, Miss., last week, we forgot to say that it is most brilliantly lighted up with one of I. P. Frink's best reflectors. Mr. Frink does well to advertise in our columns, as his reflectors certainly please our people.

REV. J. S. Foster, of Mason, Tenn., strikes a key note in his letter on "church officers." He advises the appointment of persons who are not bent upon a policy of "rule or ruin," but who are devoted to the interests of the church, and who both know and love our Discipline.

JUDGING from his writing and spelling, the brother who wrote as demanding that the Mississippi Conference give him an appointment or transfer him to another conference, needs rather to enter the lowest class in the New Orleans University and remain there about ten years, before being admitted to any Methodist Conference. Go to school young man, go to school.

WE have not had an opportunity, at this writing, to investigate and confirm the report that the Governors of South Carolina and Louisiana have refused the appropriations to those states for the promotion of mechanical and agricultural education, because the money is to be equally divided between schools for the white and black races, were such schools exist. If the report be true, and these Governors object on the grounds stated, then they are unworthy to preside over the destinies of the people of these states.—Central Methodist, (M. E. Church, South.)

Those Governors are certainly "unworthy to preside over the destinies of the people of these states," for they have taken this very position. A mere reference to the files of the daily papers of this section will fully satisfy the editor or our contemporary, that they are correctly reported.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Spread of our Methodism Among the White People in the South.

REV. R. L. SELLE

The spread of our Methodism among the white people of the South was never more necessary than it is now, and the opportunity for the accomplishment of this desired end was never more favorable than they are now. Our presence and toil in this Southland have proven what we are. Former prejudices are melting away rapidly, and the dawn of a new era is upon us.

Several things are necessary in order to reach the desired end.

1. All our conferences need an increased amount from the missionary fund, not to give to the older established appointments in the conferences, but to extend the work into unoccupied territory. This is essential.

2. We need more educational centres, seminaries, academies, etc. When we can succeed in establishing and running them successfully, our success is inevitable.

3. We need three or four more resident bishops located about as follows: Charleston, S. C., Asheville, N. C., Atlanta, Ga., and Little Rock, Ark. With Episcopal residences thus scattered over the South, we could have access to towns and cities that we otherwise could not.

4. We need to develop self-supporting charges as rapidly as possible. Some of our charges are now receiving help from the Missionary Fund when they have members worth thousands of dollars! Poor people all over the land contribute to send the Gospel to these rich people! God help us to stand alone as soon as we are able! Our people must be educated to get off the mission list as rapidly as possible, and let the money be used to extend the work.

Many more things are necessary, but these are the foregoing.
Harrison, Ark.

Delegates to the General Conference.

Whom shall we select as delegates to the General Conference? This is the question which is now going the rounds. The General Conference of '92 will be as momentous as that of '44. It will have many questions of grave and great import to settle: the admission of women as delegates to the General Conference; organic union of the two Methodisms—North and South; the election of bishops, and among them, we hope a bishop of African descent; clearer interpretation of the law effecting the status of missionary bishops, larger appropriations for home mission work. These are great and vital questions. Ecclesiastical statemanship is more difficult than civic, for the former requires a greater variety of talent than the latter. Who among you that is greatest let him be your servant. Fail to select your strongest men from the eighteen colored conferences; select such men as will accept any sort of compromise without first dragging that compromise into the light, to discover what its effect would be upon the entire race, and the church; send men who are willing to sacrifice the opportunity of the race, so long as their own selfish ambition is satisfied, and you will have committed a blunder worse than a crime. Why have Massachusetts, Ohio and Vermont always stood so high in the councils of the nation? Is it not because they have ever kept tried, true, and experienced men at the front? What would be the fate of this nation, if once in every four years Congress were composed of novices? Apply the questioning to the influence of an Annual Conference in the councils of the General Church. If you would be felt in the councils of Methodism, send a delegation whose distinguishing characteristic is puff, or mteness, make a gigantic blunder in your selection of delegates for this high and responsible office in '92, and we will find ourselves where the Irish found themselves at Clontarf through the indiscretion of O'Connell; opportunity with us as with them, will slip from the race in the struggle for free and complete recognition.

LUDWIG.

What Christianity Has Done For Woman.

BY MISS MINNIE A. GRIFFIN.

[Read on Children's Day, at First street M. E. Church, New Orleans, La.]

There is no stage of woman's life that Christianity has not brightened.

It found the maiden in prison, with her relatives as jailors; an object of constant suspicion, not daring to love; sold for so much gold and silver, like a beast, forced to accept as a husband whomsoever her kindred might select, ignorant of everything that can elevate or ennoble. It made her as free as the flower that dances in the summer breeze, opened for her the door of liberty, gave her education and refinement, lifted up the dull sky of her life and set it in a sun of delight, and a star of hope, spread out before her a new world of energy and accomplishment; that her real beauty might be admired, and her virtues revered.

It gave her acquirements to win and in return pour out the wealth of her affections and crown another's life with joy. It said, "Go thou forth to bless, to beautify, and to cheer, with God for thy guardian, Christ for thy counsellor, and innocence thy shield."

It made man her guide, not her lord, and changed the iron bands of slavery to the golden chains of affection. All of this Christianity did for women, and more, for in all civilized lands not only her love, but her property is her own to do with as she wills.

Christianity found the wife a slave, living in constant dread of her master, or obliged to retain freedom at the expense of her honor. No man believed in her worth, or revered her virtue.

Her independence was beyond her control, subject to every insult, and divorce, her only resource; setting her apart for mockery and abuse. Ignorance was the atmosphere she breathed, because knowledge would have shown her more clearly the terrible place she occupied.

The Cross was lifted up, the light of the countenance of the son of God shone upon her, and she became the friend of her husband, the queen of her home, the pillar of the church, the light of society, and a spirit of gentleness and beauty, softening, tempering and refining the harshness and conditions of man. The Christ face is turned and the dawn of better days began for its women.

Elijah H. Gammon.

Our readers will regret to learn of the death of the Rev. Elijah H. Gammon at his home at Plano, Ill., July 3 at 12 o'clock. It is sad news indeed to all of our people, in whose behalf Mr. Gammon has taken such intense interest. We will the following facts from the Northwestern Christian Advocate on the funeral address delivered by the Rev. R. P. Fleming, his pastor:

The funeral at Plano on Monday, July 6, was attended by many prominent Methodists and others, including two former partners of Mr. Gammon, Wm. Deering and J. D. Easter. A special car took these friends to Plano and brought the remains eastward to Grace-land Cemetery, Chicago, where relatives of Mr. Gammon are interred.

Mr. Gammon was a New Englander by birth and character. He came from the State of Maine, and left his father's farm near the Gilmore Pond plantation early in life and began the struggle upward against poverty and adverse circumstances. At seventeen he was converted under the preaching of James Farrington, and at twenty-four was licensed to preach and received into the Maine conference. On account of failing health he moved to Illinois in 1851, and the next year was readmitted to the Rock River conference, where he served in important charges until 1858, when, by reason of impaired health, he located and was soon engaged in the manufacture of agricultural implements.

Mr. Gammon was a successful man. Whatever he did was done thoroughly. In the ministry his work was pointed and practical, both in the saving of souls and the building up of the church. He was pre-eminently a man who looked for results. Successful in the pulpit, when he had broken in health and was no longer able to stand there, he turned his attention to business entirely. He was successful in his undertakings. He had a remarkable business instinct. Keen and far-sighted, he was yet conservative and safe. His plans were comprehensive, including the minutest detail, and his executive ability was equally great. Shiftlessness in business methods, unpopularity in meeting engagements he would not abide.

Mr. Gammon's life was pointed by a great purpose. To be helpful to humanity was his large purpose. He was never disengaged from some magnificent undertaking. It took a great work to command the full enthusiasm of the man. Wealth was simply the tool he wanted, and when God put it into his hands he used it to carve out of the rock of adverse circumstances a stairway by which the poor and benighted might climb up toward God, the giver. No man felt more keenly than he the responsibility of wealth. Mr. Gammon belonged to Methodism as a whole and to the universal church. The appeals that reached him were from every section of the country, and from every church and interest of Christianity.

He was not satisfied with his generous gift of $5000 to Maine Wesleyan Seminary, or his more generous gift of $10,000 to Garrett Biblical Institute. His interest in education could not be bounded by any line of color or any class distinction, and when the great plan of his life was taking shape, and he looked into every field within the borders of the church, he asked but one question: "Where is the most needy field in this land?" When he thought he had found it in the South among the neglected freedmen, he revolved in his mind the question for two years, how he could best lift them into intelligence and spiritual liberty. It was in his mind that long before he spoke of it to any one. Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., was therefore founded and is now magnificently endowed. That school is founded upon a powerful conviction. It belongs to our church, and is a monument of what consecrated money can do when it is in the hands of consecrated men. When this great life withdraws more and more into the shadow, we shall more and more see that "a prince and a great man hath fallen this day in Israel."

Schools and Colleges.

Central Tennessee College, Nashville, Tenn.

REV. JOSEPH COURTNEY.

This college is located in a beautiful portion of the city of Nashville. It began its work in 1866 in an old gun factory, and has been doing effective work ever since. It occupies more than a dozen buildings for all departments of its work, and yet there is not sufficient accommodation for those who make application for admission, and many are turned away every year.

The present President, Rev. John Braden Braden, D. D., has served the college in that capacity twenty-four years. He is recognized throughout the Southland as an educational leader. More than two hundred young men and women have graduated from the various literary departments, of whom he and his corps of faithful instructors have no need to be ashamed, for generally speaking, they have conducted themselves manfully and well. The courses of study in the various departments are good and are taught by careful, painstaking instructors of both white and colored.

We heard, at the recent commencements, the reports of examinations, which would compare favorably with the examinations of any school in this country. It is no longer a question whether the Negro is capable of learning any and all branches taught in the colleges. He has fully demonstrated beyond a possible doubt that he is. The various industrial departments are accomplishing much in a practical way; many of the students are doing good work in all of those departments. The mechanical art department especially is immense. Many of the boys are learning to be skilled mechanics.

At the commencement May 28, a class of twelve from the Junior Normal Department graduated; one from the Senior Normal, two from the Law, one from the Philosophical, one from the Collegiate and one from the Pastor's course in Theology. The speeches of the graduates were good and scholarly. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on Rev. Daniel Jones, of Lexington conference.

The visiting committees of the Tennessee, East Tennessee and Lexington Conferences made a written report to the Trustees and Faculty, heartily approving the administration and work of the college during the past year.

And also a resolution was adopted by a rising vote of the vast audience indorsing Dr. Braden as President, and desiring his continuance as such, so long as his health will permit him.

Many of the lawyers and doctors who have graduated from this college are practicing their professions in Nashville and are doing well. Dr. R. F. Boyd has a practice amounting to several thousand dollars a year. A great deal of business is carried on in that city by colored men. I went into a tailor shop owned and controlled by a colored man. He had a very handsome store, a large stock of first class goods and employed seven hands.

Springfield, O.

At commencement exercises of the Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, O., degrees were conferred upon ninety graduates. No honorary degrees were given. The degree of A. M., upon examination, was conferred upon Arthur L. Benedict, John W. Murphy, M. D., and Prof. James O. Wood, of the University of Michigan. The degree of Ph. D. was conferred, upon examination, upon William F. McDowell, chancellor of Denver University, and upon Henry B. Newson, professor of mathematics in the University of Kansas.

President Bashford's report showed an addition during the year of $58,000 to the University property. The corner stone of University Hall was laid on the afternoon of June 18th, with addresses of President Hayes and others.

E. G. Conklin, Ph. D., of John Hopkins University, was elected Professor of Biology.

Rev. P. Blum writes in glowing terms of the closing exercises of Meridian (Miss.) Academy.

One hundred and twelve young colored men and women were graduated from the Normal and High Schools of Washington recently, twenty-six from the Normal and eighty-six from the High School.

On that occasion Hon. Robert P. Porter, Superintendent of Census, made an address to the graduating class, in which he said that the Eleventh Census would show that there are 24,000 colored teachers engaged at the present time in the elevation of their race. The forthcoming reports would show one and one-third million colored pupils in the public schools. In addition to this there were 37,000 in the private schools and about 8000 in parochial schools, making a round total of 1,378,000. There were over seventy institutions of higher training and over 7000 students in training for teachers. Mr. Porter emphasized the fact that fifteen-sixteenths of the entire colored population live in the South. He said that in at least ten of these States the percentage of gain in public school enrollment had far outstripped the gain in population. Texas ranked first in this respect and Arkansas second. North Carolina showed the lowest percentage of gain in public school enrollment. The estimated real and personal property of our people in Virginia alone was $15,026,802.

Superintendent Porter gave no faltering testimony as to the efficiency of the colored employees in the Census Bureau. From two hundred and fifty to three hundred young men and women had been employed there during the last two years. With hardly an exception they had made faithful and capable clerks. Some of them ranked as the best clerks. Editing schedules in the division of farms, homes and mortgages was intrusted to a young colored clerk. The medical students in the division of vital statistics were among the most rapid and painstaking men in the bureau. Our young women did splendid service throughout the office as typewriters and tabulators. They had worked side by side with the whites and they had been treated in every respect alike. Neither a murmur nor complaint had been heard from the white brothers and sisters. The messengers and laborers had also been true and faithful. The eighteen million schedules, containing the names of sixty-three million people, had been handled and rehandled, taken from one building to another and then brought back again to the various rooms and up to the present time not one schedule had been lost or mislaid. The graduates were counseled to cultivate habits of industry, of thrift, to study diligently and equip themselves in every possible way for the new undertakings and responsibilities which would now open before them.

The Way They Built.

DR. I. B. SCOTT.

Our people at Kendleton, near Richmond, needed a new church and applied to the Church Extension Society to build it for them. While waiting to hear from their application, I held their first quarter and urged pastor and brethren present not to wait for anybody or anything, but to go to work at once and erect their church. When I held their second quarter, led on by Rev. G. J. Izard, their thorough going pastor, they had built their new church, and not a cent of assistance had come. They built, and the Society will help them complete.

Paris District.

P. MORGAN, P. E.

Our district conference held at Bonham, April 28, was a source of spiritual power. Reports were very encouraging. Nearly all the pastors reported favorable to all causes, both spiritually and financially. Benevolent causes were represented by collections averaging about one-fourth of the whole amounts.

Essays were read and discussed with ability. The literary program was never better.

The Sunday School Institute met two days prior to the conference. All the schools were represented. The work accomplished by the Institute relieved the conference of much labor. In a word, a mark was made in Bonham by these two grand bodies, which will baffle time to erase.

Agents were appointed to travel, look up and work up all unoccupied territory. We are peculiarly situated to that of our sister districts, in that we have several new towns in which there are so few of our people, but like the pulpit, we are running on before to see them as they come. Too much can not be said in honor of those noble workers on our district who prepared themselves so well to meet the Institute and the Conference.

I have gone in person to all the points, and have succeeded in making points where there were none heretofore, and hunting up the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Hence I shall leave behind me a number of good new churches and chapels, with a vast amount of new property, a loving Christian army, and a district that another need not feel ashamed to travel over.

Brother W. H. Jackson has wrought a wonderful work at Paris during the year.

Bro. A. Taylor has done none the less at Bonham. His work far exceeds that of some others at this point. He is still in favor with all the people, and coming to the front.

Bro. L. Woodward is a soldier indeed. He is leading Houey Grove to success.

Although the work is hard, Bro. P. H. Hailey took hold of Red River Circuit like a soldier, and despite the hardships, he is leading on.

Bro. Moses Littlejohn is laboring faithfully on Wolfe City Circuit. He is in earnest about his Master's work.

Bro. W. J. Holland, on the Gibson circuit, is much beloved by his people and bids fair for the future.

Bro. Wiley Pollard has laid some lumber on the ground at Greenville, where we expect to erect a church soon. Very little has been done here, because there is no where to shelter the people.

Bro. Paul Prewett is making rapid headway on Cooper circuit. The people love him.

Bro. J. W. H. Moore is turning things about at Blossom, Bagwell, and Detroit. He is building, improving and preaching right along, though he finds it pretty tough.

Just as Bro. P. L. Jackson arrived on the Clarksville circuit, there happened to be a riot gotten up by some of the lawless among the whites on that circuit, which resulted in the killing of one of the stewards, the burning of the only church on the work, and the disbanding of a number of the members. Hence confusion prevailed for a long time all over the circuit, but he stood it well and is again bringing things to the front.

Bro. Frank Gilmore is still holding his own at Clarksville. He is a kind and loving pastor, and is guarding well every interest of the church.

Bro. DeWitt Friarson is beloved by the people on Freehope circuit, and is pressing forward.

Bro. Ned Graham, like steel, hardens himself against impossibilities and sticks close to DeKalb circuit. He is making preparations to build shortly.

Bro. William Bartley is steadily leading Texarkana to the front. Texarkana is following him cheerfully. He has wrought a good work.

Bro. W. B. Perry is making time on the Brookston circuit. He is making some improvements and watching every interest on his work.

Time and space would fail me to tell of all the heroes of the district and their work in detail. But let me say, the past, present and future advancement of the work have, do and must depend largely upon such gentlemen and ladies as Prof. R. A. Long, teacher in the city schools; Jeff Barnes, V. M. Cole, Jr., Hoffman, Miss E. Brooks, C. L. White, Smelser, Prof. J. B. McUnloch and teachers at Clarksville, Miss L. Wagner, Mrs. Polk, and others too numerous to mention here. Lastly, Sisters Reeves, Latimer, Bowers and Murray take interest in the W. H. M. work, as well as the Sunday school work.

Upon the whole, the work was never so prosperous as now. Benevolent money is being raised, students dispatched to our universities, Woman's Home Mission work organized, etc. We are buying land, building churches, and the Lord is converting many souls and adding to the church daily such as shall be saved. I believe our annual report will be better this year than ever.

We are having an abundant rain fall throughout the district. I saw the crops lying under water for nearly forty miles along the T. P. railroad.

Brethren, do your best. Prepare your tents for the camp meeting at Bagwell on about the 1st of August, and get everything ready by that time. Send your collections to the proper places and take receipts for the same. The last district conference will be at Clarksville in October. If you are behind then, you are lost for the twelve months, possibly for life. I want to see all my brethren to the front.

No frivolous questions will be noticed; 4th. Abbreviations should not be used; 5th. Notes and items must be condensed so as to insure brevity; 6th. We return no manuscript.

T. Larkin, Morgan, City, La.

Presiding Elder Landry was on time and held the second quarterly conference May 20. On the 21st he preached a good sermon to the satisfaction of all. He is loved by all. His predecessor, Rev. S. Duncan, is not forgotten. The people often ask about him. I am in the midst of a revival meeting, and many souls are at the altar and several are converted. Sister Mary Karnik is here laboring with us. May she long live to do the work of the Master. My grand rally was a success. Collection, $109.25. We thank the good Sister and friends that have worked so faithfully.

A. A. Lacey, Slaughter, La.

We have just closed our revival meeting with success.

A. Roach, Chattanooga, Tenn.

I came on the work just after conference, and went to work with very small capital. I have five appointments. In the winter it was very difficult to meet them on account of the water. I was sick nearly all winter, but the Lord has blessed my labor. I have had some success. We have had 41 conversions since conference, and added 27 to the church. I found 74 members when I came, and now we have 102. Our voting convention met at Eastport on the 29th, 30th and 31st. Our camp meeting will convene at Prigmore's Chapel August 1.

B. G. Smith, Marion, Ala.

Our second quarterly conference convened at Greensboro May 30, 31, Rev. H. N. Brown, Presiding Elder, in the chair. The brethren of the conference were present with written reports. The Elder preached two splendid sermons and administered the Lord's Supper to 100. Raised for Presiding Elder, $26.25; for missions, $25; for Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, $3.50; for Church Extension, $8; for pastor, $92.32; total raised, $155.57.

R. S. Stacy, Mt. Vernon, Ga.

To the Presiding Elders and brethren of the Savannah district: Bear in mind that the members and friends of Mt. Vernon, Ga., are preparing to entertain the district conference. Please do not disappoint us. Ground your arms of rebellion, repent of your sins, and come over into Macedonia and help us.

W. M. Reed, West Point, Texas.

The West Point and Giddings circuit is alive. I have had two revivals on the work. Eighteen souls were converted and added to the church. Our second quarterly conference convened May 16, 17, Rev. Maok Henson, Presiding Elder, in the chair. The Elder preached two soul-reviving sermons. The Lord's Supper was administered to 55. Paid Elder, $25; pastor, $86. We had a grand missionary rally May 31, and raised $27.95. I have raised for all purposes, $47.85. We expect to build a $1000 church here this year. Pray for our success.

T. S. McMorris, Bryan, Tex.

Our second quarterly conference convened May 30, Rev. W. H. Logan, Presiding Elder, in the chair. He conducted the devotional exercises, after which Prof. A. G. Williams was elected secretary. Our Presiding Elder always comes with words of cheer, and leaves the same. He preached at 3 o'clock Sunday and Sunday night to a crowded house. We raised for the Presiding Elder, $18.70; benevolent purposes, $36. Conversions, 43; additions, 58.

G. J. Izard, Richmond, Tex.

We are making preparations to build a new church, which has been needed at this place for many years. The people come at once to every call to rally financially for the same. Saturday night and Sunday we had a high time. The prize contest was a grand one. Seven of our willing workers made the race for the gold watch, as follows: Mrs. Ella Dunson, $10.80; Mrs. Joana Jones, $7.95; Miss Francois Burton, $1.55; Mrs. Maria Dotson, 20c.; Mrs. Lucy Thomas, $2.20; Miss Kittie Johnson, $1.15; Miss Emily Burton, $3.10. Mrs. Ella Dunson being the successful solicitor, carried off the prize. The prize contest, festival and public collection resulted in the sum of $59.75. Eight wagons pulled out of Richmond Wednesday morning, all loaded with lumber and shingles to build a new church there. We have not once neglected our benevolent causes. We want to make a round report this year. Thirty have already been added to the church. One hundred additions this year will greatly please us.

J. H. Purnell, Fanning, Tex.

Thus far the Lord has blessed our labor, and I feel that the conference did the right thing in sending me back here. I have put up a very nice little church at this place since conference. The 16th and 17th of May we had our first quarterly conference. Bro. Madison, our Presiding Elder, could not be present, so he sent Rev. B. F. Smith to hold the quarter. We had a grand time. Collection for Elder, $9.20. I will do all I can for the paper.

H. Heslop, Durant, Miss.

Since the death of my wife I have made one round on the Carthage circuit, and found the people doing all they can on the new church. We hope to have it finished by next quarterly conference. We will not forget the SOUTHWESTERN.

Rev. J. Benn.

When we came to this place we found all the members scattered about and no church. We have managed to gather them in the church again, and have made some improvements around the church. Bro. J. F. Marshall, Presiding Elder, was with us and held his quarter. We hope to have all the benevolent money before conference.

J. C. Hunt, South Atlanta, Ga.

We devoted the fifth Sunday in May to the celebration of the Quarter Centennial of the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society. Prof. T. A. Fortson of Clark University, Rev. V. Chapman of the Louisiana Conference, Rev. J. H. McAlister of the Mississippi Conference, and Mr. L. J. Price, superintendent of our Sunday school, were with us and delivered addresses which were appreciated by all present. Collection, $10.

J. Jordan, Rose Hill, Texas.

Our Presiding Elder, Wade Hamilton, held our first quarter April 5, 6, and on Sunday preached an able sermon and administered the Lord's Supper to 49. Paid Elder, $5.35; pastor, $15. Raised on Easter Sunday for missions, $8.10.

T. W. Davis, Okolona, Miss.

The belfry of our church, Mt. Pisgah, was struck by lightning and greatly damaged. The people were much frightened, but none killed.

J. C. Crowley, New Gascony, Ark.

Presiding Elder G. W. Lacey held our second quarterly conference June 5. We had a grand time. The Elder preached a soul-reviving sermon at 11 o'clock; also at night. Raised this quarter for pastor, $38.35; for Elder, $14.15; benevolences, $11.60. Four converts and eight accessions. We have a good Sunday school with A. T. Clark as superintendent.

Jas. Browley, Alleyton, Texas.

Our second quarterly conference convened June 6, 7, Presiding Elder C. L. Madison in the chair, and a full attendance of quarterly members present. All of the business of the quarter was transacted in perfect love and harmony. He preached two edifying sermons, at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. The Lord's Supper was administered to 36. Collection for the Elder, $6.65. Paid pastor this quarter, $47.

J. D. Jenkins, Palmetto, Ga.

The second quarterly conference convened June 5. On Sunday 19 persons were baptized and 3 were received into full membership. Raised for Presiding Elder, $15; pastor, $45; and for all purposes during quarter, $135.28.

H. C. Dunlap, Locksburg, Ark.

I was appointed to this circuit by Bishop J. P. Newman, in January, 1891. Was delayed a week on account of illness, but was able to take my place after one Sunday had passed. I was warmly received on my circuit. The Lord has blessed us. A number of backsliders have been reclaimed, and the church everywhere is spiritually alive. Our Presiding Elder, Rev. A. J. Phillips, held our second quarter May 30, 31. We had a grand time. He preached two able sermons, in which three were converted and three others joined the church. Collection, $10. There are five appointments on this circuit, and if there were six Sundays in a month, we would have a place for every one of them within the circuit boundary. We are praying and expecting glorious revivals. The SOUTHWESTERN is often brought before the people. Several persons on the circuit take it, and many others promise to take it.

R. H. Patton, Stonewall, Miss.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 4 by Presiding Elder J. M. Shumpert. We had a grand time in our new church, which we had just completed. The Elder preached an excellent sermon and 61 communed.

J. W. Burns, New Edinburg Circuit.

On the 19th Presiding Elder G. W. Lacey held our quarterly conference at St. Matthew M. E. Church. Rev. B. J. Thornton, of Fordyce, was introduced and gave an interesting talk on the M. E. Church. Sacramento was administered to 44. Collection, $31.

J. B. Starkey, Arcola, Miss.

Our second quarterly conference was held May 17, 18. Presiding Elder Davis was on time. Sunday, at 11 o'clock, he preached a glorious sermon and administered the Lord's Supper to 35. Collection, $5.95.

Donaldsonville, La., Items.

Presiding Elder Landry, of the South New Orleans District, preached at St. Luke A. M. E. Church, Port Barrow, and at Smoke Band Baptist Church, a few days ago.

Revs. Dr. A. M. Green, T. P. Jackson and H. J. Wright dined with Rev. and Mrs. Pierre Landry.

The picnic of St. Peter M. E. Church and Donaldsonville Academy, June 27, was a grand affair.

Rev. Dr. A. M. Green preached at St. Peter M. E. Church Monday night, June 29, to a good house.

Miss Lilly LeBeuf, daughter of Rev. LeBeuf of New Orleans, is spending a while with her schoolmate, Miss Jane Wright.

A Martha Washington Tea Party was given Friday and Saturday nights, June 26, 27, at the Donaldsonville Academy.

Grand receptions were tendered Rev. D. J. Price of New Orleans, by Mrs. Clay, Mays, Walker and other ladies, former friends and members of the church in Monroe, La., of which he was pastor last year.

The Joint Institute of the Greensboro and Winston districts, North Carolina Conference, will be held at Madison, July 29, including the three succeeding days. All of the preachers who belong to both districts are expected to be present.

Pastors in the North Carolina Conference are requested to push their Quarter-Centennial Jubilee collection as rapidly as possible. As fast as the money is raised send it to Rev. C. N. Grandison, D. D. Greensboro, N. C.

J. O. Western of the Lynchess River circuit, S. C., is raising money to complete the Sandy Bluff Church which was built in 1885. The people of that circuit are among the best in the state. They had a grand rally for the purpose on the first Sunday in July.

S. Green, Seneca, S. C., is succeeding gradually, and the work is prospering.

B. Gipple of Lydia, S. C., is in poor health.

The banner contest at our church in Mt. Holly, N. J., resulted in a collection of $93.95. Company I, Robert Street captain carried off the laurels, collecting $33.83 the largest sum. Rev. O. M. Moore, of Philadelphia, Pa., assisted.

Children's Day at the Mt. Salem M. E. Church, Newcastle, Del., was in every way a grand success.

Dover circuit, Del., is coming to the front under the leadership of W. J. Wilson, pastor. Children's Day will never be forgotten. It was a perfect success. Total collection for all purposes on that day $90.76.

Zoor Church, Philadelphia, Pa., Rev. J. Cole pastor, collected $54 on Children's Day.

Rev. W. H. Coffey, of the Delaware Conference enjoys the distinction of being the Presiding Elder of a district that ranks ahead of all the colored and of two-thirds of the white districts in the per capita collection for the benevolent cause. The credit is due very largely to his superior management. He proposes to exercise the same kind of management in pushing the SOUTHWESTERN on his district.

BY C. H. PAYNE, LL.D.

The educational work of Methodism occupies today a position somewhat unique. Though our church is distinctly connectional, and carries forward its other great enterprises under direct connectional supervision, its educational work can scarcely be said to be under any general supervision, but is left largely to independent local action.

This anomaly is doubtless due to the fact that Methodism is not the product of a preconceived plan, but is the outcome of earnest christian effort exerted in such directions as from time to time seemed wisest and best. The existing condition of things is no reflection on the noble workers of the past. All great systems are a growth reaching approximate perfection only through successive stages of development. True statesmanship in civil or ecclesiastical affairs sees and seizes every opportunity for an advanced step. Evidently the providential hour for such advance is now upon us.

Stronger Connectional Bonds Needed.

For want of stronger connectional bonds many of our educational institutions have been lost to the church. The fathers were zealous and active in educational enterprises, but in spite of their zeal and efforts "Not one of the schools founded by them between 1784 and 1819, or during the first third of our first century, became permanent." A large portion of the schools founded since 1820 have also passed out of Methodist hands or ceased to exist. We have definite knowledge that up to 1834 not less than eighty-four institutions in the direct interest of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and fifty-eight other Methodist schools, but partly of a local and private character—like many now recognized as church schools—making a total of 142, had ceased to exist, or lost all Methodist relationship. Even this large number—larger than the number of schools in this country now remaining on our Methodist list—is believed not to include all that have thus disappeared. Of these Dr. D. P. Kidder says: "Some had been unfortunately located, some had gone into other ownership, some had been absorbed in larger institutions, and some had become extinct from unknown causes, not, however, without having done good service in their day." And this unfortunate work of extinguishment is still going on with too slight evidence of abatement. Nor is the extinguishing process confined to the smaller or less pretensions schools. The amount of property thus lost has been very great, the discouragement and the embarrassment to our educational enterprises still greater and more harmful. There is no reason why our great and prosperous church should longer remain under this disability. The best thought of the church calls for an advance-step to be taken that will enable us to maintain our educational status, and meet the demands of the hour.

Importance of a Forward Movement.

The time is now ripe for the Methodist Episcopal Church to adopt a system of education that shall be sufficiently connectional to prevent the waste and loss above mentioned, and yet leave the local authorities with all necessary autonomy to secure the greatest efficiency.

Such a system would be in harmony with our church in all its other departments of aggressive and successful work. Why should our educational work, equal in importance to any, if not indeed transcending all, be left to the hard struggle and uncertain fate of merely local and independent government and support? No adequate reason can be given.

Advantages.

1. The plan proposed will give to the Methodist Episcopal Church a system of education in place of sporadic independent effort.

2. It will give increased dignity, influence, and efficiency to every school of Methodism. It is of great value to be a constituent part of a great whole.

3. It will create greater confidence on the part of our laymen and wealthy friends, and help to secure increased donations for endowments and for all educational purposes. There is no concealing the fact that such confidence is now lacking in many parts of our church. Men of wealth who are friends of education do not want to waste their money on educational experiments. They are waiting to see what policy is to be adopted by the church, what institutions have a reasonable prospect of surviving the struggle for existence, and where their gifts will be likely to yield the largest returns.

4. It will awaken new enthusiasm, increase the number of students, and give a new inspiration to all our educational work.

5. When our educational work is thus systematized and our efforts concentrated for the most effective work, it will unquestionably enlarge the influence and usefulness of our entire church. The church has too often been placed in an undesirable position in being held responsible for so called "colleges" and "universities" in the founding of which it had no voice, and for whose unhappy history it should not be held accountable. The proposed plan will remove this odium. More than this, it will set the church before the world in its true light as an intelligent and wisely governed ecclesiastical organization fully awake to the demands of the hour, and fully proposing to keep abreast of the advancing age; and, better still, it will go far toward helping our great church to equip an ever increasing army of ministers, evangelistic workers, and christian scholars for the speedy conquest of the world to Christ.

The last General Conference wisely took the initiative and authorized the appointment of an educational commission as follows:

Resolved, That a commission be appointed to consider the subject of reorganizing the educational work of the church so as to give it more of unity, breadth, and effectiveness, and to report a plan for the same to the next General Conference, such commission to be composed of one delegate from each General Conference District and three delegates at large and one bishop, who shall be president of the commission, and shall fix the time and place of the first meeting.

The commission has been appointed and a meeting called for Oct. 6, 1891, in Washington, D. C. At the suggestion of several persons the writer has prepared a proposed plan of federation in accordance with the above action of the General Conference, and will soon give it to the Methodist public through its press. It is hoped the subject will be wisely and fully discussed, and that this forward movement may meet with hearty and unanimous approval, and lead the church on to greater victories in the future than have marked its triumphant past.

Children's Day Gleanings.

A. S. J. Allen, Newnansville, Fla.
Children's Day was observed. We gloriously enjoyed the day. Collection, $3.

D. Ray, Brookhaven, Miss.
The program for Children's Day was carried out to the letter. Collection, $6.25.

N. H. Williams, Greenville, Miss.
The program was used in grand style. Collection, $8.

Thos. Holmes, Macon, Ga.
Had a grand time. Collection, $5.30.

J. C. Fremont, Washington Chapel, Monroe District, La.

The day was observed in grand style. Collection, $6.65, which was forwarded to Dr. Payne by Rev. C. W. Kershaw.

D. Richardson, Howells Cross Roads, Ala.
Such a time was never known here before. Collection, $6.55.

I. C. Rucker, Ocean Springs, Miss.

The day was observed at both my points. The programs were carried out to the letter. At Biloxi the superintendent and teachers gave the town to know that the M. E. Church had everything necessary for the training of her children. At Ocean Springs never was Children's Day and the Board of Education so clearly represented. Total collection, $8.40. The visit of Sister E. S. Spriggs to Ocean Springs was quite a help to us. She gave a concert, at which she succeeded in raising $35. We were in debt, but she left the church clear of debt, and an Epworth League organized here and at Biloxi. Sister Spriggs deserves much credit for her faithful work.

Edward Augustus, Clow, Ark.

A complete success in every respect. Rev. Mr. Weatherspoon, of Nashville, Ark., was with us and delivered a stirring address. The church was nicely decorated. Collection, $4.15.

H. P. Coulter.

Children's Day was observed on the Beardon Mission. This was the first time that our church observed the day here. The people were much pleased. B. Parham, Thos. Griffler, C. B. Kendrick and the writer delivered addresses. Collection for education, $1.75.

Dadeville and Alexander City, Ala., had a fine day of it in their Children's Day services. Collection, $8.82.

J. L. Owens, Marshall, Tex.

Observed in grand style at Goodwill, Owens Chapel, and Hickory Grove, on the Marshall circuit. The exercises of these different churches were largely attended. We are forced once more to acknowledge the services of Profs. H. B. Pemberton and Speed, and Rev. G. W. Brown. Collections: Goodwill, $9.90; Owens Chapel, $8.05; Hickory Grove, $4.25.

G. W. Winn, Tallahassee Circuit, Ala.

The best ever carried out here. Collection, $4.

J. L. Augustus, Pineville, La.

The program was carried out to the letter. Rev. E. Lyon, Sunday School Agent, gave us a soul reviving sermon. I am doing all I can for the good old SOUTHWESTERN. We have collected nearly all our benevolent money. We have on the ground 4885 feet of lumber with which to build a parsonage. Everything is moving on nicely.

G. J. Campbell, Lawley, Fla.

The day was observed grandly. Revs. John O. Bryant, W. M. McCloud, our beloved superintendent, and H. O. Sherman, addressed the children. Collection, $2.80.

W. McCarty, Marion Station, Miss.

We had a fine time. Collection, $1.05. On Easter Sunday, also, we had a grand time. Collection, 96 cents.

N. Connon, Fayette, Miss.

We had a grand time. Collection, $3.80. On the night of June 24, the brethren, sisters and young people gave us a splendid surprise party, and filled our table with many good things. Such visitors are always welcome.

E. M. Jones, Montgomery, Ala.
Intense interest was manifested, and all enjoyed the occasion. Collection good.

A. S. Jackson, Barnesville, Ga.

Last Sunday was Children's Day at Green Mountain M. E. Church. We had a large crowd. Our program consisted of Bible recitations and essays. There were 315 verses recited orally. Among the essays deserving special mention are Miss Mary M. Pettigrew, on "Good Manners"; and Miss Joicie J. Owens on "Intemperate Husbands." Collection, $6.75. We are moving along nicely. Everybody is preparing for the district conference, which will convene here July 22. God bless the SOUTHWESTERN.

A. D. Anderson, Philadelphia, Miss.

Had a nice time. Collection for Sunday School Union, $1; Tract cause, $2.

[Children's Day collection belongs to the Board of Education, and should have been sent to Dr. C. H. Payne, 150 Fifth Ave., New York.—Ed.]

A. Butler, Waynesboro, Miss.

We failed to get the programs, but we did very well. Collection, $2.00, and when we get the programs we expect to raise more. We also baptized twelve children that day.

Y. Jones, Helm, Miss.

Children's Day at Mallalien Chapel was carried out grandly. Collection, $3.75. Our pastor, G. H. Harvey, was with us and delivered an excellent address.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

Mr. Editor: I wish to enquire for my husband. He left this place two years and seven months ago. I have not heard from him for a year and seven months. His name is Asbury Brown. Any information will be thankfully received. Address: Rosa Brown, Hattiesburg, Perry county, Miss.

Mr. Editor: I wish to enquire for my two half brothers. They were carried from Neshoba county, Miss., by a man named Arch Donald in 1866, just after the war closed. Their names are Frank Samuel and Daniel Samuel. And also two nephews named Abe Samuel and Gns Samuel, and one niece, Catherine Samuel. They all were carried to Arkansas. If any information can be heard of them please address me, James Samuel, in care H. T. Hampton, P. E., DeKalb, Miss.

Mr. Editor: I want to inquire for my father and brother. My father's name is Carter Bowlding, and my brother's name is James Edwards Tiler. My mother's name was Nancy Coal, she belonged to old Mrs. Ashmore, and at the death of her she belonged to Mr. Alexander Berryman. My name was Fannie Bowlding when I left Virginia. I am now at Harrisburg, Tex. My name is changed to Fanny Burns. Direct your letter to Fanny Burns, care of Wilson Burley, Harrisburg, Tex.

PRESIDING Elders must bear in mind that lay delegates must be elected, in their fourth quarterly conferences this year, to attend the Lay Electoral conferences, to elect delegates to the next General Conference. It would be well too for them to begin at once to raise their apportionments for the entertainment of the next General Conference.

WHENEVER you notice a long string of names published in the SOUTHWESTERN with the amounts they contributed to the church, you can take it for granted that those names went in as regularly paid advertisement. They are never admitted otherwise. We cannot afford it. Neither can we publish statistics and apportionments, unless paid for as advertisement.

Books and Current Literature.

The Methodist Review.

The opening article of the July-August Methodist Review is by Prof. C. H. Bradley, D.D., on "The Epistle to the Ephesians and the Higher Criticism." It is a critical and scholarly paper. Prof. H. M. Harman, D.D., writes an important article on Tatian's Diatessaron. The biographical sketch of George Barcroft, by R. C. Houghton, D.D., is of much interest. Professor H. W. Conn writes of Natural Selection and Christianity, from the scientific standpoint. E. S. Todd, D.D., furnishes a temperance article of practical value in "A Lesson from the Old World for the New." A pertinent contribution to the present theological controversy is found in the able paper of Dr. Edward Cowley on "The Old Testament After the Battle; and a discussion of an important phase of Methodist law in Constitutionality of Paragraph One Hundred and Ninety-three, by A. A. Gee, D.D.

The editorial departments of the Review maintain their high standard. "Opinion" is thoughtful, terse, and trenchant. The three editorials under Current Discussions are, Of the Use and Value of the Fathers, Was John Wesley the Founder of American Methodism? and A Reply, but Not a Refutation. All of these editorial utterances are of exceptional importance. In Progress of Civilization, The Arena, The Itinerant's Club, and Foreign Resumes the usual variety of instructive matter is found. The Spirit of the Reviews and Magazines tabulate the contents of the latter periodicals, and the Critiques and Notices give an adequate criticism of recent books. Too much cannot be said in commendation of this chief publication of the church. Its prompt notice of the theological changes of the times, its freedom of discussion, and its comprehensive range of topics entitle it to a wide reading.

At Brown's, an Adirondack Story, by Jean Kate Ludlum, has been published by Hunt & Eaton, New York and New Orleans, and Cranstons & Stowe, Cincinnati. Price $1.25. No one can read this charming story without being better for it. Instead of wasting their time and energy in reading worthless and soul-destroying novels we would commend to all lovers of fiction, such story books as are published by our Book Concern.

A. E. P. ALBERT, D. D., - Editor

Official paper for the following Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church: Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas, West Texas, Tennessee, East Tennessee, Little Rock, Central Alabama, Savannah, Florida, North Carolina and South Carolina.

Largest Circulation of any Religious Newspaper in New Orleans.

THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1891.

JUBILEE EDITION
NEXT WEEK!

Let every church order extra copies for general distribution. Send your orders at once, or you will not be able to get them at all. $3 per hundred; smaller or larger orders in proportion. Order with the cash, to Hunt & Eatou, 139 Poydras street, New Orleans.

Mrs. J. BENTLEY, director of the Silver Spray Circle, has remembered us with complimentary tickets to the basket picnic to be given by the Circle at Spanish Fort, Monday, July 20.

ONLY four members of the great historical General Conference of 1844 are still living, viz: Freeborn G. Hibbard, of the Geesee Conference; James M. Jamieson, of the Ohio Conference, living at Los Angeles, South California; Jerome C. Berryman, of the St. Louis Conference, M. E. Church, South; Andrew Hunter, of the Arkansas Conference, M. E. Church, South.

THE Rev. G. S. Chadbourne read a paper at a recent convention held in Boston to secure the "Better observance of the Christian Sabbath," which has been published in tract form. He rightly affirms that the chief agency in producing the increasing desecration of the Sabbath is the Sunday newspaper. It is a strong and unanswerable statement of the case. Copies may be had of McDonald, Gill & Co., Boston, at three cents each.

HAVE you ordered extra copies of our Jubilee number of the SOUTHWESTERN to be published next month? Only a few days remain wherein you can order. We ought to get 20,000 copies of that very valuable issue out among our people. The smallest charge ought to order at least a dozen or more copies. In no way can a quarter, half a dollar or a dollar be more profitably spent. Rally brethren; rally. The paper is not Dr. Albert's, but yours.

THE Rocky Mountain Christian Advocate wants to be made official, and the delegates from the Colorado to the General Conference, within whose bounds it is published, have been so instructed. Several other papers west of the Rocky Mountains have also expressed a similar desire. The thing ought to be done; and every paper published and circulating among our people that desires to become part and parcel of the Book Concern, and that is found to be of substantial value to the church should be brought into the official family of our advocates. Methodism should be thoroughly connective in every department.

REV. C. D. SHALLOWHORNE, Shreveport, requests us to announce that the Preachers' Convention which he called to meet at Baton Rouge this week, has been postponed on account of the terrible disaster which afflicted that city last week.

Since the above was put in type a telegram from Bro. Shallowhorne informs us that the convention will convene on the 15, 16 and 17th inst. at Baton Rouge. We warn the brethren however, that if they attend the convention, for the object set forth in the call, they do so against the expressed objection of the bishops, some of whom have emphatically written us against it. The Annual Conference is the time and place to discuss such subjects.

The Roman Church and the Negro.

Those of our people who are easily baited by the seductions of Romanism in its pretensions of "liberty, equality and fraternity" in certain quarters, must be silly indeed, or must be unpardonably ignorant of the history of the Roman Catholic Church. In New York, it is seeking to overthrow religious freedom by urging the adoption of what it hypocritically denominates the "Freedom of Worship Bill," while its jesuitical emissaries are holding Mr. Penzotti, a Protestant missionary, in a dungeon in Peru, simply because he held private religious services in his house. He has been in prison for nine months, for the alleged crime of holding a religious meeting in public, for the criminality consists simply in the publicity. Such is Romanism wherever it controls affairs. Such would be the case in this country if the church had the power. The Pope, too, it must be borne in mind, was the only power to recognize the Southern Confederacy and slavery. Rome is all things to all men, if thereby she can hood-wink the greatest number to permit her to get the ascendancy anywhere. Her paws are velvet, but they are full of destructive claws, nevertheless. Those who land that church for her freedom from prejudice against the colored people, should remember that that church, with her world-wide organization, hasn't a dozen Negro ministers in this country, and conducts her missionary operations among the colored people on the color line, just as the Southern branches of all the Protestant churches do. Arch bishop Janssen is heading a movement in this city now for the separate education of colored Roman Catholic children. The mere suggestion, on the part of the Cruiser, that this separate institution would not be necessary, if existing institutions of that church here were opened to all races upon equal terms, worked the Morning Star, official organ of the Roman Church in this city, into a frenzy, and it came very near hurling its official anathema against the defenseless head of our plucky conferee. If any one is still in doubt on the subject, he needs only read the following from the same official source:

"There is for the Negro no place on earth—at least in America—like the cotton field. There may be certain Northern-horn Negroes, whose nature has been vitiated by an early acquaintance of ice and snow, who may be induced to undertake employments of the subterranean kind, but not the Southern darkey. The South needs her Negroes in all respects save as politicians, and they are naturally fast dropping that unnatural role. In fact the combination of the two races, as realized in our Southern States, is an ideal condition of society. Ever since it was said: 'His children shall be servants of their brethren,' nature has conformed her laws to the fiat. The descendants of Ham are instinctively the servants of their brethren."

That editor must be utterly ignorant of the fact that there are now other authorities upon the Negro, that have superseded "Cotton is King."

And then, the idea of his objection to Negroes in politics. Is it right; is it common honesty, for the South to claim and avail itself of the proportionate representation in the council of the nation which was set apart as the Negroes' share, and deny him every vestige of that representation? Is that what the South promised, when she stacked her arms at Appomattox and promised to obey the National Constitution? With what consistency does that Irish-Catholic official organ defend such a crime? With the same, doubtless, that its church advocates freedom of worship (?) in this country and imprisons Protestant missionaries in Roman Catholic countries; and with the same that it advocates temperance and humanity in one column and advertises wines and liquors, lotteries and bull fights, for the benefit of the church, in another. We warn our people everywhere to beware of the unchangeable and unchangeable giant in his cage.

Epworth Leaguers and Christian's Vacation.

Bishop Mallalieu has an article in the Pittsburg Christian Advocate of a recent date, in which he gives the most wholesome advice to Christian people leaving home for a vacation. Among other good things he says:

"Let your light shine wherever you are; and into whatever company you may be thrown, still be true to your church and your profession. No matter if your church is the smallest, and most dilapidated, and the preacher the poorest, stand by your own! That will take a little heroism and courage. It would take neither to stand by your church if it was the best and largest and had the most eloquent preacher. It needs but little manhood to shout 'Hosannah!' when the King rides over Olivet into the Holy City. The real test comes when the shadows gather about Gethsemane, and the hooting mob crowd the hall of Pilate. So let all the leaguers abroad, as well as at home, be true to Christ and their own church, and the holy profession they have made. Let them remember that God, and holy angels, and it may be, wicked men, watch the course they take."

And, finally, let no Epworth Leaguer go on a vacation without taking a Bible, and at least some good book, and if possible some sort of a Methodist hymnal. There is a common fault among modern preachers and Christian people—they read unendingly monotonous daily papers altogether too much, and the Bible and good books altogether too little; and especially is this the case during vacations. The next literary variety to the daily papers is the summer novel. It is weaker than city milk, and some of it, like ice from stagnant pools, contains the seeds of fever and death. Better by far take the Bible for daily mental and spiritual pabulum.

"What glory gilds the sacred page! Majestic like the sun, It gives a light to every age; It gives, but borrows none."

Let every leaguer take his Bible on his vacation, and hold to it as a mailed crusader would do to his well-tried shield. In this way will come the steadfast "Look up" that sees God ever ready to help, and a mighty increase of strength to "Lift up" all who need help.

The Relation of Baptized Children to the Church.

We know of no doctrinal question which has been less emphasized and understood by our people and ministry than that which involves "The relation of baptized children to the church." The old Calvinistic doctrine fills the prison house of damnation with millions of "infants a span long." This however is not Arminian nor Methodist doctrine, as we read from the Scriptures. The doctrine of our church on the question is very pointedly laid down in our Discipline, and should be read and emphasized by all our ministers and people. We claim that all the children belong to God, and are members of His Kingdom; that they are entitled to baptism; should be placed under the care of proper leaders for instruction; and when of sufficient age to understand the obligations of religion, and give evidence of piety, should be admitted into full membership in the church. See ¶ 37-41 Methodist Discipline 1888. Read and explain it to your people.

Want to Build a Railroad.

The colored people of Texas are about to start a railroad project. The plan is to organize and charter a railroad, and put on foot a scheme to sell stock and collect on it, leaving the money in safe hands, for instance a national bank, and when they shall have collected on a goodly number of shares, they hope to command money from home and foreign capitalists. The route of the proposed road is to begin at Houston and run to the mouth of Big Brazos, and from thence to Waco. The projectors say, "In the first place, if the deep water succeeds at the mouth of Big Brazos, and there is no reason to doubt it, we will have an opportunity to haul all foreign imports, north and south in Texas. Another advantage would be the privilege of locating towns along the lines, and the Negro would be the first owners. The next thing, the state would be in honor bound to make donations of land to the road as it has in all other cases. The projectors of the enterprise are confident of success and request that all interested in such a movement communicate with them. Mr. J. N. Gillett, of Hearne, Texas, is at the head of the movement."

Echoes From the Presiding Elders' Convention.

Presiding Elder Warren McDonald, of the Upper Mississippi Conference, is among those who are determined to make good the pledge of the Convention, to see to it that the SOUTHWESTERN has a cash circulation of 10,000 subscribers before next General Conference. He began his canvass before he reached his home. On his way from the Convention he secured us some subscribers. Transmitting them to us with the cash, he says: "The SOUTHWESTERN must have 10,000 cash subscribers." That's what we call proving one's faith by his works. Now, let every presiding elder, pastor and friend, swing in line and victory is assured in less than thirty days.

Political Review.

The Democratic State Convention of Ohio meets at Cleveland, O., this week, to nominate State officers. The indications are that Gov. Campbell, present incumbent, will be renominated. In view of the unity of the Republicans in their support of Gen. McKinley, their candidate, and the dissensions in the ranks of the Democracy, it is generally conceded that the Republican ticket will be elected by a majority ranging from 25,000 to 30,000.

The fight between George and Barksdale for the U. S. Senatorship in Mississippi, keeps the political pot boiling at a tremendous rate. A majority of the counties that have expressed their choice have thus far pronounced for Senator George. The next week or two will decide whether it is to be George or Barksdale. There is practically no opposition in Democratic ranks to Gen. Walthall for his own successor to the U. S. Senate.

The Lottery legion having subsidized the daily press of this city, and many of the country weeklies, have turned their hands to the establishment of a weekly paper down town, and will soon establish another up town, they say, to foster the interests of the Lottery. One cannot take up a paper in this city, scarcely, without being nauseated with the wicked exhortations that they give to the people in support of that infamous institution. Our people should have nothing to do with the immoral and accursed infamy. They have everything to gain by aligning themselves on the side of morality, on this and on every question; but everything to lose when they side for lotteries, intemperance, and other debasing vices and immoralities. Let us stand on the side of God and good men, and God will take care of us; and He is more than all that can be against us.

On the call of Mr. Parkerson, prominent leader in the lynching of the "Dagoes," March 14, an association known as the Municipal Reform Association has been organized to secure, as they say, good government for this city. The movement is practically the Young Men's Democracy, which carried the last municipal election, under a new name. The Y. M. D. A. carried the last election with the alliance of the 8000 colored voters, which supported their ticket. The present M. R. A. has a plank in its platform which says that it shall be composed of "white citizens" only. Under the circumstances, it is quite settled that it will not control a single Negro vote. The tone of the platform and the speeches of the projectors of the association were of the bulldozing type. "Ring" or no ring, no self-respecting colored man can afford to spit and trample upon his manhood in such a manner as to vote for whatever ticket this Reform (?) Association may decide to nominate.

Personal.

—GENERAL ARMSTRONG, founder of the Hampton School for Indians and Negroes, is the son of a missionary, and was born in the Sandwich Islands, where his father was stationed. He is to visit his birthplace this summer. When he began his work among the Negroes in the South, both himself and his wife were absolutely ostracized by the whites.

—Mrs. E. Foster, wife of Presiding Elder Foster of the Waco district, and Mrs. M. T. Henry, both prominent members of St. James M. E. Church, Waco, Texas, are spending a few days at San Antonio, guests of Mrs. J. T. Gibbons.

—Rev. M. M. McKinney, of the Central Alabama Conference, mourns the death of his wife. She died June 29. More extended notice next week.

—A note from Rev. R. Smith, Presiding Elder of the Greensboro district, N. C., says: "I see in the SOUTHWESTERN the name of a lost pastor, Rev. C. W. W. W. He is not a member of the North Carolina Conference. He was a probationer, but he is expelled. He was used as a supply on the Western district, and he stole the missionary money and borrowed an overcoat and left the State last September. He was at Randolph, N. C., two months ago, and spent money freely and left. I do not know what has become of him since."

—Address Rev. B. Bolden, at Boyce, La., and not at Fairmount.

—Our types last week made us say that Bishop Mallalieu had left for the North. Exactly the reverse is true. After spending several weeks in the North, he had then left for the South, and is expected here daily.

—After several weeks absence on his district, Presiding Elder Priestley is now at home, in this city for a few days. He is delighted with the outlook on his work. Revivals and church building are in progress throughout the district.

—Miss Clara M. Cushman, the missionary to China, has returned to the United States and is now resting for a season with her devoted parents, Rev. and Mrs. L. P. Cushman, Lynn, Mass. Our people remember the whole family with a sense of gratitude, for their works' sake.

—The great London preacher, Mr. Spurgeon, we regret to announce, is very sick, and is not expected to live.

A note from Bishop Goodsell, dated Tientsin, May 25, says, "I leave for Korea on to-morrow. The day announced for more rioting in different parts of China is the 31st of May. I am going, however, at my appointed time and shall still be in Chefoo, China, on the 31st." Dickinson College has recently conferred upon him the degree of LL.D.

—Rev. C. H. Spurgeon, the great London preacher, is reported as seriously ill.

—Rev. A. Hodgetts, who was made a Doctor of Divinity at the last commencement at New Orleans University, is pastor of South Tenth Street Church, Omaha, Neb.

—At the recent session of the Colorado Conference, Rev. A. J. Gustafson, of the Austin Conference, and stationed for the past five years at the Swedish Church, Austin, Texas, was transferred and stationed at Denver. Rev. N. Ekland, of Denver, was transferred to the Austin Conference, and stationed at Austin.—Central Christian Advocate.

—Bishop Fowler is improving in health, but seems to be kept too busy for his permanent restoration. He is looking after the work on the Pacific coast.

—The Christian Apologist of July 2 contained an excellent picture and sketch of the Rev. Sanford Hunt, D.D., Senior Agent of our Eastern Book Concern.

—Mrs. Mary Karuick, who has been doing evangelistic work among our people in the LaTeche country, has gone North, not being able to work longer here during the summer. Best wishes and prayers follow her.

—Rev. Geo. Griemard, who for about two months was employed in the work of the French Mission in this city, has gone back to his home in Massachusetts. While here he made many friends who regret his departure.

Church Policy.

Q. Is it not a fact that you and Dr. Hartzell, and all others holding General Conference offices are, by virtue of their offices, members of the General Conference?

SUBSCRIBER.

A. No. The General Conference is a purely delegated body, and no one is a member thereof unless elected thereto, either by an Annual or Lay Electoral Conference.

If I, has anything against his Presiding Elder, or anybody else in the church, the proper thing to do is to follow the disciplinary course in the premises. No one is above the Discipline, from a probationer to a bishop. But we cannot open our columns for personal attacks against any of our brethren, however humble or exalted, lay or clerical. That is not the mission of the SOUTHWESTERN nor its editor.

City Church Notes.

(Brief items of news from the city churches will be welcome either handed us by pastors or laymen.)

The Children's Day collection at First Street Church was $18, instead of $10, as published last week.

Rev. J. W. Hudson, preached the forty-ninth anniversary sermon of the Morning Star Society, at Pleasant Plains Church last Sunday. The sermon was able, and the occasion one of temporal and spiritual profit.

Important Notice.

All pastors, presiding elders and other members of our church who attended the Presiding Elders' Convention at Chattanooga, are requested to send their names and postoffice addresses at once to Rev. E. W. S. Hammond, D.D., 805 Rensselaer street, Covington, Ky., also, all who delivered addresses, or in any-wise partook in the deliberations of the convention are requested to reduce to writing whatever they delivered to that body and forward it at once to Dr. Hammond.

Special to Teachers?

In accordance with the notice which appeared in the SOUTHWESTERN some weeks ago, a number of teachers have written us for the important information we desired to impart to them, but many have thus far failed to do so. Again we would urge every teacher reading this paper, to send his address to the editor of this paper at once; and he will learn something greatly to his advantage. Only a few more weeks remain, wherein you may answer this request to your advantage. Address Rev. A. E. P. Albert, D.D., 139 Poydras street, New Orleans, La.

DAILY BREAD.

If the way to heaven be narrow, it is not long; and if the gate be strait, it opens into endless life.—Bishop Beveridge.

Love, the true love of God, is the love of his truth, of his holiness, of his whole will; the true love is that which reflects itself in obedience; the true love is that which stirs and purifies the conscience.—Vinet.

True happiness never flows into a man, but always out of him. Hence heaven is sometimes found in cottages and hell in palaces. Heaven itself is more internal than external.—J. P. Newman.

I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go. My own wisdom and that of all about me seemed insufficient for that day.—A. Lincoln.

God has commanded us in the most solemn manner to "remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." It is to be regarded not as a common day, in worldly pursuits or in worldly pleasures; but as a day especially set apart to the Lord, to be spent with special reference to his service and glory. Conversation and pursuits of a worldly character entirely proper on other days are not proper on the Sabbath. God claims one day in seven as a day of rest from worldly toil and care, to be devoted especially to his worship and service. All secular labor, except works of mercy, which are always well pleasing to God, and works of necessity, which cannot be deferred, is proper on the Lord's day.

One of the greatest sins of the present time, and one that is doing more to demoralize our population than any other, is the desecration of the Sabbath. Its sacredness is disregarded, and when not employed in worldly pursuits, it is largely spent in worldly pleasure and in scenes of dissipation and vice. Instead of being used to honor God. It is made the special occasion by many to cast reproach upon his name, and to trample under foot everything that is sacred and divine.

To what extent professing Christians are responsible for this state of things it is not easy to determine, but that they are to some extent responsible, does not admit of doubt. Many of them not only indulge in Sabbath desecration themselves, but countenance and encourage it in others. If all Christian people would conscientiously observe the Lord's day and bring their influence to bear in a proper way to secure its decent observance by others, many of the worldly pursuits which are now carried on upon the Sabbath, and many of the scenes of dissipation and vice which now dishonor the day and the God who has sanctified it, would soon disappear, and a better state of things would be introduced.

This subject certainly demands serious consideration. Professing Christians cannot expect God to bless and prosper them while they profane his Sabbath, disregard his authority, and dishonor his name.—Christian at Work.

As a rule grown up girls have more spare time than is good for them. Many of the occupations they are accustomed to look on as the toils of their lives—fancy work, paying visits, practicing, etc.—are, as many married women and not a few girls could tell them, little more than healthful and pleasant recreations. If many a girl would but keep an account of her time for a week, she would be startled to find how much of it, if not absolutely lost, is frittered away. She would discover that one or two hours' reading would hardly interfere if properly arranged as to time, with any of her amusements and occupations, and would be simply invaluable in giving ballast to her mind, as would an hour a day devoted to the conquest of a modern or an ancient language, or to the study of mathematics.

Let a girl, even if she cannot find time for self-improvement, give up novel reading for a time. She will find the deprivation will be far less than she would have imagined, and may console herself by reflecting that the taste for novel reading is easily regained, while the appetite for graver study cannot be found if once really lost. Girls who love good poetry will be astonished at how much they can get by heart by learning one or two verses every morning while dressing; and to find how infinite a treasure through their whole lives will be those "Jewels which on the stretched forefinger of all time, sparkle forever," and which they have made their own by committing to memory.—Cleveland Leader.

Scripture Lesson, Isaiah 53. Text, 2 Cor. 8: 9: "For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich."

Introduction.—The text was originally written by Paul to encourage the believers in Corinth to practice the virtue of Christian liberality.

It was the teaching of the great apostle that every person should lay aside something every week for benevolent purposes. He taught regular, and systematic giving. He had two rules, first, that all should give as God had prospered them; and, secondly, that the contributions should be made from week to week. If all good Christians would observe these two rules all good causes would have abundant funds.

Paul used two arguments to persuade the Corinthian Christians to observe the rules he had laid down. The first was drawn from the example of the Macedonian Christians. As they were prompt and liberal in their giving, so should the Christians at Corinth follow this good example.

The second argument was drawn from the example of Christ—as set forth in the text.

I. The Lord Jesus Christ was indeed rich before he came to this world.

(a) He had created all things. "All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made" John 1: 3. Because he had created all things he was the owner of all things. The gold and silver and the cattle upon a thousand hills all belonged to him.

Every star, and sun, all the universe belonged to him.

(b) He enjoyed the love and homage of all angels, and archangels, and all the heavenly hosts. They all loved him; from highest to lowest he was the supreme object of their affections.

They all adored him, and bowed before him and worshipped him.

They were all loyal to do his will, and obey his commandments.

(c) He was rich in power and glory.

He sustained all worlds, and governed and controlled the universe.

He reigned over all holy intelligences. He held in subjection all rebellious and fallen spirits.

He was almighty in the administration of all laws.

II. But Jesus Christ for our sake became poor.

He left the throne of the universe, he laid aside the glory he had shared with the Father from all eternity. He seemed to be separated from the angels who loved and adored him.

(a) He was so poor, that when he took upon himself our nature, and was born of a woman, his birthplace was a stable, and his cradle was a manger.

(b) He took upon himself the form of a servant, and led a life of humble toil. He worked at the carpenter's bench for his daily bread.

(c) He was a homeless stranger on earth. He said of himself, that the foxes had holes and the birds of the air had nests, but he had not where to lay his head.

(d) At the last he was robbed of his clothing, was crucified between two thieves and murderers, and buried in a grave that did not belong to him or to any of his kindred.

And all this poverty he took upon himself freely for the good of a poor, wicked, perishing world of sinful men. He did it for our sake.

III. He endured all this self-sacrifice, and self-denial, and stripped himself of all wealth and dominion, and glory, that we through his poverty might be made rich.

(a) Without Christ we are beggars for time and eternity.

(b) If we give our hearts to Christ in penitence and faith,—we are enriched in this world with pardon, peace, joy, and full salvation.

(c) If we take Christ for our friend he will be with us in the dying hour. When rich men have to give up all their gold and earthly possessions, we shall have Christ to go through the valley of the shadow of death, and all fear will be taken away, and we shall conquer death.

(d) If we cling to Christ he will bring us to a mansion, and a crown, and to eternal joy in heaven.

He will make us to sit down on his throne as he has sat down with his Father on his throne.

We shall be kings and priests forever.

All the riches of the universe will be ours to all eternity.

What a glorious prospect! We shall be richer than the angels.

IV. Finally it is for this, that we should make sacrifice, and give of our earthly substance to bless the bodies and save the souls of men.

If our Lord Jesus Christ became poor for our sake that we through his poverty might be made rich—we who are his followers ought to give with abundant liberty to help the poor, to build schools and churches, to sustain the preaching of the Gospel, and especially to send missionaries to all parts of the heathen world.

We are not true followers of Jesus unless we do this.

Schools and Colleges.

The Slater Fund.

The trustees of the Slater Fund report the distribution of $47,000 among thirty-six Southern colored schools and colleges during the past year. This year $50,000 will be distributed.

Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., is growing in power and influence under President O. N. Grandison's administration. During the first year of his administration, 1889-90, the number of students was 173; the year preceding under the old, 125. This session, 1890-91, the enrollment is 218. Dr. Hartzell told Prof. Grandison on assuming the Presidency of Bennett that when he crowded the building with students so that it "made the walls crack," he would have a new building erected. This was done the very first year. There were more students than could be accommodated in the building, so many had to find lodgings among families in the city. Now for the new building.

Good News to Teachers.

You can make money during vacation canvassing for the SOUTHWESTERN, "The House of Boudage," and "The Colored Man in the M. E. Church." Write for terms to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, New Orleans, La.

Teachers desiring schools to teach; and communities in need of teachers can find no better means of securing what they want than by advertising their wants through the SOUTHWESTERN. Forty thousand people read our paper every week. Write for terms.

Pineville, La.—June 17, Mr. John Robertson to Miss Chloe Ann Washington. Rev. J. L. Augustus officiating.

Goliad, Texas.—June 16, Miss F. D. Biltups of Goliad and Mr. W. S. Walker, of San Antonio, Texas. M. C. Cavines, P. C.

Donaldsonville, La.—At St. Peter M. E. Church, July 3, 7 p. m., Mr. James Roberts to Miss Mary Strain. Rev. H. J. Wright officiating.

Obituary.

Mrs. Celia Bryan, aged about 50 years, the wife of Rev. J. M. Bryan, deceased member of the Louisiana Annual Conference, died in Donaldsonville, La., Saturday, June 27, 12 p. m. Her husband was an earnest worker in the church. Since his death she has been on the conference claimant list, and the several preachers returning from the several conferences to her the sum of $140, since the death of her husband, notwithstanding she was not a member of our church or any other, and never visited any church for several years. She leaves three sons, two of whom are members of the conference, Rev. C. D. C. Bryan, no at Columbus, La., and the Rev. J. M. Bryan, step-son, stationed at Klotzville, La., who is the oldest son of the late Bro. Bryan. She desired to see her son so much, and called "Cornelius," but he failed to reach her bedside. Only her step-son James came in time. Rev. H. J. Wright, pastor of St. Peter M. E. Church, was a frequent visitor to read, sing and pray with her; the members also assisted, as the Methodists generally do. She expressed a strong hope of salvation and was fully conscious to the last. She was buried by Rev. H. J. Wright.

Allegon, Texas.—A sad accident occurred at this place June 9. Bro. Ed. Wright and Sister C. W. Wright allowed their two boys to go out hunting and fishing, aged respectively 9 and 12 years. While out the oldest accidentally shot himself in the abdomen, which caused his death the next day. He joined the church in his ninth year and lived a faithful Christian. G. R. S.

Benton, Miss.—June 15, Bro. Tate Allen, a faithful member of Mt. Pleasant Church, after a short illness, died in the full triumph of faith. He told his wife and friends that he was ready and willing to die. He leaves a wife and children to mourn.

Sister Narcissa Smith, a faithful member of the same church, died in full triumph of faith. She leaves two brothers and sisters to mourn. J. I. Garrett.

Fayette, Miss.—Bro. Percy Wright departed this life May 13. He was a member of Mt. Pleasant M. E. Church.

Sister Daffany Bowen died very suddenly on the 17th of June. She was one among the first members that joined our church here when it was organized. P. Cannon, P. C. (Rec'd July 2.—Ed.)

Wilson, La.—June 16, Alice M. White, the grand-daughter of Sister K. Green, departed this life, after an illness of nearly two months. E. H. Clark, P. C.

A Poverty-stricken Millionaire!

This seems a paradox, but it is explained by one of New York's richest men. "I don't count my wealth in dollars," he said. "What are all my possessions to me, since I am a victim of consumption? My doctor tells me that I have but a few months to live, for the disease is incurable. I am poorer than that beggar yonder." "But," interrupted the friend to whom he spoke, "consumption can be cured. If taken in time, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will eradicate every vestige of the disease from your system." "I'll try it," said the millionaire, and he did; and to-day there is not a healthier, happier man to be found anywhere. The "Discovery" strikes at the seat of the complaint. Consumption is a disease of the blood—is nothing more nor less than lung-scurf—and it must and does yield to this wonderful remedy.

"Golden Medical Discovery" is not only an acknowledged remedy for that terribly fatal malady, when taken in time and given a fair trial, but also for all forms of Scrofulous, Skin and Scalp Diseases, as White Swellings, Fever-sores, Hip-joint Disease, Salt-rheum, Tetter, Eczema, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas and kindred ailments.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

We are called to mourn the loss of Bro. George Pye, one of Owens Chapel's best workers, a devoted Christian and beloved father. He leaves a wife, children, brother, sisters and mother to mourn.

Sister Temar Grant departed this life May, 1891. She goes from labor to reward. She lived a faithful, Christian life, and leaves a husband, children and a host of kindred to grieve after her. J. L. Owens, P. C. (Rec'd July 3.—Ed.)

Bedford, La.—Sister Minerva Ellis departed this life June 11. She was one of the stewards sisters of Corinth M. E. Church. She was converted and joined the church in 1884, and lived a faithful member. She was sick eight months. The day before she died she was visited by her pastor, to whom she said that she was aiting on the Lord. She fell asleep in the arms of Jesus. She leaves a mother, husband, three children, three brothers, three sisters and many friends to mourn her loss. Her funeral was preached by the writer.

S. R. Hason, Pastor.

French Camp, Miss.—A young man who was a member of Mt. Moriah M. E. Church, but had backslided, was plowing in his farm with another man and his wife; the young man, Mose Liston, was killed by lightning, and the horse he was plowing with was not hurt. The other man was 60 or 70 yards off from him. The same flash killed the horse he was plowing with, but did not hurt him or Mose's wife. Man ought always to pray. Moses had been swearing just before he was killed. The funeral was attended by the writer. "Watch ye therefore and pray; for ye know not the hour when the Son of man cometh." N. B. Blackman.

Spencer, Tenn.—Sister Viola Buchanan, a faithful member of Smith Chapel M. E. Church, died in full triumph of faith June 11. She was a consistent member for about five years. She leaves a husband, a child and friends to mourn.

Vacation Rambles.

This is the time of the year when the thoughts of those in the crowded cities turn to a cool and pleasant retreat. If you are in quest of such a place, the mountains of Kentucky and Tennessee with their high altitudes and refreshing breezes are as inviting as any place on the continent. The hotels are first class. Board is reasonable. The fishing is good, and you do not have to spend 24 hours on the road to reach them. A daylight run by the Queen & Crescent Route will land you at any of these prominent resorts. "Summer Tours" will be mailed free to any address on application to D. G. Edwards, G. P. and T. A. Queen & Crescent Route, Cincinnati, O.

My CATARRH was very bad. For thirty years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the Balm.—J. W. Mathewson, (Lawyer), Pawtucket, R. I.

WHY do you persist in writing on both sides of a sheet paper, and with lead pencil, when writing for publication. Is it because paper and ink are so dear in your neighborhood? Why not follow our directions, and write on only one side! Unless you follow our advice, in this matter, we will have to decline to give any notice to your contributions.

$10 BATTERY LOANED.

If you are not enjoying perfect health, strength and vigor, we will lend you for 60 days one of Gray's Galvanic Body Batteries, price $10, you to pay for it if cured. If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." MRS. ELLA A. GOFF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

"Lo, I am With You Always."

BY MISSIE WEST.

"Lo, I am with you always," saith the Lord
When the way is dark,
And thy life seems cold,
And no sunshine brooders
Thy path with gold,
When thy friends forsake thee,
And life's storms o'er take thee,
"Lo, I am with you always," saith the Lord.

"Lo, I am with you always," saith the Lord.
When the way is bright,
And thy life seems sweet,
And with joyous fulness
Is thy heart replete,
When no storms o'er take thee,
And no joys escape thee,
"Lo, I am with you always," saith the Lord.

"Lo, I am with you always," saith the Lord.
Whether light or dark
Be thy walk through life,
Whether joy or grief,
Whether peace or strife;
Whether sorrow's waves harass thee,
Whether joy's bright beams caress thee,
"Lo, I am with you always," saith the Lord.

"Lo, I am with you always," saith the Lord.
Through life's changing scenes
To eternity's dawn,
Through the vale of time
To the next world's morn;
During all the years he gives thee,
To this world's sure end He's with thee,
"Lo, I am with you always," saith the Lord.

Care of the Eyes.

Of all the special senses, that of sight seems to be the most indispensable to the happiness and usefulness of man, and for this reason the greater care should be exercised in guarding the eyes from all dangers that may threaten to injure them. The eye is an organ of wonderful mechanism and exquisite sensibility, and injuries to it so slight, that they would scarcely be noticed in other parts of the body, will deprive us of sight, or produce great suffering.

The following rules for preserving the eye-sight should be observed:—

1. Never use the eyes when they are tired or painful, nor with an insufficient or dazzling light. Lamps should always be shaded.

2. Light should fall upon the object viewed from over the left shoulder if possible; it should never come from in front.

3. Hold the object squarely before the eye and at the proper distance which is usually about fifteen inches. Holding it too far produces near-sightedness.

4. Never read on the cars, or when riding in a wagon or a street car, or when lying down.

5. Avoid sudden exposure of the eyes to a bright light as when first waking from sleep. Study by lamp-light before breakfast is practically injurious on this account.

6. Rest the eyes at short intervals when severely taxing them; tired eyes may be refreshed by bathing in cool water or warm water as hot as it can be borne.

7. Upon the discovery of any defect in the sight, consult a competent physician.

With the exception of the incandescent electric lamp, the best artificial light for reading or studying is obtained from the "Student's lamp."

General Church News.

Statistics of the Lutheran Church, gathered by the Rev. J. N. Lenker, of Leadville, Col., show in Europe a total of 22,980 ministers, 29,644 churches, and 43,133,696 baptized members; in North America, 4,710 ministers, 7,964 churches, and 6,511,500 baptized members. Including the statistics of Oceania, South America, Africa, and Asia, with those already given, he makes the grand total in the world of 28,406 ministers, 38,381 churches, and 50,061,280 baptized members.

Chief Justice Bleckly, of Georgia, has decided, in a suit brought with reference to the payment of salary to a minister, that the salary must be paid. He says: "If any debt ought to be paid it is one contracted for the health of souls, for pious ministrations and holy service. If any class of debtors ought to pay, as a matter of moral as well as legal duty, the good people of a christian church are of that class. We think a court may well constrain this church to do justice. It is certainly an energetic measure to sell the church to pay the preacher, nor would it be allowable to do so if other means of satisfying the debt were within reach."

Equally safe for young or old, Ayer's Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood from all impurities.

Sister Martha Shelby, a motherly, settled woman of kindly disposition, whose health will not permit her to do anything else, is anxious to get employment as a nurse for one or more children. Her charges are very reasonable. Any one in need of such help would confer a favor by calling on or addressing her at No. 10 Labadie street, Third District, this city.

General News Items.

Twenty South Carolina Negroes landed at New York recently direct from Liberia. They were thankful to get back alive and ragged.—Ex.

Any American Negro who is fool enough to go to any part of Africa ought to stay there.—Langston City Herald.

The people of Holton, Kas., are justly proud of the first lady to graduate as a lawyer from Kansas State University, in the person of Mrs. Ella W. Brown.

W. B. Townsend, who has just finished a course in the law department of the Kansas State University, was selected as one of the class orators from a class of 23, on account of his high class standing. He did himself and his race honor in his oration at the commencement exercises. It was a brave plea for justice and fair play to the Negro.

Dr. Coppenger, secretary of the American Colonization Society, returned to Washington recently from New York, where he went to ship one hundred immigrants to Liberia. As only about three hundred colored people a year are induced to go to Africa, Mr. Coppenger and his society have lost hope of depopulating this country of the descendants of Ham.

Joe Peranti, an Italian fruit vendor of Vicksburg, Miss., enticed a little colored girl, who stopped to buy fruit of him, into his den and outraged her. He was arrested but only confined one night in jail. This is southern justice—for colored people.

Thomas M. Brtton, a colored jockey of Lexington, Ky., won the Tennessee derby in April. He gets $15,000 a year for riding for Scroggins Bros., and makes about $10,000 extra annually.

Such an amount would keep fifty preachers at work a whole year for the elevation of humanity. Strange how the worldly-minded value brute force to the mental and moral.

The friends of Hon. Joseph E. Lee, United States Collector at Jacksonville, Fla., have placed his name before the President for an appointment to one of the places on the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals bench.

Our Symposium.

He is Young Yet.

Here's some funny talk recently indulged in by Mr. W. E. B. DuBois of Harvard College, at a race meeting in Boston:

"The whole underlying idea of the Federal Election Bill was wrong. Granted even that it would succeed in putting a few more Negroes into office it would not benefit the colored people. The underlying idea of the measure was that law can accomplish everything; that if you have an evil in the community all you have to do is to pass a law against it, and presto, it is gone. We must ever keep before us the fact that the South has some excuse for its present attitude. We must remember that a good many of our people south of Mason and Dixon's line are not fit for the responsibilities of republican government. When you have the right sort of black voters you will need no election laws. The battle of my people in the South must be a moral one, not a legal or a physical one."

Mr. DuBois is young yet. He does not know as much about some things as he thinks he does. The Federal Election Bill was based upon the underlying principle embodied in section one of article fifteen of the Federal Constitution, which declares that "The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude."

What Mr. DuBois has to say after the first sentence of his remark is so much humping based upon no provision in the Constitution and at war with all the principles predominant in our system of government. Southern newspapers may praise Mr. DuBois' remarks, but they represent simply the opinions of a very young man who will think and talk differently a few years hence.—N. Y. Age.

We enter a vigorous protest against the introduction of political methods and policies into the deliberations of religious assemblies. All combinations, cliques, and jantas for the purpose of reaching ends that could not be reached by fair and open means are morally wrong and reprehensible, and should be consistently and uniformly repudiated by christian men. Absolute openness should characterize all proceedings that are had in the church of God.—Nashville Christian Advocate.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Stands at the head of all blood medicines. This position it has secured by its intrinsic merit, sustained by the opinion of leading physicians, and by the certificates of thousands who have successfully tested its remedial worth. No other medicine so effectively

CURES

Scrofula, boils, pimples, rheumatism, catarrh, and all other blood diseases.

"There can be no question as to the superiority of Ayer's Sarsaparilla over all other blood-purifiers. If this was not the case, the demand for it, instead of increasing yearly, would have ceased long ago, like so many other blood medicines I could name."—F. L. Nickerson, Druggist, 75 Chelsea st., Charlestown, Mass.

"Two years ago I was troubled with salt-rheum. It was all over my body, and nothing the doctors did for me was of any avail. At last I took four bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was completely cured. I can sincerely recommend it as a splendid blood-purifier."—J. S. Bart, Upper Kewick, New Brunswick.

"My sister was afflicted with a severe case of

SCROFULA

Our doctor recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla as being the best blood-purifier within his experience. We gave her this medicine, and a complete cure was the result."—Wm. O. Jenkins, Dewees, Neb.

"When a boy I was troubled with a blood disease which manifested itself in sores on the legs. Ayer's Sarsaparilla being recommended, I took a number of bottles, and was cured. I have never since that time had a recurrence of the complaint."—J. C. Thompson, Lowell, Mass.

"I was cured of Scrofula by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—John C. Berry, Deerfield, Mo.

THE POSITIVE CURE.

Letters from the Laity.

The lyceum of our church at Bainbridge, Pa., has been discussing the equal mental capacity of the two sexes.

E. D. Brown, Bellefontaine, Miss.
Our first quarterly conference convened May 7, with Rev. R. Sewell our new Presiding Elder in the chair. The Elder preached a soul-stirring sermon. Rev. S. M. Oatu, our beloved pastor made his report. God bless the Corinth district.

Mattie A. Davis, Millville, Miss.
Bro. H. Heslop our beloved pastor has entered the work once more, to the great joy of his members and many friends. The sickness and death of his wife caused the restraint of his presence until now. Everybody was glad to meet him; and each one sympathizes with him in his bereavement. He preached two soul-stirring sermons May 31. Bro. Heslop is building a church here at this point which we hope will be ready for dedication by July 1. We have a grand Sunday school. One was received into the church last Sunday.

R. Hampton, Shubuta, Miss.
May 24 was a day of much joy and pleasure with young and old. The program prepared by the pastor and Rev. A. Houze, was nicely carried out. Five hundred persons were present to enjoy the heavenly benediction. We are glad to say that the conference made no mistake in sending the Rev. A. J. McNair to Shubuta, he is loved by all. At 3 p. m., our pastor preached to a large congregation. Rev. L. Brooks preached at night. We raised for our beloved pastor $42.25. I love the SOUTHWESTERN.

N. Shannon, Bedford circuit, La.
Sunday May 3 was a happy day at Corinth M. E. Church. Our pastor Rev. S. R. Hason, preached to a crowded house a sermon that will be long remembered, after which 83 partook of the Lord's Supper, and 5 persons joined the church. Collection $16.25. On the night of April 25, the Steward sisters gave a pound meeting for the benefit of our pastor. Sinners and members joined the party. They brought him 89 pounds of good things besides some money. Bro. Hason is a great Sunday school worker. He has organized a Sunday school at Willow Point, with 33 scholars and they are using our own books. Our church and Sunday school are almost double in number what they have been. We were sorry to lose our pastor Rev. P. B. McDonald, who was transferred to the Little Rock Conference. May God bless him wherever he goes.

D. G. Franklin, Brookston, Tex.
Our P. C., W. P. Perry preached here the 17th inst at 11 o'clock, after which another soul was added to the christian family. Our beloved elder P. Morgan, passed through our town not long since and as usual he preached a soul-stirring sermon. The closing exercises of our school took place on the 8th inst. We are pleased to say that the efforts of the students was just creditable and grand, in fact the singing was unusually good.

Catarrh Cured.

A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease Catarrh, and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found a prescription which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 88 Warren street, New York, will receive the receipt free of charge.

WHY do you persist in writing on both sides of a sheet paper, and with lead pencil, when writing for publication. Is it because paper and ink are so dear in your neighborhood? Why not follow our directions, and write on only one side? Unless you follow our advice, in this matter, we will have to decline to give any notice to your contributions.

An Unprecedented Offer!

We have made arrangements with the Chicago Manufacturing Company to supply one of their first-class Singer machines for only $14 cash. We will order a machine like the cut here shown, and send the SOUTHWESTERN a full year besides! It is a handsome oil-polished walnut, of latest design, Gothic cover, with beautiful panels, four end drawers and a swing drawer, nickel-plated, and warranted five years.

Each Machine is furnished with the following equipment: One Foot Hemmer, One Oil Can with Oil, One Gauge, and Screw, One Extra Check Spring, One Package of Needles, Five Bobbins, One Ticker, One Foot Ruffler, One Set of Plate Hemmers, four different widths up to seven-eighths of an inch, One Binder and One Thread Cutter. The Improved Tension and Thread Liberator is used on this Machine. The manufacturers offer to refund the money if purchaser is not fully satisfied with the machine.

We receive many letters inquiring about the sewing machine premium, and how to obtain it. In order that all may understand the matter, we state in addition to the announcement, that remittances should be made to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, either by check, money order, or by express, naming the nearest or most convenient freight depot to which it is to be sent. Then we order the factory in Chicago to ship the machine. The company ships it; and receives from the railroad a bill of lading which, with the warranty, is sent to us, and which we send to the subscriber. This bill of lading is good and sufficient evidence that the machine has been forwarded, and holds the railroad company responsible for its safe delivery at the station named as its destination, and in due time, save unavoidable delays. In case of its loss the railroad which caused its loss is responsible, under the laws of the land. If not arriving in due time, show the bill of lading to the station agent and he will look it up. Don't give up the bill of lading, but it may be shown to the railroad agent. All orders are sent the same day as received, and the bill of lading is sent to the subscriber the same day we get it. We started this scheme with a view to helping our patrons, and shall carefully and faithfully carry out our part of the agreement in every case.

Happy and content is a home with "The Rochester," lamp with the light of the morning. For catalogue, write Rochester Lamp Co. New York.

THE Epworth League numbers over half a million members, a very small proportion of whom are of our people. No pastor or Presiding Elder has done his full duty to our young people until he has done all in his power to gather and organize them into the Epworth League. Let us see to it that every church throughout the South has an Epworth League connected with it during the next sixty days. Now is the time to organize. Write to Dr. J. L. Harburt, 150 Fifth Ave., New York, for full instructions.

Consumption Surely Cured.
To the Editor:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for consumption. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. Address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St. N. Y.

A LIFE SAVED!

READ THE TWO STATEMENTS.

An Extraordinary Case!

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Nov. 27, 1889.

Last April I was attacked with Cholera Fever in Spanish Honduras, and was given up to die by two physicians. During that week and since I have used a pound of quinine and quantities of other medicines without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered untold agonies. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Royal Gementine. I have had no fever since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind. Am gaining strength very fast. Can walk miles at a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Gementine has been a God-send to me. I can not say too much in its praise. Any who wish to do so may call on me.

DANIEL PATTON,
481 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, JULY 1, 1891.

My improvement continued, and soon after writing the above statement I was able to go to work and have been working ever since. My health is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony, gladly, because I know that Gementine saved my life.

DANIEL PATTON.

Cholera Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Gementine has been tried on a number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It has a similar record as a remedy for Swamp Fever and Malarial troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quickest and most unfailing remedy for Fevers of all kinds, Dyspepsia, Debility, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidences from thousands of the best people in the country, and the evidences multiply in our midst every day.

For sale by druggists and country merchants, and at the Gementine office, 202 Canal street, New Orleans. For full information, circulars, etc., call on or address Kit Williams, Agent, 292 Canal street, #1 bottle; six bottles for $5.

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

The Best Remedy

In this world, says J. H. Koenig, of Syracuse, N. Y., is Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, because my son, who was partially paralyzed three years ago and attacked by fits, has not had any symptoms of them since he took one bottle of the remedy. I most heartily thank for it.

Prejudiced. Yet Convinced.

So, Norwalk, Conn., May, 1890.

Although I took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic with a certain prejudice, it has done so much good that I must thank him for it, because now I can sleep again. Since the terrible catastrophe of the Johnstown flood, where I lost five members of my family, terrible fictions occupied my mind, so that I was since quite despondent. But now I come to myself again, and attribute this to the good effect of the Tonic.

Box 557. A valuable book on Nerve Diseases, free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge.

SECOND QUARTER.—Studies in the Gospel of St. John. Lesson III. Christ's First Miracle. John 2:1-11. Commit to memory verses 1-5. July 19, 1891. A. D. 27.

HOME READINGS.

M. John 2:1-11. Th. Mark 7:1-9. W. Luke 7:16-23. Th. Luke 4:14-21. F. John 10:31-42. S. Mark 6:1-6. S. Rev. 3:14-22.

GOLDEN TEXT.

This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory. (John 2:11.)

LESSON HYMN, S. M.

How welcome was the call,
And sweet the festive lay,
When Jesus deigned in Cana's hall
To bless the marriage day!

His gracious power divine
The water vessels knew;
And plenteous was the mystic wine
The wondering servants drew.

O Lord of life and love,
Come thou again to-day;
And bring a blessing from above
That ne'er shall pass away.

Time—A. D. 27.
Place—Cana of Galilee.

Rulers—Herod in Galilee; Pilate in Jerusalem.

Connecting Links—This miracle occurred on the third day from the calling of Phillip, and on the last day of the first week of Christ's ministry.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY

1. The Marriage, v. 1, 2.

Where did the marriage take place?

When did it occur?

From what time is "the third day" reckoned?

What guests are named as present?

2. The Mother, v. 3-5.

What need arose at the feast?

To whom was the need mentioned, and by whom?

What reply did Jesus make?

What command did the mother give?

3. The Miracle, v. 6-11.

What vessels are mentioned as being at hand?

For what purpose were they needed?

Why were so many vessels needed for this purpose? (Mark 7:3-4)

What command did Jesus give about these?

What did he then bid the servants to do?

Who first tasted the new-made wine?

What did he say to the bridegroom?

How many miracles had Jesus wrought before this?

What was shown by this miracle? (Golden Text.)

What effect had it on the disciples?

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.

Where in this lesson are we taught:

1. To invite Jesus to share our joys?

2. To take our cares to Jesus?

3. To do whatever Jesus commands?

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG MEMBERS.

Find a story of another feast at which Jesus was an invited guest?

What was his last miracle before his death?

Find the first and last words given in the gospels spoken by Jesus to his mother.

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

[For the entire school.]

1. In what place was Jesus's first miracle performed? In Cana of Galilee?

2. Who told Jesus that there was no more wine? His mother.

3. What did Jesus say? "Mine hour is not yet come."

4. What did he tell the servants to do with the six water-pots of stone? To fill them with water.

5. Into what was the water turned by Jesus's power? Wine.

EXPLANATIONS.

A marriage—Hebrew maidens were married on the fourth day of the week, our Wednesday; widows were married on the fifth day, our Thursday. The mother of Jesus—She had some apparent authority on this festive occasion, and may have been a relative. His disciples—Five or six men: Andrew,

John, Peter, Phillip, Nathaniel, and probably James. Marriage—The festivities often were continued for several days. When they wanted wine—When the wine failed. They have no wine—In the East at the present time guests sometimes contribute viands to the banquet. Woman—To our ears this sounds harsh, but the word that Jesus used was both respectful and affectionate. What have I to do with thee—What are our mutual relations? How different are our standpoints! Mine hour is not yet come—The divinely appointed hour when a miracle was to be worked. It came immediately afterward. Six water-pots of stone—Large vessels placed in the outer court to hold water for washing purposes. Two or three firkins—From eighteen to twenty-seven gallons each. Anywhere from one hundred and fifty to one hundred and sixty gallons in all. The governor—Probably a kind of head waiter, who tested the wines, arranged the tables, and conducted the feast. Called the bridegroom—Called out to him, perhaps across the room, in sportive language. Have well drunk—Are drunken. This beginning of miracles—This is the first of the signs of Jesus's divine power. His disciples believed on him—The faith that they already had was greatly confirmed.

Doctrinal Suggestion—The supernatural power of Christ.

THE CHURCH CATECHISM.

72. What advantages are secured to baptized persons? They are admitted to the visible Church of Christ, their relation to him as the Mediator of the new covenant, and their title to the spiritual blessings thereto belonging, are solemnly confirmed.

73. Why was the sacrament of the Lord's Supper ordained? For the continual remembrance of the sacrifice of Christ's death, and of the benefits that we thereby receive. (1 Cor. 11:23-26.)

The Parting of the Ways.

Wilkins and Watkins were college chums and close friends. They had been hard students and had taken little outdoor exercise. When they shook hands and said good-bye, at the end of their college career, they were in impaired health. Both had dyspepsia, liver troubles and troublesome coughs.

Wilkins had plenty of money, and decided to travel for his health. Watkins was poor. "I must go to work for my living," said he, "but I'll try the remedy that Robinson talks so much about—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

In less than two years Wilkins came home in the prime of life, a bank president, rich and respected, and weighed 200 pounds. "The Golden Medical Discovery saved my life at a critical time," he often says. "Oh, if poor Wilkins had only tried it!" For weak lungs, spitting of blood, all lingering coughs, and consumption in its early stages, it is an unequalled remedy.

Conference Notices.

District Conference, Epworth League and Sunday School Institute.

The district conference of the Ohio district will convene in Donaldson street, M. E. Church, Columbus, Ohio, Wednesday, July 22, 9 o'clock a. m. All members are requested to be present at the time appointed. The following subjects will be discussed:

The Ohio district as related to Ohio Methodism, J. H. Payne.

Our relation to the Book Concern and Methodist Literature, H. W. Simmons.

How to promote a revival spirit in the churches, George W. Zigler.

The best method of raising church finances, John F. Moreland.

The most pressing demands upon our pulpit, William C. Echols and Prof. S. R. Singer.

The best way to read and study the Bible, Scott Ward.

The district conference sermon, to be preached by Rev. George B. Lynch, of Oberlin, at 7:30 p. m., July 22.

Address of welcome, Rev. William Johnson, of Columbus.

Conversations, Presiding Elder.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION

Will hold its first session Thursday morning, July 23, at 10 o'clock. Every chapter on the district is requested to send one or more delegates. This is expected to be one of the most important meetings ever held in this district. Distinguished workers of the League are expected to be present and take part in the exercises. The program will be unusually attractive and interesting.

Department of Christian Work—Addresses by J. H. McCullough, Miss E. Cochran, Mrs. Cora Kearns, Mrs. Hannah Sharper.

Department of Mercy and Help—By

W. H. Consina, E. R. Lewis, Mrs. Nancy Graves, Will Armstrong.

To what extent does the League help the Sunday school and the church?—By Miss Lizzie Jones, Miss Laura B. Reese, James Bates and Mrs. Hattie McCullough.

Each Sunday school superintendent is expected to deliver a brief address upon the most important phases of Sunday school work.

The people of Columbus are preparing to give you a cordial welcome, and the committee expect to secure reduced rates from the several railroad companies. The Presiding Elders of the conference are especially invited; and we extend a hearty invitation to all members of the Lexington Conference. Come over into the beautiful Buckeye State and see how our work prospers. Finally, bring up all your benevolences and have them ready to report at the third quarterly conference.

E. W. S. HAMMOND,
805 Russell St., Covington, Ky.

Notice.

To the delegates and preachers in charge of the Atlanta District, Savannah Conference: Dear Brethren:—The District Conference will convene at Palmetto, Ga., August 6. The preachers are requested to mail the names of the delegates to me at once, so that suitable homes can be secured for them. Please do not wait until within a day or two of the conference to send them, but send them now. Delegates will be returned home at one-third rates, provided they secure certificates from the agents when starting showing that full fare was paid in coming to conference. Otherwise, no reduced rates will be given.

Woman's Home Mission.

The auxiliaries of the W. H. M. Society of the Baton Rouge District, Louisiana Conference, are hereby called to meet August 6, in connection with the district conference, which will convene in Wesley Chapel M. E. Church. Dear sisters, please meet us without fail, for it grieves me very much to see the work go down. I hope every pastor will read this notice from his pulpit and urge all of the auxiliaries to send their presidents to the conference.

HESTER WILLIAMS,

State Dist. Man'g'r W. H. M. Society.

Camp Meeting.

There will be a grand camp meeting at Brookhaven, Miss., August 13-23, instead of July 29th. The meeting will be conducted by a committee of preachers in conference with the trustees. Committee: J. Our Educational Work Among the White People of the South.

The educational work of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the 16 Southern States, under the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society has grown to marvelous proportions during the past 25 years. Forty-three institutions are under the direction of the society, and of this number 21 are among white people. The society appoints over 300 teachers, and aids in supporting them. The work of developing local self help is going forward splendidly, but still scarcely one of these schools could exist for six months were it not for the contributions of the whole church.

Nobody questions the importance of the work among colored people. Preachers, teachers, christian mechanics, physicians, dentists and pharmacists are being educated. A fair proportion of the colored students have taken the higher courses of study and are being thoroughly equipped for their life-work. There are those, however, who question the providential character of the work of the society among the white people of the South. None who have studied this phase of the work are among this class, however. The multitudes of white people in the central South who were loyal to our Methodism and the nation, and who are largely without opportunities for education of any kind affords opportunities for philanthropic educational and christian work scarcely equalled anywhere.

In this central South the Methodist Episcopal Church has fully one hundred thousand communicants.

Dr. Hartzell sums up the work of the society among the white people of the South as follows:

Of the forty-three institutions under the control of the society twenty-one of them are among the whites. Without these schools our work in the South could not be maintained, or if maintained would be so greatly crippled as to destroy its efficiency in the work of building a christian civilization in the country.

The seminary work among the whites is particularly promising. With a few hundred dollars a school can be sustained which, if unaided, would necessarily fail. Perhaps no better opportunity for producing large results with a small amount of money can be found anywhere than in aiding the white academies in the sixteen Southern States. For the small sum of $200 a school can be carried forward for a whole year which will have an enrollment of from 100 to 150 students. There are many people in the North who with but little sacrifice could support such a school from year to year and be the cause of an untold amount of good.

Three of these are collegiate centers. One of them the U. S. Grant, is located at Athens and Chattanooga, Tenn. Another, Little Rock University, at Little Rock, Arkansas, and the Fort Worth University, at Fort Worth, Texas. The rest of the schools among the whites are academies, mostly located in Tennessee and Georgia. These academies correspond with the preparatory courses of the central institutions. They are run very cheaply and afford opportunities for hundreds of students who could not otherwise attend school because of the expense of travel involved. The whole number of white students last year was 2,652. This number will probably be increased for the year 1890-91.

It is impossible to estimate the importance of this work in the interest of christian education and also in the interest of our church in the South. It is a settled principle of benevolent work that it must be carried forward principally by the men developed on the field. This makes the work of christian education among the white people of the South necessary to the support of the church in this section of the country.

Facing a Great Responsibility.

The responsibility of superintending and aiding, as far as its funds will permit, the schools among our white people in the South, rests upon the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society.

The following list of schools from the annual report for year ending July 1, 1890, indicates the extent to which this responsibility is being met.

About $20,000 is all the society could see its way clear to appropriate to this work for 1890-91. A small amount indeed, for so great and promising a work. The academies receive but small subsidies. The school at Fort Worth is nearly self-supporting. Schools among colored people receive four-fifths of all the money expended by the society. The church needs added light on its duty to its quarter of a million white communicants in the South. Rev. J. Braden, D.D., president Central Tennessee College, says:

It is written, "And whether one member of the body suffer, all the members suffer with it." This is true of others as well as the human body. The influence of a good school or a church is felt in a community; so is that of a saloon or gambling shop. It is so with the lives of good or bad men; their examples influence others. It is so with good and bad teachings; their fruits are seen in the noble or ignoble lives that result. Slavery was a mighty power. It taught by precept and example. It taught that the rich were the favored class, that it was a misfortune to be poor, a dishonor to toil. Slaves were to labor, and those who were compelled to labor were only a little removed from the condition of the slave. Hence there was no provision made to educate the poorer classes of whites in the South during slavery. These suffered because of the sufferings of the blacks. The children of these people are still feeling the consequence of that privation. They are numbered by the tens of thousands in the South. They are just as dangerous an element of ignorance as if they had black skins. It may be that there is not the same sympathy for this class as for the blacks, on the part of some of our philanthropists; yet the fact that they are in our midst, are our citizens, have been true to the flag of our country, and are in our churches, or are in need of the missionary and teacher in their mountain or wilderness homes, should enlist the liveliest interest of the patriot and christian. These multitudes should not be left to say, because they are neglected: "No man cares for my soul." The heart of the church is large enough to obey the Master's command to preach to every creature. These come within this number. The Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society has done a noble work in taking in, as far as possible, all the needy ones, resultant of the system of slavery. The colored people were impoverished by unrequited toil. The deadly influence of this wrong to them was reflected back on the rich, in that it tended to create in them a neglect of the interest of the poor; and on the poor, in that it tended to degrade labor in their eyes, and thus both rich and poor felt the result of a wrong perpetrated on the blacks. It will take time to erase the influence of this system of wrong-doing from the minds of all classes in this Southland. Christian influences are at work and are bringing to all minds a higher estimate of all classes of society, and a better recognition of the rights of all. This impulse is the result of christian effort. The churches are doing much through the pulpit and press. Christian schools, established and supported by the church, are helping amazingly to bring about this happy result, and poor and rich will be bound together in a bond of brotherhood. For this end the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society puts its hundreds of teachers into the educational work, and draws its thousands of students under the influence of christian teachers. The poor then, will have abundant reason for blessing this society for coming to their help. This is a work that the future will regard as a special honor to a society that came to the poorer classes in their mountain homes with the means of christian education.

Some misapprehension has existed in regard to the work of the Missionary Society in the South and the work of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society. The work of the two societies is entirely distinct and neither does any of the work of the other. The Missionary society supports no schools, educates no ministers in the South. The education of the ministry, the development of christian leadership, the supplying of the needs of christian teachers in our public school work, the answer of the demand for intelligent physicians, the development of skilled workmen to become the leaders of great industrial movements in the South that are rapidly coming to the front, all depend upon the work of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society. We refer to this because of the confused notion in the minds of many people touching the specific work of the various missionary organizations of the church. If the pastors will excuse us, we suggest that this point be clearly set forth in the presentation of the cause before the people. We need to make our people intelligent. Give them clear, definite notions of the work accomplished by each benevolent organization, and then leave it with them to do what they feel that God calls upon them to do.

Most of these academic schools are among the white people and are made feeders to U. S. Grant University. Most of these are located in the mountain regions of East Tennessee, and are supplying christian education to a class of people which otherwise would be almost devoid of educational opportunities. As rapidly as the society is able to do so, its plan is to build these academies among the colored people, and thus reach a much larger area with christian education than is possible by these central institutions. There is no work of the church to-day, perhaps, where so little money will do so much good as organizing and supporting these academic institutions. If the society had a perpetuity of $200 a year, they could organize an academy where from one hundred to one hundred and fifty students could be taught each year, without which most of them must remain in perpetual ignorance. May the Lord put it upon the heart of some one to plant such a school and care for it for the next ten years.

THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Some misapprehension has existed in regard to the work of the Missionary Society in the South and the work of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society. The work of the two societies is entirely distinct and neither does any of the work of the other. The Missionary society supports no schools, educates no ministers in the South.

The education of the ministry, the development of christian leadership, the supplying of the needs of christian teachers in our public school work, the answer of the demand for intelligent physicians, the development of skilled workmen to become the leaders of great industrial movements in the South that are rapidly coming to the front, all depend upon the work of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society.

We refer to this because of the confused notion in the minds of many people touching the specific work of the various missionary organizations of the church. If the pastors will excuse us, we suggest that this point be clearly set forth in the presentation of the cause before the people. We need to make our people intelligent. Give them clear, definite notions of the work accomplished by each benevolent organization, and then leave it with them to do what they feel that God calls upon them to do.

APPRECIATION OF OUR WORK.

There is a growing appreciation among the masses of Southern white people outside of our own communion, for the work which this Society is accomplishing. This result comes largely from a better understanding of our work. Time, and the gracious results of the civilization of freedom in the South, are working marvels in exploding old and false theories touching the Negro and his friends, who sympathized with the North in the late war. Many who—twenty or even ten years ago—could not even hold social intercourse because of different views touching the Negro, now clasp hands and unite thought and heart in plans for his education.

Another encouraging fact is increased financial aid in the South outside of our communion. Local contributors to individual schools are larger than before. An effort to lessen the appropriation by the Legislature of South Carolina to the Claflin University, at its last session, received an overwhelming defeat.

The citizens of Nashville have lately given $2000 for a building

STEPHEN PRIESTLEY, P. E.

We commenced our second round at Vidalia, where Bro. H. B. Hart is doing excellent work. The people are pleased with him. All we need at Vidalia is a neat church. We have the public school house, but we need our own property.

Trinity holds her own. Bro. George Washington does his best, but we need a young man for this work.

Lake Providence has changed remarkably. Bro. Alfred Gray is a man for promptness and punctuality.

At Bastrop, Rev. M. H. Hunter is doing a good work, and has organized an educational society for the people, and is, with the assistance of his wife, teaching a very large school.

Rev. C. W. Kershaw and his young wife are doing much good at Washington Chapel. A good year's work will be done at this charge.

Rev. M. S. Goings, at Nebo, is in the midst of a grand people and in the new parsonage. We need to finish this fine work.

At Benah and Mt. Sinai we hope to go in our new church by the last of August. We expect to lay the corner stone August 2. It will be the first one laid on this work. Rev. F. M. Lashington leads his church with credit to himself and people.

Rev. Phillips, at Jones Chapel and Millhaven, is still holding on with great faith.

Rev. E. C. Goings, at Monroe, has paid and taken up one note of $100 with interest, and is making some preparation to build our new church at this point.

The trustees of Mt. Olive and Washington Chapel are very grateful to the Church Extension Board for help, freeing their churches from debt.

The entire district is in a good condition. Peace among the brethren increases all along the line.

Brookhaven District.

H. L. KENNEDY, SEC'Y.

Conference met in the M. E. Church at Pass Christian, Miss., May 28, 1891, Rev. B. L. Crump presiding. Following answered roll call: A. Davis, D. Ray, P. F.

Robinson, S. McDavis, H. L. Kennedy, I. C. Rucker, H. May, A. Handy, J. B. Smith, H. Rountree, I. L. Pratt, and O. H. Flowers.

H. L. Kennedy was elected secretary and A. Davis assistant. I. C. Rucker, statistical secretary.

Presiding Elder B. L. Crump read an interesting report. Each pastor read his report, which showed that they had not been idle, but had done much for the upbuilding of the Kingdom of Christ.

The local preachers also made good reports. M. N. Peters, of Pearlinton, reported that his wife had died and left him with four little children. A few days after her death, Bro. Peters was called to mourn the death of one of his sisters. The conference greatly sympathized with Bro. Peters.

The exhorters and other members made very encouraging reports.

Rev. S. H. Nevils, of the Upper Mississippi Conference, was introduced, and he preached an able sermon on Thursday night.

Divine services were held each evening at 3 and 8 o'clock p. m., by Revs. I. C. Rucker, S. McDavis, A. Handy, O. H. Flowers and D. Ray. Each of them preached very interesting sermons.

More than $3000 had been raised since the brethren returned from the annual conference.

Sunday morning, 9 o'clock, the Sunday School met on time. Miss Bertha Steward presided at the organ. At 11 o'clock Rev. I. C. Rucker preached to a crowded house. At 3 o'clock the congregation heard Presiding Elder J. M. Shumpert, of the Meridian district.

He preached an interesting sermon, after which the Lord's Supper was administered to 140.

They raised $100.62 during the session. H. Jones, S. Steward, M. King, O. White, E. Morris, E. Capers, F. Beltou, L. Brown, A. Williams, W. Holmes, L. Kennedy, P. Morris, M. Covington, G. T. Howard, Mrs. Marshall, A. Chyeld, E. A. Porter, S. Smith and G. Burkes each paid one dollar. Others paid amounts ranging from five to fifty cents. $11.75 was then taken up to assist in defraying the funeral expenses of the late Rev. E. Harris, who died last December.

Rev. H. May and his good people spared no pains in preparing for the conference. The church had been beautifully repaired. The aisles and the pulpit had been carpeted by a committee consisting of Mrs. E. Morris, P. Morris, J. Stratter, M. Jones, E. Stephenson, E. Johnson, A. Johnson, M. Collins, L. Brown, J. Harvey, O. White, J. Clark, M. King, and Mrs. C. Raymore. The pastor gave a pulpit Bible. Total cost of carpet and Bible, $39.55.

To the Preachers of the Columbus District, West Texas Conference.

Dear Brethren:

The West Texas Annual Conference will meet December 16, thus giving us only ten months in this conference year. There is not one moment to lose. Let us be up and doing, for the time is short. I have completed my first round and thought I would report it, but the work is in such a shabby condition that it would be no credit to the church for such a report of a district that once stood second to none, to be made. I made the round and received from the 2118 full members only $131.80 for my support. That will explain the financial condition at the commencement of the year.

I have held two quarters on the second round and received $54.30, which is nearly half as much as I got for the whole of the first round. The two pastors where I have been have received $150 between them, raised $10 each for missions, and something near $100 for improvements. So you see we are gaining ground as fast as can be expected. We don't care to talk much, but meet the annual conference with full reports and not a lot of excuses. Brethren, reach for the top round. Don't be content to meet the conference without having done your best. Be men. Make up your mind to do your full share of the work, and if you see you can not succeed after you have done your best, step down and out of the way.

Our district conference will meet at Alleyton, August 6. The brethren voted for it to meet in September, but in view of the early meeting of the Annual Conference, we will have to meet early. Besides, September is too late; that is harvest time, and it is just as important to save the crop as it is to make it.

Brethren, don't hold any meetings that will conflict with the labor, for it is by this we all live. There is time enough for us to do our work for the church and for the saving of souls without holding our meeting right in the busy season and keeping the people up so late at night until they can't work in the day. In my quarterly meetings on the circuits, I meet the Sunday schools at nine, preach at eleven, and then again at three, and let the people go free until the next Sunday morning; and the plan works well. There is no need of keeping the people all day and half of the night. They will think more of us if we show them that we feel their interests. If it is necessary to see a farmer on some matter that you cannot attend to at night, see him at noon, or go to his farm and walk a round or two with him, and do not expect him to stop his work and ride a mile or two to see you. Sometimes this makes the landlords prejudiced towards the preachers. We are not able yet to act independent, neither do we belong to a church that preaches such doctrine.

I shall hold, or cause to be held, four quarters at each point. These rallying times are the life of the church. Where the Presiding Elder does his full duty his visit is a help to the cause, and he earns all he gets. Therefore, I shall make four visits, though the time be short.

I will make a full report of the district when we have something worth reading. With a determination to do my best, I am your brother, C. L. MADISON.

W. H. Higgins, Oak Forest, Ark.

Our second quarterly was held on the 16th and 17th, all the members of the conference were present except two, with their reports all in good shape. Our beloved Presiding Elder W. R. R. Dnnoan was with us and he preached two edifying sermons. Children baptized during the quarter 19, adults 5, members added 9, money raised during quarter for mission $21.90. Paid P. E. $10.70, pastor $5.20. We are going to raise all of our benevolent money this year the Lord being our helper. The SOUTHWESTERN is not forgotten, we will try to send in some cash subscribers soon. I pray God's blessing on the paper and its grand and glorious editor, hoping God will spare him long to continue in the noble work.

J. P. Gregg, Pickett Chapel, Lebanon, Tenn.

This charge is moving forward. Our Sunday school has greatly increased in number this year. The superintendent and teachers are striving very hard to reach the highest standard. At our Easter services we collected $5.50. Jubilee $7. Total $12.50. We expect to raise every cent of our assessment this year. Paid pastor $138.50, Presiding Elder $54, for other purposes $60. Total $287.50. We have received 14 full members and 22 probationers, and have lost four of our members, having been taken away by death.

H. O. Williams, Shady Grove circuit.

I came to my appointment January 21, after walking 20 miles. I came to my first church, my reception first was very cold. But by the help of our God, I began on the work of the Lord. Started my revival, and the Lord has blessed us with 176 mourners and 23 converts, one from the Baptist Church. Shady Grove is a bad place to get money, but plenty of people to preach to.

E. C. Goings, pastor St. James M. E. Church, Monroe, La.

The people once more have come to the front at the grand rally for the new church. The bright idea was gotten up and led by the pastor, but to the surprise of all, the Presiding Elder arrived just in time and rendered valuable service. Collection $90.

W. H. Hundley, Ingrams Mill, Miss.

The first quarterly conference for Bright Prospect circuit, Holly Springs district, was held May 23, 24, with Rev. Dr. H. R. Revels, P. E., in the chair. The brethren were present with well written reports and the session was one of great interest and much pleasure, and the reports showed progress all along the line. Sunday was a great day in Zion, the venerable Doctor preached a soul-stirring sermon. He also gave the Sunday school a grand lecture. Collection for the day $15.30. Paid pastor $35. Seventy-four partook of the Lord's Supper. The grand old SOUTHWESTERN was not forgotten, we hail it with joy unspeakable. It seems to get better every issue.

D. Richardson, Howells Cross Roads, Ala.

My first quarterly conference was held May 23, 24. The elder preached one of his awakening sermons. Thirty-four partook of the Lord's Supper. Paid elder $8.95. The trustees gave a festival and realized $92.80 to buy a church lot of their own. They have bought and paid for the ground. I. Townsend, P. E., gave a grand lecture on missions.

J. H. Wilson, Jesup, Ga.

We had a grand rally called Silver Dollar Day the third Sunday and raised the sum of $42 to build our new parsonage. The members and friends worked grandly. The second quarterly was held May 23 and 24, by our beloved Presiding Elder A. P. Melton. The reports showed the work in a prosperous condition. Four accessions this quarter. Collection $45.10. Paid pastor $35.11, Presiding Elder $10. The elder preached an able and soul-stirring sermon on Sunday. A grand rally is to be had at New Hope on the 3rd Sunday in June to build a church at that place. Easter was observed and apportionment raised and forwarded. The SOUTHWESTERN comes to me every Thursday. It gets better, it seems at every issue. Long live the editor and this grand old vindicator of right to the race.

S. B. Buford, Elberton circuit, Ga.

We are moving along rapidly on all lines. Having built two churches last year, repaired one and plastered another. We are now preparing to build a parsonage at Elberton. Sunday May 25th was our "rally day," all the churches of the different denominations in town suspended operations and came over to help us. This plan was brought about by and through the Preacher's Union meeting, and is a measure of great mutual help. We realized $20 for the purpose of beginning to build. The whole circuit is on a rally for the district conference which meets here in August. The District Sunday School Convention met at Harmony Grove on the 29th of May. It was an interesting occasion. Miss Maria Williams read a paper on "The Sunday school the plant-bed of the church," which was very good. The reader regarded the Sunday school as a unique institution for religious training, and our greatest men in the church to-day were brought up under its sacred influence. A living, active Sunday school equals an active and successful church. A place from which to draw plants; that by this means the kindness of God is to be spread among all nations. Holy writ sanctions this idea, "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." That the Sunday school is an indispensable supplement to the best home training. We are living in a bright age; therefore, let us push forward and do all we can and God will do the balance. Many other good suggestions which, for want of space we cannot name, were presented in the paper. We are canvassing in the interest of the SOUTHWESTERN, and hope to send you a number of cash subscribers before long. We take this opportunity to extend to Rev. Dr. A. E. P. Albert, editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, a cordial welcome to the Gainesville district Conference, which meets here in Elberton on the 15th of August, and hope he will make it convenient to visit us at that time.

[Thanks. If we can we will. Ed.]

M. H. Hunter, Bastrop, La.

The second Sunday in June was our trustees' financial "rally day." Ministers who participated with us on the occasion and rendered good service were Revs. C. W. Kershaw, M. S. Goings, R. H. Martin of the C. M. E. Church, S. Priestley, P. E., and others. Collection, $105.05. This amount pays off our entire debt on church property. On Monday, Rev. S. Priestley delivered an address to the patrons and scholars of our Educational Society. All were well pleased with the address, and a vote of thanks was tendered the speaker.

Rev. T. J. Clarke, vice-president of the Sixth General District Conference Epworth League, writes that the Epworth League in the South among the colored people, is taking like a charm, and that the Sunday schools have new life infused into them, where the League has a Chapter organized. God bless the originator of this coming giant, whose aspect is grand. Much good has already been accomplished through the means of the Chapters, for our environments are so great to lead the young away from Christ and the church that we believe that the League will be a glorious means to help combat the evils and gather the young for the church. Let the Christian Church take hold and find out the virtue in the League, and bring it before the young people and encourage them to consolidate themselves in a solemn phalanx for Christ and Methodism in this sunny Southland.

A. T. Graves, Ardmore, I. T.

The Methodists of the Indian Territory are having a hard time fighting the devil, but by the help of the Lord we have erected a nice little church, 20x34. Our membership in town is only ten, but we have as many more good members in the country. I came here two years ago and found only one member. I want each district to raise as much as $1 and forward same to us to help raise the debt hanging over us. We want to pay for and dedicate the church by the 1st of August next, if possible. This we cannot do without some help. Will you help us? Our pastor for this year is a good man. I did not take any work this year, feeling that I could do more good here at home. Our field is large.

R. C. Barrow, Pontchatoula, La.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 15, Presiding Elder Landry in the chair. Collected this quarter, $35; paid pastor, $29. The Presiding Elder preached a soul-stirring sermon. Miss Emma M. Carter, principal of Beebe Institute, New Orleans, is visiting her relatives here. Miss Carter is a graduate of New Orleans University.

L. H. Mosley, Webb Station, Miss.

When I came to this work I only found 29 members and no church. I have already built one church and we are now preparing to build another. Amount raised for building, $4.95.

S. W. Stokes, Forrest City, Miss.

We are having a good time with our church now. Every pastor who funds the work hard should stay at this work, and the Lord will bless him.

G. Rogers, Troy, Ala.

Residing Elder Mack Henson, of the Antistown District, West Texas Conference, was with us all day on the 21st. He addressed the Sunday school in the morning and at 3 p. m. preached an able sermon. All we need here is a church.

N. B. Blackman, French Camp, Miss.

My first quarterly conference convened at St. Paul M. E. Church May 2, 8, with Presiding Elder R. Sewell in the chair. The brethren's reports showed progress. Paid pastor this quarter, $20.10; Presiding Elder, $12.50; paid for all purposes, $35.10. Sunday, at 11 o'clock, the Presiding Elder preached a soul reviving sermon to a large congregation. Sixty-two partook of the Lord's Supper, four joined the church, fourteen accessions, and ten children baptized this quarter. I am doing all I can for the SOUTHWESTERN.

D. B. Harston, Brinkley, Ark.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 20, 21, with Presiding Elder W. R. R. Duncan in the chair. The Elder preached to a crowded house. Sixty-one partook of the Lord's Supper. Collection, $13.65.

P. R. Woodson, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

My third quarterly conference was held at Smith charge, June 20, 21, by Rev. J. P. Price. Reports proved it a successful quarter. Paid Presiding Elder, $10.85; pastor, $40; for benevolences this quarter, $8; for SOUTHWESTERN, one new subscriber.

W. H. Smith, Herbert, Miss.

Our first quarterly conference was grand. Raised for Elder, $5.15; paid pastor, $4. I have also raised money to build a new church. Received in the church, 65; baptized 13. May 10 was celebrated. Raised for Freedmen's Aid, $12.

Ayer's Ague Cure is a vegetable preparation, and warranted to cure all malarial disorders.

Children's Day Gleanings.

W. H. H. Gallion, Shelby, Miss.

Children's Day was observed. Collection $2. The Sunday school is increasing every Sunday. Our church work was small in the beginning, but is growing very rapidly. The outlook for our church in this delta is good. This is a new field and we have many opposers, but we meet them with the sword of the Spirit and they take their flight. Rev. B. J. Dannel and family have joined our church and are rendering much help to the pastor on this circuit. The Rev. J. W. Davis, P. E., is doing much to make this the banner district in the Upper Mississippi Conference.

E. J. Washington, Hubbard City, Tex.

We used the regular program and had a nice time. Collection $3.55. Our pastor Rev. N. J. Johnson was not with us on that day, although we had a grand time. Bro. Johnson is much loved by everybody. Our protracted meeting has resulted in seven conversions.

Mary P. Harris, Jonestown, Miss.

The program was carried out very successfully. Collection $2.25. The M. E. Church is in its infancy here, but is growing.

I. Mays, Elm, Texas.

Children's Day was duly observed. We had an excellent time. Collection $3. We celebrated the 19th of June with a grand barbecue, etc. Speeches were made by Dr. Middleton, Rev. Wadkins, and Mr. Lloyd Green. Among other things Dr. Middleton spoke of the "separate car" bill which took effect on that day. He said he did not care about being separated from white people, but he did object to having especial legislation for the colored people as a separate and inferior race. I like the SOUTHWESTERN.

Our people at Meadville, Miss., Rev. W. N. G. Lipscomb, pastor, celebrated Children's Day in good style. Collection $8.35.

GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, Atlanta, Ga.

Schools of Theology and Biblical Departments.

It is too late in the nineteenth century to argue in favor of an intelligent ministry. The Roman Catholic Church can flourish under the dominance of ignorance, but no Protestant Church can live except under the leadership of an intelligent ministry. Under Christianity, there is no influence so potent upon the masses of the people as the ministry. This thought transferred to the Southern country, and especially to the colored people, receives a new significance. When the Methodist Episcopal Church was first organized immediately after the war, the Missionary Society was compelled to aid in the support of scores of men to preach the Gospel who could not read. There has been no aid furnished to eliminate this difficulty except that which has gone through the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society.

It is absolutely necessary that we afford better opportunities for the education of our young if we intend to do the work that God has thrust upon us. Thousands and hundreds of thousands of people among the colored people in the South depend wholly upon the ministry for their conception of the Gospel and for general information. It is impossible to estimate the elevating influence to have in the pulpit a man who has had some opportunity to attend some of our schools. His influence is restraining their extravagances, breaking away their superstitions, giving them more clearly defined notions of the claims of the Gospel upon them, leading them to a better moral life, and developing a better type of Christian civilization.

GAMMON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

This school of the prophets, located at Atlanta, Ga., has grown to be a well equipped theological school. The faculty, Drs. Thirkield, Murray, Parks and Crawford are men well adapted to their work. Seventy-nine students were in the school last year, representing eleven States and twenty-six institutions of learning. The students make up a noble band of colored young men. During the past year a new movement has been inaugurated by having one of the professors visit our different schools in the South and look after young men who are called to the ministry. President Thirkield says: "Several universities have been visited by members of the faculty the past year. There they met the biblical classes and gave some hours of special drill in Bible studies. General lectures before the entire body of students were also given. In every instance they were heartily received, and arrangements have been made for a like series of visitations during the coming year. This work is in harmony with Dr. Hartzell's plan for the unification of our schools, which now is beginning to bear fruit."

The graduates who have gone forth from this school are doing good work in many parts of the South.

The Theological School in connection with U. S. Grant University, enrolled thirty-two students the past year. The Dean, Rev. Dr. Newcombe, is preparing a new Hebrew grammar. Dr. Aokerman and Dr. Cooke are able teachers, and the school has before it a great future.

BIBLICAL DEPARTMENTS.

In all the collegiate centers biblical departments are established where young men called to the ministry are instructed. Two hundred and seventy-nine young men are preparing for the ministry in the schools of the South. Let the prayers of the Church ascend to God for His benediction upon these "Schools of the Prophets." Nearly all our young men studying for the ministry are poor. The Society and outside friends help them. The teachers are all paid from the treasury of this Society, so that the existence of the schools depends upon the support given by the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society.

Dr. Hartzell to Visit Some of the District Conferences.

CINCINNATI, O. July 9th, '91. Rev. A. E. P. Albert, D.D., New Orleans, La.

My Dear Brother: I have official business which will take me to Little Rock, Ark., and to Marshall, Tex., in August. This will enable me to visit the district conference of the Shreveport district at Natchitoches August 14th, in the interest of our school work, and also to spend Sunday, August 16th, at the Alexandria district Conference at Alexandria, in the interest of the Alexandria Academy. I feel that that school must be pushed ahead. It has made a good beginning under one of our own graduates. One colored man in that neighborhood has given one hundred dollars for endowment, and I fully believe that if the people of that district can be set to work upon some practical plan, that a plain but substantial building can be erected at once.

I wish also to give three or four days with Dr. Adkinson in pushing the raising of money toward the finishing of the new building at New Orleans University. We must have a thousand students in this great school next year.

I have just to-day given the necessary data to a noble man and his wife in an eastern state, who proposes to endow a chair for Biblical instruction in the New Orleans University. Provisions for this will be made in their will. Let us pray that yet others will remember this school and other schools among our people in the South.

Yours in Christian fellowship and labor,
J. C. HARTZELL.

An Epoch.

BY REV. J. C. HARTZELL, D.D.

Every great movement has its important epochs, when the results of years of sacrifice and toil seem to culminate in a moment; or when difficulties, which have seemed insurmountable, suddenly vanish; or when earnest souls, who have been studying difficult problems from opposite standpoints, meet on common ground, and together rejoice over victories won. One of the most important and encouraging features of our educational work in the South now is the cordial recognition and co-operation it is receiving from representative Southern white people outside of our own church.

A notable illustration of this occurred at Orlan University, Orangeburg, S. C., February 11th. That state has its Agricultural and Mechanical College for colored people in connection with our university, and, on the date named, we met Dr. Dutton, the president, and the Executive Committee of the State Board at the university for consultation. Several hours were given to visiting the classrooms and workshops. The satisfaction expressed by all was indeed gratifying. Chapel services followed. Nearly seven hundred colored young men and women were present.

ent. The school will enroll nearly, if not quite, one thousand this year. State Senator Ferguson was the spokesman for the committee. He is a fine looking, dignified gentleman, and spoke with great composure, and at times manifested profound feeling. The following is his address almost entire. We doubt if, under the circumstances, a more significant and manly address has been spoken in the South in twenty-five years:

"I do not know that I have ever seen a day that has given me more satisfaction than this day. I will be frank with you; I come from the Piedmont country, from the western section of our state, and you know that if there is any prejudice against the Negro anywhere, it is in that section of South Carolina; but what I have seen and heard to-day have completely revolutionized my feelings towards you as a people. I here and now lay down my prejudice forever. I feel that I am shaking off the shell of old prejudices. I could not do otherwise after the experiences of this day. I graduated from college with a large class; that class had average abilities. To-day, as I listened to the discussions of the class in literature from the fourteenth to the eighteenth centuries, I was satisfied that my college class would not have given one-third as much information. You are only entering upon the threshold of your future. With such capabilities as God has endowed you with, with such teachers and facilities as a benign providence has afforded you, there is no reason why you should not rise above the scale of hewers of wood and drawers of water, as you have been called, and stand side by side, the equal of the best and truest, and bear an important part in advancing the common good of our common humanity. This day has been a revelation to me, and if the leading people of South Carolina could have seen and heard what I have the past two hours, there would soon be a revolution in the feelings of society towards you in many respects."

The effect upon both faculty and students was profound. Senator Ferguson and his associates left the church and grounds. With a large number of teachers we started across the campus to the teachers' dining hall. All felt that it had been a great day. We suggested that we kneel with uncovered heads under the shadow of a tree, and offer to God a thanksgiving.

ing prayer for the prosperity of the school, and for the multiplication of friends and resources with which to make its future still more glorious. The suggestion was at once adopted, and after all had knelt, we led in a prayer of thanksgiving to God for his blessing upon our work.

Industrial Education.

Dr. L. M. Dutton, president of Orlan University, where the State of South Carolina has a farm in connection with the University, says: "We are having a good season, and our crops were never looking better at this season of the year. We have fifty acres of corn, knee-high, twenty acres of as handsome cotton as you ever saw, twenty acres of sweet potatoes, and thirty acres of oats, nearly ready for harvest. From last year's crop of corn we have supplied our students with fifteen bushels per week, fed six horses and fourteen cows, and will have several hundred bushels for sale. We raised seventeen hundred bushels of sweet potatoes last year, and have consumed them all in our boarding department. The work on the farm is done mostly by the students."

Rust University Hall.

Dear Brethren of Mississippi:

The sudden and serious illness of Dr. Libby required that he should leave for the North soon after the commencement at Rust University. He will return by the first of September. My latest letters from him indicate that he is rapidly regaining his health, and is already anxious to return to his work. Let every pastor push the work of raising his apportionment for Rust Hall and forward the money to this office. In the meantime the brick are being made and some work is being done on the foundation. Several thousand dollars have already been expended and that magnificent structure must be ready for dedication by the close of next year. Let every pastor see to it that his charge is fully up with its apportionment, and that as soon as possible.

Yours for victory,
J. C. HARTZELL,
Corresponding Sec'y.

JUBILEE EDITION

A Magnificent Work.

We give this issue of the SOUTHWESTERN very largely to the setting forth of one of the most magnificent works now being carried forward by the Methodist Episcopal Church in any part of the world. Twenty-five years ago our Church did not have a single school on what was slave territory. From small beginnings, chiefly among poor people, one institution after another has been established, until the results achieved, as set forth in this issue of the SOUTHWESTERN, are marvelous. Altogether in twenty-five years $3,129,515.32 have been expended in the development of institutions of learning among our people in the sixteen Southern States.

The Best Year in the History of the Society.

Every year in the history of this Society has been an improvement, in some respects, on the preceding year. The past year has, in many respects, gone beyond any preceding year. The total income for the year from all sources is $322,635.05. This is an increase of $35,971 over any preceding year. Of this increase several thousands have come from the conferences, but the large proportion of the increase has been the result of the development of the schools, and the increase of building facilities indicate, not only efficiency of administration, but also the growing strength of the work among our own people in the South, and among the special friends of Christian education throughout the Church.

Among Both White and Colored People.

The work of the Society is among both races. By far the larger proportion has been expended among the colored people. Dr. Hartzell, the Corresponding Secretary, in his last annual report thus summarizes the policy of this Society as expressed by the action of the General Conference:

1st. One society and administration for all people and conferences.

2d. Schools among colored people and schools among white people, to be located as to best serve the interests of the conferences to be benefited.

3d. There is to be no exclusion on account of race, color, or previous condition. Separation in schools, as in conferences, is to be by the voluntary choice of the people themselves.

The Methodist Episcopal Church extends a helping hand to all her people. Whatever separation of schools there is, is based upon mutual preferences of the people. Upon this basis her works grow among all peoples and languages, and in all climates.

Theological Schools.

One of the great works of the Society is the education of Christian ministers. During the past year 277 young men have been in the theological schools at Atlanta, Ga., and Athens, Tenn., and in the Biblical departments of other schools. Our conferences throughout the South are feeling the tremendous impulse given by these young men who go out from the schools with better preparation to preach the blessed Word. Let the prayers of the people ascend to God for his benediction upon these schools of the prophets, so that they may be centers from which shall continually flow the healing streams of earnest Gospel truth.

Collegiate Centers.

Collegiate centers are schools where regular college courses are taught in addition to English and preparatory courses. Of these there are nine among the colored people and three among the white people. In these centers are 184 students in the regular college classes. The college centers among colored people are at Greensboro, N. C., Nashville, Tenn., Orangeburg, S. C., Atlanta, Ga., Baltimore, Md., New Orleans, La., Little Rock, Ark., Holly Springs, Miss., and Marshall, Tex. Among white people: Fort Worth, Tex., Little Rock, Ark., and Athens and Chattanooga, Tenn. The influence of these great centers upon the educational and moral interests of the South are beyond human language to express. Every one of them is increasing in attendance and power each year.

Academic Centers.

Of these there are twenty-four, and they are so located as to be feeders to the central collegiate schools. Many of them are doing a magnificent work and have an attendance of from two to three hundred students. This department of the work is receiving larger attention every year. While we must not establish too many schools of this grade, yet they should be judiciously located in different parts of the South, so as to aid our people in educating their young men and women.

Medical Schools and Nurse Training.

The work accomplished by the Meharry Medical School, at Nashville, Tenn., has frequently been referred to in the SOUTHWESTERN, and we elsewhere give interesting data concerning it, and also concerning the New Orleans Medical School. There is also a medical school established as a department in the U. S. Grant University at Chattanooga, Tenn., without any expense to the Society. It forms a strong co-operative influence in that great commercial center in favor of our cause. At the end of the second year 86 were matriculated. These medical schools are an expression of the philanthropic heart of the Church, especially toward the great need among colored people of colored physicians. Nurse training classes are taught in several schools.

Industrial Schools.

Schools of Industry in connection with our leading collegiate centers and also in connection with some of the larger academies are being developed with remarkable success. The development of the work in this department for the past two years has been especially significant. As yet no industrial schools have been established among white people, and all the work in this branch has been among the colored people. Thousands of our young men are being taught the use of tools, and thousands of our young women are being taught the best types of domestic economy. At several centers trade schools are taught, and at Nashville, Tenn., the School of Mechanic Arts is one of the finest in America. In this school there is one great machine that was used during the war with which to make cannon and cannon-balls for the Confederate army. It was given to the school as a donation by a citizen of Nashville. What a marvelous transformation is this! A machine used to make instruments of death with which to fight for the perpetuation of slavery now being used to teach young colored men the highest trades in iron-working machinery.

Devout Thanksgiving.

For what has been accomplished in the past let our people everywhere, with devout thanksgiving, praise the Lord, and remember the great Church through whose instrumentality it has been done, and bless God for the men and the women who, regardless of sacrifice, have toiled as officers and teachers, in the office at Cincinnati, in the schools and elsewhere, have stood so nobly by this great work. Already the splendid influence of what this Society has accomplished has powerfully moved the mind and heart of the Southern white people. The work is being appreciated now by many who a few years ago had nothing kind to say of it. Not a few of the Southern people outside of our church are contributing liberally for schools at various centers. Our own people are showing a liberality in giving that is truly encouraging.

Responsibility of the Ministry.

Upon the ministry of our Church in the South rests a very grave responsibility. It must seek to turn the faces of our young men and women toward these schools. Let every building be crowded so that the cry of more room and larger facilities will continue to awaken the heart of the great Church and of the Nation to provide for the increasing interests of the work. Let sermons be everywhere preached two or three times a year, at least, upon the subject of Christian education, and our people informed of what is being done, and that they also be rallied in support of the noble Church and Society that is carrying forward this work. Let the officers of the Society be remembered in prayer at the family altar and at the Church! Let the teachers and the schools be prayed for. It is God's work and His blessing can rightfully be asked upon it. His blessing has been upon it and is now upon it.

A Peep Into the Future.

Thinking about what has been accomplished the past twenty-five years, it is but natural to seek to peep into the future and ask ourselves the question, what will be the condition of this system of education among our people in the South twenty-five years hence? Instead of ten thousand there will be many times that number in the schools. The young people now in these halls of learning will be occupying places of influence and success in the Church, in the nation, in society and in commerce. With the multiplication of property and intellect and moral power, these educational centers will rise in dignity and influence and come to be the Harvards and Yales and Bostons of the South. For the accomplishment of these blessed results it is a joy to be permitted to work.

A Word of Comparison.

Not for the purpose of invidious comparison, but of justice and information, it is well for the colored people in the Methodist Episcopal Church to compare what has been done and what is being accomplished educationally for them, with what has been done for the colored people in other churches in America. We have several single institutions of learning containing, perhaps, as many students and with property worth as much as all the schools of any other one distinctive colored Methodist Episcopal Church in America. And then consider that this work is but begun. Two and one-half millions of dollars given by the Methodist Episcopal Church for education among the colored people of the South in the last twenty-five years, will be more than doubled the next twenty-five years. Also remember that in this giving and developing of schools our own colored people are to have a large share, thereby developing character and benevolence and intellectual force in moral power.

Dr. Hartzell and His Assistants.

At the head of this system of schools, as the chosen representative of the Church, stands our own Dr. J. C. Hartzell. He joined the Louisiana Conference on trial twenty-one years ago, and during every day of his life since that time he has known nothing but to devote himself to the work of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the South. His distinguished predecessor, Dr. Rust, for twenty years led the work. It is not, however, any disparagement to him to say that during the three years of administration just passed there has been continued and increasing success in every department of the work, and, in the midst of the many difficult and conflicting peculiarities of the diverse administrations, the Society is steadily growing in the appreciation of the whole Church.

Associated with Dr. Hartzell are Dr. Gray with his headquarters in Chicago, and Dr. Chadwick with his headquarters in New York. Men of noble Christian purposes who go everywhere pleading successfully this cause.

A Renewed Consecration for the Work.

We plead for renewed consecration to this blessed work on the part of our people and ministers throughout the whole South. To our Southern work this is the most important society of the Church. The Missionary Society has done and is doing marvelous things. The Church Extension Society does nobly, but more important than missionary money and church extension money is Christian intelligence in our pulpits and pews, in our school rooms, among teachers, in our homes and in our places of business. Praise God for what has been done and what is now being accomplished! Let our people do more than ever in the future for this great cause!

Rev. Madison C. B. Mason, A.M., B.D., Field Agent Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society.

It affords us great pleasure to present to our readers the cut and sketch of the Rev. M. C. B. Mason, A.M., B.D., the able and scholarly young man whom the Board of Managers of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society elected as Field Agent, at its meeting held in Cincinnati, July 14.

Mr. Mason was born on a sugar farm near Houma, La., March 21, 1859. At ten years of age he entered school and mastered the alphabet the first day. Reaching the limit of the country school in the fall of 1874, he entered the state A. and M. College, New Orleans, La., in January, 1875. This was a mixed school, and Mr. Mason received no little persecution and ill treatment on account of color. He refused to leave, however, and stood at the head of his class from March till the close of school in

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Elijah H. Gammon.

BY PRESIDENT THIRKIELD.

Dear Dr. Albert:

Before these lines reach you, doubtless the sad news of the loss of our great hearted friend Rev. E. H. Gammon, of Batavia, Ill., will have come to you. Though he was an old man, and had passed his three score years and ten, yet we had hoped that he might be spared to us for some years to come. He was the best friend and wisest of counsellors in our work. Not only did he give liberally of the large earnings of a life-time, but his heart and thought were constantly given to the enlargement and strengthening of our seminary. He was in no place happier or more at home than upon our campus. He loved to meet the students, to hear their voices in song and prayer; and to learn of their advancement in studies, of any special achievement of theirs in behalf of the people and for the cause of Christ, was his chief joy.

We shall greatly miss these annual visits, during which he has so greatly endeared himself to both professors and students. And no less interested in all these plans and givings for this great work, was his most devoted and faithful wife, who in her great loss and sorrow will receive the sympathy and prayers of a large circle of alumni students and friends all over our Southland. She is a true philanthropist, whose heart beats in response to every good work.

OUR LAMENTED FRIEND, E. H. GAMMON.

Mater in cursu last June, and that of bachelor of divinity from Gammon Theological Seminary last May, after a full three years course. He has since entered the post graduate department of Syracuse University for the degree of Ph.D.

Bro. Mason has been North several times on lecturing tours and has published several of his addresses. Faithfully loyal and true to every interest of the church, and fully equipped as he is mentally, and morally, he gives the most ample promise of remarkable success in the special work to which the church has now called him. The church and the race are to be congratulated upon the flattering recognition bestowed upon this worthy and eloquent exponent of the highest possibilities of the colored race in the Methodist Episcopal Church. The appointment of Bro. Mason shows what comes to loyal and patient merit; and sternly rebukes the turbulent disposition of those who argue that the way to ecclesiastical recognition is by intriguing to overthrow those who happen, by virtue of age and experience to be just before them. In the name of our people we thank Dr. Hartzell and the Board of Managers of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society for this happy selection, for this very important station. God bless Bro. Mason, and guide him to the grandest success!

In all his great plans, requiring such large benevolence, Brother Gammon always received the hearty and constant co-operation of his noble wife. Her thought and prayer and loving support were ever given to the work.

Brother Gammon wanted to live some years longer, not for the mere sake of living, but that he might superintend personally the carrying-out of his ever enlarging plans for Gammon Theological Seminary. It was his chief delight to provide for its increasing usefulness. During his last visit, covering three months, during which we spent several days together in Florida, we have talked for hours and hours together about the seminary—its present work and its future enlargement. He never grew weary of the theme. The institution into which he poured the large treasures of money and the best thought of his last years, brought new joys to his heart and a larger and sweeter Christian experience into his life. As he opened his hand to give, God again filled it with heaven's own best gifts.

He wanted to live to see his plans consummated. During his last visit much thought was given to outlines for a new building for a chapel, lecture rooms and offices. He was planning to build it this fall. He was very desirous of seeing the splendid group of main buildings complete and crowning the beautiful hill that overlooks the city and surrounding country.

But now he has gone home. Our Father, who doeth all things well, has called him to his reward. After a long visit at the home of his favorite niece, Mrs. Professor Crawford, the coming of whom with her scholarly and able husband into the work at Gammon gave him such delight, he left the campus the last of April in much weakness. From this illness he has never rallied, and on July 3d, he passed into the heavens.

We shall greatly miss him. We cannot forget him. Coming generations will rise and call him blessed. Through the scores and hundreds of consecrated ministers who, in coming years, shall go out to join the nearly fifty alumni now in the field, his life shall move on in ever enlarging influence among the generations to come. Thus shall he work and preach. He has builded better than he knew, in opening this school of the prophets for the training of ministers of every race and color and denomination.

Some day a colossal statue in bronze shall stand among the pines and magnolias of the campus of Gammon Theological Seminary, erected out of the gift of a redeemed and faithful race to whom this dear old man has sent a ministry, called of God, but prepared to preach the Gospel in its fullness and power, through his wise and consecrated gifts. But even this token of enduring love and gratitude shall not be needed to perpetuate his name, for it shall find its best monument and that imperishable, in the hearts and lives of generations now unborn who shall arise to call him blessed, because he hath prepared men "to preach good tidings to the poor; to proclaim release to the captives; and recovering of sight to the blind; to set at liberty them that are bruised; to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."

MEDICAL SCHOOLS.

MEHARRY MEDICAL COLLEGE, NASHVILLE, TENN.

MEDICAL COLLEGE, NEW ORLEANS UNIVERSITY.

Medical Schools.

Negro physicians are an absolute necessity among the millions of colored people in this country, and it is to the honor of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society that 132 Negro physicians have been graduated from its Meharry Medical College at Nashville, Tenn. The faculty consists of Dean Hubbard and seven professors, one assistant professor, one lecturer, three instructors and one demonstrator of anatomy. Eighty students were enrolled last year. The students have clinical privileges at the Nashville city hospital. The grounds and buildings are worth $25,000.

It is a startling fact that the death rate among colored people in the large cities of the South is nearly twice as great as among white people. The following figures demonstrate this:

	White	Colored
Nashville, Tenn., 1890.....	12	26
Memphis, Tenn., 1890.....	19	26
Columbia, Tenn., 1890.....	15	17
Clarksville, Tenn., 1890.....	10	26
Knoxville, Tenn., 1890.....	14	32
Chattanooga, Tenn., 1890.....	13	32
New Orleans, 1880 to 1887.....	24	32
Baltimore, 1880 to 1890.....	18	32
Washington, D. C., 1889.....	16	30
Atlanta, Ga., 1890.....	16	36

Why is this? It is not because of race peculiarities, but of unhealthy dwellings, poor food, insufficient clothing, ignorance concerning the laws of health, etc. The great need is more and better medical attention and good nursing. Thousands die annually for lack of medical treatment. In one year 119 colored persons died in Savannah who were not attended by any physician. We ought to have a thousand educated Christian physicians at once.

In the twelve Southern States south of the Potomac and Ohio rivers, says Dean Hubbard, with a colored population of over six and one quarter millions, there are only 175 properly qualified colored physicians who are engaged in the practice of medicine, or one to every 36,000. Southern white physicians should receive due credit for the efforts they have made among the colored people, but the field is too vast for them to care for.

NEW ORLEANS MEDICAL COLLEGE

Through the magnificent efforts of Bishop Mallalieu our Medical College at New Orleans has been opened and has had two years of successful work. A splendid property has been bought and the outlook for the school is good.

We need a hundred thousand dollars endowment for each of these schools. Let the people pray that the efforts of our friends may be successful and that these endowments may be secured.

Our colored physicians who have graduated are doing well. Out of the 121 living graduates of Meharry Medical College, 101 are practicing medicine, 6 are preaching, 9 are teaching, and five are in other occupations. With but few exceptions, they are all professing Christians, and as they go forth in their work they are everywhere representatives of the Christian Church.

Dr. Hartzell on the Appointment of Bro. Mason.

Rev. A. E. P. Albert, D.D., New Orleans, La.

Dear Doctor: The appointment of the Rev. M. U. B. Mason, A.M., B.D., to be Field Agent of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society by our Board of Directors at the annual meeting last Tuesday will, I have no doubt, be heartily approved by our conferences throughout the South, and that our conferences and people throughout the North will recognize it as a proper thing to do. It gives official recognition to the colored people of our church. He was educated at one of our schools, having taken the classical course at New Orleans University with honor, and later on completed a theological course at Gammon Theological Seminary. He has shown himself competent for the work by sundry trips on behalf of the society in the North and elsewhere. Let our people pray for God's blessing upon him.

His work for the present will be especially in the colored conferences of the South, but as opportunity opens he will be sent to different parts of the church to represent our cause.

The honor fell to me of founding the SOUTHWESTERN at a personal expense of over five thousand dollars and years of labor for which I received nothing. Among the greatest pleasures I have in thinking of that work is that a General Conference office was made which would naturally fall to a colored man. So now I am specially thankful for the opportunity of helping to lead the way for the employment of a colored man in connection with the officers of one of our church benevolent societies.

Let all our friends, especially in the South, pray for the blessing of God upon Brother Mason that he may have success in the new and responsible work which he will undertake.

Yours truly,
J. C. HARTZELL.

Hear the Bishops!

Our bishops study all departments of church-work at home and abroad and their judgment as to the importance of our educational work in the South is of great value.

Hear what they have to say:

I look upon the work of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society in the South as all important to the church and state.

—Bishop Bowman.

It is a growing conviction that the Methodist Episcopal Church has nowhere done a more important work than its work of instruction, evangelization, and moral uplift among the colored people in the South.—Bishop Foss.

No work can be carried on with more economy, efficiency, and success.—Bishop Warren.

One hundred and thirty years hence and the stars and stripes will float over 150,000,000 colored people with great universities and renowned scholarships.—Bishop Fowler.

SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY, NASHVILLE.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY.

Every consideration that warrants the maintenance of Christian schools in the North combine to move our people in the North to give this society a constant and liberal support.—Bishop Walden.

The conservation of all that is best in the family, the state, and the church, requires that the illiterate masses of the South, both black and white, should be educated.—Bishop Mallalieu.

There is no more pressing and important work committed to our hands than our educational obligation to the South.—Bishop Hurst.

The race problem is to find its solution in Christian education. The preacher and the teacher will make the new South a glorious realization.—Bishop Newman.

I know of no greater work done by the church than that which has been done by the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society. The results are as marvelous as the need is great.—Bishop Foster.

We cannot urge the work to strenuously.—Bishop Ninde.

We must have more money. We need more teachers, more buildings, and greater equipments for our work.—Bishop Joyce.

The great mission field of the world is America.—Bishop Taylor.

The Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society has done a work for the church in the Southern States for which the whole nation ought to be grateful.—Bishop Merrill.

Talking of patent medicines—you know the old prejudice. And the doctors—some of them are between you and us. They would like you to think that what's cured thousands won't cure you. You'd believe in patent medicines if they didn't profess to cure everything—and so, between the experiments of doctors, and the experiments of patent medicines that are sold only because there's money in the "stuff," you lose faith in everything.

And, you can't always tell the prescription that cures by what you read in the papers. So, perhaps, there's no better way to sell a remedy, than to tell the truth about it, and take the risk of its doing just what it professes to do.

That's what the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., does with in which to open a school of Mechanic Arts. Mesdames Smith and Cotton, of a sister church, and ladies of southern birth and education, have made a donation of $25,000 worth of land in Sedalia, Mo., for an institution of learning.

WHO OBJECTS?

"The education of the Negro has been objected to in some quarters, but the objections are born of prejudice or inhumanity, and when brought together in their best array only make us think of the reasons given by an ancient city council for not cleaning the streets of Madrid. First, it would be a reflection on the wisdom of their ancestors, who never had done it. Second, the air of Madrid was too pure to be wholesome, and needed something to mitigate its excessive purity. Third, the dogs and carrion-birds, which subsisted on the filth and offal, would all starve to death. Fourth, it was an experiment which had never been tried, and no one could tell what disastrous consequences might possibly follow. So the sagacious council decided against cleaning the streets of Madrid."

The perpetuity of this nation, the preservation of our civil and religious institutions, depend on the education of all our people. It is a work of self-preservation, as well as a work of commendable philanthropy.

SELF-HELP.

Principal Grandison, of Bennett Seminary, Greensboro, N. C., writes: "Four of nature's noble women came to Bennett Seminary, and said they wanted an education.

Being in very indigent circumstances, they desired help. I told them we had no help we could give. They insisted that they would do anything honorable in the way of work. I proposed to them that they do laundry-work for the young men. Gladly and cheerfully they consented. Thus these girls, through their own exertions, rounded out the year to the credit of themselves and the institution; and when they boarded the train for home, after commencement, they were the happiest set you ever saw.

WHAT IS

SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can

It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. "My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofula sore neck from the time she was 22 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became a running sore for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLILE, Nauright, N. J.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.

The society has in connection with its schools, industrial departments where from two to three hours a day the students are taught trades. The largest plant of this character is at Orangeburg, S. C., in connection with Claflin University under the presidency of Dr. L. M. Dutton, where there are twenty-one different departments of industry, taught regularly to the young men and young women in attendance upon that school. Some of these departments are for young men and others for young women. Among them we might mention carpentering, blacksmithing, shoe making, tailoring, laundry work, sewing, cutting and fitting, painting, milling, etc. It is found that in the short space of three months students can carry on their studies without any subtraction of interest and gain such a knowledge of a trade that he may select, that he can go out into society and help himself materially.

Common labor is greatly overdone in the South. Slavery dealt only with such labor. Previous to the war, the South purchased nearly everything manufactured from the North, and there was but little skilled labor in this section of our country. American slavery failed to recognize that skilled workmanship was more valuable than common labor, so when slavery was abolished the whole country was deluged with field hands that had been trained to hoe cotton and work in the rice fields. Aside from the immediate house servants, there was but little else in the South.

When we study this labor problem we find that there was a special field and call for the training of skilled workmen.

The society also has a large industrial plant at Atlanta, Ga. In connection with this there is a foundry and carriage shop, etc., and the students are specifically engaged in the building of wagons, carriages, etc. In the plant at Atlanta, arrangements are made to make the work partially to support the students while they are learning their trades, by giving them so much an hour up to a certain point of ability to do work, and then increasing it, and so on until they receive for work done ten cents an hour. This leads them to employ their Saturdays and thus help themselves through school.

The society has also another very fine outfit for doing very fine work at Nashville, Tenn., under the management of Prof. Sedgewick. At this school special attention is given to exceedingly fine work, such as the making of telescopes and microscopes, and work of that kind.

It is the purpose of the society to have industrial departments in connection with all of their schools, believing that this is a part of Christian education and therefore falls within the domain of missionary work. It is impossible to overestimate the value of this industrial movement at a time and in a country where the labor problem has become one of the most serious questions of the hour. In the providence of God, the Christian church, through the instrumentality of Christian education in connection with this industrial work, is solving the problem of labor which has thus far baffled the statesmen of our country. If the scope of this single department of work in connection with this great educational system of the church under the direction of the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society was understood it would greatly increase the breadth of the work in the thought of the church.

It is probable that our pastors do not all possess a good family sewing machine, but all should and can, and here is our plan for giving them one: For only 25 new subscribers from any one charge or circuit, with $37.50, (the prepaid cash rate,) we will present one of the Premium Singer Machines to the pastor of that charge or circuit, or to any one getting up the club. This offer is open to all denominations, and is very liberal. This does not hinder any member of the club from getting one under our regular offer. Any of them paying $14 gets the paper and the machine, and will count one in the club if so stated.

As our object in making this offer is to increase the list, we stipulate that they shall be new subscribers. Old subscribers still have the privilege of the standing offer as heretofore published. If they have already paid for their paper they can send $12.50 and get the machine.

The following letter recently received from the manufacturers ought to inspire full confidence in them, should there be any doubt. We are aware that traveling and local agents of other machines are telling the people that we cannot supply them at such a low price, but more than a hundred of our patrons can attest to the genuineness of our offer.

CHICAGO, May 28, 1891.

The "Southwestern Christian Advocate," New Orleans, La.:

Referring to your esteemed favor of recent date, would say that the machines you are advertising in connection with single yearly subscriptions to your paper, and as premiums for clubs of subscribers, are fully covered by registered certificate of warranty for five years, which accompanies each machine.

These machines are manufactured out of the very best material the market affords, and the workmanship is the very best that can be accomplished by the highest quality of skilled labor. The machines are facsimiles of the original well known "Singer" machine. The fact that we are able to furnish them at such low prices is due to our system of marketing them. We make a specialty of furnishing them to the newspaper trade, and by marketing our machines in this way we can afford to furnish them at prices that net us but a very small profit over and above the actual factory cost of building them. Your readers should all understand that every machine is sold subject to approval upon inspection and trial. Any subscriber receiving one of these machines not fully satisfied with it can return it and have their money refunded, as we do not want any purchaser to keep a machine unless they are satisfied. We are dependent upon every machine sent out selling several others, and this policy has increased our business to its present proportions.

You have now been handling these machines, we believe, about one year, and we do not think one has been returned or that we have had any complaint in reference to them from any person to whom one has been shipped. This should be a sufficient guarantee as to their merit to any person contemplating the purchase of one of them.

Believing that your present demand for them will not only be maintained throughout the coming season, but will be largely increased, we beg to remain

A LIFE SAVED!

READ THE TWO STATEMENTS.

An Extraordinary Case!

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 22, 1890.
Last April I was attacked with Chagres Fever in Spanish Honduras and was given up to die by two physicians. During that spell and since I have used a good and reliable medicine and have been cured without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered untold agonies. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Royal Glycerine. I have had no fever since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind. Am gaining strength very fast. Can walk miles at a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Glycerine has been a God-send to me. I can not say too much in its praise. Any who wish to do so may call on me.

DANIEL PATTON,
461 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1, 1891.
My improvement continued, and soon after writing the above statement I was able to go to work and have been ever since. My life is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony gladly, because I know that Glycerine saved my life.

DANIEL PATTON.

Chagres Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Glycerine has been tried on a number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It has a similar record as a remedy for Swamp Fever and Malarial troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quickest and most infallible remedy for Fevers of all kinds, Dyspepsia, Debility, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidences from thousands of the best people in the country, and the evidences multiply in our mind every day.

For sale by druggists and country merchants, and at the Glycerine office, 292 Canal street, New Orleans. For full information, circulars, etc., call on or address Kit Williams, Agent, 292 Canal street. $1 bottle; six bottles for $5.

SECOND QUARTER.—Studies in the Gospel of St. John. Lesson IV. Christ and Nicodemus. John 3. 1-17. Commit to memory verses 14-17. July 26, 1891. A. D. 27 or 28.

HOME READINGS.
M. John 3. 1-8. Th. John 3. 9-17.
W. Num. 21. 4-9. Th. Isa. 61. 1-6.
F. Ezek. 11. 17-21. S. Rom. 8. 31-39. S. 1 John 4. 9-15.

GOLDEN TEXT.
God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. (John 3. 16.)

LESSON HYMN, L. M.
Lord, how secure and blest are they
Who feel the joys of pardoned sin!
Should storms of wrath shake earth and sea,
Their minds have heaven and peace within.

The day glides sweetly o'er their heads,
Made up of innocence and love;
And soft and silent as the shades,
Their nightly minutes gently move.

Quick as their thoughts their joys come on,
But fly not half so swift away:
Their souls are ever bright as noon,
And calm as summer evening be.

Time—A. D. 27 or 28.
Place—Jerusalem.

Rulers—Herod in Gallilee; Pilate in Jerusalem.

Connecting links—This occurred immediately after the events described in chapter 2. Jesus did not begin his wider missionary labors till John the Baptist was imprisoned.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY
1. The New Birth: Its Necessity, v. 1-7.
What ruler is here named, and of what sect was he?
What night visit did he make?
What did he say that he knew?
How only can one see the kingdom of God?
What says Paul about the change in this new birth?
How did Nicodemus answer this?
What two kinds of birth did Jesus contrast?
About what did he tell Nicodemus not to marvel?
2. The New Birth: Its Mystery, v. 8-12.
In what way is the wind like the new birth?
What question did Nicodemus ask?
What question did Jesus ask him?
What did he say of his own utterance?
What about earthly and heavenly things?
3. The New Birth: Its Source, v. 13-17.
Who only has ascended to heaven?
Who is this "Son of man"?
What act of Moses was a prophecy of Christ?
Why was the Son of man lifted up?
What moved God to give his only Son? (Golden Text.)
For what was Jesus sent?
Why was he sent?

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.
Where in this lesson are we taught:
1. That we must be born again?
2. That the new birth is God's work?
3. The measure of God's love for the world?

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG BELIEVERS.
Read the story of the brazen serpent.
Read the story of Jesus's ascension to heaven.
Find an Old Testament statement of God's love for sinners.

THE LESSON CATECHISM.
[For the entire school.]
1. What did Jesus say to Nicodemus? Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.
2. How did he say a man must be born again? Of water and of the Spirit.
3. Like what did Jesus say the working of the Spirit is? Like the wind, which bloweth where it listeth.
4. To what did Jesus compare his own death for mankind? To Moses' lifting up the servant in the wilderness.
5. What is the Golden Text? "For God so loved," etc.

EXPLANATIONS.
A ruler—A member of the Sanhedrin. Rabbi—A term of respectful courtesy. Jesus answered—Answered Nicodemus's thought. Born again—An entirely new life must begin in him. Verily, verily—A term used by our Lord for emphasis. Born of water and of the Spirit—A man must begin a new life in the sight of others by publicly acknowledging and confessing his sin, and a new life in the sight of God by having the Spirit of God work a direct change in his character. Art thou a master—A teacher, which is the old sense of the word, retained by us in "schoolmaster" and "master of arts." The Son of man—A term used in the Old Testament which Jesus was fond of applying to himself. Heaven—Spiritual conditions. Doctrinal suggestion—Regeneration.

THE CHURCH CATECHISM.
74. What is the outward sign of the Lord's Supper? Bread and wine, received according to Christ's command.
75. What is the inward grace of this sacrament? The communion of the body and blood of Christ, whereby we are reminded of his sacrificial death, and spiritually strengthened to do his will.

The Lover's Lament.
Your face is like a drooping flower,
Sweetheart!
I see you fading, hour by hour,
Sweetheart!
Your rounded outlines waste away,
In vain I weep, in vain I pray,
What power Death's cruel hand can stay?

Sweetheart! Sweetheart!
Why, nothing but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It imparts strength to the failing system, cures organic troubles, and for debilitated and feeble women generally, is unequalled. It dispels melancholy and nervousness, and builds up both flesh and strength. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it refunded.

Money the Year Round.
Miss Smith says: "Can I make $25 per week in the plating business?" Yes. I make $4 to $8 per day plating tableware and jewelry and selling platters. H. C. Delmo & Co., Columbus, O., will give you full information. A plater costs $5. Business is light and honorable and makes money the year round.
A. READER.

THE Board of Managers of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church held its annual session at Cincinnati, July 14. In the absence of Bishop Walden, who is in Europe, Hon. Amos Shinkle, of Kentucky, presided. Drs. Hartzell, Gray and Chadwick, corresponding secretaries, were present, and the attendance of prominent men from different parts of the country was large. The condition and necessities of the forty-one institutions under the direction of the Society were carefully considered. $322,656.44 were expended in the past year, and the annual conferences were asked to give $240,000 this coming year in collections. The remainder needed will come from the bequests and special donations.

THE present issue is almost entirely devoted to the cause of education in the South, as prosecuted by the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The facts here given are immensely valuable, and should be extensively used in presenting the claims of the Society, and filed for future reference.

Why It Is Popular.
Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequalled record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 Doses One Dollar" is true—these strong points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day.

Special to Teachers?
In accordance with the notice which appeared in the SOUTHWESTERN some weeks ago, a number of teachers have written us for the important information we desired to impart to them, but many have thus far failed to do so. Again we would urge every teacher reading this paper, to send his address to the editor of this paper at once; and he will learn something greatly to his advantage. Only a few more weeks remain, wherein you may answer this request to your advantage. Address Rev. A. E. P. Albert, D.D., 139 Poydras street, New Orleans, La.

WE cannot publish conference notices, nor lost friend notices, more than once, except as regularly paid advertisements.

PRESIDING Elders must bear in mind that lay delegates must be elected, in their fourth quarterly conferences this year, to attend the Lay Electoral conferences, to elect delegates to the next General Conference. It would be well too for them to begin at once to raise their apportionments for the entertainment of the next General Conference.

WHENEVER you notice a long string of names published in the SOUTHWESTERN with the amounts they contributed to the church, you can take it for granted that those names went in as regularly paid advertisements. They are never admitted otherwise. We cannot afford it. Neither can we publish statistics and apportionments, unless paid for as advertisement.

"Seeing is Believing."
Do you want to buy a Lamp?

Some folks get cheated in buying a lamp. Nobody ever gets cheated that buys the lamp with this stamp. "The Rochester." It is not one lamp, it is one burner on 2,000 different kinds of lamps.

And a wonderful burner it is indeed! Insist upon seeing the stamp of the genuine,—"The Rochester," and ask for the written guarantee. If the lamp-dealer has not the genuine Rochester and the style you want, send to us for illustrated price list, and we will send you (boxed) any lamp safely by express.

OVERMAN'S SPECIFIC OXYGEN

A Home Treatment for Diseases of Head, Throat and Lungs.

SPECIFIC OXYGEN is the only Medicated Oxygen in use. It contains a Germicide and Disinfectant which kills the microbes or germs, and disinfects the membranes in the Head, Throat and Lungs. It quiets cough. It softens tubercles and heals the lungs. It purifies the blood.

"IT IS THE BREATH OF LIFE."
It is a Natural Narcotic, giving rest and sleep by revitalizing the prostrated nerves, instead of narcotizing or paralyzing them.

SPECIFIC OXYGEN is a natural and diffusive stimulant, perfectly harmonizing with nature's effort to throw off disease. Separate Specific used in Catarrh and Hay Fever.

"IT IS NATURE'S OWN REMEDY."
For the Relief of Nasal Catarrh, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, Asthma, LaGrippe, Catarrhal Deafness, and Nervous Prostration.

"I have never met nor seen a more intelligent body of men."—
Bishop Joyce on the Presiding Elders' Convention.

COLORLED newspapers, like kindred interests, are springing up on all sides. Now comes even Tanica, Miss., with a bright new sheet, the Tanica Citizen. We wish long life and prosperity.

A CONSIDERABLE war cloud overhangs the region of Coal Creek, Tenn., in consequence of the determination on the part of miners there against the employment of convicts in the mines. The Governor has had to send the militia to keep the peace. They were insignificant in the presence of the popular demonstration of the miners and their friends, and have not succeeded in accomplishing any tangible results. The probabilities are that the Legislature will be called in extra session to consider the situation. In the meantime the trouble has been smoothed over for the present.

SHALL a colored man be made a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church? That interrogation mark is floating around in the air. The SOUTHWESTERN believes that very thing ought to be done. A recent gathering of colored presiding elders respectfully asked for churchly recognition in the shape of some major church offices. The demand will grow louder from this on. It can not be ignored. It will not be. An entering wedge was driven at Cincinnati last week when Rev. Mr. Mason was appointed to represent in the field the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society. He is an eloquent brother, and will do extra good service.—Epicurean Herald.

WHILE Protestant white professors, (Presbyterian) at Biddle University, Charlotte, N. C., are resigning their positions because the Rev. Mr. Sanders, a thoroughly educated colored man has been elected president of that institution, and while others in other Protestant denominations are expressing their "predispositions," against the election of Negro bishops; and while we record the fact, our eyes fall on an item about a certain American Roman Catholic Bishop, who is described as "persona mixta sanguinis, patre albo, et matre nigra, et lana in capite ejus hoc probat." That is, "A person of mixed blood, father white, and mother black, and the wool on his head proves it." Herein is a terrible warning to Protestant Americans.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Sparks that from the Anvil Flew at the Presiding Elders' Convention.

PROF. A. W. M'KINNEY.

If the Convention should accomplish nothing more than to bring out the SOUTHWESTERN it would be a success.—Dr. Albert.

It was in my mind when I started the SOUTHWESTERN that New Orleans would be the first place from which a colored man would be elected to a General Conference office. During twenty-four years I traveled and administered to our people in the plantations and swamps of Louisiana, and I never refused the hospitality they offered; and to this as much as anything else, I attribute my safety.—Dr. J. C. Hartzell.

Religion without warmth, to the Negro is no religion. Nothing suits him better than red hot religion. The Negro is American by birth and education, intensified by religion. He possesses nothing of Africa save his black face, kinky hair and shining eyes; and he is getting rid of these far too fast for his own good.—Mack Henson.

Character is greater than either denominational or race pride. Let us build three tabernacles; one for Shem; one for Japheth, and one for Ham.—E. W. S. Hammond, D.D.

Every colored man that is worth two bits is in the M. E. Church. The M. E. Church South, after being out forty-seven years, now wants to come back; and if the church is good enough for them to come back to, it is good enough for me to stay in.—P. Morgau, of Texas.

Our people have been damaged by too much help. We must sacrifice, must give till we feel it. We must come to self-reliance. The sooner the better.—Dr. H. R. Revels.

We have been carried long enough. Let us be men. I preach temperance, and men and women on my district throw their bottles, snuff boxes and tobacco away.—E. M. Collett, of North Carolina.

I deny the charge that we have received too much missionary money. Many of our preachers on going to their appointments have been met by bulldozers, and had to hide out and take the first train. Had it not been for such help what could they have done? Other denominations that have gone into these places and built up, have had "meat to eat that ye know not of." I am for retrenchment, but let it come gradually.—J. M. Shum-pert.

Many of the other denominations build finer churches than we do, but Gabriel will have to blow the third trumpet before they are paid for.—Dr. L. M. Hagood.

Guard well the doors of your church. No church official board or quarterly conference ought to license a man to preach or recommend him to the Annual Conference unless they are willing that the Bishop should send that brother back to preach for them. It is too often the case that a brother is recommended to the Annual Conference, because he is not wanted at home.—Dr. J. Braden.

The Chattanooga Evening News in giving the proceedings of the Convention, said: "That these meetings are doing good to the colored race of this city and the country at large, can readily be seen by the attention with which the proceedings of the Convention are listened to by the audience."

"Among the visiting delegates are some of the brightest lights of the colored race, notably being Dr.

Hammond, of Ohio, who is a celebrated speaker, and Dr. Revels. The latter was for six years a U. S. Senator from the State of Mississippi. He is a man about 80 years of age, with fine features and snowy white hair, and is respected as the oldest and one of the ablest delegates in the Convention.

"The Negro race is a highly progressive one. It has shown itself to be endowed with an energy and characteristic traits that fit it for great deeds in the onward march of the world's civilization. This statement is forcibly emphasized in the deliberations of the presiding elders of the Southern conferences of the M. E. Church, who have just closed their session in the Wiley Memorial Church in this city. For a long time this race of people was loaded with peculiar contempt and referred to with expressions of sarcastic utterance by those who professed to see nothing in them more than the mere brute, and fit only for the most degrading manual labor. But after twenty-five years of freedom, they have exhibited a progress in civilization and the arts never seen in any other people, and are challenging the admiration even of those who formerly regarded them only as beasts of burden on a level with the ox and the ass. No one who witnessed any of the proceedings of the body above referred to, could but be greatly impressed with the acumen and knowledge, the sound common sense and the practical wisdom manifested by these representatives of this race as they sat in counsel together upon the issues pertaining to the better advancement of their kith and kin. The proceedings would have done credit to any body of men, of whatever nationality or color, and we are glad to take this opportunity in emphasizing the remarkable development of this erstwhile degraded and enslaved people.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

From Canada.

J. BRADEN.

On the 10th of July we left Nashville for Toronto, the place of holding the annual session of the National Educational Association. Farmers were bringing in their newly threshed wheat as we left home. In Ohio we found them cutting the crop, in New York the wheat was ripening for the harvest. The strawberry ripens in Tennessee in May. We found this berry on the table here in July. A delightful sail on Lake Ontario, touching at Lorne and Grimsby Parks, closes the week, and we retire to the Elliott House and to bed, amid the bustle of a busy city and the rattle of wheels, over the stones, and the patter of the feet of the street car horses and the jingling of their bells.

Sunday morning, bright as day well can be, the city is nearly as quiet as a country village. No street cars run on Sunday, and Toronto is a prosperous, growing city of nearly 200,000 inhabitants. No saloon is open from Saturday night at 7 o'clock till Monday morning. Not the sign of an open store, except drug stores. Then that other pest of our cities, the Sunday newspaper, is not known here. No street cars, no saloons, no open stores, no newspapers in Toronto on Sunday. But Toronto is called the city of churches. The Methodists have, I am told, about forty churches. Some of them are very fine. To be known as a city of churches is much more desirable than to be called a city of saloons. There is some opposition to the quiet restful Sunday. The saloonists, the mere pleasure seekers, the communists and the Godless, generally oppose it. True Christians, patriots and philanthropists, favor it. It is an object lesson to see churches well filled with out the aid of street cars, and to know that hundreds of horses and scores of street car conductors and drivers have a day of rest. At 11 o'clock we worship in Elm Street Church, and hear an excellent sermon from the words, "The kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man." The preacher did not get much out of the text, but he put a good deal into it. At 3 p. m. We attended the Metropolitan Sunday school. This school has about 600 scholars, and is divided into primary, intermediate, and senior departments. There is also a Chinese department, where we found seventeen celestials with their seventeen teachers at work teaching these heathen the way of life. The night service began in this church, as in all the churches in Toronto, while the sun was yet shining. But the congregation, over fifteen hundred, was present. The service was begun by the choir chanting the Lord's Prayer. Then the doxology, the congregation standing and joining in the singing. The hymn announced by the preacher, true played by the organist, first stanza of the hymn read by preacher, sung by choir and congregation, and each successive stanza read and sung in same way. Then the prayer, anthem by choir, then the Scripture lesson, then a hymn read and sung as the first. Sermon from the text Acts 19. 1: "Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus," which was treated, 1st. A great city. 2d. A great man, Paul. 3d. A great revolution the result of his coming. The preacher put much into the text. It was an excellent discourse. At the close of the sermon, prayer, collection by passing the baskets, while the organ gave forth its sweetest notes. Then the closing hymn, and benediction. After it the whole congregation sat down, and with bowed heads remained in perfect quiet for a moment, the sweet, soft notes of the organ being the signal for rising and dispersing. The singing was hearty and congregational. The organ and choir leading. The congregation standing during all the singing. We went to bed rejoicing in the exercises of our first Sunday in Canada.

Schools and Colleges.

One Thousand Students in New Orleans University.

That is the number I want to see enrolled in New Orleans University during 1891-92. Last year the enrollment was 562.

How can this be accomplished?

First: The faculty we have now is supported almost wholly by the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society. It will take four or five additional teachers. These can be supported by the increase of tuition that will come by 438 more students.

Second: The building now under way must be completed before next school year opens, and what is specially important now is the money to complete it must be raised in Louisiana. The society cannot now make more appropriations for building for New Orleans University. Other schools, including Alexandria, must be sheltered. But this the society will do—it will make an appropriation of $6,000 for next year for the support of the faculty, and let all the pastors raise this conference year go into the new building except what is raised in the Alexandria district. That district must take care of Alexandria Academy.

The apportionments have already been made by the Presiding Elders of Louisiana to the charges. Let every pastor be prepared to report his full apportionment raised at his approaching district conference.

I hope to be at the approaching district conference of the Shreveport, Alexandria, and the North and South New Orleans districts.

One thousand students in New Orleans University for 1891-92! Let that be our motto and let every man help to bring it to pass.

J. C. HARTZELL.

The death of ex-Vice-President Hannibal Hamlin on July 4th, recalls the interesting fact that ex-President Thomas Jefferson and John Adams died on July 4th, 1826, and ex-President Monroe on July 4th, 1831.

Bishop Tanners's daughter, who has recently gained such prominence in medical circles, has just been appointed resident physician of the medical college at Tuscaloosa, Ala.—Courant.

A young woman has been admitted to Yale College; and the University of New York has conferred the degree of Doctor of Pedagogy, and Master of Pedagogy on Mary E. Cato, Emily J. Conant and Harriet E. Hunt, colored ladies. We rejoice with the women of both races.

Miss Sarah Hayes, who has been teaching at Baker, La., has just closed a very successful session. The exhibition and examinations were highly spoken of. She delivered a splendid address on education, which we would gladly publish but for lack of space.

The Executive Board of the South Mississippi Teachers Association met at Brookhaven, July 11th; transacted some very important business, and adjourned to meet at Hazlehurst, Miss., May 9th and 10th, 1892. All teachers of South Mississippi are expected to attend. J. M. May, president, Miss I. M. Harris, secretary.

The Editor of the Centrill Methodist (M. E. Church South) is terribly exercised over the prospect of colored students being admitted in the great Methodist University to be established at the national capital in Washington, D. C.

Out of his prejudiced little soul he cries out: "And this is the institution that Southern Methodists are asked to help establish, and some of our chief men are already on its board of management." Terrible, isn't it?

Teachers desiring schools to teach; and communities in need of teachers can find no better means of securing what they want than by advertising their wants through the SOUTHWESTERN. Forty thousand people read our paper every week. Write for terms.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

A Monument for Jeff. Davis.

BY MRS. ALICE E. ALBERT.

I clip the following from the Times Democrat of July 21.

Texarkana, July 20.—The colored people who came originally from the ante-bellum home of Jefferson Davis, in Mississippi, will give an entertainment at Ghio's Opera House Wednesday night, the proceeds of which are to go to the benefit of the Jeff. Davis monument fund.

This is an outrageous shame! What has Jefferson Davis done for the colored people that they should want to help raise funds to help build a monument for him? The cause for which he fought and spent his life, I should say, left enough monuments on the backs of our poor fathers and mothers, to satisfy any people. The Lost Friend column in the SOUTHWESTERN is another imperishable monument to his memory. Why not devise plans to erect monuments to Abraham Lincoln, U. S. Grant, Wm. T. Sherman, Sumner and Sheridan instead? Such are the ones we should honor with monuments.

The charitable thing for our people to do is to try to forget such men as Jeff. Davis. The white people of the South would respect us more for it. They know as well as we, that no people honestly feel like building monuments for anybody that fought to keep them in slavery, under the lash, and that sold their children, parents, and husbands and wives from each other. The thing is unnatural.

City Church Notes.

(Brief items of news from the city churches will be welcome either handed us by pastors or laymen.)

The Union Meeting at LaHarpe Church, June 28, resulted in the collection of $95.60.

The committee on the Old Folks' Home, from First Street M. E. Church, has been discharged. The stewards will hereafter take up the money for that cause, and turn it over to the Old Folks' Home treasurer. T. G. Montgomery, P. C.

Rev. H. C. Wilson, Gretna, informs us of the baptism of little Frank J. Folzon, in his church, July 12. The occasion brought over from this city, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Prudhomme, Misses Maggie Gallagher, R. Carter, L. Hawkins, Fannie Brown and Mrs. M. J. Carter, to the Inncheon prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Folzon, the child's parents.

In Memoriam.—E. H. Gammon.

Our Augusta, Ga., church, Rev. H. H. Manzon pastor, observed memorial services Sunday, July 19, in honor of our friend and benefactor, Rev. E. H. Gammon, founder and beneficiary of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga. The church has been draped in mourning.

PROF. I. G. Stone, 230 St. Joseph street (up stairs), has opened a school of telegraphy for colored students. A profession that has hitherto been debarred the colored race owing to there being no school established for their training and preparatory study. The system of telegraphy was admirably demonstrated a few nights ago at the First Street M. E. Church, Rev. T. G. Montgomery, pastor. On that occasion the professor was present at the church accompanied by Mr. John A. Morris Pittman, one of his advanced students, who, during the latter portion of the evening, (after an explanatory address had been made touching upon the art of telegraphy and the benefits accruing therefrom) sent and received numerous messages over the wire, to the admiration and astonishment of all present. The professor's terms for tuition are reasonable, being only ten dollars per month, and the instrument simple and easy to learn. Should you feel so inclined call and inspect his school at any time. He will be pleased to have you do so.

RIGHTEOUSNESS is springing right here in the South, and we will have reason to thank God and take courage. Speaking of the election farces in vogue in this State, and in the South, to maintain "white supremacy," Bishop Galloway, of the M. E. Church South, said recently: "It would be better for every office—State, county and city—to be filled by colored men, than for your sons to have done what they have been doing for the past few days."

The Southwestern Female University at Florence, Ala., is one of the new schools of the Southland that has flattering prospects for great usefulness. It expects to open next September, with 200 boarders.

P. M. Carmichael, Wesley Chapel, Austin, Texas.

Some things have prevented us from reporting a large number of conversions this quarter. However, some have been saved. I have thought with others that in every service there should be some one saved, and that the service was about lost without it. The church fails to have that earnestness and burning desire for the salvation of souls that was characteristic of the early church. For this we cannot account. It may be that we preach the Word not seasoned with faith. And where there is this earnestness among the ministers and a few of our members, there are so many that mix with the world in such a way as to destroy all their Christian influence. It takes the concerted efforts of both preachers and members to insure spiritual, and I think financial success. Our labors have not altogether been fruitless this quarter. Up to June 14 we have had 16 conversions and 20 accessions to the church; 735 full members and 20 on probation, making an enrollment of 755. An increase in membership since last quarter of 45, and of 12 probationers. Collections, $675.50, not including the amount raised in the Sunday school. We have done some very necessary repairs on church and parsonage property, which add to its value and beauty. Our second quarterly conference convened June 13, 14, Rev. Mack Henson, our much esteemed Presiding Elder, in the chair. Reports from church and Sunday school were quite encouraging. Elder Henson preached an able sermon on marriage, that was very timely and well received by our large congregation. At night he gave the Lord's Supper to the largest number that ever partook in old Wesley Church, and on Monday morning, the 15th, he took his leave for Troy, Ala., to see his mother, who he had not seen in 38 years. Also, to attend the Presiding Elders' Convention, that met in Chattanooga, Tenn., on the 23d. I must say that I do heartily endorse the Convention, and think it is one of the best things that could have been gotten up to discuss the general interest of our work among the colored conferences. I have confidence in the men that met there, believe that they were true and loyal to the old church, and that great good will come out of the meeting. I will endeavor to get up a financial rally for the benevolent purposes and Samuel Huston College, from now until the 16th of December. I have never forgotten the dear old SOUTHWESTERN, and shall continue to do all I can for it.

D. Shelby, Shreveport, La.

Our second quarterly conference convened at Fairview Church, May 23, 25, Rev. S. Duncan in the chair. Our people all rejoiced to meet him. Converts, 9; backsliders reclaimed, 5; from other churches, 4; probationers, 14. We are getting ready to come up with our missionary money.

C. G. Curran, Willis, Texas.

The first week after the Annual Conference found me at Willis. I found things in very good shape. Presiding Elder came and held his first quarter. We raised $5 for pastor and $12.35 for Presiding Elder. On Easter we raised $12, $3 for Church Extension and $9 Jubilee day. We have bought a large church bell, weighing 550 pounds. Paid pastor during quarter, $68; Presiding Elder, $24; Bishop, $2. Added to the church, 10 persons. Our camp meeting will convene July 21. Our preachers are cordially invited. The SOUTHWESTERN is one of our great swords in the defense of our church here at Willis, as it brings facts and figures of what Methodism is doing every week. May she live long.

Presiding Elder Mack Henson's recent visit to the Cedar creek circuit, Tex., was a source of great joy to that people. The work prospers and Rev. Joseph Harrison the pastor is happy.

Rev. G. Orange, Ackerman, Miss., says his estimated salary is $375 and not $875, as published some weeks ago.

N. H. Williams, Greenville, Miss.

We have recently moved into our new home near Asbury M. E. Church, and were agreeably surprised, and presented with a nice wash bowl and pitcher, and a beautiful wall picture by Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, and a basket of family groceries by Mrs. Fannie Sanders, faithful members of our church.

We have just finished ceiling the church and remodeling the pulpit. The cost of work and material will amount to $100. We are taking collections to fence the church property. The first concert of the Greenville Academy closed May 29. Quite a large audience of patrons and friends witnessed the closing exercises. Great credit is due Mrs. N. J. Blackman for her faithful labor here. Rev. J. W. Davis, Presiding Elder, closed the exercises by a short and appropriate speech.

S. B. Danley, Franklin, Tenn.

Easter Sunday and Freedmen's Aid Jubilee Day were observed. We have had eight conversions and eight additions this year. My wife has been sick, but is well now. Elder J. B. Bradford will be with us soon. I endorse the Presiding Elders' Convention and wish the pastors could have one.

M. C. Buffington, Natchez, Miss.

The long prayed for time has come, and we will enter our new church August 17. It is now building, and we are laboring to enter it the third Sunday in August. Truly, God is with us, and all are compelled to acknowledge our spiritual and financial growth. Therefore, we call upon the Mississippi Conference to remember its obligation made in our behalf at Moss Point, last January. We also hope that every friend of Methodism will be stimulated by our action to do their very best for us. We must raise by that day $450. That amount will give us a creditable church house free of debt. Brethren and friends, help us at once. Many prominent ministers will be with us on entering day. Let all who possibly can, bring or send their contributions.

S. M. Bolden, Jefferson, Texas.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 13, 14, Rev. Wade Hamilton, Presiding Elder, in the chair. Our Sunday school is well attended and very well supplied with our own literature. At 3 p. m., the Presiding Elder preached a soul-reviving sermon. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to 130 persons. Collection, $32; paid Presiding Elder, $15; pastor, $126.50. Benevolent money raised, $28.50; total raised during quarter, $225.25. Baptisms, 5; received into full membership, 14; total number added to the church during quarter, 17.

S. D. Troupe, Batesville, Miss.

A jug-breaking rally was given and resulted in great good. Collection, $22.50.

E. D. Giddens, Adairsville, Ga.

Our Presiding Elder, Rev. H. R. Allen, held our second quarterly conference here Saturday and Sunday. His watchword is 1000 souls for Christ and all claims and causes paid up in full. Our district conference will convene here in August, and the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN is invited to attend. Raised for all causes since conference, $152.

G. W. Williams, Chester, Miss.

On the third Sunday in June Rev. Wm. Gatewood, of Ackerman, preached a very feeling sermon. Bro. Wm. Gatewood's health is improving rapidly. He formerly was pastor of this church.

The recent grand financial rally at Ferry Avenue M. E. Church, Camden, N. J., resulted in the collection of $335.35.

At Merida, San Saba, Texas, reports seven conversions. The quarterly conference held by Elder M. Henson, was a season of blessings. Collection, $8. Out of a population of about 60 colored people, we have 12 members there.

H. Robinson, of the Tennessee Conference says that he is opposed to the renewal of the licenses of local preachers who do not own, know and love the Methodist Discipline. He says that class of preachers are a constant drawback, because they too often make the people believe in the absence of the pastor, that in raising the benevolent moneys, the pastor is only "Raising money to send to our white bosses." Such people have no business in our church.

We have just finished ceiling the church and remodeling the pulpit. The cost of work and material will amount to $100. We are taking collections to fence the church property. The first concert of the Greenville Academy closed May 29. Quite a large audience of patrons and friends witnessed the closing exercises. Great credit is due Mrs. N. J. Blackman for her faithful labor here. Rev. J. W. Davis, Presiding Elder, closed the exercises by a short and appropriate speech.

S. B. Danley, Franklin, Tenn.

Easter Sunday and Freedmen's Aid Jubilee Day were observed. We have had eight conversions and eight additions this year. My wife has been sick, but is well now. Elder J. B. Bradford will be with us soon. I endorse the Presiding Elders' Convention and wish the pastors could have one.

M. C. Buffington, Natchez, Miss.

The long prayed for time has come, and we will enter our new church August 17. It is now building, and we are laboring to enter it the third Sunday in August. Truly, God is with us, and all are compelled to acknowledge our spiritual and financial growth. Therefore, we call upon the Mississippi Conference to remember its obligation made in our behalf at Moss Point, last January. We also hope that every friend of Methodism will be stimulated by our action to do their very best for us. We must raise by that day $450. That amount will give us a creditable church house free of debt. Brethren and friends, help us at once. Many prominent ministers will be with us on entering day. Let all who possibly can, bring or send their contributions.

S. M. Bolden, Jefferson, Texas.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 13, 14, Rev. Wade Hamilton, Presiding Elder, in the chair. Our Sunday school is well attended and very well supplied with our own literature. At 3 p. m., the Presiding Elder preached a soul-reviving sermon. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to 130 persons. Collection, $32; paid Presiding Elder, $15; pastor, $126.50. Benevolent money raised, $28.50; total raised during quarter, $225.25. Baptisms, 5; received into full membership, 14; total number added to the church during quarter, 17.

S. D. Troupe, Batesville, Miss.

A jug-breaking rally was given and resulted in great good. Collection, $22.50.

E. D. Giddens, Adairsville, Ga.

Our Presiding Elder, Rev. H. R. Allen, held our second quarterly conference here Saturday and Sunday. His watchword is 1000 souls for Christ and all claims and causes paid up in full. Our district conference will convene here in August, and the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN is invited to attend. Raised for all causes since conference, $152.

G. W. Williams, Chester, Miss.

On the third Sunday in June Rev. Wm. Gatewood, of Ackerman, preached a very feeling sermon. Bro. Wm. Gatewood's health is improving rapidly. He formerly was pastor of this church.

The recent grand financial rally at Ferry Avenue M. E. Church, Camden, N. J., resulted in the collection of $335.35.

At Merida, San Saba, Texas, reports seven conversions. The quarterly conference held by Elder M. Henson, was a season of blessings. Collection, $8. Out of a population of about 60 colored people, we have 12 members there.

H. Robinson, of the Tennessee Conference says that he is opposed to the renewal of the licenses of local preachers who do not own, know and love the Methodist Discipline. He says that class of preachers are a constant drawback, because they too often make the people believe in the absence of the pastor, that in raising the benevolent moneys, the pastor is only "Raising money to send to our white bosses." Such people have no business in our church.

Prayers for Peru.

Christian Brethren everywhere:

Pray for Peru and for me. I have been appointed to move from Buenos Aires to Lima, and take up the work of evangelization there. The demands of that work seem greater than I can bear. Pray for me.

The moral condition of the country reveals a crisis in its history, that must hasten its progress in a singular manner or set it back fearfully. Pray for Peru.

The imprisonment of Rev. Francisco Penzotti in that country has attracted the attention of the christian world, as a case of religious persecution demanding universal sympathy. My interest in that case has been intensified, from the first, by my affection for Penzotti, and is made thrilling now, by my appointment to move to the scene of his trials and enter into his labors. Pray for Penzotti and for me.

I go to Peru, confiding not in my own prudence, for I cannot hope to be more prudent than Penzotti has been,—nor in my own righteousness, for he has had to suffer prolonged imprisonment, though found innocent by the civil authorities and tribunals of all grades, from first to last. Nor can I trust to human aid. He has had active in his behalf the legations of both Italy and the United States in Peru, with the press and all the liberal and progressive elements of the country, and with influences brought to bear from the River Platte Republics, from the press of the United States and Great Britain, from the Governments at Washington and at London, from the American Bible Society, and from the Evangelical Alliance,—and all combined has not saved him from a long confinement in a dungeon of the vilest sort, among condemned criminals. What more could I hope for if arrested on false charges, as he has been, and caught in the snares of the dominant priestcraft in Peru? Pray for a country where such things are possible, and for us who must face such a situation, not knowing what awaits us.

Imagine the afflictions of Bro. Penzotti's family,—and possibly of mine. His daughters have been subjected to such insufferable insults that they were sent out of the country for relief. I am taking my daughters into that country. Pray for these missionary girls, his and mine. And pray for our wives, and for my venerable mother, who, in her eighty-fourth year, accompanies my pilgrimages in these ends of the earth.

A little church has gathered about Penzotti. Among its own members have arisen those who have ministered to the rest in word and doctrine, as best they could, during his imprisonment. Pray for them, and for the efforts that I must make to train them for wider usefulness. Oh, for a baptism of power and love and soundness of mind, for what is before me in that field!

And, finally, brethren, pray for the work I am leaving in Argentina and Uruguay,—the two training schools that I have had under my direction, the two bands of students that are linked to my heart and whose aspirations are precious to my faith.

THOMAS B. WOOD.

Buenos Aires, May 29, '91.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

Mr. Editor: Please let me enquire for my husband Eli Alexander. Upon the death of his master Thomas Alexander, his mistress took him to North Carolina in 1848. My husband was also known by the name of Eli Paten. I had two children Henry and Isabella. Any information will be gladly received. Address Margaret Paten, care of Rev. I. M. Lampkin, Houston, Miss.

Mr. Editor: Please let me give many praises to you and the grand old SOUTHWESTERN for having put me in communication with my brother, whom I had not seen for 30 years. Please let the world know what the paper is worth by publishing this letter and oblige Annie Harris.

Mr. Editor: I want to inquire for my brothers and sisters. I left them in North Carolina during the war. My mother is dead. Her name was Sallie Gaskins. My brothers and sisters were Frank, Bale, Ben, and Marks Gaskins. My sister's names were Anne and Celia Gaskins. I am the youngest of all. Any one knowing them will please address, Pleasant Mosby, Greenville, Miss.

Mr. Editor: I wish to enquire for my mother, father and uncle. My father's name was Sam; mother's Rebecca. She belonged to Tom Woldridge, in Warren, Bradley county, Ark. My uncle was named Nucks. His weight was about 250 pounds. I was brought to Texas by Tom Woldridge when a small boy, about 40 years ago. My mistress' name was Celia Woldridge, from the Thurman family, Arkansas. My name is Henry. Any information concerning them will be rewarded. Address Henry Pierson, care of Rev. Tenola Edwards, Sloan street, Houston, Tex.

Letters from the Laity.

The Competitive Exhibition.

The undersigned citizens were selected to decide a friendly contest consisting of a concert, tableaux, recitations, drills, etc., between the pupils of St. James, Rev. C. D. Shallowhorne, and St. Paul, Rev. T. J. Johnson, M. E. Churches. The exhibition occurred at the Fair Grounds, Exposition Building, Friday evening, July 10, and witnessed by a large concourse of people, who preserved admirable order. After carefully noticing each contestant the decision was in favor of the scholars of the St. James Church. Be it said that this award was reached by the casting vote of the fifth judge, selected in the event of a tie vote by ballot, which was the case. The result was attributable to the dominant literary character of the St. James contestants, while the St. Paul pupils exhibited rare proficiency in amateur character delineations and specialties.

The pupils of both churches are warmly commended for their highly creditable exhibition, their surprising powers of memory, eloquence, elocution and especially musical training.

The recitation of "The Maniac," heretofore undecided, between Jessie Norman and Mande Simon of St. Paul's church was awarded to the latter on the ground of greatest proficiency in elocution, expression and conception of character. Both did exceedingly well.

Judges: R. T. Vinson, W. O. Perrin, W. T. Dewing, W. H. Tunard, V. Grosjean.

"Daily Canaanian," Shreveport, La. L. L. Porter, Alexandria, La.

We have had grand times since April. Our church (St. James M. E.) is on a spiritual "boom." During our revival seventy-four souls stepped from the dungeon of sin into the sunlight of God's holiness, bringing "good news and glad tidings" of their deliverance. Gamblers and drunkards are changed, and are now called the sons of God, and are now doing business for the Master. The sleepy hand of neglect can be seen around the doors of the dram shops, the noise of the dice and card players are hushed, and the unconverted gambler has moved to more congenial olives. Children's Day was duly celebrated, the program being carried out to the letter. Much credit is due to the pastor, Bro. A. J. Ford, Sisters Thomas and Eckley, and Bros. Young and Oquano. Ten dollars was collected and duly forwarded. Bro. E. Lyon, the Sunday school agent, visited us on the 28th ultimo, and preached an eloquent sermon to a large congregation, doing full justice to the cause.

B. J. Jackson, Harmony Grove, Ga., reports a terrible thunder storm in that neighborhood, in which his wife and daughter narrowly escaped with their lives. The lightning struck both of them as they were returning from class-meeting; and they were scorched and terribly shocked, but as the Lord willed it they escaped serious injury. A neighboring stable and mule were burnt up by the lightning.

R. H. Johnson, Bellwood, Tenn.

Our third quarterly conference was held May 30, Rev. A. Phillips, P. E., in the chair. Reports showed that the work is in good condition. Paid pastor $35.15, Presiding Elder $7.25. Benevolent collections $10.15. Sunday, 31, was a grand day with us. The elder lectured to the Sunday school, and his sermon was exceedingly interesting. Fifty persons were at the communion table. Every department of the church was looked after, even our paper, the SOUTHWESTERN, was not forgotten.

John H. Gibson, Anderson, Tex.

We are having a very good Sunday school. I was at Yarbrough Chapel on the 10th inst. to a quarterly conference, and was in the Sunday school on Sunday morning and was very much pleased with the way they conducted their Sabbath school. The elder preached a very interesting sermon. A fine collection was taken up. We have a fine young minister on the work and everybody seems to like him. Elder Logan is a good man, and is liked on this work by white and colored.

H. Gales, Chunkey circuit, Miss.

Rev. J. M. Shumpert held our quarterly conference June 20, at Mt. Zion. Collection $11. The elder preached and administered the sacrament to 44. At night our beloved pastor preached.

Davis White, Texarkana, Ark.

My attention was called to this paper by many of your readers, which I have had the pleasure of reading with much interest. I think it is just what the mind needs. We had a grand time at our church on Easter Sunday. Rev. J. S. Hailley preached the Easter sermon.

Books and Current Literature.

Bennie Winkelfield, by Alice M. Muzzy, is another of those excellent stories recently issued from our Book Concern. Price 75 cents. New Orleans and New York, Hunt & Eaton. Cincinnati, Cranston & Stowe.

We have received from the author Rev. Nathan Hubbell, a copy of his book entitled My Journey to Jerusalem, including travels in England, Scotland, Ireland, France, Belgium, Germany, Holland, Italy, Greece, Palestine, etc. It is a very interesting and valuable work, containing 64 illustrations. Price $1. Printed by Hunt & Eaton, New York.

The report of thirty-second and thirty-third year of the New York Sabbath Committee is before us. It exhibits the most faithful work on the part of the committee, in the prosecution of its divine mission of rescuing the Sabbath from the devil and giving it wholly to God. It appeals to the American conscience in favor of closing the Columbian Exposition on the Lord's day. It succeeded in getting the State Department to order the American Department in the Paris Exposition about to be held, to close on the Sabbath. It notes the progress of Sabbath observance in England and in the several states in this country. Every slave of capital has reason to be thankful for the existence of the committee. New York Sabbath Committee, 31 Bible House, New York.

No periodic work on the subject, published in this country, is to be compared with the American Anti-Quarian and Oriental Journal. It is a bi-monthly. Terms $4 per year. Address S. D. Peet, Mendon, Ill., or 175 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Those interested in this attractive and important branch of education, should subscribe for the Social Science Library, (monthly), published by the Humboldt Publishing Co., New York. Price 25 cents a number. Six Centuries of Work and Wages, by J. E. Thorold Rogers, recently issued is a typical number, which will pay a careful perusal.

To Deum Landams in A, composed by J. Wiegand, has been published by J. Fisher & Bro., 7 Bible House, New York. Price 35 cents. Like other musical publications by this popular house this is one of the finest sacred music compositions that has come to our hands recently.

W. A. Wilde & Co., Boston, Mass., have favored us with samples of their Sunday School Quarterlies and Lesson Helps. Children's S. S. Quarterly 16 cents a year; The S. S. Quarterly 20 cents a year, and the Intermediate S. S. Quarterly. The series is complete.

Consecrated Talent, by Rev. Irving E. Lowery, A.M., of the South Carolina Conference M. E. Church, published by McDonald, Gill & Co., Boston, Mass., is before us. It is a very interesting and instructive, neatly bound volume of 110 pages, which will do good wherever it circulates; and we take real pleasure in commending it to our readers. The author has therein made a name for himself, and has contributed to christian literature, a volume which deserves a place in every library. Bro. Lowery, as far as we know, is the first colored author that has ever utilized his ability, to explain and emphasize christian perfection or entire consecration. That he has done his work well, is but public praise to his eminently successful effort.

How to Learn How. Addresses. 1. Dealing with Doubt. 2. Preparations for Learning, by Henry Drummond, F. R. S., and F. G. S., has just been published by Fleming H. Revell Company, New York and Chicago. This is a booklet of 32 pages packed with good things.

One of the most timely contributions recently added to help the study of the life of Christ, is the Calendar and Chart, illustrating the years' periods and events recorded in the life of our Lord in their chronological order; prepared by Rev. George P. Perry, for the use of Sunday schools, normal classes, etc. Cloth 5 feet square $3.50, on rollers $5. Paper 20x24 inches each 40 cents, per dozen by express not prepaid $3.60. Folded in cloth cover 15 cents. New Orleans and New York, Hunt & Eaton. Cincinnati, Cranston & Stowe.

THURSDAY, JULY 30, 1891.

PUSH the revival work, brethren; Our business is to save the world to Christ.

THE full program of the Alexandria District Conference will appear next week.

THE West Alabama Sunlight, published at Forkland, Ala., is among the latest ventures in journalism. We bespeak for it a long and useful career.

THANKS to the McKinley tariff law, sugar was never so cheap in this country, and its production was never so profitable to American sugar producers. The free importation of sugar and the bounty feature of that law make it so.

FROM the extravagant reports of the corner stone laying of the A. M. E. Church at Donaldsonville, La., a few Sundays ago, one would think that thousands of dollars were collected on that occasion. The facts are that they collected only $31.

THAT staunch friend of our people, President L. M. Dutton, D.D., of Claflin University, Orangeburg, S. C., sends us the following cheering words: "I wish you, your paper and the great cause you represent, the most pronounced success, and I shall continue to cherish the hope that God will spare you many years to be one of the foremost leaders in the South."

JUDGE Eugene Staes, aged 65 years, one of the best known citizens of New Orleans, died July 14. He was a staunch Republican, prominent in public affairs, having filled the important position of Judge of the Second Recorder's Court for several years, with credit and honor. His death is a loss to his city and State. His funeral was attended by many of our first citizens of both races.

IT being understood that there would not be sufficient funds in the city treasury to open the schools Sept. 1st, the Patriotic Order Sons of America, by a unanimous vote, propose to give an entertainment for the benefit of the School Teachers' Benevolent Association, to raise sufficient money to open them. The plan is to issue one hundred thousand tickets at 25c. each. The entertainment to take place at the Fair Grounds during the latter part of August. The proposition has been accepted by the Teachers' Association, and bids fair to be a grand success. As this offer applies to the colored public schools as well as the white, we hope our people will heartily endorse the enterprise and purchase liberally of the tickets. We understand the entire proceeds will go to the teachers.

THE conferences in our territory having all expressed themselves upon the question of the admission of women to the General Conference, we have long since dismissed both sides of the controversy from our columns, although we have quite a batch of contributed articles against their admission unpublished on our table. We have published every one in favor of their admission that has reached us from every quarter, with one exception. This last we deem best not to publish, because it has just come to hand, and we do not see the wisdom or propriety of reopening the question after all those in our territory have already expressed themselves in the premises. We prefer to fill our columns with other subjects, bearing upon revival work and church building generally.

Our Sunday School Agent.

In view of the tremendous efforts being put forth by the Roman Catholic, Lutheran and other churches and agencies for the seduction and capture of our young people in this section, the Louisiana Conference, at its last session in this city, unanimously requested Bishop Newman to appoint the Rev. Ernest Lyon, A. M., as Conference Sunday School Agent, to travel through the State, organize Sunday schools, hold teachers' institutes, and to otherwise labor to counteract those influences, so as to save our young people to Christ and our Methodism. The Sunday School Union, through Bishops Newman and Mallahan, was most earnestly requested to appropriate at least $400 toward the support of this work; while the several charges in the conference were requested to supplement that sum, so as to afford a comfortable support for the Agent. With nothing more in the way of support but the plighted faith of the Conference and the strength of the plea which the necessities of the work presented to the Sunday School Union, Bro. Lyon entered upon his work so soon as the Conference had adjourned.

He kindled a lively inspiration in every direction. Old Sunday schools were revived, new ones multiplied, many young people especially converted, and a general uplift felt wherever he went. The one source of weakness, however, has been in the matter of the financial support of the Agent. Thus far, the Sunday School Union has not appropriated anything to this work. In the meantime, Bro. Lyon has had to depend entirely upon the free-will offerings of the people for his support. This, we regret to record, has been entirely inadequate. Some of the churches and Sunday schools have come up nobly, but others have done little, or absolutely nothing. Bro. Lyon does not complain. His self-respect does not permit him to do that. But he is not getting a comfortable support out of this work, and the brethren ought to know it. Having been called to this work by the unanimous voice of the Conference, every presiding elder, pastor and congregation in the Louisiana Conference is in honor bound to see that he is comfortably supported in his work.

In the absence of outside help, it is absolutely necessary, if we would not be guilty of doing a great wrong to a faithful and efficient worker, whom we employed, that every charge in the Conference raise its quarterly assessment for the support of the Sunday School Agent, and turn it over to the presiding elder, or to forward it directly to Bro. Lyon.

Raise his assessment, just as you raise the Bishop's assessment, and send it to him; and he will visit you whenever, and as often as he can.

There is no field so productive of good results to our church, that presents more urgent needs for its cultivation. With full knowledge of this whole Southern work, we give it as our deliberate judgment that the Sunday School Union could not better serve the church and the people interested, than by taking hold of this work, and employ say about two or three agents, to do for this whole section just what Bro. Lyon has been employed to do for the Louisiana Conference. Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas might be given to one agent, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, North and South Carolina, etc., might be given to another, etc. Our faith is that the increase in church membership, conversions, Sunday schools, benevolent collections, etc., would be felt in every direction, so as to greatly overbalance any and all expenses incurred. Will the Sunday School Union venture in this direction? In the name of every interest that is sacred to the church, we fervently hope she may; and that she will not allow any idea of misdirected economy keep her from doing so. "There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty." Employ the agents and reap the harvest.

Surely Sometime.

The Western Christian Advocate gives an unanswerable quietus to the Nashville Christian Advocate (M. E. Church South), in answer to its unfriendly thrusts at the Methodist Episcopal Church, because "The good natured discussion between Dr. Albert, of the SOUTHWESTERN, and Dr. Potts, of the Michigan Advocate, on the election by the next General Conference of a colored bishop." Dr. Moore never misses the mark.

Read the conclusion of his very friendly and able article: "Bearing in mind that eminent qualification is admitted and urged by the colored man himself to be the prime requisite in a bishop, white or black, what would be the probable effect upon our work of electing such a colored bishop? Possibly it would drive a few out of our communion in the North. It may be that we have some so prejudiced that they would spurn a church catholic enough to ignore color. But they could do very well in other communions, so long as they lived on earth. What they would do in heaven, is not so plain. But the church, after such a purging, would be homogenous, and, if not numerically (though we believe that, once exhibiting the Spirit of the Master, it would gain much more than it could lose, even in numbers), spiritually it would be stronger than ever.

Doubtless it would cut us off from attracting members in the Old South; but we are not attracting any as it is. It might cause us to lose some in the border conferences. But it would put those remaining upon a platform, against which the gates of hell could not prevail. They would be in harmony with the doctrines and traditions of our Methodism, which then, South and North, would face the same way.

How would our bishops relish it? It were strange if there would not be a contest of honor who should consecrate their 'brother in black.'

How would our ministers receive him? Just as they receive a white bishop; for, by the supposition, he is to be the peer of any on the Board of Bishops, in scholarship, culture, ability and piety. Such being the case, a white minister refusing to take his appointment at his hand, would be an object either of curiosity, pity, or contempt.

We do not venture an opinion as to whether the man and the hour now coincide; but we occupy the only tenable and consistent position, viz: That, if 'not yet, surely some time we shall have a colored bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church.'

Another Victim.

As is always done in such cases, Sam Gillespie who was riddled with bullets by a mob while in charge of a deputy sheriff, at Love Station, Miss., Sunday, July 13, has been painted in the most frightful color, as a desperado and a dangerous character; hence the justification of his foul and brutal murder. The facts in the case are as follows: A colored man and a white man got into a difficulty. A second white man interposed and doubled-teamed against the colored man. As there were two against one, Gillespie took the part of the colored man. Gillespie was arrested, and was in charge of a deputy sheriff, when a mob of seventy-five or more white men came upon him and riddled him with bullets. His real crime was in his bravery which did not allow himself nor his people to be outraged in his presence without resenting it. The trouble began at a colored picnic, where imposing white young men gave offense by their outrageous conduct. They had no business there, and came only to insult and abuse colored girls. It is an outrageous shame, that even under such circumstances, brave and manly colored men should be thus foully and brutally murdered, without anything being done to punish the guilty parties.

THE Rev. Dr. Potts, of the Michigan Christian Advocate, appears to be considerably nettled over our recent editorial in answer to his on the subject of the election of a colored bishop. He charges that he is therein, "as usual, more or less misrepresented; the chief intention being that (we) he is prejudiced against the Negroes." We regret to be so charged by our friend Dr. Potts, but it is not our fault, but his. We have never purposely misrepresented him. Whatever observations we made were entirely in keeping with his own language, as fairly and clearly interpreted, by several disinterested parties, white and colored, who read his editorial.

He says: "Had Dr. Albert published our little article in full, as he was in honor bound to do, this result might have been avoided."

We do not know that we were in honor bound to publish Dr. Potts' "article in full" any more than he was to publish the several articles which we have published in which he joined issue with us. Although our criticism of the Doctor was in keeping with the wording of his previous editorial, on the subject, we are glad that he now tells us that he did not really mean what his editorial clearly implied, as we inferred. He expresses his attitude toward our people in the following language: "We do not believe our colored brethren have a sincerer friend than we are in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and it is not pleasing to be represented to them as the partaker of a spirit so repulsive to us."

Political Review.

Secretary Blaine's health is now generally conceded not to be quiet as bad as some would make it appear.

Notwithstanding all reports to the contrary, Senator Sherman, Secretary Foster, and ex-Governor Foraker, are united in their support of Major McKinley for Governor of Ohio, and are not quarrelling over the succession of the U. S. Senatorship. This question, for the time being, has been wisely relegated to the rear until the anticipated sweeping Republican triumph is announced at the polls. The only serious question that confronts the Republicans in that state, is that presented by the many plea of colored Republicans for larger recognition for their support. The plea is a righteous one, and will no doubt be satisfied; thereby insuring the solidity of that vote to the Republican party.

The Republicans of Massachusetts will hold their state nominating convention in Tremont Temple, Boston, Sept. 16. Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, of the Federal Election Law fame, will preside.

It is reported that U. S. Senator Quay, chairman, and Col. W. W. Dudley, treasurer of the Republican National Committee will resign during the meeting of the committee in Philadelphia, this week.

The reported white Republican movement in South Carolina will amount to about a hill of beans.

In this state, one can scarcely hear of anything except the lottery. The one question is will the state sell itself root and branch to the lottery and the devil for another twenty-five years? The prayer of all good people is that it will not. The enemy is goaded to fury however and will have to be met with a manly and united front by all the friends of God and common decency.

The registration office, on Camp street, opposite Lafayette square, is open daily, from 9 o'clock a. m., to 3 o'clock p. m., for the registration of voters. Under a law enacted at the last session of the Legislature, an entirely new registration for new Orleans is required.

Remember that you cannot vote unless you are registered anew, nor will you be permitted to participate in your ward clubs.

Personal.

—Rev. Dr. J. W. Olmstead has resigned the editorship of the Boston Watchman, owing to protracted illness, and is succeeded in the editorship by Rev. Dr. George E. Horr, who has been filling the pastorate of the First Baptist Church of Charlestown, Mass.

—Hon. D. M. Key of Chattanooga, Postmaster General under President Hayes, has accepted the position of dean of the law school of Grant University, Chattanooga, Tenn.

—At Dodd City, Tex., on the glorious Fourth, Rev. Dr. Crawford, the Congregationalist missionary of Orleans, was threatened with personal violence and driven away because he lectured to the colored people on the Declaration of Independence.—Crusader.

—The Rev. C. T. Walker, D.D., of Augusta, Ga., Sentinel has returned from his trip to the Holy Land. His reception at home amounted to an ovation.

—Rev. J. P. Duffy, A.M., of Philadelphia, has become editor of the Children's Department of Your Helper and Christian Endeavor. The young folks are fortunate.

—President Thirkield, of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., is enjoying a well earned and much needed vacation among the hills of New England. He was greatly weakened by the gripe last winter, and was for months thereafter so prostrated that his work was a real burden, and it was all that he could do to finish up his year's work in good shape. We hope he will be fully braced up by his vacation for many, more years of good work in his God-chosen sphere.

—Miss Anna M. Harris, of Baton Rouge, La., has been employed by the Baptist Church of Baton Rouge as a Sabbath school organizer. She is working as a King's Daughter and is teaching there in Rev. H. Green's church. Although of the Baptist Church, Miss Harris is a subscriber and devoted friend of the SOUTHWESTERN. This fact puts to shame many of our members and officers who are not subscribers to their church paper.

—We regret to learn that Rev. Reese Thompson, pastor at Franklin, is ill and confined to his bed.

—The Florida Sentinel of July 10, contained an excellent cut and sketch of Bishop John P. Newman, D.D., LL.D.

—Dr. D. W. Fields of Memphis, Tenn., has gone to Chicago, to further his proficiency in his profession, by taking a post graduate course in dentistry. He will be absent about six weeks.

—Rev. George W. Gray, D.D., assistant corresponding secretary of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society has changed his postoffice address from Oak Park to Evanston, Ill.

—Mrs. Prof. Geo. W. Wells, we are sorry to learn is in very poor health, and is being specially treated by Dr. I. E. Mullen, in this city.

—Rev. P. W. Clark, Wilson, La., mourns the death of his wife and eight children; and is now suffering from neuralgia of the heart. We deeply sympathize with him. He is thankful for the words of comfort that the brethren have sent him. Notwithstanding his unparalleled affliction he reports a new church building on foot; and his church alive. The storm of the 6th inst. did much damage to his work.

—Charges affecting the character of Rev. Wm. Emmett, of Grand Cane, La., having been presented, to his Presiding Elder, Rev. S. Duncan, an investigation was had July 14; and he was duly acquitted. Rev. E. Hutcherson represented the church, and Rev. T. J. Johnson the accused. The following were the committee, viz: Revs. C. D.

Shallowhorne, chairman, S. Carroll, S. Armistead, D. Shelby, and S. R. Hason, secretary.

—Prof. B. M. Hubbard, A.M., principal of Alexandria Academy, is teaching a summer school at Bastrop. He says "peace and quiet reigns" in that section.

—It is reported that Bishop T. M. D. Ward, of the A. M. E. Church, is expected to wed an intelligent young lady of St. Louis at an early day.

—Our presiding Elders like the most of our pastors, are busy men, and find no time to sit on fence rails whittling sticks. They flit about like sunbeams reflected from revolving mirrors.

Presiding Elder Landry stepped in last week and went out the same day, on some other portion of his work; Presiding Elder Priestley came in, ordered a corner stone, went to Vicksburg, came back again, and is almost ready to go out again; Presiding Elder Marshall comes in and goes out so that one can scarcely keep up with him. He moves about like the Irishman's flea, "Now you've got him and now you haven't;" Presiding Elders Morant and Duncan, don't get here at all; unless a chance turns up of getting Church Extension money to build some churches on their districts; Dr. McLaughlin is always in a hurry, pushing things forward in English, French, Italian, and Scandinavian, or denouncing the lottery iniquity in stout solid English. Presiding Elder Cline, works like a beaver and sticks to it, and is never seen nor heard from till his year's work is done; Presiding Elder Emperor Williams, cool, firm, faithful, and fatherly, keeps his work before him in good shape; and does the same thing for all the many brethren that crowd around him for advice and direction out of his rich and successful experience.

It is gratifying to learn that all of these brethren bring or send in good reports from their districts. Churches are being built, Sunday schools organized or improved, sinners converted, the church edified, the benevolent collections being taken, and the SOUTHWESTERN pushed into regions beyond.

—The Rev. Dr. Berry of the Epworth Herald, mourns the death of a younger brother Mr. J. Charles Berry, a successful lawyer in Detroit, Mich.

—President L. G. Adkinson, has returned from the camp meeting on the Mississippi Coast and has left for Kansas, and will be gone about ten days. We bespeak for him a pleasant and profitable trip.

—Miss M. M. Price, the daughter of Rev. J. P. and Mrs. Elizabeth Price was united in wedlock to Mr. B. H. Ransom, June 22, in the Central Tennessee College Chapel, Nashville, Tenn. Reception at the residence of parents. The occasion was a grand one. Our best wishes follow the happy couple.

That Preachers' Convention.

The proposed pastor's convention which was to have met at Baton Rouge July 15-17, was a complete failure, there being only three in attendance—the caller, the preacher in charge and one other pastor. There is a mystery in connection with this affair which it is hoped will be solved by the potent light of facts. Let the blame of this un-Methodistic scheme fall upon the guilty shoulders. Time will tell.

How a Student Makes Money. DEAR READERS:—I am able to pay my board and tuition, wear good clothes and have money in my pocket by spending my odd hours and vacations plating jewelry and tableware and selling platters. I have made $20 per day, never less than $4. I paid $5 for my plater to H. C. Delno & Co., Columbus, O. Any one can profit by my experience by writing there for circulars.

A. STUDENT.

The Vanduzen & Tift Co., proprietors of the Buckeye Bell Foundry, have just sent a splendid bell to East India, the gift of friends in Baltimore, Md. It is a very gratifying compliment to the excellence of the Buckeye bells.

DAILY BREAD.

Wanted—a boy. A brave, courageous, manly, hopeful boy; one who is not afraid of the truth; one who scorns a lie; one who hates deceit; one who loves his mother; one who does not know more than his parents; one who has the courage to say no, and stick to it; one who is willing to begin at the bottom of the ladder and work upwards; one who thinks it would be unmanly to smoke; one who thinks an education is worth striving for; one who is willing to obey his superiors; one who knows his home is better than the street; one who doesn't believe the marvelous tales told in the story papers, and will not read the vile stuff; one who won't cheat in a fair game; one who won't be a sneak and do a mean act when unseen; one who won't spend every penny he earns or gets; one who thinks he should respect himself and keep himself in decent appearance; one who won't attack an old man because he is feeble and defenseless; one who won't torture dumb animals; one who won't steal; one who won't revile and jeer at drunken persons on the street; one who won't do a dirty act for another boy who is too cowardly to do his own mean-ness; who loves to do right because it is right. Wanted—a boy, a whole souled, earnest, honorable, square hauled. Where can he be found? Does he live in your neighborhood? Is he a member of your family? Do you know him?—Selected.

When I am well I do my praying, and when I am sick I trust.—Dr. Abel Stevens.

Wanted—a boy. A brave, courageous, manly, hopeful boy; one who is not afraid of the truth; one who scorns a lie; one who hates deceit; one who loves his mother; one who does not know more than his parents; one who has the courage to say no, and stick to it; one who is willing to begin at the bottom of the ladder and work upwards; one who thinks it would be unmanly to smoke; one who thinks an education is worth striving for; one who is willing to obey his superiors; one who knows his home is better than the street; one who doesn't believe the marvelous tales told in the story papers, and will not read the vile stuff; one who won't cheat in a fair game; one who won't be a sneak and do a mean act when unseen; one who won't spend every penny he earns or gets; one who thinks he should respect himself and keep himself in decent appearance; one who won't attack an old man because he is feeble and defenseless; one who won't torture dumb animals; one who won't steal; one who won't revile and jeer at drunken persons on the street; one who won't do a dirty act for another boy who is too cowardly to do his own mean-ness; who loves to do right because it is right. Wanted—a boy, a whole souled, earnest, honorable, square hauled. Where can he be found? Does he live in your neighborhood? Is he a member of your family? Do you know him?—Selected.

When I am well I do my praying, and when I am sick I trust.—Dr. Abel Stevens.

You are born unsaved and if you have not been born again, you are yet unsaved.

You must be saved in this life or lost forever.

You will never drift into salvation; it must be earnestly sought and found.

You cannot save yourself by any works you can do.

God has provided a great salvation, through the life and death of His Son Jesus Christ.

This salvation provides for the full pardon of all your sins, the renewal and purity of your heart, and your eternal happiness.

It is offered freely, as a gift of grace, to all sinful men, who will accept it, and so God offers it to you now.

It is accepted by sincerely turning from your sin to God and believing in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Every man who hears the Gospel can thus believe; God commands all to believe, and you will be lost for not believing.

Every sincere and penitent sinner, who comes to Jesus, is authorized to believe certainly, that he is fully accepted and saved forever.

Will you now believe and receive eternal life?

One day Robert's uncle gave him a penny.

"Now," said he, "I'll have some candy, for I've been wanting some for a long while."

"Is that the best way you can use your penny?" asked his mother.

"O, yes! I want the candy very much." And he hurried on his cap and off he ran in great haste.

His mother was sitting at the window and saw him running along and then he stopped. She thought he had lost his penny; but he started off again and soon reached the door of the candy store, and then he stood there awhile with his hand on the latch, and his eye on the candy.

His mother was wondering what he was waiting for; then she was more surprised to see him come off the step and run back home without going in.

In a minute he rushed into the parlor with a bright glance in his eye, as he exclaimed:

"Nother, the heathen have beat! the heathen have beat!"

"What do you mean by 'the heathen have beat!'"

"Why, mother, as I went along, I kept hearing the heathen say, 'Give us your penny to help to send us good missionaries. We want Bibles and tracts. Help us, little boy, won't you?' And I kept saying, 'O, I want the candy.' At last the heathen beat; and I am going to put my penny into the missionary box. It shall go to the heathen.—Missionary Echoes.

Obituary.

Indianola, Miss.—Bro. Edmund Hall, a young brother member of our church at Indianola, was drowned June 27. He and his two brothers were swimming in the river, when he was accidentally drowned. He was a teacher in our Sunday school, and had been licensed as an exhorter only a few weeks before. Bro. Hall leaves father, mother and other relatives.

Moses Adams, P. C. Oneonta, Ala.—Sister Lucinda Staton died June 15, aged 64 years. She was loved by all who knew her. Her husband had died December 28, 1887. G. W. Rieves, P. C.

New Berne, Ala.—Bro. Henry Laverder, an officer and member of our church at New Berne, Ala., departed this life June 28. He was a faithful member, and will be greatly missed. He went home shouting, "Glory." He leaves a wife and three children. Wm. Perry, P. C.

Morgan City, La.—James Harden, aged 20 years, son of David and Eliza Harden, was drowned Monday, July 13, while bathing in Lake Palourde, near Morgan City. James confessed Christ in Union Chapel M. E. Church, and received baptism and first sacrament July 5. He was a member of the Sunday school. His many friends sympathize with his aged father and mother. Joshua Thomas.

Bro. Jordan Baker departed this life June 25, 1891. He was born near Griffin, Ga., about the year 1828. He joined the M. E. Church at Zebulon, Ga., in 1871, in which church he lived a faithful member and leader until he was called to join the church triumphant. He leaves a wife, two sons, three daughters and a host of friends to mourn his loss. J. W. Queen.

Campt, La.—July 4, Bro. Alex. Turner departed this life at 5 o'clock this morning, in the full triumph of faith. He leaves a wife, sister and seven children to mourn his loss. B. J. Reddix, P. C.

Industry, Tex.—June 30, Sister Susan Jera departed this life in full triumph of faith. She was a member of the M. E. Church. She leaves a husband and three children to mourn her loss. J. H. Holden, P. C.

Fayetteville, Tex.—June 29, Little Minnie Miller departed this life, seven months and a half months old. She was baptized on the 28th and buried on the 29th. J. H. Holden, P. C.

Columbia, Tex.—Sister Martha Walters, wife of Rev. B. O. Walters and mother of Rev. O. Walters, after one week's illness at Oyster Creek, fell asleep in Jesus July 6. Age, 81 years, 4 months and 9 days. She was born in Tompkinsville, Ky., in 1810, was converted to God in 1856, and was faithful unto death. Funeral was attended by Revs. A. C. Culbreath and S. S. Lund, P. C.

Huntsville, Ala.—Bro. Nathan McCauley, aged 63 years, died June 27. He was a faithful member of the M. E. Church at Huntsville, and a Christian gentleman. Bro. McCauley meets the greater part of his family on the other side of the river. While the Church loses one of her best members, heaven gains a saint. J. S. Todd, P. C.

Glade Spring, Va.—Sister Jennie Gay, of Meadowview, fell asleep in Christ July 8. She was a member of the M. E. Church for about 60 years. She had been sick in bed for 17 years, and blind 16 years. Age 55. R. T. Smith, P. C.

Fort Worth, Tex.—Richard D. Lacey, the only child of Rev. D. C. Lacey, aged 4 years and 3 months, died. A. R. Norris.

Hondo City, Tex.—Sister Mary Glover, a faithful member of the M. E. Church, after suffering several months, died May 22, in full triumph of faith, aged about 67 years. She joined the Church long before the war, lived a Christian, and was loved by all. She leaves two daughters, a husband and thirteen grandchildren. W. H. Moseby, P. C. [Rec'd July 20.—Ed.]

Howells Cross Roads, Ala.—Bro. Louis Jackson, a local preacher for four years, had been in bad health. He showed great heroism in trying to secure an education. His sickness compelled him that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of chronic catarrh in the head, catarrhal headache, and "cold in the head."

In perfect faith, its makers, the World's Dispensary Medical Association of Buffalo, N. Y., offers to pay $500 to any one suffering from chronic catarrh in the head whom they cannot cure.

Now if the conditions were reversed—if they asked you to pay $500 for a positive cure you might hesitate. Here are reputable men, with years of honorable dealing; thousands of dollars and a great name back of them and they say—"We can cure you because we've cured thousands like you—if we can't we'll pay you $500 for the knowledge that there's one whom we can't cure."

They believe in themselves. Isn't it worth a trial? Isn't any trial preferable to catarrh?

THE Christian Advocate pays the following deserving compliment to ex-Gov. Evans, upon his election for the sixth time as a delegate from the Colorado to the General Conference:

"We congratulate the Colorado Conference upon its good judgment.

When a layman displays peculiar ability for the discharge of these duties, he should be re-elected. The laity of any conference cannot hope to exert its proportional influence in the General Conference if different men appear at every session, while the ministry in many cases are re-elected in proportion to their competence and devotion to the work. It takes one full term for either minister or layman to learn how to use his influence in the highest and best sense. That, however, is long enough to show his constituents whether he is adapted to the work." Some of our brethren down this way might profit from the last observation from the Great Official.

Communion Sets.

Next to a good bell, every church should have a nice communion set. We can supply both on the most advantageous terms, and solicit the orders of our people. Recently we sent an elegant set with gold lined goblets to our church at Franklin, La., and here is what is said of it:

Dear Brother: We received the communion set this morning. It is simply beautiful and we are well pleased with it. I am perfectly satisfied with your selection. The committee is also very much pleased.

The Household.

Personal Hygiene.

BY G. W. HUBBARD, M.D.

Care of the Skin.

The skin is one of the most complex and important structures of the body. It serves as a protection to the underlying tissues; it is a poor conductor of heat and thus tends to maintain an even temperature of the body; it is the organ of general sensation, and has the power of secretion, excretion and absorption. It is divided into two principal layers, the true skin or corium and the scarf skin or epidermis; the former is subdivided into a deep layer and an internal layer.

There are two sets of glands in the skin, the sudoriferous or sweat glands and the sebaceous glands which secrete an oily substance which lubricates the skin and hair. The skin contains over two millions perspiratory glands, each about one four hundredth of an inch long, and their united length is about two and one half miles, and they excrete about two pounds of fluid daily. It has been actually demonstrated that death will result from closing these pores. The oily secretion from the sebaceous glands and their functions are interfered with. It is necessary to have the skin frequently and thoroughly cleansed in order to remove this deposit; and to do this soap as well as water must be used. Some people can use cold water for bathing purposes, while others prefer to have it moderately warm. The following directions are given by Dr. Kellogg for taking sponge baths: "Wash the face, then the neck, chest, shoulders, arms, trunk and back. Rub vigorously until the skin is red, to prevent chilling. After thoroughly bathing the upper portion of the body, turn the attention to the lower portion, continuing rapidly the rubbing of the upper parts at brief intervals to prevent chilliness. As soon as the bathing is concluded, envelop the body in a sheet and rub dry, or dry the skin with a towel. When the surface is nearly or quite dry, rub the whole body vigorously with the bare hand. Five minutes is sufficient to secure all the benefits of the bath."

Persons should not bathe after eating a hearty meal.

The use of face powders and paints should never be tolerated.

Our Symposium.

Time Will Bring the Remedy.

A good idea of the senseless prejudice of the Southern man may be found in the editorial comment of the Columbus, Miss., Times upon a fair and humane principle, enunciated by Grand Master Powderly at the late Cincinnati meeting. Said this fair man to the Southern people:

"When you Southern men recognize the Negro as a man of the East will join with you heart and hand for reform."

At this the Times grows eloquent in resenting the suggestion. Said the Times:

"Such language as this is a gross insult to our Southern people. The colored man to-day is in the midst of the best friends he has on earth and he is better treated here than elsewhere. Southern people will die in poverty, rags, and despair before they will join Powderly in violating the laws of nature in putting the "brother in black" in that strange position which the God of nature and of grace never intended he should occupy. On noble Southern farmers are standing upon the solid and immutable rock of pure Democracy against which the wild waves of human fanaticism will beat in vain.

It is a poor commentary upon the intelligence of the South when its leading editors express such horror at the idea of treating the Negro as a man.—Conservator.

Since the arrival of Frederick Douglass in America the daily papers have been trying hard to get him to give his version of his trouble about Mole St. Nicholas. Mr. Douglass has been very careful and says that he will report to the Secretary of State first then he may talk to the public.

He is however reported briefly on Haytian affairs and in response thereto he said:

"I fear it is said that I have become more Haytian than American—an absurd statement. When I went to Hayti I had two objects in view, which I talked over with the President, and which he was interested in and fully approved of. One was to serve my own country and to secure for it the concession it sought, and the other was to aid as far as possible the 'Black Republic' in proving to the world that my race was capable of governing themselves, and that they could form a stable government."

The Advance noticing the fact that the Globe-Democrat of St. Louis takes pleasure in saying that the Haytians are not capable of self-government answers that journal as follows:

The Globe-Democrat infers from the slaughter of the Haytian conspirators that the Negro is not capable of self-government. These conspirators had entered into a plot to assassinate the President and produce another bloody revolution in that little Republic, but the President discovered the plot and set to work at once and crushed it in the same manner that these conspirators proposed to crush him and his little government.

When Brutus stabbed Caesar he was an honorable man, when the New Orleans Grand Jury confesses that the law is weak and the juries corrupt and that the mob is the only corrective force for evils existing, nothing is said about the white man and self government.

Let us pay a little attention to the thousands who are lynched in our country before we become so thoroughly horrified by this little episode in Hayti.

General News Items.

Mr. Howard Day of Lonoke, Ark., was in this office Saturday and reported that he was brutally assaulted by three white men last Tuesday week. He was 17 miles from Lonoke running a farm for his brother and owned a rag and bone shop in Lonoke. He says they wanted to know where he got money to run such a shop and farm; and they took him out in the woods and one of them, Gov. Eagle's nephew, held the pistol while the others whipped him till the blood ran, and would not let him return to Lonoke to let his people know what had happened, but gave him so many hours to leave the country. He says Bob Dandry, D. Bains, and Bob Eagle, the Governors nephew, were the men who did this deed.—Ex.

Eight hundred thousand colored citizens of Georgia are represented by 500 well established colored stores, 20 undertakers, 250 colored graduates residing in the state, 4 colored lawyers, 16 saw mills, 2 private banks, 60 real estate dealers, 7 colored colleges, of the highest order, 27 colored doctors, 4 dentists, 12 engineers, 800 brick masons, 600 plasterers, several thousand acres of land, 20 short hand writers, 4 operators, 10 grist mills, 3 steam boats, 8 fruit farms, several hundred mules and horses, 12 newspapers, and one hundred machinists.—Ex.

Robert Purvis, the well known Philadelphian, has been appointed State Commissioner to the Columbian Exposition. This is the first appointment of a colored man to a position of this kind.

A party of Mississippian, in the neighborhood of Port Gibson, went out "nigger" hunting last week. When near Russum Station one of the guards mistook his best friend for a "coon," and shot him to death.

Two boys were drowned in Lake Pouchatrain while swimming in there on a recent Sunday.

The City of Santiago, Chili, has just been visited with the severest fire ever known in South America, the loss being estimated at over two million dollars. The British legation was completely consumed, including all of the archives and personal property of the minister. The fire started in a restaurant.

Important Notice.

All pastors, presiding elders and other members of our church who attended the Presiding Elder's Convention at Chattanooga, are requested to send their names and postoffice addresses at once to Rev. E. W. S. Hammond, D.D., 805 Russell street, Covington, Ky., also, all who delivered addresses, or in anywise partook in the deliberations of the convention are requested to reduce to writing whatever they delivered to that body and forward it at once to Dr. Hammond.

General Church News.

This country supports 215,000 saloons at an expense of $1,484,000,000, and 164,000 schools at an expense of $0,000,000. The value of food products is estimated at $600,000,000, and the cost of all the clothing at $400,000,000. So that we pay more for the saloons than for food, clothing, and education all put together! What a people we are, to be sure!

It is said, if the amount of intoxicating liquors drunk annually in England was poured into a channel, it would make a river 300 miles long, 21 feet wide, and 5 feet deep. About the same amount is drunk in America. But instead of this vast amount being poured in the ground, it is poured down the throats of men to burn and devour soul and body. This is suicide by the wholesale. What are you doing to stop it?

IT PAYS

To be cautious in the choice of medicines. Many are injured by trying experiments with compounds purporting to be blood-purifiers, the principal recommendation of which would seem to be their "cheapness." Being made up of worthless, though not always harmful, ingredients, they may well be "cheap," but, in the end, they are dear. The most reliable medicines are costly, and can be retailed at moderate prices, only when the manufacturing chemist handles the raw materials in large quantities. It is economy, therefore,

To Use

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the valuable components of which are imported, wholesale, by the J. C. Ayer Co. from the regions where these articles are richest in medicinal properties. "It is a wonder to me that any other than Ayer's Sarsaparilla has a show in the market. If people consulted their own interest, they would never use any other; for it is not only the best, but, on account of its concentrated strength and purity, it is the most economical."—James F. Duffy, Druggist, Washington St., Providence, R. I.

Dr. A. L. Almond, Druggist, Liberty, Va., writes: "Leading physicians in this city prescribe Sarsaparilla. I have sold it for eighteen years, and have the highest regard for its healing qualities. "Although the formula is known to the trade, there can be no successful imitation of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Without having the enormous facilities of the J. C. Ayer Co., it is impossible for other parties to put together such valuable ingredients, at the low cost of Ayer's

Ayer's

Sarsaparilla

It stands at the head of all similar preparations.—Mark A. Jones, 50 years a druggist, 60 Cambridge St., E. Cambridge, Mass.

Our Children's Legion.

For Our Boys and Girls.

BY UNCLE CEPHAS.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am a little girl seven years old. I go to school every day. My teacher is Miss Emma Culbreath, and is a very kind and dear teacher. My aunt often reads to me letters, which other little girls and boys have written. I became anxious to write. My father is dead. He and my mother were members of the M. E. Church.

Your Niece,
LIZZIE TAYLOR.

Brazoria, Texas.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I have been reading the letters in the SOUTHWESTERN about the little girls and boys. I enjoy reading them very much. I cannot write well, but I can read the letters from Uncle Cephas and the little boys and girls. I came down to see the carnival, and have been in the city ever since. I am stopping at the home of Rev. J. F. Marshall. I have enjoyed my visit to the city, and have had a pleasant time. My home is in Alexandria, La. Our pastors name is Rev. A. J. Ford, and we all love him. I expect to leave for home some time this week. I got a little friend to write this; but hope to be able to write to you some day myself. I am 6 years old.

Your Niece,

ALPNETTE MITCHELL.

New Orleans, La.

Dear Uncle Cephas: My father takes the grand old SOUTHWESTERN, and I love to hear him and mamma read it. I love the M. E. Church. My mother and father are members of the church. Rev. C. L. Walls is our preacher in charge. Dear Uncle, will you please tell me who should lead the paper first when it comes? Mamma says she wants to read it first; papa says he would like to read the paper as he has to bring it from the office. But mama pays for the paper.

Your Nephew,
SANK COX.

Veronica, Miss.

[Uncle Cephas is such a friend to the ladies and children, that he unhesitatingly answers that "mama" should have the first chance in such matters, even if it was "papa" that had paid for it. And then the chances are that "mama" would be more to tell "papa" what's in the paper. You know ladies are given to tell to others what they have learned. CEPHAS]

Dear Uncle Cephas: I read in the SOUTHWESTERN of last week a letter from a Sunday school superintendent asking how many verses are in the Old Testament, and also how many letters. There are 23,214 verses in the Old Bible, and 2,728,100 letters. I am a Sunday school teacher.

Your Niece,

SILVIA V. SMART.
Lartt, Tenn.

Many Persons
Are broken down from overwork or household cares. Brown's Iron Bitters rebuilds the system, aids digestion, removes excess of bile, and cures malaria. Get the genuine.

Why do you persist in writing on both sides of a sheet paper, and with lead pencil, when writing for publication. Is it because paper and ink are so dear in your neighborhood? Why not follow our directions, and write on only one side? Unless you follow our advice, in this matter, we will have to decline to give any notice to your contributions.

Catarrh Cured.

A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease Catarrh, and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found a prescription which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 88 Warren street, New York, will receive the receipt free of charge.

HAVE you sent for a copy of the House of Bondage? Price 75 cts. For sale at this office.

An Unprecedented Offer!

We have made arrangements with the Chicago Manufacturing Company to supply one of their first-class Singer machines for only $14 cash. We will order a machine like the cut here shown, and send the SOUTHWESTERN a full year besides! It is a handsome oil-polished walnut, of latest design, Gothic cover, with beautiful panels, four end drawers and a swing drawer, nickel-plated, and warranted five years.

Each Machine is furnished with the following equipment: One Foot Hemmer, One Oil Can with Oil, One Gauge, and Screw, One Extra Check Spring, One Package of Needles, Five Bobbins, One Tuckor, One Foot Ruler, One Set of Plate Hemmers, four different widths up to seven-eighths of an inch, One Binder and One Thread Cutter. The Improved Tension and Thread Liberator is used on this Machine. The manufacturers offer to refund the money if purchaser is not fully satisfied with the machine.

We receive many letters inquiring about the sewing machine premium, and how to obtain it. In order that all may understand the matter, we state in addition to the announcement, that remittances should be made to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, either by check, money order, or by express, naming the nearest or most convenient freight depot to which it is to be sent. Then we order the factory in Chicago to ship the machine. The company ships it; and receives from the railroad a bill of lading which, with the warranty, is sent to us, and which we send to the subscriber. This bill of lading is good and sufficient evidence that the machine has been forwarded, and holds the railroad company responsible for its safe delivery at the station named as its destination, and in due time, save unavoidable delays. In case of its loss the railroad which caused its loss is responsible, under the laws of the land. If not arriving in due time, show the bill of lading to the station agent and he will look it up. Don't give up the bill of lading, but it may be shown to the railroad agent. All orders are sent the same day as received, and the bill of lading is sent to the subscriber the same day we get it. We started this scheme with a view to helping our patrons, and shall carefully and faithfully carry out our part of the agreement in every case.

Happy and content is a home with "The Rochester" lamp with the light of the morning. For catalogue, write Rochester Lamp Co., New York.

THE Epworth League numbers over half a million members, a very small proportion of whom are of our people. No pastor or Presiding Elder has done his full duty to our young people until he has done all in his power to gather and organize them into the Epworth League. Let us see to it that every church throughout the South has an Epworth League connected with it during the next sixty days. Now is the time to organize. Write to Dr. J. L. Hurlbut, 150 Fifth Ave., New York, for full instructions.

Consumption Surely Cured.

To the Editor:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for consumption. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. Address. Respectfully, T. A. Slocum, M. C., 181 Pearl St. N. Y.

A LIFE SAVED!

READ THE TWO STATEMENTS.

An Extraordinary Case!

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Nov. 22, 1890.

Last April I was attacked with Chagras Fever in Spanish Honduras and was given up to die by two physicians. During that spell and while I have used a pound of quinine and quantities of other medicines without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered untold agonies. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Royal Gernitour. I have had no fever since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind. Am gaining strength very fast. Can walk miles at a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Gernitour has been a God-send to me. I can not say too much in its praise. Any who wish to do so may call on me.

DANIEL PAPFON, 481 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, June 4, 1891.

My improvement continued, and soon after writing the above statement I was able to go to work and have been working ever since. My health is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony freely, because I know that Gernitour saved my life.

DANIEL PAPFON.

Chagras Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Gernitour has been tried on a number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It has a similar record as a remedy for Swamp Fever and Malaria troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quickest and most unfailing remedy for Fevers of all kinds, Dyspepsia, Debility, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidences from thousands of the best people in the country, and the evidences multiply in our midst every day.

For sale by druggists and country merchants, and at the Gernitour office, 292 Canal street, New Orleans. For full information, circulars, etc., call on or address Kit Williams, Agent, 292 Canal street, at bottle, six bottles for $5.

The Best Remedy

In this world, says J. Hoffert, of Syracuse, N. Y., is Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, because my son, who was partially paralyzed three years ago and attacked by fits, has not had any symptoms of them since he took one bottle of the remedy. I most heartily thank for it.

Prejudiced, Yet Convinced.

So, Norwalk, Conn., May, 1890.

Although I took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic with a certain prejudice, it has done so much good that I must thank him for it, because now I can sleep again. Since the terrible catastrophe of the Johnstown flood, where I lost five members of my family, terrible actions occupied my mind, so that I was since quite despondent. But now I come to myself again, and attribute this to the good effect of the Tonic.

SECOND QUARTER.—Studies in the Gospel of St. John. Lesson V. Christ at Jacob's Well. John 5:5-26. Commit to memory verses 13-14. Aug. 2, 1891. A. D. 27 or 28.

GOLDEN TEXT.
Whoever will, let him take the water of life freely. (Rev. 22, 17.)

LESSON HYMN, C. M.

What grace, O Lord, and beauty shone Around thy steps below!
What patient love was seen in all Thy life and death of woe!

Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove;
Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.

O give us hearts to love like thee,
Like thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others' sins, than all
The wrongs that we receive.

Time—A. D. 27 or 28.

Place—Jacob's well, in the valley of Shechem.

Rulers—Herod in Gallilee; Pilate in Jerusalem.

Connecting links—The date of this interview between Christ and the Samaritan woman is not very certain. Jesus was doubtless returning from attendance at a feast in Jerusalem, and, as he did not cross the Jordan, the territory of Samaria had to be traversed before he reached his Galilean home.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY

1. At Jacob's Well, v. 5, 9. Near what city was Jacob's well? By what name was it known in early times? (Josh. 24, 32.)

Why was the well so called? What weary traveler sat by the well?

At what time in the day was this? What visitor came to the well, and on what errand?

Where were the disciples of Jesus? What question did the woman ask?

What reason did she give for her surprise?

2. The Living Water, v. 10, 15. What did Jesus say about the living water?

What did the woman say in reply? What question did she ask about Jacob?

What did Jesus say about the water from the well?

What about the living water? What request did the woman make?

What says the Golden Text to all such?

3. The True Worshipers, v. 16-26. What was the woman bidden to do?

What did she reply?

What did Jesus tell about her past life?

Of what did this convince the woman?

What did she say about a place of worship?

To this what did Jesus reply?

What did he say about the object of worship?

What about true worshipers? How must God be worshiped?

What did the woman say about the Messiah?

What then did Jesus declare?

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.

Where in this lesson are we taught:

1. Whom to worship?
2. How to worship?
3. Why we should worship?

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG BE-REANS.

Find what great Hebrew was buried in Shechem.

Why the Jews had no dealings with the Samaritans.

When Jesus afterward invited men to come to him and drink.

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

[For the entire school.]

1. Near what famous spring did the weary Lord sit down? Near Jacob's Well.
2. For what did he ask the Samaritan woman who came down to draw water? For a drink.
3. Why did she object? Because he was a Jew.
4. What did Jesus say she would ask if she knew him? For living water.
5. What did Jesus say he would give to believers? A well of water springing up into everlasting life.

6. What did Jesus say about God's worship? God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

Doctrinal suggestion—The Messiahship of Jesus.

THE CHURCH CATECHISM.

76. Whence do we derive all correct knowledge of religious truth and duty? From the Holy Bible.

77. What is the Bible? It is the revelation of divine truth, and the record of God's will.

Takes 1000 people to buy* Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, at 50 cents a bottle, to make up $500. One failure to cure would take the profit from 4000 sales. Its makers profess to cure "cold in the head," and even chronic catarrh, and if they fail they pay $500 for their overconfidence.

Not in newspaper words but in hard cash. Think of what confidence it takes to put that in the papers—and MEAN IT. Its makers believe in the remedy. Isn't it worth a trial? Isn't any trial preferable to catarrh?

After all, the mild agencies are the best. Perhaps they work more slowly, but they work surely. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are an active agency, but quiet and mild. They're sugar-coated, easy to take, never shock nor derange the system, and half their power is the mild way in which their work is done. Smallest, cheapest, easiest to take. One a dose. Twenty-five cents a vial. Of all druggists.

Husband (to nurse attending his sick wife)—I reckon two of those chops will be sufficient for my wife all day.

Nurse—La me, Mr. —, that wont be near enough. You have no idea what heavy lunches she calls for.

Ayer's Pills lead all aperients and purgatives. Their action is gentle and thorough.

You can make money during vacation canvassing for the SOUTHWESTERN, "The House of Bondage," and "The Colored Man in the M. E. Church." Write for terms to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, New Orleans, La.

THE thrill of joy which is felt all over our territory over the appointment of Rev. M. C. B. Mason, A. M., B. D., as Field Agent of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, is evidenced by the scores of letters which have reached us from nearly every State in the South.

AMONG the scores of letters commending our editorial on the election of a colored bishop which we have received we give the following excerpt from the letter of one of the most prominent ministers in our Methodism. It is typical of the others received: "Your recent editorials on the colored bishop are on the right line. I admire the position taken thereon by the Western and the Epworth Herald. What a mighty impetus would be given the movement if the rest of the advocates would also come to the front at this moment! Anyhow the wave has been set in motion, and its course will be straightforward until the farther shore is reached."

THE Iberville (La.) Pilot of July 25 contains a column and a half of matter descriptive of the work being done by the Hon. T. T. Allain, a levee contractor in that section of the State. His contracts enable him to offer to the laboring people of our State 100,000 yards of levee work at 13 cents per yard, which will put in circulation in that section $13,000 in cash money. His laborers and sub-contractors are white and colored. Mr. Allain's system of operation is so perfect as to ensure him the most substantial support by his neighbors of both races, which enables him to fulfill every contract he makes. In this capacity he is doing more for the substantial help of his race than the scores of politicians that are wasting their means in waiting for an office, or licking the hands of the Federal official bosses in the Custom House, in order to retain their present petty positions. Let others profit from Mr. Allain's example.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Christianity and Woman.

BY MRS. M. B. ALBERT.

After reading Miss Griffin's beautiful article in last week's SOUTHWESTERN I fell to thinking of what Christianity has not done for woman.

It is true that woman is no longer a slave to her male relatives, but she is a slave, nevertheless, to fashion, to the demands of the social circle in which she moves and to the opinions of those whom she desires to please.

We see Christian women striving daily to gain the friendship of other women who have the reputation of being society leaders, and have the means to live well and dress well.

Even in our own land Christianity has not yet fully emancipated woman from brutality, while in enlightened Christian England a wife may not free herself from a drunken, brutal husband so long as he desires to live with her, and her earnings are not her own. Her better half (?) has a right to draw her wages and spend them as best suits him.

Her children are not her own; her husband may give them away, or will them away at his death, and she has no redress in the courts. She is a minor in the sight of the law, and yet no Christian clergyman lifts up his voice against these evils, and this too in the home of Calvin and Wesley and other great reformers, whose names are household words all over Christendom. Truly,

"The wheels of the gods grind slowly."

Yes, Christianity has done much for woman, but only a very small portion of what she might have done. There is very, very much yet to be done, despite the fact that Christianity is 1800 years old.

We know that in many, alas! too many, Christian households, the wife and mother are little better than servants; a maid-of-all-work in fact; the household drudge, although the husband and father may be a model church member, a deacon, trustee, or even a minister of the Gospel.

"Man's work is from sun to sun,
But woman's work is never done."

There is the cooking and baking, the sewing and mending, nursing of the sick ones, washing and ironing, sweeping and dusting day after day, for the whole seven days of the week.

To how many Christian wives of God-fearing husbands does the Sabbath bring rest from unnecessary labor?

In this matter we would all do well to follow the example of the good people of New England and of some other sections of the country.

I know families in which nothing is done on Sunday that is not absolutely necessary. All cooking is done on Saturday, while a cold luncheon suffices for Sunday's dinner. Every member of the household has leisure to observe the Lord's day according to the dictates of his own conscience, and this too in houses where several servants are employed.

What a contrast to the manner in which it is observed in thousands of families all over the land!

In too many Christian households it is only a day of extra cooking and feasting—a heathen festival rather than a Christian Sabbath. The wife must too often remain at home to prepare the banquet for her better-half; and while he sits in the cool, pleasant room, enjoying the blessed Gospel tidings she is fretting and fuming over a hot kitchen fire. In course of time he returns home, "at peace with the world and the rest of mankind," fully prepared to do justice to the dinner which his Sabbath-breaking wife has prepared for him. Has she no soul to save, or does his religion cover her sins like charity's mantle?

If she may break the fourth command with impunity, why may she not break any other one of them as well?

Mary, the sister of Lazarus, chose rather to sit at Jesus' feet and listen to his teachings than to worry with household affairs, and soon over-worked, over-anxious Martha was rebuked because she was "troubled about many things." Force of circumstances turns many a would-be Mary into a Martha in these days. Many times the weary housewife longs, yea her soul, like the Psalmist's, faints for the courts of the Lord, but she has no time, no leisure to gratify this longing, and no one tries to make a little leisure for her. She seems to have no rights which her husband is bound to respect. Christ while on earth recognized woman as his equal; so did the apostles, and we read of them working together as co-laborers. There is nothing in the New Testament to prove that woman's sphere is necessarily a menial one, but, unfortunately, she has gotten into a rut, and it will take almost superhuman force to pull her out of it.

But I beg of you, husbands who have professed to be followers of His name, to look into this matter.

Emancipate that poor Martha in your household from the pots and dishes once a week at least. Practice a little self-denial on Sundays in the matter of food! Be satisfied with a little cold luncheon on that day and let your wife go to church once in a while on Sunday morning. Your home will be more cheerful and your wife's temper will be better during the week. Try it and see for yourself.

St. Paul says: "He who strives for the mastery must be temperate in all things," and it seems to me that a Christian is in duty bound to be temperate in eating as well as in drinking; but, unfortunately for poor woman, gluttony is a besetting sin among those who profess religion, but cannot be among those who practice it.

I desire to touch on one more point before I stop, and it relates to woman's charity toward woman.

Alas for the rarity of Christian charity under the sun.
Oh! it was pitiful! Near a whole city full.
Friends she had none.

As a woman myself I am forced to confess that Christianity has not yet taught us to be charitable toward each other. How quickly we forgive and forget a man's falling from grace if he only professes penitence and shows a willingness to do better!

How is it with our own sex? If it is a Christian duty to help one fallen brother rise, why is it any less a duty to help one fallen sister rise as well? Why are we Christian women ready to shut our eyes to a man's vices and even go so far as to accept him as a lover and husband, to welcome him to our homes and allow him to associate with our innocent daughters, while we refuse to countenance in any way whatever one of our own sex against whom the least word of suspicion is raised? Is this all our 1800 years of Christianity has done for us as women?

And now abideth faith, hope and charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity. Let us practice it.

Washington, D. C.

THANKS to the manly and persistent fight of the Crusader and its editor, the children of this State will share equally in the Congressional appropriation to the States, for agricultural and mechanical colleges.

The New Brick Church at Yazoo City, Miss.

REV. J. C. HOUSTON.

Dear Dr. Albert: We moved out of the old church February, 1889. Rented the M. and T. Hall at $75 a year. Paid a debt of $200 on the old church. Our African Letter.

Cape Palmas, Liberia, West Coast of Africa, June 6, 1891.

Rev. A. E. P. Albert, D.D., Editor Southwestern Christian Advocate, New Orleans, La., U. S. A.

Dear Brother: I write you for the purpose of requesting you to furnish a copy of your paper, free of charge, to the Methodist Seminary, Cape Palmas, Liberia, west coast of Africa.

The history of this school in brief is as follows:

It was founded by the Missionary Society of the Methodist Church in 1854. For many years the society supported the school, but finally, the results not proving satisfactory, it was left to itself. Then the school commenced to decline, and about ten years ago it was discontinued and the building was permitted to fall into decay. About two years ago Bishop Taylor commenced to repair it with the view of making a training school for his native helpers. Last month the repairs were so far completed that a school was opened in it, I having been transferred from the Oregon Conference to take charge of it.

We have about ninety pupils in attendance and a large majority are first class. Now, we wish to furnish a reading room for our students and we wish to supply it with our papers. But to do so they will have to be furnished us free of charge, for, as we serve without salary, we cannot pay for them, and there is no fund for this purpose. You will see the absolute necessity for the reading room when you take into consideration the fact that there is no periodical of any kind published in Liberia, and that in this town of 1000 inhabitants there is but one paper taken by Liberians so far as I know.

Our church numbers 300 members, yet not one of our periodicals finds its way to their homes. This sad state does not result from an indisposition on their part to read, for they love to peruse the newspapers, but from their poverty. The people are very poor. Therefore you see the reading room is a necessary appendage to our service, and it should be furnished with our papers. Especially is this so, as this is a training school for our native helpers in the mission fields.

I make this appeal to you personally, and I hope you will see your way clear to comply with it. We shall be truly grateful for any other reading matter you may furnish for our young folks and acknowledge its receipt. I remain yours fraternally,

W. D. NICHOLS,
Principal of Cape Palmas Seminary.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Notes by the Way.

BY REV. JOHN BRADEN, D.D.

Honesty is the best policy and is clearly proven by a visit to Canada. The United States issues a silver dollar, said to be worth 100 cents, but as compared with the silver of Canada it is worth only 92 cents. Hence our silver coin is not worth its face and is decidedly inconvenient.

Our paper money is taken without any discount. The National Educational Association has adjourned and the twenty thousand teachers and visitors have mostly left the city. That it is no easy matter to handle such a crowd, may be judged from the fact, that the largest building in the city holding five thousand people, could not hold more than half of those who crowded for admission. The Grand Trunk Railroad sent out one evening a train of twelve sleeping cars all crowded, in addition to the usual number of common passenger cars. The steamers crossing Lake Ontario were tested to their utmost capacity. In the hotels the rooms and halls were occupied, and there was complaint of overcrowding; but those who were disposed to take lodgings in private families, and would take the trouble to look round a little, found plenty of room at reasonable prices.

The National Educational Association meeting in Toronto, will be remembered as among the most successful and pleasant in its history. The Toronto people had made special arrangements to entertain a large crowd. The building where the association and its various departments were to meet, were easily found and reached by the several lines of street cars. The meetings were well attended, although, perhaps not more than half of those who come to these annual meetings, are actually present at more than a single meeting. It is an occasion for a cheap excursion. The papers read and addresses delivered were fully up to the standard of the average, on such occasions. The religious element seemed more prominent than usual in the addresses, as a power in the formation of character. The paper of superintendent J. R. Preston, of Miss., on Teaching Patriotism in the Public Schools was excellent in spirit and broad as the whole country; and was an agreeable surprise to those who anticipated something of the Southern idea of love of country.

Toronto, Canada, July 21, '91.

Our Jubilee Edition.

It was very creditable.—Epworth Herald.

Your Jubilee number of the SOUTHWESTERN is thoroughly creditable. It ought to make a profound impression on behalf of our cause in all the South. I wish a copy of that paper could be placed in the hands of every member of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the South.—Rev. J. C. Hartzell, D. D.

The Jubilee edition of the SOUTHWESTERN, Thursday, July 23, is a credit to Dr. Albert. It contains, among other matters of interest, a full account of the M. E. Church educational work in the South, with cuts and sketches of its institutions.—Crusader.

The SOUTHWESTERN is out with a Jubilee edition, giving a history of the Christian and educational work of the M. E. Church and their friends in the South during the last twenty five years. It is a history and a true statement of the work done by those good people throughout the country. Cuts of the school buildings and colleges are well gotten up and beautifully displayed. It will be read with interest. Success to the SOUTHWESTERN and its good work.—Standard-Pelican.

The Jubilee edition of the SOUTHWESTERN this week is quite interesting. The grand work the M. E. Church is doing for both the white and colored people of the South deserves the praise of every true American.—Christian Recorder.

Letters from the Districts.

Jeannerette, La., July 18.

Dear Editor: Please put down one more church erected on the Alexandria District, this time at Cade, Bro. Richard Drake pastor. You will next hear from Bro. M. J. Dyer, at Pattonville. Presiding Elder Marshall planned well his work. I only carry out his plans. S. E. H. MORANT.

Rev. W. H. Coffey, D.D., Presiding Elder in the Delaware Conference, returned from the Presiding Elder's Convention filled with admiration, good-will and commendation of our good people in the South, aglow with inspiration and love for God and the church, even the grand old Methodist Episcopal Church. He is leading the host on his district to victory all along the line.

Convention of the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

Met at Ebenezer M. E. Church, Marshall, Texas.

Mrs. V. M. Cole, conference president, presided. Miss Hannah McNair was elected secretary; Miss Lula Green, assistant.

Among the delegates present were: Mrs. James M. Brown, district president of the Navasota district; Mrs. M. A. Johnson, Marshall district manager; Mrs. H. A. Jones, from the Houston district. Palestine district was represented by the Rev. Mrs. T. L. Moore. Paris district, by Rev. P. Morgan as proxy. Huntsville district, by Presiding Elder F. Parker. W. Wesley, Presiding Elder of Palestine; Dr. I. B. Scott, Presiding Elder of Houston; W. H. Logan, Presiding Elder of Navasota; R. Williams, of Queen City; Rev. Mrs. A. Williams, from Mineola Home Mission; Mrs. Sylvia Edwards Concordia; Miss Edith V. Green, Jefferson W. H. M. Society.

The president made an encouraging address.

The Presiding Elder of the Marshall district, Rev. Wade Hamilton, addressed the convention and encouraged them in their work.

Prof. E. S. Reid delivered the welcome address.

Rev. W. Wesley made some touching remarks.

The following persons were introduced: Rev. H. Lee, of the O. M. E. Church; Rev. V. M. Cole, of Trinity Church, Houston; Miss Parker, preceptress of Wiley University.

Navasota district reported twelve societies, 270 members, and a growing interest.

Dr. G. W. Whitaker, president of Wiley University, was introduced, and addressed the Convention and commended the work of the Society.

Mrs. Dr. I. B. Scott, Mrs. Dr. Whitaker, Mrs. F. McNair, and Misses H. McNair, H. Kendall and others, fully placed the work of the Society before the Convention.

The Convention decided to place a worker in the field, and Mrs. M. A. Johnson, president of the Marshall district, was selected as a traveling missionary.

Rev. S. M. Bolden, of Jefferson, and Prof. H. L. Billups, were introduced and addressed the Convention.

The Presiding Elders all promised the sisters to help them.

The Convention adjourned, to meet at Navasota, Texas, in October, 1892.

All the districts were represented and reported progress. Resolutions were adopted requesting the cooperation of the presiding elders, pastors, members and friends, to contribute freely to finish King's Home, so as to have it ready for the fall session of Wiley University, September, 1891; and that all money be forwarded by the first of August, and not later than the 25th, to Mrs. M. A. Johnson, district manager, Marshall, Texas, who will furnish receipts for the same.

SOLID FACT.

DUKEHART'S
FLUID EXTRACT OF MALT AND HOPS

contains four times as much virtue as any other Malt Extract. It is free from alcohol and perfectly soluble in milk or water. It is truthfully called, The Great Nutrient Tonic. At all Druggists.

Bowling Green District Conference.

R. L. DICKERSON.

The first session of the Bowling Green District Conference met at Princeton, Ky., July 3, and continued until July 6.

Princeton is a beautiful town, and though our church has only been planted there one year, it has made wonderful progress, and by the assistance of the kind members of other churches, the conference was provided for grandly.

Dr. L. M. Hagood, Presiding Elder, presided with marked ability. His pointed lectures, interspersed with wit, were very instructive and entertaining. His report showed considerable improvement on the district, in building up the waste places and repairing church houses, etc. He so stirred up the local preachers and exhorters on his first round that several came who had never been to a district conference before.

When the roll was called every brother, with a single exception, was present and answered to his name.

Local preachers, exhorters and delegates increased our number to an unusual size.

The following pastors made their reports, showing their charges to be in good condition: Revs. J. W. Russell, I. W. Horton, F. Hinton, J. Monday, L. C. Harris, D. T. Birch, A. Posey (by letter), C. H. Pyles, W. B. Louis, J. W. Burnett, W. H. Riley, R. Acton, R. L. Dickerson, J. E. Warren.

Quite a number of them reported their benevolent collections as half taken.

A. B. Bland and S. Cook were granted licenses to preach.

D. T. Birch, G. W. Burnett, J. E. Warren and A. Beard were advanced to the second year's course of study.

The following local preachers had their licenses renewed: W. M. Hocker, R. Kilgore and J. W. Frazier.

A Sunday School Institute was organized, from which much good may be expected.

Several very interesting papers were read and discussed at some length by several of the brethren. The exercises were made very interesting.

Rev. A. Morrison, Presiding Elder of the O. M. E. Church; J. W. Mitchell, and I. Jones, pastors of the O. M. E. Church, were introduced and joined in the discussion. Dr. Hagood furnished music, singing, "Put the cookies on the lower shelf," and other selections from the song series.

Our service on the Sabbath was good. All the accessible pulpits in the town were filled.

At the opera house, 11 o'clock, Rev. J. W. Russell; at 3 o'clock, Dr. Hagood; and at 7:30, Rev. W. H. Riley. The opera house, with seating capacity of a thousand, was filled at each service. The preachers put their souls into their sermons, and the people, with loud acclamations and amens, made the opera house vocal with praises.

Bro. I. W. Horton lead the class in the afternoon, and with his usual warmth of soul, he soon had the house animated with holy fire, and some of the sisters spake as with tongues of fire. God was with us. Collection for the day, $35.67. Entire amount for the session, $55.67. Benevolent collections reported, $76.78.

Pastors were urged to take the SOUTHWESTERN.

A set of resolutions were offered by Rev. B. J. Coleman, returning thanks to citizens and railroad companies, and also setting forth the merits of Dr. Hagood's book, which were unanimously adopted. Our next district conference will convene at Leitchfield, Ky. Come, and we will make it pleasant for you.

PROGRAM SPRING DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

Opening sermon, Rev. C. H. Piles.

Kind of man for a Presiding Elder, Rev. A. Posey.

Kind of woman for a minister's wife, Rev. W. H. Riley.

How pastors should treat local preachers, Rev. R. L. Dickerson.

Difference between justification and regeneration, Rev. R. Acton.

How to have a pleasant official meeting, Rev. S. W. Horton.

How to induce our lay members to read the Discipline, I. B. Hecker.

Outline of book called "The Colored Man in the M. E. Church," Rev. L. C. Harris.

Advantage of school training, Rev. B. J. Coleman.

Everyday experience (twenty minutes), pastors.

How to promote peace and contentment in the pastor's family (special to the wives of presiding elders), Dr. L. M. Hagood, Presiding Elder.

Secretaries: R. L. Dickerson, W. H. Riley.

"Just as Good,"

say some dealers who try to sell a substitute preparation when a customer calls for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Do not allow any such false statements as this induce you to buy what you do not want. Remember that the only reason for making it is that a few cents more profit will be made on the substitute. Insist upon having the best medicine—Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is Peculiar to Itself.

Letters from the Pastors.

SPECIAL TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Please take notice, 1st, That all anonymous letters go directly to our waste basket; 2d, Letters must be written on only one side of the paper; 3d, No frivolous questions will be noticed; 4th, Abbreviations should not be used; 5th, Notes and items must be condensed so as to insure brevity; 6th, We return no manuscripts.

J. H. Pierre, Marshallville, La.

On the 13th and 14th of July, Presiding Elder S. Duncan held our quarterly conference at Allen-ville. Reports showed marked improvement. At night he preached to a large mixed congregation. Had a grand time. The people, white and colored, love and respect Elder Duncan.

A. A. Lacey, Slaughter, La.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 8, Rev. J. F. Marshall presiding. Rev. P. W. Clark preached us a good soul-stirring sermon. We have raised this quarter $64.50; paid Presiding Elder, $5; preacher, $56.50; sent to Dr. J. C. Hartzell, June 16, $2.50 for education.

Rev. B. J. Reddix, Campt, La., was agreeably surprised by members and friends of his church, among them Baptists and Roman Catholics, who awoke him out of his slumbers to bestow their favors and presents on him. Miss L. E. Curtis, of New Orleans University, presided at the organ.

O. Nelson, Selma, Ala.

For many years have we tried to build a church at this place. At last the door of the old Mother Church is open, and her children are gathering home from all parts of the city. In 1890 Rev. H. N. Brown, Presiding Elder, with the aid of the pastors on his district, raised enough money to erect the church independent of the people of Selma. The building, when complete, will be worth more than $3000. It stands on Griffin street, near the E. T. V. & G. R. R., a place convenient for all. The writer was appointed to this charge by Bishop E. G. Andrews, Feb. 1, 1891. On arriving everything seemed dark; no Sunday school, no members, and no church ready to preach in, for there was no floor. Though a stranger, I went to all, telling them of the grand old M. E. Church and the work done by her. Some cried out on "black bishops," but we rejoice in the religious and moral training of our boys and girls, also of their education. As was said by Dr. Albert in last week's issue, such training is worth more to us than a hundred "black bishops." I am for holy men of God. I now have on the roll 45 active members, and 33 bright boys and girls in the Sunday school. The people are fast learning to love the church and the Savior. One evening last week a little band of thirteen gave us quite an agreeable surprise at the parsonage; to them we give many thanks. Rev. H. N. Brown held his first quarterly meeting for us May 3. We had a glorious time and a large congregation.

James H. Saunders, Sparks, Ga.

Coming from the conference here, I found a church frame about two-thirds weatherboarded, and advertised for sale for $35 for labor done last year. Twenty members and ten probationers were reported, but not one of that number was to be found. By God's help, however, this indebtedness has been cancelled, the church completed, nicely seated, and we can report thirteen accessions and two happily converted.

G. W. Beaman, Jackson Circuit, Miss.

May 10th we raised $10, our assessment for Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education, and forwarded it to the proper authority. We expect to raise all of our assessments. Our grand rally May 30, resulted in collection of $117.65. The following brethren assisted in the services: Revs. A. M. Trotter, S. Jossels, Rodgers, Walker and Thomas. June 6, 7, my second quarterly conference was held at Mt. Salem, by Elder Campbell. The Elder's visit was a benediction to all. His talks, lectures and sermons edified every heart. The work is alive, and we have had several accessions and conversions. We baptized nine persons. Paid Presiding Elder, $7.25; pastor, $49.10; benevolent causes, $14.35. Total, $128.20 for this quarter. The SOUTHWESTERN is not forgotten. It is making its way in every body's heart that reads it. On Children's Day nearly 300 Scripture verses were recited. Collection, $3.30. We are now erecting a new church, and expect to have it completed by the fifth Sunday in August, which will be entering day. A great number of Mississippi's eminent divines will be present to participate in the services.

D. P. Shaw, Vaiden Circuit, Miss.

My second quarterly conference was held June 13, 14, by Rev. H. R. Revels. He preached an able sermon to a crowded house. We are always proud of such men as Drs. Revels and Albert. Paid pastor, $122; Elder, $10.20; received into full membership, 80. Our rally for the Good Hope church, on the third Sunday in June, resulted in a collection of $42.60.

W. H. Scott, Duck Hill, Miss.

Our second district conference was held by Dr. Revels, at Green's Chapel, June 20, 21. Reports showed progress. The Elder preached a soul-stirring sermon. Collection, $26.95. We have not held our protracted meeting yet, but we have taken twenty-one in the church. We are spiritually alive.

J. Jordan, Longview, Texas.

My second quarter was held June 20, 21, by Elder Hamilton. Paid pastor, $36.60; Elder, $12.50. The Lord is with us. The Elder is loved by all. Easter Sunday we raised $8.10 for missions. Collection during quarter, $54.55.

F. M. Lashington, Desiard, La.

Our second quarterly conference was held at Mt. Sinai M. E. Church, June 29. Rev. S. Priestley made our hearts glad to see him. The Elder preached three edifying sermons. Collection this quarter, $139.05.

P. F. Robinson, Oayka, Miss.

We are going to try to finish our church building here by Oct. 1. We will lay the corner-stone August 13. Our lot is paid for and everything is going on successfully. As soon as I can finish the church here, we are going to organize in Chatawa, three and one-half miles above, and put a church there also. We have the place selected and 1300 feet of lumber to start on. The pastor of the Oayka A. M. E. Church has sold out his church and turned over the whole work to me. He says he could not get his hands on his members any more after I came here. I have been here three months. Our Presiding Elder was surprised to see our rapid progress. We want to have a grand time on corner-stone day. We hope to have Dr. Albert with us on that day.

J. I. Garrett, Benton, Miss.

Our fourth quarterly conference was held at Double Spring July 4, with Rev. J. Campbell in the chair. The reports showed that the work is in a prosperous condition spiritually and financially. Paid pastor, $150.65; Presiding Elder, $15; Bishop, $1.25; missions, $6.30; Freedmen's Aid, $3; Wesley Chapel, on Children's Day, $7.25; Mt. Pleasant school, $5.25. Number of Bible verses recited on Children's Day, 520. Eight accessions and two deaths. Elder Campbell preached a grand sermon, and administered the Lord's Supper to forty souls. Our Sunday schools are in a fine condition. Wesley Chapel and Mt. Pleasant schools had a reunion on Children's Day; H. Witherspoon is superintendent of Wesley Chapel and Bro. P. H. Gill of Mt. Pleasant, both fine young men.

S. J. Harris, Chattanooga, Tenn.

The Presiding Elders' Convention was a great success, and much good will be the result. The men were all portly, fine looking and far above the average in intelligence. Many enigmas have been paid them by our people, both white and colored. Our greatest regret was their short stay among us. Our pulpit was filled on the following Sabbath by Drs. H. R. Revels and L. M. Hagood, and Elder B. Dilworth, to the great delight of our people. We would be glad to have them come again. We also had good success in our rally.

A. N. Jackson, LaFayette, Ala.

Under the inspiration of the fact that the Rev. W. H. Nelson, pastor of the Blifton M. E. Church, has been honored by the University of Buffalo, N. Y., with the degree of D.D., the citizens of West Point, Ga., met June 25 and tendered him a grand ovation. The audience was large and composed of both races, the leading spirit being Rev. C. S. Wilkins, pastor of the Baptist Church, who had arranged an excellent program, consisting of addresses, music, solos, duets, etc. The following ministers were present: Revs. M. T. Thomas, of the O. M. E. Church; Isa Perry, of the M. E. Church; and Robt. Boyd and E. B. Ash, of the Baptist Church, and the writer; Bro. Wilkins; Capt. J. W. Little, postmaster, and others. Dr. Nelson can with fluency read Greek, Hebrew, Assyrian and Aramaic. By request, Dr. Nelson read some in the ancient languages, translating the same into English as he read. He presented his diplomas, giving him the following degrees: A. B., A. M., Ph.D., D.D., all from leading colleges of the land. He has also been elected a member of the Scientific and Literary Association of Pennsylvania. The exercises were interspersed with music, Mrs. Dr. Nelson singing several solos to the delight of all present.

J. R. Reasonover, Hillsborough, Tenn.

My third quarterly conference was held at Snrmonia, July 4. Reports showed a grand increase. Paid Presiding Elder, $8.40; pastor $14.65; raised for missions, $2; Freedmen's Aid, $3; Sunday school, $2.50; tracts, $1. Elder Price preached two grand sermons. The Hillsborough charge feels proud of the Elder's grand administration.

H. O. Williams, Shady Grove, La.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 21. Owing to the Presiding Elders' Convention, our Presiding Elder was not here to hold the quarter. Rev. R. O. Barrow held it. Reports showed that $40.91 had been collected, 56 souls converted to God and added to the church, and eight backsliders reclaimed. Shady Grove is alive, and men and women are crying, "What shall we do to be saved?"

Pray for me. This is my third hard place. First at Morrow, then Bunkie, and now Shady Grove. But thank God I have been able to stand the test for the Lord.

P. Bennett, Milford and Italy, Texas.

My second quarterly conference was held May 23, 24, Rev. A. Foster in the chair. Reports showed great progress. Converted two and received four into full membership. The Elder preached a soul-reviving sermon on Sunday, and administered the Lord's Supper to a large number. Paid Elder, $11.50; pastor, $82.15. I did not forget to mention the good old SOUTHWESTERN.

Our people at McMinnville, Tenn., whose church was burnt down some time ago, are fixing to rebuild. The old bricks have been taken out of the rubbish and cleaned, and on the first Sunday in June they had a grand financial rally for the rebuilding. Collection, $106.50. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Richmond, was assisted by Revs. F. W. Baker of the Baptist, and J. T. Brown of the A. M. E. Church; and D. Scott, of Sparta, and his people, sent their contribution of $10. Bro. Henry Anderson brought $16.50. The plan is to complete the church in time for the district conference in August.

A. M. Quinn, DeSoto, Miss.

My second quarterly conference convened June 10. Rev. J. M. Shumpert, Presiding Elder, being absent, Rev. A. J. Mackener presided. He preached a soul-reviving sermon on Sunday and administered the Lord's Supper to 60 persons. Paid pastor, $7; Presiding Elder, $8. The entertainment given by F. Smith and A. B. Britten realized $100.50.

A. Handy, Summit, Miss.

Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society was observed. We had a grand time. The following contributed: Miss Dicy Dillon, $2; Miss Mattie Middleton, $1; Miss Lizzie Sperlark, $1; Victoria Tolbert, $1; Selia James, $1; Rosa Cohee, $1; Sellsan Wilson, $1. Total amount raised, $22.10. The good people here gave us two surprises, which were led by some of the prominent members of the church. They brought many good things. We will be glad to have them come again.

Children's Day Gleanings.

N. B. Blackman, French camp, Miss.

Children's Day at St. Paul M. E. Church was nicely carried out by our worthy Sunday school superintendent Adaline Yates, assisted by the pastor. Collection $7.10.

Mary Henderson, Hubbard, Texas.

Why do the Methodists Plant Missions in Germany?

Here is a partial answer to the question in a speech made by the emperor himself, as quoted in the New York Tribune of a recent date:

"The Emperor William arrived at Carlsruhe from Bonn, and was welcomed by his uncle, the Grand Duke of Baden, and enthusiastically received by the inhabitants. On the evening before leaving Bonn the emperor spent several hours at the 'beer commers,' which was held to open the summer session of the Bonn University, such symposia always being attended by all the corps or fighting clubs. Of these the crack corps is that of the Borussia, of which the emperor or himself, when studying at Bonn, was a nominal member; but at this general 'commers' he acted as chairman of the revels. In reply to the health of the emperor, which was effusively proposed and drunk in what is called a 'thundering salamander,' his majesty rose and begged to subscribe to every word which had been spoken in praise of all the habits and customs of German student-life and their educational importance." He said:

"It is my firm conviction that every youth who enters a corps or beer-drinking and dueling club will receive the true direction of his life from the spirit which prevails in them. It is the best education which a young man can get for his future life, and he who scoffs at the German students' corps does not penetrate their real meaning. I hope as long as there are German corps-students the spirit which is fostered in their corps, and which is steered by strength and courage, will be preserved, and that you will always take delight in handling the dueling blade. There are many people who do not understand what our duels really mean, but that must not lead us astray. You and I, who have been corps students, know better than that. As in the Middle Ages manly strength and courage were steered by the practice of jousting or tournaments, so the spirits and habits which are acquired from membership of a corps furnish us with that degree of fortitude which is necessary to us when we go out into the world, and which will last as long as there are German universities. You have been good enough to refer to my son (the crown prince), and I give you my hearty thanks for doing so. I trust that the young man, when he is advanced enough, will matriculate here and join your clubs, and that he will then meet with the same kindly sentiments that were extended to me. And now a word to those young freshmen who are but beginning to lead a corps life. Train your courage, your discipline, and your obedience, without which we cannot as a state continue to live, and I trust that many officials and officers will emerge from your midst."

This remarkable speech by the emperor was applauded to the echo by his youthful hearers, though it is certain enough to provoke a bitter controversy in other quarters. The emperor remained among the beer-drinkers and song-singers till midnight, and then withdrew with his brother-in-law, Prince Adolph, of Schaumburg-Lippe, amid a scene of great enthusiasm.

Think of an emperor teaching such barbarous sentiments to young men as that the practice of dening is necessary to the existence of the state! We did not find it so in our great war. In the regiment of which I was chaplain there were three hundred and twenty men who could lead in prayer in our prayer-meetings. As for their courage, that was tested at Winchester, the Wilderness, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor, in the Shenandoah Valley under Phil. Sheridan, and on to Appomattox. That regiment did not think it necessary to cultivate their courage by fighting duels and getting drunk.

Ah, your majesty, your address to the young men of Germany is unworthy of the ruler of a great people! You have helped us, however, to explain the necessity of Methodist Missions in Germany.—C. C. McCabe, in World-Wide Missions.

Letters from the Laity.

J. Simmons, Canton circuit, Miss.

Our second quarterly conference convened at Rick's Chapel, Presiding Elder Joseph Campbell in the chair. We had a grand time, the elder preached a soul stirring sermon and administered the Lord's Supper to seventy-four members. Collection $15.10. Our pastor is much beloved, and our circuit is prospering. We have paid him about $200. We have completed a fine building at King Solomon, and have purchased a new set of seats for Hopewell, at an expense of fifty dollars. We are happy to say we will be able to report a better state of affairs morally, spiritually and financially, than ever before.

J. T. Wheatly, Cold Springs, Tex.

My wife takes your paper and I read it. I am glad to get it to study the Sunday school lesson. We have a good Sunday school, and also a good preacher. My wife is a member of the church and she loves the cause of Christ.

W. A. Canner, New Birmingham, Tex.

We are very small in membership, being only about one year old. We are having good Sunday school and congregations however. We had a good time in celebrating the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Day. God grant that many such men as our pastor J. H. Anderson, may be sent to such places as this.

A. H. Colwell, Hearne, Tex.

Our quarterly meeting June 14, was a success. Our little town is on the move, a building and railroad boom having struck it broadside; and, by the way, we boast of a colored "railroad project"—Mr. J. N. Gillett, of the firm of Gillett & Dixon, merchants, Re, with other progressive colored men of the state, have a scheme on foot and well under way to charter the "Huston, Brazos Valley, and Langston City R. R." The cry is "on to Langston!" Mr. Gillett is just energetic enough to push the move, and it looks much like we are going to have a railroad, managed and manipulated by colored men. Mr. Gillett is daily receiving the most flattering letters from colored men of wealth and influence, encouraging the move and promising active assistance.

H. C. Route, Forest, Miss.

Our pastor Rev. K. P. Crump, is the right man in the right place. Our circuit is improving financially and spiritually. Children's Day was observed at Lynch's Chapel. It was a glorious occasion. We are delighted with our Presiding Elder, Rev. J. M. Shimpert. The SOUTHWESTERN is a welcome week ly visitor. I could not do without it. God bless its editor.

Our people at Castilian Springs, Tenn., are rejoicing over the fact that their public school is now being taught by Mrs. Fanny Bats, a member of our church. All previous teachers there were of the Baptist Church. The church is gaining ground, so writes Bro. F. F. Webster.

S. S. Rogers, Mansfield, La.

The second quarterly conference of Wesley Chapel, was held June 20, Presiding Elder S. Duncan in the chair. Paid pastor 72 85; P. E., $8. The conference closed with a grand old-time love-feast. On Sunday the elder preached to a very large audience. He was in one of his spiritual moods for preaching. Every one was made happy. Collection $25 80. Children's Day was observed according to program. The pastor Rev. E. Hutchinson, spared no pains in having everything in trim. Misses Birdie Mayo, Sally Johnson, M. J. Wilson, F. A. Clark, Bros. David Mayo, Cooper Howard, Mrs. F. A. Clark, Miss Philis Canine, and Prof. T. H. Monson, deserve much credit for the part they took. Collection $4.40.

A mass meeting of colored citizens was held at St. Paul Church, Aberdeen, Miss., June 15, in which resolutions were unanimously adopted as follows:

1. That we discountenance in every possible way, all persons who insidiously or openly attack the virtue of our women.
2. That we will not hold social intercourse with immoral characters, and those who act as agents for the destruction of good moral character.
3. That we who favor the foregoing, and will stand by and act accordingly, submit our names for the purpose of organizing, to use every effort to put down such immoral conduct; and to do all in our power to encourage a wholesome moral tone of the highest type.

Committee: S. Blevins, chairman, N. R. Clay, secretary, Fred. H. Buntin, H. M. Thompson, N. R. Clay.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

Mr. Editor: I want to find my people, whom I have not seen in many years. I left my father's people in Hanson county, Ky. My father was Sam Chinn, and mother Betsey Chinn. Brother's were Sam, Nat and George Chinn. Sister's Sarah Melissa Chinn, and aunt Mary Abbott. She belonged to Nat Abbott. Father belonged to Billie Barnett. He was sold to a Negro trader in 1853. Any information will be thankfully received. Address Henry H. Chinn, Lindsay, La.

Mr. Editor: I want to inquire for my boy. He left home Sunday night, July 12, with two other boys. I was not aware that he was going off. His name is Henry Ward, age 15 years. He is very bright complexioned, tall, and slenderly built. The boys that he went with were Sam Bell and Charley Willis. If any one knows of such a boy please address me secretly, Lizzie Dean, Sweet Home, Ark.

Mr. Editor: I wish to enquire for some of my relatives. I had three brothers and one sister; Andrew Washington, and Jerry; My sister was Siller; our mother and father Thomas and Rachel. We all belonged to James Austin, a speculator. We were living in Grimes county, near Lawrenceville, Ga. James Austin bought my mother and father in 1836. He brought us to Alabama. When I left Alabama I was 12 years old. There were then three brothers of the Austins, James, Starling and Bill Austin. The last I heard of my sister she had three children. And I heard since I have been free that James Austin was killed by a young man he raised, name Eleck. Address Thomas Austin, Centerville, Tex.

General Church News.

Seventy-five per cent of business men in the United States are Protestants. Of the sixty-eight richest men in America sixty-four are Protestants, four are Catholics; 400 Christian families have an average income $500,000; 8,000 have an income of $25,000; 100,000 an income of $10,000.

John Jasper, the famous Negro preacher of Richmond, has been pastor of his church for fifty one years. He has 3,000 members, and an average audience of about 1,500.

George Muller has under his care 75 schools, of which 13 are in Spain, 2 in Italy, 2 in the East Indies, and 7 in the English colonies. In May of last year these schools contained 6,250 pupils, and the total number since the first one was opened in 1834, was 112,937. The expenses have been $480,000. Mr. Muller planned to go out as a missionary to India, but insuperable obstacles prevented. But, remaining at home, he has been able to raise and distribute for missions $1,116,800.

Another year of the Christian Endeavor movement practically comes to an end with the tenth international convention at Minneapolis; and the society in all its brief, but eventful history, never had so much reason to sing with united voice "The Hallelujah Chorus." The past year has been the most notable and prosperous in all the history of the society. In the first place, the numerical growth has been unprecedented and astonishing. A year ago there were recorded 11,013 societies, with 660,000 members; to-day there are recorded 16,274 societies, with 1,008,980 members. Five thousand more societies, with three hundred and forty-six thousand more members than a year ago!

When I say cure I do not mean merely to stop them for a time and have them return again.
I mean a radical cure. I have made the disease

WHY don't you get the boarding houses and different business houses with whom our people trade, to advertise in the SOUTHWESTERN?

THE Times Democrat is making a fuss about the exclusion of non-Protestant tenters from the Seashore Camp Grounds. The grounds are the private property of the Methodist Church, and, of course, the authorities have the right to manage their grounds. To admit tenters who are not Protestants would be to open the way for a subversion of their own authority. Catholic grounds are exclusively for Catholics. Why should not Methodist grounds be occupied exclusively by Methodists? Would the Times Democrat rent the editor of the New Delta a part of the office? The exclusion refers solely to tent holders and not to visitors. —N. O. Christian Advocate.

Judging from the unreasonable howl set up by the Times Democrat one would be led to believe that some great outrage had been committed against Roman Catholics. The facts in the case are that the Roman Catholic Church generally excommunicates its members for even entering such grounds. Why does not the Times Democrat plead for the release of our Protestant Missionary Penzotti, whom Roman Catholics hold in a dungeon, bound with chains, for holding religious services, just a little above a whisper, in a private house in Peru? The same degree of interest in that direction might result in effecting some good results.

DE. W. H. Coffey, of the Delaware Conference, is delighted over his observations at the recent Presiding Elder's Convention. Addressing his district conference recently he said:

"The convention did some things that a great deal of good will come out of. They urged Negro representation, and we fought hard to bring it about. I think we will have transfers from the Southern Conferences in the near future. We need a little more blood in the Southern Conferences from the North, and a little more blood in the Northern Conferences from the South. There seemed to be no jealousy among themselves. They seemed to be glad when one of their number came forward who could do something. I want to say something now concerning Dr. Hammond, of the Lexington Conference. He is a whole man. He measured up with any white Doctor with whom I met. I think the brethren should write more to the SOUTHWESTERN, and also the New York Christian Advocate. Now, after all that I have seen in the South, I am not ashamed of the ability of the young men of the Delaware Conference. I do not think your delegation disgraced you there. They seemed to pass it as a joke that they intended to capture the delegation from the Delaware Conference. Now, I am proud of my trip. As poor as I am, I would rather have the benefit of that trip than $5,000 to-day and be without it. Brethren, pray for the Philadelphia district. We know no district lines. I know your leader. I know you will have victory."

We heartily invite our Delaware brethren to our columns; and thank Dr. Coffey for his request to his brethren that they do so.

The Dedication at Yazoo, Miss.

Sunday July 26th, the Rev. A. E. P. Albert, D.D., editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, assisted by Rev. J. C. Hibbler, of Vicksburg, Miss., dedicated the beautiful new brick church, which our people at Yazoo City, Miss., completed and entered last September. The collection of the day was $1,372, which enabled them to dedicate the church free of debts. The day and the occasion was one of wonderful interest and success, and will long be remembered in the history of that people. We have never seen such liberality equaled anywhere. There was no element of sing-song claptrap displayed anywhere. The day opened with a fervent season of prayer at 5:30 a. m.; a Sunday school session, wherein the most abundant interest and instruction were brought out at 9 a. m.; and at 11 a. m., Bro. Hibbler preached; no collection was then taken. At 3 p. m., Dr. Albert preached; after which every leader rallied his class, and contested for the first number, or for the next nearest to the succeeding numbers. The result was a collection of nearly $1,100. At 7:30 p. m., Dr. Albert preached again, when over $275 were collected; making a total for the day of $1,372, incalculable. After this the church, worth over $11,000, was dedicated to the service of Almighty God, amid the shouts of the people, without the shadow of a debt overhanging it. We have never seen the like before. How much better was this method, than that which obtains among our people, to run all day union and basket meetings, when local preachers, visiting pastors, etc., preach a five minutes money sermon, and ding dong the people for "only one more nickel" ten minutes each, to close up with $30 or $100 at the most. We hope all our people will pattern after our church at Yazoo City, and Rev. J. C. Houston, the champion church builder and money raiser of our church in the South.

Cornerstone Day, May 11, 1890, they raised $1130.

Entrance Day, September 21, 1890, $1300.

Rally Day, April 26, 1891, $420.

Dedication Day, July 26, 1891, $1372.

Total in four collections $4,272.

Match that if you can. We were more than delighted with everything we saw and heard. The relation of the races is amicable, and our people give every evidence of material prosperity, and intellectual and moral culture. No pastor in our Methodism need fear going to Yazoo City. The church is one of the finest in the South, and the people one of the best looking, refined and hospitable to be found anywhere.

The writer and Bro. Hibbler were feasted at the bountiful tables of Mrs. Rev. J. C. Houston, Mrs. Zid Green, Mrs. Emma Bell, Mrs. E. J. Madkins, Mrs. N. N. Sidney, and J. E. Holmes. We met here, Revs. J. S. Woods, I. L. Garrett and I. W. Davis, pastors of neighboring circuits, who accompanied us to Jackson, Miss., where it was our privilege to meet Rev. A. M. Trotter and to preach to his people at Jackson Miss., on Monday night, July 27. The whole trip was very profitable to the SOUTHWESTERN, which is very much appreciated throughout that section.

Who Will Help Them?

We publish in another column a letter from Africa, where it is shown that there is but one paper taken in the whole of Cape Palmas, a town of 1000 inhabitants and in which we have 300 members. "This sad state does not result from an indisposition to read, for they love to read, but from their poverty." Will not some one send us the means whereby we may supply those needy ones and answer their Macedonian cry with a few copies of the SOUTHWESTERN? We will send a copy of the paper a year for $2 to as many as our readers may pay for. Please help them. Amounts received will be duly acknowledged in our columns.

Wholesale Butchery.

Dispatches from the Jefferson Plantation, in Tennessee, announce the massacre of eight Negroes who had refused to work because they were not receiving enough pay.

These men were not killed in a fight where they might have had a chance to defend themselves, but they were cowardly butchered while asleep in their quarters.

We believe that as long as they conduct themselves as law-abiding citizens, they are entitled to the protection of the laws, and of those who have a spark of justice in their hearts. If these Negroes were killed in the manner related by the sole survivor, Thomas Bell, then we say that it will leave a stigma of infamy upon the State in which it was committed, unless prompt and effective measures are taken to bring the murderers to justice.

Nothing short of the hanging of every one connected with this diabolical outrage should satisfy the authorities of the State of Tennessee. —Down Town Herald.

What They Say of Our Position on the Colored Bishop Question.

You are striking the key-note and voicing the sentiment of the colored membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church, except that of a few in a hurry, aspirants, or snail creepers. May God give you great wisdom to speak out boldly the truth in the best way and at the right time. —Rev. J. C. Hibbler, Vicksburg, Miss.

I have just read your editorial, "Our Colored Membership and the New Bishops," and desire to say that you have correctly voiced the sense of our people on this most important and peculiar question. Long may live the present editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, to vigilantly guard the interests of our oppressed people. —Rev. A. M. Trotter, Jackson, Miss.

THE Rev. Dr. Arthur Edwards, of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, usually correct and straight upon every question affecting our people as the proverbial straight shingle, makes a very unfortunate remark in his otherwise admirable editorial on the question of the election of a colored bishop. He says:

"It is to the credit of German, Scandinavian and other Methodists in this country that no German or Scandinavian or other has been as snubbed for the episcopacy."

It is to the credit of the American people, too, that no German, Scandinavian or other people, as such, is discriminated against at every turn and in every avocation in life because he is a German or a Scandinavian. The Negro, as our friend, Dr. Edwards, knows and condemns, is discriminated against because he is a Negro. Under the circumstances it is but natural for him to conclude that he is overlooked because of his race or color whenever and wherever he is denied representation, unless his personal lack of fitness is clearly demonstrated. It is uncharitable to say that our people ask for the election of a colored man because he is colored. They make no snub plea. They ask that the race or color of a Negro shall not keep him as effectually out of our episcopacy as it keeps him out of a first class car, a railroad dining room and hotel, and as it keeps him out of a white school, church or cemetery. The questions of character, culture and competency are not considered in the premises. The editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, or any other of our most cultured and refined ministers, would be as readily turned away from snob places as the most worthless of the race, while the most worthless "German, Scandinavian and other people" would be welcome.

Another thing: Some of our bishops may be German and Scandinavian for aught we know. We know, however, that none of them are Negroes, at least none of them are suspected of being of that race. Perhaps Dr. Edwards will now see some difference.

THE Western Advocate, of recent date, has an editorial on the subject of a Negro Methodist Bishop being one of the things of the near future. It says in conclusion:

We do not venture an opinion as to whether the man and the hour now coincide; but we occupy the only tenable and consistent position, namely, that, if "not yet," surely sometime we shall have a colored Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

To this, Dr. Smith, of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, says:

This is, to say the least, a little bold in statement, whatever may be the merits of the case.

Surely, as fair and charitable a man as Dr. Smith, cannot take any exception to the opinion that "sometime," sooner or later, "we shall have a colored Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church." Dr. Moore has stated the position of our churches on this subject exactly, as understood by the colored people in this country. It is the only reasonable and consistent position which she can occupy, and to shake and show signs of weakening in the presence of this logical deduction from the policy which our church has pursued in her work among their people since the war, is to become frightened at one's own shadow. Surely sometime!

Political Review.

As predicted last week, Senator Quay and Col. Dudley have resigned their offices as chairman and treasurer, respectively, of the Republican National Committee. Gen. Clarkson, the popular Republican leader, was selected as chairman.

The Maryland Democratic State Convention nominated a full ticket, gave Senator Gorman a boom as a presidential possibility, indorsed him for the U. S. Senatorial succession, passed a long list of indictments against the Republican party, and adjourned.

Hon. Joel B. Erhardt has resigned the collectorship of the port of New York. Rumor has it that Secretary of the Interior Nobles has also resigned.

Speaker Reed has returned from Europe.

Secretary Blaine is getting well; and political speculators associate his name with that of Gen. Alger, of Michigan, as a political team for the nomination of president and vice-president. Whatever may be the future development, it is now quite evident that President Harrison will be his own successor.

President Harrison, we hope, will not be hoodwinked by unscrupulous white politicians into the folly of appointing a white minister to succeed the Hon. Fred Douglass to Hayti, on the absurd pretensions that a white minister is necessary to protect our interests there. What is needed is an intelligent, young and progressive colored diplomat, like the Hon. L. A. Martinet, of this city, who is thoroughly equipped in native manhood, mental vigor and diplomacy, and who withal is thoroughly conversant with French, the national language of Hayti.

In its reference to the New Orleans University Medical School, the Crusader says:

"The New Orleans University Medical School is as broad as the charity that has founded it, and knows no race, color, creed or sect."

That is the foundation upon which every Methodist institution is established. We have schools and churches "among the white people" and the like institutions among the colored people, but all operating under the following action of the General Conference of 1884, viz:

"Resolved, That this General Conference declares the policy of the Methodist Episcopal Church to be, that no member of any society within the church shall be excluded from public worship in any and every edifice of the denomination, and no student shall be excluded from instruction in any and every school under the supervision of the Church, because of race, color or previous condition of servitude."

This was adopted in answer to the action of a certain white pastor in Alabama that denied colored people admission to his services, and to the assertion in certain quarters that colored students would be denied admission to some of our schools. This is official. We hope it will answer all the color line questions that may exist in the mind of the Crusader and its readers.

City Church Notes.

(Brief items of news from the city churches will be welcome either handed us by pastors or laymen.)

Bro. Isaac Morgan, Gretna, La., Sunday school superintendent, says: "Monday, July 27, we had our Sunday school picnic at Harvey's Canal. We had a grand time."

Personal.

—Rev. P. Hirth, one of the old fathers in the Mississippi Conference, who located at his own request some years ago, is now living at Brownsville, Miss. He is as devoted to the old church as ever, and is doing us good service in assisting to spread the circulation of the SOUTHWESTERN.

—Rev. H. S. McMillan, of Galveston, Texas, called last week. He reported his church in a prosperous condition.

—Rev. Stephen Duncan, of the Shreveport district, has been spending a few days in the city. He returns to the work on his district to-morrow. He reports many conversions and a general spirit of revival and church building all over his district.

—We have been remembered with invitations to the marriage of Rev. F. M. Hamilton, editor of the Christian Index, Jackson, Tenn., to Miss Hattie S. Babridge, of Columbia, S. C. The Marriage takes place August 12, at Columbia, S. C. We extend best wishes to the contracting parties.

—Prof. John Reed passed through Shreveport en route to Minden, La., and preached on Sunday to a crowded house, and all were pleased with him and his sermon.

—Mrs. Rev. T. J. Johnson has left Shreveport, La., for Hot Springs, Ark., in search of health. May God take care of her and return her back home in good health.

—A note from Presiding Elder Landry, Donaldsonville, La., says: "I left Woodlawn Monday fully intending to come down Tuesday, but was overtaken by an attack of bilious fever by which I am still confined to my room. I regret very much, on this account, to have disappointed Elders Smith at Thibodaux and Monroe at Schriever, and their good people on the 24th and 25th. I hope to be able to meet my appointment at Beattleville on the 25th and 26th." We hope the Elder is now alright again.

—A note from President Braden, of Central Tennessee College, dated Toronto, Can., says: "Hope you are keeping cool; we are here, where the thermometer hardly touches seventy degrees in shade, and where winter wraps and overcoats are decidedly comfortable in the street cars and an absolute necessity riding on Lake Ontario. We leave here for Montreal and New York via. Lakes Champlain and George and Hudson River. If you were here we could ride in the same car, eat at the same table in the best hotels, and be men alike; you in the dark, I in the lighter clothing our own dear Father has put upon us. It is only a question of time and grace when it will be so at the gulf as well as by the lakes. Momo spoke to a crowd of four or five thousand and was heartily received."

We regret to learn that Rev. Ed. Fields, of Glencoe, La., is very sick with a severe attack of malarial fever. Let the church pray for his recovery. He has done a grand work there and has built a beautiful and well planned parsonage.

—Joseph Story, Esq., of Cincinnati, a leading member of our church there, made a pleasant call last Monday, in company with the Rev. Wm. P. McLaughlin, D. D.

—Dr. J. E. Mullan, of the N. O. University Medical School, called last week. He is kept quite busy in the practice of his profession.

—Rev. Jas. Drayden, a supernumerary preacher of the Mississippi Conference, is in very poor health and has been for four months. He has lost his mind. We had him brought from Hamburg to this city for medical treatment several weeks ago. His wife is sick and his family is in need of aid. Brother Drayden was a pure, upright Christian minister of our conference and deserves our help and sympathy. Any aid sent to the writer will reach them and will be acknowledged by receipt. Yours truly, SAM'L A. COWAN, Vicksburg, Miss.

—The Rev. D. J. Price, of Pleasant Plains M. E. Church, this city, was royally entertained during his recent visit to Monroe, his last year's charge.

—Hon. Warner Miller received the degree of LL. D. from Syracuse University at the recent commencement.

—The Rev. Dr. A. H. Tevis, of the Kansas Conference, was suspended from the ministry on the charge of falsehood. Dr. Tevis has since withdrawn from the M. E. Church, and it is understood that he will organize an independent church.

—Methodism mourns the translation of one of her ablest and most faithful ministers in the person of the Rev. D. P. Kidder, D. D., whose death occurred a few days ago at Evanston, Ill. Dr. Kidder will long be remembered as the author of Kidder's Homiletics and as corresponding secretary of the Board of Education of the M. E. Church.

REV. J. W. E. Bowen, Ph.D., delivered an address in Washington, D. C., recently, upon the race problem, which was pronounced on all sides as one of the best ever heard in that city.

Self-Denial Week Envelopes.

We will send out free to all pastors who will send in orders, Self-Denial Week Envelopes in packages of from 100 to 500.

Please, brethren, send in your orders early, so that these envelopes may be distributed previous to September 27. Address, Missionary Secretaries, 150 Fifth Ave., New York.

DAILY BREAD.

"A religion which will permit us to say what we please, and to do what we please, and go where we please, is not the religion we need. 'If any man be in Jesus Christ he is a new creature.' Any change less than this will not count."

When Gideon had sent home all the cowards of his army he had an easy victory by the help of the Lord. Let the cowards of every church be remanded to the rear and the brave, however few, will be the instruments of great conquest.

No man can live a Christian life who does not avail himself of all the powers given him on every side. There is work for the thought, work for the imagination, work for every mortal sentiment, work for every affection, work for all the combination of the faculties.

It is to be a "burning and a shining light." A glow-worm can shine and a fire-brand can burn, but the former may do but little good and the latter much harm. But Christians who are burning lamps as well as shining lights are needed in this dark, cold world.—Christian Witness

Dr. Talmage says: Unless our children are saved in early life they probably never will be. They who go over the twentieth year without Christ are apt to go all the way without Him. Grace, like flower seed, needs to be sown in spring. The first fifteen years of life, and often the first six, decide the eternal destiny. The first thing to do with a lamb is to put it in the arms of the Great Shepherd.

Some good workers are frightened from the sacred ministry of circulating good books lest they be called "book agents." As well might a minister vacate his pulpit because some people will insist that he preaches for hire. He who circulates a good book helps to preach a sermon that will speak when he is in the grave.—Revivalist.

Homiletics.

The following is a synopsis of a sermon recently delivered by Bishop Newman. After the opening exercises he announced his subject which was,—

THE ONLY REMEDY.

"The history of humanity," said the Bishop; "is a funeral march" from first to last, it marches to the music of sighs and groans. Were all the tears shed from first to last collected together, there would be a new ocean, deeper than the Atlantic and broader than the Pacific. Were all the groans uttered from first to last gathered in one volume, there would be a peal of thunder louder than has ever yet been heard. How long will this condition of things last? Is there "no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there?" Jesus will remedy it! Sin and suffering are stupendous facts. Our subject is one of no ordinary limit. It touches the cases of all men everywhere. May those who hear be inspired to accept Christ! What are the conditions of the world for the sick and suffering? What is the remedy for the evils of society? In law! The home of law is the bosom of God, yet there are some things that cannot be done by law. For instance; law cannot purify. Under the best governments of the world some of the worst men have lived; it was not the fault of the law under which they lived that they were so corrupt. The law was good. Under the worst forms of law some of the best people have lived. You need but to refer to the law of human slavery. If law could purify every man in the penitentiary would become virtuous and every soul in hell would become a saint. Law has but its sphere. Punishment cannot refrain, human or divine. Government has failed to suppress vice and develop virtue. The scholar tells us that the only thing to suppress vice and develop virtue is education. What is there in chemistry to refuse? What is there in the knowledge of botany, geology or physiology to refuse? This world never lacked for knowledge and it never will. Who would speak against education? What would America be without it? But I, standing before you as your religious teacher, must be true to God and true to you. What has art done for Italy? Italy is a vast art gallery. Who would exchange the morality of Italy for morality of America? Next comes philanthropy in the name of charity, sweet charity. It comes from heaven, but seeks only the temporary relief of those to whom it ministers. In the name of Christianity we say to philanthropy, art, law and education to stand aside. You all failed to supply the wants of the human family. Stand aside and give place to something else. What shall it be? Let us ask the Divine Master from the skies what His theme is. He tells us the thing is in the heart. That is the greatest of all. It outweighs the conscience, the affection, the will. Jesus did not come as a scholar, a statesman or a philanthropist. His home is the right one. The things He did not do are as marvelous as the things which He did. He did not come to better the temporal conditions of men, but He wrought miracles, gave sight to the blind, raised the dead; He spake to the winds, and they, like children, went to sleep; touched nature and it obeyed. He did not come as a schoolmaster, though ignorance prevailed then as now. He might have surpassed all the inventors. His ear might have heard the telephone, His eye might have seen the telegraph, His feet have stood on the majestic steamer, but He did not come for that purpose; He came to save men. Social evils existed before him in Jerusalem, but He issued no proclamation against them. His method was, sin no more, do right. He did not organize societies, midnight missions or a republic; men could do this work. Neither did he form a temperance society, but wrote all over the face of the skies, no drunkard shall enter the kingdom of heaven. That is prohibition enough for me. I believe in total annihilation of the infernal stuff. It is true, that while Jesus did not come to improve the temporal conditions of men, good naturally flowed from every act of his life to all conditions of humanity. While He did not come as a teacher, He put in the hand of every man a book giving him a knowledge of his creation and creator, of his life, his character and his destiny. Precious book! More precious than the beaded bubbles that sparkle on the rippling waves of immortality. More precious than the diamond dust that sparkles behind the chariot wheels of the Most High. That book declares the brotherhood of men and urges the principles of justice. Jesus did not issue a proclamation of emancipation, but nearly two thousand years later He appeared in the hearts of men and slavery was abolished. No man ever appeared on earth who was a stronger defender of woman than was Jesus. In His day woman was but a thing, but He took her up, made her a disciple and she preached His resurrection. The relation of woman to Christianity is a problem for little minds to discuss. Is she an individual? If so, what are the rights of an individual? I do not wonder that there are more women in the church than men. If two-thirds of the church members are women what will two-thirds of the population of heaven be? And what will two-thirds of the population of hell be? Grant was a man of peace; as his friend and pastor I was intimately acquainted with him. As we sat by the bedside he often told me of his dream in his cottage, the central thought of which was: "In this country we have a supreme court. So the time will come when there will be a supreme court of the world, be-here which all nations shall appear for justice. The question that concerns me most is, what will my condition be? Jesus came to seek and to save that which was lost. That is my text. Where are the lost? Who are the lost? Are they the heathen of India? All who do not know Christ as a personal Saviour are lost, whether they be in America or distant lands.

STEPS are now being taken by the Trustees to open up Mechanical Shops this fall, so that hereafter this institution expects to offer to ambitious young men, not only advantages for a good English education and advanced agricultural knowledge, but also the opportunity for acquiring mechanical skill as well. Good board may be had for $5.00 per month in advance. By work on the farm and at the carpenter's trade, students may earn a part of their expenses. The reading room, library, Y. M. C. A., and E. C. A., and Literary Societies, all afford excellent supplementary advantages to the earnest student. The place is beautiful and healthful, and the neighborhood quiet. The fall term begins Sept. 17. A number of young men wishing to enter during December, January, February and March, for the last four years, have been unable to do so because all dormitories were then full. Hence those intending to come should be on hand early in the term. Write for catalogues to the President, J. H. BURRUS, Rodney, Miss.

John Qualls, P. C.

Prof. J. C. Burton, a member of Zion's Chapel M. E. Church, on the McCool circuit, Miss., departed this life in full triumph of faith July 19. Bro. Burton was a useful young man to his race. He taught public school in the county of Choctaw for ten years, and was Sunday school superintendent at Zion's Chapel for several years. He leaves a widowed mother, three brothers, one sister, and a host of friends. The funeral was attended by the writer, assisted by Rev. D. M. Corke, of the Baptist Church. F. G. Wilbon, P. C.

West Point, Texas.—Sister Mollie Moore departed this life July 20, in full triumph of faith. She leaves a husband and seven children. Wm. Reed, P. C.

Vicksburg, Miss.—Bro. James Green departed this life July 9. Bro. Green was a class leader and a dutiful member. He died in full triumph of faith, leaving a father, five brothers, three sisters and a host of friends. C. H. Johnson, P. C.

Eola, La.—July 19, Sister Lettie Moore, a faithful member of Eola M. E. Church for 25 years, departed this life at the age of 55. Her last words were, "Glory and honor to Jesus, and come let us go with Jesus." She leaves a mother and five sons to mourn her loss. They are all members of our church. Sister Moore was a mother in Israel. Her funeral was conducted by her pastor, assisted by Rev. E. Harrison of Arkansas. A. H. Banks, P. C.

Nuhugh, Ala.—Philip McMorris, of Rockford circuit, Ala., departed this life June 27. He had been a member of the M. E. Church about thirty years, and a local preacher about 12 years. He leaves a wife and one son to mourn his loss.

He was loved by all who knew him. In his departing he said that he was just waiting for the call of Jesus. He died in full triumph of faith. He was a faithful class leader. E. B. Smith, P. C. [Rec'd July 28.—Ed.]

Mary McKinney, wife of Rev. M. M. McKinney, has passed to her final reward. She was born March 6, 1890, in Montgomery county, Miss., and died June 29, 1891. She and Rev. M. M. McKinney were married March, 1879. Sister McKinney was baptized and received into the M. E. Church the same year, on the Grenada circuit, Mississippi Conference, under the pastorate of Rev. Thos. Burton, who has long since gone to his reward. Afterwards Bro. McKinney, with his wife, moved to Kansas, and there they joined the Kansas Conference. In 1883, they were transferred by Bishop Foss, from the Kansas to the Central Alabama Conference. For over 11 years she was the faithful Christian wife and helper of a Methodist minister. Sister McKinney was a devoted mother. In the struggles of death Sister McKinney was privileged to say to those in the room with her: "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for the Lord is my shepherd. His rod and His staff—they comfort me." With these comforting words, she slept away in the arms of Jesus. To mourn her loss, she leaves three little children and a husband. Those who knew Sister McKinney only know her to love her. Peace to her ashes. J. S. Todd, P. C., Huntsville, Ala.

Huntsville, Tex.—Mr. B. Holmes, of Shreveport, La., father of William Holmes, of that place, died July 14. He came here from Palestine, Texas, last February. He was 70 years old and the father of two children, William and Bessie. These he had not seen in 12 years. His son arrived just in time to see him die, but was too late to make himself known. Bro. B. Holmes was converted in our church a short while after he came here. He has some property here which his son will take charge of. W. L. Duncan, P. C.

Hond City, Texas.—Bro. John F. Clark, a member of the M. E. Church, departed this life June 7. He called his son to his bed and said, "I want you to know I am alright." He joined the church in the year 1845. Age, 73 years. He leaves three sons and grand-children. W. H. Mosely, P. C.

Boyce, La.—Bro. Henry Jordan departed this life July 13, aged 35 years. He was a member of our church. He lived a Christian. He leaves a mother, five brothers and one sister.

Mr. John Johnson departed this life June 25. He was a sinner when taken sick, but professed religion on his death bed. Age, 39 years, 11 months, 15 days. He leaves a wife, six children, father, mother, three brothers and four sisters. P. C. Colton; P. C.

Schools and Colleges.

Carpentry and Industrial Department of, Philander Smith College, Little Rock Arkansas.

The fact that industrial schools where trades can be learned while the student gets an education, are good and highly beneficial is settled in the mind of everybody. For

The people at the World's Dispensary of Buffalo, N. Y., have a stock-taking time once a year and what do you think they do? Count the number of bottles that've been returned by the men and women who say that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery or Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription didn't do what they said it would do.

And how many do you think they have to count. One in ten? Not one in five hundred!

Here are two remedies—one the Golden Medical Discovery, for regulating and invigorating the liver and purifying the blood; the other, the hope of weakly womanhood, and they've been sold for years, sold by the million bottles; sold under a positive guarantee, and not one in five hundred can say:

"It was not the medicine for me!"

And—is there any reason why you should be the one? And—supposing you are what do you lose? Absolutely nothing!

Do you want to buy a Lamp?

Some folks get cheated in buying a lamp. Nobody ever gets cheated that buys the lamp with this stamp.—"The Rochester." It is not one lamp, it is one burner on 2,000 different kinds of lamps. And a wonderful burner it is indeed!

Insist upon seeing the stamp of the genuine.—"The Rochester," and ask for the written guarantee. If the lamp-dealer has not the genuine Rochester and the style you want, send to us for illustrated price list, and we will send you (boxed) any lamp safely by express.

years such a department has existed in connection with this school. But little has been known of its existence to the outside world. Now we want to bring it before the public and have them see its value, and appreciate its benefits.

Our desire is to make the department self-supporting, and at the same time a source of help as well as instruction to worthy students.

We have a two story 20x50 frame building and in this we want to put suitable tools and an outfit of machinery. By doing this we can better teach the students and make the department self-supporting.

By using city mills we are able to do all kinds of carpentry work. We are prepared to make church furniture, school desks, libraries, book cases, etc., and are making a specialty of manufacturing cabinets for holding groceries which are highly useful articles. These cabinets are made to hold in a small space all the groceries needed in the household, and are proof against mice and insects.

Besides this inside work we have a superintendent appointed for managing work on buildings which we contract for in the city.

By putting in machinery we could save many a dollar on our own work, take in outside work beside and give many students employment enough to work their way through school, who otherwise could not be helped.

It is our desire to so work up the department, as to be able to give 25 or 30 students enough work to do to pay all their expenses, besides at the same time to teach them a trade. In order to do this we must have the machinery, and to get the machinery we need money. For this we are appealing to the friends of the advancement of our people all over the United States. And to you, the readers of this paper we appeal for help. The names of all persons giving will be recorded and kept in the department.

We want agents in every community in this and neighboring states to represent us, and will be glad to send circulars to agents or any one who will act.

Any monies sent will be gratefully received and acknowledged, and person's name recorded and kept in department.

Hoping that we will hear from all sides in response to this, I am yours very truly,

CHAS. W. BULKLEY, Superintendent of carpentry.

There are 280,000 Sunday school teachers in the Methodist Episcopal church.

The catalogue of East University, Holly Springs, Miss., (1890-91) is a model of excellence.

No one can read the Year Book (1890-91) of Gilbert Seminary and Agricultural College, Winsted, La., without entertaining a very high appreciation of the worth and work of that excellent institution. Its present success is due to the tireless and self-sacrificing efforts of the Rev. W. D. Godman, D.D., its very efficient and devoted president, and of Mrs. Godman; their accomplished daughter, Miss Inez, and the first class faculty associated with them. We commend the school to all our people.

Colleges and universities continue to graduate classes that increase in numbers year by year. The following institutions gave diplomas as follows this year: Harvard, 462; Yale, 427; Beloit, Wis., 425; Cornell, Iowa, 29; Northwestern University, 254; Michigan University, 620; Adrian, Mich., 29; Amherst, 76; Illinois University, 91; Ohio Wesleyan University, 91. We have not aimed to make anything like a complete list, but note only the numbers stated in the daily papers that happen to lie within reach. Many other institutions have graduated many more hundreds, while hundreds of excellent and thorough high schools have given deserved diplomas to thousands of young men and women.

We're not waiting for the hats and moles, but for men and women who have eyes and use them, who have brains and reason! There's a new world for them—suffering and sickly as they are—a new world created from the brain of a skillful physician—a discovery—the "Golden Medical Discovery."

Years ago Dr. Pierce found out that the secret of all scrofula, bronchial, throat and lung trouble lay—in the beginning at least—in impure blood and the weak tone of the system; that the way to cure these effects was to remove the cause, that human nature being the same, the same results might be looked for in nearly all cases. So confident was he that the exceptions were uncommon, that he took the risk of giving the medicine to those it didn't benefit for nothing, and the results have proved that he was right.

And "Golden Medical Discovery" is the remedy for the million! The only guaranteed Liver, Blood and Lung remedy. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

HON. T. T. Allain, of Iberville, and other prominent speakers, will address our people at St. Peter M. E. Church, Donaldsonville, La., August 9, educational day. So writes Rev. H. J. Wright, pastor.

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy—Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of its kind which can truly be said to be "One Hundred Doses in One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla in its medicinal merits. Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered."

Peculiar in its "good name at home,"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly.

Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine.

HOEING AND PRAYING.

Said Farmer Jones, in a whining tone,
To his good old neighbor Gray,
"I've worn my knees through to the bone,
But it ain't no use to pray."

"Your corn looks just twice good as mine,
Though you don't pretend to be
A shinin' light in the church to shine,
An' tell salvation's free."

"I've prayed to the Lord a thousand times
For to make that 'ere corn grow;
An' why yourn beats it so an' climbs
I'd give a deal to know."

Said Farmer Gray to his neighbor Jones,
In his quiet and easy way,
"When prayers get mixed with lazy bones
They don't make farmin' pay."

"Your weeds, I notice, are good and
In spite of all your prayers;
You may pray for corn till the heavens fall,
If you don't dig up the tares."

"I mix my prayers with a little toil,
Along in every row;
An' I work this mixture into the soil,
Quite vigorous with a hoe."

"An' I've discovered, though still in sin,
As sure as you are born,
This kind of compost well worked in,
Makes pretty decent corn."

"So while I'm praying I use my hoe,
An' do my little best
To keep down the weeds along each row,
An' the Lord, he does the rest."

"It's well for to pray both night an' morn,
As every farmer knows;
But the place to pray for thrifty corn
Is right between the rows."

"You must use your hands while prayin', though,
If answer you would get.
For prayer-worn knees and a rusty hoe Never raised a big crop yet."

"An' so I believe, my good old friend,
If you mean to win the day,
From plowing, clean to the harvest end,
You must hoe as well as pray."

Care of the Teeth.
It is quite rare to find a person fifty years of age who has a perfect set of teeth, while others lose all of them early in life. It is not yet fully understood why teeth are so liable to decay. Among the causes supposed to produce decay are, excessive use of candy and vinegar, smoking and chewing tobacco and dipping snuff, indigestion, imperfect mastication, hot or cold drinks, general ill health, and last, and probably the most important, lack of care in keeping them clean.

It has been said, that colored people formerly possessed better teeth than the whites, but at the present time, there seems to be but very little difference between them. From childhood the teeth should be frequently and carefully examined, and as soon as a tooth begins to decay it should immediately be filled. After each meal the teeth should be thoroughly cleaned and all particles of food lodged between them carefully removed by a wood, quill or ivory tooth-pick, and they should be washed at least once a day with soft tepid water, using a tooth brush. The frequent use of tooth powders is not to be recommended, as they tend to wear through the enamel and expose the teeth to decay.

A bad smelling breath usually proceeds from nuclear or decayed teeth or unhealthy gums. In addition to care and cleanliness; nothing is more effective in sweetening the breath, than a month-wash composed of a mixture of half a teaspoonful of the tincture of myrrh, in half a glass of water.

Catarrh Cured.

A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease Catarrh, and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found a prescription which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 88 Warren street, New York, will receive the receipt free of charge.

According to recent summaries the total estimated circulation of religious papers published in this country is very near 4,000,000, which would intimate that the papers are seen by at least two or three times that number of readers. The Roman Catholics head the list with 127 papers, having about 750,000 circulation, but the Methodists are close behind them with 147 papers, having about 660,000 circulation. Of nondenominational religious papers, it is reported that there are now thirty-nine with 265,000 subscribers.

Our Symposium.

When a man is converted and joins a church he takes upon himself voluntarily certain vows, and assumes certain obligations and subscribes to the doctrines and practices of that church. He has no right to come in with mental reservations or upon conditions, and would not be received into the fellowship of any church if such were expressed when he applied for admission. If a man is not in harmony with the church to which he gave allegiance, he should not grumble about it, and complain that he does not agree with this or that practice, but he ought to pursue the manly and honest course of joining some church with which he is in harmony. This is consistent and we have no patience with these milk and cider christians who remain in a church, enjoy its privileges and then constantly find fault with its doctrines and practices.—American Baptist.

The colored ladies in the vicinity of Tunica, have organized and the line between the good and the bad is being closely drawn. If some men and women continue to disgrace themselves let us see to it that the whole race is not carried down on a level with them. The colored woman who drinks whiskey and many do it, is not only paving the way to her own ruin but for the ruin and disgrace of others. Let the bad habit be discontinued. The colored man who offers a lady a drink is doing much toward the moral degradation of his race.

Colored men must have more respect for their wives. We are informed that many men think it perfectly right to whip their wives when they do not do to suit them. This, too, must be stopped, because it is not right.

Another thing, virtue must be protected and respected at all hazards, and until we learn this important lesson we may always expect the same treatment. We sincerely trust that the grand jury of our approaching court will repeat the work of the grand jury of a year ago, which did so much for moral purification.—Tunica, (Miss.) Citizen.

Remember the presiding elder's claim. Too often there is an indifference on the part of the stewards in reference to it. The elder appears but once a quarter, and when absent, there is too great a tendency to forget him. He does his work, and as the pastor, is worthy of his hire. The disciplinary requirement is that "In all cases the presiding elder shall share with the preachers in his district, in proportion to what they have respectively received." It is wrong to pay your pastor in full and fail to pay the elder, and the pastor should see to it that it is not done.—Southern California Christian Advocate.

THE BEST
APERIENT

In modern pharmacy is, undoubtedly, Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Except in extreme cases, physicians have abandoned the use of drastic purgatives, and recommend a milder, but no less effective medicine. The favorite is Ayer's Pills, the superior medicinal virtues of which have been certified to under the official seals of state chemists, as well as by hosts of eminent doctors and pharmacists. No other pill so well supplies the demand of the general public for a safe, certain, and agreeable family medicine.

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever used; and in my judgment no better general remedy was."

Ever Devised

I have used them in my family and caused them to be used among my friends and employees for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge many cases of the following complaints have been completely and permanently cured by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colic. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above.—J. O. Wilson, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas.

For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in excellent health.—Wm. H. DeLaune, Dorset, Ontario.

Our Children's Legion.
For Our Boys and Girls.
BY UNCLE CEPHAS.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am an orphan boy. My adopted father takes the SOUTHWESTERN, and I love to read it. I go to day and Sunday school. Mr. George Cundiff is my teacher, and is loved by all. Our pastor is Rev. D. C. Cook. Your Nephew, JAMES COBBLER.
Alleghany Springs, Va.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am a little girl 8 years old. I am a motherless girl. I am living with my uncle. My aunt and uncle belong to the M. E. Church. My uncle is P. C. I don't belong to the church but I hope to be soon. I never fail to pray every day for God to make me a good girl. I go to Sunday school every Sunday. We are having a good Sunday school. Your Niece,
MARY DORA RICHARDSON.
Howell's Cross Roads, Ala.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am a little boy 14 years of age. I am going to school every day. I have a good teacher, Mr. F. M. Williams. My studies are fourth reader, speller, grammar, arithmetic and geography. I am a member of the M. E. Church. Rev. L. H. Barnett is my pastor, and also my papa. We are carrying on a protracted meeting. Father takes the SOUTHWESTERN. It is a good paper. I love to read it. Your Nephew, EDDIE BARNETT.
Hearne, Tex.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I attend Sunday school. My mama takes the SOUTHWESTERN. I am not a member of the church, but that is my desire. I hope the church will pray for me. Rev. N. J. Johnson is our pastor; he is a good man. I believe he is a man of God. We had a nice time on Children's Day. We held a protracted meeting two weeks. Your Nephew,
W. E. FRAKE.
Clinton, La.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am 14 years old, and a member of the church, and also a teacher in the Sunday school. My class is the Bible class. My mother and father are members of the church. My pastor is the Rev. D. M. Seals, and he is loved by all. The SOUTHWESTERN will be a visitor in the near future. Oh how I love to read it. And for the cause, papa says he will subscribe for it. Your Niece, CLARA E. BANKS.
Clinton, La.

Books and Current Literature.

What's the Use of Going to Church? This is the title of one of the most telling pamphlets on non-church attendance. It is written by the Rev. Dr. Holland, of St. Louis, and is in his best vein—clear, crisp, and very striking. Read it yourself and scatter a few among friends. It will do good wherever read.

Hon. Carroll D. Wright will discuss the Value of Statistics in the August Popular Science Monthly, explaining how tables of figures should be used, and showing how they are sometimes made to give false evidence. In his article entitled From Feticus to Hygiene, Dr. Andrew D. White presents a terrible picture of the ravages of epidemics in the times when prayers and processions were the only means relied upon to check them. A series of illustrated articles on Dress and Adornment will be begun by Prof. Frederick Starr. The first paper is on Deformations, and describes the cutting, painting, the teeth, flattening the skull, etc., which are customary among certain peoples. And two installments of Gladstone's discussion with Huxley over Christ's sending the devils into the herd of swine. The title of Mr. Gladstone's paper is Professor Huxley and the Swiss Miracle, and that of the rejoinder is Illustrations of Mr. Gladstone's Controversial Method.

An Unprecedented Offer!
We have made arrangements with the Chicago Manufacturing Company to supply one of their first-class Singer machines for only $14 cash. We will order a machine like the cut here shown, and send the SOUTHWESTERN a full year besides! It is a handsome oil-polished walnut, of latest design, Gothic cover, with beautiful panels, four end drawers and a swing drawer, nickel-plated, and warranted five years.

Each Machine is furnished with the following equipment: One Foot Hemmer, One Oil Can with Oil, One Gauge, and Screw, One Extra Cheek Spring, One Package of Needles, Five Bobbins, One Tuck, One Foot Ruffler, One Set of Plate Hemmers, four different widths up to seven-eighths of an inch, One Binder and One Thread Cutter. The Improved Tension and Thread Liberator is used on this Machine. The manufacturers offer to refund the money if purchaser is not fully satisfied with the machine.

We receive many letters inquiring about the sewing machine premium, and how to obtain it. In order that all may understand the matter, we state in addition to the announcement, that remittances should be made to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, either by check, money order, or by express, naming the nearest or most convenient freight depot to which it is to be sent. Then we order the factory in Chicago to ship the machine. The company ships it, and receives from the railroad a bill of lading which, with the warranty, is sent to us, and which we send to the subscriber. This bill of lading is good and sufficient evidence that the machine has been forwarded, and holds the railroad company responsible for its safe delivery at the station named as its destination, and in due time, save unavoidable delays. In case of its loss the railroad which caused its loss is responsible, under the laws of the land. If not arriving in due time, show the bill of lading to the station agent and he will look it up. Don't give up the bill of lading, but it may be shown to the railroad agent. All orders are sent the same day as received, and the bill of lading is sent to the subscriber the same day we get it. We started this scheme with a view to helping our patrons, and shall carefully and faithfully carry out our part of the agreement in every case.

Consumption Surely Cured.
To the Editor:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for consumption. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send you bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. Address. Respectfully,
T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St. N. Y.

For Over Fifty Years.
Mrs. WINDLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used for over FIFTY YEARS by MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE TEething, with PERFECT SUCCESS. IT ALLAYS ALL PAIN, CURES WIND COLIC, and is the best remedy for DIARRHOEA. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Windlow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Beware of cheap imitations.

Teachers desiring schools to teach; and communities in need of teachers can find no better means of securing what they want than by advertising their wants through the SOUTHWESTERN. Forty thousand people read our paper every week. Write for terms.

I HAVE not used all of one bottle yet. I suffered from catarrh for 12 years, experiencing the nauseating dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease, and nose bleed almost daily. I tried various remedies without benefit until last April when I saw Elys Cream Balm advertised in the Boston Budget. I procured a bottle, and since the first day's use have had no more bleeding. D. O. Davidson, with the Boston Budget, formerly with the Boston Journal.

A LIFE SAVED!

READ THE TWO STATEMENTS.

An Extraordinary Case!

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Nov. 22, 1890.

Last April I was attacked with Chagras Fever in Spanish Honduras and was given up to die by two physicians. During that spell and since I have used a pound of quinine and quantities of other medicines without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered much agony. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Royal Gelmeter. I have had no fever since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind. Am gaining strength very fast. Can walk miles at a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Gelmeter has been a God-send to me. I can not say too much in its praise. Any who wish to do so may call on me.

DANIEL PAPFON, 451 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1, 1891.

My improvement continued, and soon after writing the above statement I was able to go to work and have been working ever since. My health is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony gladly, because I know that Gelmeter saved my life.

DANIEL PAPFON.

Chagras Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Gelmeter has been tried on a number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It has a similar record as a remedy for Swamp Fever and Malarial troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quickest and most infallible remedy for Fevers of all kinds, Dyspepsia, Debility, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidences from thousands of the best people in the country, and the evidences multiply in our midst every day.

For sale by druggists and country merchants, and at the Gelmeter office, 202 Canal street, New Orleans. For full information, circulars, etc., call on or address Kit Williams, Agent, 202 Canal street. $1 bottle; six bottles for $5.

SECOND QUARTER—Studies in the Gospel of St. John, Lesson VI. Christ's Authority. John 5. 17-30. Commit to memory verses 24-27. Aug 9, 1891. A. D. 28.

HOME READINGS.

M. John 5. 17-23. Tu. John 5. 24-30. W. John 5. 31-39. Th. Dan. 7. 9-14. F. Luke 10. 17-24. S. John 10. 22-30. S. Heb. 1. 1-9.

GOLDEN TEXT.

All power is given unto me in heaven and earth. (Matt. 28. 18.)

LESSON HYMN, C. M.

Thine arm, O Lord, in days of old Was strong to heal and save; It triumphed o'er disease and death, O'er darkness and the grave; To thee they went, the blind the dumb, The palsied and the lame, The leper with his tainted life, The sick with fevered frame.

Be thou our great Deliverer still, Thou Lord of life and death; Restore and quicken, soothe and bless With thine almighty breath. To hands that work, and eyes that see, Give wisdom's heavenly lore, That whole and sick, and weak and strong, May praise thee evermore.

Time—Probably A. D. 28. Place—The pool of Bethesda in Jerusalem.

Rulers—Herod in Galilee; Pilate in Jerusalem.

Connecting links—Jesus had cured an impotent man who had been laid at the pool of Bethesda, waiting for the angel whom the superstitions of the country expected to come down and touch the pool with healing properties. The miracle had been formed on the Sabbath day, and the Jews complained of this. Jesus in reply claimed that he was equal with God.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY

1. Power Given to Christ, v. 17-23.

What is said here about work and workers?

Who sought to kill Jesus?

What two reasons are given for their hatred?

What did Jesus say about the Father and the Son?

What about the Father's love?

What about power to raise the dead?

To whom has the Father committed judgment?

Why has he given the Son this power?

How much power is given to Christ? (Golden Text)

2. Life Through Christ, v. 24-30.

What believer has everlasting life?

Through what change has he passed?

Whose life-giving voice will the dead hear?

Who alone has life in himself?

What authority has been given to the Son?

Who will yet hear his voice?

What result will follow?

What two destinies await the dead?

Why will the judgment of Christ be just?

Who will be judged by him? (Rom. 14. 10-12; 2 Cor. 5. 10.)

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.

Where in this lesson are we taught:

1. That Jesus is the Son of God?

2. That the dead will be raised?

3. That Jesus will judge the world?

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG BELIEVERS.

Find what Jesus said the Sabbath was made for.

Find a chapter in which St. Paul tells about the resurrection.

Read an account of the coming forth of Jesus from the grave.

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

[For the entire school.]

1. Why did the Jews seek to kill Jesus? Because he claimed to be equal with God.

2. What did Jesus say he would do to dead souls? He would bring them to life.

3. To whom has God committed the judgment of the world? To his Son.

4. Who shall hear the voice of Jesus and come forth to life? All that are in the tombs.

5. What does Jesus say concerning himself? (Golden Text) "All power is given," etc.

EXPLANATIONS.

My Father worketh—The Sabbath was originally instituted as a memorial of the rest of God after his "six days" of labor in the creation of the world. Nevertheless, as Jesus here shows, God works during this period of rest; the activity of nature; the changes of the seasons, the movements of the sun, the springing of the green things from the ground, all are simply the working out of God's will during that long Sabbath of years which follows his actual work of creation. "To kill him"—"This seeking to kill is a blood-red thread which runs through the whole of this section of the Gospel."

What he seeth—The Son of God living on earth in perfect Harmony with the Power above. The Son quickeneth whom he will—Jesus gives new spiritual life to all souls who seek him, as really a renewal of life as is the resurrection. The hour cometh—This passage refers to the literal resurrection of the dead.

Doctrinal Suggestion—The final judgment.

THE CHURCH CATECHISM.

78. What is the only sufficient rule of a Christian's faith and practice? The word of God, as contained in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments.

79. How shall we use the Scriptures? We should seriously and diligently study God's holy word with prayer, that we may understand, believe, and practice the same. (John 5. 39.)

"Don't Care to Eat"

It is with the greatest confidence that Hood's Sarsaparilla is recommended for loss of appetite, indigestion, sick headache and similar troubles. This medicine gently tones the stomach, assists digestion, and makes one "real hungry."

Persons in delicate health, after taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a few days, find themselves longing for and eating the plainest food with unexpected relish.

Neuragic Persons

And those troubled with nervousness resulting from care or overwork will be relieved by taking Brown's Iron Bitters. Genuine has trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper.

Editorial Notes.

Above is God, come joy or ill.
Come life or death, come want and woe.

Changeless his love exists, and still Boundless his great compassions flow.
O people, by his mercy crowned,
Through thy full lives his praises sound.
His ears are open to the softest cry.
His grace descends to meet the lifted eye;
He reads the language of a silent tear,
And sighs an incense from a heart sincere.

—Mrs. Barbauld.

We take pleasure in giving to our readers the excellent address of Mr. J. M. May, one of the senior class students in the New Orleans University, Medical School, published in another column.

You can make money during vacation canvassing for the SOUTHWESTERN, "The House of Bondage," and "The Colored Man in the M. E. Church." Write for terms to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, New Orleans, La.

THE appointment of Rev. M. C. B. Mason, as Field Agent of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society is universally regarded as the first fruit of many good things that are yet to be harvested from the late Presiding Elder's Convention.

REV. T. J. JOHNSON, St. Paul Church, Shreveport, La., in a note condemning the recent preachers' convention, called to meet at Baton Rouge, says: "A preacher ought to stay in his church and not be calling a convention. I hope to see the time when Methodists will fill Methodist pulpits and pastor Methodist people."

R. J. CROMWELL, president, and F. L. Lister, secretary, have issued a call to the colored people of Texas, interested in the cause of emigration from that to some other State or Territory, to meet in convention at Marshall, Texas, on Thursday, Aug. 27, at 11 a. m. Every society in the State interested in the cause is requested to send delegates.

THE Iberville (La.) Pilot is evidently on the fence in reference to the lottery amendment. Brothers Jones and Rogers should come down from off the fence, and as reliable and safe pilots guide their people into the channel of morality and not dodge around the lottery question. The simple question is, are we in for the perpetuation of this monstrous gambling infamy for another quarter of a century or are we against it? Our emphatic exhortation to our people is to demolish the swindling concern.

Moral and Religious Training in Schools.

BY J. M. MAY.

Delivered before the South Mississippi Colored Teachers' Association at Brookhaven, Miss.

Friends and Fellow Teachers: I cannot find words enough to express my great desire to say something for the encouragement of the teachers who have the youths of our land to instruct.

The more I think of how much the posterity of the future generation depends upon the manner in which they are now instructed the more I feel the sense of the responsibility for the moral and religious training upon the part of the teacher.

We have a system of public education. This demands of us to teach only a particular course of study, but our duty to humanity demands that we shall give them such training as shall make them better citizens, more patriotic, good husbands and better wives, more conscientious workers in every calling. As teachers we should impress upon their minds more exalted opinions of the duties they owe to God, to their country, to all the great human brotherhood and to the generations yet unborn.

Fellow teachers, I think the true teachers' mission is to labor "Pro Deo et humanitate," (For God and humanity.) This is of more importance than a system of diagraming or a system of gradation. Were it left to me to depreciate the value of moral and religious training, I would speak in the language of the holy writer: "These things ye ought to have done and not have left the others undone."

If we look at those who have grown up to manhood and womanhood, and who at one time were our pupils, bright, loving and affectionate, that have fallen victims to intemperance, immorality and continually going down to degradation and lowering themselves in the scale of humanity, how can we refrain asking ourselves the question, Did I try to impress them with a knowledge of the duties that would be demanded of them in the future? This is a serious reflection.

Our future citizens depend upon the youths of to-day, and, fellow teachers, I hope that all of the teachers here are Christians and seek aid and inspiration from the angust ruler of all and remain daily at the footstool of "Him who spake as never man spake," and in his teaching find directions for your lives and the responsibilities which are placed upon you as teachers.

We have in our schools many children who have no moral and religious training at home, who never hear a voice lifted up in prayer and no Bible read.

There are many parents and guardians who think they have done their duty when they have provided their children with clothes and food, and who never think of the thirst of the mind of the young immortals. Now if we neglect to prepare spiritual and mental food for the minds of these dear ones entrusted to our care, they will inevitably become dwarfed and never attain the glorious height that is possible for them to attain.

It has been advocated that parents, Sunday school teachers and preachers should do the work of the moral training of the youth of the land, but this duty should not be left altogether to them, for we have in our charge the forming matter of which the future farmers, legislators, judges, governors, lawyers, physicians, college professors, etc., are to be made, and it is no irresponsible position.

Now, can we not as teachers aid those who are so unfortunate as to not have proper home training, which is absolutely necessary to enable them to act their part upon the great stage of life and to help them to be able to shun the pitfalls and temptations that waits them.

I don't think a true teacher can feel that he has accomplished his work when he has merely taught his pupils to read, write, cipher, diagram and the events of his country's history. Has he not made a failure when he has not endeavored to build up character and instill into the minds of the pupils right principles and a love of purity and virtue?

Dear teachers, our schools are certainly a failure if, instead of sending out from her walls earnest and thoughtful young men and women, who are ready to take their places in the great working day world, who will work to elevate the race, build happy homes, exert themselves to promote the cause of religion, temperance, patriotism and education, it turns out upon the world young men whose loftiest aspirations are to dress stylishly, drink liquor, smoke fine cigars and to shine and indulge in flirtations, or young ladies who disregard their old fashioned fathers and mothers, and whose sole pursuit is to dress and catch rich husbands, who they think will keep them from labor.

One glorious thought. There are among our race many young men and women who are worthy of note, but 'tis sad to remember the many frivolous and useless, who seem to be without the thought of life and its manifold duties. These, of course, will, after a period of variety, fall into insignificance—the men to become drunkards and the women to become fretful, peevish and discontented wives and mothers, with no knowledge to beautify and brighten their homes or to lead their unfortunate offspring.

Fellow laborers, are we fitting ourselves for the work to which we are called? It is the duty of every true teacher to obtain all necessary information in leading the power, forming the foundations and raising the intellects and souls of these future citizens.

It is ours to win by love and kindness their allegiance to virtue and higher, nobler and purer things.

There may be occasions when we must resort to corporal punishment. This is seldom; only when the children lack a proper parental training. But we should not abuse this privilege. 'Tis so much better to have our pupils obey from a love of right than from a fear of being punished.

In conclusion, dear teachers, I can think of no more appropriate words than a clipping from the poet Butler:

Life is before! From the fated road
You cannot turn; then take ye up the load.
Not yours to tread or leave the unknown way;
Ye must go over it, meet ye what ye may.
Gird up your soul within you to the deed,
Angels and fellow spirits bid you speed

Three Things.

Three things to do—live, think and act.

Three things to govern—your temper, tongue and conduct.

Three things to cherish—virtue, goodness and wisdom.

Three things to love—courage, gentleness and affection.

Three things to contract for—honor, country and friend.

Three things to hate—arrogance, ingratitude and

Three things to teach—truth, industry and contentment.

Three things to admire—intellect, dignity and gracefulness.

Three things to delight in—beauty, frankness and freedom.

Three things to avoid—idleness, loquacity and flippant jesting.

Three things to wish for—health, friends and a contented spirit.

Three things to cultivate—good looks, good friends and good humor.

Three things to think about in relation to SOUTHWESTERN—It is an undertaking of our church, of which we are a part, and should it fail we fail.

Three things to notice in the last issue of the SOUTHWESTERN—500 new subscribers this week can be reached by each pastor sending in three and the oash with names. Herewith I send my three.

Christian Reflections.

A. M. MCRAE.

This day I consider myself as entering upon a new year, and I have covenanted afresh with my God.

This is the first day, first week and the first month of 1891. Who shall see the last day? It is more than you and I can tell. Thon, O Lord, knowest all my wants. I feel I am weaker than a brisned reed, and if thou leavest me but a moment I must perish and sink and die. But though I am all weakness thou art all strength. Then, O my God, help me, by faith's strong arm, to lay hold on thee. I know thy promises are firmer than the pillars of heaven, and thou hast said: "I will never leave nor forsake thee." This, Lord, is enough. In thy might will I go forward.

"Though nature's strength decay,
And earth and hell withstand,
To Canaan's bounds I urge my way,
At thy command.

This morning, while meditating on the words, "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulations?" What an increase of faith did I feel!

This is one of the great and precious promises which are given to us that we may be made partakers of the divine nature. O how sweet and delightful to my soul are these words, "The divine nature!" This is what man lost when Adam fell. But, glory be to God, what I lost, and more than what I lost in Adam, is purchased for me again by the precious blood of Christ, for "Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound." So that it clearly appears to me that if we are not wanting to ourselves, we shall in the end, through the superabounding grace of Christ, be gainers by the fall. When God's children get to heaven they will sing a note which angels can not. These cannot sing, "Unto him that loved us and washed us from our sins in his own blood." But this will be the theme of redeemed sinners to all eternity.

"O may I bear some humble part In that immortal song."

Aim High.

MRS. ELIZA BEAMAN.

Dear Reader: As you readily perceive, my subject is one of a stimulating character and one calculated to arouse the noblest desires and ambitions of the soul. Too many of us are willing to fold our hands in shameful idleness, content to remain little and unknown, merely writing our names in the dust, while only an envious few will ever climb the ladder of fame or brighten the annals of history by their grand achievement. To day the grandest and noblest possibilities are booming up before our mental vision. Our opportunities are widening, all of the avenues of learning have thrown open their doors to us and invite us to enter and partake of the rich things of the feast. Then, old men, young men, old ladies and maidens, why stand ye all the day idle? We must arouse our latent energies, call out our best powers, get upon a higher plane of morality, intelligence and religion. Righteousness exalteth a nation, sin and ignorance are a reproach to any people. The day of our redemption from the darkness of ignorance, superstition, deceit and jealousy draweth nigh. Lift up your eyes on high and behold the illuminating rays of truth penetrating the mental and moral darkness that envelops and then take courage. No one ever amounted to anything whose aim was not higher than his or her attainments. Remember that "Lives of great men all remind us,

We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footsteps on the sands of Time."

Let us, then, be up and doing, with a heart for every fate, and, thanking God for all past favors, let us look hopefully and earnestly towards the future and go forward with unfaltering step and steady hands, doing without murmuring or complaining whatever in the way of good works lie before us, resting assured that we shall have continually the encouragement, help and blessing of him who said "Lo, I am with you always."

Benjamin Bannaker.

BY J. WESLEY PIERCE.

We have had some of the leading men of this republic as our best friends, and the colored men have contributed of their hard-earned dimes to place monuments to the memory of these same great men. But has not the time come when we should see to it that our children should read the history of the Negro race in all our public places of learning, that they may thus have an opportunity of diving into the records of their own people?

How many of our school boys know anything of Benjamin Bannaker, the great Afro-American astronomer? This extraordinary man did more in his day to remove the doubts which are entertained in regard to the capacity of the Negro for great intellectual achievement than any other man of his race.

His letter to Thomas Jefferson, accompanied by a manuscript of his first almanac, will live in the archives of this nation. In 1792, in the early days of the republic, he carved with his pocketknife a clock that kept good time for thirty years. He assisted in the survey of the District of Columbia, and in 1790 published the almanac, which was used throughout the country.

Feeling a desire that the memory of Benjamin Bannaker should be kept green, I hope our people will petition Congress to aid in the erection of a monument to his memory in the city which he helped to survey—Washington, the capital of the republic.

THE Ohio Legislature has made it a misdemeanor for a minor to enter a saloon. This is a good law. It should be enacted in all the States where the nefarious business is licensed. If we could keep the boys from entering the saloons their doom would be sealed. There are very few that become drunkards after twenty-one years of age.

City Church Notes.

NEW ORLEANS, July 31, '91.

To the Editor of the Southwestern:—
Dear Sir—The following notice appeared in your issue of the 30th inst:

"The committee on the Old Folks' Home, from First Street M. E. Church, has been discharged. The stewards will hereafter take up the money for that cause and turn it over to the Old Folks' Home treasurer. T. G. Montgomery, P. O."

We desire to inform the public that the committee was discharged without cause or provocation, and without any notification. We can assign no cause for our removal, except that we were endeavoring to discharge our duties as faithful workers, and we were envied by our enemies.

Respectfully,

MRS. C. FIELDS,
MRS. H. CLARKE,
MRS. A. J. GREEN.

A Sunday School Teachers' meeting is held at 7:30 every Friday evening at Mallalien Chapel. All superintendents and teachers are cordially invited to participate. Miss E. M. Williamson, Superintendent.

Church Polity.

Q. What is your opinion of Peter Cartwright and his autobiography?

A. Peter Cartwright was a strong man intellectually, without culture, raised up among a peculiar people in a peculiar age. For those differently trained to copy him would sometimes be blasphemy and sacrilege. He was what he was; his motives were believed to be pure; his general religious character consistent. His autobiography is instructive as well as amusing. He enjoyed the confidence of the church to the last, which elected him to thirteen general conferences.—Christian Advocate.

DR. E. A. DURHAM, of Calvert, Texas, has sent us a very interesting account of his successful operation in a case of strangulated inguinal hernia there recently. He was assisted by Drs. D. Parker and E. Gibson. He had succeeded in reducing it by taxis several times before, but failing this time he applied ice-bags, swung the patient up by the heels, worked hard to reduce it, but again failed. Finally the operation was successfully performed, the patient being placed under the influence of chloroform and every precaution being taken to arrest all hemorrhages. No bad results followed and the patient is now as well as ever. The case is considered a remarkably successful one. Dr. Durham, we understand, is a graduate of Meharry Medical College.

Schools and Colleges.

William Stewart, a blind law student, heads the list in the results of the final examination in connection with the Ontario law school.

A Japanese student, in describing Harvard College, said it was a very large building where boys play foot-ball, and read books on rainy days.

Ninety-four American colleges received in gifts the past year nearly $4,000,000, while at the present moment the total of their endowment is over $50,000,000.

Letters from the Districts.

Forrest City District, Little Rock Conference.

W. E. R. DUNCAN.

Our second round closed successfully this week. Our pastors are now in the midst of revivals, and souls are being converted. We hope before the revival season is over (if such there be) sinners by the scores will be converted. Signs ahead seem to brighten. Push your claims, brethren, the worthy ones only are promoted.

Appeal for Help.

To the Methodist Episcopal ministers of Mississippi and their congregations:

Our new church edifice at Natchez will be completed by August 15. We appeal to you for a collection, as we must raise $300 on or by that date to be able to meet our contract. Don't wait, but help us at once.

Entrance day is the third Sunday in August. Send your collection to Rev. Samuel A. Cowan, Presiding Elder, Vicksburg, Miss., and he will give you receipts for the same. Yours,

M. C. BUNNINGTON, P. C.
SAM'L A. COWAN, P. E.

Indianapolis, Ind.

W. S. ROLLINS, P. E.

Rev. B. J. Davis, pastor M. E. Church, Anderson, Ind., Indiana District, Lexington Conference, has raised every cent of his benevolent money, and has paid it into the Book Concern and has his vouchers in hand. He leads the district.

The Navasota District (Texas) Sunday School Institute, and the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the district, met in joint session at Hempstead, Texas, July 23. The program was rich and varied, and elicited considerable interest. Presiding Elder W. H. Logan presided. O. H. Lavender, secretary. There were 44 delegates present. The address of welcome was by Rev. C. C. Minnegan.

Among those taking part in the exercises were: Misses M. C. Minor, Laura Austin, Alice Hunter, Lillie Dandridge, M. V. Burgess; Mrs. M. A. Johnson, N. Jones, T. S. McMorris, A. D. Hougher, Mary Brown, M. McQueen, Lon Tyler; Revs. T. S. McMorris, J. A. Featherstone, J. E. Bryant, C. C. Minnegan, J. A. Tillory, H. W. Wilson, J. Jones, Wm. Josey, E. D. Blackwell, H. C. Watson, S. E. Ewing, Wm. McKenzie, H. R. Smith, M. Reddix, I. Snell, L. D. Thompson, S. M. Thomas, C. H. Lavender, H. S. McMillan, I. B. Scott, D. D.; Mack Henson; Profs. W. H. Browning, O. W. Landry, and Misses Lucy Holland, Baldwin, Pitt, Fifer, Caldwell and Robinson.

It was resolved to organize a State Sunday School Institute. To this end the Presiding Elder of the Texas and West Texas conferences, were requested to plan.

After a very appropriate address by the president and Prof. R. B. Smith, the Institute adjourned, to meet in Bryan, Texas, in 1892, at such time as may be appointed.

C. H. LAVENDER,
Secretary.

South New Orleans District Conference.

Will meet at Thibodeaux, La., August 28, 9 a. m.

The Presiding Elder and all preachers will report on the first day of session, all collections; and all Disciplinary questions must be answered the first day of session.

Introductory sermon will be preached the night of the 27th, by Revs. J. W. Hilton and Allen Luster.

Revs. Reese Thompson and F. D. Bowers on the night of the 28th. Rev. Henry Taylor and T. Larkin will preach the missionary sermon on the night of the 29th.

Revs. L. G. Adkinson, D.D., and Prof. A. B. Camphor, A. B., will address the conference on the work of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society.

Revs. R. C. Barrows and H. O. Williams, Simon Evans, T. G. Montgomery, W. S. Harris, W. J. M. Price, H. A. Sorrell, Joshua Parker, H. J. Wright, Wm. Smith, Sonnell Bell, Charles Monroe, Wesley Turner, D. G. Butler, A. Vincent, J. M. Bryant, E. B. Richards, and J. T. Jordan will prepare papers on some specific topic, to be read. Owing to the shortness of the session, you are expected to be pointed and short.

No report or paper to consume more than five minutes.

Revs. J. C. Hartzell, D.D., A. E. P. Albert, D.D., W. D. Godman, D.D., and Ernest Lyon, A. B., are expected to be present and take part in the deliberations of the Conference.

Sunday, the 30th, there will be a grand District Quarter Centennial Jubilee.

Local preachers, exhorters, district stewards, one class leader, and one superintendent from each charge, are expected to be present.

Bishop W. F. Mallalien, D.D., has been invited to preside.

All Presiding Elders are cordially invited to be with us.

T. G. Montgomery, L. G. Adkinson, H. J. Wright, committee.

Alexandria District.

S. E. H. MORANT.

Ours is the church of the Bible; our brethren, men of God. Surely, Dr. Hartzell has captured the hearts of our brethren in the South, especially the Louisiana Conference, by recommending our worthy Bro. M. C. B. Mason, A. M., B. D., to the Board of Managers of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, for the office of Field Agent. God bless Bro. Mason and give him the success he merits in this grand work.

North New Orleans District Conference.

EMPEROR WILLIAMS, P. E.

The District Conference of the North New Orleans District Conference will be held at Mt. Zion M. E. Church, on Jackson street between Magnolia and Freret, August 27, 1891.

Every minister on the district must have written reports, and hand in their subscriptions in writing as herein prescribed.

Duty of stewards, H. C. Armstrong.

The best way to raise money for benevolent purposes, A. J. Pickett. How to conduct the Sunday school, Frank Walker.

How to advance the Woman's Home Missionary work, W. P. Forrest.

The duties of supplies, A. Martin. Progress of Methodism among the French, Simon Michel.

Duty of Presiding Elder, E. Baptiste.

On the five years' system, Frank Harvey.

The best way to conduct a Christian revival, S. Davage.

The value of the SOUTHWESTERN, P. P. Robinson.

Justification by faith, H. Wilson. Petition and promise in the Lord's prayer, D. J. Price.

Missionary sermon, Alex. Connerly.

All local preachers must have written reports. Failing to appear for examination, their licenses will not be renewed. Pastors will give each local preacher a subject to present to the district conference.

Distinguished visitors will be in attendance, as follows: Drs. J. C. Hartzell, A. E. P. Albert, L. G. Adkinson, E. Lyon and others.

Every pastor must bring his Freedmen's Aid money and report the same.

Orangeburg District Conference.

J. L. GRICE.

The fourth session of the Orangeburg district conference convened July 23, at Mt. Zion M. E. Church, Jamison, S. C., Rev. E. C. Brown, A. M., Presiding Elder of the Orangeburg district, presided.

There are 291 members on the district and nearly all were present.

T. J. Clark, of the Jamison circuit, was elected secretary; V. S. Johnson and J. B. Thomas, assistants.

The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. T. J. Clarke, pastor Mt. Zion Church. Rev. A. G. Kennedy, of the Orangeburg circuit, made the response. The two addresses were excellent in production, and exhibited many good thoughts.

Short addresses were also made by several other ministers and delegates of the conference.

The Presiding Elder gave an excellent outline of the work of his district.

An essay, "The Call of Abraham," was read by J. K. Lockwood. The essay was very good.

Reports of the pastors showed great spiritual and financial growth.

LITERARY EXERCISES.

The two Sauls of the Bible, A. G. Kennedy.

The Christian home, N. L. Bower.

They were rich in production and demonstrated high scholarship. Reports from the several officers were good and indicated Christian progress and the steady growth of Methodism among the colored people on the district.

Several local preachers were recommended, after rigid examinations on the entire four years' course of study, for admission into the traveling connection.

Sunday, excellent and impressive sermons were preached by Revs. D. M. Minns, A. M., Presiding Elder, and J. B. Thomas, A. G. Kennedy and J. W. Brown, of the Orangeburg district.

Thus ended one of the most delightful annual sessions of the Orangeburg district, South Carolina Conference.

Our second quarter was a success, being the best ever held on the circuit. Presiding Elder W. F. Smith delivered an excellent sermon. Rev. J. H. Scales, of Talladega, was with us and preached a soul-stirring sermon. Collections for Presiding Elder this quarter $15.12, pastor $40.83; missions $5.02, other collections $56, total $72.58. Methodist is stepping up on this circuit.

H. Williams, P. C., Camden Circuit, Ga.

Our second quarterly meeting was held July 4 and 5, and we had a glorious time. Our beloved Presiding Elder A. P. Melton was with us and preached a soul-stirring sermon to a full house, the Lord's supper was administered to sixty, the writer preached in the afternoon, three joined the church on probation, baptized two, paid the pastor this quarter $75.64, Presiding Elder $17.50 and raised for benevolence $7. The charge is in good condition. Several have promised to take the SOUTHWESTERN. We hope to send them in soon.

S. R. Gibson, Macon, Miss.

Our second quarter conference was held by Rev. W. McDonald, Presiding Elder. We had a grand time. Our reports show the work to be progressing. Collections for Presiding Elder $19.40. Our children's day services were the best ever held here. Collections mission $11. Prof. E. C. Lucas deserves credit for his efforts in making children's day what it should be on this work. Accessions up to date 96.

N. Toole, Heidelberg, Miss.

My second quarterly conference was held July 1. Rev. J. M. Shampert, Presiding Elder, could not be present. The pastor held the quarter. The work is in good condition. Eight have joined the church since the first quarter. Paid the pastor $108.72, Presiding Elder $8, bishop 170. Heidelberg will bring up all of her assessments this year.

H. H. McAllister, Springfield, Mo.

We raised here July 5 $200. Our church here is out of debt and growing every way. The membership is active and large. We have a fine property. We intend to bring up $100 for missions this year.

E. Frazier, Sandy Creek Circuit.

Reports of our recent quarterly conference show the work to be in prosperous condition. Received three in the church and administered the sacrament to forty-six souls. Paid presiding Elder $7.25.

J. S. Foster, Mason, Tenn.

Elder B. F. Anderson has held our third quarterly meeting. We had a pleasant meeting. Elder J. P. Price was here and lectured a few days ago. We enjoyed his lecture. Elder J. B. Bradford was here and preached a good sermon. His wife was also with him and made a short but timely speech. Our Sunday school is getting along well. Prof. G. D. Field, A. B., our Sunday school superintendent, is an energetic young man. We are getting along well with our missionary and collections and church work. I hope to make a good report to the annual conference.

A. Reid, Union Church, Miss.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 27 and 28 by Elder S. A. Cowan. The work is prospering. Quarterly conference collection $15.65, paid to pastor $59.10, benevolent collections $28.24. Sunday morning the Elder preached a rousing sermon. Collection $14.45. Love feast collection $4.

The third quarterly conference of Farmington circuit, Tenn., Rev. W. Ellison, pastor, was held by Rev. J. P. Price, Presiding Elder, June 27. Reports showed that we are moving upward every cause of the church. Dr. J. Braden was with us on the 20th and 21st. He lectured on the origin of the Methodist Episcopal Church and preached an excellent sermon. Collection $30; to pastor $20, to Presiding Elder $10, on church repair $35, benevolent collection $8; grand total $83.

F. G. Wilcox, McCool, Miss.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 27, with Rev. W. McDonald, Presiding Elder, in the chair. Reports showed marked improvement during the quarter. We have bought one acre of land at Ethel, Miss., on which to build a church. We have the parsonage up at McCool and will complete it soon. Received in full membership 12, on probation 7. The Elder preached two good sermons. Paid to Presiding Elder $13.25, pastor $61.40, raised for mission $2, raised for Rust University $5.

N. Cannon, Fayette, Miss.

Our second quarterly conference was held at Harriston Chapel, June 20 and 21, by Elder S. A. Cowan. The circuit is in a prosperous condition. The Elder lectured to the Sunday school. We have four Sunday schools on this charge in a growing condition. We had a glorious love feast. The Elder preached a soul-reviving sermon and administered the Lord's Supper. Collection $21.40; paid Elder $12.50. He is beloved by all.

J. L. Owens, P. C.

Marshall district, under Rev. Wade Hamilton's administration, is progressing nicely. He held our first quarterly conference May 23 and 24, administered the sacrament to 37 members and preached a soul-stirring sermon; six joined the church.

L. Woodard, P. C., Honey Grove, Tex.

July 29 was our rally day. Rev. A. Taylor, of Bonham, was with us and preached a soul-reviving sermon and lectured to a crowded house. Collection $2. Our teacher and secretary, Prof. A. C. Higgs and wife are going away.

N. R. Randolph, Slaughter, La., reports considerable ravages from cotton worms in his section of the State.

G. W. Winn, Talladega Circuit, Ala.

The following willing workers reported from their collection cards $1 each: Julia Shealey, Mollie McKenzie, Mollie Daniels, Allie Burney, Emma Swett, S. O. Daniels, Lula Burney, Mary Murphy and Kate Pickett. Total jubilee offering $10.

A. N. Jackson, Lafayette, Ala.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 27 and 28, Rev. B. Jackson, of Roanoke, presiding. The conference was largely attended and reports showed life and progress. Lumber for repairing the church is being laid on the ground. Presiding Elder Smith arrived on Sunday. The services were well attended and a good time had. Paid Presiding Elder $15, pastor $108, benevolence $30.

J. D. Davidson, Shelbyville, Tenn.

My work at Milltown and Beach Grove, Miss., is doing well. Rev. A. P. Blakemore, of Shelbyville, preached a glorious sermon for me recently. Collection $28. There will be a grand rally at Beach Grove on the 4th Sunday. Brothers Blakemore, Lillard, Reasoner, W. J. Young, Cannon, Eloes and J. P. Price are expected. I love the SOUTHWESTERN. It is a real friend. I expect to get many of my members to take it.

E. B. Richards, Winstead, La.

Our grand rally at Charenton, June 23, resulted in a collection of $42.60. Although only one year old our church has been sined five times, but the Lord has brought us out victoriously and we have covered every debt. We have there 25 members. The church at Winstead has subscribed $400 for a new building. The Lord blessed my family with a fine boy June 29.

R. Hayes, Kosciusko Circuit, Miss.

Presiding Elder McDonald held our second quarterly conference June 30. It was highly profitable in every way. Collection $4.55.

O. G. Curtis, Willis, Tex., writes a rather lengthy communication against what he considers the exorbitant cost of the minutes of his conference, and he criticizes its general make up. The question is of such a nature that it should be discussed upon the floor of the conference and not in our columns; hence our failure to publish it.

Appeal for Help.

Shall we have a church at Rayne, La., or not? If so, let every pastor raise money for that church, let it be little or much. Please send it to Rev. S. E. H. Morant, Alexandria, La., and we will build the church. We need a church there. If we can get the M. E. church up in this place we will certainly get people, but not until we build. Let us all throw in and build. Please let me hear from every charge and friend of M. E. Church. Address A. J. Johnson, pastor, Lafayette, La. Send money to Rev. S. E. H. Morant, Presiding Elder, Alexandria, La. Please help the cause. S. E. H. Morant, Presiding Elder.

A. H. Banks, Eola, La.

Rev. E. Lyon was with us June 26, and his visit to Eola Sunday school was a blessing. He is the man for the Sunday school work.

Rev. E. Harrison, of Helena, Ark., who was reported very sick, is now up again and is able to resume work again in the Louisiana conference.

D. M. Seals, Clinton, La.

Our beloved Presiding Elder, J. F. Marshall, was with us on the night of June 19, and preached for us. We were all glad to see and hear him. The Baton Rouge district has greatly increased spiritually and financially under the management of our beloved Presiding Elder, J. F. Marshall, who is loved by all members, friends and preachers. Therefore the loss of the LaTeche district is the gain of the Baton Rouge district. We pray that the Lord will send many more Marshalls, for he is a God sent man.

T. Larkins, Morgan City, La.

A very pleasant call was made to us on the evening of July 21 by a party of Christian ladies and gentlemen—Mr. A. Harvard, Mrs. E. Bell, Miss L. Sanders and T. Burkes—bringing with them baskets of nice things for the pastor. May God bless them and let them call again.

J. R. Townsend, Mayesville, S. C.

We observed the Quarter-Centennial of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society on the Fifth Sunday in May. It was a highly enjoyable occasion. Rev. I. B. Smith, and J. O. Weston, of the M. E. Church, and Rev. Lomax, of the Baptist Church, were present. One young lady was happily converted at night. Collection, $22.

Ayer's Ague Cure never fails to cure fever and ague and malarial disorders. Warranted.

Children's Day Gleanings.

W. S. Hawthorne, Morgan City, La.

Children's Day was celebrated here July 19, in an imposing manner. The singing, being under the control of Mrs. Dora Liggins, who is an accomplished musician. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon Mrs. Liggins, her brother, Mr. Horace James, and their family for invaluable services rendered. Mr. Peter Burke, a student of the New Orleans University, distinguished himself by making a fitting speech on Christian Education. Rev. T. Larkins and the writer made speeches on education. Bro. Joshua Thomas, the superintendent, is devoted to his office, and in addition to the Sunday school work, is organizing a society to raise money for the Freedmen's Aid Society.

Ed. Powell, Lake Charles, La.

Everybody was delighted. Our Presiding Elder Rev. S. E. H. Morant, was with us and gave us a stirring address. The collection was forwarded to the corresponding secretary, Rev. C. H. Payne, D.D.

P. C. Brown, Cordele, Ga.

Children's Day and Easter Day were each observed. Result, increase in both collections.

C. W. Butler, Bright Prospect Circuit, Ingrams Mill, Miss.

It was a day of long remembrance. Collection, $12.55. The SOUTHWESTERN was not forgotten, one cash subscriber was secured on that day.

A. Butler, Waynesboro, Miss.

We did well. State Line, $2.60, St. Luke, $3.05, Mt. Leva, $1.80. Total collection $7.45.

O. Gillespie, Corinth, Miss.

The program was very nicely prepared for the first time in the history of the Sunday school in this charge. Collection, $4.75.

L. Tate, Lake Como, La.

It was carried out according to the program. Collection, $3.10.

Catarth Cured.

A clergyman, after years of suffering from that loathsome disease Catarth, and vainly trying every known remedy, at last found a prescription which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 88 Warren street, New York, will receive the receipt free of charge.

Official paper for the following Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church: Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas, West Texas, Tennessee, East Tennessee, Little Rock, Central Alabama, Savannah, Florida, North Carolina and South Carolina.

Largest Circulation of any Religious Newspaper in New Orleans.

THURSDAY, AUG. 13, 1891.

THE Southern Christian Recorder will hereafter be published at Atlanta, Ga., and will be a even column paper.

WHY don't you get the boarding houses and different business houses with whom our people trade, to advertise in the SOUTHWESTERN?

FOUR thousand new Methodist churches were built last year and over 3000 persons on an average joined the church every Sunday.

THE American Bible Society has the appliances to print and circulate 3,000,000 copies of the Bible every year if it had the funds to defray the expenses.

A NEW compliment is tickling the ears of Chaplain McCabe. A boy is reported to have said: "If that man would sing in front of a cigar store, the wooden Indian would throw him a dollar for missions."

THE letter of Mrs. Burton in the Lost Friend's column, recording the finding of her sister is very pathetic. It shows the joys created by this paper in bringing long lost friends together. That letter should prompt pastors to read those lost friends letters from their pulpits every Sunday.

The chief end of some folks.—Dr. Cuyler tells the story of a little boy, the son of good Presbyterian parents, who was asked the question in the catechism, "What is man's chief end?" and he answered it, "Man's chief end is to glorify God and annoy him forever." There are too many men, says Dr. Cuyler, who act as if that were their chief end.

THE practice of President Harrison in drinking wine at the receptions tendered him on his recent tour is universally condemned by the religious press. It is a great pity that the President should have shown such a manifest disregard to the temperance sentiment of such a large proportion of the best people of this nation. To the honor of Postmaster-General Wannamaker, it may be written that he uniformly refused the wine glass.

A FRIEND, writing to us, says that "we differ on the woman question." Well, suppose we do? That with us makes no difference whatever as to brotherly esteem or old friendships.—California Christian Advocate.

A good brother, who is an eminent and honored doctor of divinity, seemed to have had an idea we would allow such a difference of opinion to affect our friendly relations, which have existed for a score of years. The idea is absurd.

THE following from the report of the committee in charge of the publication of the St. Louis Advocate is so much in keeping with our own experience, and as this mistake threatens to become a serious interference to the circulation of our conference and church organs, we give it, without the addition of a word, to our readers:

Resolved, that while we recognize the value and importance of the religious press, we deprecate the narrow disposition of many of our people to crowd out of their homes our great religious weeklies and substitute therefor the small pastoral visitors and district papers which are offered to them at the small sum of 25 and 50 cents per annum.

The Texarkana Minstrel Company and the Jefferson Davis Monument Fund.

The sharp criticism which Mrs. A. E. P. Albert administered to the colored minstrel troupe which was announced to give a performance at the opera house in Texarkana, Texas, for the benefit of the Jeff Davis monument fund, has raised a considerable flurry in the troupe, and they have united in a letter in which they seek to exonerate themselves. They claim that they performed for 40 per cent of the proceeds and that 60 per cent went to the contractor, who bore all the expenses and had the bills and programs printed. They say that they "did not like to see Jeff Davis' name on the bills advertising their show, but, of course, the contractor used Jeff Davis' name for his own personal benefit. He may have given a part of his 60 per cent for the use of Jeff Davis' name, but we did not give a cent of our part."

This, to say the least, smells rather suspicious, and makes it appear as if somebody was quite willing to go into partnership, into any kind of co-operation, so long as "our 40 per cent" was not at all diminished. Smooth it over as you will or may, the thing looks worse the more the young troupers seek to explain it. Under the circumstances, we are not at all surprised to learn that "the colored people of Texarkana were raging mad with them," for they profited from the use of Jeff Davis' name equally with the contractor and were accessories to the fact, in that they performed and shared the profits under that representation.

The troupe is composed of Dave Jackson, Will Dyson, Isaac Mingo, James Benson, Cary Daughtry, Scott Soplin, John Adams, Pleasant Jackson and Hugh Garner. Their action dishonors their race and curses the memories of John Brown, Abraham Lincoln, Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Calvin Fairbank and the host of abolitionists that fought and bled that they might enjoy the privilege of organizing such a troupe.

Silly.

A little weakly colored paper in Texas, supported by colored Protestants says:

While that we do not believe in the Catholic creed and mode of worship, yet we do believe in and endorse their broad and liberal doctrine pertaining to church affiliation. The Catholic Church today is the only Christian organization that does not discriminate against the Negro on account of color. This itself is enough to make the Negro admire Catholicism, and induce him to lend a helping hand in propagating such liberal Christianity.

The Roman Catholic Church is as intolerant to the colored people as the most prejudiced Protestant Church in America. It is all nonsense to assert the contrary. Right in this city, where there are more colored Romanists than in any other American city, Negroes cannot rent other than hack pews, and their children commune after the whites are through. Just as they did before the war. The writer's own mother was refused admission, because she refused to confess that slavery was divine, and the North wrong for freeing the Negroes. Rome did not bother herself about the Negro until he had a vote. It is not for him to be caught now like a silly young mouse in the Romish trap, by the stray baits offered by one or two eminent Roman bishops. Fools and ignoramuses may be duped, but in vain is the net set for feet of those who know the church best.

PRESIDENTIAL Elders L. Y. Cox and W. H. Coffey, D.D., of the Delaware Conference, have fully entered into the Spirit of the late Presidential Elder's Convention, and are manfully pushing the SOUTHWESTERN into every charge on their respective districts, as unanimously agreed by the convention. In his rallying appeal to his district Dr. Coffey says:

Let each pastor take the SOUTHWESTERN, and see that every member of his charge takes it. The General Conference has placed us on trial. We go up or down as this paper succeeds or fails. Let us say no more about being leaders of the race or wanting higher positions in the church, if we let this paper fail. If we cannot care for a small thing, how can we care for a larger thing? The interest each pastor takes in this paper shows his love for the advancement of the colored element in the M. E. Church. I shall ask at each conference what has been done for the SOUTHWESTERN and our beloved Bulletin. Let us support these papers; we can do it. Let the old guards push to the front! The Delaware Conference cannot afford to be behind in this matter, and she will not.

The Constitutional Commission.

The Constitutional Commission ordered by the last General Conference met at Ocean Grove, New Jersey, Thursday, July 23, and adjourned at 5 p. m., Wednesday, July 29. Bishop's Merrill, Foss, Nide, and nearly all the other members of the commission were present. Careful consideration was given to the matters referred to the commission and important conclusions were reached, but it was decided that it would be improper to give the results to the public before reporting to the General Conference. Provision was made for the calling of another session if it appears necessary. The commission directed that the report be presented to the next General Conference by the chairman, Bishop Merrill, and the secretary, Dr. J. B. Neely.

OUR neighbor, the New Orleans Christian Advocate, needs an assistant editor, but it can't get the money wherewith to employ one. It says:

"The assistant editor is in sight; but, alas! where is the money to pay him? It is in the pockets of our subscribers, and we can't control it. We are loth to give up the assistant editor, but our subscribers who owe us will compel us to do so, unless they pay up. If we had the $7,000 now due, we would have no trouble; but, as it is, we frequently have to borrow money to run on. Won't our friends help us? All we ask is pay what you owe. We have worked for you, and we have worked hard. Now come to our help; won't you?" This reminds us of the great things we ought to be able to do if we could collect the seven or eight thousand dollars due us by our friends. Suppose all those who owe us make up their minds to pay what they owe us.

It has been stated by the Voice that the constitution of the new Congo Free State, containing a clause forbidding trade in slaves, alcohol and firearms, and which needed the unanimous consent of the eighteen governments concerned, failed because the United States—read it, the United States—Senate did not confirm the said treaty. Of course, we know that our Senate failed, but that seventeen other powers have assented to the treaty which has thus been defeated should be incredible. The trade in rum, gin and whisky between Christian countries and the Congo is a worse visitation than that of epidemic cholera, or the plague or slavery. The Voice says that—

The Bombay Guardian published a few weeks ago a list of spirituous liquors in the cargoes of ships touching at Madeira in a single week on the way to Southern and Western Africa, as follows:

960,000 cases of gin	£240,000
24,000 butts of rum	210,000
30,000 cases of brandy	90,000
28,000 cases of Irish whisky	56,000
800,000 demijohns of rum	240,000
36,000 barrels of rum	72,000
36,000 cases of "Old Tom"	60,000
16,000 barrels of absinthe	48,000
40,000 cases of vermouth	3,000
All this in a single week: 1,088,000 cases, 51,000 barrels, 800,000 demijohns, 24,000 butts of intoxicating liquor, valued at £1,046,000, or about $5,000,000.—Northwestern.

At the last session of the East New York Conference, Bishop Foss, in accordance with the unanimous vote of the conference, appointed Rev. Jay Benson Hamilton, agent of the Conference Endowment Fund. They are now pushing a movement to bring it up from $50,000 to $100,000. Dr. Hamilton has been providentially led to this work and the "Veteran Ministers' Relief Association" has been organized to enable him to serve any Annual Conference without compensation. He proposes to work solely under the direction of and in aid of the Annual Conferences. His plans and suggestions to the church, are simple, practicable and will greatly further this interest.

In the course of his great speech nominating General McKinley for Governor of Ohio, ex Gov. Foraker, paid his respect to the men that conspired with the enemy to defeat him in the last gubernatorial election, in the following forcible manner:

"There is not," said he, "one single drop of cutthroat blood in his veins. [Cheers.] He is morally incapable of the treachery and cowardice of political assassination. [Applause.] He don't know what a political razor is, and has only a contempt for the sneaking, hypocritical scoundrel who would use one."

Yes, and so has every other decent man.

SECTION 2229 R.S., of the United States makes it the duty of the President to take such measures by the employment of the militia or the land and naval forces of the United States, or of either, or by other means, as he may deem necessary for the suppression of domestic violence, obstructing the laws of the United States or the state, when tending to deprive the people of the state of the privileges guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States. This particular section was passed in 1871, to meet the indisposition of the Southern State Executives to protect individual voters.

In view of this section of the laws, it is quite incomprehensible. Why it has remained a dead letter, while the rights of individual voters are so flagrantly violated throughout the South.

Political Review.

Campaigns in several States are well under way. Interest is centering on Ohio, as the result there will be taken as prophetic. All the indications are now favorable to McKinley's success.

In this State an effort is being made to unite the alliance and the anti lotteryites. That such a union will be had in many parishes is probable from present appearances.

Vermont will hold an extra legislative session this month to dispose of its government direct tax refund, and should Senator Edmunds change the date of his resignation his successor will be chosen. Secretary of War Proctor is the coming Senator in any event, it he lives, whether appointed by the Governor or chosen by the Legislature.

Kentucky held an election last week, giving a lessened Democratic majority, vetoed a constitutional amendment and placed the Legislature in the control of the alliance.

Personal.

—Mr. E. H. Moore, who has been assistant professor of mathematics in the Northwestern University, Evanston, was at the late meeting of the Board of Trustees, promoted to the associate professorship in the same department. He is a son of the editor of the Western Advocate, and "a ship of the old block."

—Rev. M. C. B. Mason, B.D., Field Agent of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, is expected here on the 25th of this month. A royal welcome awaits him.

—Mrs. Rev. H. O. Wilson and Miss Maggie Gallagher of this city are spending a few days in Baton Rouge, La., the guests of Dr. and Mrs. T. A. Walker.

—Mrs. Dr. Albert and Miss Laura F. Albert, left this city last Saturday for Shreveport, La., where they will spend a few weeks vacation. The Doctor accompanied them, but he will spend the greater portion of the time in visiting the district conferences in that section.

—Mrs. Rev. J. F. Marshall and daughter are summering with friends at Jackson, La.

—Rev. S. H. Hughes, Macon, Ga., has just had the degree of P.A. and his excellent wife that of M.A. conferred upon them by a fine hoy. JOHN WATTS, P. E.

—Mrs. Rev. D. J. Price has left for Robeline, Marthaville and Allen, La., visiting her mother and relatives.

—Rev. Emperor Williams will preach at Boynton Chapel, Gretna, La., on the Fourth Sunday in August, at 3 p. m.

—Miss Annie Kimble, of Flora, Miss., has left Greenville, Miss., for a Northern tour. She will return early in the fall.

—Rev. M. C. B. Mason, A.M., B.D., recently elected Field Agent of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society is well known in this community, he being an Orleans graduate and for a number of years leading minister of our churches here. The appointment is a good one and is an evidence of his fitness and qualification in every respect.—Standard Pelican.

—Prof. H. J. T. Hudson, principal of a public school in Macon, Ga., sends us $2 to send our paper to Palmas Seminary in Liberia. He says it touched his heart to read the appeal recently published. Brother Hudson has a heart that can be thus touched, for he is a gentleman in every sense, and we trust he may be greatly blessed in this and his many other benevolent acts. Who'll be the next?

—Mount Union College, Ohio, has conferred the degree of doctor of laws on Rev. Dr. T. B. Neely, of the Philadelphia conference, which was done most cheerfully, without urgency or advocacy by any one. This is the same college that conferred the degree of LL. D. upon Senator Sherman and Ex-Congressman McKinley.

Schools and Colleges.

Our Southern Work.

The Southwestern Christian Advocate, New Orleans, highly commends the Freedmen's Aid Society because of its appointment of Rev. M. C. B. Mason as Field Agent of that society. The new agent, who is thirty-two years old, has done excellent service as teacher and pastor. He is well educated, and has the degree of B.D., from Gammon Seminary, and Ph.D., from Syracuse University, by examination. The appointment seems eminently wise. The SOUTHWESTERN gives much space in its last issue to our Southern educational work. The buildings of the leading schools are illustrated, and their history and aims set forth at some length. The last exceeded all previous years, the income having increased $56,000. No enterprise in Methodism can show a record better than that organized to care for the colored man of the South. Schools of high grade are doing splendid service, young men are being well educated for the ministry, both sexes are initiated into the valuable arts and mysteries of teaching, medical colleges are training colored men for the physical care of their own people, and industrial schools are teaching practical trades and handicrafts which will cause incalculable results. The whole trend of our church work among these people is to establish independence and manly self-help. It would seem that the appointment of Mr. Mason as agent of the society has special significance. Three white secretaries procure the greatest proportion of funds from the white people to carry on the society's work. This fourth agent being a colored man, may well be employed to cultivate gifts from among the colored people, and thus give them a hint about coming self-help and ultimate entire self-care in the not distant future. Mr. Mason's presence in our churches and conferences in the North will have special value in that he in his own person will represent one of the ripe fruits of past generosity toward the colored race. The great mass of colored men in our church in the South are no longer "freedmen." They have not been made free, though they are free in the largest and best sense. Tens of thousands are industrious, and earn bread for thousands of families. They will all presently care for themselves, which lesson will remain in human history as the crowning service of our church to that race. The work is almost an atonement for the forcible immigration thrust upon Africans by our sinning forefathers. In this, God has made man's wrath and transgressions to praise him, even though that sin against liberty included the audacity of claiming virtue for the freebooter rape of poor Africa. We hear much about the bad morals of the colored man in the South. There is room for doubt that the race needs to sit in humility at the feet of about one-quarter of the white population of any of our larger cities in the North or South. The wonder is that motive to morality has reached the hearts of so many colored people in view of white example. God has, however, made a way for himself into human hearts, and both races have reason for gratitude. We care not to state the relative rank of any of our benevolence, but it is certain that the work among the freedmen in the South is second to none. We hope that those who think our church has almost concluded its work among colored people will not increase in number. Last work has begotten a splendid momentum, and it is now more easy to "keep things going." Fruits begin to appear in their proper proportion and relations, and the entire nation is beginning to rep its just return for faithfulness toward the nation's wards. Let us continue to lift those people until they can do all the lifting for themselves. If we mistake not, they will presently do some mighty lifting for the sake of several issues that lie very close to the heart of the republic.—Northwestern.

The California Advocate gives these figures concerning Methodist schools: The endowment fund of the Northwestern University is $2,007,370; Syracuse University, $698,449; Wileyan University, $1,006,917; Bton University, $1,109,221; Hamke University, $220,000; Garrett Biblical Institute, $375,000; Dre Theological Seminary, $335,000; Denver University has property valued at $1,250,000, and an endowment of about $220,000.

A Good Route.

For a route which speed, comfort and convenience are combined, we commend the Illinois Central Railroad. Recently a friend of ours made the trip to Northern Vermont with only two changes of cars and without depot transfers. The route via Illinois Central vestibule to Chicago, Michigan Central to Niagara Falls, and Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg to destination less than three days, with part an afternoon to see Chicago at another afternoon to see the great Niagara.

Rev. W. D. Lambert, read an essay before the Florence district, South Carolina Conference, on the "Evils of Intemperance." He showed them to be financial, moral and spiritual. It is a strong and valuable paper; and but for lack of space we would gladly publish it in full. See Henrietta G. Marshall, rer one on the "Co-operation of Preachers and Pastors in Church Sunday School Work," which was also very interesting and valuable.

FOR THE weeks I was suffering from a severe pain in my head, accompanied by a pain in the temples. Ely's Cream Balm was recommended to me. After only six applications of the Balm every trace of moid was removed.—Henry C. Clark, New York Appraiser's Office.

DAILY BREAD.

The only joys which live and grow are those which are shared with others.

Nothing can make us richer except that which makes us more thankful.

He will regard the prayer of the destitute and not despise their prayer.

The devil is not afraid of the man who has only powder in his gun.

It is hard to discourage the Christian who has learned to love his enemies.

Whenever a Universalist gets mad he believes that there ought to be a hell.

There isn't much lifting power in the religion of a man who won't pay his debts.

It is as much murder to kill a man with a pill as it is to do it with a cannon ball.

"Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you do ye even so unto them."

"O that men would praise the Lord for his wonderful works to the children of men."

"It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord and to sing praises unto his name."

Pull off the masks that people wear and nobody would know his next door neighbor.

Giving the man the right to pray is God's way of giving him a bank account in heaven.

When you find that your yoke is not easy it means that you are not close enough to Christ.

Who does the most for the devil—the man who makes the whisky or the man who drinks it?

It is not hard for the devil to get people by both hands who are not living for some good object.

Every man who knows God knows that a work has been done in his heart that only God could do.

When a man is willing to walk toward the light it doesn't take him long to get in sight of heaven.

There are people who do the devil a great deal of good by making lots of noise on the Lord's side.

It is hard to make anybody believe that shaking hands with two fingers has a grain of religion in it.

If we really believe on the Lord Jesus Christ we will be found trying to live that way every minute.

The only people who have a hard time in this world are those who are not willing that God shall rule.

The devil gets discouraged about the children in a home where he can't put out the fire on the family altar.

When God's children come to him for anything he loves to have them say they have come to stay until they get it.

The man who says in his heart, "I will try it a little way and if I like it I will go," will never get to heaven.

The sinner is the only man who travels in the dark, and the Christian the only one who may be always in the light.

Spend as much time in counting your blessings as you do in worrying over your troubles and you will soon be rich.

When men pray in earnest they pray without ceasing, and they pray with both their muscle and their money.

If you do not love your enemies you can depend upon it there is something in your heart that does not please God.

If the devil could be kept out of the church it wouldn't be long until he would be driven out of the whisky business.

If there is anything that God wants Christians to know without the shadow of a doubt it is that they are his children.—Ram's Horn.

Scripture Lesson, I John III. Text: I John III, 1, 3: Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us that we should be called the sons of God; therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is, and every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself even as he is pure.

Introduction.—A most beautiful and touching expression is that in which St. Paul calls himself "Paul the aged." What a picture does this bring before us of the so-called and war-worn apostle, the heroic and triumphant soldier of Jesus Christ!

And now, in the words of our text, "John the aged" comes before us. A man very different in temperament and character from Paul. The vision is a very different one. He appears before us more as the beloved disciple; the faithful servant than the soldier. And yet in him, too, as in St. Paul, we see the power of that grace which makes of the saints of Christ, youthful and aged both, "more than conquerors." These words were written in Ephesus about ten years before the death of Holy John and were addressed to the "little children," the believers in Jesus Christ, of whom he was the spiritual father and teacher. He speaks to them of their high calling and destiny as "the sons of God here and hereafter," and exhorts them to live as worthy of such a calling and such a destiny.

I. The sons of God here. "Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us that we should be called the sons of God." There is an important addition to the text, found in the best ancient manuscripts, by some oversight omitted in the accepted version and now restored in the revised. It is these words: "And we are." We are not only called the sons or children of God but we are such. It is quite one thing to be called and another thing to be.

A man may be called by some title of nobility, but he may be anything but a noble man.

An English lord was traveling in the interior in midwinter with his splendid carriage and retinue of servants following. Night came on and with it a blinding snow storm. They took refuge in a poor cowherd's cottage. The nurse took the little babe and began to dress it before the blazing fire. The little children of the cowherd stood by in mute admiration as they saw the embroidered skirts and dresses one by one taken off. At last the little babe was naked before the fire. Then, with great astonishment they looked up to their mother and exclaimed: "Why, it's just like one of ours."

And so, strip off the appendages of royalty and nobility and at last you find only a man.

So it is not enough that we should be called the children of God. We need the added assurance that we are. For through Jesus Christ "the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God" (Rom. viii, 21), and "The spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God." (Rom. viii, 16).

Three things are implied in the relation of parents and children—affection, help, inheritance. As children of God we have our Heavenly Father's infinite affection lavished upon us. We have his constant help, and we become "heirs of God, joint heirs with Jesus Christ."

The world does not recognize us; it knows us not, has no sympathy for us. But this is not strange, because it knew him not. Shall the world which scorned, rejected, crucified the perfect Lord accept his imperfect servant? Alfred the Great, Richard the Lion-hearted in exile, disgraced, unknown, were no less kings.

II. Sons of God hereafter.

"Beloved, now are we the sons of God, but it doth not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he shall appear we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is." We are now the sons of God. We shall never be more than this—only what now of sonship we have by faith and hope we then shall have in full fruition. We only know in part and see through a glass darkly as yet. The lens of the greatest telescope is only flint glass, and yet it has been cast and ground until every air bubble, every flaw and imperfection has disappeared, and now, with Galileo and Herschel, we look through and see the wonders of the starry heavens. So "blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." As we become like him we shall see him, and as we see him we become more like him, until that perfect day of his appearing when we shall see him as he is.

III. Practical application of our glorious hope.

And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. The practical application of our glorious hope is that in heart and life we should evermore make the purity of Christ not only our ideal and standard, but our actual practice.

Obituary.

Hazlehurst, Miss.—Sister Nancy Dadds departed this life June 14, after living a Christian for more than 75 years, and a member of the M. E. Church for more than 30 years. She was 111 years and six months of age. She was the mother of 23 children, and outlived all of them except two.

J. W. Wells.

Brother Joseph C. Sherrill, of Little Rock, Ark., has sent us a very interesting tribute to the memory of the Rev. Moses C. Young, of the Tennessee Conference, lately deceased.

Wedowee, Ala.—Brother Peter Stephens departed this life July 19, in full triumph of faith. He leaves a wife, four daughters and two sons. He joined the M. E. Church about 9 years ago. Age, 100 years.

J. W. Sheppard.

Aberdeen, Miss.—Sister Luc Barker departed this life July 27, leaving a husband and three children. She died in full triumph of faith. Her funeral was preached by the pastor, Rev. L. J. Terrell, at Athens Circuit, Miss.

Morgan City, La.—Bro. Pierre Tusund, one of the late converts of Union Chapel M. E. Church, died at New Orleans, in the Charity Hospital, July 24. Age, 50 years. He leaves a wife and three sons.

T. Larkins, P. C.

A committee composed of I. H. Cliche, D. Patillo, and W. Williams, presented a tribute of respect to the memory of the late Mrs. Geo. W. Lacey, wife of their Presiding Elder, and condolence with him, at their recent quarterly conference. It was unanimously adopted.

Sister Jennie Winton, 100 years old, and a member of the M. E. Church, died in full triumph of faith July 3, leaving 4 children, 32 grand children, and 80 great grand children.

A. Lemon, P. C.

Stonewall, Miss.—The funeral of little Missy Daisy Bland was attended July 19. She was only 10 years of age.

R. H. Patton, P. C.

Hubertville.—Bro. William Weare, after several months of suffering, departed this life July 28. His last words were, "I am on the rock." He leaves 4 children, his mother, 6 sisters and four brothers. Age, 41 years.

Strange Procedure.

Can the report be true that the Bristol district conference, while in session recently, under the presidency of Rev. O. Boyd, did so far transcend its legitimate bounds as to proceed to elect a delegate to the next general conference by a formal vote? If so it is the first instance of the kind that has yet come to our knowledge and we hope it may be the last. That such a gross violation of Methodist polity should happen within the borders of the East Tennessee conference, and almost under the shadow of the Morristown Academy, seems incredible. Will some one give the facts in the case?

Dr. Sanford Hunt gives the following statements in regard to baptism of infants which we believe are in accord with Scripture and the Methodist Church:

"The child, before its ability to choose between right and wrong, sustains a justifiable relation before the law. It is a member of the kingdom of heaven, because it is fit to be. Baptism is administered to the child, not to make it a child of God, but because it is a child of God, and entitled to the seal of a justified relation. We do not baptize an adult to make him a Christian, but because he is a Christian. Coronation does not make a man a king; it is only a public proclamation of the fact; the constitution of the realm makes the king. So baptism is the public announcement or seal of a justified relation before the law."

THE Philadelphia, (Pa.) Ledger of recent date, gives a very touching account of the death of a colored girl, sixteen years of age, who died from brain fever, superinduced by mental excitement, brought on by being falsely charged with theft and imprisoned over night, at Frankford, Pa., recently. She was accused by her employers, who afterward found the articles that they thought the girl had stolen. Terrible, isn't it?

You've tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, have you, and you're disappointed. The results are not immediate. And did you expect the disease of years to disappear in a week? Put a pinch of time in every dose. You would not call the milk poor because the cream doesn't rise in an hour? If there's no water in it the cream is sure to rise. If there's a possible cure Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is sure to effect it, if given a fair trial. You get the one dollar it costs back again if it don't benefit or cure you. We wish we could give you the makers' confidence. They show it by giving the money back again in all cases not benefited, and it'll surprise you to know how few dollars are needed to keep up the refund.

Mild, gentle, soothing and healing is Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Cures the worst cases permanently. No experimenting. It's "Old Reliable." Twenty-five years of success.

Help yourself if you're a suffering woman, with the medicine that's been prepared especially to help you—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It will do it where others fail. For all the diseases peculiar to the sex—dragging-down pains, displacements, and other weaknesses, it's a positive remedy. It means a new life, and a longer one, for every delicate woman. In every case for which it's recommended, it gives satisfaction. It's guaranteed to do so, or the money is refunded.

It improves digestion, invigorates the system, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, produces refreshing sleep, dispels melancholy and nervousness, and builds up both flesh and strength. It is a legitimate medicine—not a beverage. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to sour or ferment in the stomach and cause distress. As peculiar in its marvelous, remedial results as in its composition. Therefore, don't be put off with some worthless compound easily, but dishonestly, recommended to be "just as good."

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

Flies have long been accused—not without reason—of spreading disease; but it is asserted now from Havana that mosquitoes have a use; for if they inoculate any one after biting a yellow fever patient, the disease which follows is so mild that fatal results are rare.

At Alleghany City, Pennsylvania, there was recently rolled a steel spring six inches wide, one-quarter of an inch thick, and 310 feet long. It is the largest coiled spring ever rolled. The order was tendered to all the large European iron-works, but none of them would undertake the task.

About three miles east of Parkersburg, West Virginia, well diggers recently stumbled upon a prehistoric cemetery, abounding with the relics of an unknown nation. Nearly a basket of trinkets of shell and bone were found in three graves. All the skeletons, thus far discovered, were facing due west.

Dr. Paul Gibber, director of the New York Pasteur Institute, in his first annual report, gives as follows the results of the preventive inoculations against hydrophobia performed at the above institute during the first year of its existence (February 18, 1890, to February 18, 1891): Eight hundred and twenty eight persons having been bitten by dogs or cats came to be treated. For 643 of these persons it was demonstrated that the animals which attacked them were not mad. Consequently the patients were sent back, after having had their wounds attended, during the proper length of time, when it was necessary. In 185 cases the anti-hydrophobic treatment was applied, hydrophobia of the animals which inflicted bites having been evidenced clinically, or by the inoculation in the laboratory, and in many cases by the death of some other persons or animal bitten by the same dog. No death caused by hydrophobia has been reported among the persons inoculated. Indigents were treated free of charge. The persons treated were from all parts of the country.—Scientific American.

Conference Notices.

Camp Meeting.

Our camp meeting will be held at Boyce, La., August 20. We anticipate a good time. All are invited. Preachers coming from the district conference will please stop over a day or two.

B. BOLDEN, P. C.

Notice.

The camp meeting to be held on the Alexandria District, Louisiana Conference, in connection with the district conference, is postponed until further notice.

Reduced Rates.

Our district conference convenes the 21st of August, at Bastrop, La., and I have made arrangements for reduced rates on the railroads for all who attend.

Camp Meeting.

The Paris district camp meeting will take place at Bagwell, Texas, August 17, 1891. All denominations are cordially invited. All the ministers of the district will be present. It is hoped that all will come on the 17th, with tents and as much provisions as possible, to camp until the 31st. Remember you can buy enough heavy cloth for $2 or $3 to build you a nice tent. Rev. Aaron Taylor will preach the introductory sermon. Each pastor must send one delegate to this meeting, in the interest of the W. H. M. Society. Bring 50¢ each for the district home. A standing welcome to all ministers of all Protestant churches. Come one, come all.

Camp Meeting.

There will be an old-fashioned Methodist camp meeting in Cohutta, Ga., commencing Wednesday, August 26. All our preachers and people are invited. Presiding Elder H. K. Allen, and the Revs. R. T. Kent of Cartersville, and J. H. Grant of Cave Springs, are expected to be present.

Corner Stone.

The corner stone of St. James M. E. Church, Shreveport, La., will be laid on the fourth Sunday, August 23. The trustees hope to enucleate the amount on hand by the collections of that day, to settle our entire church debt. Rev. S. E. H. Morant has promised to be present and deliver an historical sketch of the church. Also, the following ministers and gentlemen will be present: Revs. A. E. P. Albert, D. D., Pierre Landry, W. R. Butler, J. W. Hilton, H. T. C. Abbott, Joseph Jones, Hon. T. T. Allain, of Iberville parish, will deliver an address upon education. Also short addresses from Wm. Harper, Prof. D. W. Boatner and A. T. Grigsby of Shreveport. We have invited James M. Vance, Esq., and Hon. John F. Patton of New Orleans. Also, Revs. E. Lyon, A. B., and M. C. B. Mason, A. B., B. D. Invitation is extended to all the preachers of the Shreveport district, and Rev. J. F. Marshall, Presiding Elder of the Baton Rouge district. Presiding Elder Stephen Duncan is master of ceremonies. The Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, United Brothers of Friendship and the Home Missionary No. 2 B. A., of Shreveport, are invited to participate.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the cause.

Headache. The effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind. "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."

Sour Stomach. "I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."

WHITHER?

[Alumni poem, read at Central Tennessee College, at the Quarter-Centennial Celebration of the F. A. & S. E. Society.]

IDA BELLE EVANS.

A stately ship with white sails spread,
And anchor weighed, now turns her head
From Africa's bright strand.
And what the cargo that she holds?
Ah me! a hundred human souls
From yonder sunny land.

Whither, oh whither bound are ye,
Children of Ethiopia? See
That treacherous ocean foam!
Why leave ye home and native skies?
And say, within what region lies
Your distant, untried home?

Alas! 'tis little that we heed
Which way our watery path may lead,
Or what our fate may bear.
We only know, in chains and fear,
We're leaving all our hearts hold dear—
We go we know not where.

And so across the briny deep
The guilty ship her way doth keep,
Braving the tempest's power, Till, safe through storm and wind and waves,
She lands her freight of wretched slaves
On old Virginia's shore.

And now, oh whither do ye go, Poor, trembling souls? What shall ye do
On land so new and strange?
Aliens among a foreign race,
What is the lot ye now must face—
For what those bonds exchange?

Alas, they tell us that these chains
Are not the half of all the pains
The weary years shall bring.
They say that hope of aught but tears
And sorrow, toil and servile fears,
Is but an idle thing.

A hundred bitter years have gone,
And still the weeping slaves toil on Beneath the southern sun.
Their clanking chains on many a road,
Their groans and prayers 'neath many a load,
Are heard in heaven alone.

And whither now, despised race?
Along the bloody path ye trace
What comfort have ye found?
Where shall ye find the rest so sweet
To aching heads and weary feet?
Whither, oh whither bound?

Long since, a wondrous, holy light,
That shines amid our darkest night,
To us sweet peace has given;
And if the day be long delayed,
For which we've hoped and wept and prayed,
We'll find our rest in heaven.

So time goes by, and to my ear
There comes a dreadful sound—I hear
A voice like thunder's roar.
It is the deep-toned cannon's call:
Arouse, ye braves! ye patriots all!
Your Union to restore!

Then up the glittering sabres flash,
And angry muskets loudly clash
In wild and awful sound.
A dusky phalanx comes this way!
What means this mighty, black array?
Whither, oh whither bound?

We heard the cannon's voice—it woke
Our slumbering spirits, and we broke
The chains that bound us long;
And with a strength that will not yield,
We're marching to yon battle-field,
Two hundred thousand strong.

And do ye think our hearts will quail
Mid blinding smoke and fiery hail,
And we like cowards fly?
Nay, in the thickest dangers—there Ye'll find us fighting, this our prayer:
"To conquer or to die!"

Now six and twenty years have wrought
The nation peace, and blessings brought Beyond hope's wildest dreams
In all is seen the mighty hand
That leatheth all, while o'er the land
The light of freedom beams.

Whence comes this glad, exulting through,
Childhood and youth with merry song,
And age with footsteps slow?
'Tis Ethiopia's children, free
From crushing bonds of slavery.
Oh, whither do ye go?

Our Symposium.

In its educational work, the M. E. Church is doing a splendid practical work and well deserves the gratitude of the race it benefits. —Conservator.

Modesty in a minister is a grace of exceptional beauty and worth. Egotism in a minister is a weakness, if not a vice, too intolerable to be long borne by sensible people. —Religious Telescope.

It is not the Negroes so much as the poorer class of whites that are debased by the political superstition that covers the South. It is abasing to the two-thirds majority of whites that they should live in continual dread of a superstitions supremacy of a one-third minority of Negroes. In no other country has a majority of the Aryan race ever been subject to fear of the political ascendancy of a minority of any other race. This Southern moral fear is ignoble, and is in marked contrast to the physical courage which its sons have displayed upon a thousand battlefields.

The wants of the South are more free schools, a free press, free speech, free votes, and fair counts. These must precede the full measure of material prosperity to which her great natural resources entitle the South, but their advent is retarded by a foolish dread of Negro supremacy. —Inter Ocean.

Ministers and church people generally are now resorting to every device imaginable to fill the coffers of their church. Some years ago it was customary for the churches to give fairs which was a very creditable and profitable way of raising money; but now they give barbecues, day picnics, moonlight picnics, excursions, suppers, balls and other entertainments which are the most degrading and morally hurtful to any community. Ministers had just as well be preaching to idols as to be preaching repentance to the young people for whom they regularly encourage in vice by giving entertainments whose influence is productive of evil designs and dissipation. It seems now that the chief desire is the almighty dollar. They seek this regardless of church rules, principles or creeds. Money is a necessity in church as well as other business, but when ministers stoop to low and degrading means to obtain it, they are lowering their exalted professional standing and are unworthy of the support of the better class of people. —Texas Reformer.

A FORTUNE

Inherited by few, is pure blood, free from hereditary taint. Catarrh, consumption, rheumatism, Scrofula, and many other maladies born in the blood, can be effectually eradicated only by the use of powerful alteratives. The standard specific for this purpose—the one best known and approved—is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the compound, concentrated extract of Honduras sarsaparilla, and other powerful alteratives.

"I consider that I have been

several hundred dollars' expense, by using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and would strongly urge all who are troubled with lameness or rheumatism to give it a trial. I am sure it will do them permanent good, as it has done me."—Mrs. Joseph Wood, West Plainsburgh, N. Y.

Dr. J. W. Shields, of Smithville, Tenn., says: "I regard Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood medicine on earth, and know of many wonderful cures effected by its use."

"For many years I was laid up with Scrofula, no treatment being of any benefit. At length I was recommended to give Ayer's Sarsaparilla a trial. I did so, and about a dozen bottles, was restored to perfect health—weighing 230 pounds—and am now a believer in the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—James Peisy, Mine Boss, Breckenridge Coal Co. (Limited), Victoria, Ky.

By Taking

"My niece, Sarah A. Lese, was for years afflicted with scrofulous humor in the blood. About 18 months ago she began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and after taking three bottles was completely cured."—E. Caffall, P. M., Loser, Utah.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH
THE POSITIVE CURE.

Our Children's Legion.

For Our Boys and Girls.

BY UNCLE CEPHAS.

Six Things.

We are told in Youth's Companion six things which a boy ought to know:

1. That a quiet voice, courtesy and kind acts are essential to the part in the world of a gentleman as of a gentlewoman.

2. That roughness, blustering and even foolhardiness is not manliness. The most firm and courageous men have usually been the most gentle.

3. That muscular strength is not health.

4. That a brain crammed only with facts is not necessarily a wise one.

5. That the labor impossible to the boy of fourteen will be easy to the man of twenty.

6. That the best capital for a boy is not money, but a love of work, simple tastes, and a heart loyal to his friends and his God.

Dear Uncle Cephas: In answer to the question asked by one of my cousins, "how many verses does the Old Bible contain." It contains 23,214 verses, and 2,728,100 letters. W. Hamilton, Presiding Elder, held his first quarterly conference recently, and had a nice time.

Your Niece,
CICERO OWENS.

Hugh Springs, Texas.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am 7 years old. My studies are second reader, speller and arithmetic. I have a brother older than I am, and a little sister named Minnie. I have two hens and my brother has two. He attends to all of the chickens. Minnie and I went to a party given by one of our little friends last Monday, and we had a very nice time.

Your Niece,
AMANDA BORDERS.

Rome, Ga.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am a little girl 12 years old. Our pastor takes your paper and I love to read it. Our pastor is Rev. S. W. Marsh. We all love him. I professed religion in the last revival. I belong to the M. E. Church. My mother and father are members of the same church. I go to Sunday school every Sunday.

Your Niece,
MAGGIE OVERTON.

Cumberland, Tenn.

Dear Uncle Cephas: After reading so many letters from the girls and boys I thought I would write one. I am a school boy. We have a fine school here; our teacher is Mr. H. E. Marrell. He has been in this town four years, and has done a great work. When he came here the children did not know anything, but he raised them to an equality with the whites. He has 100 students. Mr. Marrell is the best teacher that has ever been in our town. White or colored; so say the best citizens.

Your Nephew,

The Arena for August presents no less than eight leading papers from representative thinkers among women of America and Europe, discussing political, educational, social, sociological, economic, and scientific themes, together with two literary papers, one by Miss Amelia B. Edwards, the famed Egyptologist and novelist, who in a most delightful paper writes of her own life. An excellent portrait of Miss Edwards accompanies this paper. The other, a semi-historical story of Tennessee, entitled Old Hickory's Ball, by the charming young Southern author, Miss Will Allen Dromgoole. The August Arena is brilliant and unique.

An Unprecedented Offer!

We have made arrangements with the Chicago Manufacturing Company to supply one of their first-class Singer machines for only $14 cash. We will order a machine like the cut here shown, and send the SOUTHWESTERN a full year besides! It is a handsome oil-polished walnut, of latest design, Gothic cover, with beautiful panels, four end drawers and a swing drawer, nickel-plated, and warranted five years.

Each Machine is furnished with the following equipment: One Foot Hemmer, One Oil Can with Oil, One Gauge, and Screw, One Extra Check Spring, One Package of Needles, Five Bobbins, One Tucker, One Foot Ruffler, One Set of Plate Hemmers, four different widths up to seven-eighths of an inch, One Binder and One Thread Cutter. The Improved Tension and Thread Liberator is used on this Machine. The manufacturers offer to refund the money if purchaser is not fully satisfied with the machine.

We receive many letters inquiring about the sewing machine premium, and how to obtain it. In order that all may understand the matter, we state in addition to the announcement, that remittances should be made to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, either by check, money order, or by express, naming the nearest or most convenient freight depot to which it is to be sent. Then we order the factory in Chicago to ship the machine. The company ships it; and receives from the railroad a bill of lading which, with the warranty, is sent to us, and which we send to the subscriber. This bill of lading is good and sufficient evidence that the machine has been forwarded, and holds the railroad company responsible for its safe delivery at the station named as its destination, and in due time, save unavoidable delays. In case of its loss the railroad which caused its loss is responsible, under the laws of the land. If not arriving in due time, show the bill of lading to the station agent and he will look it up. Don't give up the bill of lading, but it may be shown to the railroad agent. All orders are sent the same day as received, and the bill of lading is sent to the subscriber the same day we get it. We started this scheme with a view to helping our patrons, and shall carefully and faithfully carry out our part of the agreement in every case.

A LIFE SAVED!

READ THE TWO STATEMENTS

An Extraordinary Case!

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 22, 1890.
Last April I was attacked with Chagas Fever, a Spanish Honduras and was given up to die by two physicians. During that spell and since I have used a part of your medicine and quantities of other medicines without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered untold agonies. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Royal Gementine. I have had no fever since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind. Am gaining strength very fast. Can walk as far as a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Gementine has been a God-send to me. I can not say too much in its praise. Any who wish to do so may call on me.

DANIEL PAPPOU,
481 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1, 1891.
My improvement continued, and soon after withing the above statement I was able to go to work and have been working ever since. My health is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony gladly, because I know that Gementine saved my life.

DANIEL PAPPOU.

Chagas Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Gementine has been tried on a number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It has a similar record
as a remedy for Swamp Fever and Malarial troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quickest and most unfailing remedy for Fevers of all kinds. Dyspepsia, Diphtheria, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood
and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidences from thousands of the best people in the country, and
the evidences multiply in our midst every day.
For sale by druggists and country merchants,
and at the Gementine Office, 202 Canal street, New Orleans. For further information, circulars, etc.,

Sleeplessness Cured. I
I longed to testify that I used Pastor Konig's Nerve Tonic with the best success for sleeplessness, and believe that it is really a great relief for suffering humanity. E. FRANK, Pas-

A Can. Minister's Experience.
St. Paul, P. O., Can., Feb. 10, 1890.
I am happy to give this testimonial to the excellence of "Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic." Suffering for a long period of nervous debility due to dyspepsia, I have found that since I made use of this remedy a radical change was operated on me; not only on the nerves, but even dyspepsia disappeared promptly. Similar experiences have been made by many of my converts with this remedy. I consider it entirely effectious and proper to cure all nervous diseases and other cases depending from the same.

GOLDEN TEXT.

I am the bread of life. (John 6.
48.)

LESSON HYMN, 7. 6.

O Bread to pilgrims given,
O Food that angels eat,
O Manna sent from heaven,
For heaven-born natures meet;
Give us, for thee long pining,
To eat till richly filled;
Till, earth's delights resigning,
Our every wish is stilled.

Jesus, this feast receiving,
We thee unseen adore;
Thy faithful word believing,
We take, and doubt no more;
Give us, thou true and loving,
On earth to live in thee;
Then, death the veil removing,
Thy glorious face to see.

Time—Probably March or April,
A. D. 29.

Place—Probably the rich level plain of Betsaida, near the upper Bethsaida.

Rulers—Herod in Galilee; Pilate in Jerusalem.

Connecting Links—The feeding of the five thousand is the one miracle related in every Gospel.
As none of the evangelists tell their story in the exact order in which the events occurred, the connection of this incident with others cannot be certainly told; but it was probably not very long after the death of John the Baptist.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY.

1. The Multitude, v. 1-7.
Across what sea did Jesus go from Capernaum?
Who followed him? Why?
Where were Jesus and his disciples?
What Jewish feast was soon to occur?
What question did Jesus ask Phillip?
Why did he ask this question?
What was Phillip's answer?

2. The Loaves, v. 8-11.
Who made a suggestion to Jesus about food?
What did Andrew say?
What command did Jesus give?
How many were there in the company?
Who were there besides these men? (Matt. 14. 21.)
What did Jesus do with the loaves and fishes?

3. The Fragments, v. 12-15.
What command was given about fragments?
What amount was gathered up?
What shows that the people had been satisfied?
What did the people say about
Jesus?

To what promise did they refer?
(Gen. 49. 10; Dent. 18. 15.)

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.

Where in this lesson are we taught:
1. To have sympathy with the needs of others?
2. To obey Jesus's commands?
3. To guard against needless waste?

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG BE-BEANS.

Find the story of Jesus's preparing bread and fried fish for his disciples.

Why the men were divided into groups.
Another case where Jesus fed a multitude.

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

[For the entire school.]

Who followed Jesus across the Sea of Galilee? A great multitude.

2. How much money's worth of bread did Philip say would be required to feed them? Two hundred penny-worth.

3. How many were there to feed?
Five thousand hungry people.

4. What small quantity, carried by a lad, did Jesus turn into enough to feed them all? Five barley loaves and two small fishes.

5. What does Jesus say of himself? (Golden Text.) "I am," etc.

EXPLANATIONS.

A mountain—Not a peak, but a mountainous region. Sat—Sitting was the usual attitude of an Oriental teacher. A feast of the Jews
—The aged apostle John, who wrote this, was writing in a Gentile city for the benefit of the Christian Church, which, by that time, numbered thousands of Gentile converts. These five words are one of the many beautiful evidences of the genuineness of this Gospel. Nigh—Near at hand. A great company—Many of whom were on their way to the passover at Jerusalem. To prove him—At once to test and to teach him.
Two hundred penny-worth—About thirty five dollars' worth. A lad —It has been conjectured that this little lad was employed by the apostles to care for their supplies.
Barley loaves—The food of the poorest. Baskets—Wallets.

Doctrinal Suggestion—The evidence of Christianity from miracles.

THE CHURCH CATECHISM.

50. What is prayer? Prayer is the offering up of our desires unto God in the name of Christ.

51. With what should prayer be always accompanied? With humble confession of sin, with hearty thanksgiving for God's mercies, and sincere faith in his promises.

52. Where should we offer up our prayers? Publicly in the house of God, and privately in our families and in our closets.

Ask Your Friends

Who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla what they think of it, and the replies will be positive in its favor. One has been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia, another finds it indispensable for sick headache, others report remarkable cures of scrofula, salt rheum and other blood diseases, still others will tell you that it overcomes "that tired feeling," and so on. Truly, the best advertising which Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of the army of friends it has won by its positive medical merit.

Catarrh Can't Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of disease. Catarrh is a blood constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is no quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials.

JUST A LITTLE.

Little rills make wider streamlets,
Streamlets swell the river's flow.
Rivers join the ocean billows,
Onward, onward as they go.

Life is made of smallest fragments,
Shade and sunshine, work and play;
So may we with greatest profit,
Learn a little every day.

SENATOR George has secured a majority of the Mississippi legislature for his re-election, by the action of the primaries.

THE debates, I have heard hero, would be creditable to any conference in Methodism.—Bishop Joyce to Presiding Elder's Convention.

I HATE the American saloon. I do not know of one of our brethren who has anything to do with it.
Brethren; set your faces like flint against it.—Bishop Joyce to Presiding Elder's Convention.

WE are informed that owing to the heavy rain, the corner-stone laying at Oxyka, Miss., did not come off on the 13th. The day now fixed for it is Sept. 19. Reduced rates from Brookhaven have been secured. Let all come.

WHISKY, excursions, moonlight picnics are the great trinity of evils that are cursing our people more than any other three agencies, and no pastor or leader of our people is true to his sacred trust will countenance them or give them. Away with them!

WHY not organize the Epworth League on every charge in our territory. It is one of the best auxiliaries that we can put in operation in our charges. Write to the Rev. J. L. Hurlburt, D.D., corresponding secretary, S. S. Union, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York, for further information.

RAILROAD accidents, the result of the most extravagant and criminal carelessness, are becoming more and more frequent and disastrous. Over 30,000 people are killed and wounded in them annually. Scarcely a day passes without such sickening reports. Some steps should be taken by the proper authorities to put a stop to such wholesale destruction of human lives.

BISHOP Mallalieu started Tuesday, August 11, for his work on the Pacific Coast. He has prayed and worked as never before for the needed money to pay for and endow our Medical College. Money is scarce and hard to get. Let all the people pray that God may bless the means that he has used and turn the hearts of men and women towards this enterprise, bringing all we need, and that right speedily.

The Wanderers Return.

A Word to Whom it May Concern.

BY JAMES MITCHELL.

I rejoice with my brethren of the Mission Rooms, after forty-seven years absence, even if that return is but in shadow;—nor would I have those shadows turned with face to the wall, oh! no,—but I say it in all seriousness that they might be festooned with crape, for sad and fearful has been the national drama, since they with united hand rolled up the curtain on the revolutionary and blood bathed stage—though growing old, memory fails me not in regard to each scene in the late drama.

In one of the last days of April, 1845, Rev. James Crawford, of Wesley Chapel, Madison Indiana, and the writer, who was filling an unexpired term of Rev. A. Canwell, in Third Street M. E. Church, of that city for that year, boarded the Louisville packet on its way down, where we found Bishop Soule, on his way to the fatal convention.
He talked freely with us, Bro.
Crawford being the chief speaker on our side, whilst I a comparative youth fresh from Europe, was a sad but good listener—yet I will not say a respectful one, for in my heart though young I censured if I did not despise an aged and eminent minister, who thus dared to sell the truth of God, in giving his sanction to a rupture of the church, the body of Christ, and an endorsement of such a monstrous thing as American slavery.

It is true that at the time he disclaimed all such endorsement and plead necessity—saying in his magnificent way—"I am opposed to slavery and never will own one, though circumstances require me to go with the South."

We have in his case the effect of false leadership, as in the case of Solomon—and an illustration of the profound depths of the deceit-fulness of our own hearts. I had no doubt of the sincerity of his intention to never own a slave at the time—but the slave power, his companions in folly, soon taught him how to own slaves—so that it is reported of him that he said, "I own servants and have had servants born in my house." I wish for the sake of the reputation of that North-born man, who gave his ripe years and the remnant of his life to a false leadership that this could be proved untrue.

The memory of that disastrous convention, where I was a spectator most of the time except on Saturdays, Sabbaths and Mondays, but especially on the opening and closing days, is as fresh in my memory as though it had taken place last year, and amongst the bitterest tears of my life were those shed in the old Fourth Street M.
E. Church, Louisville, Ky., on the 19th of May, 1845, when I took the parting hand of Bro. Hamilton, of Mobile, once my pastor for a winter, that of 1839-40, on the adjournment of that revolutionary assembly, saying to him, "This division will last forever," and so it has lasted for 46 years, with no prospect of change for the better:
—no intention to abandon the memories of the wrong, but on the contrary a disposition to embalm them by every device that fond pride can devise—illogical conclusions, nonsense political maxims, as so many poison vines, enshrine the monuments of ecclesiastical and civil folly. If this goes on much longer without national repentance, which means ceasing to do evil, learning to do well, with honest confession of the great wrong—God's second judgments will yet overtake us.

To bring out these lights and shades more clearly—let me give a little experience, after spending nearly twenty-six years south of the Potomac, staking life, labor, and substance as a minister on reconstruction of church and state.

I write this from Mt. Zion Seminary, a school for the whites, founded eleven years ago. I have often expressed a wish to rear the U. S. flag on these grounds, but it has not been thought prudent to do so until this year, and one of our best informed trustees tells me, that fully one-third of our people in Georgia never saw a U.
S. flag. It was dismissed in 1861, from the towns and hamlets of Georgia, and has been these long sad thirty years in returning to our people. One old gentleman in looking upon it said, "Is not that a Republican flag, and will there not soon be another war?"

Who is responsible for the wrong public opinion, nay, the wrong conscience of this country? The men of 1845. So, brethren, please go softly, and let us not have another Cape May blunder wherein you gave the Church South a quarter million dollars to endow the Baltimore Conference of the Church South after the war. We must love our enemies, but we must buy the truth and sell it not.
Atlanta, Ga.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

How Can the Success of our Work Among the White People of the South be Increased?

BY X. Y.

Whatever obstacles are found to exist in the way of extending the work of the Methodist Episcopal Church among the white people of the South, they cannot be charged to the essential doctrines and policy of Episcopal Methodism as a great connectional system; for the gentleness among the people of the South.

The chief obstacles will be found to arise from connectional and political prejudice, ignorance and misapprehension. It will be a sad mistake to ignore the obvious truth that freedom of approach to the southern whites and a ready and hearty welcome to the ministers and teachers of our church have in a general way depended on the degree of political sympathy that existed in the community with the known principles and sentiments of the church in favor of human liberty, the equal rights of all men as established by God and guaranteed by the constitution and laws of the land, and the unopposed connection between the mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the South and the defense and extension of these principles, especially the encouragement of a true
American education for the masses.
Practical wisdom would suggest the necessity of strengthening the church and educational work among our friends, among those whose hands, hearts and homes have been open to us from the beginning of our return to the South; who have stood by the work in the face of bitter hostility; who have helped to sustain it with self-sacrificing liberality; their children are taught to greet us with love and respect, and frequently bear the names of heroic and beloved pastors of an early date; or of some of the blasphemies, or other chief ministers and agents of the beloved old church.

Into these friendly communities let the church send its most ministerial and educational workers, men and women of the purest lives, and consecrated gifts and acquirements, who understand or can learn readily the peculiarities of the work to be done and can adopt themselves to the situation. There let them work on all the lines of duty laid down so clearly in our book of discipline proving themselves to be models and examples of loyalty to the church, and zealously devoted to its mission among a people, who seem to have been specially prepared of the Lord to yield the best and largest results for the labor and resources expended.

I would lay special stress on this idea of making the church as strong as possible, amongst its true friends; not only because they deserve all the encouragement and help they are likely to receive, but also, because the communities which exhibit the results of its best work, becomes centres of light and influence to surrounding or distant communities; and there is reason to hope, that in such communities, there will arise a succession of leaders and supporters of the work, who will transmit it to succeeding generations.

But among the agencies, from which the largest and best results may be expected, I would place foremost the establishment of primary schools under the strict supervision of our church authorities.

Those schools established and conducted in our country churches, would be supported chiefly by the people themselves; a little aid from the educational funds of the church and some faithful supervision by the pastors and Presiding Elders, with the understanding that the teachers, whether male or female or both, were thoroughly qualified for, and consecrated to their work as a christian and patriotic mission, and the noblest results might be justly anticipated;
the raising up of a great multitude of recruits for God and our country, who shall constitute an invincible force in defense of the right, and against the wrong; and shall see to it, that righteousness and all that is implied in christian civilization, shall be established, either from their native Southland or from any part of the nations wide domain.

Letters from the Districts.

Shreveport District (La.) Conference.

S. DUNCAN.

Rusk—Brother G. Johnson has made a grand start. At his second quarter we had 22 mourners and 5 converts. Paid pastor $23, Presiding Elder $5. The Sunday school has increased.

Vanceville—S. Carroll is doing a grand work. He and his people have started to ceil the churches and build a pulpit. At the quarterly conference we had 42 persons forward for prayers. We have here some of the best people in the district. With such men as A. J.
Miller, Ed Monroe, A. Cornwell, T. Miller and others, the church is bound to do well. Raised $22, pastor $90, Presiding Elder $10.

Scott Circuit—J. Robinson, the model preacher, is making marked success. He has had over 20 converts. He is trying to extend the work along the V. S. and P. R. R.
We want to get our work extended as far as Homer and Vienna, which is about forty miles from Monroe.

St. Paul—Shreveport, the finest church in the Louisiana conference, built by Rev. P. Landry, now in charge of T. J. Johnson, is having a grand success. The people of Shreveport love Brother Johnson dearly. He was raised with them.
He has had six converts. Raised this quarter $400 for all purposes.
Paid pastor $200, Presiding Elder $19. The Sunday school is flourishing under the management of Brother Harris and Prof. Grigsby.

Jewella—Brother Geo. Ogilvie started off well, but has been sick ever since the quarterly conference.
We have a good set of people on this circuit that stay by the church, pastor or no pastor. Our young preachers have a great many things to learn about the ministry that they do not know. They think it an easy thing to be a pastor, but they are not there long before they find out better. It takes all the grace and prayers and studying we can do, and then we find ourselves short.

Fairfield—D. Shelby holds his own nicely. The Sunday school is flourishing and the churches are spiritually alive but financially dull. Paid pastor $74, Presiding Elder $5. We need a new church at Fairfield. We have started to raise money for it. The parsonage has been papered. Some improvements are being made inside. The second quarter was held at Fairview. We have some of the best farmers here that you can find on the district. Such men as Sinclair, Jackson, etc.

Cane City—Brother Alfred Wilson, by the help of the Church Extension Board, which gave $100, the church is completed, and we had a grand time at the quarterly meeting. The Lord is blessing us at this place.

St. James—One of the best churches on the district, under the pastorate of Rev. C. D. Shallow-borne, is having a year of success.
They owe $600, but the trustees purpose to pay it off this year.
They have $207 on hand, and the fourth Sunday in August they hope to raise the balance. They have 26 added to the church. This quarter the Sunday school, under Prof.
D. W. Bonner, is doing a grand work. The Stewart sisters papered the parsonage and carpeted the floor. Pastor and people are in love, and from the looks of things the pastor will close up his fourth year in good shape.

Grand Cane—Brother Wm.
Emmett commenced all right, but he has had some trouble. I don't know what will be the end. Brothers, pray for him. We feel sorry for the brother.

Boucheat Circuit—A. Venable is working hard to build up the work.
The people are poor but willing.
He has opened a new point with a Sunday school of 25 scholars. The churches are in a good condition.
Quarterly collection $8, paid pastor $28 80, Presiding Elder $42.
May God bless Brother Venable.

Shady Grove—J. J. Obee, the great hero, is carrying things forward. He and such men as A.
Jackson, Wesley Morgan, C. D.
Simonds, A. Johnson and Lall
Joyce are leading the people grandly. Paid pastor $70, Presiding Elder $12 50, on church debt $10. The churches on the circuit are alive. Brother Obee moves about. It takes a man that can get around to carry our people.
Groaning and mourning don't carry them. I think Brother Obee and his people will raise all the benev-olences. The quarterly meeting was a success. Collection $29 80.
During the quarterly meeting 18 persons came forward for prayers.

Mansfield—Brother E. Henthonson is carrying his people from grace to grace. During the quarterly meeting there were 25 at the anxious seat. They had a grand time on Children's Day, under the leadership of Prof. S. S. Rogers, the popular day school teacher. He is a blessing to Brother Henthonson. I think this will be one of his best years at Mansfield. The Sunday school is flourishing, and raised $4 for education. Quarterly collection $22. Paid pastor $80, Presiding Elder $8. We expect to open up a new point three miles from town on Mr. Thomas' place.
The brethren are all pushing their benevolent collections.

Bedford—S. B. Hason, pastor.
The Lord is wonderfully blessing the church at this place. They have had over 22 converts and 7 joined. Children's Day was a success. The collection was $13.

The collection for the quarter
$100. Paid pastor $70, Presiding Elder $10. All the benevolent collections will be raised. Our brethren are beginning to raise their collections for the beginning of the year.

Conshatta—M. T. Fairford is holding his own, and is gaining very much. Pray for him that he may have an outpouring of the spirit.

Pleasant Hill—Brother Mc-Glockin is a hard-working minister. He built a church on Fairmont circuit last year and he is building another this year at Pleasant Hill. The people all are with him and he is a great leader among both white and black. The people all love him because he is honest and true. It pays a preacher to do right. We have had 20 accessions this quarter. Collection $200. Paid pastor $50, Presiding Elder $8. Raised $200 on building. The Sunday school is doing well.

Columbus—C. D. C. Bryan is pushing things. He has built a parsonage and made new seats and has had two converts. Brother Bryan found the work at a low ebb, but he has built it up again.
The people all respect and love him. He fits anywhere. The people here own their homes and cattle.

Allen Circuit—Brother J. H.
Pierre, our energetic pastor, has things alive at Allen and Marthaville. The quarterly was a success. We enjoyed the company of Brother and Sister Pierre and Miss Bertha McNeil, the accomplished young lady teacher, one of the New Orleans University scholars. She has been teaching school for five months and given satisfaction to all.
loved and respected by white and colored. We have in Marthaville the venerable gentleman, Mr. Jackson Rains, the founder of Martha-ville and the friend of the colored people and also our church. The Lord bless him. Also Dr. Lee, who is a perfect gentleman and a friend of our work. Collection for the quarter $362.85. Paid on building and improvements $300,
paid pastor $62.35, Presiding Elder $8. They had 51 converts. The Sunday schools are flourishing, with 125 scholars. They have built a parsonage and remodeled Hason Chapel.

Bloomington, Ind.

MINNIE B. TAYLOR.

The Indiana District Lexington Conference, of which W. S. Rollius is Presiding Elder, in connection with the Sunday School Institute, met in Bloomington, Aug. 6, continuing three days. The first day was devoted to devotional exercises, the administration of the Lord's Supper and the appointment of committees.

The second day the report of the Presiding Elder was read, encouraging to some, embarrassing to others. Visiting brethren were received and made remarks.

The third day the liveliest, with more tact and less of the argumentative character, so that by that means the whole disciplinary course was followed, but everything did was in good order. Rev.
L. M. Hagood, Presiding Elder of the Bowling Green district, was here on the second day and things were made interesting by his clear views of things. The Institute convened the afternoon of each day and some very interesting subjects were discussed. During the four months of this conference year $100 has been collected for benevolent purposes.

THE Children's Day collection on the Looksburg circuit was $10.

Appeal for Help.

To the Methodist Episcopal ministers of Mississippi and their congregations:

Our new church edifice at Natchez will be completed by August 15. We appeal to you for a collection, as we must raise $300 on or by that date to be able to meet our contract. Don't wait, but help us at once.

Entrance day is the third Sunday in August. Send your collection to Rev. Samuel A. Cowan, Presiding Elder, Vicksburg, Miss., and he will give you receipts for the same.

Yours,
M. C. BUFFINGTON, P. C.
SAM'L A. COWAN, P. E.

Sunday School Institute.

H. A. READ, SEC'Y.

The Sunday School Institute of the Paris District, Texas Conference, was held at Bonham, Tex., April 28, 1891, in Bishop Jayne's Chapel, with Rev. P. Morgan, Presiding Elder, in the chair.

Miss Lula J. Wagner was elected secretary, with Prof. J. C. Smelser assistant; Prof. H. A. Read, recording secretary; Mrs. Mary Latimore, treasurer; and Mr. Lee Bagby, statistical secretary.

After considerable discussion, two travelling Sunday school superintendents, with one assistant to work up the Sunday school interest of the Paris district, were ordered.

Rev. J. L. Hardeman, of Paris, preached at night.

Reports from all the Sunday schools on the district, except three, were presented. They showed the Sunday schools in a prosperous condition. Total amount raised by the Sunday schools for missions was $40.10.

Mr. W. H. Payne, of Bonham, was introduced and gave an interesting talk on the importance of a traveling superintendent, after which Messrs. J. F. Barnes and J. C. Smelser were elected traveling superintendents, with Mrs. Mary Latimore as assistant.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville, Miss Sally Ines and many other citizens of Bonham, were introduced. The literary exercises were quite interesting.

Prof. H. A. Read, of Clarksville, read a paper on "The duties of a Sunday school teacher." Discussed by Rev. A. Gaylor and J. F. Barnes.

A paper was then read by Prof. J. C. Smelser on "Duties of parents to their children." Discussed by J. F. Barnes, H. A. Read, and A. Gaylor.

Select reading by Mrs. Lanra Shipley, of Bonham, on "Duty of pastors in relation to the Sunday school."

Prof. J. M. Brooks, of Bonham, read a practical essay on "Duties of local preachers and exhorters." Discussed by J. C. Smelser, J. F. Barnes, H. A. Read and P. L. Jackson.

Mrs. Mary Latimore, of Clarksville, read an essay on "What are the necessary qualifications of a Sunday school teacher?"

Mr. Lee Bagby read a short but impressive paper on "Importance of young people attending Sunday school." Discussed by H. A. Read, J. M. Brooks and J. C. Smelser.

"At what time should a Sunday school begin and how long should it continue?" by Rev. W. H. Jackson of Paris, was read by Rev. P. Morgan, the writer being absent on account of sickness.

Rev. P. Prnett preached an interesting and profitable sermon. Revs. Anderson and Frierson, of the A. M. E. Church, were introduced.

It was agreed to give the Sunday School Institute the last two days of the district conference session, instead of the first.

Nashville District Sunday School Institute.

Met at Seay's Chapel M. E. Church July 29. The welcome address was delivered by A. Ridley. The published program was fully carried out. Important essays were read by Misses Josie Price, Mamie Blair, Maggie Green, Lettie Morton and Lula Hingston. The general Sunday school work was discussed with credit to the occasion. The session was one of great success.

Proceedings of the Baton Rouge District Conference.

The fifth session of the Baton Rouge District Conference convened at Wesley Chapel M. E. Church, Baton Rouge, La., Aug. 5.

The conference was organized with 97. Rev. J. F. Marshall, president; E. P. Harris, secretary; J. D. Pool and Jno. A. Moten, assistants; J. A. Tirouit, statistical secretary; F. C. Blundon and J. L. Jones, assistants; W. R. Butler, treasurer.

The Presiding Elder read his report of the district, which gave encouraging information. Peace and harmony prevails at almost every charge. And the result of this harmony is best seen in the improving and building of churches, the conversion of souls, and an increase of finances.

Reports from pastors, local preachers, exhorters, district stewards, superintendents and class leaders were made, the summary of which will appear in the minutes.

Sixty-eight local preachers had their characters passed and their licenses renewed. Several cases, in doubt, were referred to the fourth quarterly conferences.

Daniel Thomas, Geo. Washington, Cyrus E. Bradford, Alex. Varice, Sumner McGruda and Daniel G. Pharris, were recommended for deacons' orders.

A. A. Lacey, J. T. Lewis, Geo. Washington, C. E. Bradford, A. Varice and S. McGruda, were recommended to the travelling connection.

Resolutions respecting the various church institutions, the Sunday school work and the agency in this State, of which Rev. E. Lyon is agent; the temperance society, SOUTHWESTERN, and to the pastors and people of Baton Rouge for their hospitable manner of entertaining the district conference; to Rev. J. F. Marshall, Presiding Elder of the Baton Rouge district, for the sagacious and Christian manner in which he is conducting the affairs of the district, were unanimously adopted.

The conference was graced with the presence of E. Lyon, A. M., Sunday School Agent; Rev. A. E. P. Albert, D. D., and J. L. Jones, Esq., lawyer of Plaquemine, and editor of the Iberville Pilot.

Clinton was chosen as the seat of the district conference.

A camp meeting association was organized, with W. R. Butler as president; W. P. Forrest, vice-president; E. P. Harris, secretary; P. W. Clark, treasurer; J. W. Haddon, general manager.

Greenville (S. C.) District Conference.

E. B. BURROUGHS.

Held at Yorkville, S. C., July 22, 23. Rev. N. T. Spencer pastor. Presiding Elder I. E. Lowery, A. M., presided.

Rev. C. C. Scott was elected secretary; Revs. J. N. Carter and O. R. Brown, assistants. Your correspondent was elected reporter for the Peet Dee Educator and the SOUTHWESTERN; N. T. Spencer for the News and Courier; and Edward Littlejohn, Esq., for the Plain Speaker.

Prof. W. L. Buckley, A. M., of Claflin University, was introduced and invited to sit as a corresponding member.

A resolution by O. C. Scott was adopted, expressing it as the sense of the district conference that the interests of the Sunday school work would be better advanced if the Sunday School Institute was held separate from the district conference.

At night the Rev. L. Arthur, of Greenwood, S. C., preached an eloquent and interesting sermon.

SECOND DAY.

J. N. Brownlee was found guilty of charges preferred against him, and he was expelled from the church.

Henry Wright was found not guilty.

The Presiding Elder submitted his report, which was indeed full of encouragement. Success had been had in all the departments of the church. The benevolences were being looked after as never before, and the standard of the Old Church is being planted in new fields. The future is bright and fraught with blessings great and innumerable.

The reports of the pastors were read from nearly every charge.

At night Prof. W. L. Buckley, A. M., delivered an address entitled "Despise not the day of small things." The effort was a masterly one, and evinced careful research and painstaking care in its preparation.

THIRD DAY.

Reports of local preachers, exhorters, Sunday school superintendents, and class leaders, were satisfactory.

The following were licensed to preach: J. H. Parks, A. J. Gilbert, W. H. Sims, B. J. Sooty, F. M. Parks, P. Thompson, A. D. Harris.

The following were recommended for admission into the travelling connection: W. S. Thompson, W. H. Greer and J. W. Groes.

Rev. E. B. Burroughs introduced a resolution calling on every pastor, local preacher and exhorter to subscribe for the SOUTHWESTERN. It was ably seconded by Revs. O. R. Brown and C. C. Scott, and unanimously adopted.

The Jubilee copies were distributed amidst great and stirring enthusiasm.

The announcement of the appointment of Rev. M. C. B. Mason as Field Agent for the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, was received with great joy and loud applause. This is the first fruits of the Presiding Elder's Convention. The pastors of the district, appreciating the incalculable good that will result from the recent meeting of the Presiding Elders at Chattanooga, presented Rev. I. E. Lowery, Presiding Elder, with a purse containing a sufficient amount to reimburse him for the expense incurred attending the same.

At night the Rev. B. Robinson delivered a highly interesting and instructive sermon to a large and appreciative audience.

Resolutions of thanks to the president and officers of the conference, to the pastor and friends of Yorkville for their hospitable entertainment, having been adopted, the conference adjourned, to meet at Anderson, S. C., in 1892.

Letters from the Pastors.

SPECIAL TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Please take notice, 1st. That all anonymous letters go directly to our waste basket; 2d. Letters must be written on only one side of the paper; 3d. No frivolous questions will be noticed; 4th. Abbreviations should not be used; 5th. Notes and items must be condensed so as to insure brevity; 6th. We return no manuscript.

A. Alexander.

The camp meeting of the Lovelady circuit began on July 16 and closed August 2. Many souls were made glad. We had a grand time. Thirteen converts, five reclaimed and eight children baptized. The attendance was about 800. Everything was quiet and peaceable. We thank God for answering our prayers.

Edmund Holiday, Spring, Texas.

Our Elder, Rev. F. Parker, was with us May 30 and 31, and held our second quarter. He preached two powerful sermons and administered the Lord's Supper to forty-five members. Collection for the Elder $8, for the preacher $22. We also got three subscribers for the good old SOUTHWESTERN.

That's right. Make a canvass at every special service in behalf of your church paper.—[Ed.]

Rev. J. K. Comfort, Brandon, Miss.

Our second quarterly conference was held May 30 and 31, and our beloved Presiding Elder, Rev. J. Campbell, was on time. The work is in a growing condition. Collection $10. We are getting ready to repair the churches all over the work this year. We have had rally days as follows: At St. James, May 24, collection $28.30; at Brandon, June 7, collection $100.30; at Evergreen, June 14, collection $44.10; total $172.70. We all love and read the SOUTHWESTERN.

Wm. Moore, Sockoperty, Ala.

Our second quarterly conference was convened at Sockoperty on June 13 and 14. Reports showed that very careful work had been done on our circuit. Our excellent Presiding Elder, Rev. W. F. Smith, preached Saturday and Sunday at 11 a. m., and a soul-reviving sermon Sunday evening. We followed him fifteen miles to Syllacanga. He preached at night there and 65 stood up. Our Elder carries with him books and papers of every description; especially the SOUTHWESTERN. His text in the conference and all over the Dadeville district is that all officers must be taking the SOUTHWESTERN by August 6, so he can have less work to do on his third and fourth rounds. How is this, Mr. Editor? That is splendid.—[Ed.]

John W. Hall, Memphis Circuit, Tenn.

Our third quarterly conference was held June 4 by Rev. Jesse P. Price, Presiding Elder of Nashville district. Condition of the church and Sunday school is fair. Raised for elder $6.05, for pastor $28.10, for elder $4.50. Sunday Rev. A. Burdett, of Pleasant Grove circuit, was with us and aided in the services.

A. H. Banks, Eola, La.

Our second quarterly conference convened June 14, Rev. S. E. H. Morant presiding. On Sunday our Presiding Elder preached a soul-stirring sermon. Our revival, just closed, resulted in 25 conversions and 15 reclaimed. Raised for all purposes this quarter $200.

B. J. Reddix, Campt, La.

We have a very good Methodist people, though a little downhearted on account of an oppressive debt which must be paid by September. We will have a cornerstone laying August 9, and Silver Dollar Day for the benefit of the debt. The cornerstone will be laid by Presiding Elder Duncan. Dr. Albert, Rev. Lagon and all former pastors are invited. Brethren, put a silver dollar in your pocket for Campt. Come. We have chickens, hogs and turkeys here for you to eat and a spring to quench your thirst. Our day school is going on nicely under the leadership of Prof. R. C. Barrow, of Straight, and Miss L. E. Curtis, of New Orleans University, our own school. She sits at the organ and furnishes music for the Sunday school. The Lord is in this place. The crops are very promising.

A. A. Lacey, Slaughter, La.

Our second quarterly conference was held by our beloved Presiding Elder Marshall, who was accompanied to the seat of the conference by Revs. P. W. Clark and O. O. Wright. Our revival was a success. The church and Sunday school are prospering. We are preparing to enlarge the church. The lumber is bought and on the grounds. We raised this quarter for all purposes $64. Paid pastor $62.50, paid Presiding Elder $5.

H. H. Manzon, Augusta, Ga.

This place is not very cheering. I only wish it was so. Our membership here is small for the population, which is about 40,000 or 50,000. It would help us much if we could establish a fine school here. Other churches here have these facilities and use them strenuously to our hurt. We should have something to attract the aspiring young people. Our revival resulted in 17 converts and 13 accessions. All of these except one were Sabbath school scholars from 9 to 14 years. Through the influence of the Synes Institute the C. M. E. Church predominates here by the thousands. We must offer something to counteract that influence. Our school men will look this way.

A. Quinn, De Soto, Miss.

We are moving on nicely. Our second quarterly conference was held at Coke's Chapel, June 10, by Rev. A. J. McNair, our Presiding Elder being absent. Sermons were preached by Revs. G. W. Coleman and E. Rodgers. Paid Elder $8, pastor $70.94. At night a rousing sermon was preached by Rev. A. J. McNair to a crowded house. The sacrament was administered by Rev. A. J. McNair, Rev. A. B. Logan and Rev. A. Quinn, our pastor.

A. C. Lacy, Augusta, Miss.

The second quarterly conference convened June 27 and 28, Presiding Elder B. L. Crump in the chair. He preached a wonderful sermon, gave the Lord's Supper to 35 and baptized 5 children. Paid to Elder $10, pastor $12.

P. Blue, Hickory, Miss.

Sister E. S. Spriggs visited this place and organized an Epworth League, with 52 members. Also held a concert, which added something to our finances. She is a faithful and tireless worker in the church.

B. F. McLeod, Aiken Circuit, S. C.

Having been appointed to the Aiken Mission on the annual conference I found it uncultivated and isolated. Since my arrival I have established two missions and am making every effort to purchase a lot and build a church. We want $250 by September 2, and we appeal to all benevolent friends of Methodism to aid us. Any assistance will be heartily received and acknowledged.

J. H. Pierre, Union Chapel, Marthaville, La.

August 28, 29 and 30 we will have a grand celebration of the growth of Methodism. Addresses will be delivered by the following ministers: Rev. S. Duncan, Presiding Elder; Rev. O. D. Shallowhorne, of Shreveport; Rev. W. R. Butler, of Baton Rouge; Rev. E. Hutchinson, of Mansfield; Rev. S. S. Wright, of Natchitoches. The general public is invited to attend. Refreshments of all kinds to be had on the grounds.

H. James, Clinton, La.

Rev. E. Lyon, M. A., our efficient Sunday school agent, lectured at this place July 26 to the Sunday school and a lasting impression was made. He very forcibly but kindly impressed the duty of pastor, superintendent, teacher and parents to the children under their care. In conclusion he said: "I have five things to require of you: 1. I will never speak a bad word. 2. I will never use tobacco. 3. I will never drink strong drinks. 4. I will never go to a ball. 5. I will never tell a lie." Then, said he, will you voluntarily agree to keep these things? To which a few of the oldest scholars raised up from their seats and responded amen. At 3 o'clock p. m. Brother Lyon preached an excellent sermon. At night he spoke again to 300 people. I pray God that Brother Lyon may be able to speak to every school and congregation in the bounds of the Louisiana conference this year. Call him, brethren; he will do you good.

J. R. Townsend, Mayesville, S. C.

Our second quarterly conference was held at Clark's Chapel, Oswego, S. C., June 21 and 22. Rev. F. L. Baxter presided. Reports showed increase over the collections of the first quarter. The Elder commended the charge very highly on the advancement made and expressed regret that in consequence of the sudden illness of Rev. B. Gapple he could not serve the people on Sabbath according to appointment. Collected for building purposes $45.50, for Presiding Elder $11.20, preacher in charge $130, for missions $4.50. We are preparing for the completion of our church building at St. Charles, on the O. S. and N. R. R. We hope to secure a score of subscribers for our excellent organ, the SOUTHWESTERN, before the next annual conference.

It was $20.80 that our people at Howell's Cross Roads, Ala., realized from the receipts of their entertainment to buy a church lot, and not $92.80, as published a week or two ago.

H. Matthews, Opelika, Ala.

We observed Easter Sunday. Collection $3. May 10 was observed as Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Day. Jubilee offering $4. The fourth Sunday in May the trustees raised $122 on our new church at Opelika and placed it in the bank. May 30 and 31 our first quarterly conference came off, with Rev. W. F. Smith, Presiding Elder, in the chair. We had a grand time. Paid pastor $69.34, paid Presiding Elder $12.50; total $81.84. June 14 was Children's Day. We had a good time and fine speeches by the school and others. Collection $3. Total collection this quarter $213.84.

G. H. Harvey, Helm, Miss.

We had a nice time Jubilee day and raised $6. We observed Easter Sunday and raised $2 for missions. Our first quarterly conference was conducted by our beloved Presiding Elder, J. M. Davis. Raised $4 for Elder. At our second quarterly conference we raised $8.75.

A. Harrison, Alexander City, Ala.

We have just closed a glorious revival. Conversions 18, accessions 35. We are taking Alexander City for God and Methodism. We observed the Quarter-Centennial Jubilee at Dadeville and Alexander City. Program was carried out grandly. Collection $26.

O. N. Samples, Gillsville, Ga.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 27, 28, Rev. E. Kirby, of Harmony Grove, presiding. Paid Elder $13.05, pastor $24.72. On Sunday, at 9:30 o'clock, a grand love feast was held. The Elder, E. Kirby, preached to a crowded house at 4 a. m. and 8 p. m. W. W. Brown, of the C. M. E. Church, preached at 3 p. m., after which 17 were baptized. The Lord's Supper was administered to 44.

J. M. Walton, Sturges, Miss.

My second quarter was held July 11, 12, by Rev. R. Sewell, Presiding Elder. He exhorted the conference to do their whole duty, to read the SOUTHWESTERN and to keep up all the benevolent enterprises of the church. Collection this quarter for pastor $44, Presiding Elder $11, missions $4, Freedmen's Aid $6, education $1. The Elder preached to a crowded house and administered the Lord's Supper to 67. The Elder and the writer preached at night at Enpora, Rev. S. M. Taylor's work. Collection $7. They have a fine new church.

P. S. Bowie, Clarksdale, Miss.

Our second quarterly conference convened July 4, 5, with Rev. J. W. Davis in the chair. Reports showed general prosperity. Paid Presiding Elder $4, pastor $26.00. Received 7 persons in full membership. The Elder preached a soul-reviving sermon.

R. T. Smith, Glade Spring, Va.

Rev. O. Boyd, Presiding Elder, held my fourth quarterly conference July 4. He preached an able sermon. Paid Presiding Elder $11.09, pastor $14.80.

Wm. Campbell, Starkville Circuit, Miss.

My second quarterly conference was held July 9, at Zion Franklin Church, by T. Sewell, Presiding Elder. Received 15 this quarter in full membership, 4 by letter and 2 on probation. Paid pastor $64.40, Presiding Elder $12.65, benevolent collections $12.70. The Elder preached to a crowded house and filled our hearts with joy.

S. H. Garey, Eastman, Ga.

I love the SOUTHWESTERN for two reasons: 1. Because it is my church paper. 2. Because it is always full of good things. Children's Day was strictly carried out. Collection $3.35. The district conference was a great benediction to us. Elder Watts, although not in very good health, was on hand. Every interest of the district was strictly looked after. I have received five members this year, and my Sunday school is much ahead of the membership in numbers.

A Jubilee Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church was held in Cincinnati, July 14. Sixteen of the twenty one directors were present, and in the absence of Bishop Walden, who is in Europe, Hon. Amos Shinkle presided. Since the last annual meeting Rev. Jacob Krehbiel, D.D., had died and a minute was adopted expressing high appreciation of him as an honored minister of Christ and a valuable member of the board. The death of Rev. E. H. Gammon, D.D., of the Rock River Conference was announced and suitable action taken expressing gratitude to God for his noble life, and for his generous gifts amounting in donations for buildings and endowments to $260,000 for Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga.

The review of the year's work by Dr. Hartzell, the corresponding secretary, in which reference was also made to the work accomplished during the quarter of a century now ended, awakened thrilling interest among those present, and earned praise and gratitude to the God of the poor in whose service this society has wrought so earnestly and with success so signal.

The committee on the report of the year's work, through its chairman, Dr. Martin, offered the following which was unanimously adopted:

"We congratulate the board and the M. E. Church on the evidence of favor—divine and human—which has marked the brief life of this organization, and on the demand and prospect of still enlarged usefulness in the future. The collection and expenditure of more than three millions of dollars in this line of Christian benevolence in the 25 years of this society, and of $322,805 during the past year, an increase of $55,900 over the year preceding, calls for the profoundest gratitude. Nor should the wonderfully productive character of this work, which the secretary and his associates and the Executive Committee have witnessed and managed, be overlooked."

There was special gratification over the fact that the indebtedness of the society had been reduced $7,298.89 during the past year.

It was felt that a more vigorous working among the colored conferences should be carried forward, which the board felt would result in large contributions for buildings, etc., and in an increase of collections. Rev. M. C. Mason, A.M., B.D., at present pastor of our colored church in Atlanta, Ga., was appointed Field Agent. He will work especially among the colored conferences of the South, under the direction of the corresponding secretary and the Executive Committee. Bro. Mason is a classical graduate of the New Orleans University, and has also taken a full course in theology at Gammon Theological Seminary, and has been a successful pastor and has shown ability in raising money in his churches and in a series of appointments in the North, and has shown adaptability for the work of raising money.

The board resolved that the indebtedness of the society should be gradually reduced, and the Executive Committee was again instructed to sell such portions of unoccupied lands not needed for school purposes as were available in the wiping out of the debt.

INSTITUTIONS OF LEARNING.

During the past year nine institutions of collegiate grade were maintained among the colored people with 155 teachers and 3,957 students. Estimated value of the property $936,000.

Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., had an attendance of 79 students and has property worth $100,000. Young men are taught theology in Biblical departments in several other institutions among the colored people, making in all 231 young men being educated for the ministry.

Eleven academies were maintained among the colored people with 56 teachers and 2,232 students and property worth $148,000.

Among the whites there are three institutions of collegiate grade. Fort Worth, Little Rock, and U. S. Grant University, at Athens and Chattanooga, Tenn., with 57 teachers and 1,011 students and with property worth $465,000. Sixteen academies are among the white people with 53 teachers and 2,031 students and with property worth $152,800.

Total number of schools, 41; teachers, 330; students, 9,310. Different students in the institution from the first since the organization, 54,784; total value of property, $1,800,000. The titles of $1,600,000 are held by this society.

FINANCIAL EXHIBIT. The total amount expended by the society in twenty five years is $2,939,969.72. The receipts for the year ending June 30, 1891, are as follows:

Conference collections	$104,651.00
For lands and buildings	50,419.19
Donations from other sources	29,712.24
From annuities	11,400.00
From bequests	28,906.35
Scholarships	21,000.00
Endowment account	7,201.00
Tuition, room-rent and incidentals	53,775.55
From John F. Slater Fund	15,000.00
Miscellaneous	21,591.15
Total	$322,656.44
Balance in treasury June 30, 1890	149.50
Total expenditures for the year	$322,805.94

The assistant corresponding secretaries, Rev. Geo. W. Gray, D.D., and Rev. James S. Chadwick, D.D., were present and participated in the discussions.

The Fourth Sunday in November was designated as "Southern Education Day," and the whole church will be asked to unite in making that day the one in which this cause will be presented everywhere.

Two hundred and forty thousand five hundred dollars was apportioned to the Annual Conference to be raised by collections only. The board took action deprecating the publication from any source of "Rolls of Honor" or apportionments effecting this society not based upon the official apportionment given by the Board of Directors themselves.

The success of the unification movement by which the forty-one institutions of the society, located in thirty-two Annual Conferences, shall be so related to each other as to location, grade, courses of study and text-books was rejoiced in by the board.

These schools are one-fourth of the institutions of learning in the Methodist Episcopal Church, of the United States, as classified in the report for 1891, or the Board of Education, and the following points were established:

1. The property is absolutely safe to the church.
2. Schools of similar grade have substantially the same courses of study.
3. Collegiate degrees, in course or honorary, are only conferred by institutions of collegiate grade.
4. No new schools will be founded between the bonds of the Southern States, either among white or colored people, without the consent and co-operation of the society.
5. The Bible is introduced as a text-book in every grade of all the schools whether of theological, collegiate or academic grade.

6. The number of college centers is reduced to the minimum and the academies are so related to these centers as to be feeders for them.

The success of the U. S. Grant University the past year, under the chancellorship of Rev. John F. Spence, D.D., LL.D., was a source of congratulation. Six hundred and twenty-two students were enrolled and the transfer of all the land and buildings owned formerly by the Grant Memorial Board, at Athens, Tenn., to the society, to be a part of the property of the U. S. Grant University, was the most important event in connection with the work among the white people.

The universal sentiment in the two extended sessions of the board was: The outlook for the society was never more hopeful. Earnest prayers were offered for the success of the schools for the coming year. THOMAS PEABE, Sec'y.

The last Fourth of July has one special crown of glory. On that day Hannibal Hamlin, Vice-President of the United States with Abraham Lincoln, died, as three Presidents before him on Independence Day. He was a relic of the past, eighty-two years old, and had served in Congress with Webster and Olay and Benton, then with Seward and Sumner and Stevens, and then with the generation now on the stage. He was a man of pure life and great ability, and on him President Lincoln leaned as few Presidents have leaned upon their associates on the Presidential ticket.

And if they had caught this "big, burly" white villain in the act, he would have been around the next morning helping to lynch some innocent Negro.—Langston Herald.

Books and Current Literature.

St. Nicholas for August. The frontispiece by George Wharton Edwards and the poem by Helen Gray Cone are excellent examples of dainty work for old and young alike. Among the more attractive titles in the index we select "The Crowned Children of Europe," by Charles K. Backus. "Vacation Days," a story told in letters, and illustrated by Mrs. Foote's strongly individual pictures. The number has a large and varied table of contents, with good serial stories, and plenty of those shorter bits which one finds just the right mental tonic on a very warm August day. The departments are also full of good things.

Tales of Two Countries is the title of the new volume which Harper & Brothers have just brought out in their "Odd Number Series" of translations from foreign languages. The author is the celebrated Norwegian story-writer, Alexander Kielland, the translator is William Archer.

Thomas A. Janvier's new volume of short stories, which has just been issued by Harper & Brothers, is called The Uncle of an Angel and Other Stories, and is illustrated.

The Southwestern.

A. E. P. ALBERT, D. D., - Editor

Official paper for the following Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church: Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas, West Texas, Tennessee, East Tennessee, Little Rock, Central Alabama, Savannah, Florida, North Carolina and South Carolina.

Largest Circulation of any Religious Newspaper in New Orleans.

THURSDAY, AUG. 20, 1891.

"THE borrower is servant to the lender." Pay out and keep out of debt.

The SOUTHWESTERN, we are glad to learn was never read with such interesting interest as it is now.

It may be well to discuss men and measures, but it is far more profitable to turn one sinner from the error of his ways to righteousness.

SEEK wisdom, trust in God, do your duty, and God will give you "riches, honor" and whatever else He may deem good for you. Let God choose and direct all of your charges.

THE election and confirmation of the election of Phillips Brooks as the Bishop of Massachusetts is an assured fact. He is one of the greatest preachers of this generation.

A PASTOR is reported to have said, in answer to the question, how he is getting along these days: "Very well, considering the number of brakemen I have in proportion to engineers."

THE war of the rebellion closed more than twenty-six years ago, but the influences of that great continental struggle are as widespread as the human race, and will continue to all generations. The great thing that was accomplished by the war was the destruction of slavery. It broke every yoke, it sundered every chain. But it is clear that all that was hoped for has not been realized. If any obligation ever rested upon any government to complete and finish a good work well begun, then the obligation rests upon the government of these United States to perfect its work of liberation, and enfranchisement, by securing for every man black and white alike the enjoyment of all his rights. We will never cease to demand that the government shall do what it is bound to do by every principle of law and justice.

PITY indeed it is that so many of our pastors will start sickly and weakly papers, which cannot wield any influence whatever, instead of taking hold of the SOUTHWESTERN and pushing it into every home on their work.

If all pastors would put the same energy for the spread of their official church paper, that they do into these little personal and selfish concerns it would not be long before the SOUTHWESTERN could boast of a well merited circulation of 25,000 bona fide subscribers. To this the whole race could point with pride. But then you know some people can't be satisfied unless they can see their names in print every week; even if they must disloyally draw the patronage of their church members from the official organ of the church to their private enterprises. The man who does that violates the letter and spirit of our Discipline which makes him the agent of the Methodist Book Concern. To that extent the agent has acted dishonestly with his principal, the church, which has entrusted him with her business. Laymen may run such papers if they desire to, but our ministers have no right to lead our members into the support of their private concerns to the detriment of the Methodist Book Concern. In fact they are under a sacred vow to be her true and faithful agents.

False Teachers and their Dupes.

Our Lord foretold that false prophets and teachers should arise in the "last days" and deceive, if possible, the "very elect."

One remarkable fulfillment of this is found in the Darbyite tracts and teachers circulating in our midst. One J. W. Darby arose in England fifty years ago, and urged believers to withdraw from all churches, because they were all "sects" and "schisms." His remedy seems to have been the homoeopathic one, "Similia similibus curantur,"—like cures like—since his method of ousting sects and schisms was by making more of them. These people are so blind as not to see that there may be unity in variety. According to them God should have made the human race speak only one language, and all should have been of one color (theirs in both instances, of course). The great number of books in the Bible is a mistake; there should have been one gospel instead of four. St. Paul was a "schismatic" in writing epistles to Romans, Corinthians, Galatians, Ephesians, etc., when one would have done for all. The early church should not have assembled together those ten days preceding Pentecost, for Ananias and Sapphira and other impure members were probably there. Peter, who had denied his Master with an oath, was certainly there, and Thomas, who had doubted him after his resurrection. They should all have withdrawn from the church and gone off to the caves and mountains of Judea to bewail the shortcomings of their brethren. The churches of Corinth and Galatia should have split into as many different fragments as there were members. The seven churches of Asia should have gone to pieces—it was all a mistake for them to hold together and fill the world with martyrs.

The very Bible from which they quote, and whose teachings they ignorantly pervert and misinterpret, is the translation of the great teachers of the churches and printed by the Bible societies sustained by them. At Rockport, Illinois, to-day, one of their kind claims to be Christ; at Cincinnati recently some of them taught they should never die and worshiped a woman who was, they claimed, a new incarnation of the son of God.

These people come with oily words and sanctimonious pretensions. They are sincere and honest, some of them, but most pitifully ignorant. Their teachers and tract writers are, we believe, wicked, ambitious men, doing the devil's work, as an accuser of the brethren, as well described in II Peter, 18, 19—"For uttering great swelling words of vanity they entice in the lusts of the flesh by lasciviousness those who are just escaping from them that live in error, promising them liberty while they themselves are bondservants of corruption."

Let all our people heed the exhortation of St. Paul in II Corinthians vi, 17: "Wherefore come ye out from among them and be ye separate, saith the Lord."

Perfectly Absurd.

No more senseless absurdity is going the rounds of the press than that started from the recent observations of Gen. Francois A. Walker, superintendent of the Ninth and Tenth Censuses, to the effect that the Negro is practically dying out. He acknowledged the fact that the birth rate of the race is far in excess of that of the whites, but because his present death rate is also higher, he bounds to the absurd conclusion that the race is practically dying out. Does not every sane man know that the race is constantly progressing in those elements that of necessity must materially decrease this high death rate? When this high death rate shall have thus been decreased, is it not quite evident that his vigorous constitution which affords such high birth rate is brought to assert itself in the great multiplication of that race in this country?

Commenting upon the subject the Inter Ocean says:

"The increase in agricultural products of the South since slavery was abolished, absolutely and completely refutes the old slander of the colored man as an industrial factor."

The death rate among the colored people is larger than among the whites, but this may be the result of condition, rather than constitution. The colored people of the South, as a rule, poor, and obliged to suffer the discomforts and privations incident to poverty. If a rich man is ill, or his family, the physician's prescriptions can be complied with, no matter what the cost. A trip to California, a sojourn at a watering place, anything, regardless of cost, can be done or had. In many ways the rich have an advantage. The average colored family must not only remain at home, but must endure numerous privations. It is by no means rare that their constitutions are below the American average of strength and tenacity of life.

The censuses will ultimately furnish the data for judging the intellectual development of the race. The progress made during the decade in education will be fairly tested by the percentage of illiteracy in 1890 as compared with 1880. The glimpses already caught of the colored people in that respect would indicate a very encouraging disposition to at least learn to read and write. In some portions of the South it is exceedingly difficult for colored parents to give their children school advantages, but as a rule they are eager to do so, and willing, if need be, to make great sacrifices to enable the children to enjoy the benefits so long denied their race by severe penalties."

It is proposed by the management of the World's Columbian Exposition to have a series of religious congresses during the fair. A general committee of Chicago ministers has been appointed to have charge of the work, of which Rev. John Henry Barrows, D. D., is the chairman, including representatives of the leading religious denominations. The intention is, in these congresses, "to consider the foundations of religious faith; to review the triumphs of religion in all ages; to set forth the present state of religion among the nations and its influence over literature, art, commerce, government and the family life; to indicate its power in promoting temperance and social purity, and its dominance in the higher institutions of learning; to make prominent the value of the weekly rest-day on religious and other grounds; and to contribute to those forces which shall bring about the unity of the race in the worship of God and the service of man. Let representatives from every part of the globe be interrogated and bidden to declare what they have to offer or suggest for the world's betterment; what light religion has to throw on the labor problems, the educational questions, and the perplexing social condition of our time; and what illumination it can give to the subjects of vital interest that come before the other congresses in 1893. It is proposed to have these and similar themes discussed by great masters of human thought from many lands." No doubt this will be made for many persons the most attractive feature of the exposition.

UNDER the separate car law it is provided that both races shall be provided with separate but equal accommodation. The practice however is to bisect the smoker with a half-inch board partition so as to divide it in two. One end is given to the whites for a smoker; the other is preannounced the first, and only class coach for colored passengers. In this half coach or pen, Negroes, Chinese and convicts of both races, in charge of white officers are crowded together, with the roughest of white rowdies who make it a business to come in there to drink whisky, smoke, or have their shoes blacked. White ladies too come in there to rock their babies to sleep, when they think them too annoying in the regular white coach. This coach however is sacred, and no Negro enters it. Such is the separate car law in its practical operation throughout the South to-day. Such an outrageous law and its practical operation should not be tolerated another day, but thoroughly tested through the supreme courts of the land.

THANK God that the Grand Army of the Republic, at its late encampment at Detroit, dared to do right. They did not forget that more than twenty-five thousand loyal black men of Louisiana, and many tens of thousands besides, bared their breasts to shot and shell for the honor and defense of the old flag. The Grand Army men knew that when a minnie bullet pierced a black man's heart the gushing blood was just as red as any that ever came from the whitest Saxon's. They knew that in camp, and on the march, and in the siege, and in the storm of battle, the black man had been true to the flag and to them. They remembered the shameful massacre of Fort Pillow and other unspeakable infamies the black man had so manfully endured, and they simply said we will, with God's help, stand by the black man. And so they will!

REV. H. H. Moore, D. D., one of the best writers in our church, contributed an article on Christian Science some time ago, to the Western, which he concludes as follows:

In Christian Science there are some facts, there is some truth; but clearly its faults are many and pernicious.

1. In religion it is pantheistic—a form of atheism.
2. Contrary to its profession, it can not restore a lost limb or a lost organ, as of the eye or ear, or arrest the progress of a genuine cancer, etc.
3. Medicine can and do have a fine effect upon the body, removing difficulties out of nature's way of effecting a cure.
4. As a substitute for surgery it is of no value, but a stupendous fraud.
5. It may permanently benefit mankind by reducing the use of drugs, and in inducing into the practice of medicine more of the mental elements. Good counsel is often better than drugs.
6. Persons especially endowed with the healing power may in time come to the front and form a class as nurses and physicians.
7. The good of all the specialists may form a school of medicine by and by.
8. The good of Christian Science is now largely overshadowed by its baseless and vicious pretensions.
9. In many cases the law should interfere, and protect the over-credulous.

DR. Crary, of the California Advocate, is in favor of the amendment entitling women to admission to the General Conference, but he is calm and law abiding. To the revolutionists who are in favor of forcing women in, by a vote of the next General Conference, whether the amendment is adopted or not, on the plea that the women are already eligible, he says:

"A constitutional amendment sent down to the people is never put into the constitution until it is adopted. It is just as with the pending law concerning women. It is no law until it is adopted."

THE World's Fair at Chicago promises to be the grandest success. The program for the opening, to take place on October 11-14, 1892, has been adopted. The dedication proper will be on Wednesday, October 12, when the President of the United States and distinguished men of every State and from foreign nations will be present and take part in the exercises. The pageant will be such a one as has not been seen by the people of this or any other generation.

Personal.

—The little daughter of Rev. E. Ford, Grosbeck, Texas, accidentally got a stone in her ear, which two doctors failed to recover. He asks the prayers of the church that she may be relieved.

—Miss Mamie Johnson, of the New Orleans University, teaching at Napoleon, La., has had great success there and is very much liked by all the citizens. One evening recently she was very agreeably surprised by a visit from her friends, when ice cream, cakes and other refreshments were served. The affair was led by Martin Hein, August Nelson, Samuel Sims and others.

—Rev. D. G. Butler, pastor at Napoleonville, called last week and got some Sunday school supplies.

—Miss Alice E. Hampton, of Central, principal of the Donaldsonville Academy, with her two lady friends, teachers of Vicksburg; Miss Carrie J. Andrews and Miss Bell W. Banks, are spending a few days in Donaldsonville, guests of the Rev. Mrs. H. J. Wright.

—A note from President John Braden, D. D., of Central Tennessee, says: We expect to be at home next week. Have had a delightful trip. Cool here; thermometer at 50 degrees this morning.

—Dr. J. H. Williams, of Galveston, Texas, has been nominated for a school trustee in that city. The election takes place Aug. 24.

—Bro. L. P. Brown, pastor at Winona, Miss., is quite sick. His doctor thinks the chances are against his recovery.

City Church Notes.

[Brief items of news from the city churches will be welcome either handed us by pastors or laymen.]

The stewards and trustees of First Street Church, unite in endorsing the administration of Bro Montgomery. A new cistern has been built and new gutter troughs for the eaves. Large audiences attend the services and general prosperity prevails.

Bro. Chinn is vigorously pushing the work of remodeling Wesley Chapel. $5000 is the sum to be expended. In order to secure the necessary means without too much debt, an "Embraze Epps Day" has been suggested for next Sunday, the 23d, on which day all are asked to contribute one dollar. We hope a thousand dollars will be raised at this meeting.

Pleasant Plains Church, D. J. Price pastor, will hold a joint class bazar five nights next week.

THE white Democratic Legislature of 1866, passed a bill, framed, introduced and pressed to final passage by Judge Fenner, licensing all lotteries in the State of Louisiana for $10,000 a year each. This was the first lottery legislation after the war.—Baton Rouge Advocate.

Those who are constantly denouncing carpetbaggers and Negroes for the injection of the infamous lottery curse in the economy of this State, should read, ponder and inwardly digest the above excerpt.

DISCRIMINATION against voters who elect, in favor of men who have power to nominate only, must go.—Washington Pilot.

Nonsense. Whose fault is it that the colored vote of the South is not counted? Fifteen-sixteenths of the Negroes of this country are in the South, and it savors of the utmost treachery to demand that they shall not receive the recognition due their overwhelming number, because the nation allows a relentless minority to oppress their votes. The voice of the patriot would rather demand that their votes be freely cast and fairly counted. We make no objection to the demand of Northern Negroes for full recognition at the hands of the party they support, but the Pilot should hang its head in shame when it bases its demands upon such an outrageous assumption.

In Memoriam.

The Western District of the North Carolina Conference, at its recent session at Hickory, N. C., adopted the following tribute to the memory of the late Rev. E. H. Gammon:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in His alwise Providence to call from this life our brother Rev. E. H. Gammon, a great friend of humanity, a special and profound friend to the colored race, and the founder of Gammon Theological Seminary.

Resolved, That the colored race in his death has lost a great friend and benefactor.

Resolved, That the Western district of the North Carolina Conference, do hereby pay the highest tribute of respect to the name of our deceased brother and benefactor, and hold in great reverence the work he has already established and left for our uplifting.

A copy of these resolutions were sent to Sister Gammon as an expression of sympathy with her. The resolutions were submitted by the following committee: Marcus Munday, Geo. W. Hill, John A. Rush.

A POSTAL card from Rev. Don W. Nichols, Nankin, China, May 24, reads: "This Sabbath morning we held our usual Sunday services in perfect quietude. This afternoon we are busy packing our clothing ready to flee at a moment's notice. The city is in an uproar over the prospect of an immediate riot. The officials claim that they are powerless to prevent it. All the ladies will leave the city to-morrow. News came from the secretary at the Viceroy's Yamen that a riot was sure to break out on Wednesday, and that the Viceroy was indifferent about it. I shall remain in the city and look after our interests here until forced to leave by the mob. I will look after our property in the West and Brother Ferguson in the North City. We cannot tell what a day may bring forth. This we know, God liveth and reigneth over all."

An old anecdote of John Wesley is going the rounds of the press, characteristic of his good sense in regard to theological questions, which we reprint. One of Mr. Wesley's preachers, wishing to marry a certain lady, consulted Mr. Wesley, who advised him against the union on the ground of an unsuitable temper in the lady. "But," said the preacher, "is she not a child of God?" "Yes," said Mr. Wesley, "but God has some children with whom he can live at peace, but nobody else can."

The Rev. Q. A. Graham, of the Blue Ridge Conference of Methodist Episcopal Church, and principal of Graham Academy, at Bethlehem, N. C., has arrived in New York, intending to spend some time in the North.

THE day of small things not to be despised.—"Once, when John Newton preached in a village, such was the indifference that only a handful came to hear him. But he was loyal to Christ, and gave the best he had. Among that little number was Thomas Scott. The sermon turned his thoughts towards the truth, and all the christian influences of 'Scott's Commentary' may be traced to that sermon."

REV. O. Boyd, of the Bristol district, East Tennessee conference, writes us that it is not true that the conference elected a delegate to general conference. He thinks the report was inspired by some one who would like to be a delegate.

THE Emperor of Germany says: "One alone is master in this country. It is I. None other shall I suffer near me."

It seems passingly strange that such a doctrine is possible from any source in this enlightened age.

DAILY BREAD.

Christ proved centuries ago that the sympathetic touch is healing.—Roe.

A Christian is the gentlest of men; but then he is a mau.—O. H. Spurgeon.

The best preparation for the future is the present well seen to.—Melancthon.

Education is a better safeguard of liberty than a standing army.—Edward Everett.

Sin has many tools, but a lie is the handle that fits them all.—Holmes.

By the street of By-and-by one arrives at the house of Never.—German Proverb.

Educate men without religion and you make them but clever devils.—Duke of Wellington.

Every duty we omit obscures some truth we should have known.—John Ruskin.

To hope and not be impatient is really to believe.—Thomas Carlyle.

I consider that man to be undone who is insensible to shame.—Plautus.

Many men are esteemed because they are not known.—Wm. Wilberforce.

Christ leads one through no darker rooms than he went through before.—Baxter.

Religion is the best armor a man can have, but it is the worst cloak.—Bunyan.

If we make religion our business God will make it our blessedness.—John Adams.

The clever thing to do is to find out people's merits.—Arthur Heeps.

He that buys and lies shall find the lie left in his purse behind.—Cervantes.

Every man's life is a fairy tale written by God's own fingers.—Hans Christian Andersen.

People who are always wishing they had something to do for the Lord might as well stop looking sour to begin with.

There is lots of room in this world for people who have the same kind of religion at home that they have at camp meeting.

The people who really pray are always sure of an answer, but only about one prayer in a thousand has any real meaning in it.

There is a self-conceit in every man that makes him refuse to receive help from God as long as he thinks he can help himself.

Men will skin one another clear down to the bone in trade, but would starve before they would go into housebreaking as a business.

God always leaves a window in heaven open through which to hear and help the man who is wholly engaged in his service.

"Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him. For he knoweth our frame, he remembereth that we are dust."

These six things doth the Lord hate; yea seven are an abomination unto him: A proud look, a lying tongue and hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, a false witness that speaketh lies and he that soweth discord among brethren.—Prov. vi, 16, 19.

John Bunyan said: "I never had, in all my life, so great an inlet into the Word of God, as now (during his twelve years' imprisonment), inasmuch as that I have often said, were it lawful, I could pray for even greater trouble for the greater comfort's sake."

Like the air the church must press equally on all the surfaces of society; like the sea, flow into every nook of the shore line of humanity, like the sun, shine on things foul and low as well as fair and high, for she was organized, commissioned and equipped for the moral renovation of the world.—Bishop Simpson.

Christ built no church, wrote no book, left no money, erected no monuments; yet show me ten square miles on earth without Christianity, where the life of man and the purity of woman are respected, and I will give up Christianity.—Prof. Drummond.

"Well, grandma," said a little boy, resting his elbows on the old lady's stuffed arm chair, "what have you been doing here at the window all day by yourself?" "All I could," answered dear grandma, cheerily. "I have read a little and prayed a good deal, and then looked out at the people. There's one little girl, Arthur, that I have learned to watch for. She has sunny brown hair, her brown eyes have the same sunny look in them, and I wonder every day what makes her look so bright. Ah, here she comes now." Arthur took his elbows off the stuffed arm and planted them on the window sill. "That girl with the brown apron on?" he cried, "why, I know that girl. That's Susie Moore, and she has a dreadful hard time, grandma." "Has she?" said grandma. "Oh, little boy, wouldn't you give anything to know where she gets all that brightness from, then?" "I'll ask her," said Arthur, promptly, and to grandma's surprise he raised the window and called: "Susie, O Susie, come up here a minute; grandma wants to see you!" The brown eyes opened in surprise, but the little maid turned at once and came in. "Grandma wants to know, Susie Moore," explained the boy, "what makes you look so bright all the time?" "Why, I have to," said Susie. "You see, papa's been sick a long while, and mamma's is tired with nursing, and baby's cross with her teeth, and if I didn't be bright who would be?" "Yes, yes, I see," said dear old grandma, putting her arm around this little streak of sunshine. "That's God's reason for things; they are because somebody needs them. Shine on, little sun; there couldn't be better reason for shining than because it is dark at home."—Sunbeam.

Hymns 62, 581, 584.
Scripture Lesson, Matt. xxv, 14, 46.
Text—Matthew xxv, 18. "But he that receiveth one talent went and digged in the earth and hid his Lord's money."

Introduction.—Our text is taken from the parable of the talents.

The word "talent" is derived from a word which means "balance," and in olden times gold and silver were weighed, and it came to mean a certain sum of money. In our language the word has lost its first meaning entirely, and is now chiefly used with reference to intellectual ability, with a tendency, however, to widen out into the ability of a man to do anything. In this we see the influence of the parable, for in this broad sense we must take it there. The all-important personage in this parable is the good-for-nothing servant with the one talent. The good and faithful servants merely serve as a background for him. When we view one of Raphael's Madonnas we never think of the landscape. When we look at Turner's pictures we can see only the rippling, flowing water and oars nothing for the fishermen and boats. When we see Rosa Bonheur's "Horse Fair," we forget the men who held the horses and are lost in admiration of those wondrous Norman steeds.

So in this parable the man with the one talent is the centre of interest—all the rest is but a background for his wicked, slothful worthlessness.

I. The sin of the unfaithful servant. His sin is not mainly in what he does, it is in what he does not do. It is again a misdirection of his faculties. "He digged in the earth and hid his Lord's money." To dig in the earth was not wrong, to hide money in the earth was not wrong. It was the common way, indeed, in those days of wars and robbers. Our Lord's parable of the hid treasure is based on this custom. But his Lord had not given him his money for this purpose. He may have justified himself by saying that the times were dangerous, and he had better hide the money entrusted to him, but this showed both a lack of faith and of obedience. And this was really based on slothfulness and wickedness. He grew careless and unconcerned, went about his own ways, pursued his own plans and pleasures. But after a long time—

"The mills of God grind slowly, But they grind exceeding small."—"The Lord of those servants cometh and reckoneth with them." The faithful servants account and receive their reward. Last of all—thoroughly afraid now to come at all—comes the servant with the one talent. He digged in the ground once to bury it. He digs again to unbury it. He attempts to justify himself by accusing and maligning his Lord. "Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown and gathering where thou hast not strawed." He compares his Lord to an unmerciful, extortionate, oriental tyrant. His Lord does not defend himself. He says: granted that all this is true, it does not destroy thy responsibility. It should only have increased thy care in view of thine account.

II. The condemnation of the unfaithful servant. "Take therefore the talent from him and give unto him which hath ten talents, for unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance. From him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath. Cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. His condemnation is two-fold—natural and penal. Natural in what he brings on himself through remorseless law. Penal in what is inflicted on him by the higher power he has outraged.

Talents not used do not remain simply the same. "Lo, then, thou hast that is thine" was false. The fishes in the Mammoth Cave are blind—they have what looks like eyes, but take the scalpel out and the optic nerve will be found atrophied and ruined. They live in perpetual darkness, and nature has taken their eyes from them. Talents unused are lost. And opportunities neglected pass over to those who will improve them. But the condemnation is penal likewise. The wicked servant has profound darkness. He shall go now to "his own place." Remorse and regret will torture him like scorpions—but too late! too late!

III. Where shall we find the wicked servant of the parable to-day? The man with the one talent is our human race—it is every one of us. We see a picture of the possible and the actual. How many men to-day are "digging in the earth" to hide the talents they should use. It is said of Mammon, once an archangel, that, "Even in heaven his looks and thoughts were always downward bent, admiring more The riches of heaven's pavement—trodden gold—Than aught divine or holy."

A man may have worldly ambitions in the Church of God, and think more of his own position and influence than of Christ and the souls of men. In that case he is digging deeper in the earth than any other class of men.

Apply all that has happened to the servant in the parable and we have what will happen to the man in the church or in the world who digs in the earth and hides his Lord's talent.

Obituary.

Benton, Miss.—Bro. Anderson Grant fell asleep in Jesus July 24, in full triumph of faith. He was born August 4, 1876, and professed religion under the preaching of the writer in 1889.

Sister Fannie Grant, 17 years of age, fell asleep in Jesus July 30. She was taken sick the same day her brother died and lingered until Thursday morning. Sister Fannie professed religion in 1889, joined Mt. Pleasant M. E. Church, and was a faithful member and a teacher in the Sunday school. She was crowned Queen on Children's day. She leaves a mother, father and brother.
J. I. Garrett, P. C.

Jackson, La.—On the night of the 8th inst., James Ingham, a native of North Carolina and a resident of Louisiana for upwards of 15 years, aged over 60 years. Those who stood around him in his expiring moments say that he gave signs of having saving faith in Christ. He leaves a wife, step-son and friends to mourn.

J. A. Tircuit, P. C.

Spay, Miss.—Sister Maggie Kennedy departed this life July 10. She was a good member of Mt. Nebo M. E. Church and Sunday school. She left in full triumph of faith. She leaves a mother, father, brothers, sisters, and many kindred and friends.

H. A. Johnson, P. C.

Reanner Circuit, Ark.—Sister Elvira Agnew departed this life July 18, leaving a husband and 7 children. She died in full triumph, aged 53 years. She was a member of the church 36 years.
A. Hardeman, P. E.

First Street M. E. Church, New Orleans.—Sister Julia Young departed this life April 25, 1891, in triumph.

Sister Eliza Stewart departed this life May 10, 1891. She lived and died a Christian.

Brother Anthony Gray departed this life August 8, 1891, in full triumph. He was the oldest member of the church, aged 75, and an officer in the church 40 years. He leaves a wife and many friends to mourn his loss.

A LETTER from George Washington has been brought to light in which he says that he cannot sell his overplus of slaves because he is "principled against the traffic in human beings." This will not tend to increase respect for his memory on the part of some people. It will multiply it however in some other people. See?

Takes 1000 people to buy Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, at 50 cents a bottle, to make up $500.

One failure to cure would take the profit from 4000 sales.

Its makers profess to cure "cold in the head," and even chronic catarrh, and if they fail they pay $500 for their over-confidence.

Not in newspaper words but in hard cash! Think of what confidence it takes to put that in the papers—and mean it.

Its makers believe in the Remedy. Isn't it worth a trial? Isn't any trial preferable to catarrh?

After all, the mild agencies are the best. Perhaps they work more slowly, but they work surely. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are an active agency but quiet and mild. They're sugar-coated, easy to take, never shock nor derange the system and half their power is in the mild way in which their work is done. Smallest, cheapest, easiest to take. One a dose. Twenty-five cents a vial. Of all druggists.

Our Missionary Teachers.

The Chicago Conservator, a colored paper, commenting upon the service of that class of teachers among our people says:

"Foremost among the heroes of the present day are the thousands of white teachers who leave home and friends at the North to go South to teach among the colored people. Few realize the extent of the sacrifice they make and the hardships they undergo. They are poorly paid, for most of the educational institutions are poor and of course can give but meagre salaries. Besides this they are subjected to many insults and the most rigid social exclusion from white people. They are treated as social pariahs unfit for recognition and scarcely entitled to respect.

Despite this fact thousands of noble white men and women give the best years of their lives in the work of educating the race. They toil finding their reward, not in the few dollars they so hardly earn, not in winning the respect of the communities in which they live for this they do not receive but in the unspeakable appreciation and devotion of the race they so unselfishly serve. They are pioneers in a grand work and far above the value of money or social popularity, their labors bring them the reward which always wait upon labor well done. They are still further rewarded by the gratitude of a people who truly appreciate the work done in their behalf."

Recognizing the work of these worthy people, the Fisk Herald of a recent date says:

"A more consecrated body of noble men and noble women can be found nowhere. The Fisk student has a peculiar reverence for his instructor. While in the general routine of daily affairs and in the general clash of mind with mind, this may not be very apparent, still the current of the lives of those who have been turned from the cotton to the college, from the field to the forum, from the plantation to the pulpit, from ignorance to intelligence, from wrong to righteousness, will flow on to bless their memory." Amen! Amen!!

There are over 100,000 students in the colleges and universities in the United States.

West Point Military Academy has graduated 3,384 representatives since its establishment in 1802.

Next to revivals, christian education is now the subject of greatest importance before the church.—Texas Advocate.

ONE benefit of the present tariff law which the average Demos-thenes of the stump is unaware of is that all books printed in a foreign language now come in free. What a boon to our poor scholars who love to read the lore of other tongues, but formerly had to pay 25 per cent for doing so. There are several other things that the above mentioned howler of the hustings is unaware of, but space and the purpose of the present writing will not permit a mention of them now.

MANY of our colored exchanges reminds us of the lottery press in this section. They scarcely contain anything but politics. The thing is sickening. Nearly all of them are worshippers of some political god or other that rewarded them with a petty office, or they are political kickers and grumblers, that are to be hushed as soon as they are given a political treat. It is an outrageous shame. It would be far better to drive a plane, swing a hammer, weed a row or do anything else, than grind out such a shameful and worthless existence.

"Why, now I cannot get enough eat," says one lady who formerly had no appetite, but took Hood's Sarsaparilla.

THIS is from the St. Louis Advocate: "Sir," said an ardent Methodist at a recent conference which he was addressing on the subject of the admission of women to the conference, "Sir, not an angel in heaven, not an elder, not a bishop, not even an editor has anything new to say on the subject!" That last assertion settled the matter."

WE shudder as we look upon the young among us that are working their way to the jails and penitentiaries. This fact involves tremendous responsibilities upon parents and pastors. Take hold of the young people, brethren, take hold. Our hope for the future is the young people.

THE men who have become the great benefactors of mankind, are not the iconoclastic critics, but those who, denying themselves of ease and pleasure, have rolled up their sleeves and gone to work to remedy and improve the defections in existing systems.

THE Nebraska Advocate observes that our senior bishop is the smallest and our junior bishop the largest physically of the Episcopal board.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELIA A. GORF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

SISTER'S ADVICE.

Don't drink it, Tom, don't drink it;
Put the tempting glass aside,
Remember what you promised, Tom,
When our dear mother died;
Remember her sweet counsel,
When our earnest life began;
Come out in God's bright sunshine,
Tom,
Come out, and be a man.

Don't drink it, Tom, don't drink it;
If you do you'll thirst for more;
'Twill rob you of your senses, Tom,
As once it did before.
Your blood is young and ardent,
As your heart is pure and true,
Oh! listen to my pleading, Tom,
Strong drink is not for you.

Don't drink it, Tom, don't drink it.
Put the tempting glass aside;
Refuse it for her sake, dear Tom,
Who soon will be your bride,
Oh! make the future happy,
Of your darling if you can;
Come out in God's bright sunshine,
Tom,
Come out and be a man.

The Household.

How to Treat One in a Faint.

This is something every person should know. First of all loosen every tight thing from around the neck or abdomen; that is, unfasten the collar from around the neck, and if the patient is a lady cut her stay laces if she wears stays. Allow the person all the fresh air possible, do not crowd around, and if in a crowded place carry the patient out, or to the open window. A fainting person should always be laid flat on the back, and it greatly aids recovery if the head can be put lower than the body, so that blood goes readily to the brain. The main cause of fainting is that the brain is deprived of blood, and if the head is laid low the brain can get its share again, and so resume its workings. Cold water sprinkled over the face, smelling salts, or burning feathers held to the nose, and fanning the face, all help to restore consciousness. In an ordinary case the person may be allowed to sit up when conscious, and after a little rest resume her way. The custom of giving brandy or other spirits to a person who has fainted is, says Dr. Allinson, a mischievous one; allow the person to come to, then let her slowly drink a cupful of cold water, and no harm is done. But if brandy is given, the person may pass from one fit to another, or become ill from the drink given. Medicines of any kind are not needed after fainting, only care must be taken to take things quietly for the next few hours. Persons subject to these attacks must keep out of close, hot, and unventilated places, either of devotion or of amusement; they should not take Turkish baths, nor even hot baths, in place of the latter they may have a sponge all over with hot water. Tea and coffee must not be drunk by those subject to fainting attacks; if ladies, they must not wear corsets. Men must not use tobacco in any form, nor drink intoxicants, if subject to these attacks. Heavy and indigestible foods, like pork, veal, ham, etc., must be avoided; as must heavy work.—Weekly Echo.

I SUFFERED from acute inflammation in my nose and head—for a week at a time I could not see. I used Ely's Cream Balm and in a few days I was cured. It was wonderful how quick it helped me.—Mrs. Georgie S. Judson, Hartford, Conn.

Letters from the Laity.

Sallie L. Parker, Pewee Valley, Ky.
The reopening of Sycamore Chapel M. E. Church was on July 2. Rev. G. W. Thomas, ex-Presiding Elder, preached a sermon very suitable to the occasion. We have remodeled our church with a beautiful bell tower in front 50 ft. high, and other improvements. We have newly painted the church inside and out, and furnished it with an entire new set of furniture. Our pastor, Rev. F. P. Fielding, is the right man in the right place, his fourth year with us. Our church is improving financially and spiritually.
[Now you had better order one of our bells—Ed.]

P. A. Cook, Monroe, La.
Bro. Goings is doing a grand work and making ready to erect the new building. On the fourth Sunday we are to have a union meeting, and a basket meeting on the second Sunday in August. Bro. Goings raised on his last rally $92.85. Bro. Price enclosed our lot for the new building before he left, and Bro. Goings is making preparations for the new building.

Mahaley Williams, Stony Point.
Our second quarterly conference convened June 6 and 7. Rev. J. F. Marshall, Presiding Elder, was present. On Sunday we had a union meeting. Several ministers, with Presiding Elder, preached during the day. We had a grand time. The Lord's Supper was administered at night to 50. Paid Presiding Elder $11, to pastor $112, other expenses $9. Our Sunday school is in a prosperous condition. Nine have been converted this quarter. We have bought and paid for one acre of land. The old SOUTHWESTERN is a light to our church.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

Mr. Editor: I would like to find my son Shandy. His master's name was Matthew Lacey. His mistress, Sophia Lacey. They lived near Spring Hill, Miss. My sister's name was Rhoda Toler, and her husband was Dabney Toler. She belonged to Susan Thomas, and her husband to Wm. Toler. I afterwards belonged to Matthew McCallough. I had three brothers, Randal, Daniel and George, and a sister Maria, who married Chas. Thomas. Any one knowing anything about him would greatly oblige by addressing

Mr. Editor: I want to inquire for my sisters. There were three of them, Jane Ann Bell, Harriet Ann Bell, and Elizabeth Bell. We belonged to a man by the name of George Bell, and we lived on the Blue Ridge, Virginia, between Clark and Lowden counties. I also had a brother named Harrison Bell and an uncle by the name of Edward Bell. He cut his hand off before he would be sold to the Southern States. My name is Mary Bell. Any information will be thankfully received. My mother's name was Millie Ann Bell. Address me at Vicksburg, Miss., 404 Openwood street.

Mr. Editor: I wish to enquire for my brother, Henry Gatlin. He left here last fall a year ago, and went to St. Joseph, La. My name is Thomas Ellis. We have another brother named William Gatlin, and our mother's name is Jane Williams. Any information concerning his whereabouts thankfully received. Address me at Galliton, Copiah county, Miss.

Teachers desiring schools to teach, and communities in need of teachers can find no better means of securing what they want than by advertising their wants through the SOUTHWESTERN. Forty thousand people read our paper every week. Write for terms.

Our Symposium.

We have added to our exchange list this month that well-known religious weekly, the SOUTHWESTERN, published in New Orleans, La., by Messrs. Hunt & Eaton. The SOUTHWESTERN is the organ of the dozen or more M. E. Church Conferences in the several States of Dixie and ranks high both as a news and a denominational journal among numerous patrons. With Dr. A. E. P. Albert as chief writer for its columns, and a corps of able contributors to assist him, the SOUTHWESTERN will yet reach a higher plane of usefulness in the future than in the past. In every effort it makes to elevate the Negro and to improve itself, we wish it God speed.—Brotherhood.

There is no more reason why the American Negro should go to Africa than there is reason for the descendants of the Pilgrims to go to England. The colored men and women of the United States are Americans, as a rule, in the fullest sense. The fact that their ancestors were brought here as slaves has nothing to do with the case. The ancestors of a good many white people were imported serfs. The American Negroes and their progenitors have been here for from one to two and a half centuries, and here they belong. The talk about settling them in Africa originated among slave-holders in the slavery period, when the white Southerner could not tolerate the presence of a free black, and wanted to banish him as far as the width of the Atlantic would permit. The slavery period is over, and with it should have died the idea of expatriating the black American.—New York Press.

Some of our "brethren in black" object to the term "Negro" as applied to them, preferring the term "colored" in designating their race. This seems strange to me. Negro is the correct designation of this people and the leading men of the race insist upon the term in preference to the word colored. The latter can be applied to Chinese, Mongolians, Indians or to any people "of color," while the term "Negro" is applicable only to a race of people specially endowed with some of the most desirable traits and characteristics to be found in any people and who ought to be as proud of their true race name as the white man is of the term Caucasian.—Chattanooga Daily Press.

THE HAIR

When not properly cared for, loses its lustre, becomes crisp, harsh, and dry, and falls out freely with every combing. To prevent this, the best and most popular dressing in the market is Ayer's Hair Vigor. It removes dandruff, heals troublesome humors of the scalp, restores faded and gray hair to its original color, and imparts to it a silky texture and a lasting fragrance. By using this preparation, the poorest head of hair soon

and beautiful. All who have once tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, want no other dressing. Galbraith & Stokes, Druggists, Sharou Grove, Ky., write: "We believe Ayer's Hair Vigor to be the best preparation of the kind in the market, and sell more of it than of all others. No drug store is complete without a supply of it."
"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor with great benefit and know several other persons, between 40 and 50 years of age, who have experienced similar good results from the use of this preparation. It restores gray hair to its original color, promotes a new growth, gives lustre to the hair, and cleanses the scalp of dandruff."—Bernardo Ochoa, Madrid, Spain.

After Using
A number of other preparations without any satisfactory result, I find that Ayer's Hair Vigor is causing my hair to grow."
A. J. Osment, General Merchant, Indian Head, N. W. T.
"Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only preparation I could ever find to remove dandruff, cure itching humors, and prevent loss of hair. I can confidently recommend it."
J. C. Bitter, Spencer, Mass.
"My wife believes that the money spent for Ayer's Hair Vigor was the best investment she ever made. It has given her so much satisfaction."—James A. Adams, St. Augustine, Texas.

Elys Cream Balm For CATARRH

THE POSITIVE CURE.

ELY BROTHERS, 54 Warren St., New York. Price 50 cts.

Our Children's Legion.

For Our Boys and Girls.

BY UNCLE CEPHAS.

Dear Uncle Cephas: The conference was held at Cedar Springs, on the 28th and 29th of this month. We had a grand time. The Presiding Elder was with us. We are going to have rally day the third Sunday in this month. We are getting along nicely in our Sunday school. My father does not belong to the church. I want you to help me to pray for him. I have a question I want to ask your Sunday school scholars. Which two chapters in the bible read alike? Your Niece, ETHEL GRANT, Farmington, Tenn.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I have been reading letters from my little cousins in the Children's Legion from your boys and girls. I thought I would speak out, so my little cousins will hear of me. I am a little boy 10 years old. I am going to day school. My teacher takes the SOUTHWESTERN, and I like to read it so well. I would like to take it the best in the world, but my mother and father cannot read. So they have no interest in the paper. Our pastor's name is Rev. F. R. Bridges, and he is loved by all of his little Sunday school scholars. I am not a member of the church, but I hope to become one soon. M. M. Alston is our Presiding Elder and was with us on the 15th of March, and held our first quarterly conference and preached a soul reviving sermon.

Your Nephew,
TRUMON SMITH,
Buford, Ga.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am a little girl 12 years old. Mama takes the SOUTHWESTERN, and we delight in reading it. I do not go to day school now, but I go to Sunday school every Sunday. Our pastor is Rev. C. W. Whitehead. He is a good man, and is loved by all. Mama and papa are members of the M. E. Church. I have two sisters and two brothers.

Your Niece,
BULAH L. HERRING, Vaiden, La.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I go to Sunday school every Sunday. Our teacher's name is Miss Mary Johnson, and she is a good worker. She reads the Bible, sings and prays for us every day, and it has caused myself and 12 other little girls and boys to join the church. Our pastor's name is A. H. Banks. Mother takes the paper and I read it every Tuesday night. Father, mother and I, are members of the M. E. Church.

Your Nephew,
ALLAN LEWIS,
Eola, La.

What Does It Mean?

"100 Doses One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses and will average to last a month, while other preparations, taken according to directions, are gone in a week. Therefore, be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier.

Why don't you get the boarding houses and different business houses with whom our people trade, to advertise in the SOUTHWESTERN?

FOR THREE weeks I was suffering from a severe cold in my head, accompanied by a pain in the temples. Elys' Cream Balm was recommended to me. After only six applications of the Balm every trace of my cold was removed.—Henry C. Clark, New York Appraiser's Office.

From General Albert Sidney Johnson, the Great Confederate General. I have used the bottles of Maguire's Balm. I have found it a most efficacious remedy for complaints of the bowels—Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Flat, etc.

FOR THE BLOOD. Weakness, Malaria, Indigestion and Biliousness, take BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It cures quickly. For sale by all dealers in medicine. Get the genuine.

An Unprecedented Offer!

We have made arrangements with the Chicago Manufacturing Company to supply one of their first-class Singer machines for only $14 cash. We will order a machine like the cut here shown, and send the SOUTHWESTERN a full year besides! It is a handsome oil-polished walnut, of latest design, Gothic cover, with beautiful panels, four end drawers and a swing drawer, nickel-plated, and warranted five years.

Each Machine is furnished with the following equipment: One Foot Hemmer, One Oil Can with Oil, One Gauge, and Screw, One Extra Check Spring, One Package of Needles, Five Bobbins, One Ticker, One Foot Ruffler, One Set of Plate Hemmers, four different widths up to seven-eighths of an inch, One Binder and One Thread Cutter. The Improved Tension and Thread Liberator is used on this machine. The manufacturers offer to refund the money if purchaser is not fully satisfied with the machine.

We receive many letters inquiring about the sewing machine premium, and how to obtain it. In order that all may understand the matter, we state in addition to the announcement, that remittances should be made to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, either by check, money order, or by express, naming the nearest or most convenient freight depot to which it is to be sent. Then we order the factory in Chicago to ship the machine. The company ships it; and receives from the railroad a bill of lading which, with the warranty, is sent to us, and which we send to the subscriber. This bill of lading is good and sufficient evidence that the machine has been forwarded, and holds the railroad company responsible for its safe delivery at the station named as its destination, and in due time, save unavoidable delays. In case of its loss the railroad which caused its loss is responsible, under the laws of the land. If not arriving in due time, show the bill of lading to the station agent and he will look it up. Don't give up the bill of lading, but it may be shown to the railroad agent. All orders are sent the same day as received, and the bill of lading is sent to the subscriber the same day we get it. We started this scheme with a view to helping our patrons, and shall carefully and faithfully carry out our part of the agreement in every case.

A LIFE SAVED!

READ THE TWO STATEMENTS

An Extraordinary Case!

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Nov. 22, 1890.

Last April I was attacked with Chagras Fever, a Spanish Honduras and was given up to die by two physicians. During that spell and since I have used a pound of quinine and quantities of other medicines without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered untold agonies. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Royal Remedy. I have had no fever since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind. Am gaining strength very fast. Can walk miles at a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Germetour has been a God-send to me. I can not say too much in its praise. Any who wish to do so may call on me.

DANIEL PAPFON,
481 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1, 1891.

My improvement continued, and soon after writing the above statement I was able to go to work and have been working ever since. My health is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony gladly, because I know that Germetour saved my life.

DANIEL PAPFON.

Chagras Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Germetour has been tried on a number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It has a similar record as a remedy for Swamp Fever and Malarial troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quickest and most unfailing remedy for Fevers of all kinds, Dyspepsia, Debility, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidences from thousands of the best people in the country, and the evidences multiply in our midst every day.

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC
Sleeplessness Cured. IV

I am glad to testify that I need Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic with the best success for sleeplessness, and believe that it is really great relief for suffering humanity. E. FRANK, Pastor, St. Severin, Keylerton P. O., Pa.

A Can. Minister's Experience.
St. Paul, P. Q. Can., Feb. 10, 1890.

I am happy to give this testimonial as to the excellence of "Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic." Suffering for a long period of nervous debility due to dyspepsia, I ascertain that since I made use of this remedy a radical change was operated on me, not only on the nerves, but even dyspepsia disappears promptly. Similar experiences have been made by many of my conferees with this remedy. I consider it entirely efficacious and proper for all nervous diseases and other cases depending thereon.

GOLDEN TEXT.

Lord, evermore give us this bread. (John 6: 34.)

LESSON HYMN, S. 7.

Laboring and heavy laden,
Wanting help in time of need,
Fainting by the way from hunger,
"Bread of life!" on thee we feed.

In the land of cloud and shadow,
Where no human eye can see,
Light to those who sit in darkness,
"Light of life!" we walk in thee.

Thou the grace of life supplying,
Thou the crown of life wilt give;
Dead to sin, and daily dying,
"Life of life!" in thee we live.

Time—April, A. D. 29, immediately after the incidents of the last lesson.

Place—Capernaum.
Rulers—Herod in Galilee; Pilate in Jerusalem.

Connecting Links—Jesus hastened away from the multitude he had miraculously fed, into solitude. His disciples started back across the lake. A great storm arose. Jesus walked toward them upon the sea, and, seeing their terror, said, "It is I; be not afraid." He stepped aboard, and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went. The crowds came around the head of the lake in search of the wonder-working Teacher, and at last found him in Capernaum, where this conversation was held.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY.

1. Earthly Bread, v. 26-31.

For what reason did Jesus say the people followed him?

For what did he tell them not to labor?

What ought they to labor for?

What question did the people ask?

Of what work of God did he tell them?

What did they ask about a sign?

What did they say about their fathers?

What kind of food did a psalmist call this? (Psa. 78: 25.)

What should be our prayer for earthly bread? (Luke 11: 3.)

2. Heavenly Bread, v. 32-40.

Who alone could give true bread?

Who is this true bread?

What did the people then ask? (Golden Text.)

What did Jesus say about hunger and thirst?

What about the people's unbelief?

What promise did he make to those who seek him?

For what purpose did he come from heaven?

What is the will of the Father?

What assurance of safety have believers in Christ?

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.

Where in this lesson are we taught:

1. For what we should labor?

2. On whom we should believe?

3. In whom we should trust?

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG BE-REANS.

Read over again the last lesson and the verses between it and this lesson.

Read the account of the feeding of the Israelites with manna.

Is there another case of miraculous feeding mentioned in the Bible?

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

[For the entire school.]

1. Who sought Jesus? The multitude that he had fed.

2. For what did Jesus prove them? For not hungering and thirsting after righteousness?

3. What did Jesus say would enable them to "work the works of God?" Belief on Christ.

4. Who is the "bread of God?" The Lord Jesus Christ.

5. What does he say about those who turn to him? "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out."

EXPLANATIONS.

Saw the miracle—Better, "witnessed the signs." Meat—Food.

Believe on him—Identify yourselves in every way with the Messiah. Did eat manna—"After all, they thought the feeding of five thousand was less marvelous than the manna, and Moses was not the Messiah." Moses gave you not—Christ will not allow himself to be unfavorably compared with Moses. The true bread—Spiritual food. Evermore give us this bread—A superficial and unspiritual prayer. Bread of life—Bread that giveth life. Believe not—They sought a feeder for their stomachs, not a Saviour for their souls. Seeth—Contempesth.

Doctrinal Suggestion—The unity of the Father and the Son.

THE CHURCH CATECHISM.

83. What special example for prayer is given us in Scripture? The Lord's prayer.

84. Can you repeat the Lord's prayer? Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Let's reason together. Here's a firm, one of the largest the country over, the world over; it has grown, step by step, through the years to greatness—and it sells patent medicines!—ugh!

Wait a little—This firm pays the newspapers good money (expensive work, this advertising) to tell the people that they have faith in what they sell, so much faith that if they can't benefit or cure they don't want your money. Their guarantee is not indefinite and relative, but definite and absolute—if the medicine doesn't help, your money is "on call."

Suppose every sick man and every feeble woman tried these medicines and found them worthless, who would be the loser, you or they?

The medicines are Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," for blood diseases, and his "Favorite Prescription," for women's peculiar ills. If they help toward health, they cost $1 a bottle each! If they don't cost nothing!

Sunday School Institute.

The pastors on the various charges on the Little Rock district, Little Rock Conference are hereby notified to send a Sunday school superintendent and one delegate for every fifty scholars or fraction thereof, to the Sunday School Institute which convenes in Wesley Chapel, August 27, 1891, at 9 o'clock a. m. The object of the call is to discuss plans and methods to promote the general interest of the Sunday Schools on the district. Pastors may represent their schools in cases where superintendents cannot attend. The preachers throughout the Little Rock Conference are invited. No pains will be spared to entertain the delegates. W. H. CRAWFORD, Chairman. J. E. TOOMBS, Secretary.

Notice.

The Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railway will sell round trip tickets on the 24th and 25th of August, good for return passage until and on Sept. 2, from Murfreesboro, Nashville, Tucker's Gap and intermediate points, to Lebanon and return, for one and one-third fare if applied for at the stations during business hours of the day.

THE people that pollute God's holy Sabbath shall certainly be visited by his wrath and judgment. Our ministers should more emphatically denounce this sin of Sabbath desecration. Too many of our people are given to the habit of copying the wickedness of sinners and wicked men in such wickedness. Their Sunday parades, with music and confusion, are a monument of corruption which will soon bring down the curse of Almighty God upon them. They should quit it and our ministers should sternly warn them of this great sin. "Because they have greatly polluted my Sabbath I will pour out my fury upon them," saith the Lord.

Editorial Notes.

May we this life improve,
To mourn for errors past;
And live this short revolving day
As if it were our last.

—John Wesley.

How do you expect your preacher to pay his debts if you do not pay him? This constant charge of preachers not paying their debts in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred is due to the faithlessness of churches promising to pay a preacher so much a year, and then not paying him. "Owe no man."

Why not organize the Epworth League on every charge in our territory. It is one of the best auxiliaries that we can put in operation in our charges. Write to the Rev. J. L. Harbut, D.D., corresponding secretary, S. S. Union, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York, for further information.

THE law of this state requires ministers and others who celebrate marriages to make returns to the county clerk within a definite, specified time. Some ministers are careless and neglect to comply with the law. Their example is bad to say the very least. They should be exemplary as supporters of the law. This remissness has caused trouble of a more serious character. Often important interests hang on the filing of these records. We once secured a transcript of a marriage record over thirty-five years old, and it was the means of procuring a pension for a needy old lady.—Michigan Christian Advocate.

Rev. Dr. Carman, of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Canada, gives the following reasons for publishing and supporting a church paper. 1. To set forth and maintain its doctrines; 2. To defend and explain its polity; 3. To advocate and extend its enterprises; 4. To interchange thought among its ministers and people; 5. To inform its constituency of the movements of other churches and the progress of christianity in the world; 6. To keep the patrons abreast the times in general literature and intelligence; 7. To develop the mind of the church in the discussions of the great themes of time and eternity.

A GOOD rule for everybody to follow is to buy nothing until you can pay for it, and buy nothing that you do not need. Our preachers especially should observe this rule. Nothing, except social impurity, is so calculated to injure the ministry as this matter of making debts and not paying them.

The Issue.

Mr. Editor: The faith, doctrines and practices of Methodism naturally lead it everywhere to strive to bring sinners by repentance and faith to Christ, and when they have attained to a saving knowledge of him her great effort is to effectually teach them that a steady growth in grace and all the Christian virtues is essential to their final admission into the realms of endless bliss. These instructions involve the fundamental doctrines of the gospel.

In her faith and practice the Methodist church clings to the simplicity of the gospel of Christ, and by it all her teachings are characterized, and hence her great and wonderful success in winning souls to Christ by scores, hundreds and thousands in every part of the world. Her wonderful success in these respects astonishes the world and most other religious denominations.

While what is said above is strictly true of the Methodist Episcopal church, much can be said of it as a divinely appointed instrument of the physical, political, intellectual, moral and religious freedom of mankind. The utterances of that pure Christian man, John Wesley, through whose instrumentality God established the M. E. Church, against human slavery, was to that institution a weakening blow, and the subsequent legislation and steps of the old church against slavery did more to open the prison door of American slavery and let the oppressed go free than was accomplished by any other moral agency. But her kindly Christian sympathy with the poor, abused colored race did not terminate with their emancipation, but was farther shown in the strenuous efforts to elevate them to a higher plane of thought and life.

Thousands of young colored men and women to day possess educational qualifications (through his munificence) that enables them to creditably and successfully fill positions and prosecute professions which otherwise they would not be capable of doing. Her success in educating the heads, hands and hearts of thousands of young colored men and women through her Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society may be seen of all men. She has sought to elevate the colored race in learning, pure morals and religion, and thereby lessen that race prejudice which has so long existed against them in this country and been the source of so many of their severe trials, afflictions and sufferings. It was by pure Christian example, as well as teachings, that she has sought to do this. She took a long step in this direction when, sixteen years ago, her General Conference passed a resolution that there is nothing in the discipline of the M. E. Church against the election of a bishop of African descent, and at a subsequent General Conference she adopted resolutions—first, opening M. E. houses of worship to the worshipers of God irrespective of race or color; and another, opening her schools of learning to students irrespective of the same.

God bless the dear old church in her noble, Christian efforts to bring men everywhere to a recognition of the fatherhood of God and brotherhood of man. When she takes one more step in this direction, that is, elects a learned and accomplished man of color to the office of bishop, it may, can and will be said of her that she has done all that she can do on these lines, that she has cast the bread upon the waters to be found after many days.

It has long since been believed that a colored man would be elected bishop by a General Conference of the M. E. Church, and it is now being predicted by many that this will be done by the General Conference that is to meet May 12. Such an election would inspire the colored people, especially those who belong to the M. E. Church, with the hope of living to see their race lifted above degrading prejudice. Such an election would be a great relief to the leading preachers of the M. E. Church in the South, who are constantly called upon by their less intelligent ministerial brethren and the intelligent laymen of our church to defend the church against the attacks of preachers of colored denominations, to the effect that, although colored people belong by hundreds and thousands to the M. E. Church, and many of them learned, intelligent and capable of filling any office in the gift of that church, it does not intend that a man of color shall be one of its bishops. Colored men of learning and ability have been members of our General Conference for more than the fourth of a century. In their ability and eloquence they have been heard, and with pleasure and approbation listened to by as learned, refined audiences as ever assembled on this continent. The opening religious services of the General Conferences have, in the presence of its fine, fashionable audiences, been conducted by educated and talented colored members of that body, and the able addresses of some of them have been applauded by the secular press. And as a step a little more lengthy would give us a colored bishop we may dismiss all fear as to anything damaging arising from it.

And in this connection I further remark that quite a number of the white conferences have expressed themselves in favor of that measure. And I am glad to be able to say that we are fully prepared to present the man—a colored man of fine learning and distinguished ability. One who is an accomplished Christian gentleman, and generally known to and admired by the people, white and colored, of this country, or a great part of it.

The election of such a one as I refer to would greatly assist our venerable white bishops in the management of the work of the M. E. Church in the South. But, let it be remembered, colored bishop or no colored bishop, we are loyal sons of the M. E. Church and intend to live and die the same.

R.

Attention, Members Little Rock Conference.

Dear Brethren: Am here in Little Rock to-day, with Dr. Mason, Brother Mason and others, planning to push forward the work on the new building for the Philander Smith College. The building will cost $8000. Mr. Budlong of Illinois, gives $3,500. Mr. La Porte, of this city, gives $1,000. The remainder, $3,500, the ministers and people of Little Rock are raising. At the last conference $3000 were apportioned to the various charges. A few charges have raised their amount and sent it to Dr. Mason. Will not all the brethren do so at once? Send the money to Dr. Mason without delay.

We want to put in some wood-working machinery so the students can make the furniture. Prof. C. W. Bulkley, in charge of carpentry department, is doing good work. We want the building ready for dedication the present year. This can be accomplished if all the pastors will raise their apportionment. Write to Dr. Mason and send the money at once or tell him how soon you will. Your brother,
J. C. HARTZELL,

Church Polity.

Q. Is the Apostles Creed in the Bible? SUBSCRIBER.

A. It is not; but is formulated therefrom.

Q. 1. Who should declare a member withdrawn; preacher, class leader, or the leaders and stewards' meeting?

Q. 2. When so declared and the withdrawn party turns up, should he be recognized as a full member, just the same as if no withdrawal had taken place?

Q. 3. A member gone for several years, and living in questionable ways regardless of any church and without any recommendation, after being so declared withdrawn, could he or she compel the third pastoral successor, under whom she has not served, to give her a letter of recommendation to join another church?

Q. 4. What must be done with a local preacher who goes off on some other district and takes or fills a supply, without taking any letter? Must the church still carry him, and when he gets discharged from his supply, go right back to the same charge months and years afterwards, and proclaim his membership and local preachers' authority?

Q. 5. Should a Presiding Elder take straggling local preachers of another district and use them in preference to those he has on his own district?

Q. 6. Can a Presiding Elder use a preacher from another State except he has his letter of transfer from the Bishop?

SAMPSON.

A. 1. Preacher.

A. 2. A withdrawal presupposes a written declaration to that effect, to the pastor in writing, by the party withdrawing. The pastor enters the fact on the record, and makes announcement of the same to the quarterly conference. After the fact has been entered in the quarterly conference proceedings. While there is no law specially enacted covering the case, the natural presumption is that the party is no longer a member of the church. The only way for him then to be restored is by quarterly conference action, or by a probation of six months.

A. 3. No.

A. 4. Every local preacher supplying a work is a member of the quarterly conference of the charge he is serving. His license must be renewed annually by that quarterly conference. Should he desire to connect himself again with the church to which he originally belonged, he must present a letter from the last church with which he was connected; although he might have been the supply of that work.

A. 5. No.

A. 6. A bishop does not transfer local preachers. The only way a local preacher of one conference can be used in another, is for such local preacher to get a letter of dismission from the charge where he held his membership, and place it in a church within the bounds of the district and conference wherein he desires to serve. The Presiding Elder of that district may then lawfully employ him, but not otherwise.

San Antonio (Tex.) District Conference.

J. T. GIBBONS.

The fifth session of the San Antonio district conference met at Uvero, Texas, August 12, Presiding Elder Rev. H. Swann in the chair. Rev. J. T. Gibbons and Mr. I. E. Starnes were elected secretaries.

Every pastor on the district was present.

Rev. Swann has certainly endeared himself to both pastors and people all over the district. Every one regrets that his time expires with this conference year.

Rev. G. W. Brothers and the dear people of Uvero deserve much credit for the manner in which they entertained the conference.

The reports rendered by the pastors and other officials of the churches showed that many precious souls had been saved, and the financial tone was never better, notwithstanding the long continued drought in southwest Texas.

Very able papers were read before the conference.

It is said that St. Paul M. E. Church, San Antonio, never showed a more healthy state, either spiritually or financially.

Goliad stands in the lead in the way of conversions.

San Antonio district is making strenuous efforts in behalf of Samuel Houston College, and will bring up a good report to the annual conference.

The business of the conference being finished, Sunday was a day of refreshing, beginning with a glorious old-fashioned love feast, after which Elder Swann preached one of his most able sermons, followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper.

At 3 p. m. the writer did the best he could for the Master.

At 8:30 p. m. we listened to an able sermon by Rev. E. Henderson of the Columbus district, pastor of our church at Hallettsville.

Monday morning all were astir, packing grips, and at 9 o'clock many met in the church, sang a hymn, had a fervent prayer by that old soldier of the cross, Rev. A. Lockhart, a few parting words by our beloved Presiding Elder, and then off to the train; and were soon bounding over the burning prairies, in our little "Jim Crow" car, for San Antonio, where we resumed our labors for the balance of the year, ably assisted by the strong men connected with St. Paul.

Meridian District Conference.

A. J. McNAIR.

The Meridian District Conference convened at Stonewall, Miss., July 2, with Rev. J. M. Shumpert, Presiding Elder, in the chair. Nearly all the members of the conference were present. A. J. McNair was elected secretary, with C. W. Ivy and J. H. Brooks assistants. The Presiding Elder read a good report, which indicated much success. Souls were being converted, new churches being built, etc. The pastor's report showed much good accomplished, and especially in the benevolent collections. There was a sermon preached each day and night. The following brethren preached: A. Quinner, A. J. McNair, L. Tate, M. White, A. Butler, P. K. Crump, D. F. Dndley, A. D. Payne, A. B. Logan. The new church at Stonewall was dedicated to God at this session. Dr. Sol was introduced to the conference and gave an address. Also Mrs. E. L. Spriggs. The Southwestern was well oared for. The Meridian district claims to hold the banner. The sum of $320 was subscribed for the Meridian Academy; $3,559.55 had been collected for all purposes in the district since last conference.

Committee: G. W. Taylor, J. H. Kennedy, G. F. Scruggs and D. B. Harston.

Fredonia, Ala.

W. F. SMITH, P. E.

My conference was a grand success at this place. I received and baptized thirty-six children and eight adults. Money for pastor $49.75, for Presiding Elder $15.60. And four cash subscribers for the SOUTHWESTERN.

The names of the children baptized are as follows:

Minnie Pearl Brooks, Arthur Brooks, John Dawson Brooks, Eugene Strickland, Jim Henry Strickland, Nellie Strickland, Fannie Belle Gunn, Annie May Gunn, Lula Zachery, Dora Zachery, Sherman Zachery, Mattie Smith, Olen Carlisle, Peter Brooks, Bishop Andrews Trammell, Willie Allen, Nola Bowen, Angeline Crawford, Zetter Harston, Boza Strickland, Tommie Ward, Jimmie Brooks, Matthew Brooks, Joseph Brooks, Otis Brooks, Lenora Brooks, Miss Anna Collins, John Henry Spencer, Lee Fuller, Martin Luther Collins, Margaret Fuller, Nettie Allen, Ed. Strickland, Zach Harris, Howard Brooks, Solon Brooks.

Marion District Conference.

T. C. LEVERT.

The conference met at Selma, Ala., July 22, Rev. G. N. Brown, Presiding Elder, in the chair. T. C. Levert, secretary.

A bright day is now dawning upon the Marion district. Revivals, building up the churches spiritually and collecting every dime of the benevolent claims, seem to be the mottoes perched upon the banner of this district. Never in the history of Methodism has a district conference composed of ministers of the M. E. Church, been known to be held in Selma before. The conference was received by the various denominations and citizens of Selma with open hearts. Ministers representing the different denominations of the city were constant in attendance upon the session, and spoke words of encouragement. The Sabbath was a feast of good things from God's word, for the people came in crowds to the different churches and went away to their homes rejoicing.

Much credit is due to the Presiding Elder and pastor for their zealous labors in this place.

The report of the Presiding Elder showed 64 conversions, $92.90 benevolent money, and 53 church papers taken on the district.

Oak Grove charge, under the leadership of B. G. Smith, is leading the district in paying the ministry, raising benevolent collections and general church work. The committees have already raised $50 of benevolent money.

The Presiding Elder made a few remarks concerning the hard struggle of the Selma mission, after which the conference raised $50 for the same.

A letter from Dr. C. R. Franklin was read and a collection of $5 was lifted for him. Dr. Franklin's health is very poor and he has been defrauded of his home. The conference united in prayer for him, led by O. Nelson.

The committee on memoirs reported in case of Rev. E. H. Gammon, commemorating his christian life and generous gifts to the church.

The Sunday School Institute was held in connection with the conference, and many valuable papers were read.

At the request of the conference, the paper of Miss C. B. Ward, on "Mission Work in the Sunday School," is to be published in the SOUTHWESTERN.

A vote of thanks was tendered the Presiding Elder for his zealous labors and impartial rulings. Also, to Rev. O. Nelson, the pastor, and the citizens of Selma for their kind hospitality in entertaining the conference.

Chattanooga District Conference of the East Tennessee Annual Conference.

L. M. MOORES, SEC'Y.

Will convene at Burket's Chapel M. E. Church, Meigs county, Tenn., Sept. 2.

The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. A. W. Randolph; alternate, Rev. A. Roach.

PROGRAM.

Is it right to lay a corner-stone of a church on Sunday? J. T. Henry.

Is it right for members of the church to give or attend dances? S. J. Harris.

What is the difference between our church and other churches in usages and customs? W. T. Manly.

Is the M. E. Church a white or a colored man's church? S. D. Brown.

Will the M. E. Church ever elect a colored bishop? D. W. Hays, D.D.

What right have we to take the benevolent collections? Wm. Galstone.

Should all the members of the church attend Sunday school? A. Roach.

Should local preachers attend Sunday school? L. M. Moores.

Should the pastors attend Sunday school, J. W. Zellender.

How should we open and close our public worship? A. W. Randolph.

Must we take all the collections? I. E. Hill.

Who was it that preached the first Gospel? C. W. Walton.

Can we find the man to-day for a colored Bishop in our Church? J. G. Dinmore.

Should we preach on all the benevolent collections? J. W. Prigmore.

All whose names do not appear in the program must select their own subjects.

The Pine Bluff, Ark., district conference convened at Pine Bluff, Ark., August 26. Rev. Geo. W. Lacey is the Presiding Elder, and Rev. John Qualls pastor. The program was a rich and varied one. The following took part in the services and literary exercises, viz: Mr. J. H. Olique, Misses A. C. Patillo, M. J. Watson, Lula B. Reed, G. Gillilen, Mrs. C. Cartwright, Profs. S. Crump, J. C. Duke, and Berkley, and Rev. Thos. Mason, D.D.

Dear Brethren: Let us stop calling conventions and attend to our work at home. I hope the time will come when preachers will preach Christ, and let worldly gains alone. There are men who would do their work and be happy, but some of our brethren who are hunting for high places and gains in this world prevent their Christian brethren from being happy and doing their Master's work. Godliness with contentment is great gain. S. DUNCAN.

Florence District Conference, South Carolina.

A. E. QUICK.

The district conference and Sunday School Institute met at Timonsville, S. C., July 22, 26, at 9 o'clock a. m., Rev. F. L. Baxter, Presiding Elder, in the chair. W. R. Jervay was elected secretary, J. R. Townsend assistant. The conference was the largest ever assembled on the district since the reorganization of the church in the South. The reports showed a development of church work greatly in excess over that of last year. These reports glowed with spiritual fire.

Our Hartsfords mission, under the care of Brother J. W. Brown, is receiving an attention worthy of commendation. He organized and built a church five months ago. His congregation then numbered 6; now 100. Four hundred and sixty-five conversions since the annual conference. The spirit of sanctification is moving among our people as never before, and that in a clear, comprehensive way, taking on more fully that life which God can use as he wills to do. The public schools and education on this district received their share of attention from the preachers, which has hitherto suffered, I fear, to some extent, for want of such relations.

W. D. Humbert read an essay on the evils of railroad excursions, full of thought and convincing proof of the evil.

Gammon Theological Seminary is making itself felt in the South Carolina conference.

Rev. D. G. Johnson next read an excellent paper on the necessity of the pulpit keeping abreast of the times in this progressive age.

A collection of $12 was raised for J. W. Brown, of the Hartford mission.

Rev. J. R. Townsend preached the annual sermon to a large and appreciative audience. It was a logical and interesting production, delivered with spiritual power, and at the close of the sermon many anxious souls came forward to be prayed for.

The leading subject that engaged the attention of the second day's session was the admission of woman to the general conference. Several speeches were made by R. A. Cottingham, F. D. Smith and A. E. Quick in the affirmative and A. McLeese, S. Quirk and W. D. Humbert in the negative, while Rev. A. Middleton spoke compromisingly. The vote was taken and resulted in support of the affirmative argument. Greetings were received from the Charleston and Orangeburg district conferences and responded to.

At 8 o'clock p. m. Rev. B. M. Pegues preached a soul-saving and reviving sermon. Many came up to the altar in search of the Savior.

The Sunday School Institute was opened by Prof. E. J. Sawyer. The secretary and treasurer made their reports. Prof. Sawyer delivered an address on the work of the Sunday school, showing its increase in every department, its healthy condition, its necessity, its relation to the church and its destiny, success and victory.

Miss Eliza Bowler read an interesting paper.

The religious training of the youth, in keeping with the progress of the age, was debated pro and con, and Brothers F. E. McDonald and S. S. Butler and J. W. Alman, of Bennett College, made very able speeches on the subject.

Miss Henrietta Marshall read a very excellent paper, defining the relations of the church to the Sunday school.

The Presiding Elder was presented with a beautiful tea set and large silver fagon, bearing the initials F. L. B. It was a rich silver memento of his birthday. Speeches were made by Brothers Middleton, McDonald, Sawyer and Gray.

Brother B. M. Pegues, in behalf of the conference and friends of the Florence district, made the presentation. The Presiding Elder responded with a short but timely speech, expressing gratitude for such an expression of affection. He assured them that such devotion would always find a place in his large heart, watered and cherished by reciprocal deeds.

At 8 o'clock Prof. Wm. L. Bulkeley, of Clafin University, addressed the conference and citizens of Timonsville. His address was of a high order and appreciated by all.

The exercises closed with a few timely remarks from Rev. A. McLeese.

The fourth day's session was largely given to minute business, receiving reports, etc. Rev. F. D. Smith read a paper on the growth of the Florence district. It showed that Bro. Smith had surveyed the whole field from Dan to Beersheba. He showed the material advancement and spiritual growth of the district for six years and placed its destiny upon the Alps of progress.

J. McLeod read an excellent paper on revival preaching.

The writer offered, and the conference adopted, resolutions condemning the convict lease system now operating in this State as ungodly, unconstitutional and inhuman, and asking that every paper in sympathy with good government, humanity and the church, to protest against the system.

Rev. A. McLeese held the audience spell-bound for an hour, at 8 o'clock p. m., in his usual way of preaching.

Love feast was conducted Sunday morning by Rev. A. Middleton.

At 11 o'clock a. m. the Presiding Elder, F. L. Baxter, sustained his reputation as a pulpit orator in the delivery of a sermon that must live in the hearts of those who heard it while time and memory last.

The Sunday School Institute convened in the evening, when speeches were made by several touching the great interests of our Sunday school work.

The conference was hospitably entertained by the good people of Timonsville.

We trust that the Christian influence of such a large body may be long felt by the town and the neighboring country.

Wytheville District, Tennessee.

G. T. WRIGHT.

The district conference of the Wytheville district, East Tennessee conference, closed one of the most important sessions that it ever witnessed. Rev. G. F. Wright, Presiding Elder, showed by precept and example that he was the right man in the right place, and his fatherly admonition will not soon be forgotten. Rev. J. S. Hill, A. M., B. D., of the Morristown Seminary, was present and represented the cause of the new building at Morristown. He also preached a soul-stirring sermon, after which many came forward for prayer, and several were happily converted.

The following charges paid their assessments for the Presiding Elders' Convention which met at Chattanooga, Tenn.: Thompson Valley $1.50, Graham $2, Radford $2, Newbern $1.50, Pulaski City $2, Bramwell $1, Wytheville $2, Giles $1, Max Meadows $1.50.

On motion of Rev. D. C. Cook, a resolution was adopted requesting each pastor to get two new subscribers for the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Presiding Elder made his report, as did each pastor, showing that every department of the district was moving on a progressive line.

Sunday was a high day in Dublin. Each preacher filled his appointment with great credit.

So closed the session of our conference, June 22.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is justly considered the only sure specific for blood disorders.

SPECIAL TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Please take notice, that all anonymous letters go directly to our waste basket; 2d, Letters must be written on only one side of the paper; 3d, No frivolous questions will be noticed; 4th, Abbreviations should not be used; 5th, Notes and items must be condensed so as to insure brevity; 6th, We return no manuscript.

G. J. Izard, Richmond and Keadleton, Texas.

On June 19 and 20 Dr. I. B. Scott, Presiding Elder, held our second quarterly conference. Dr. Scott preached a splendid sermon to a large and attentive congregation. Collection for Presiding Elder $13.40, for pastor $47. Two weeks previous to this meeting the church in which these services were held was lying simply a pile of material on the ground. The writer, having some idea of mechanism, called together a dozen or more brethren and within two weeks the church was dedicated by Dr. Scott. Since that time we have completed a fine tower to the same. We now need the ceiling and paint. When that is done we will insure at a low price for $1500. At Richmond we are still collecting money and material to build a new church.

R. M. Thomas, Welton, Texas.

Presiding Elder W. H. Logan was with us on the 23d and 24th of May and held my quarter. Collection $2.10.

W. M. Goodnen, Hartsville Circuit, Tenn.

We are moving on nicely. The dark clouds have passed away and everything looks bright for the future. July 13 was my third appointment at Hartsville. I preached to a large congregation and administered the Lord's Supper to 75. Collection $10.70. The work is prospering spiritually and temporally.

H. L. Kennedy, Handsboro, Miss.

Our second quarterly conference was held July 11 and 12. Paid pastor $143.60, Presiding Elder $15. Rev. B. L. Crump preached a sermon that made a lasting impression. Collection $23.60. The Presiding Elder brought the case of our new church at Osyka, Miss., before the people, and at once the amount of $5.25 was raised to help the pastor build a church there. Fifty-three persons gave 25 cents a piece in the collection.

G. W. Norris, Harrisburg, Tex.

Our quarterly conference was held July 11 and 12 by Rev. I. B. Scott, D. D. Most of the members were present with reports. On Sunday the Elder preached two edifying sermons. Paid Elder $10.10, pastor $37.80. This quarter I have built the parsonage. We are living in it but it is not finished. Our people will make another rally soon to complete it. There is no work here for the people to do and they have to move away to other points to get work. This makes times a little hard, but the church is moving on and our members do all they can. Our Sunday school is doing very well. I took in five on probation.

M. Q. A. Fuller, Hawkins, Texas.

The second quarterly conference of Hawkins circuit was held at Center Church June 27 and 28. Rev. Wade Hamilton, Presiding Elder, was not present on account of the Presiding Elder's convention, so the pastor in charge held the conference. Nearly all the members were present and their reports showed that much work had been done during the quarter. About $10 has been raised for the benevolent causes. The Presiding Elder was on hand on Sunday and preached a wonderful sermon. Many came forward for prayer. Paid the Elder $15. Elder Hamilton is an earnest worker for Wiley University.

J. G. Howard, Jacksonville, Fla., speaks in glowing terms of a recent visit to Fernandina, Fla., Rev. J. F. Elliott, pastor. He says Brother Elliott has the foundation laid for a large brick church, which will be the finest colored church in the city.

St. Paul Church, Craig, Miss., Rev. J. Woods, pastor, gives a picnic August 21.

T. Larkins, Morgan City, La.

Our protracted meeting resulted in 35 conversions. Sister Karnik, from Winsted, La., labored with us for two weeks. She is a great woman in the hands of God and knows how to reach men and women. May her life be long in the service of God and the uplifting of fallen humanity. Rev. E. Lyon, Sunday school agent, was with us June 8th and preached an interesting sermon and made a good impression.

J. N. Rush, Denver, N. C.

We have enjoyed the presence of the Holy Ghost many times since May 16. Forty souls have been saved, 34 added to the church, 5 baptized. Tucker's Grove camp meeting, August 21 and 25. We are praying that many may be saved on South Catawba circuit this year.

F. Gilmore, Clarksville, Texas.

My revival closed with 9 souls for Christ. We are getting along very nicely in our work. We are working to get all our assessments this year. The friends of Clarksville gave wife and I a surprise party on May 23. They brought many good things with them, for which we extend our heartfelt thanks. Friends, call again.

J. B. Brooks, Kenola, Miss.

Our quarterly conference convened June 13, with Presiding Elder B. L. Crump in the chair. Paid pastor $29, Elder $8. The Elder preached a stirring sermon, after which he gave the sacrament to 42 and 6 members were received. This point is one year old and numbers 42 up to date. Collected for Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society $5.

The Great Benefit

Which people in run down state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength, but Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up in a perfectly natural way all the weakened parts, purifies the blood, and assists to healthy action those important organs, the kidneys and liver.

Letters from the Laity.

G. D. Field, Mason, Tenn.

Our Presiding Elder Rev. B. F. Anderson was with us June 26 28, and held his third quarter. We had a grand time; raised for Presiding Elder this quarter, $8.20. On the night of the 28th, the elder preached to a large audience. We are having a good time and hoping for much success this year.

Oscar Moss, Webb, Miss.

Our pastor is doing a wonderful work. He has built one church, and is loved by everybody.

The central convention of Presiding Elders of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will be held at College Avenue Church, Greencastle, Indiana, December 1, 2, and 3, 1891. The program promises to be a rich one. Committee on program: D. F. Barnes, W. H. Rider, J. L. Hudson, A. A. Gee, John Pearson, J. H. Ketcham. All who attend will no doubt be greatly benefitted.

Out of Debt—Let us Keep Out.

For the second time in a quarter of a century—once in 1887, and now again in 1891—unless all signs fail, the Missionary Society will be out of debt on the first of November, 1891. The million and a quarter line is fairly in sight. Our increase from all sources over last year on the first of July, is one hundred and twenty-four thousand dollars. Much of this is from bequests; but we will keep steadily in mind our watchword:

Twelve Hundred and Fifty Thousand by Collections Only.

The fall conferences will give us a large increase; many churches have doubled their collections; we get the most cheering letters from the Presiding Elders and pastors; so that we are well-nigh sure of getting out of debt once more.

Now Let us Keep Out Forever!

There is no need of going into debt in the management of this great business. Let the General Committee fix as the limit for its appropriations for 1892, the exact sum raised in 1891. Then, when we have reached that line it will enable us to send on to the church the Macedonian cries that come to us: to tell the church what

We Might Have Done if we had the money at our disposal.

We can make a tremendous plea by arraying these facts before the people through the press, in the pulpit, and on the platform. It will be sure to win. It will be infinitely better than this everlasting cry of debt, which in itself is a confession of incompetency. We shall win and hold the confidence of all good business men in the country. They will say, "There is a church society that means to conduct its business religiously," and they will give us more than ever before.

One thing is sure: if the Missionary Society ever gets into debt again it will be contrary to the earnest advice and in spite of the united opposition, so long as it will avail, of the three secretaries now in office. On this subject we are a unit. No more debt for the Missionary Society! Three hundred thousand dollars for interest is quite enough. Of every missionary dollar, henceforth, let at least ninety-eight cents go for the purpose for which it was given. Amen!

General Church News.

American Bible Society.

The stated meeting of the Board of Managers was held at the Bible House on Thursday, August 6, 1891. Theophilus A. Brower, Esq., vice-president, in the chair.

The devotional services were conducted by the Rev. Frank Russell, D.D.

Announcement was made of the decease of the Hon. Paul Dillingham, of Vermont, one of the vice-presidents of the society, and a memorial minute was adopted by the board.

The committee appointed to prepare a minute concerning Robert Lewis, Esq., one of the managers, whose death was announced at the meeting in July, presented their report, which was adopted.

The Rev. Frank Russell, D.D., who represented this society at the recent anniversary of the British and Foreign Bible Society, in London, reported that he had received the most cordial welcome; and he also gave an interesting account of the action of the recent meeting of the Evangelical Alliance held in Florence, concerning the imprisonment of the Rev. Francis Penzotti, the society's agent in Peru.

Upon recommendation of the Committee on Distribution, grants of Bibles, Testaments, and portions, to the value of about $1,555, were made for distribution and sale in the United States, in South America, and in Africa.

The issues from the Bible House in the month of July were 78,372 copies; issues since April 1st, 320,116 copies.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

Mr. Editor: I want to inquire for my people. My master's name was Billy White and he lived in Alabama, Dale county. My father's name, Jefferson Walker. I had four brothers and four sisters. My brothers' names, Ben, Willis, Henry and James. Ann Parker was my oldest sister. I left them all in Alabama before the war. I was carried to Louisiana, and from there to Texas. I married a man by the name of Tom Lewis. It is over thirty-two years since I left them in Alabama. I am a poor old widow now, and any information of the above names will be gladly received.

JINNIE LEWIS,

Care of Wm. Thompson, Bryan, Tex.

Mr. Editor: I wish to enquire for my relatives. My mother was named Sanders, and belonged to John Sanders, a speculator. There were two sisters and two brothers of us. My oldest sister's name was Louisa. My name is William Coley. I was first sold in Richmond, Va., to a man by the name of Scarce Easley, and also my sister Louisa, after which I was sold to a man in Alabama by the name of Jack. My father went by the name of Jim Pento. Address me at Craig's Postoffice, Silver Creek, Yazoo county, Miss.

WILLIAM COLEY.

Mr. Editor: I want to inquire for my people, whom I have not seen for years. My mother's name was Betsy Foster. Was owned by Peter Foster, Matthew's county, Va. I belonged to Wesley Foster. I have a sister named Hannah and a brother named James. I left about forty years ago, and they all were with Peter Foster. My father was named Jim Digs. My name was Lue Easer Foster. Address, Lue Dixon, Hattiesburg, Miss.

Mr. Editor: I wish to inquire for my children. I had four, all boys, Nathan, Mazon, George and Henry. Nathan's father was Isaac West, who belonged to Dr. West, in Soda county, Miss. Mazon, George and Henry's father was Reuben Moore. They lived in Alabama. The last time I heard from them they were in Shelby county. I have not heard from them since before the war. I left them with their owner, John Prestage. Nathan belonged to a man named Wiley Fitzgerald, and I belonged to his son, Hayward. My name was Lucinda Fitzgerald, but now I go by the name of Lucinda Adams. Any information will be thankfully received. Address Lucinda Adams, in care of H. O. Markham, Shreveport, La.

Frances Bland of Navasota, who advertised for her father, found him thereby in Abbeville, La., and is overjoyed. The SOUTHWESTERN "gets there."

Books and Current Literature.

Hector Malot's Romain Kalbris: the Adventures of a Runaway Boy by Land and Sea, has been translated into English by Mary J. Serrano, and is just published by Harper and Brothers in their Franklin Square Library.

The Season for September, just received, and, as usual, its pages are filled with exquisite designs. Plate 893 is exclusively for Misses and Children, and will be appreciated by all Mothers. The majority of ladies value it for the fact that no other matter is ever to be found in its pages except what it is intended to represent, fashions in dress, and all kinds of needle work and art decorations for beautifying our homes. Single copies, 30 cents. Yearly, $3.50. The International News Company, New York.

Hamlin Garland, whose wonderful portrayal of Western farm life in his Main-traveled Roads has attracted such general attention, contributes a brilliant Western character sketch in the September Arena, entitled An Evening at the Corner Grocery.

The Treasury for Pastor and People for August is overflowing with articles rich in thought, varied in subjects and numerous in quantity. No fair minded person will complain of it in any particular, and every preacher, Christian worker and Biblical student will hail it with pleasure as an indispensable aid. There are Leading Thoughts of ten sermons by eminent preachers. Yearly, subscription, $2.50; clergymen, $2; single copies, 25 cents. E. B. Treat, publisher, 5 Cooper Union, New York.

P. H. Woodward & Co., Baltimore, Md., are about to issue a book entitled Life, Wit and Wisdom of Spurgeon, which has been in preparation for some months.

Prof. D. W. Boatner, of Shreveport, La., delivered an able address at Alexandria, La., on Woman's Sphere, recently. It has since been published in pamphlet form, and a copy sent us. It is a strong and manly plea in favor of the complete emancipation of the sex; and gives evidences of extensive and well digested readings and observation.

Co operative evangelism, by Dr. J. W. Young, shows some remarkable facts connected with the relative contributions of all our churches for the several benevolent causes. It is a very valuable bulletin of information on the subject and is a credit to Dr. Young, who therein justly secures to himself the title of the great church statistician. Price, 50c. per annum. Fifth Ave. and 20th st., New York.

Among recent publications which have reached us, we are glad to call attention to the following: Interdenominational Sermons, a series of sermons delivered in Old John Street Methodist Episcopal Church, New York City, by prominent ministers of different denominations, edited by Rev. Wellesley W. Bowditch, D.D., pastor of the church, with an introduction by the Rev. James M. King, D.D., secretary National League for Protection of American Institutions. New York: Hunt & Eaton. Cincinnati, Cranston & Stowe. Price $1.25.

Report of the New York City Church Extension and Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for year ending March 31, 1891. Printed by Hunt & Eaton, New York.

The Present State of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a symposium between Drs. Henry A. Butz, Geo. R. Crooks, Ensign McChesney, Oas. J. Little, B. P. Raymond, O. H. Warren and Messrs. John A. Wright, and Wm. White Hunt & Eaton, Publishers, Syracuse, New York. Price 25 cents.

The Africa Annual Conference Minutes, Methodist Episcopal Church, 1891. Published by O. E. Welch, Vineland, N. J.

The Leland Standford, Jr., University Circular of Information No. 4. David S. Jordan, President, Menlo Park, Cal.

Three Months with the New York Herald, or Old News on Board a Homeward Bounder, by Capt. A. Menott Wright. Published by Wm. Beverly Harrison, New York, 3 East 14th street. Price 50c.

The Teaching and History of Mathematics in the United States, from the Bureau of Education, Circular of Information No. 3, 1890.

Year Book (1891) of the Young Men's Christian Association, from Richard O. Morse, General Secretary International Committee, New York.

Sixth catalogue (1890-91) International Young Men's Christian Association Training School, Springfield, Mass.

HAVE you read the world-famous addresses by Prof. Henry Drummond? They are the most fascinating and entertaining of discourses on Bible themes. Five addresses complete in one volume: "The Greatest Thing in the World;" "Pax Vobiscum;" "The Changed Life;" "First," a talk with boys; "How to Learn How," dealing with doubt, preparation for learning. We will give this valuable book free to every new subscriber to the SOUTHWESTERN who pays a year's subscription, $2 in advance. The book alone will be sent, post paid, to any one sending us 75c. for the cloth binding, and $1.25 for the presentation edition.

BISHOP Joyce said at the Baltimore conference: "I want the laymen to come and see me. I want to see the brothers that go to church and prayer meeting, who subscribe for their church paper and pay for it."

A COLORED Baptist preacher, with more beard than brains, is reported as saying that it is now time for the white man to "stop rocking the Negroes." By this he meant that the whites should no longer assist in the elevation of the race. This man must have forgotten that the Negro rocked the white man in slavery for nearly 250 years, and has been and is now rocking him; and what is still more emphatic that preacher had to do a considerable share of that rocking himself. How silly some people are.

THOSE self-conceited fops that imagine themselves philosophers because they have read a book or two, that are constantly decrying his pronounced opposition to slavery, because Mr. Lincoln did not issue the emancipation proclamation before he did, should go and study the personal history of Abraham Lincoln and the history of their country. Verily a little learning is a dangerous thing! The more we learn of both the more we find that for which to thank God and honor the name of the great emancipator.

THE Baton Rouge, (La.) District Conference at its recent session, unanimously endorsed the appointment and work of Rev. Ernest Lyon, A. M., as Sunday school Agent for Louisiana; requested the Sunday School Union to engage him as a regular field agent, and requested the several churches to raise his apportionment and support and encourage him in his work. It also thanked Dr. Albert for, and endorsed his editorial in which he so ably appealed to the Sunday School Union for the recognition of this work, and to pastors for their support of the same.

Why the Masses are not Reached by the Church.

Dr. A. B. Leonard, one of the secretaries of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the Christian at Work, has an article on the reasons why the masses are not reached by the church, in which he locates the whole difficulty in the impaired power of the church, consequent on its worldliness. He says:

"I affirm that, to an extent that is alarming, the churches have surrendered to the 'world,' and by so doing have lost their power to save and influence the masses. There prevails a semi-infidelity among both clergy and laity. Latitudinarianism abounds. If a man holds strongly to old orthodox views, he is regarded as narrow and Puritanical, while the man who believes all creeds a little, and none of them very much, is held to be broad-minded, charitable, and intelligent. There are ministers occupying what are supposed to be orthodox pulpits who delight to be called 'higher critics,' and who advocate theories that are destructive of evangelical religion. There are professors in theological seminaries who repudiate the divine inspiration of the Bible. They are disciples of Huxley, Darwin, Tyndall & Co., rather than of Jesus Christ and the apostle Paul. They preach doctrines which, if believed, have no power to save men from sin.

The secular press, with its materialistic tendencies, is patronized by Christian people not only on week-days, but on the holy Sabbath as well; while sensational, fictitious, and even immoral literature burden their libraries and center tables.

Church people are found in vast numbers in all places of public amusement. Play-houses, race courses, base ball and foot ball games are patronized largely by the laity, and in some instances by the clergy, although it is well known that the character of the average theatrical performer is far below even worldly morality, to say nothing of the morality taught in the Bible; while as to race courses, base ball and foot ball games, they are known to be the peculiar fields for the operations of gamblers. It is even an open secret that church people not infrequently put up stakes upon races and games.

Social amusements, such as cards, dancing, and private theatricals, are quite common in church families, while the last named is not by any means unknown in houses dedicated to the worship of God.

Money-getting by dishonest methods is practiced by multitudes of church people. Stock gamblers hold high positions in many rich churches. 'Bears' and 'bulls' strive with each other in the market places on week-days, and then meet at the communion table on the Sabbath. Even lines of business perfectly legitimate in themselves are not unfrequently carried on by illegitimate methods. A merchant in New York, who has been thirty years a dealer in dry goods, said to the writer that there is not a merchant in the city who conducts his business in harmony with the Ten Commandments and the Golden Rule."

Dr. Leonard gives the key to the whole matter of church aggression and prosperity. He says:

"Let the church purge itself of all complicity with the sinful 'world' and return to primitive Christianity, doctrines and methods, and it will reach the masses, and in no other way. A church filled with the Holy Ghost, in place of dissonant methods, will be saving the people. Let Protestant ministers, themselves baptized with the Holy Ghost and endowed with 'power from on high,' lovingly, earnestly and fearlessly preach the old doctrines, 'reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering,' and the masses will flock to their ministry like doves to their windows."

We have a measure of sympathy for the white men of the Grand Army of the Republic who asked at Detroit for a separate department for the colored veterans in the South. Doubtless they are brave and good men, and would again, if there was need, venture their lives for the defense of the flag. Then, why did they ask to be separated from their black comrades? The truth requires us to say, that it was because of the intense caste feeling that prevails all over the South. These white men are from the North for the most part. They have taken up their residence in the South. They are in business here. They have their families here. But woe to every man of them, and woe to their families, and woe to their business if it should be known that they fraternize with their black fellow soldiers. Not one person in a thousand in the North realizes the fact that these white men need as much courage to face civil, business, and social ostracism as they did to face the cannon's mouth. The caste spirit, the colorphobia now rampant in the South is unspeakably infamous. Every old white soldier ought to despise, and hate, and resist it.

REV. DR. A. E. P. ALBERT in Zion's Herald gives a very hopeful view of "The Negro in the South." The Negro race in the South is a conglomeration of French, Irish, Scotch, English, German Jewish and American blood. It is all shades of color, from jet black to pure Caucasian. It has an infusion of the very best blood of the "first families." It has made more rapid progress than any race ever did under similar conditions. Twenty-one thousand schools of all grades are open to colored people; 2,500,000 can read; 16,500 are in high schools and colleges. Negroes own 10,000,000 acres of land, and pay taxes on $200,000,000 worth of property. He complains of "plantation stores," even some white people denounce them as monstrous swindles, which they invariably are. The Negro is still cheated, oppressed, persecuted, and put to death simply because he is not a white man. "Politically he is practically disfranchised." In some communities a colored man who is intelligent, honest, frugal and prosperous is intensely hated by the miserable poor white rowdy, vagabond and drunkard, and is sometimes set upon and murdered because his life is a contrast to the wretchedness that see him better clothed, fed, and housed than they are. Education and religion for both classes will save both.—California Christian Advocate.

No more pernicious doctrine can be preached among Methodist ministers than that which says: "To secure the best appointments you must kick and threaten to quit the church, and have it understood that tempting appointments are offered you in other churches." Our experience is that our bishops generally let such men understand that the Methodist Episcopal Church gives no premiums to such kicks or threats. Indeed, they generally make such men understand that the church doesn't need nor want them an hour longer than they are willing to remain and comply with their sacred vow to gladly and willingly submit to the godly judgment of their chief ministers. They regard and appreciate merit and loyalty, always, but they lose no opportunity to frown down worthlessness and disloyalty.

MEDITATE on this picture from Krummacker: "Unbelief does nothing but darken and destroy. It makes the world a moral desert, where no divine footsteps are heard, where no angels ascend and descend, where no living hand adorns the fields, feeds the birds of heaven, or regulates events."

THE Issue justly calls Mr. Reynolds, one of the sanctimonious participants in the recent Sunday School Convention held in this city, to account for congratulating the citizens of this city "for having done such a good deed as murdering the Italians in the parish prison." Shame on the Christian (!) man guilty of such diabolism.

Help Poor Africa.

SUMTER, S. C., Aug. 8.

Dr. A. E. P. Albert:

Dear Brother: From the columns of the SOUTHWESTERN I learn that there is not a printing press in the republic of Liberia. Our school at Cape Palmas ought to have a printing press and outfit for publishing a paper. "The African Christian Advocate" should be established at once with American dollars, and in this way help to evangelize the Dark Continent. I will head a list of subscribers with $10, and will do more, if possible, later on. Please open your subscriptions and oblige one greatly interested in Africa and the Africans. Yours truly,

J. B. MIDDLETON.

We heartily commend the above to all the friends of Africa, and endorse it with a subscription of $10 to that proffered by Brother Middleton. No greater responsibility rests upon the church of America than this very cause. Who will now be the next to unite in this special effort to help Africa? Send cash to this office, and it will be acknowledged through our columns and applied to the purpose herein set forth. Those who deem best to do so may send us $2 and we will send the SOUTHWESTERN one year to worthy and needy ones over there.

Political Review.

The Pennsylvania Republicans in recent convention, passed a resolution endorsing Mr. Blaine for the presidency, but on second thought modified it to an endorsement of him as a man and a public servant, claiming him as a son of the State. The convention also endorsed the present administration, and put forth a strong ticket.

The campaigns in Texas and Ohio are now well started. In Iowa the issue is prohibition and drunkenness, the Republicans endorsing the law and the Democrats opposing. In Ohio the issue is protection and free trade, as outlined at the start. The Alliance or Third Party will make a stand, which the Democracy hope will result favorably to them.

The Governor of Florida has refused to certify to the election of Senator Qull, so the Senate will have to pass upon his right to a seat in that body.

Michigan will elect her presidential electors next year by congressional districts, which may result in giving one or more of them to the Democratic candidate.

The Democracy of the country is generally bemoaning the exceptionally good crops this year, whereby (with the short crops in Europe) general prosperity must prevail. With them success is measured by disaster in the country; then the beneficent effects of the "McKinley bill" are now being felt, so that the outlook for Republican success next year is very bright.

Personal.

—Rev. D. G. Pharris called last week, looking well and full of faith.

—President Harrison has just appointed Rev. Dr. T. G. Steward, of Washington, D. C., as Chaplain in the U. S. Army. This makes three colored chaplains.

—A few weeks ago we were called to chronicle the death of Sister McKinney, wife of Rev. M. M. McKinney, of the Central Alabama Conference. Now we are called upon to record the fact that Bro. McKinney is dangerously ill. We pray for his recovery.

—Marshall, Texas, was visited by Dr. J. O. Hartzell, Secretary of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, August 18. Dr. I. B. Scott, D.D., President Board of Trustees of Wiley University, also visited Marshall on the 18th inst.

—Dr. Hartzell and Bro. Mason of the Freedmen's Aid Society are in the city. They attend the North and South New Orleans district Conferences during the week.

Jots and Dots from our Georgia District Conferences.

The first district conference of the year was the Macon district conference which assembled at Eastman, Georgia, in July, Rev. Jno. Watts, P. E., in the chair. Owing to a failure to receive reduced rates there were not as many delegates as at previous sessions, but the conference was one of much pleasure and profit. The reports were in order and showed an increase over last year. This is Bro. Watts' last year on the district and he is making it one of the most successful of his ministry. Our representative could not be present, but the SOUTHWESTERN was not forgotten.

The Griffin district conference was the next to meet. It assembled at Barnesville, Ga., July 22, Rev. E. L. Hammett, the active and popular Presiding Elder, in the chair. There was a larger attendance than ever before. Everybody it seems, catching the spirit of P. E. Hammett, was happy and cheerful. Reports from the pastors showed that already as much benevolent money had been collected and forwarded as the district reported for the whole of last year. Presiding Elder M. M. Alston, of the Gainesville district was present and brought a message of cheer and good will from his district. He preached an able and acceptable sermon. Rev. M. C. B. Mason, Field Agent of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society was heartily received. He addressed the conference so also did Profs. Fortson and Crogman of Clark University. Dr. Hickman, president of Clark University, could not be present being detained in New York, looking after the interest of the university in which he is so much interested. Many good words however were spoken for him in his absence, and in addition to the increased apportionment this year for the Freedmen's Aid to raise $2,000 for a new building at Clark, the brethren unanimously voted to raise $200 this year to start the endowment of a professor's chair. Resolutions endorsing Bro. Mason and thanking the board for his election were passed. There are many strong men on this district but we will not attempt personal mention. This is Presiding Elder Hammett's second year and the Lord has given him peace and harmony and much success. He lives in the hearts of his brethren and a right loyal set they are too.

The Atlanta district conference convened at Palmetto, August 6, Presiding Elder A. J. Wilson in the chair, and a full delegation present. Rev. J. D. Jenkins the popular pastor of this church was elected secretary. Bro. Jenkins is one of the leading men of the Savannah Conference. A graduate of Gammon, he is safe, broad and conservative. He is a modest man, never blows his own horn but is ever at his post doing his level best. He has a bright future before him.

The first night of the conference was the anniversary of the Freedmen's Aid. Rev. M. M. Alston presided in usual happy mood, and his opening remarks elicited round after round of applause. Rev. M. C. B. Mason the Field Agent spoke for over an hour and was listened to with marked attention. A resolution pledging him hearty support and an increased collection for the society was unanimously adopted. Profs. Fortson and Crogman delivered addresses on the work of Clark University, and were heartily applauded.

The brethren voted to stand by the school as never before. Dr. Fisher, the old Nestor of the conference, is here. He is humorous, active and vigilant as a boy of twenty. Many more years of usefulness to the church are ahead of him. He holds a deservedly warm place in the hearts of the brethren. Presiding Elder Wilson is making a successful year, and is proud of the armor bearers that go with him to battle. A memorial service to Bro. Gammon was held

The Gainesville district conference met at Elberton, August 12, Rev. M. M. Alston, the energetic and stirring Presiding Elder, in the chair. P. H. Travis, a rising young minister, was elected secretary. Rev. E. L. Hammett was here, bringing fraternal greetings from his district. Thursday night an educational mass meeting was held in the town academy, the church being too small. It was packed to overflowing. Rev. E. L. Hammett presided, and addresses were delivered by President Hickman, of Clark, and Rev. M. C. B. Mason, Field Agent. A rousing collection for Freedmen's Aid was taken. Resolutions endorsing President Hickman and Field Agent Mason, and pledging them hearty support in the work which they severally represent, were passed with much unanimity and enthusiasm. Presiding Elder Alston and his noble band of workers stand by every interest of the church. Bro. Alston is a natural born leader of men, and the Gainesville district is moving forward. Rev. K. T. Adams is pastor of the largest church on the district, and brings a ringing report.

The Savannah district conference met at Mt. Vernon, Ga., August 12, Presiding Elder Melton in the chair. A full delegation was present. Prof. Crogman represented Clark University and was heartily received. He brings cheering reports of the work of the conference. Presiding Elder Melton has served this district with great acceptability, and is nearing the close of his term. He stands foremost among the brethren of the conference, and is deservedly popular. When his time is out it will take a good man to fill his shoes. The reports show an increase over last year.

The Rome district met August 13, at Adairsville, Ga., Rev. H. R. Allen, the young but sterling presiding elder, in the chair. Prof. F. M. Gordon, principal of the State deaf mute institute, was elected secretary. Rev. Dr. W. H. Hickman, president of Clark University, was present and delivered an eloquent address. Brethren of the conference said it was one of the best of the kind they had ever listened to. Prof. F. M. Gordon offered a resolution, couched in appropriate words, endorsing president Hickman and his work at Clark University. He prefaced it with an able address setting forth the needs of the work. The resolution was unanimously adopted. The Freedmen's Aid anniversary was held Saturday night. Rev. R. T. Kent, one of the fathers of the conference, presided. Addresses were delivered by Revs. J. H. Grant, M. C. B. Mason, Prof. F. M. Gordon and Rev. S. O. Upshaw. A collection for Freedmen's Aid was taken. Resolutions pledging hearty cooperation to the newly appointed Field Agent, and endorsing Presiding Elder Allen's administration, were adopted. Rev. S. O. Upshaw delivered a fine lecture on Palestine. Presiding Elder Allen has done a good year's work, and his brethren are proud of him. In all these conferences the SOUTHWESTERN grows stronger every day.

Teach Girls to Swim.

On July 24, Miss Bertie Burr, of Lincoln, Nebraska, saved the lives of two young women, friends of hers, with whom she had gone bathing with in the river. Miss Burr learned to swim at Lasell Seminary.

THE Michigan Christian Advocate, very tersely says: "The church can get along very well with ministers of moderate ability, providing they be men of stand principles and unblamable life, but brilliant men who captivate and dazzle but lack strength of character, of these the church must beware."

John Wesley said in one of his last sermons: "After having served you between sixty and seventy years, with dim eyes and shaking hands, let me add one more. I am pained for you who are rich in this world. Do you give me all you can? 'Nay, may I not do what I will with my own?' you reply. Here lies your mistake. It is not your own. It cannot be, unless you are the Lord of heaven and earth. Who gave you this addition to your fortune? Do you not know that God intrusted you money for his work? 'But I must provide for my children.' Certainly. But how? By making them rich? Then you will probably ruin them. Lord, speak to their hearts else I speak in vain. Leave them enough to live on, not in idleness but in honest industry. And if you have no children upon what principle can you leave a groat behind more than enough to bury you? What does it signify whether you leave ten thousand pounds or ten thousand boots or shoes? Haste! haste! Spend all you have before you go to the better world."

I will love thee, O Lord, my strength. The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer, my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised; so shall I be saved from mine enemies.—Psalm xviii, 1, 3.

If it is true that God is all things to his children when they need him, it is equally true that he is all things against those who rebel against his laws. The Senate of the United States, in the closing days of its late session, voted, under the pressure of neglected business, to continue to work all day Sunday. But in the meanwhile, a member having died, adjourned "out of respect to his memory." The question arises whether the living God is not as deserving of respect as a dead Senator.—Interior.

Hymns 24, 583, 585.
Scripture Lesson—St. Matthew, xi, 7, 30. "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls, for my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Introduction—Before the form of ancient Rome there stood a golden milestone, and all the great roads of the Roman empire met there.

In England it is said that every highway and byway, every lane and every cross roads lead to London. So all the pathways of Holy Scripture lead to Jesus Christ. Prophecy, history, ceremony, doctrine, all center in him. To be a Christian is not merely to subscribe to certain abstract dogmas. It is, first of all, to accept a personal Christ. Then he "shall know of the doctrine whether it be of God."

I. The promise of rest to weary souls.

"Come unto me all ye that labor and I will give you rest."

Humanity is borne down by burdens, sorrows and sins. All relief, except in Christ, is temporary. The sufferer may be soothed for a time by certain drugs, but he is worse after their effect has ceased. All that the world can offer to the weary soul is like the nostrum to the sick man.

Jesus offers rest not happiness. Rest is deeper than happiness. Happiness depends on what happens—rest is like the quiet sea, deep down below the surface billows.

II. The rest of Christ is that of the lowly in heart.

The rest Christ promises is not that of stagnation or idleness. Idle people are really more weary than industrious ones. Busy people are too busy to know that they are tired. The stars, whirling in their ceaseless orbits, are a type of true rest.

Niagara, plunging and foaming, is really at rest, because forever it is rushing on as God ordained it.

The opposite of meek and lowly is proud and discontented. Christ was meek and lowly and his soul was at perfect rest. We are to find rest by taking his yoke, entering his service. Proud and discontented people are always miserable. Only the meek and lowly are at rest. Forgiveness of sins, purity of heart. This only is rest.

III. The rest of Christ is, above all, learning of him.

The true followers of Jesus are his disciples. The word disciple means learner.

St. Paul says: "The law is our school-slave to bring us to Christ." What a school where we have Christ as teacher, the Holy Spirit as the light and the Bible as the text book. The service of Satan is harder than Siberian exile or American slavery. Death, at last, ended both of those, but it only plunges the slave of the devil into eternal horrors. But Christ says: "My yoke is easy and my burden is light." The school of Christ—how delightful, how precious its lessons, how glorious its fellowship, how lasting its results:

Come unto me when shadows darkly gather,
When the sad heart is weary and distressed,
Seeking for comfort from your heavenly Father,
Come unto me and I will give you rest.

Large are the mansions in thy Father's dwelling,
Glad are the homes that sorrows never dim,
Sweet are the harps in holy music swelling,
Soft are the tones which raise the heavenly hymn.

There, like an Eden, blossoming in gladness,
Bloom the fair flowers that earth too rudely pressed;
Come unto me all ye who droop in sadness,
Come unto me and I will give you rest.

The Bulwark of the Faith.

Bishop John F. Hurst is asking each member of the Epworth League to give or raise one dollar for the building of an Epworth Hall, the endowment of a professorship, and the founding of Epworth student ships in the Washington University. The chapters are beginning to respond. For once let us prove that Methodism can be thoroughly united in a great enterprise. We ought to rise and rally as one man around Bishop Hurst in his effort to plant this great university. This is the greatest county in the world. It is only upon the threshold of its magnificent career. Methodism is the greatest church in this greatest country, and we ought to have in the Nation's Capitol the greatest university ever heard of or thought of. It ought to be the bulwark of the faith; it ought to be the reservoir of spiritual power; it ought to be the everlasting Pentecost from which men of every land could go forth to preach salvation among all nations. There is no way to overestimate the importance of this university. Let ten thousand readers of World Wide Missions this very moment sit down and remember it in their wills. Let five hundred thousand send Bishop Hurst contributions for present needs. Let us build it as the children of Israel built the Tabernacle. Let us lay our offerings down so joyfully and so abundantly that it will be necessary to blow the trumpet in the camp to tell the people not to give any more. This university ought to be built and endowed, not with a long, hard strain and struggle with poverty, but with shout and song, and flying banners; the walls should rise, the endowment be built up, and the university, fully fledged, fully armed, fully equipped, leap from the brain and heart of Methodism to take its part in the glorious conflict which is sure to end in the universal empire of Jesus Christ our Lord.—World Wide Missions.

Sectarian Indian Schools.

It is the misfortune of the Roman Catholic Church in this country that it seeks to control education. The misfortune lies in the fact that its purpose leads to constant irritation of public feeling and dispute, because the people of the United States are resolved that no church shall control education. Every sect is, of course, free to establish schools at its own cost for the instruction of such children as may be sent to them. But the use of public money to sustain such schools is contrary to public feeling and policy. This is well understood in the States of the Union, but it does not prevent a continuous effort, under various pleas, to secure public aid for private or sectarian institutions. No church among us has so definite a purpose and so thorough an organization to extend its sway as the Roman Church. It is untiring and able and plausible, and its efforts, outside of its proper pale as a religious communion, must be watched as unremittently and met as firmly as those of any other church or association of any kind would be.

There is no complete or consistent system of education in the Indian Department as there is in the States. There are still mission schools maintained by different denominations besides the government schools, and public money is appropriated to aid them. The theory seems to be that it is more economical for the government to unite with the sects than to maintain the schools independently, like other public schools. The result of such a system in the States can be readily perceived, and it is a source of constant feeling and anxiety in the Indian Department. In 1889 forty per cent of the appropriation for Indian education, which was less than one million and a half, was given to the sectarian schools. Of this sum, which was $554,553, the Catholic schools received $347,689. For the next year they will receive about $400,000. The purpose of these schools primarily, as is was in the early Jesuit missions in Canada, is to make Roman Catholics, rather than American citizens. We do not mean that unpatriotic sentiments or feelings are inculcated. But the object is ecclesiastical and sectarian. That is the chief interest, and for that purpose the organization is thorough. This is something very foreign to our general policy, and it should be generally understood. But it is not. Probably very few persons who have not especial reasons for knowing nn-

YOUR MONEY, OR YOUR LIFE!

This question is a "pert" one, but we mean it. Will you sacrifice a few paltry dollars, and save your life? or will you allow your blood to become tainted, and your system run-down, until, finally, you are laid away in the grave? Better be in time, and "hold up" your hands for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a guaranteed remedy for all scrofulous and other blood-taints, from whatever cause arising. It cures all Skin and Scalp Diseases, Ulcers, Sores, Swellings and kindred ailments. It is powerfully tonic as well as alterative, or blood-cleansing, in its effects, hence it strengthens the system and restores vitality, thereby dispelling all those languid, "tired feelings" experienced by the debilitated. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Salt-rheum, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Gout, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands. Understand our scheme of Indian education.

The subject is apt to be dismissed with the remark that education under Catholic auspices and with sectarian purposes is better than none. But this is not really the alternative or the question, unless we choose that it shall be. The question is, why should the public pay for making Catholics or Methodists or Presbyterians? In 1880 we appropriated $1,364,563 for education among the Indians. Why should a dollar of that sum be spent for sectarian purposes? And if it is not large enough to maintain necessary schools properly, would it not be much better for the country to spend twice as much rather than to save a million or two dollars by sustaining a sectarian instruction which, as sectarian, is repugnant to the spirit of our institutions? The zeal of the various sects would doubtless lead them to maintain mission schools among the Indians as among the Hindus and the Chinese, and in our own great cities. But the partnership of the government of the United States with religious sects should be ended as soon as possible.—Harper's Weekly.

Upon what principle of expediency or common honesty is it that Gov. Northern, of Georgia, refuses to appoint a single colored man upon the Board of Trustees of the Georgia State College for colored children to be located at Savannah? It will be built largely by money given by the government, yet Gov. Northern, of that State, has appointed only white men members of the Board to control the institution.

Books and Current Literature.

Plantation Life before Emancipation, is the title of a book about to be published by Whitteth & Shepperson, 101 Main street, Richmond, Va., for Rev. R. Q. Mallard, D.D., 203 Napoleon Avenue, New Orleans, La. We shall gladly look for its publication.

There is always a freshness about The Ladies' Home Journal, and a perfect knowledge displayed of woman's best wants at every season of the year. For one dollar it is sent to any address, for an entire year, by the Curtis Publishing Company, of Philadelphia, who conduct the Journal.

The list of contributors to The Popular Science Monthly for September contains a goodly number of strong names. The opening article, by Prof. John Fiske, is on The Doctrine of Evolution. Dr. Andrew D. White continues his Warfare of Science series, describing the displacement of fetichism by hygiene. A fifth paper is contributed by Prof. O. Hanford Henderson to his illustrated series on Glass making. New York: D. Appleton & Company. Fifty cents a number, $5 a year.

Carlotta's Intended is the title of the complete novel in the September Lippincott's. This is a story of New Orleans life in the Italian quarter. Cable has portrayed the Creole life in New Orleans, but here is another most interesting phase of New Orleans life which is for the first time opened to view. The Magazine is full of splendid matter and is a real treat to possess it. Three dollars a year, 25 cents a number. J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia.

Alden's Manifold Cyclopaedia and The Columbian Cyclopaedia and Alden's Cyclopaedia of Universal Literature have been transferred to Garretson, Cox & Co., 339 Pearl street, New York.

The Living Age, a brightly illustrated monthly has appeared at Denison, Texas, with S. D. Russell and E. H. Garland as editors. It gives promise of a long and useful career.

Park Avenue Hotel, New York, has issued a very beautiful souvenir, which gives splendid pictures of that great city; a copy of which has reached us.

THE pious theologian's advice in regard to preparation of sermons will bear iterated repetition: "Prepare elaborately, thoroughly, as though there were no Holy Spirit to own and bless. Then preach, depending on the Holy Spirit, as though you had made no preparation."

WHAT IS

SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can IT BE CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. "My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was three months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became a running sore for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLILE, Nauright, N. J.

N. B. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla sold by all druggists. 51; six for $1. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

TAKE ME BY THE HAND!

Oh, Father, take me by the hand!
The way is long, and I am weak,
And for my footsteps pitfalls wait;
And, if with upward glance I seek
Thy smile to light me on my way,
My blinded vision dimly sees,
And with a sad and trembling heart
I humbly pray on bended knees,
Oh, Father, take me by the hand!

Oh, Father, take me by the hand!
Temptations lurk on every side;
The world allures with siren voice;
The way is broad, the gate is wide;
My spirit, battling with the flesh,
Thy smile to light me on my way,
Dark clouds of sin and doubt arise,
And oft obscure thy face—
Oh, Father, take me by the hand!

Oh, Father, take me by the hand!
In vain I strive with feeble sense
To pierce the gloom which clouds my path;
The darkness grows the more intense;
I grope along the narrow way
Which leads up to the mountain's height;

My faltering footsteps go astray,
'Tis dark! I cannot walk by sight!
Oh, Father, take me by the hand!

Oh, Father, take me by the hand,
And lead me all the weary way!
Oh, let thy presence, like a wall,
Surround and keep me, day by day,
Until I tread with blood-washed feet,
The golden avenues of light,
And in exchange for feeble faith
Receive the glorious gift of sight;
Oh, Father, take me by the hand!

Mrs. Mack, in United Presbyterian.

Sweet Pickles.

Over firm, sound peaches which are not too ripe, pour boiling water, to loosen the skin. Not to blacken the fruit peel with a silver knife. In a porcelain vessel boil half a gallon of cider vinegar, three pounds of best brown sugar, and one ounce of cinnamon—or in this proportion. After skimming and cooking fifteen minutes, drop the fruit into the syrup for a few minutes, taking care to skim it into cans before it breaks. Fill the cans with syrup, and screw on the covers tight. These pickled peaches keep a year, and more. Ripe, hard, sweet apples are equal to peaches for pickling. They should be peeled, and the stems left on. When cooked so that a straw will pass through them easily, skim into a jar. When all are cooked pour the syrup over them, which should cover the fruit. Turn a plate over them, and cover and tie up the jar. Grapes need not be cooked. Let them be fresh from the vines; pick them carefully from the stems into a jar. For six pounds use one quart of vinegar, three and a half pounds of sugar, a little stick cinnamon and a few cloves. Boil the syrup ten minutes, and when it is lukewarm pour over the grapes, and cover in the same manner as the apples. This keeps long.—Selected.

Suggestions to Jelly Makers.

The most tart fruits will make the firmest jelly, although fruits of all kinds may be used. But in the case of peaches, quinces, apples and crab apples a little water must be added to them for the first cooking; they are not sufficiently juicy, and would burn before any juice could be obtained. A more laborious method, however, which will avoid adding the water, is to provide a double boiler by setting the kettle of fruit into a large pan of water, and cook the fruit in this way. It will need stirring frequently and to be cooked longer than by the first method. Quinces require a quarter of a pound less sugar to a pint of juice than other fruits, while green grapes, which makes a most delicious, spicy jelly to eat with poultry and game, need one and a half pounds of sugar for the same quantity of juice. Barberries require that their juice and the sugar be boiled together ten minutes before pouring into the glasses. —Good Housekeeping.

The Census Bureau statistics on tobacco show that there are 61,641 planters in Kentucky, cultivating 275,587 acres. The total product last year was 221,890,303 pounds, valued at $13,335,297.

The Imperial census of India was taken on the night between February 26 and 27 last. Nothing more remarkable in the way of census taking has ever occurred. About 1,000,000 enumerators were engaged simultaneously, recording facts concerning a population of 280,000,000 souls. This census embraced not only British India proper, but the feudatory States.

Washington Lumpkins and several other former slaves of General James Taylor, of Newport, Kentucky, have just won a suit which they brought to recover land that was bequeathed to them by the wealthy General's will when he died in 1818. About fifty slaves were given their freedom and twenty-five acres of land apiece by this will, but none of them seemed to think of enforcing its provisions, till four of them in 1887 brought the suit which is now decided.

Little Things in Everyday Life. Bound in white leatherette, with gilt top. Price 25 cents. Thomas Whitaker, Publisher, 2 and 3 Bible House, New York. We have lately received, and read with much interest, a little book containing six little sermons on six little things, and advise our readers to take a little money and send for the book and read it, and then hand it to some one else, and thus keep it busy doing missionary work. If our readers will follow the suggestions of these sermons and put them in practice, they will be surprised at the greatness of the results.

Our Symposium.

It is a healthy sign for the city of New Orleans, that its citizens of the better class are determined to destroy the curse of the lottery evil. We have before us an account of an enthusiastic meeting recently held to open the campaign. The principal speaker, Rev. Dr. Palmer, is quoted as saying, "If the lottery cannot be stamped out by the usual means, it will have to be crushed by revolution. Unless the State is redeemed by its own acts the appeal must be made to the virtue and intelligence of the whole country, for it is not competent for an isolated community to live as the moral convicts of the world. The sentiment of the country stamped out slavery, and the rest of the world has already divested itself of the lottery curse. If the curse is inflicted upon Louisiana she must become the lost pleiad in the sisterhood of States, and go forth an outcast with the scarlet letter of shame branded forever upon her forehead." No one can realize so well as a citizen of New Orleans, the great demoralization of the poorer classes by this long-standing evil. The intelligent among its population owe it to these as well as to themselves, to wage a ceaseless warfare against that which has gotten a tremendous hold upon its victims who compose a legion. They will need the greatest wisdom to successfully combat the satanic influences existing in connection with this business, which is evidently headed by satan himself.—Christian Weekly.

There is nothing, you say in the church services to interest you—so you stay away. But is not your lack of interest in religious worship an alarming symptom? He who permanently loses his appetite for food is sick, and unless he finds a remedy will die. This applies to the soul as well as the body. If you have no delight in the sanctuary, no relief for religious discourse, no solemn joy in prayer or praise, you have reason to be alarmed about your spiritual health. —Cumberland Presbyterian.

Goodness is the only investment that never fails.—Thoreau.

There never was a great man unless through divine inspiration. —Cicero.

YOUR COUGH

Has not yielded to the various remedies you have been taking. It troubles you day and night, breaks your rest and reduces your strength. Now try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, before the bronchial tubes become enlarged or the delicate tissues of the lungs sustain fatal injury. As an anodyne and expectorant, this preparation has no equal. It soothes the irritated membrane, promotes expectoration, and induces repose. The worst cough by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass., writes: "I use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my practice, and pronounce it to be unequalled as a remedy for colds and coughs." "After the gripe—cough. This was my experience—a hacking, dry cough, with an incessant tickling in the throat, keeping me awake nights, and disturbing the household. I tried a great number of 'cough-cures,' but they gave me only temporary relief. At last I concluded to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before I had used half a bottle, I had my first all-night sleep. I continued to improve, and now consider myself cured." —A. A. Sherman, Coeymans, N. Y.

Can Be Cured

By Using

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, many have been saved from fatal illness. E. D. Estabrook, Canterbury, N. B., says: "In the winter of 1889 I was a sufferer from a severe cold, which was accompanied by a hacking cough, and I was completely prostrated. I tried several remedies, but they failed to cure me, and it was thought I was going into a decline. On the advice of a friend, I began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and less than half a bottle completely cured me."

Our Children's Legion.

For Our Boys and Girls.

BY UNCLE CEPHAS.

Dear Uncle Cephas: This is my first letter to the Children's Legion. I do not take the SOUTHWESTERN, but my brother does. I enjoy reading it very much. I belong to the Macedonia M. E. Church. Our preacher is Rev. S. J. Robertson; we all love him. We have a very good Sunday school; our superintendent is J. M. Austin. Secretary, W. T. Young.

Your Niece,
FRANCESE COX.

Atalla, Ala.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am 12 years old. My mother is dead. My father is the pastor of our church here. I joined the church 12 months ago. Father takes the SOUTHWESTERN, and I enjoy reading it so very much. We have a nice Sunday school; our teacher's name is Mr. Barber.

Your Niece,
MARY BARBER.

Texarkana, Ark.

Dear Uncle Cephas: We had quite a nice time on Children's Day. We are growing better and better every year. We have very nice Sunday school here about 32 scholars. Our superintendent's name is A. J. Walters. Our pastor's name is N. J. Johnson. We had a grand revival for two weeks and got 3 converts. I am one of them. I am 12 years old. Pray for us. We love the old SOUTHWESTERN.

Your Niece,
LEONORA HENDERSON.

Antioch, Texas.

Dear Uncle Cephas: This is my first letter to the Children's Legion. I am 17 years old. I go to Sunday school. Mr. F. K. Outlaw is our teacher. My brother is the secretary. I am going to school every day. My studies are fifth reader, arithmetic, geography, grammar and spelling. Our teacher's name is Mr. A. D. Geren, and we all like him. My mother takes the SOUTHWESTERN, and I delight in reading it.

Your Niece,
SALLIE ENMA AUSTIN.

Lexington, Miss.

Dear Uncle Cephas: This is my first letter to the Children's Legion. My mother takes the SOUTHWESTERN, and I enjoy reading the letters from my little cousins. I go to Sunday school. We had a nice time during our protracted meeting. I professed religion. We have a good pastor. His name is Rev. N. J. Johnson, and is loved by all. My mother and two sisters belong to the M. E. church. I would like to see your face, if I never do I hope to meet you in heaven. Our protracted meeting went on two weeks.

Your Niece,
MAY L. WASHINGTON.

Hubbard (ty, Texas.

The Form for September, beginning volume XII, will contain five articles on Present Problems in Education. The Farmer's Isolation and the Remedy, The Political Issues of 1892, etc. The Form will be considerably enlarged beginning with volume XII, the enlargement being made with the increase of patronage, and the offices have been removed to the new Jackson Building, 31 East Seventeenth Street, New York.

Continued in his Warfare of Science series in the September Popular Science Monthly, Dr. Andrew D. White relates how hygiene succeeded phlogiston as the reliance of the West in checking the ravages of epidemics; and the question came always count upon the sun? is ked, though not in any sensational manner, by Mrs. Garrett P. Evis, in an article to appear in the September Popular Science Monthly.

After diphtheria, scarlet fever, pneumonia, or at other severe illness, there is no tonic than Hood's Sarsaparilla.

An Unprecedented Offer!

We have made arrangements with the Chicago Manufacturing Company to supply one of their first-class Singer machines for only $14 cash. We will order a machine like the cut here shown, and send the SOUTHWESTERN a full year besides! It is a handsome oil-polished walnut, of latest design, Gothic cover, with beautiful panels, four end drawers and a swing drawer, nickel-plated, and warranted five years.

Each Machine is furnished with the following equipment: One Foot Hemmer, One Oil Can with Oil, One Gauge, and Screw, One Extra Check Spring, One Package of Needles, Five Bobbins, One Tacker, One Foot Ruler, One Set of Plate Hemmers, four different widths up to seven-eighths of an inch, One Binder and One Thread Cutter. The Improved Tension and Thread Liberator is used on this Machine. The manufacturers offer to refund the money if purchaser is not fully satisfied with the machine.

We receive many letters inquiring about the sewing machine premium, and how to obtain it. In order that all may understand the matter, we state in addition to the announcement, that remittances should be made to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, either by check, money order, or by express, naming the nearest or most convenient freight depot to which it is to be sent. Then we order the factory in Chicago to ship the machine. The company ships it, and receives from the railroad a bill of lading which, with the warranty, is sent to us, and which we send to the subscriber. This bill of lading is good and sufficient evidence that the machine has been forwarded, and holds the railroad company responsible for its safe delivery at the station named as its destination, and in due time, save unavoidable delays. In case of its loss the railroad which caused its loss is responsible, under the laws of the land. If not arriving in due time, show the bill of lading to the station agent and he will look it up. Don't give up the bill of lading, but it may be shown to the railroad agent. All orders are sent the same day as received, and the bill of lading is sent to the subscriber the same day we get it. We started this scheme with a view to helping our patrons, and shall carefully and faithfully carry out our part of the agreement in every case.

Cuticura Soap
For Eruptions of the Skin and Humors of the Blood and Baby Humors.

BAD COMPLEXIONS, WITH PIMPLES, blotchy, oily skin, red, rough hands, with chaps, painful finger ends and shapeless nails, and simple Baby Humors prevented and cured by "Cuticura Soap." A marvelous beautifier of world-wide celebrity, it is simply incomparable as a Skin Purifying Soap, unequalled for the Throat and without a rival for the Nursery. Absolutely pure, delicately medicated, exquisitely perfumed, "Cuticura Soap" produces the whitest, clearest skin and softest hands, and prevents inflammation and clogging of the pores, the cause of pimples, blackheads and most complexional disfigurements, while it admits of no comparison with the best of other skin soaps, and rivals in delicacy the most noted and expensive of toilet soaps. Sale greater than the combined sales of all other skin soaps. Sold throughout the world. Price, 25c.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Nov. 22, 1890.

Last April I was attacked with Chagas Fever in Spanish Honduras and was given up to die by two physicians. During that spell and since I have used a pound of quinine and quantities of other medicines without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered untold agonies. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Royal Gernetur. I have had no fever since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind. Am gaining strength very fast. Can walk miles at a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Gernetur has been a God-send to me. I can not say too much in its praise. Any who wish to do so may call on me.

DANIEL PAPPON,
481 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1, 1891.

My improvement continued, and soon after writing the above article I was able to go to work and have been working ever since. My health is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony gladly, because I know that Gernetur saved my life.

DANIEL PAPPON.

Chagas Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Gernetur has been tried on a number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It has a similar record as a remedy for Swamp Fever and Malarial troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quickest and most unfailing remedy for Fevers of all kinds, Dyspepsia, Debility, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidences from thousands of the best people in the country, and the evidences multiply in our midst every day.

For sale by druggists and country merchants, and at the Gernetur office, 202 Canal Street, New Orleans. For full information, circulars, etc., call on or address Kit Williams, Agent, 202 Canal Street. $1 bottle; six bottles for $5.

St. Paulin, P. Q., Can., Feb. 10, 1890.

I am happy to give this testimonial as to the excellence of "Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic." Suffering for a long period of nervous debility due to dyspepsia, I ascertained that since I made use of this remedy a radical change was operated on me; not only on the nerves, but even dyspepsia disappeared promptly. Similar experiences have been made by many of my conference with this remedy. I consider it entirely efficacious and proper to cure all nervous diseases and other cases depending from the same.

LESSON HYMN, C. M.

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

Place—The temple courts.

Rulers—Herod in Galilee; Pilate in Jerusalem.

Connecting Links—The "carrying of water" on "the last, the great day of the feast" was one of the grandest ceremonies of the entire Jewish ritual. A procession of priests and pilgrims marched with responsive chanting from the Pool of Siloam to the great altar of burnt-offering in the court of the temple. After the water had been poured out as the holy symbol there was a silence, and in the midst of that silence Jesus called out the words the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth verses.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY

1. The People's Question, v. 31-36.

What question did the people ask about Jesus?

Who heard of these questions?

What measures did they take to arrest him?

What did Jesus say about his going away?

What about seeking and not finding?

What three questions did the Jews ask?

What did they think he intended to do? (See chap. 8. 22.)

2. The Saviour's Promise, v. 37-39.

What gracious invitation did Jesus give to the thirsty? (Golden Text.)

On what day was this spoken?

What was his promise of abundance?

To what did he refer under this figure of water?

What prophet had promised the Holy Spirit? (Joel 2. 28.)

3. The Conflicting Opinions, v. 40-44.

What two opinions did the people have about Jesus?

What did some say about Galilee?

What about David and Bethlehem?

What resulted from this difference of opinion?

What were some inclined to do?

Why did no one lay hands on him? (See verse 30.)

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.

Where in this lesson are we taught:

1. That Jesus can supply all our needs?

2. That the Holy Spirit is promised to all believers?

3. That the Scriptures witness that Jesus is the Messiah?

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG BELIEVERS.

Find whether Jesus ever went over the border of the Holy Land to the gentile country?

Find a conversation Jesus had with a woman about water and wells.

Find whether the Pharisees and priests had anything to do with Jesus's death.

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

[For the entire school.]

1. Why did many of the people believe that Jesus was the Christ?

No one could do greater miracles!

2. What wonderful invitation did Jesus give? "If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink."

3. What did he say he would make every Christian? A fountain of blessing to others.

4. What did the people think? They were confused and divided.

EXPLANATIONS.

When Christ cometh—"Christ" is here a title; the Anointed One. The question is a negative argument that Jesus is the Christ.

Do more miracles—That is, can he present more convincing signs of his divinity. The Pharisees and the chief priests—This phrase here means the Sanhedrin, which was at once the Congress and the General conference of the Jews. This is the first official effort to arrest Jesus, and the endeavor never ceased until the day of the crucifixion. A little while—These words were uttered a few months before the crucifixion. The dispersed among the gentiles—At this time there were more Jews in foreign countries than there were in Palestine. There were three great colonies of them in Babylonia, Egypt and Syria, but they were also represented in almost every country. If any man thirst—It was burning autumn weather. Let him come unto me—A direct assumption of divinity. The Scripture hath said—Not by any one text, but by its general teaching. Out of his belly—From the depths of his nature shall flow spiritual refreshment to others. The prophet—Foretold in Dent. 14. 18. Out of Galilee—Jesus was a Galilean in citizenship, and very likely in manners also.

Doctrinal Suggestion—The universality of salvation.

THE CHURCH CATECHISM.

85. What does God require of man? Obedience to his revealed will.

86. What is the rule of our obedience? The moral law.

87. Where is the moral law given? In the ten commandments. (Exod. 20.)

Let every enfeebled woman know it! There's a medicine that'll cure her, and the proof's positive!

Here's the proof—if it doesn't do you good within reasonable time, report the fact to its makers and get your money back without a word—but you won't do it!

This remedy is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—and it has proved itself the right remedy in nearly every case of female weakness. It is not a miracle. It won't cure everything—but it has done more to build up tired, enfeebled and broken-down women than any other medicine known.

Where's the woman who's not ready for it? All that we've to do is to get the news to her. The medicine will do the rest.

Wanted—Women. First to know it. Second to use it. Third to be cured by it. The one comes of the other.

The seat of sick headache is not in the brain. Regulate the stomach and you cure it. Dr. Pierce's Pellets are the Little Regulators. Only 25 cents a vial.

Editorial Notes.

Large are the mansions in thy Father's dwelling,
Glad are the homes that sorrows never dim,
Sweet are the harps in holy music swelling,
Soft are the tones which raise the heavenly hymn.

There, like an Eden, blossoming in gladness,
Bloom the fair flowers that earth too rudely pressed;
Come unto me all ye who droop in sadness,
Come unto me and I will give you rest.

WHY not organize the Epworth League on every charge in our territory. It is one of the best auxiliaries that we can put in operation in our charges. Write to the Rev. J. L. Harbnt, D. D., corresponding secretary, S. S. Union, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York, for further information.

HAVE you registered? You must bear in mind that all registration papers issued prior to January 1, 1891, are worthless. If you want to record your vote as a citizen against the infamous lottery incubus, you must be sure and register. The registration office in this city is on Camp street, opposite Lafayette Square. Lose no time, but attend to this matter at once, before you are crowded out.

A bystander who had been reading the new paper called the Down Town Herald, said he judged that its main purpose seemed to be to get into the good graces of the colored people so as to be easier induced them to vote for the lottery. It looks that way, and our friends should beware of it. Any such friendship is insincere, and will only tend to their injury if relied on. Don't be a cat's paw for the infamous lottery.

It never can be done. What? The separation into different departments of white and black comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic. It never ought to be done. It never again ought to be proposed. It never would have been, it never would be if it were not for the existence of the unreasonable and outrageous spirit of caste that fills the unrepentant rebel element of the South. It cannot be that the veterans of the Grand Army will allow this miserable, wicked and abominable spirit to dominate its policy. Surely the men of the North, the vast majority of the Grand Army, will never succumb to the vicious and debasing idea of Southern rebels. If black men and white men could die together in battling for liberty and union, well may they stand together to resist and oppose the clamor against real comradeship. God bless the Grand Army.

The Spread of Methodism in the South.

T. P. W.

We believe in the spread of Methodism in the South through the agency of the Methodist Episcopal Church. While we should be fraternal and helpful in our attitude toward other branches of Methodism, and utterly free from sectarianism and narrow and unchristian prejudice towards any branch of the Holy Catholic Church, yet we should be loyal to our own Church. We believe in the type of Christianity that she represents. Our Church stands for intelligence and morality in pastors and people; in a polity and practice as broad as humanity and as catholic as Christ; in having realized on earth a church like unto that in heaven—a communion of peoples of all nations and tribes and colors and tongues.

To spread such a Methodism among the people we must have a ministry and people who are thoroughly loyal to the church under the banners of which they choose to march. Every one is in the church of his own choice. There is no compulsion to bring men in. The relation is that entered into by mutual compact. If the relation becomes oppressive or distasteful, and one believes that he can be more useful or more contented elsewhere, the door is open and he may sever his relation and go forth with the "God-speed" of the church. For this reason there should be loyalty in ministry and membership (and there must be) in order that there may be power.

1. Let there be loyalty to the principles for which the old church stands, and for the maintenance of which she has put millions of dollars into the South. People do not give millions for a sentiment or emotion and keep up the giving for more than a quarter of a century. There is Christian principle behind such beneficence.

2. Do not fear or grow disheartened because you are few and the local church is small, while another body of Methodists is numerous and strong. Remember that Methodism began in the small company in the Holy Club. Could any one have then cast the horoscope of the future and have prophesied the mighty fabric that was to rise from this small beginning? Care for principle and holiness and intelligent loyalty to the church more than for mere numbers.

3. To spread our church there must be loyalty to our educational institutions. Through these our church is to rise in dignity and power. This great system of schools, under the wise and able direction of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, is the hope of the Church in the South. The church that has an educated ministry and people is the church of the future. It may be slow in its growth, but it has elements of power that are bound to win. No other church among the colored people has any such system of schools for the training of its people, with a theological seminary and a quarter of a million dollars behind it for the sending out of an educated ministry. The people are rising intellectually. The children read. They are in the Sunday schools. They understand the Word. The ministry that is to attract to the church the educated young people of the future must be a ministry trained and intelligent. And this is just what our great church has wisely provided for.

4. There must be, for the spread of any church, diligent and intelligent care and training of the young. The church of to-morrow is in the Sunday school of to-day. The church has now provided the Epworth League, and the wise pastor, intent on attracting and holding the best young people to his church, will organize and carefully work this most important department of our church. Read the Epworth Herald and circulate it among the people. It is one of the brightest and most helpful papers in the church.

5 And this brings us to our own paper, the SOUTHWESTERN. The success of this paper is vitally connected with the spread of our church among the colored people. In these days the subscription list has much to do with the prosperity of any newspaper. Compare its general make up and its editorial columns with the organs of other Methodisms, and you will be convinced that it deserves the heartiest support of every pastor and every local church. Spread our literature; spread the circulation of the SOUTHWESTERN and you help mightily to spread the church that is so ably represented by this organ.

6. And now, finally, as to the election of a bishop of African descent, as a helping factor in "the spread of our church among the colored people." That such a recognition is greatly desired by our colored membership, and that it would add strength to our work, there can be no doubt. That it will come, is coming, is, to my mind, certain. That such a consummation is not only desirable, but finds its place in line with the general history and polity of our church, just as naturally as the election of other representative officers from the body of our colored membership,—is also, to my mind, true and certain. The great heart of our church is in sympathy with our Southern work, and will welcome a colored bishop. But he will be bishop of the entire church, and not be restricted by sectional lines or race distinctions. Therefore the ideal for such a bishop should be high, but not higher than for candidates (excuse the word) for the episcopacy from any other conference. The colored minister presented for this office should not be compared with our theoretically ideal candidate for the episcopacy, but with the men actually chosen for the office in the elections of the General Conference. In other words, the ideal should not be arbitrary in the case of the colored man, and flexible in the selection of the white superintendent. But, with wise and thoughtful colored men of our church, I never want to see a man elected on the color line; placed in position because of his color. We want not a colored bishop, but a colored bishop. Wisdom, broad intelligence, administrative ability, adaptation, consecration, promise of eminent usefulness—these qualifications we ask of any one chosen for this sacred and responsible office;—and, finding these in a representative colored minister, let him be chosen, and that speedily, for I believe that such a bishop would find a place of eminent usefulness in the general work of our church.

I understand that the really wise and conservative leaders among our colored membership ask recognition on the same ground and in the same spirit in which, on July 2d, a delegation of prominent colored men, representing the Virginia Republican Association, called on President Harrison and presented a memorial indorsing Mr. Langston's selection as one of the new Circuit Court judges. The document closes thus: "In our opinion, and we think that we voice the sentiment of the country at large, John M. Langston, of Virginia, is pre-eminently fitted for the judicial bench. A man of much learning and experience, mature in years, and in every way competent to discharge the functions of the position, we present him to you the undisputed leader and representative of eight millions of loyal American citizens, who join us in asking that he be appointed."

The attitude of the President, as indicated in his reply, is all that self-respecting colored men ask. After listening attentively to what the delegates had to say in regard to the able man whom they represented as one who could be eminently useful as a judge over all the people of Virginia, without respect to color, he told them that he would take the matter under consideration, and added: "This petition has as much weight as any that has yet been presented in behalf of candidates for these positions. If Langston receives the appointment it will be on account of his fitness and not his color. No other consideration but that of ability will enter into the case in the selection of any of the judges."

Let the church be truer in the defense and recognition of the colored man than has the party to which he has clung with such self-sacrifice and fidelity for a quarter of a century; let our church simply live up to the declaration of principles set forth in the words of President Harrison, as quoted above, without prejudice or fear or favor;—this is all that our loyal and devoted colored membership asks, and it is the very least that they should ask.

To the Various Colored Methodist Bodies of America, the Dominion of Canada, the West Indies and Bermuda Islands.

GREETING.

We, the undersigned members of the A. M. E., A. M. E. Zion, Colored M. E., U. A. M. E. Churches, and the colored members of the M. E. Church, do hereby unite in a call for a convention of all the colored Methodists in the countries named above, to be held in Washington City, United States of America, sometime in the month of October, 1891, either during the sitting of the forthcoming Ecumenical Conference or immediately after its adjournment, for the purpose of advancing plans and means looking toward closer union and more fraternal relations among the various colored Methodists of the world.

We have long since been convinced of the fact that colored Methodists ought to better understand each other in their methods, aims and purposes for the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom and in the uplifting of a race of people to whom we are especially called to break the bread of eternal life.

We are further convinced that so long as colored Methodists are rent in the numerous factions out of which grow unchristian rivalries, jealousies, misrepresentations and recriminations, we cannot effectively accomplish our mission, which is the elevating and christianizing of the Negro race.

There can be no harm resulting from such a gathering of representative colored Methodists; but, on the contrary, out of it ought to grow a more friendly feeling, a higher appreciation of each other, inspiration for the future and a more united effort for the elevation of the race.

The delegates elected by the several churches mentioned above to the Ecumenical Conference shall compose such a convention.

All who indorse this call will please signify the same by sending their names on a postal card to the editor of this paper, and their names will be enrolled and published as signers of the call. The call is open until the 1st of September, 1891.

We are yours in Christ Jesus, B. W. Arnett, A. Wolters, J. W. Hood, C. H. Phillips, C. N. Grandison, W. B. Derrick.

Memorial Services at Lloyd Street M. E. Church, Atlanta, Ga.

Memorial services were held in Lloyd Street M. E. Church in memory of Rev. E. H. Gammon, founder of Gammon Theological Seminary, Sunday afternoon, August 16, 1891. The service was opened by singing hymn "Servant of God Well Done," etc., and reading psalm 90, by Rev. C. L. Johnson, of the class of '91, and pastor Gate City M. E. Church, Rev. Valcour Chapman, senior class, led in prayer. Rev. M. C. B. Mason, of the class of '91, acted as chairman and in a few opening remarks paid tribute to the memory of Bro. Gammon, and gave in a very touching manner his last conversation with him in regard to his plans for the future of the seminary. He then introduced Rev. T. L. Johnson, junior class, who read letters of regret from president Thirkield and others who could not be present. Rev. R. E. Hunt, pastor Butler Street C. M. E. Church, class of '89, and president of Gammon Alumni Association, was introduced and delivered an eloquent and powerful address. All hearts were touched as he spoke of the good this blessed man of God had done. Rev. J. R. Howard, the poet of the class of '89, read a beautiful and pathetic poem which appears next week. It speaks for itself.

The last address was delivered by president W. H. Hickman, of Clark University. It was a masterly one and left lasting impressions. After prayer by the chairman the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

WHEREAS, Rev. E. H. Gammon, patron and founder of Gammon Theological Seminary, has been through the dispensation of a wise Providence called from labor to reward ere his plans and purposes for the enlargement of the seminary had fully matured; therefore be it

Resolved, That while we, the alumni students, friends and congregation here assembled, bow to the will of Almighty God, yet we stop to shed a tear of love and pay a tribute of respect to this good and blessed man whom God raised up to inaugurate this work which has such a response in the needs and wants of the people throughout this Southland.

Resolved, Further, that we extend to Sister Gammon, his devoted wife, who gave her hearty co-operation in all his plans and purposes and to all members of the family our heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of bereavement.

Resolved, Further, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family by the secretary of this meeting, and published in the SOUTHWESTERN.

Appropriate music was rendered by the Gate City and Lloyd Street choirs. Benediction by Father Anderson, of the Savannah Conference.

Church Polity.

Q. Where there is a district conference held, can a local preacher's license be renewed in any case, in his absence?

A. There is no law without exceptions positively stated or logically implied. There can be no doubt but what the license of an absent local preacher can be renewed, in his absence, provided the absence was, in the judgment of the district conference, unavoidable.

Q. A B was wrongfully divorced twenty years ago; he subsequently married; has a wife and children; his former wife is still alive. Can he be admitted to membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church on proof of conversion?

A. Dr. F. Hoyt, when editor of the Western Christian Advocate, answered this question in a most discriminating manner. The Christian Advocate then approved his answer. It is to the effect that under such circumstances, if the church is satisfied that the person is truly repentant for all sin, and the situation is such that no readjustment is possible, it would be proper to admit him.

Q. Was not the three years' rule in appointments originally made for unusual cases, and not to be a general law? Has the minister any right to complain if the church thinks it expedient for him to move at the end of two years?

A. The theory of the Methodist Episcopal Church in practical operation is that the ministers are appointed annually. If they succeed, and in the judgment of the appointing power are not more needed elsewhere, they can now be reappointed four times, but must then depart and remain away five years before they can return to the same charge. Success in a minister implies that he should not be removed except for strong reason. The local society has a right to have a judgment as to whether he is succeeding or not. The bishops wisely take that into consideration. But neither the opinion of the church, nor that of the minister, nor both united, is the sole consideration. A principle essential to the success of the Methodist system is that the minister should go where he is sent, that the church should receive whoever is sent, and that implies that the minister should leave and the church relinquish whenever it is necessary. All parties, however, are entitled to hold their opinions of the wisdom of the action. The only thing the law requires is submission to what is finally announced. Without this, of course, the itinerancy would break down at once.—Christian Advocate.

City Church Notes.

On Tuesday night, July 21, the members of Thomson Chapel held a pound meeting in connection with the class meeting, which served to make the heart of their pastor, Rev. W. P. Forest, glad and thankful. They did not only bring groceries, but dry goods and money. On Wednesday the following committee of ladies conveyed them up to his house: Mrs. Dwight, Carter, Peen, Williams, and Miss Sarau and master Peter Dwight.

On Saturday night, July 25, an entertainment was given by the little folks of Thomson Chapel, in which they realized the sum of $7. Sunday the 26th was Children's day. The exercises consisted of a number of recitations, solos, duets, etc. The Rev. P. Robinson, from Mandeville, was with us; also the Presiding Elder of the Monroe district, Rev. S. Priestley, who addressed the Sunday school in a timely and fitting manner. Rev. W. P. Forest, P. C.

The grand Joint Class Bazaar given at Pleasant Plain Church, August 24-29, for the purpose of raising money to ceil the church, under the auspices of the Willing Classes, was a grand success.

THE attention of our readers is invited to the call for "a convention of all colored Methodists" during the Ecumenical Conference in Washington, D. C., during the month of next October. Whatever may be the conclusions reached by such a convention, there certainly must flow therefrom a more friendly feeling and a higher appreciation of each other, by such a meeting.

Letters from the Districts.

Pontotoc, Miss.

THOS. L. INGRAM.

The First District Conference for the Corinth district convened in the St. Paul M. E. Church at Ripley, Miss., Rev. R. Sewell, Presiding Elder, presiding, Thos. L. Ingram, secretary, and J. M. Walton, statistical secretary. Report of the Presiding Elder, showed the work to be in a prosperous condition and 50 per cent above expectation. The first round of the Elder showed that he fully understands his work. Although a new man he is second to none other. The reports from the pastor showed a satisfactory increase on all lines of church work, that of benevolence and church building especially. Among the discussion of literary topics that of Rust University and the SOUTHWESTERN was ably presented by Prof. J. B. Comb, Thos. L. Ingram, J. Burton and Rev. R. Sewell, Presiding Elder. Resolution in favor of a more combined effort in raising benevolent money was adopted.

Texarkana District, Little Rock Conference.

A. J. PHILLIPS.

Dear Brethren: Do not forget your benevolent collections, but begin at once, and by the first of October let every cent of our benevolent collections be in hand. Let us put this district in the lead. Do not forget the SOUTHWESTERN. Now is the time to work for the paper. Every issue seems to get better.

You Take No Risk

In buying Hood's Sarsaparilla, for it is everywhere recognized as the standard building-up medicine and blood purifier. It has won its way to the front by its own intrinsic merit, and has the largest sale of any preparation of its kind. Any honest druggist will confirm this statement. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy anything else instead. Be sure to get Hood's.

Letters from the Pastors.

SPECIAL TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Please take notice, 1st. That all anonymous letters go directly to our waste basket; 2d. Letters must be written on only one side of the paper; 3d. No frivolous questions will be noticed; 4th. Abbreviations should not be used; 5th. Notes and items must be condensed so as to insure brevity; 6th. We return no manuscript.

A. W. Parker, Madisonville, Texas, is abundant in words of praise for the great work being accomplished by his Presiding Elder. The second quarterly conference was a season of great joy. The church was edified and several sinners were converted. Collection $17.15.

Rev. Reuben Turner, New Roads, La., announces a grand dollar rally on the fourth Sunday in the month. Bro. Chas. Anderson will be manager.

D. E. Jacobs, of Lake City, Fla., complains that his predecessor interferes with his work by coming thereon to preach the funeral sermons of his members, at the A. M. E. Church four miles away from there. This is contrary to our Discipline and usages, and deserves to be severely dealt with.

E. Z. Goodman, Peltier, Tenn. This is a hard place. White and colored believe in their pastors working for a living and renting their own houses. But notwithstanding such discouragements, I am determined to stand as a soldier and do all I can for the Master's cause.

I. M. Moody, Clarksburg Circuit, Tenn. Rev. O. L. Fields, of Memphis, held our third quarterly conference at Morning Sun, fifteen miles from any railroad. White and colored crowded to hear him. We had a glorious time. This is a new work. We preach in a school house. I have four appointments from 12 to 15 miles apart. I hope to send your four or five cash subscribers soon. Pray for us.

J. B. Harper, Brookhaven, Miss. I came from the Baptist denomination last January a year ago. I was highly esteemed among the Baptists as a minister and teacher until I left them. Since then it is charged that I left them because they did not give me enough money. But I left to make better improvement of my time and talent, and to advance with the times, and that only. I have been reading the SOUTHWESTERN going on two years. The more I read it the better I like it.

L. C. McClendon, Elijah, Miss.

Saturday, July 25, our Sunday schools had a grand celebration. Very interesting essays were read by Misses Hannah Jane Tolbert, Ella Banks, Hettie Slate, Dinkie E. Poe, Mary Isaiah, Maggie Smith, and Messrs. N. H. Isom and T. B. McEwen. Rev. A. G. Honston, of the Oxford charge, was present and gave a grand lecture on Methodism. Collection $16.10.

D. G. Franklin, Brookston, Texas.

Too much cannot be said in praise of our pastor, assisted by Elder P. Morgan, for their untiring efforts to repair the church at this place. I commenced teaching here July 20. The Sunday school here was never better. The church in general is in good condition.

Concluding, he exhorts our young people to avail themselves of the educational advantages offered by our many church schools. The SOUTHWESTERN, he says, grows intensely interesting and should be read by every Christian family.

C. L. Seward, Gordonsville, Circuit, Tenn. My third quarterly meeting was held July 11, 12, at Ballard's Chapel. Had a grand session. The Presiding Elder, A. Phillips, was on time. Paid Presiding Elder $7, pastor $16, for missions $2.50. The district conference of the Cumberland River district convened at Seward's Chapel August 25. The church is not finished.

S. D. Troupe, Batesville, Miss.

My second quarterly conference was held July 18, 19 by Rev. H. R. Revels, D.D. The Elder preached to a crowded house. The impression made will never be forgotten. Collection $13.50.

P. W. Baldwin, Steens Creek, Miss.

My second quarterly conference was held May 23, 24, Rev. J. Campbell presiding. Pastor's report showed that nine had been received into full connection. The Elder preached at 11 o'clock and administered the Lord's Supper at night. He preached at Spring Hill to a full house. He is loved by all who know him. We are preparing to build a new church at Spring Hill, also at Jerusalem; both are much needed. Paid Presiding Elder $15. Children's day was observed at Spring Hill June 14. Collection $5.10. The circuit is on the increase both spiritually and financially.

L. Tate, Lake Como, Miss.

My second quarterly conference was held June 30. Reports showed the work to be in a prosperous condition spiritually and temporally. Collection during the quarter $40.

W. H. Pope, New Haven Circuit, Lexington Conference.

My work is prospering. There have been 15 accessions. We have our new parsonage nearly completed, and lumber on the ground to rebuild our new church. The district conference convenes here in October. We are preparing to rebuild at Lebanon Junction. Our second quarterly conference will convene here Sept. 11. Our Presiding Elder, Rev. G. A. Sissle, is beloved by all, and he is doing a grand work.

G. Orange, Ackerman, Miss.

My second quarter was held July 25, 26, by Rev. R. Sewell. The work was in good condition. A small parsonage had been built at a cost of $150. The Presiding Elder preached two good sermons. He is the right man in the right place. Paid pastor this quarter $13, Presiding Elder $15.75, benevolences $13.40. The pastor's salary was fixed at $375, and not $875, as previously published.

L. W. Mosley, Welch, Miss.

Our quarterly conference was held July 18, 19, by Rev. J. W. Davis. The Elder preached three soul-reviving sermons. Paid Elder $10, pastor $40.

A. G. Glenn, Blount Springs, Ala.

Our second quarterly conference was held at New Hope Church July 19. The two churches on this circuit are progressing spiritually and financially. Raised for Presiding Elder $16, pastor $73, benevolent purposes $10, trustees' collection $35. The Elder preached a good sermon and administered the sacrament, assisted by the pastor and Rev. S. H. Veil.

R. T. Smith, Glade Spring, Va.

The corner stone to our new church at Chilhowie, Va., was laid July 19. We raised $15.

L. W. Washington, Minter City Circuit, Miss.

We had our Easter day exercise and had a grand time. Everybody seemed to enjoy the exercises. Collection $26.25. We observed Children's day also. Collection $17.85. The Easter and Children's day exercises were conducted by Mrs. L. H. Washington. The fifth Sunday in May we had a grand rally for our church at Minter City and raised $62. On the third Sunday in July we dedicated Nebo Church at Sunny Side. We raised $57.18. Accessions 93. Shiloh Church is alive spiritually and financially. At Locklona we have a lot given us by Mr. W. R. Silvely, and we expect to build a church there very soon. We have raised $102.70 for building.

John Qualls, Pine Bluff, Ark., was agreeably surprised by a party of members and friends, a week or two ago. They brought him many nice presents. His recent quarterly conference was a season of refreshing. Rev. Geo. W. Lacey, Presiding Elder, presided. Collection $24. Twenty-six happy conversions were reported.

Moses Smith, Waco, Texas, is happy. His people are devoted to him, and surprised him with many pounds of fruit and provisions a few nights ago.

G. W. Baber, Texarkana, Ark.

My work has grown from a membership of 6 to 42. We have now the leading church in this town among our people. My Presiding Elder is one of the best. He is loved by everybody. Paid pastor $71.85, Presiding Elder $6, benevolences $6.60. We are moving forward. We are pushing the SOUTHWESTERN.

A. Roach, Athens, Tenn., reports that he is now holding services at the court house in Athens, Tenn. With a little help, he thinks he might succeed in building there. He is much encouraged. All he needs is a little help. Help him, brethren; help him.

S. L. Edwards, Brownsville, Tenn.

My work is in good condition. My second quarterly conference was held at Ebenezer by Presiding Elder Rev. B. F. Anderson. Paid Elder $1.50, pastor $12. Our revival resulted in three accessions. Our Sunday school is alive.

F. Smith, Cookeville, Tenn.

Our third quarterly conference was held at Shady Grove July 25, 26, by Presiding Elder A. Phillips. The Elder preached the funeral of Bro. Frank West, who died in triumph of faith. Elder Seward, of Gordonsville, was with us and preached a soul-stirring sermon. Collection for Presiding Elder $6.50, for pastor this quarter $30.50, for benevolent causes $7. Our next quarterly conference will be held in our new church at Cookeville. I am doing all I can for the SOUTHWESTERN.

A. Lockhart, Runge, Texas.

Our protracted meeting at Mettanel Colony has resulted in 52 converted and reclaimed, and converts are yet crowding the altar for prayer.

W. L. Duncan, Huntsville, Texas.

A few days before the Sunday School Institute began here, we started a protracted meeting. The results were good. The following preachers who attended the Institute rendered good service: Revs.

H. Dickson, O. G. Curtis, L. J. Hogan, T. Scott, S. H. Grant, Prof. R. B. Smith of Hempstead, and Presiding Elder F. Parker. On the 9th of August the Elder held the quarter. Few of the brothers reported. The pastors' reports showed an increase of the work. Sunday at 11 a. m. Rev. S. H. Grant, of Cold Springs, preached. At 3 p. m. the Elder preached one of his soul-stirring sermons to a crowded house, assisted by Rev. Dr. Marris and others. Gave the Lord's Supper to 92. Paid Elder $20.35. During the quarter raised $214.60. Sunday night Rev. S. H. Grant closed the meeting. Six souls were made happy and united with the old Church. On the 10th we moved to the camp grounds to further this well begun work of the Lord.

C. A. Taylor, Sweet Home, Ark.

Sunday, July 26, the corner stone service was a success. Collection $42.75. Revs. Crawford, Johnson, McIntosh, Richmond and Lacey, assisted. P. of Chas. W. Bulkeley, superintendent of carpentry at Philander Smith College, also addressed the people.

B. Jackson, Roanoke, Ala.

We had a nice time at our district conference. Three sermons were preached. We finished our church before the conference. Pray for us that we may be successful. Everybody was cared for.

H. J. Wright, Donaldsonville, La.

Sunday, the 9th, was set apart as Educational day. We used the programs sent us by Dr. Hartzell, after which we listened to papers read by Mrs. Shallowhorne, W. H. Turner and Prof. V. P. Thomas. Then we had a speech from Hon. T. T. Allain, which was in keeping with the man. Miss Jennie Wright was at the organ. Rev. P. Landry, Presiding Elder, was present. A good crowd was present. Collection $21. The church was decorated by pictures of our churches over the country and of prominent men (that of Rev. Emperor Williams was looked upon with admiration), mottoes, evergreens, green moss, etc.

W. H. Smith, Philadelphia, Miss.

My second quarterly conference was held July 11, 12. Reports all showed up well spiritually and financially. Paid Elder $7.55, pastor $50. July 26 was a day long to be remembered. It was Sunday school rally day. There were 1016 Bible verses recited. Collection at Sinteridge school $1.10, Liberty $1.40.

R. H. Patton, Stonewall, Miss.

The district conference met here July 2, and was largely attended. Rev. J. M. Shimpert, Presiding Elder, in the chair. Many thanks are hereby extended to the Baptist people who took such great interest in helping to entertain the conference. Mrs. E. S. Spriggs was with us and organized an Epworth League in two of my congregations.

S. M. Taylor, Eupora, Miss.

Our second quarter was held August 1, 2. Reports showed the work improving. Elder R. Sewell is much beloved. I am building the best church in Webster county. Collection for Presiding Elder $12.50.

A. J. McNair, Shubuta, Miss.

I am glad to be able to report the grand work accomplished at Shubuta M. E. Church in a glorious revival which commenced July 19 and closed August 2. It was a harvest of souls; 28 persons happily converted and four backsliders reclaimed. Number added to the church, 32. Revs. O. W. Ivy, S. May, A. Quinn, A. B. Logan, and Jas. Jordan assisted. The meeting will long be remembered.

J. J. Diggs, Hickory, N. C.

The meeting of the Western District and Ministers' Institute of the North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church, convened at this place July 22-26. It is said by many white and colored people that this was the noblest religious meeting ever held in Hickory. The work of the Institute was conducted by Prof. J. D. Chavis, A.M., B.D., of Bennett College, assisted by Rev. J. A. Rush, graduate of Gammon School of Theology. These young men performed their work in a masterly and scholarly manner.

R. Williams, Queen City, Tex.

Our Presiding Elder, Rev. Wade Hamilton, has held our second quarterly conference. He preached and administered the Lord's Supper to 73 souls. Collection for Presiding Elder $8.05, pastor $85. We had a grand time.

The following were inadvertently omitted among those contributing larger amounts than two dollars at the dedication of our church at Yazoo City, Miss., recently, viz: L. Newman $10, J. O. Houston $10, Henry Gipson $8, Lorena Fearn $8, Mrs. W. C. Covington $5, Mrs. Gracy Newman $5.

J. W. Wormly, Groesbeck, Tex.

This is my first year on the Groesbeck work. I found a good people willing to work, but they were somewhat discouraged. We have gone to work to build a nice little church and have lumber on the ground. We had a revival which resulted in 27 converts, and 25 joined our church. We have grand Sunday schools. On Children's day we had a good time. Collection $5.05.

A. B. Venable, Bonchrest Circuit, La.

Our second quarterly conference was held June 13, by Rev. S. Dunson, our Presiding Elder. We had a good time. Revs. E. Hutchinson of Mansfield, and J. J. Obee of Shady Grove, were with us. Received several members in the church, and we had several converts this quarter. The Elder was with us three days and he did us much good. Paid the Presiding Elder $7.05. May 31st we had a grand rally for the purpose of raising money to pay the debts of the church. Collection $6.30.

J. A. Bain, Archer, Fla.

I have received up to this time $35. Easter was observed and missionary collection was taken. Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education day was a grand success. Collection $8. Children's day was observed, and the program was carried out to the letter. Collection $5. Our district conference was one long to be remembered. On Sunday morning our Presiding Elder at Debous preached. We had a good time.

A. P. Blakemore, Shelbyville, Tenn.

My third quarterly conference was held by Rev. J. P. Price, Presiding Elder, June 26, 27. He preached a wonderful sermon and gave the Lord's Supper to 75. Collection for Elder $10.60, for pastor this year $218.30, total $346.07. Additions 7, converts 6, expelled 3, deaths 2. Mrs. A. P. Blakemore and her club will soon complete the fence around the church property.

The good sisters of Trinity Church, Houston, Texas, recently made Bro. Cole, the pastor, a surprise visit, and took with them many valuable and useful articles to gladden his heart.

R. B. Anderson, Chunkey, Miss.

My second quarterly conference met June 20 21, at Mt. Zion M. E. Church. Rev. J. M. Shimpert preached a grand sermon. Paid Elder this quarter $10, pastor $27.48. Children's day was observed. Collection $2.25.

Wm. Josey, Bellville circuit, Texas.

My second quarter was held by Rev. C. O. Minnegan at the Richard Grove M. E. Church. Collection $9.25. Had a grand time.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

WHY don't you get the boarding houses and different business houses with whom our people trade, to advertise in the SOUTHWESTERN?

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

Mr. Editor: I desire to find Hannah Brown, aged 22 years, who disappeared from Huntsville, Tex., about July 8. She has a scar on her left cheek about two inches long, and she weighs about 125 pounds. Address any information to F. B. Brown, Huntsville, Tex.

Mr. Editor: I desire to enquire for my father George Parks, whom I have not seen or heard from in many years. He used to belong to Dr. Winters. Address me, Mag. Parks, care of Myer Kelley, Rayville, Richland parish, La.

Mr. Editor: I want to inquire for my children, John Russell and Wilson Arley. Before the war I belonged to a man by the name of Mr. Billie George, who lived between Raleigh and Pittsburg, in Wilkerson county, North Carolina. I was sold from North Carolina about forty years ago. I was brought to this State by a Negro trader by the name of John Hooper, and sold to a man by the name of John Ward. My name at that time was Eliza George. Any information as to their whereabouts would be thankfully received. Address Eliza Ward, corner of First and North streets, Vicksburg, Miss.

Mr. Editor: I desire to enquire for my people. My father's name was Bob Buckner. My mother's name was Annie Buckner. They belonged to Mr. John Buckner who lived in Green county, Ky. had three brothers Louis, Winban and Frank, who is dead, and one sister Frances. We all belonged to the same man, John Buckner. I was sold to Mr. George Redon, and then to Clark, a trader and carried to Louisville, Ky. I was finally taken to Texas, where I am now. Any information will be gladly received.

Mr. Editor: I wish to enquire for my people. One son by the name of Henry Hatison. The last I saw of him was in 1867. His wife was Caroline Hall. She used to belong to Dwight Hall, in Penola county. His wife's mother belonged to Henry Hill, in Mosco, Tennessee. They had two children a boy and girl, named Lenay and Billie Hatison. I also had one sister by the name of Suckey Morton. Our master's name was John Morton. We were then sold to Joe W. Lane. Mother was set free at Lanes, in Limestone county, Ala. Father died at Lanes. One sister was Fannie Lane. Her husband's name was Nathan. She was then sold to Solf White. She had two children. Sister Emerline had two girls named Surrildia Adaline and Sinthia Oatharine, and one brother, all of whom belonged to John W. Lane. I was sold by Lane to J. Bendison and by him to Riley Snrrot. He moved to Texas. I had one daughter named Pnas Bendison. She was a mulatto. The last I saw of them was going down Tennessee river. Everyone knowing anything of their whereabouts will please address me, Lucinda Mannor, care of Rev. M. J. Allen, Woodlawn, Texas.

I HAVE had catarrh for twenty years, and used all kinds of remedies without relief. Mr. Smith, druggist, of Little Falls, recommended Ely's Cream Balm. The effect of the first application was magical, it allayed the inflammation and the next morning my head was as clear as a bell. I am convinced its use will effect a permanent cure. It is soothing and pleasant, and I strongly urge its use by all sufferers.—Geo. Terry, Little Falls, N. Y.

There is a growing interest in the United States in the political and social life of the people of the Dominion of Canada. Nothing more interesting on Canada has appeared in the magazines for a long time than Dr. Prosper Bender's article on "The French Canadian Peasantry," in the New England Magazine for September. As a picture of the conduct of election contests in a French constituency it is very valuable and instructive, and possesses a full flavor of novelty for American readers.

Special paper for the following Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church: Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas, West Texas, Tennessee, East Tennessee, Little Rock, Central Alabama, Savannah, Florida, North Carolina and South Carolina.

Largest Circulation of any Religious Newspaper in New Orleans.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 3, 1891.

GREAT is Ohio. One-eighth of the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church live in one State, Ohio.

PASTORS who expect their members to follow the requirements of the Discipline should be careful to set them a good example. Your exhortations will be valueless on this line if you are an habitual violator of the rules laid down for your conduct. You are supposed to be an example to the flock.

MISS Frances E. Willard in her opening address as president of the Woman's Council is reported to have criticised the style of dress adopted by the fashionable woman of to day, as follows: "Woman is a creature born to the beauty and freedom of Diana. But she is swathed by her skirts, splintered by her stays, bandaged by her tight waist, and pinioned by her tight sleeves until—alas! that I should live to say it—a trussed turkey or a spitted goose are her most appropriate emblems."

FIRST, men ought to vote as they pray—that is to say, thoughtfully and honestly; and, secondly, they ought to be allowed to do so without let or hindrance from any quarter. The attempt to constrain them, whether it comes from one direction or another, is a piece of tyranny and an invasion of sacred rights. To instruct them, to reason with them, to persuade them—all this is well enough; but whatever goes beyond this, no matter what sanctimonious claims it may put forward, is of the devil.—Nashville Christian Advocate, M. E. Church South.

In the light of this excellent interpretation, the whole system of voting in the South, as made to operate against the Negro, must be "from the devil."

It seems to us that it is hardly fair to exact of our colored brethren qualifications for the episcopacy which we have not always met ourselves. What we ought to have is a man of pure character, good executive ability, scholarship sufficient to speak and write the English language correctly, and preaching talent enough to make one respectable anywhere. With these gifts, a colored bishop would be a great blessing to his people.—California Christian Advocate.

Dr. Crary's head is level, and his heart is in the right place. He has stood with Peter on the housetop and learned that God is no respecter of persons; and he is faithful to the heavenly vision. God bless him and multiply his race a thousand-fold.

In a recent issue of the Crusader, Rev. Pierre Landry denies the absurd statement made by a correspondent of that paper, to the effect that he had said that all the brainy men of the race were in the African Church; and that the colored people in the Methodist Episcopal Church were simply tails to the white man's kite. We were satisfied from the first that Bro. Landry had been misrepresented. We are glad to announce that Bro. Landry has repudiated the malicious representation, as all who know him must have known that he was incapable to give utterance to such an absurdity. Bro. Landry is a true and loyal son of our Methodism, and no one who knows him could have believed the absurd representation of him. The North and South New Orleans district conferences both endorsed Bro. Landry's statement of the facts as he represented them.

Vicious Literature Denounced.

The North New Orleans District Conference, which recently held its session in this city, unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we look with horror upon the entrance of some of our people into the field of obscene journalism in this city; and that we stamp with our most emphatic disapproval the circulation of such vile and vicious newspapers among our people as the Ferret and Fair Play; and that we do all in our power to denounce them and prevent their circulation in our charges and congregations.

Resolved, That we do all we can to counteract their immoral and ruinous influences, by a wider and more general circulation of our own church paper, the SOUTHWESTERN.

The resolutions were signed by: D. J. Price, Geo. W. Simms, H. C. Wilson, Engus Baptist, Alexander Ready, S. A. Mason, Thos. McCary, W. P. Forest, S. Mitchell, Ed. Dixon, R. J. Floyd, N. Kyles, A. W. Wilson, F. Walker, F. Harvey.

The South New Orleans District Conference, at Thibodaux, La., we learn, took similar action about the same time. We most cordially endorse their action, and hope that it will be effective in checking the inroads of this corrupting influence in the homes of our people.

"The Spread of Methodism in the South."

With this week's paper we begin a series of articles on this very important question, from the pens of some of our strongest men of both races in our church in the South. One or two articles of the series appeared before this announcement, but their merit will be appreciated with those that are being published, and are to follow. We commend them to the careful and considerate attention of the whole church.

LOUD "amens" often dwindle down into a deathlike quietude, when the truth begins to take hold in real earnest, and cut like a two-edged sword. Here is a true anecdote showing a very practical way of testing the character of Christian profession: An old Methodist preacher once offered the following prayer in a prayer meeting: "Lord, help us to trust thee with our souls." "Amen" was responded by many voices. "Lord, help us to trust with our bodies." "Amen" was responded with as much warmth as ever. "Lord help us to trust thee with our money;" but to this petition the "Amen" was not forthcoming. Is it not strange that when religion touches some men's pockets it cools their ardor at once, and seals their lips? We often hear men talk of the "peace of God in the heart;" and to the phrase we raise no objection; but it has often occurred to us that if the "peace of God" could get in some people's pockets it would be a blessed thing.

"It is now high time for the free nations of the world to utter their protest against this system of barons despotism, and to demand of the Russian Government that its Jewish subjects shall enjoy at least the elementary rights of human beings, liberty of movement, freedom in choice of a career, and equality in all orderly citizens before the law."—Mail and Express.

The Appeal says: "We should like for the Mail and Express to specify just where those free nations are that can afford to rebuke Russia. In the United States, the colored people are treated as badly as the Jews in Russia are, and the Jews are just as active in aiding in this class of persecution as any other class of people. With our massacre of colored men in the South and of Indians and Chinese in the West and so on, we would cut a beautiful figure posing as a free nation and rebuking Russia. We think it is high time for us to pay some attention to the barbarism so prevalent in the United States, to which Russia can offer no parallel." That's too true.

A Most Worthy Object.

Fourteen months ago Bishop Mallalien purchased a property most suitably located for the medical college of the New Orleans University. Upon this purchase he has collected and paid a little over $11,000 in cash. There yet remains $5,000 to be raised to complete the payment of the last dollar due on the purchase. It is of the greatest importance that all of this should be paid within the next six weeks. Will all interested in helping the colored people send their contributions by letter promptly to Bishop W. F. MALLALIEU, 1428 St. Charles Ave., New Orleans, La.

THE American people will never fully appreciate the service rendered, this government during its darkest days, in our civil war, by Bishop Simpson. A recent issue of the Sion City Journal pays tribute to him as follows:

"Two men who had mighty influence behind the scenes during the war were James Harlan and the late Bishop Matthew Simpson, of the Methodist Church. Bishop Simpson was president of Aabury (now De Pauw) University, at Greencastle, Indiana, when Harlan was a student there. He was a man of remarkable administrative genius, and it is a fact that many of the great financial measures of the war period, for which Secretary Chase received credit, really originated in the fertile brain of the Methodist bishop. He probably had as much as any other man to do with framing the plan which created the 'greenback' money of that period. It was probably through Harlan that Lincoln came to know and to put so high a value upon the advice of Bishop Simpson."

Political Review.

President Harrison has just completed an eastern tour. He was received everywhere with remarkable enthusiasm. He was idolized everywhere. His speeches won many friends and mark him as the hero of the hour. In one of his speeches he said, among other things: "A statesman of one of the Southern States said to me, with tears in his eyes, shortly after my inauguration: 'Mr. President, I hope you intend to give the poor people of my State a chance.' I said in reply, a chance to do what? If you mean, sir, that they shall have a chance to nullify any law, and that I shall wink at the nullification of it, you ask that which you ought not to ask and that which I cannot consider. (Applause.) If you mean that obeying every public law and giving to every other man his full rights under the law and the Constitution, they shall abide in my respect and in the security and peace of our institutions. Then they shall have, so far as in my power lies, an equal chance with all our people. (Applause.) We may not choose what laws we will obey; the choice is made for us. When a majority have by lawful methods placed a law on the statute book, we may endeavor to repeal it, we may challenge its wisdom, but while it is the law, it challenges our obedience. (Applause.)"

Such patriotism and devotion to duty will insure him the support of the solid Negro vote for renomination and election.

It is understood that Judge Omberson will be elected U. S. Senator from Texas, vice Senator Reagan resigned, when the extra session of the Texas Legislature convenes.

Hon. Fred Douglass has resigned the office of Minister to Hayti, and the indications are that he will be succeeded by a colored man from the North. We regret this because we are satisfied that the President could not do better than in appointing one of our Creole colored citizens, who is thoroughly conversant with the national tongue of that country.

Georgia Democracy is said to be solidly against the presidential nomination of Cleveland, and in favor of the free coinage of silver, against which Mr. Cleveland has already pronounced.

Gov. Page, of Vermont, will appoint the Hon. Redfield Proctor, Secretary of War, U. S. Senator in place of Senator George F. Edmunds, resigned.

Senator Walthall, of Mississippi, it is said, will be re-elected to the U. S. Senate, despite his declaration to be a candidate.

On Tuesday, Sept. 8, Hon. J. Y. Brown, Democrat, will be inaugurated Governor of Kentucky, with the usual ceremonies and accompaniments.

The Lottery folks are stirring up this whole State over the lottery amendment. We beseech our people to have nothing to do with the accursed gambling scheme. No greater harm can possibly come to our people than that they should be known as the vicious element that supports the saloon, the lottery, Sabbath desecration and every immorality that comes up for political consideration. Have nothing to do with any party or faction that proposes to advance your interest by whatever immoral means. Stand for God, the church, and with good men, and God will take care of you. Let every colored patriot prepare to array himself against the gambling infamy in the next general election. Don't listen to those who pretend that the lottery folks are more friendly disposed toward the colored people. This is not a question of friendship, but of right. Stand by that, whatever may be the bribery offered to pursue the contrary course.

Personal.

—Rev. S. E. H. Morant, of Alexandria, who was suffering over work is now fast recovering, and in the course of the next few days will be fully prepared for the continued vigorous prosecution of his work.

—After spending several weeks at Chautauque, N. Y., where he enjoyed all the literary advantages offered at that famous seat of learning, Prof. Alex. P. Camphor, A.B., professor of mathematics at New Orleans University has returned to this city.

—We regret to record the death of our beloved pastor of Winona, Miss., Rev. L. P. Brown. He departed this life in triumph August 23.

—Bro. J. P. Patten, a promising young man, and a student of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., was accidentally drowned while swimming in the Warrior river, near Warrior, Ala., August 21.

—Mrs. Rev. A. J. Pickett, of LaHarpe Church, is visiting relatives and friends at Franklin, La.

—His many friends will rejoice to learn, that president Thirkield, of Gammon Theological Seminary, is enjoying a much needed rest at Meredith, N. H., and that he is now "feeling more like himself than he has for months." He is hopeful of another year of great results at Gammon next session.

—Rev. J. W. Hamilton, D.D., of Boston, has been stirring up Ohio Methodists with several great sermons.

—Bishop Goodsell has returned from his visit to China and Japan. He is in excellent health.

—Prof. W. H. Crawford, of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., has returned from his European tour.

—Rev. M. J. Dyer, of Jeanette, made a pleasant call last Sunday. He brings good reports from his charge, and renewed interest in the SOUTHWESTERN.

—Rev. J. C. Hartzell, D.D., corresponding secretary of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, and Rev. M. O. B. Mason, B.D., Field Agent, have been visiting district conferences in this section and giving general inspiration in behalf of the cause they so ably represent. At the North New Orleans district Conference in this city, last week, they were seconded by Prof. Sedgwick, of Nashville, Tenn., and president Adkinson, of New Orleans University. These brethren were given an ovation at each of the conferences visited.

—The Rev. George Whitaker, D.D., of Wiley University, Marshall, Texas, has been elected president of Wilamette University, Oregon.

—We rejoice to learn that Mrs. Barrow, wife of Rev. R. C. Barrow, of Ponchatoula, La., is recovering from a severe attack of malarial fever. She is in this city under medical treatment.

—Col. George W. Williams, the great Negro historian died suddenly Aug. 5, at Blackpool, England, aged 42 years. In his death the race loses one of its most conspicuous historians, literateurs, legislators, philanthropists, and general man of letters.

—America mourns the death of one of her most brilliant sons in the person of James Russell Lowell, the poet and diplomat.

—Rev. R. F. Wayman, a brother of Bishop Wayman, and a prominent minister of the Baltimore Conference, A. M. E. Church, died in Baltimore, Md., August 12.

—Rev. Homer Eaton, D.D., the successful Junior Agent of our New York Book Concern is representing the Concern on the Pacific Coast.

—Bishop Jabez Pitt Campbell, D.D., LL.D., of the A. M. E. Church, ascended to his reward from his home in Philadelphia, Sunday Aug. 11, aged 68 years. He was a great theologian, a faithful minister and one of the most powerful preachers that we have ever heard. In his death Methodism, and the American Negro especially, loses one of its best exponents. We reverently uncover our head, in the presence of his open grave, shed a tear over his departure, and gird up the loins of our minds to press forward, as we gather inspiration from his glorious triumph over the last enemy. Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to his family and church in their irreparable personal loss.

—Mr. George B. Johnson, of the Western Methodist Book Concern, Cincinnati, has been spending a few weeks in the East, visiting Ocean Grove and other places of interest. Mr. Johnson is a faithful servant of the church, and a hard worker, and deserves the well-earned vacation.

—Rev. M. C. B. Mason, B.D., preached his farewell sermon at Lloyd Street Church last Sunday night. The church was crowded to overflowing. The aisles were crowded and a great many had to go away. Bro. Mason preached an able sermon. He goes with the admiration of not only the members of Lloyd Street but of the people of Atlanta.—Atlanta (Ga.) Times.

—Rev. Edward L. Parks, D.D., of Gammon Theological Seminary, is spending his vacation in teaching theology at Madison, South Dakota.

—Rev. E. E. Hoss, D.D., editor of the Christian Advocate (M. E. Church South) mourns the death of his mother. We extend heartfelt sympathy.

—Bishop Mallalien was in Salt Lake City, Utah, Sunday, Aug. 23. He is now on the Pacific coast holding conferences and rallying the churches out there to grander results.

—Sunday School Agent Lyon is suffering from malarial disorders. He is some better, but he has been very sick indeed.

—Presiding Elder Marshall is spending a few days in the city, pending the inauguration of his third round.

—The Rev. James S. Chadwick, D.D., assistant secretary of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, will return to the pastorate next spring. He has done good service in his present position, and he retires with the blessing of the whole church on his head.

—Prof. L. M. Dutton, president of Olin University, Orangeburg, S. C., and Mrs. Dutton have been spending a little time at Chautauque. They are much beloved for their work's sake, and for their personal worth, and deserve their pleasant outing.

—Rev. Dr. Mendenhall, of the Methodist Review, is recreating at Lakeside, Ohio.

—Mr. F. S. Mendenhall, son of the editor of the Methodist Review, has returned to this country from Liverpool. He spent three months in Germany and France, and one year in the university at Oxford, England, taking lessons from Jewett, Sayce, Gardiner, and others, in Greek language and literature. Mr. Mendenhall graduated in 1889, from the Ohio Wesleyan University, and has improved his rare opportunities abroad. He is fitting himself for a Greek professorship, and gives promise of exceptional distinction in his chosen profession.

—The report that the Rev. S. E. H. Morant, Presiding Elder of Alexandria, (La.) district had lost his mind, we are glad to learn is not true. He suffered a few days from overwork, but is now all right again.

—Rev. E. S. Hicks, our pastor at Columbus, Ga., is reported to be very sick.

—After several weeks absence in Shreveport, visiting relatives and friends, Mrs. Dr. Albert and daughter, Miss Laura, returned home with the Doctor last week. They had a very pleasant stay, and returned home with regret that they could not remain longer. They gave a concert for the benefit of St. Paul Church while there, from which about forty five or fifty dollars were realized for the church. Mrs. Prof. Cole, Miss V. M. Duncan, the ladies of the church and the Gate City Quartette assisted to make the occasion the entertaining and profitable one that it was.

THE sitting of the North New Orleans district Conference at Mt. Zion last week, brought nearly all the pastors of the district to the city. They favored us with appreciated calls. Reports next week.

THE final blow has been given the Balmaoda Government; Santiago has been captured, and the Congressional troops are in peaceful possession of the Capital.

Help Poor Africa.

SUMMER, S. C., Aug. 8.
Dr. A. E. P. Albert:
Dear Brother: From the columns of the SOUTHWESTERN I learn that there is not a printing press in the republic of Liberia. Our school at Cape Palmas ought to have a printing press and outfit for publishing a paper. "The African Christian Advocate" should be established at once with American dollars, and in this way help to evangelize the Dark Continent. I will head a list of subscribers with $10, and will do more, if possible, later on. Please open your subscriptions and oblige one greatly interested in Africa and the Africans. Yours truly,
J. B. MIDDLETON.

We heartily commend the above to all the friends of Africa, and endorse it with a subscription of $10 to that proffered by Brother Middleton. No greater responsibility rests upon the church of America than this very cause. Who will now be the next to unite in this special effort to help Africa? Send cash to this office, and it will be acknowledged through our columns and applied to the purpose herein set forth. Those who deem best to do so may send us $2 and we will send the SOUTHWESTERN one year to worthy and needy ones over there.

THE session of the South New Orleans district Conference at Thibodaux last week caused all the churches of that district in this city to be without a pastor last Sunday. They no doubt had a good time. Their people will profit from the rich experiences which they will bring to them therefrom.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has a steadily increasing popularity, which can only be won by an article of real merit. Give it a trial.

DAILY BREAD.

When God puts light in a sinner's heart, he don't turn it through a meter and charge so much a foot for it.

It don't take much religion for a man to praise God when he feels like it.

Zacchens didn't climb up into the tree to be looked at.

Nobody ever had more horse sense than they needed.

If the Lord didn't love us, the devil wouldn't tempt us.

The congregation that expects the preacher to furnish all the fire will do a good deal of shivering.

All the dead Christians aint in the cemetery.

There were no dead languages taught in the school of Christ.

The light of the body is the eye, but we are responsible for the kind of glasses we look through.

If you won't go to church with your wife, do the next best thing—take care of the baby and let her go.

One has traveled a long way toward success who has fully made up his mind to succeed.

A gun is no less a gun because it isn't loaded.

The young man that says he can't see any sense in religion never wears more than a number six hat.

The prodigal son's elder brother wouldn't have killed the fatted calf that took the first premium.

God never put a blind watchman on the walls of Zion.

It will take a pretty warm preacher to thaw out a cold church.

Nothing will weary a Christian so much as trying to see how little he can do for God.

Every one of us has trials that must be borne without any assistance, save that which we get from our Father in heaven.

No one can lead a successful Christian life without the help of Christ.

Find a man whose own dog don't like him, and you will find one who hasn't many friends among his fellows.

If you are ashamed of your religion, it is a good sign you haven't the kind which Christ died to give you.

The grass grows rankest around the empty well.

It ought not to be hard to make up our mind to always live for Christ when we remember that he "ever liveth to make intercession for us."

The devil always takes off his hat to a long-faced Christian.

It isn't God's fault if his army ever goes on half rations.

When you see a man that is mean to his wife, you ain't very far from the connecting link.

If done in the right spirit, helping your wife take care of a cross baby will prove a means of grace.

The man that is true to God and himself never lacks for friends.

The reason idleness is so great a sin is because it breeds so many sins.

It don't take much effort for a man to do right if he really wants to do it.

It's the devil's thunder that sours the milk of human kindness.

One reason why we should keep our eyes on Christ is, a man generally travels in the direction he looks.

If money was necessary to salvation a large majority of mankind would be lost.

A starving man won't stop to ask whose make of baking powder you use.

The worship God wants don't start in the throat.—Ram's Horn.

Power for Service.

Acts 1:8—"Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you."

The disciples of our Lord were perplexed when he announced his approaching departure from them. They had cherished thoughts of position and influence. Erroneously enough we know, but none the less real and to be taken into account, and now before even the semblance of power has been attained, for Jesus to talk of coming death and separation from them! What a shattering of their hopes! And too add to their bewilderment he says it is "expedient" for them that he should go away. From other lips the words would have seemed little better than cruel mockery. Yet so it was. To them, to the future church, and to the world at large, it was of infinitely greater importance to have the inward, all-pervading, ever-present spirit with them, than even the visible, bodily, but necessarily localized presence of the Savior. So he said, "It is expedient for you that I go away, for if I go not away the Comforter will not come unto you, but if I depart I will send him to you."

It is to be noted that in the later days of his ministry Jesus seems to have set himself specially to honor the Holy Ghost, and to direct the minds of the disciples to his coming. He recurs to it as to a tender and loved theme. He knew well what was before his followers and that whatever other qualifications they had, the power of the Holy Ghost would alone fit them for what they were called to do. Therefore they were to tarry until they received that power, and then when thus baptized they were to go forth, fearlessly, confidently, and to bear their testimony in Jerusalem, in Judea, in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth.

I. Note well, for it has much significance, that the disciples had already many elements of power for their work of witness-bearing.

1. They were good men, renewed in heart and life and "made clean through the word." And goodness is power. Silent it may be, but real and making itself felt.

2. They were men of faith and prayer. And this ever means power in such service as that to which the disciples were called. Such men have always done great exploits.

3. They could speak from personal knowledge and experience of Jesus. And this knowledge meant power. It was knowledge at first-hand. Their eyes had seen him, their ears had heard him, their hearts had been thrilled by his words.

4. They had deep and strong love for Christ. And love is power, one of the greatest forces that can actuate us.

Each and all of these elements of power these men had. But the power was yet wanting. What they needed was that supernatural gift which would take up and press into service every faculty, every gift, every acquirement they had and make them mighty to the pulling down of the strongholds of sin. All other gifts, valuable though they might be in their place, were as needless as the most elaborately constructed engine without steam, or the most powerful artillery without fire. Some time ago it was resolved to blow up the rocks that obstructed the entrance to New York harbor. Seven long years were spent in preparatory work, drilling and laying trains of gunpowder until the rocks were honeycombed and tons upon tons of explosives were skillfully placed. But at the end of the years the mighty rocks lay there formidable as ever, until one day at a given signal a little child pressed her finger on the electric button and the fire leaped amid all the preparations, giving life to their hidden energies. Then in a moment the spectators heard a low, rumbling sound followed by a great upheaval of the waters, and the gigantic rocks were shattered into fragments. There were vast possibilities stored in those prepared galleries, but they waited for the fire. Till that came they were inoperative, but when that touched them they were instant with irresistible energy. So with the disciples. And the conditions of service are ever the same. Our supreme need is to be filled with the Holy Ghost. Given this and the weakest shall be as David, and David as the house of the Lord.

II. See how this power manifested itself in the early Christians.

1. In a deepened piety, a richer and fuller spiritual life.
2. It took hold of and utilized in service each and every disciple.
3. They were filled with a courageous enthusiasm.
4. The effect on the people was immediate and mighty. Three thousand souls born in a day.

It will do all this for us in our day if we but receive it. Oh that it might come to us all. To the pulpit, and old sermons shall be preached with new power and new sermons with the old soul-saving success. To the pew, and old experiences shall throb with new life and tongues that have long been silent shall break forth into God's praise; into our homes and the children shall know the God of their fathers; into the church and there shall be the shout of a king in the camp. "Ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you."—Rev. G. D. Oleworth, Vermillion, So. Da.

Gov. Northern at Gammon.

Gov. Northern was among the distinguished visitors at the commencement at Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga.

The Governor's address was the closing and crowning exercise of commencement day.

Dr. Thirkield introduced Gov. Northern as the people's Governor. The Governor spoke substantially as follows: "Recent absence has caused an accumulation of work in my office, but I am here in the discharge of what I regard another duty, and because it is my high pleasure to be here. Christian education, I take it, is the theme of this occasion. As one of your speakers has said, 'a man is a man only as he stands under the shadow of the cross.' A man is a man, not because of what he does for himself, but because of what he does for his fellows. In this splendid and most important work which you are doing for the uplifting of your race and for the welfare of society and the State, I give you my hand, my purposes and my heart. It is the duty of every citizen to help, as far as he is able, to build up the material resources of the State, and to promote its intellectual advancement, and to see to it that there is a moral standard that will elevate the people and honor God. Material development is important and necessary; but, as one of your speakers has said, there ought to be a check upon the un-Christian and unbusiness-like methods of making money. It is to the great credit of the colored people of the State of Georgia that they report $12,322,000 of taxable property. It is a much greater compliment to the colored people of the State that it has been truly said that, in the equipment of the State college for your people, it is possible to fill every professorship with a competent colored man from the State of Georgia.

"I have named these elements in the order of importance which they have in my mind. The material and the intellectual are necessary, but the highest is the moral—the heart power. I do not know just how many Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians and Episcopalians they are among your people, but I do know that there are great multitudes that stand for righteousness, morality and every good in society, and are standing out against every evil.

"And now young ministers, as you go out, take the Gospel, and wherever the people are in want, and suffering, and distress, and cry out for relief, preach it to them in sympathy, tenderness and love, and lift the individual, lift the community, lift the State up to Christ." The Governor made every one in the audience feel that Georgia has a Christian Governor, who is in hearty sympathy with every honest man, woman and child in his State, in their struggle for a right life, and for the good of those about them.

Bishop Hurst reports that he has secured $96,000 from the citizens of Washington towards the purchase of the site for the National American University, leaving only $4,000 to be provided for. The largest contribution was by Mr. Waggaman, $25,000; Hon. Simon Wolf and his friends contributed $10,000; J. W. Thompson, $5,000. In a short time a statement will be made by Bishop Hurst to the whole church and to the Christian public, inviting contributions for the erection and endowment of the university itself. It is believed by some that Senator Stanford, the California Methodist millionaire, will start the ball in motion by a contribution of $100,000 for one of the buildings.

There was a grand rally day at the St. Paul M. E. Church, in Meridian, Sunday, August 23 1891. Saturday night, Rev. M. O. B. Mason, of Georgia, opened the services with one of his most powerful sermons. On Sabbath the work of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society was opened up by Drs. Hartzell and Mason who occupied the day in the interest of the Meridian Academy School. Able sermons and lectures were heard from these eminent men and others at each service. Subscription after subscription. The work of the Sabbath for Christian education closed with a subscription and cash to the amount of $1200. Over which every one was made shouting happy. The city has been roused.

You've tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription have you and you're disappointed. The results are not immediate.

And did you expect the disease of years to disappear in a week? Put a pinch of time in every dose. You would not call the milk poor because the cream doesn't rise in an hour? If there's no water in it the cream is sure to rise. If there's a possible cure, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is sure to effect it, if given a fair trial.

You get your one dollar it costs back again if it don't benefit or cure you.

We wish we could give you the makers' confidence. They show it by giving the money back again, in all cases not benefited, and it'd surprise you to know how few dollars are needed to keep up the refund.

Marriages.

At the M. E. Church in West Point, Miss., August 5, Rev. Will E. Mask to Miss Fannie P. Crowell, of West Point. Rev. B. H. S. Ferguson of Asbury M. E. Church, Holly Springs, officiating. After the marriage several of the citizens had prepared a reception, which was served to the 250 or 300 persons witnessing the marriage. The tables were set from near the pulpit in the church down the middle to near the door, and every one pronounced it quite an enjoyable affair. The friends of both parties presented many valuable presents. Our best wishes go out to the groom and his lovely bride.

Obituary.

Kendleton, Tex.—Little Fred Douglass departed this life June 20, aged 4 years, 2 months and 27 days.
Rev. N. Axel.

Richmond, Tex.—Miss Lissie Neal, of Kendleton, Texas, died while visiting her sister, Mrs. Dora Martin, at Houston on the 18th of August. Miss Lissie was only 12 years old, and was not a member of the church, but was a prompt and faithful member of the Newman Chapel Sunday School at Kendleton. Before she died she professed a hope in Christ and died the death of the righteous. She leaves a father, two sisters and two brothers to mourn.

G. J. Izard.
Sister Mary Jane Ward died August 19, at Donaldsonville, La. She was a true Christian woman. She had been paralyzed in her left side for some time, yet her faith was strong in God. Her funeral was attended by Rev. H. J. Wright, her pastor, and Presiding Elder Landry.

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health.

At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. It strengthens the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. The peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation of the vegetable remedies used give to Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar curative powers. No other medicine has such a record of wonderful cures. If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other instead. It is a Peculiar Medicine, and is worthy your confidence.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

PAIN.

I am a mystery that walks the earth
Since man began to be;
Sorrow and Sin stood sponsors at my birth,
And terror christened me.

More pitiless than Death, who gathereth
His victims day by day;
I doom man daily to desire death,
And still forbear to slay.

More merciless than Time, I leave man
youth,
And suck life's sweetness out;
More cruel than Despair, I show man truth,
And leave him strength to doubt.

I bind the freest in my subtle hand,
I blanch the boldest cheek;
I hold the hearts of poets in my hand,
And wring them ere they speak.

I walk in darkness over souls that bleed,
I shape each as I go
To something different. I drop the seed
Whence grapes, or thistles, grow.

No two that dream me dream the self-same face,
No two name me alike;
A horror without form I fill all space,
Across all time I strike.

Man cries, and cringes to mine unseen
rod;
Kings own my sovereignty;
Seers may but prove me as they prove a God;
Yet none denieth me.

The Household.

Sick Room Advice.

Do not forget that kindness and tenderness are essential to successful nursing.

Don't ask a convalescent if he would like this or that to eat or drink, but prepare the delicacies and present them in a tempting way.

A nurse must never get impatient. A sick person is often irritable, and sometimes obstinate, but this must be overcome by kindness and firmness.

Do not fan a sick person unless you are requested to do so, or there is a good reason why you should.
A nervous person is often made very uncomfortable by it.

The nurse must learn to be cool and collected in time of trouble.
Any expression of alarm or anxiety at a critical moment may result disastrously to the patient.

In the early morning hours the vital forces of the patient are at an ebb, and it is often necessary to add additional clothing to the bed, or provide something stimulating at this time.

In bedside watching, the nurse's work is very responsible and trying. And it is here that the observing physician can readily determine whether the nurse is experienced or not from her general bearing.

Avoid jarring the bed and do not allow any one to sit on the bed.
Avoid haste. Do things quickly by knowing what to do and how to do it. All appearance of haste an uncertainty is annoying to the patient.

Unnecessary noise and confusion should not be permitted in the sick room. Nothing is more irritating to a nervous patient than loud talking. When it is necessary to converse with the sick let the voice be sufficiently loud and clear to enable the hearer to understand without special effort.

A little salt will bring up a low fire if thrown on.

Pine floors can be treated to a coating of boiled linseed oil.

A dulled steel pen can be improved by heating it in a gas jet.
Scratches on furniture can be rubbed with beeswax melted in linseed oil.

A bag of charcoal hung in a cistern of water will absorb all the bad odor.

Good lap rugs for use when washing a baby are made of canton flannel.

A good cement for china is ordinary carriage varnish. It is not effected by water.

Boiled starch is improved by adding a little salt, or a little dissolved gum arabic.

Kerosene oil will soften boots and shoes that have been hardened by water, and render them as pliable as new.

To keep butter hard, without ice, take a new flower pot, wash it clean, wrap it in a wet cloth, and set it over the butter.

Salts of lemon—equal parts of powdered oxalic acid and tartaric acid—applied to rust and ink spots on clothing will remove them.

To destroy the odor of paint in a newly painted room, put a handful of fresh hay in a bucket of water and let it stand in the room over night.—Every Thursday.

What they say of The House of Bondage

Rev. Dr. Albert, editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, has our sincere thanks for a handsome volume entitled The House of Bondage. The book was written by his former wife whose sad death was so much regretted by all who knew her here in her native State—Georgia.
We hope to review this book in some subsequent issue. Meanwhile, we advise those who wish a most interesting book to write to Dr. A.
E. P. Albert, New Orleans, La.—
Angusta, (Ga.) Weekly Sentinel.

We have received from the M. E.
Church Book Concern, The House of Bondage—a neatly printed volume of an episode of slavery days, by the late Mrs. Octavia V. Rogers, deceased wife of Rev. Dr. A. E. P.
Albert, with an introduction by Bishop W. F. Mallahan. The work is said to be one of merit.—
Ornsader.

We have received from Hunt &
Eaton, publishers, The House of Bondage, a volume of slave stories told by the participants and compiled by the late Mrs. Dr. A. E. P.
Albert. This series of stories had a long run in the SOUTHWESTERN, of which Dr. Albert is editor.—
Free Speech.

The work is said to be very good and quite readable.—Standard Pelican.

The work is complete and comprehensive in every detail and should meet a ready sale wherever can be found the heralds of liberty.
—Fair Play.

We have received from Hunt &
Eaton, publishers, New York, The House of Bondage, a very interesting and thrilling volume of slave stories as told by those who had to undergo the cruel treatment in the dark days of slavery. The author is Mrs. Dr. A. E. P. Albert.
It will prove interesting reading matter in every household.—Christian Index.

The House of Bondage; or, Charlotte Brooks and Other Slaves, is an unpretending but telling record of conversations held by Mrs. Octavia V. Rogers Albert with Negro men and women who had lived and suffered as slaves. A preface introduces the modest volume as the work of the late wife of Dr. A.
E. P. Albert, well known in our church. The chapters first appeared in the SOUTHWESTERN, as a serial story. There is a directness and absence of passion in these tales of misery that produces a strong effect upon the reader. Old Aunt Charlotte narrates her sufferings in the matter-of-fact way sometimes seen in one whose "strongest trials now are past," whose "triumph is begun." While there is no claim made for exceptional literary excellence, the simplicity and sincerity of the narrator gives excellence in itself. A portrait of Mrs.
Albert is given as a frontispiece.

cate.

The Little Corporal, by Carlisle
B. Holding, is a thrilling narrative exhibiting the period of the civil war; the patriotic sentiment in the North, and the terrible reverses and brilliant victories of the Union Army. No one can read the book without being inspired with a deeper sense of patriotism and manly Christian dignity. Price 90 cents.

Calendar and Chart, illustrating the years, periods and events as recorded in the life of our Lord, in their chronological order; prepared for the use of Sunday schools, normal classes, etc. By Rev. George P. Perry, has just been published by Hunt & Eaton, New York and New Orleans, and Cranston &
Stowe, Cincinnati. Cloth, 5 feet square, $3.50; mounted on rollers, $5; paper size, 20x24 inches, each 40 cents; per dozen, by express, not prepaid, $3.60; folded in cloth cover, 75 cents. The work is commended by Rev. J. L. Harbut, D. D., corresponding secretary of the Sunday School Union of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and by every Sunday school worker that has examined it.

The Mississippi and Other Songs, by George P. Smoot; published by Charles Wells Moulton, Buffalo, N. Y., is a poetical work of real merit, and will be appreciated wherever the good, the true and the beautiful are admired.

Our Symposium.

The difference between free trade and reciprocity is much the same as that between downright gift and even exchange. In reciprocity each country gets an equivalent for whatever concession is made, and there is mutual benefit. Free trade is unconditional commercial surrender.—Inter Ocean.

Down in Tennessee the great State leases out her convicts before they are convicted. They know just what they will get for every man "sent up." Of course "the longer the term the more profitable" the convict is to the State and bosses. A hundred new men for "ten years" is a bonanza for Brice & Co. For years the Inter Ocean has been the nattering enemy of the leasing convict system. It is un-American and inhuman.—Inter Ocean.

A religious paper, published in Louisiana, says: "The State gets a certain revenue from the grog-eries it legalizes, but, how much is it compelled to pay out, on the other hand, in costs of the very many criminal prosecutions which are necessitated by reason of murders and violence, for which the dram shop is principally responsible. It realizes a few thousands from saloon licenses; but how much does it lose by having so many of its citizens demoralized and made worthless; by having the ranks of its criminal class constantly angumented and by having widows and orphans multiplied within its bonds."

"Be still, sad heart! and cease repining;
Behind the clouds is the sun still shining;
Thy fate is the common fate of all,
Into each life some rain must fall,
Some days must be dark and dreary."
—Longfellow.

We need not expect to have things always our own way in this life. There are disappointments, joys and sorrows for the whole human race. There must be days of pleasantness and days of gloominess. We must all have our bitterness and sweets. Therefore, let us make up our minds to kindly and humbly submit to whatever the hand of Providence may see fit to direct.

THE MOST RELIABLE

To correct the constipated habit, remove sick-headache, relieve dyspepsia, to purify the blood, cure jaundice, liver complaint, and biliousness, Ayer's Pills are unequalled. They are an excellent after-dinner pill, assisting the process of digestion, and cleansing and strengthening the alimentary canal.
When taken on the invasion of a cold or a fever, they effectually prevent further progress of the disease.
Being sugar-coated and purely vegetable, they are the best

Family

medicine, for old and young. Ayer's Pills are indispensable to soldiers, sailors, campers, miners, and travelers, and are everywhere recommended by the medical profession. Dr. J. W. Hayes, Palouse, W. T., writes: "Ayer's Pills are the most evenly balanced in their ingredients, of any I know of."
"For more than twenty years I have used Ayer's Pills as a corrective for torpidity of the stomach, liver, and bowels, and to ward off malarial attacks, and they have always done perfect work."—E. P. Goodwin, Publisher Democrat, St. Laundry, La.

"I was master of a sailing vessel for many years, and never failed to provide a supply of Ayer's Pills, for the use of both officers and men. They are a safe and reliable

Cathartic

and always safe cathartic."—Harry Robinson, 62 E. Pearl St., Fair Haven, Conn.
"For a long time I was a sufferer from stomach, liver, and kidney troubles, and having tried a variety of remedies, with only temporary relief, I began, about three months ago, the use of Ayer's Pills, and already my health is so much improved that I gladly testify to the superior merits of this cathartic."—Mamuel Jorge Pereira, Oporto, Portugal.

BY UNCLE CEPHAS.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am a little girl 9 years old. I go to Sunday school every Sunday. My father takes the paper and I love to read it. My mother and father belong to the M. E. Church.

Your Niece,
MARGARET HARRIS,
Ocean Springs, Miss.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am living on a plantation five or six miles from Richmond. I have two brothers and one sister. I have been going to school but now it is closed. I hoe and plow and do all kinds of work. I am 14 years old. I am in the third grade.

Your Nephew,
JOHN MOODY,
Richmond, Tex.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I read your paper every week. The more I read it the more I love to read it. I belong to the church of which this paper spreads the news.

Your Nephew,
JAMES WILLIS WELL, JR., Hazlehurst, Miss.

Dear Uncle Cephas: Our pastor is doing a good work for us this year. We had a grand time on the 4th of July. Rev. C. D. C. Bryan was with us and he delivered a noble speech. Our Sunday school is in full bloom. Our teachers are James Richards, of the Bible class; Miss Ella Richards, teacher of catechism; Miss Mary Stringer, teacher of third class; and president, B. S. Stringer; librarian, Miss Mamy Stringer; treasurer, M. E. Ercin; secretary, O. J. Richards; assistant secretary, W. M. Fobbs. Dear consins, I will ask you a question. How were the children of Israel baptized? Uncle Cephas, I trust this will not reach the waste basket.

Your Nephew,
O. J. RICHARDS,
Columbus, La.

Colored Man in the M. E. Church.
Rev. Reese Thompson, Franklin, La., who knows how to appreciate a good book, sends the following note of commendation on Dr. H. A. Good's great book, viz: Rev. L. M. Hagood's Colored Man in the M. E. Church, is the best exposition of the attitude of the M. E. Church towards the Negro, I have ever read. As I know of nothing in print that deals with the question in such a concise manner. I do not hesitate to recommend it to a careful perusal by every colored minister of the M. E. Church. It would help the intelligent laymen of the church. The M. E. Ministers would learn therein, that the Negro is not a slave as they vainly talk.
REESE THOMPSON,
Franklin, La., May 7, 1891.

How I Became a Sailor, by Amer. T. Gillett, A.M., M.D., is one of those story books, founded on actual and personal history; of which one never tires, but which charms the reader until the last page is devoured. It is a narrative of the boyhood and career of the author's reverend father, to whose memory the work is dedicated. The mechanical, as well as the literary, merits of the book makes it a very desirable one to any and all class of readers. The moral conception to which it inspires makes it especially attractive. Price 70 cents. Cincinnati: Cranston & Stowe. New York: Hunt & Eaton.

Rev. B. T. Roberts, of North Chili, N. Y., has issued a book entitled "Ordaining Women," in which he cites numerous authorities, biblical, ecclesiastical and secular, in favor of the ordination of woman. However one may be moved to differ with the author, he is bound to admire the ability with which he handles his subject. The work is a neatly bound volume of 159 pages.

An Unprecedented Offer!

We have made arrangements with the Chicago Manufacturing Company to supply one of their first-class Singer machines for only $14 cash. We will order a machine like the cut here shown, and send the SOUTHWESTERN a full year besides! It is a handsome oil-polished walnut, of latest design, Gothic cover, with beautiful panels, four end drawers and a swing drawer, nickel-plated, and warranted five years.

Each Machine is furnished with the following equipment: One Foot Hemmer, One Oil Can with Oil, One Gauge, and Screw. One Extra Check Spring, One Package of Needles, Five Bobbins, One Tucker, One Foot Ruffler, One Set of Plate Hemmers, four different widths up to seven-eighths of an inch. One Binder and One Thread Cutter. The Improved Tension and Thread Liberator is used on this machine. The manufacturers offer to refund the money if purchaser is not fully satisfied with the machine.

We receive many letters inquiring about the sewing machine premium, and how to obtain it. In order that all may understand the matter, we state in addition to the announcement, that remittances should be made to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, either by check, money order, or by express, naming the nearest or most convenient freight depot to which it is to be sent. Then we order the factory in Chicago to ship the machine. The company ships it; and receives from the railroad a bill of lading which, with the warranty, is sent to us, and which we send to the subscriber. This bill of lading is good and sufficient evidence that the machine has been forwarded, and holds the railroad company responsible for its safe delivery at the station named as its destination, and in due time, save unavoidable delays. In case of its loss the railroad which caused its loss is responsible, under the laws of the land. If not arriving in due time, show the bill of lading to the station agent and he will look it up. Don't give up the bill of lading, but it may be shown to the railroad agent. All orders are sent the same day as received, and the bill of lading is sent to the subscriber the same day we get it. We started this scheme with a view to helping our patrons, and shall carefully and faithfully carry out our part of the agreement in every case.

A LIFE SAVED!

READ THE TWO STATEMENTS

An Extraordinary Case!

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 22, 1890.

Last April I was attacked with Chagres Fever or Spanish Honduras and was given up to die by two physicians. During that spell and since I have used a pound of quinine and quantities of other medicines without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered untold agonies. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Royal Gernietur. I have had no fever since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind. I am gaining strength very fast. Can walk miles at a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Gernietur has been a God-send to me. I can not say too much in its praise. Any who wish to do so may call on me.

DANIEL PAPPON,
481 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 1, 1891.

My improvement continued, and soon after writing the above statement I was able to go to work and have been working ever since. My health is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony gladly, because I know that Gernietur saved my life.

DANIEL PAPPON.

Chagres Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Gernietur has been tried on a number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It has a similar record as a remedy for Swamp Fever and all the troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quick- est and most unfailing remedy for Fevers of all kinds, Dyspepsia, Debility, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidences from thousands of the best people in the country, and the evidences multiply in our midst every day.

For sale by druggists and country merchants, and at the Gernietur office, 202 Canal street, New Orleans. For full information, circulars, etc., call on or address Kit Williams, Agent, 202 Canal street. $1 bottle; six bottles for $5.

Sunday-School and Children.

SECOND QUARTER.—Studies in the Gospel of St. John. Lesson X. The True Children of God. John 8. 31-47. Commit to memory verses 33-36. Sept. 6, 1891. A. D. 29 or 30.

HOME READINGS.

M. John 8. 31-38. Tu. John 8. 39-47. W. Gal. 3. 7-14. Th. Gal. 4. 1-7. F. Rom. 8. 12-17. S. 1 John 3. 1-6. S. 1 John 3. 7-14.

GOLDEN TEXT.

As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God. (John 1. 12.)

LESSON HYMN, C. M.

Why should the children of a King Go mourning all their days? Great Comforter, descend and bring The tokens of thy grace.

Dost thou not dwell in all thy saints And seal the heirs of heaven? When wilt thou banish my complaints, And show my sins forgiven?

Assure my conscience of her part In the Redeemer's blood; And bear thy witness with my heart, That I am born of God.

Time—April, A. D. 29 or 30, im- mediately after the last lesson.

Place.—The temple courts.

Rulers—Herod in Gallilee; Pi- late in Jerusalem.

Connecting Links.—The officers sent by the Sanhedrin failed to arrest Jesus, saying, in apology, "Never man spake like this man." An angry discussion in the Sanhedrin followed, which was taken up by the populace in the temple courts. To them he spoke these words.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY

1. Abraham's Seed, v. 31-39.

Whom did Jesus say were his real disciples?

What promise of freedom did he give them?

What boast did they make in re- ply?

Whom did Jesus say was a slave?

What difference is there between a slave and a son?

Through whom could they have real freedom?

Why did the Jews seek to kill Jesus?

What did he say about his teach- ing and their doing?

Whose children did they again claim to be?

What did Jesus say about that claim?

Who were the real children of Abraham? (Golden Text.)

2. Satan's Seed, v. 40-47.

What were the Jews seeking to do which was unlike Abraham?

Whose example were they follow- ing?

What did they say about their Father?

What answer did Jesus make to this?

What did he say about their dall- ness?

Whose children did he declare them to be?

Of what two crimes was their father guilty?

Why would not the Jews believe Jesus?

With what questions did he chal- lenge them?

How did he prove that they were not God's children?

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.

Where in this lesson are we taught:

1. That every sinner is Satan's slave?

2. That Jesus can free us from Satan's power?

3. That God's children are the only true freemen?

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG BE- REANS.

Find how many times "Abra- ham's seed" were in bondage to foreign oppressors.

Find what foreign nation was now their ruler.

Find what body had sent officers to arrest Jesus?

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

[For the entire school.]

1. What did Jesus promise to those who continued in his word?

The truth should make them free?

2. What false claim did the Jews make? That Abraham's seed was never in bondage?

3. What did Jesus teach? That all sinners are slaves of sin.

4. Who did Jesus say was the father of all who hated him? The devil.

5. What is the Golden Text? "As many as received him," etc.

EXPLANATIONS.

Disciples indeed—True learners.

Abraham's seed—To whom God had promised wide dominion.

Whosoever committeth sin—The sinner is sin's slave, and those to whom Jesus spoke were all sinners.

The servant abideth not—No slave is at home in his master's mansion.

The Son abideth—As an heir. Ye shall be free indeed—Jesus's disci- ples are God's sons, and this world is God's house. I know that ye are Abraham's seed—His natural descendants.

Doctrinal Suggestion—The son- ship of believers.

THE CHURCH CATECHISM.

88. What is the first command- ment? Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

89. What is the second com- mandment? Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them; for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third or fourth generation of them that hate me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

"O Lord of life and love,
Come thou again to-day,
And bring a blessing from above
That ne'er shall pass away."

PROF. A. W. Stewart, of the Shreveport postoffice, has placed us under obligations for appreciated favors.

BETTER register at once, and avoid the rush later on. No one can vote in this State unless registered since January 1, '91.

OUR Homiletical Department, as well as the general composition of the SOUTHWESTERN, continues to command the emphatic and pronounced appreciation of all our people.

REV. H. O. Armistead requests us to say that he paid $2 benevolent money at the last session of the Louisiana Conference from Beattieville charge, which was not credited. The error no doubt was typographical.

ONE of the most attractive features of Shreveport, La., is its electric street car system. In that respect it is in line with the most progressive Western and Northern cities, while New Orleans lags behind with its antiquated mule car.

WE welcome among our exchanges the New Era, recently launched out in this city, with Mr. John L. Minor, as editor and manager. It is bright and new. Its editor brilliant and versatile, and it gives promise of great usefulness. We extend it a most cordial welcome. The New Era is Republican in politics.

THE Dawn Town Herald answers the caution given our readers against its insincere friendship, in order to get the colored vote for the lottery, by saying: "The Dawn Town Herald is a straight out Democratic paper, and therefore cares very little about the good graces of the colored people." This is not only the attitude of the Herald, but of the Lottery which it constantly represents, and our people should have sufficient manhood to govern themselves accordingly. We believe they will.

A MAN'S color does not involve any sin on his part, but in this country where prejudice hoodwinks even-handed justice, it is often a great inconvenience. A few weeks ago, a colored man, in Pittsburg, Pa., who had the reputation of being one of the best mechanics in that city, applied for admission to the Trades Union there, but he was blackballed. His only misfortune was his color, and this was sufficient to bar him from the advantages the union.

The Methodist Episcopal Church In the South.

"How can it be promoted?" This is not a new question. For twenty-five years the whole church has been seeking an answer. About the impediments to its expansion and the best method of removing them there has been much speculation and not a little variety of counsel.

To name the one chief obstacle is to name the reason wherefore there is any need of spreading any Methodism in the South that is not Southern Methodism. It is the want of a permanent adjustment of the relations between the white and colored work in the South. Here we have one of the great problems of the twentieth century for the church and for the State, in America. If any steps shall be taken to spread our work among the whites by ignoring this question our advance will be a loss to the cause of christianity.

The Southern church has set off the brother in black into a separate church. Our people are earnestly advised to do likewise. Southern States make it unlawful for white and colored children to attend the same school. And this law cuts off from all public schools the colored children in rural districts where two schools cannot be maintained. The overwhelming sentiment of Southern people is in harmony with this policy. The Methodist Episcopal Church antagonizes it. Here the line is drawn, and we are in the minority. The Methodist Episcopal Church cannot turn the Negro out. He will not withdraw. What then? I answer: if the Negro remains in our church he should have a place on the platform with our Bishops. Not because some colored brother is anxious to be an Episcopos, and is eager to run before he is sent; but because it is in the nature of the case. Doctor Potts admits this, and so do nearly all objectors. The Doctor is quoted in the SOUTHWESTERN as saying: "If we could be persuaded that our colored brethren had the material (for a Bishop) we should heartily advocate its utilization." And that is, in substance, what a great many are saying who think it premature to ask for a colored Bishop at the present time. But observe what is conceded in that statement. There is, then, need of a colored Bishop in the Methodist Episcopal Church. Doctor Potts does not "heartily advocate the utilization" of the German "material" (of which he recognizes an abundance). But he does not perceive the Negro who measures up to the requisition. Very well. Let us admit we do not see the man. What follows? Must we wait till one of the colored elders has shown himself to be the man for the hour? I answer emphatically, no. When God prepares a man for a responsible place in some mighty movement he commonly hides him from men's eyes until he sets the man in his place. Sometimes men refuse to recognize him until his work has been finished, and the generation following first discovers his worth. Lincoln rose above all "recognized" statesmen. Grant, the unknown, became the master of all the "recognized" military ability of America. History and Revelation both teach us to walk by faith. We believe that God has called thousands of this race to the office of elder in His church. Now "recognizing" this need we ought to trust to Providence to furnish the man. But a colored Bishop, however "well rounded," will be a great shock to our white work in the South.

The lives of all militant hosts feel the shock when great blows are delivered against the enemy. On dress parade only are the moving lines unshaken. When Lincoln made the Negro a soldier many were offended. When the Constitution made him a citizen many were offended. Whenever our church makes him a Bishop many will be offended. In every forward movement for the elevation of the Negro the protests have been emphatic according to the clearness with which the act affirms that God made the Negro a man. The prejudice against color will not be removed by waiting. Make a colored man a Bishop in 1892, or fifty years later, and the protest will be the same. But when the church marks progress beyond that mile stone, it will be better for our white work in the South.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Notes From District Conferences.

REV. J. BRADEN, D.D.

The West Tennessee District Conference met at Mason, a small village thirty-six miles from Memphis, Tenn., on Thursday, August 27th. The attendance was small the first day. Some people have a habit of always being behind time, and some Methodist preachers are afflicted with this same trouble.

The Presiding Elder, B. Anderson, was in the chair and the conference, after a half hour spent in devotional exercises, proceeded to its routine business. During the morning session the subject of a Conference Academy was taken up and after animated speeches in favor, by Revs. H. W. Key, J. S. Foster, A. Burdett, Prof. G. D. Fields and the writer, it was unanimously determined to reorganize the Board of Trustees of the Mason Preparatory School, and institute the Mason Academy as a conference school, with the Central Tennessee College, and under the auspices of the F. A. and S. E. Society of the M. E. Church. This movement is wise, as we have had a school here for several years. Prof. G. D. Fields is at present in charge of the school and is an excellent and thoroughly competent teacher. The M. E. Church is quite strong in and around Mason, and is fully able to build up and support a strong school of academic grade. Some of our colored people own most excellent farms in this neighborhood, and many have pleasant homes. The writer enjoyed the hospitality of Bro. H. W. Key and his excellent family, six miles from Mason, and a tramp over his farm of 200 acres, getting a view of excellent corn and cotton crops and fields well set with clover. Bro. Key understands farming as well as managing the work of the church. In Mason, the writer was most pleasantly entertained at the home of Bro. Stewart, whose beautiful, well furnished and well kept cottage was rendered more beautiful by a very fine array of flowers in the front yard, which is laid out in excellent taste. No more attractive home is found in that vicinity. The writer was compelled to leave Mason at the close of the morning session to attend his own district conference at McMinnville, Tenn., 250 miles from Mason, which met at the same time as that at Mason. All the preachers of the district were present, except one, and a goodly number of local preachers, exhorters and other members of the conference. J. P. Price, presiding elder. The minute business was attended to with fidelity. Five were recommended for Deacon's orders, and three for admission on trial in the annual conference.

The SOUTHWESTERN was most heartily endorsed and efforts made to secure its increased circulation by requiring all members of the conference to take and pay for it. A resolution was adopted, requesting the Annual Conference to memorialize the General Conference to arrange a course of study for exhorters, and to provide for certificates of graduation for local preachers, who have finished their prescribed course of study. This conference also took action toward securing the active co-operation of all the members of the Tennessee Annual Conference in erecting a new hall or chapel at the Central Tennessee College. The resolution on this matter was presented by O. B. Wilson, pastor at Murfreesboro, and urged in a very earnest and forcible speech. Under the arrangements of the pastor Bro. Richmond, the conference was most pleasantly entertained by the people of McMinnville. Quite a number of the white citizens attended the meeting, and the pulpits of several churches were filled by members of the conference. The writer occupied the pulpit of the M. E. Church South, and the pastor, Rev. M. Curry, took occasion, in introducing him, to speak in complimentary terms of his work at the Central Tennessee College. Our church having been burned some months ago, the meetings of the conference were held in a large tent. The foundation of a new church is laid, and it is hoped the good people of McMinnville will soon be worshipping again under their own vine and fig tree.

August 31, 1891.

Tidings from the Field.

After a few hours ride over the popular Mississippi Valley Road in company with his wife and daughter, the writer reached Baton Rouge in time to meet the Baton Rouge district Conference August 7. Rev. J. F. Marshall presided with becoming dignity over its deliberations, while the brethren made excellent reports and discussed the various questions of interest that came before the body. Rev. Ernest Lyon, A. M., Sunday school Agent, was present and impressed every one with his helpful presence. The SOUTHWESTERN was given a genuine boom, and its editor made to feel that he was among devoted friends and faithful supporters. The sessions were well attended, the sermon and all the exercises inspiring, and much good accomplished in every direction. Among the strong men of the district present we noticed Revs. W. R. Butler, pastor of the Baton Rouge charge, T. A. Brown, of Albert Chapel, N. Randolph, Joseph Jones, Hampton James, C. C. Wright, E. P. Harris, J. A. Tirouit, H. O. Goins, J. H. Rylander, Julius Benn, D. M. Seals, Z. T. Gayden, P. W. Clark, E. H. Clark, R. J. Thomas, G. J. Rogers, J. D. Pool, A. Hilton, D. G. Pharris, Reuben Turner, Chas. Barnes, S. McGruder, A. A. Lacey, B. Carr, etc. Every cause was advanced and materially improved.

From there we had a pleasant trip over the Texas Pacific Railway to Shreveport.

We reached there on Saturday night August 8. Next day, Sunday, was general speaking meeting at St. Paul Church. It was an occasion of great rejoicing among God's people. Many precious testimonies were given. The church is in a prosperous condition, and Rev. T. J. Johnson, the pastor, is rejoicing in the prosperity that it enjoys. It was a source of great pleasure to meet many friends there and among the many whom the writer had called from the ways of sin to righteousness. At 3 p. m., the writer preached the funeral sermon of one whom he had taken into the church during his pastorate there. She had gone home in triumph. At night he preached at St. James Church, Rev. C. D. Shallowhorne pastor, to an appreciative congregation. Bro. Shallowhorne is enjoying great success, and the indications bid fair for a good year's work. The

SHREVEPORT DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

at Natchez, was a remarkably successful one. Presiding Elder Duncan had the good fortune to have there to help him Dr. Hartzell, of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, Presiding Elder Priestley of Monroe district, Sunday school Agent Lyon, Rev. W. R. Butler, Prof. Hoskin of Gilbert Seminary, and Dr. Albert of the SOUTHWESTERN. The reports were encouraging, the sessions well attended and all the services and exercises inspiring. The appointment of Rev. M. C. B. Mason, B. D., as Field Agent of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society was applauded, and Drs. Hartzell and Albert and their work cordially endorsed. The work of the Sunday school Agent was also warmly appreciated. The session was one of the best ever held. Among the prominent members present were Revs. T. J. Johnson, C. D. Shallowhorne, J. J. Obee, Stephen Green, S. S. Wright, Emerson Hutchinson, Braxton Bolden, David Shelby, M. T. Fairfax, S. Carroll, C. D. C. Bryan, S. R. Ha son, J. H. Pierre, Wm. Ector, A. Venable, P. C. Colton, C. W. Reeves, Wm. Emmett, A. McGlocklin, Prof. D. W. Boatner, etc. The conference, by a practically unanimous vote condemned the oath of Bro. Shallowhorne for a preacher's convention at Baton Rouge. The was next visited at Washington, La. Among the visitors there were Presiding Elder Marshall, of the Baton Rouge district, who was received with evidence of appreciation by his old district brethren, Sunday school Agent Lyon and Dr. Albert of the SOUTHWESTERN. Mrs. Lyon and Dyer, were also present and gave two very creditable concerts. The conference was never better attended nor its proceedings marked with greater interest. Presiding Elder Morant has good reason to feel gratified over the work thus far accomplished on the district. Among familiar faces we noticed, Revs. A. Moore, pastor at Washington, A. J. Ford, H. T. O. Abbott, Joseph Johnson, A. G. Davis, H. King, H. W. Webb, Ed. Fields, W. Carr, M. J. Dyer, W. B. Anderson, Robert Anderson, J. Augustus, P. Bibbs, M. P. Franklin, J. A. Vincent, and Ed. Powell, also Adolph Baham, W. L. Amos, and many of the old friends whom the writer remembered while Presiding Elder of that district. Miss Polla M. Brewer, teacher at Eola, was among the visitors.

Returning from the district conference, the writer stopped over at Alexandria, and preached on Sunday night to a large and appreciative audience. Next day he proceeded to join his family at Shreveport.

Sunday school Agent Lyon, Revs. W. R. Butler, Joseph Jones, Presiding Elders Priestley and Duncan, and Prof. Hoskins spent a few days in Shreveport, and delighted the people of St. Paul and St. James Churches with their sermons and addresses.

During his stay there, a large surprise party visited him and family during the midnight hours, with vocal and instrumental music, and treated them to a royal entertainment. In return Mrs. Albert and daughter gave a grand concert and ghost entertainment for the benefit of St. Paul Church.

Although the time for preparation was very short, it was pronounced one of the best and most profitable ever given there. Misses Virginia M., Matilda and Anna Duncan, daughters of the Presiding Elder, and Mrs. Rev. Pierre Landry were there on a pleasant visit. Mrs. Rev. T. J. Johnson was absent at Hot Springs, Ark., for her health, and Mrs. Rev. C. D. Shallowhorne at Donaldsonville with her aged mother.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Twenty Years of Progress.

REV. A. J. FORD.

Before me lies a copy of the minutes of the Louisiana Conference of 1870-91. These bound together form a handsome volume for historical reference.

Twenty-one years ago the number of traveling preachers enrolled was 40; to-day there are 178, besides many from the local ranks serving as supplies. Then the membership, including probationers and the visitors who attended upon the congregation, was 12,632; now, not including the visitors nor those who attend the services regularly, it is 15,545. The conference at first covered only a very small territory, only five districts were necessary to take in the whole work. To-day nearly every available spot in the State is presided over by an assistant superintendent, who goes over the work once every three months to overlook the labors of the many earnest pastors, who are working to strengthen the borders of Zion, to cheer and inspire them to labor and suffer more for the cause of Christ. The several presiding bishops have seen fit to form three additional districts since the organization of the Louisiana Conference, to better our people and save them to Christ and his kingdom.

When we remember that three churches went from the Louisiana to the Southern German Conference in 1878, the terror and oppression that prevailed among our people from 1870 to the present day, thereby driving many of our people away from their homes and churches, and remember that our pastors are becoming more accustomed to making conference reports, we might with joy to God say Methodism has certainly made a great advancement numerically during the past twenty-one years. The sound of some old Methodist praise can be heard from almost every hamlet in Louisiana. There is scarcely a village in the State where a Methodist preacher has not entered.

The estimated value of church property then was $179,200; to-day it is $285,454. Twenty-one years ago the benevolent collections were $1,629.77; to-day they are $3,186. The men of those days are the fathers of to-day. They labored with a heroism almost unsurpassable. Many of them are to-day "over the river" in the mansions prepared for the people of God. Others are yet in our midst waiting for the boatman. Soon they will hear the inviting voice calling them home. The present generation of Methodists are reaping the faithful sowing of the men of those days. The fathers planned wisely and laid deep and broad the foundation upon which their sons have builded, and are yet building. Brethren! remember those fathers did not have the literary qualifications that some of us have; but they were filled with the Holy Ghost and a great deal of push.

Methodism within the bounds of the Louisiana Conference was never so well equipped for work, so far as men are concerned as she is to-day. Her greatest need is power from on high. Being possessed with this, the new triumphs of the Cross would eclipse all the victories of the past. This, for God's work, is more valuable than brain or culture, than oratory, money, and worldly honors. This is the great need of Christ's church among us. We have no fear of the future if we be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

Alexandria, La.

(The Lord baptize us all anew, preachers as well as members! Amen. Ed.)

Letters from the Districts.

Montgomery District Conference.

E. M. JONES.

The Montgomery District Conference convened at Union Springs, Ala., July 9-12.

All the members of the district knew that Union Springs was the place that led the withdrawal of several hundred of the members of the A. M. E. Church to ours, several years ago, and naturally expected to see signs of hostility and opposition. So the brethren seemed to have been determined to make a fine impression on the city and to transact business in a business way. This they did.

But we are glad to say, though prejudice is the hardest devil to kill, that it is dying out in Union Springs in favor of the Old Church. The writer was invited to preach at the A. M. E. Church by the Rev. A. A. Godwin, pastor, and was cordially received and listened to with undivided attention.

The district never enjoyed a better session. Much is due the Rev. S. B. Henderson and his excellent people for the ample provisions made for the conference. We were glad to find the church in a live and growing condition. Seven or eight joined the church during the session of the conference.

Presiding Elder Rev. Cain Rogers read his report, which showed the good condition the district was in and the work being done by the brethren.

The following pastors read their reports, which showed material, numerical and spiritual growth: Revs. G. R. Rogers, J. D. Webb, N. H. Redick, M. Moore, L. J. Hill, Lewis Drake, S. B. Henderson, E. M. Jones, G. R. Gibson. Revs. Z. T. Pearsall and A. D. Crowell were absent.

The local preachers, exhorters, Sunday school superintendents and stewards made good reports.

The following were recommended to the annual conference for admission into the traveling connection: G. R. Gibson, J. H. Howard, G. R. Reeves, Isaac Austry, Ellis Williams.

G. R. Rogers was recommended for deacon's orders.

The brethren are raising the benevolent collections, and from present indications the district will be able to report more benevolent money at the next Annual Conference than ever before.

Saturday, the last day, was devoted to the Sunday School Institute, and every one seemed intensely interested in this feature of our session. The program was carried out and many good speeches made and excellent papers read.

The chair, led by Prof. J. W. Tate, had made out a musical program, which was used in connection with the regular program. It was a unanimous sentiment that an enthusiasm had been given to the Sunday school work that would result in great good to the city and district.

On Sunday all the pulpits of the city were filled by the brethren of the conference with splendid results.

Secretaries: E. M. Jones and J. W. Tate.

Shreveport District Conference.

J. J. OBEY.

The eighth session of the Shreveport District Conference met in Asbury Church, Natchitoches, August 13. Presiding Elder S. Duncanson presided.

J. J. Obe was elected secretary; E. Hutchinson, B. J. Reddix, S. R. Hason, assistants; Rev. T. J. Johnson, statistical secretary; H. Daniels, assistant; Rev. T. J. Johnson, treasurer.

The first day's session was taken up appointing committees. All of the pastors were present, except Bro. A. Wilson, who was sick.

The Presiding Elder made his report, and it showed an increase all along the line of work, and spoke well of all the brothers in their several fields of labor.

The pastors' reports showed that the district, while financially embarrassed, was somewhat improved spiritually.

Rev. A. E. P. Albert was present on the first day of the conference and spoke at length concerning the paper and its support, and as a result he secured some subscribers. A resolution was passed endorsing the editor for his manly defense of our people through the columns of the SOUTHWESTERN, and promising to do more for the paper in the future.

At night the Rev. E. Lyon, A. B., Sunday School Agent, lectured at the camp grounds to about 500 people, on education.

The call of the Baton Rouge Convention was brought up by Rev. T. J. Johnson, and a committee was appointed to consider whether it was right for a member of this district to call a convention on another district without the knowledge of his Presiding Elder.

The committee reported that the call was irregular, and the conference sustained the report by a vote of 54 to 4.

Dr. Hartzell was introduced and spoke on education, followed by Rev. C. D. Shallowhorne, S. Priestley and Prof. J. L. Hoskins.

Saturday was a high day for Methodism. Rev. Dr. J. C. Hartzell was present and gave one of his enthusiastic addresses.

Gilbert Academy was fairly represented by that gallant hero and strong Methodist, Prof. J. E. L. Hoskins, who seems to be a man of the times among our race. With these different lights among us, we were compelled to say it was the best district conference ever held on this district.

Prof. D. W. Boatner read an essay on Sunday schools, which was so full of truth that the conference appointed a committee, asking him to submit it to our people through the press.

Rev. Priestley, Presiding Elder of the Monroe District, in his manly way, gave some wholesome advice, and his sermon at the grounds on Sunday will long be remembered.

Rev. J. F. Fisher was recommended for the recognition of orders.

Bros. J. McKee and A. W. Goins were recommended for admission into the travelling connection.

Prof. D. W. Boatner and Aaron Simonds were granted licenses to preach.

Resolutions were read thanking the pastor, members and citizens for their hospitality, to the T. & P. Railroad for reduced rates, and to the Presiding Elder for the able and impartial manner in which he presided over the conference, and to the Natchitoches Railroad Company for reduced rates on its road.

The conference chose Martha-ville as its next seat.

M. C. Caviness, Goliad, Texas.

The Beeville, Goliad and Corpus Christi work is improving. We have succeeded in building a church in Corpus Christi. Membership at Corpus Christi has been increased from 6 to 30. We have also succeeded in building a church at Beeville, the only colored church in the town. We have had 83 conversions. Estimated for pastor this year $800, paid up to date $376; estimated for Presiding Elder $70, paid $35; raised for benevolences $30. More than $1000 has been raised for all purposes. The Presiding Elder, Rev. H. Swann, has planned a special rally for the Samuel Houston College, at Austin. We have had a glorious camp meeting, which resulted in the conversion of 20 souls and 19 accessions. More than $125 was raised for all purposes during the camp meeting. Rev. J. T. Gibbons, of San Antonio, rendered very valuable services.

V. M. Cole, Houston, Tex.

Our work in Houston looked dark and gloomy when I reached there last January. Small pox and rain lasted two months or more, seriously interfering with our work.

Feb. 27 Dr. I. B. Scott, Presiding Elder, held his first quarter, which was well attended. Collection $33.90. Our protracted meeting resulted in the conversion of 41 souls and 70 additions. Benevolent collections: missions $51, Freedmen's Aid $11. Our rally on Church Extension debt resulted in $200, as follows: Class No. 1, $16.70; 2, $13.75; 3, $13.75; 4, $14; 5, 7.80; 6, $8.75; 7, $17; 8, $9.80; 9, $6.75; 10, $7; 11, $8; 12, $9.40; 13, $6; 14, $7.50; 15, $6.50.

S. D. Troupe, Batesville, Miss.

We have reached our long wished for spot at last. When I came to Batesville circuit I found no church at New Haven, but we now have as nice a church as there is in the country. We have nicely celled it. Bro. Wesley Daniel's funeral was largely attended, by the pastor and Rev. D. J. Adams. The Holy Ghost met us, and such a time has never been seen at New Haven.

A Brndette, at the New Grove Church, Tenn., is enjoying a year of great prosperity. The recent quarterly visit of Rev. B. F. Anderson, Presiding Elder, was a benediction.

N. H. Speight, Oxford, Ala.

We have just closed a successful revival, 18 precious souls saved and 14 joined our church. We are preparing to build a parsonage, which is much needed. The work will commence next week, and we hope to move in it in September. I am sorry that no more of our people read the SOUTHWESTERN here. I have worked faithfully along that line, but owing to the panic that has been through a portion of this mountain district, they say they are unable. Yet many have pledged to take and read the paper as times get better. Many of them desire the machine that is offered with the paper. Our Presiding Elder, a small man weighing something over two hundred, works with an untiring zeal. Yet we need a new district, so the Presiding Elders can help in the new fields which are open before us.

F. J. Yeargin, Friendship Circuit, Tenn.

My fourth quarterly conference was held at St. Peter by Elder B. F. Anderson, August 22, 23, with good reports. Our protracted meeting resulted in 4 conversions. Rev. J. C. Sherrell, of the Little Rock Conference, preached two wonderful sermons for the Elder, who was sick. Bro. Sherrell was out to see his father. He is a student of Philander Smith College. Bro. Anderson is a good man and is beloved by all his brethren. We regret his inability to preach this round. Collections, for the Elder $12.15; pastor $47.60; probationers received 3.

B. G. Smith, Oak Grove and Greensboro Circuit, Ala.

Our third quarterly meeting was held at Oak Grove August 15, 16. We had a glorious time. The church is enjoying a glorious revival. Conversions 8, accessions 9. Our beloved Presiding Elder, H. N. Brown, was with us and preached two soul stirring sermons. Paid pastor this quarter $41.88, Presiding Elder $15, benevolences $9, total $65.88.

J. A. Stewart, Richmond Circuit, Texas. My third quarterly conference was held at Orab Switch, Aug. 22, by Elder I. B. Scott. He preached a splendid sermon. Collection $17.55, paid pastor $15.85. We had a good time.

T. C. LeVert, Gainesville, Ala.

We have just closed a blessed revival at Soule's Chapel, with 33 conversions and 38 accessions.

For fever and ague, and miasmatic diseases, Ayer's Ague Cure is a positive remedy.

Letters from the Laity.

P. A. Cook, Monroe, La.

On the 25th of June Rev. E. O. Goings, our pastor, carried out one of the finest picnics that Monroe ever witnessed. Bro. Goings is getting his work on a boom; and on the fourth Sunday in June we had our ex-pastor, D. J. Price, with us. He preached the funeral of sister Mary Johnson, and the people gathered in great crowds to hear him.

Mrs. Lula C. Lewis, of the Mt. Olive Church, Radford, Va., East Tennessee Conference, is loud in her praise of the good and helpful influence of the Woman's Home Missionary Society throughout that territory. She speaks highly of the work of Mrs. Rev. E. Province in its organization, and is thankful to Elder Province for the full recognition he has given the Society on his district. Mrs. Mary J. Jones, corresponding secretary of the Society on the Mt. Olive charge, has sent us a very appreciative address on the subject, which we would gladly publish but for lack of space.

Sadie Alina Heald, Nolensville, Tex.

Our fourth quarterly conference was held Aug. 1, 2, by Elder J. P. Price. Many brethren were present with written reports. R. B. Battle was elected lay delegate to the Annual Conference, which will convene at Murfreesboro Oct. 21. At the close of the sermon on Sunday night one soul professed faith in Christ and many knelt at the altar for prayer. The revival just closed has been marked with success, 43 precious souls won for Christ and 47 added to the church. Bros. D. C. Ransome and Jimmie Price were among the visiting brethren. They preached stirring sermons, which greatly revived the church. Bro. Jimmie Price is a great revivalist. On Monday the Elder and pastor visited my school and lectured on the subject of education, and left quite an impression. My school at present numbers 80 pupils. This closes my third year's work at this place, I trust with some good results. The county superintendent speaks of making this a secondary school within another year. It is now graded in the fifth grade, with an assistant teacher. We also have a flourishing Sunday school, under the able superintendency of Bro. W. M. Copeland.

W. H. Hundley, Ingram's Mill, Miss.

Children's day was observed at Bright Prospect Chapel on Sunday, July 12. The program was carried out to the letter. The exercises were grand. Eloquent addresses were delivered by Prof. T. A. Greene of Rust University, Prof. J. W. Love of the Bright Prospect public school, the pastor, Rev. C. W. Butler, and the writer. Collection $15.15.

J. H. Gordon, Spay, Miss.

Our Sunday school is prospering. Children's day collection was $6.60.

A. J. Simpson, Doyle Station, White County, Tenn.

Our pastor, T. Allen, is a first-class preacher. Our quarterly conference was held July 17, 18. Elder J. P. Price preached to a large audience, 33 partaking the Lord's Supper. Raised $10 for Presiding Elder and paid pastor $75. We have a grand Sunday school.

F. M. Stanford, Paris, Tex.

Presiding Elder Morgan held the third quarter for Mt. Zion M. E. Church, this city, Aug. 2, 3, and preached two powerful sermons. 147 communion as Rev. W. H. Jackson was in the heat of his revival. At the close of the sacrament one very noted young man was converted, making a total of 17 conversions and 27 accessions to the church. Revs. A. Taylor of Bonham, S. M. Bolden of Jefferson, W. M. Bartley of Texarkana, J. W. H. Moore of Blossom, and F. Gilmore of Clarksville, rendered good assistance during the meeting. In spite of the bad health of the pastor, his report showed $78 raised for benevolent purposes, 85 visits, 16 adults baptized, 19 sermons preached, and the parsonage has two new porches. Collections, pastor $98.70, Presiding Elder $20, visiting pastors $31.30. Rev. Jackson is a pastor in every sense of the word. He is now laboring to pay off the old Church Extension debt.

A. Lee, Palatka, Fla.

Second quarterly conference of the Palatka district was held July 26, by Presiding Elder S. A. Hanger. Rev. T. Holsendoff, pastor, rendered a good report. Superintendent and class leaders also rendered good reports. During the quarterly conference seven joined the church.

Thomas Atwood, Pickens Station, Miss.

One of West Station churches, Galilee Sunday school, had a celebration, and repeated verses, read essays, etc., in which much credit was reflected upon all concerned.

S. C. Coleman, Wadler, Texas.

Rev. J. J. Collins has just closed a protracted meeting with 29 converts. The church is much pleased with Bro. Collins. Rev. Thomas Wadkins, at Gonzales, is doing a good work. Some colored people are going to Oklahoma from here. The Lord has blessed the people with good crops on Peach Creek.

Y. B. Land, Memphis, Tenn.

Centenary M. E. Church is doing a grand work this year. Rev. C. L. Fields is the right man in the right place. Our new parsonage is nearly completed. We had a grand rally on the 26th, in which we collected $106.60. The building will cost between $800 and $900. $485 has been raised on it. Our pastor is happy over his work.

T. I. McGough, Bayou Scie, La., is full of praise for his pastor, Rev. S. Green, and Presiding Elder S. Duncan. He gives a grand report of the recent quarterly conference held there by the Elder. The church and Sunday school are prospering. The new church begun last March was occupied the first Sunday in June.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

Mr. Editor: Permit me to inquire for my brothers and sisters. My brothers' names, Richard or Dick Reden, Joseph Reden, and George Reden. My sisters' names, Mary, Martha and Sonilia Reden. We were all born in the State of Kentucky, and belonged to Melton Church. My name was then Kitty Reden, but is now Kitty Black. Any information as to their whereabouts will be gladly received. Address me in the care of Rev. H. James, Box 49, Clinton, La.

MRS. KITTY BLACK.

Mr. Editor: I wish to inquire for my grandmother. She lived in Lexington, Ky., where my mother and aunt left her. Mother was Lnoy and aunt Eliza Bohlen. My grandmother's name was Hannah Bohlen. Her two daughters are now dead. We are her granddaughters. My name is Mary Jordan, and my sister is Octavia Briers. Address Mrs. Mary Jordan, in care of John Gidon, 356 South street, Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. Editor: I desire to inquire for my father. His name was Richard King. He was taken off by Sid King during the war. I have not heard from him in a long time. He had one brother named Noah King, and two sisters, Hannah Howard and Chaney Croff. Any information will be thankfully received. Address me at Stonewall Station, Miss.

C. H. KING.

Mr. Editor: I want to inquire for my mother and father. Mother was Mary Berch, and father Warren Taylor. Mother belonged to Joe Berch, and Berch sold her to Job Smith. I have never heard from her since I left Georgia. I was separated from her at 11 years of age. After my young mistress, Martha Berch, married Nathan Wamble, I was chosen as her servant. My father belonged to Dr. Taylor, in Hawkinsville, Ga. My mother had two children brought from that State, Warren and John Berch. Aunt Gammer had two children; a girl, Amanda, and a boy, Ernest. Mike Berch brought them from Florida to Texas. My mother's oldest son was Moses Berch. I left him in Florida. If any one can tell their whereabouts it will be gladly received. Address John Taylor, West Point, Texas.

Mr. Editor: I desire to enquire for my lost relatives. My father's name was Jack Brooks, and he was sold to Benben Roe. Mother was Minnie Christie. My oldest brother was George Coleman, next Richard Booz r. I had three sisters, Annie Dozier and Eliza Smith. The last I heard from my youngest brother he was in Georgia and belonged to Whitfield Brooks. My husband belonged to Allen Dozier. I have two sons, the oldest named Willis, and the other John Wesley Dozier. I was brought to Gaston, Ala., by Sam Watson, a Negro trader, and sold to Delemi & Hanl. Any one knowing of their whereabouts will do me a great favor by writing me at Greenville, Miss., in care of Rev. N. H. Williams. My name is now Maria Freeman.

Mr. Editor: Please allow me to inquire for my two uncles and three brothers, whom I have not seen since November, 1863. Their names were: uncles Warren and John Pinkard, and brothers George, Wesley and Wood. All of us belonged to Tom Pinkard, in Bradley county, Ark., until 1863. These men went in the war at Pine Bluff. Then Tom Pinkard moved to Texas with the balance of us. Any having information will please address B. F. Pinkard, Mexia P. O., Limestone county, Texas.

Books and Current Literature.

Littell's Living Age. The numbers of The Living Age for August 1st and 8th contain Prince Napoleon, Westminster; Influenza, by Sir Morrill Mackenzie, M. D., The Locust Plague in Algeria, and Italy and France, Contemporary, etc.

For fifty-two numbers of sixty-four large pages each (or more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($8) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4 monthlies or weeklies with The Living Age for a year, both postpaid. Littell & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

In the Leisure Hour for August, issued by the Fleming H. Revell Company, New York and Chicago, is contained the usual number of installments of continued stories and an excellent explanation of the terms Commons and Commoners, which takes us back to the first agitation for public parks. The subscription is $2 per year. The increased facilities for traveling in this nineteenth century have very much conduced to the practice of entertaining visitors, and an article in the Girls' Own Paper for August gives some very good suggestions as to the treatment of our guests. We have had several chapters on The Spirit of Fun in Literature and Art. Fleming H. Revell Company, New York and Chicago. August being essentially a month for outings, considerable space is devoted to natural history in the Boys' Own Paper for the current month, sent out by the Fleming H. Revell Company, New York and Chicago. The August number of the Sunday at Home, published by Fleming H. Revell Company, New York and Chicago, contains a large variety of subjects, among which we first meet Archbishop Tait, the story of a saintly and beautiful life, as well as of a great ecclesiastical statesman and leader. The present number is very practical, and contains other articles worthy the attention. To be had for $2 per year.

Readers of Harper's Magazine for September are confronted from the beginning with an embarrassment of riches. The number is opened by a series of superb illustrations of Shakespeare's Much Ado about Nothing—most of them full page—from drawings by Edward A. Abbey. The editorial department, under the control of George William Curtis, William Dean Howells, and Charles Dudley Warner, present for discussion and thought the usual rich variety of timely topics relating to society, music, manners, and literature.

THE Christian Advocate suggests that the Grant Monument Association secure the services of Chaplain McCabe and Chanucy M. Depew to boom the Grant Monument Fund. It thinks that they could swell the funds of that association to a round quarter of a million dollars in less than a week. The Advocate is about right too.

In his excellent paper, entitled, "Why I am a Methodist," read before the Baton Rouge, (La.) district Conference, Rev. D. M. Seals, says: "I am a Methodist, because I love her doctrines and polity; because she declares the equality of all races; and because her efforts are directed to the salvation of whosoever will come," of whatever race or nationality. Excellent reason.

Miss Ella Cameron, a young lady on the Reid circuit, Miss, read an essay on education at Reid Chapel, July 18, which does credit to her head and heart; and especially for one so young. We regret very much, that lack of space makes it necessary for us to deny our readers the privilege of reading it.

REPORTS have reached us from Gonzales, Texas, of a gross and outrageous assault and battery committed upon Dr. N. H. Middleton, a graduate of Meharry Medical College, Aug. 31. The Doctor was having his shoes mended when a crowd of young white men began throwing torpedoes at him. Leaving there they followed him to a store wherein the Doctor went to do some shopping. They continued their pranks until the Doctor could stand it no longer. The result was a lively fistfight and handling of chairs, etc., wherein the mob came out second best. Passing out of the rear door of the store, Dr. Middleton made his escape to the courthouse and had the ruffians arrested. After their arrest and release on bond the parties disputed among themselves, resulting in the death of Clark Barber, at the hand of Joseph Blain. Thus ended the career of the leading spirit in the attack of this plucky young Negro physician. We rejoice to know that while our schools and colleges inspire a gentlemanly spirit in our graduates, they also encourage them in the honorable and manly spirit of self defense so successfully exhibited in the present unprovoked attack upon him.

The Mud-Slingers.

Last week we published and endorsed the resolutions, adopted by the North and South New Orleans district Conferences, denouncing the style of journalism represented by two certain papers published in this city which they considered "vile and vicious." One of them referring to the same, said last Saturday, that it proposes to turn its mud-slinging battery upon the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN. We know absolutely nothing of the gentlemen operating the two papers denounced. We only know their papers. These we denounce as dangerous to public morals and to the peace of the community.

Now if their editors propose to evade the discussion of the character of their papers to enter into a personal attack upon the reputation and character of the editor of the SOUTHWESTERN, we assure them that they shall not be permitted to do so without invoking upon themselves the penalty that attaches to the law against criminal libel and slander.

Dr. Albert is well known in this city, state and country, and no vile insinuations from such a source can tarnish his reputation for honesty and purpose and purity of character. We propose to continue to denounce vicious and immoral literature, and to plead against its introduction in the homes of our people, whatever may be the consequence; and if for so doing, the same devil seeks to spew out its slimy venom upon the editor of this paper, he will not fail to call upon the strong arms of the law for his protection and vindication.

No blacker sin disgraces President Harrison's administration, than that men capable of inflicting such a curse upon this community should be given places in the federal service in this city.

Help Poor Africa!

Some weeks ago we published a very pathetic letter from Africa, appealing for papers for the reading room of our mission school at Cape Palmas, West Coast of Africa. In answer to this, the Rev. J. B. Middleton, of Sumpter, S. C., offered $10 toward the establishment of the African Christian Advocate. To this we offered to add our subscription of $10, and others have been solicited to join their contributions for the same purpose. To this we have thus far received no responses. In the absence of a printing press in Liberia, there remains but one thing for American Christians to do, and that is, to see that those poor people are supplied with the right kind of reading matter from the American press. We therefore appeal to our readers to supply the means whereby we may be able to furnish the SOUTHWESTERN to our Cape Palmas school reading room, and to worthy and needy ones in the Black Republic. For $2 we will send the SOUTHWESTERN to such persons for a whole year, postage prepaid. Who will send us $2 and thereby assist in the evangelization of Africa? If you can't go there yourself, send them the SOUTHWESTERN as a missionary agent to assist in their evangelization and salvation.

THE people of Carrollton, the upper suburb of this city, are very much disturbed over the prospects of the expropriation of a large portion of their property for a new levee on the river front in that section of the city. In consequence of several oavings in the river front, the Levee Board has decided it is necessary to build a new levee, 300 feet behind the present levee, which was built only seven years ago. It is proposed to run the new levee from the head of Jefferson street to Short. That will take in the Carrollton railroad depot, the Carrollton Garden, Fisher's saw mill and yards, and much valuable property. The estimated loss involved is placed at over $140,000. And what is worse, nearly all the property involved belongs to poor people, and no compensation is provided for their losses under the law. A wall of protestation has gone up from those poor people, and it is now being planned to take in only 150, instead of 300 feet, and it is proposed to plan for some fair remuneration to them. As the safety of the whole city from overflow is dependent upon the protection sought in the building of this new levee, it will no doubt be built. The only questions to be solved are those of proper lines and remuneration for the property that will thereby be expropriated. There can be no element of justice in the confiscation of the property of those poor people, however, and it is greatly to be hoped that some scheme will be adopted whereby they shall be made to suffer as little as possible from their immediate loss. The whole city and State are to be benefited, and it is but just that they should bear all the losses threatening the people immediately affected.

To set apart the black comrades of the Grand Army in a separate department would be a manifestation of the rankest ingratitude. The black men knew the rebels were fighting to keep them in slavery, they knew the union troops were fighting to give them freedom—and so well nigh a quarter of a million of them joined the union forces. They did their whole duty well and bravely. A hundred instances might be cited, one must suffice. The fifty-fourth Massachusetts was the first colored regiment organized in the free States. It immortalized itself at Fort Wagner. "In order to be in season for the assault it had marched two days through heavy sands and dreaching storms. With only five minutes rest it took its place at the front of the attacking column. The men fought with undimmed gallantry, and planted their flag on the works, but their colonel, and so many of their officers were shot, that what was left of the regiment was led off by a boy," but the ditch about the fort was filled with hundreds of their dead, with the splendid and most highly educated, and connected Shaw among the slain. When a flag of truce was sent in asking for his body, the insolvent, and insulting reply was that "he was buried with the niggers he had commanded," and there he sleeps to day, for his wealthy and honored relatives said no more honorable grave could we give him in any marble tomb, even though his dust should rest among the most honored of the land, nor can the sculptor's art add to his name. Yes, Shaw, the heroic, magnificent young colonel still sleeps with his "niggers" in the sands of Morris Island, and, so long as this is true, let no one dare to propose that the blacks and whites of the Grand Army shall be separated. If Southern intolerance, and the anti-Christ, and anti-American spirit demand anything of the kind, let a booming No! thunder along the line. No it shall never be as long as the dust of Shaw, and others as brave as he, mingles with the dust of the black men who fell at their sides.

REV. Dr. Briggs who has lost the confidence of the Presbyterian assembly has, without doubt, been greatly misunderstood in his theological position; for the questions which he has raised are those relating to theology, not to the fundamentals of religion that enter into personal experience. He seems to be one who unintentionally provokes opposition from the people who never think for themselves and therefore have small charity for those who do. In an article in the June Forum he defines his position, and we are inclined to think that it is tenable. The following general statement may give a tolerably correct idea of his position: "Dogmatic theology is in a state of dissolution and reconstruction. The dogmatic theologians have elaborated Protestant dogma far beyond the later symbolical books of Protestantism. Thinking men are going back to the symbols of the reformation, and then back of these to the ecumenical creeds, and then still further back to the theology of the Bible itself. The theology of the Bible was sadly neglected by the scholastic divines, and it has found no adequate expression in the symbolical books of any of the great churches of Christendom. They, for the most part, pursued false methods of exegesis. They knew little or nothing of Biblical criticism, the higher or literary criticism, and historical criticism are sections of modern scientific study of the Bible. Criticism has made the Bible a new book. And the discipline of Biblical theology which builds on the results of criticism finds in the Bible a new theology—new not in the sense that it destroys anything that is valuable in the old theology; but that on the one hand it is simpler, fresher, full of life and energy, quickening and fascinating people as well as preacher, and, on the other hand, more comprehensive, more profound, more symmetrical and harmonious. It is sublime and indeed divine, because it brings us face to face with holy prophets and with God himself."

Political Review.

The President has appointed Mr. John S. Durham consul to San Domingo, to succeed Hon. Fred Douglass, resigned, as United minister to Hayti.

The question whether it will be Blaine or Harrison continues to disturb political speculators. Political wisdom, however, would indicate the unanimous re-nomination of President Harrison by acclamation or on the first ballot. This is the only course which can avert a repetition of the Republican Waterloo, which the party sustained when it failed to nominate the late President Arthur in 1884. Mr. Blaine was the victim of that defeat then, and it is hardly to be expected that he will offer himself for another like experience.

The campaign in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Iowa and other States is growing interesting, with many favorable signs in favor of Republican success.

Considerable dissatisfaction is being exhibited against the retention of Mr. F. F. Claassen as assayer of the United States mint in this city. Mr. Claassen is a Democrat, and the complaint is that with many competent Republicans willing to serve the government in that capacity it is wrong to deserving ones of the party in power that he should be continued in that office. His official head is demanded in such tones that President Harrison will no doubt have to heed it.

Among the sugar district deputy revenue collectors appointed by Collector Wimberly last week we notice the name of T. Mann Cage, a colored man who used to associate with white Democrats and had no affiliation with his race. He was rich then, and was a Democrat. He has lost his sugar plantation, and now he is numbered in the first batch of such deputy collectors under a Republican administration. The faithful are very much dissatisfied over it. Among others appointed were Mr. Wm. Dnplessis, a worthy member of our church at Baton Rouge.

The United States interstate commerce commission has just made a decision making null and void the "Jim Crow car law" in the case of persons traveling out of one State into another, that is in interstate travel. This is the first unravelling of that abominable law. A thorough testing before the United States Supreme Court and the whole thing will come to pieces. The circumstances under which the decision was rendered were as follows:

A colored man recently boarded a west-bound Southern Pacific train in Louisiana, having also a ticket of admission to the sleeping car. When the train crossed the Texas line, despite his protests, he was ejected and forced to take a car seat apart for colored people.

He appealed to the interstate commerce commission and that body decided that the colored man had the right to travel in the sleeping car if he paid first class fare.

Since then the Southern Pacific railroad authorities have ordered that colored persons making interstate trips shall not be interfered with, provided they can secure first-class tickets. This is a loophole against which our people will have to guard very closely. But for the pluck displayed by the colored man in question this decision would not have been made.

Personal.

—Rev. J. M. Howard, deacon of first class, has been transferred by Bishop Newman from the Louisiana to the Southwestern Kansas Conference.

—Bishop Walden made one of the addresses at the reopening services at Wesley's Chapel, City Roads, London, Sept. 4.

—Bishop O. P. Fitzgerald, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, has been appointed a delegate to the World's Peace Convention, to be held in Rome in November next, and will either go or send a paper to be read before that body.

—Rev. L. M. Hagood, M. D., Presiding Elder of the Bowling Green district, Lexington Conference, will deliver a lecture on "The Colored Man: His Past, Present and Future Status," at the Elliott Avenue, M. E. Church, St. Louis.

—Rev. Joseph Johnson, of Burke, La., warns all pastors and Presiding Elders against the employment of Bro. Milo Hatcher, a local preacher of that charge; as he is not in good standing.

—Rev. N. Ronndtree, of Moss Point, Miss., called last week. His work goes on nicely, and we shall expect a good account of him at the conference.

—Rev. J. A. Holliday, of Grantville, Ga., mourns the death of his wife, who departed this life Aug. 24.

—Rev. W. J. Dawson, of Glasgow, well known in this country through his literary works, is expected to spend the months of October and November in the United States. Mr. Dawson is also one of the most popular lecturers in the British Isles. No doubt arrangements will be made for his lectures in various parts of the country.

—Chester Cannon, of East Baton Rouge, called last week. He claims to have been a regular subscriber to the SOUTHWESTERN for fifteen years. We like to welcome such to our sanctum.

—D. B. Wilson, Esq., of Shreveport, La., who has been studying law in Washington, D. C., has had to leave on account of lung troubles. He is now at Asheville, N. C., under medical treatment. Address him 133 Poplar street.

—Miss Polla M. Brewer has closed a five months session of her school at Eola, La., and is "home again." We hear good reports of her work there.

—Rev. M. J. Dyer, of Jeanerette, paid us an appreciated visit while in the city last week.

—Rev. P. O. Colton, of Boyce, was in the city three days last week and called. He came on the excursion from Shreveport.

—Rev. R. C. Barrow, of Ponchartroula, passed through the city on his way from the district conference at Thibodaux last week and gave us a call.

—Rev. Stephen Priestley has returned from the work on his district and is spending a few days here with his family. He is full of good reports. The development of his work is simply marvelous.

—President Thirkield is expected to return to Gammon Seminary, Atlanta, Ga., from his summer vacation this week.

—President Grandison, of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., has been on a canvassing tour in behalf of his school, in Boston, Chicago and other Northern cities.

He is a fine orator and a tireless worker. We wish him success.

—After several weeks absence in New York, Philadelphia, Washington and other Northern and Eastern cities, Rev. J. W. Hudson, of Union Chapel, has returned home in excellent health and spirit.

—Rev. H. W. Wright, of Donaldsonville, and his sister Mrs. Virginia Mitchell, of Alexandria, spent several days in the city last week. They were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Marshall.

—Revs. Stephen Priestley and J. F. Marshall return to the work on their respective districts, the Monroe and Baton Rouge, tomorrow.

—After several weeks of successful labors in this vicinity, in behalf of the cause he so ably represents, Rev. M. C. B. Mason, B.D., Field Agent of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, returned to his home in Atlanta, Ga., last Tuesday. The prayers and best wishes of the church in this section will follow him.

—After a very severe attack from malarial troubles, Sunday school Agent Ernest Lyon, A.B., is now well again and able to resume his work, to the great joy of all our churches and Sunday schools.

Endorses the Call for the Proposed Convention of All the Colored Methodists of America.

Rev. Z. T. Pearsall, of the Central Alabama Conference, expresses himself in favor of the proposed convention of all colored Methodists in connection with the Ecumenical Conference to meet in Washington, Oct. 7, but he does not believe that it should be composed exclusively of colored members of the Ecumenical Conference.

He thinks the Central Alabama, and every colored conference in the Methodist Episcopal Church should have representation in the convention.

Rev. G. W. Winn, Tallahassee, Ala.: "I think it will better the condition of colored Methodism in her mission to advance the Redeemer's kingdom."

—We published some weeks ago, from the Missionary Secretaries, their circular concerning Self-Denial Week in the interest of the cause of Missions, which occurs September 27 to October 4. We now gladly call the attention of our readers to the importance of the observance of this Self-Denial Week by all our churches. We hope all of our preachers will be stirred to a general observance of the occasion. If by reason of the sessions of Annual Conferences the week designated cannot be observed, then, any other week, earlier or later, will answer just as well. The Missionary Secretaries will send out Self-Denial Week envelopes free to all pastors that order them. Let the occasion be one of general awakening in behalf of the cause of Missions.

—THE Patriotic Sons of America, in its noble purpose to assist the public schools of this city, gave a grand entertainment recently. It is much to be deplored, however, that in so doing, that it found it necessary to desecrate the holy Sabbath by holding their entertainment on the Sabbath day. Not much patriotism in such a course. The Sabbath and the Bible are the sheet anchors of our liberty.

Our Public Schools

Are the mainstay of our republic. In them are being cultivated the minds which are to be our future law-makers and leaders in every walk in life. How essential it is that these minds should be united to strong, healthy bodies. So many children suffer from impurities and poisons in the blood that it is a wonder that they ever grow up to be men and women. Many parents cannot find words strong enough to express their gratitude to Hood's Sarsaparilla for its good effect upon their children. Scrofula, salt rheum and other diseases of the blood, are effectually and permanently cured by this excellent medicine, and the whole being is given strength to resist attacks of disease.

DAILY BREAD.

Death never stops for hot weather.

No man's life can be right whose love is wrong.

God's warnings are as full of love as his blessings.

People never become any better than they want to be.

You can't help the Lord any by wearing a long face.

People who work for the devil never get any vacation.

He is not much of a man who isn't a hero to somebody.

God never had an enemy who was not a bitter foe to man.

The older people become the harder they are to teach.

To man ever finds life hard who is living it for Christ.

There is joy in hell when a young man takes his first drink.

The better we know men the better we may know God.

People are scarce who do not talk too much about themselves.

No man is ever alone. When God isn't with him the devil is.

The hungriest people on earth are those at the devil's table.

If you have God's promise for a thing, isn't that good enough?

There is no safety in any journey where Jesus does not lead.

There is plenty of light for the man who does not love darkness.

God never made anything that lasted longer than a holy life.

Only weak people are those who are not sure that they are right.

No man can take from another a gift given right and enjoy it himself.

Isn't often that a man gets a home without paying too much for it.

Reason men are down on religion because it is down on their vices.

No man can do things that God has without some day hating himself for it.

No man who is ruled by his sins will always travel in a zigzag course.

Many of us expect others to be better than we are willing to be ourselves.

The man who cannot pray for people he doesn't like, cannot pray for anybody.—Ram's Horn.

Homiletics.

Hymns 2, 955, 1030.
Scripture Lesson—11 Timothy, iv.
11 Timothy, iv, 7—"I have kept the faith."

The last words of St. Paul have a deep pathos and interest, range that a life so mighty in influence on the age has left a written record so brief and fragmentary.

Men who lived before and since a day have left whole volumes, but their actual lives have little influence. He has left us only a doctrinal and personal epistle, but we treasure and ponder every word. His life shines through his writings and through his life shines his divine Master, who was the light of the world. Every life has a constraining message—Paul's was the love of Christ. His last writing is a letter full of tender, personal affection to the one he loved best in the world. He exhorts him and warns him—"Preach the word; be instant season, out of season, reprove, exhort, with all long suffering and doctrine, for the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but after their own lust shall they heap to themselves teachers having itching ears, and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables; but watch them in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry."

These words are written by Paul from a Roman prison. He is now Paul the aged. He will never leave his prison till he leaves it to die. He will never see the bright sun again until he sees it shining on the sword that will take his life. He is not discouraged or dismayed. He looks back over thirty years of service for Jesus Christ and writes: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." And now let us see what Paul meant by keeping the faith.

I. Keeping the faith in doctrine.
II. Keeping the faith in life.
III. Keeping the faith in our own day.

I. Keeping the faith in doctrine. Paul first of all teaches us that there is a faith to keep. Three great things we find in Holy Scripture—mystery, simplicity, duty.

We have the story of creation, of the fall of man, of the chosen people, of the holy prophets, of the incarnation, "God manifest in the flesh," of the sinless life, the atoning death, the resurrection, the ascension, the outpouring of the Holy Ghost. We have the wonders and glories of that apocalypse which closes the sacred canon. From the beginning to the end we have mystery. Evermore the Master says to us: "What I do thou knowest not, but thou shalt know hereafter." With Paul we must say, "Now we see through a glass darkly." But yet, through all the mystery, the great mountain peaks of everlasting truth shine forth in their sublime simplicity like Alpine summits that pierce the clouds and mists.

Paul saw the mountain peaks of truth; he had climbed them all. He never lost them amidst the mists and fogs. Yes, there was a faith. Paul saw it and kept it. False Christs and false prophets arose even in his day, but Paul kept the faith once delivered to the saints.

II. Keeping the faith in life. Three great things are, we said, in Holy Scripture—mystery, simplicity, duty. Paul, amid mystery, kept the faith in its simplicity. Let us see how he kept it in duty and in life.

"Lord, are there few that be saved?" said Peter to the Master. Jesus answered: "Strive to enter in at the straight gate." Few or many, Peter, it matters not to thee—thy great concern is thine own salvation. What though all the world be saved and thou be lost? Strive then—agonize—for that is the Greek word—to enter in at the straight gate.

And, again, this same Peter, anxious to know the fate of John, said to Christ: "And what of this man, Lord?" Jesus answered: "And if he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me." The great end of all doctrine, of the faith which Paul kept, then, is duty, life.

Paul translated Christian doctrine into Christian life. He illustrated the faith by his faithfulness.

III. Keeping the faith in our day. We have the faith once delivered to the saints; the faith which St. Paul kept. We have it in mystery, simplicity and duty. We are to keep it. We are not to lose ourselves in mystery. The wheels of Ezekiel, the weeks of Daniel, the beast of the Apocalypse, let us not spend our time in seeking to unravel what God himself has purposely veiled in mystery. Our Lord is to come again. Consoling promise! Blessed hope! Come, Lord Jesus, come quickly! But let us not be unduly concerned about the day and the time, which to the angels in heaven and the Son himself was left unrevealed. Let us preach and exemplify repentance towards God and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. Let us with Paul proclaim "Jesus and the resurrection" as the only hope of a lost world. Let us keep the faith in doctrine and in life, and our blessed Lord will keep that which we have committed unto him against that day.

REV. R. T. ADAMS of the Gainesville District, Savannah Conference, has written as a denial of the statement which appeared in the SOUTHWESTERN some weeks ago, to the effect that that district conference had "endorsed President Hickman of Clark University and Field Agent Mason of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, and pledged their hearty support in the work which they severally represent."

We have since learned that while Bro. Adams is correct in his statement, yet had such resolutions been offered there is no doubt but they would have been adopted with great enthusiasm. The enthusiastic reception given Dr. Hickman and Bro. Mason by the conference proves it.

Obituary.

Brunswick, Ga.—Luvonia Samuel, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. Samuel, died in full triumph of faith, Saturday, August 22, and passed to her final reward. She was a consistent and devoted Christian and member of the M. E. Church. Luvonia was a great worker in the church and Sunday school, and was organist in Ashbury M. E. Church, Savannah, three months of this year, which position she held in Brunswick at the time of her death. While in Savannah she attended the Beach Institute, and there completed her course of studies last June with great honors. She was a bright scholar and gained the esteem of all her teachers and schoolmates. Luvonia was preparing to enter college in October, but deprived of that privilege, she has entered that college in which all her lofty aspirations will be fully realized. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. G. W. Arnold, of Savannah. After the sermon her remains were carried to the cemetery, followed by a large procession. There her body rests among many beautiful oaks.

Albert Chapel, La.—Sister Patsy Givens, in her 82d year, fell asleep in Jesus August 22. For 60 years she lived a consistent Christian among the first of Albert Chapel, under the pastorate of Rev. Peter Brown. She died as she lived, saying: "I am ready, just waiting on the Lord." To her children she said, "You all must pray and meet me in heaven." The church has lost a faithful one and heaven has gained a jewel. She leaves three sons, one daughter, and many friends.

Waldo, Fla.—Bro. Wm. Noyes departed this life August 16. He died in triumph of faith. He was a member of the church 30 years.

Young, Tex.—Mr. Henry Titus, son of Rev. Wm. Titus, took sick July 19 and died after a few days of illness. The deceased was about 18 years of age. He joined the M. E. Church and died in full triumph of faith.

Robt. Thurman.

Rev. L. P. Brown, our beloved pastor at Winona, Miss., fell asleep in Jesus this morning, August 23, at 5:40. He was first taken with bilious fever, but was slowly recovering, when on Aug. 9, he went to a church four miles in the country to preach a funeral sermon, and got worse. His illness turned into typhoid-malaria, which took him away. He bore his pain very patiently. We loved him as though we had never loved another, and feel that his place as a pastor and shepherd will be hard to fill. He seemed as though his whole soul and body were in his work. His only desire to live was to work for Christ. While upon his bed of affliction he was preaching and talking of our church affairs. He died as he lived, a Christian. He folded his arms in humble submission for the angel death to unloose the silver cord of life, and immediately his soul flew home to rest. He leaves a wife and many relatives to mourn their loss. Age, 37 years, 10 months and 7 days.

Bledsoe Circuit, Ark.—Bro. Louis Hodges fell asleep in Jesus August 10. He was a member of the M. E. Church 26 years, and died at the age of 60. His last words were: "I have dying grace." His funeral was preached on the 11th by the pastor.

Philadelphia, Miss.—Sister Mary Rixley, a member of Liberty M. E. Church, departed this life August 19, in full triumph of faith, aged 20 years. The funeral was conducted by writer and B. F. Lyers, a Baptist minister. She leaves a father, brothers and sisters to mourn her loss.

W. H. Smith, P. C.

Kosciusko, Miss.—Pocahontas Peeler Wilson was born Sept. 16, 1873, married October 10, 1888, and died July 12, 1891, aged 17 years, 9 months, 27 days.
R. Hays, P. C.

Grenada, Miss.—Sister Margaret Lewis died in faith in the Lord August 7. Her funeral was attended at the M. E. Church by Revs. D. Green and J. W. Parks, P. C.

Kosciusko, Miss.—Bro. Jessie Winters, a faithful member of the M. E. Church for 60 years, died April 27, in full triumph of faith, aged 80 years.
R. Hays, P. C.

City Church Notes.

[Brief items of news from the city churches welcome either handed us by pastors or laymen.]

Last Sunday being the first Sunday in the month, was generally observed by nearly all our city churches as general class meeting and communion day. Rev. M. C. B. Mason preached and assisted Pastor Wm. P. Forest at Thomson Chapel; Rev. J. F. Marshall assisted Rev. A. J. Pickett at La Harpe Street Church, and Dr. Albert assisted Rev. F. T. Chinn at Wesley Chapel.

Presiding Elder Priestley preached at Union Chapel last Sunday night.

In reading over the literary items of the week, I found not much to interest me, until my eye caught sight of an article headed "Jenks' Dream." Imagine my surprise to find it ended up with a recommendation to use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Nevertheless, being a great sufferer from sick headache, I determined to try them, and to my great joy, I found prompt relief, and by their protracted use, a complete immunity from such attacks. Pierce's Pellets often cure sick headache in an hour. They are gently laxative or actively cathartic, according to size of dose. As a pleasant laxative, take one each night on retiring. For adults, four act as an active, yet painless, cathartic. Cause no griping or sickness. Best Liver Pill ever made. Smallest, Cheapest, Easiest to take. For Constipation, Indigestion and Bilious Attacks, they have no equal.

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine which can truly be said, "One Hundred Doses One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Peculiar in its medicinal merits, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly. Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine.

The Household.

Rules for Family Peace.

We may be quite sure that our will will be crossed to day; so prepare for it.

Everybody in the house has an evil nature, as well as ourselves, and therefore we must not expect too much.

Learn the different temper of each individual.

When any good happens to any one, rejoice at it.

When inclined to give an angry answer, count ten.

If, from sickness, pain or infirmity, we feel irritable, keep a good watch over ourselves.

Observe when others are suffering, and drop a word of kindness and sympathy suited to their wants.

Watch for the little opportunities of pleasing, and put little annoyances out of the way.

Take a cheerful view of everything.

In all little pleasures which may occur put self last.

Try for the soft answer that "turneth away wrath."

When we have been pained by an unkind word or deed, ask ourselves: "Have I not often done the same, and been forgiven?"—Central Methodist.

Some Good Rules for Dyspeptics.

1. Eat two meals a day.

2. Eat slowly, masticate the food very thoroughly, even more so, if possible, than is required in health.

3. Avoid drinking at meals; at most take a few sips of warm non-stimulating drink at the close of the meal, if the food is very dry in character.

4. In general dyspeptic stomachs manage dry food better than containing much fluid; so avoid light soups.

5. Eat neither very hot nor cold food. The best temperature is about that of the body. Avoid exposure to cold soon after eating.

6. Be careful to avoid excess in eating. Eat no more than the wants of the system require. Strength depends not on what is eaten, but what is digested.

7. Never take violent exercise of any sort, either mental or physical, either just before or just after a meal. It is not good to sleep immediately after eating.

8. If it is thought necessary to eat three times a day make the last meal very light. For most dyspeptics two meals are better than more.

9. Never eat a morsel of any sort between meals.

10. Never eat when very tired, whether exhausted from mental or physical labor.

11. Never eat when the mind is worried or the temper is ruffled, if it is possible to avoid doing so.

12. Eat only food that is easy of digestion, avoiding complicated and indigestible dishes and taking but two or three kinds at a meal.

13. Most persons will be benefited by the use of oatmeal, wheat meal, or Graham flour, cracked wheat, and other whole grain preparations, though many will find it necessary to avoid vegetables especially when fruits are taken.

14. Some kind of fruit, ripe, fresh, or in the simple form of stewed or canned should be eaten at breakfast, as fruit promotes digestion. The use of fruit obviates the necessity of drinking while eating, and for those who have been habituated to drinking a dish of stewed apples, or prunes, will serve as well.

General Church News.

The girl's school in Tripoli, Syria, has 35 house pupils and 115 day scholars.

The Swedish Missionary Society is actively at work among the Laplanders. The society has an orphanage at Ange, and 6 mission schools in other parts of Lapland, where 173 children have received instruction. In spite of a grant of 2,000 crowns from the king, the expenses for the past year were 1,500 crowns in excess of the receipts.

A man of means, who refuses to contribute to the missionary cause, lacks either intelligence or piety. Where men have both intelligence and piety, we never fail to get missionary money from them, if they have it. A man can as easily be a Christian without prayer, as without giving for the conversion of the world, or at least willingness to give.—Western North Carolina Methodist.

One of the methods which Bishop Taylor is said to be employing to some extent in carrying on his work in Africa is unique in the extreme. Young Negro girls are purchased, the market price being $30 a girl. When introduced into the mission schools their families and friends have no further claim on them, and Christian influences can be brought to bear on them more effectively.

Though it is but a few years since Protestant Missions were founded in Mexico, already 20,000 have been gathered into the churches, and a few of these are already large and self-supporting. The Methodist Episcopal Church South, is expending $105,000 annually upon this field, the Presbyterians $90,000, the Methodist Episcopal Church $50,000, and the American Board $24,000. Besides these, the Episcopalians are at work, the Associate Reformed, the Cumberland Presbyterians, and the Friends.—Missionary Review.

The work among the Chinese on the Pacific Coast is now beginning to bear fruit of a very hopeful kind. Here are two illustrations: One thousand Chinamen, members of the Congregational Church in California and Oregon, have sent two missionaries to their native land, organized a foreign missionary society with $1,000 to start with, and have also contributed $2,200 to some missions. Lun Foon, a member of the Methodist Mission Church in San Francisco, gave up a good business and returned to do missionary work at his own charge. He has built a mission property in foreign style of architecture, with preaching hall and school rooms.—Missionary Review.

De Civitate Dei.—The Divine Order of Human Society, by Prof. Robert Ellis Thompson, S.T.D., University of Pennsylvania, being the L. P. Stone lectures for 1891, delivered in Princeton Theological Seminary. Prof. Robert Ellis Thompson, of the University of Pennsylvania, is widely known as a writer on social and economic problems. By appointment of the Society of Princeton Theological Seminary, he lectured last winter on Christian Sociology on the L. P. Stone Foundation. As a sociologist, he is a theistic evolutionist. He handles in this light many of the practical problems of the day, such as woman's social sphere, family discipline, socialism and communism, the single tax, the right of property, the conflict of capital and labor, open or secret voting, the Bible in the schools, Christian union, the organization of charity, prison discipline, and the like. This book, just issued, is 12-7 1/2 by 5 1/2 inches, contains over 270 pages, is tastefully bound in cloth, gilt top, uncut edges. Mailed to any address on receipt of $1 John D. Wattles, publisher, 1031 Walnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

WHY not organize the Epworth League on every charge in our territory. It is one of the best auxiliaries that we can put in operation in our charges. Write to the Rev. J. L. Hurlbut, D.D., corresponding secretary, S. S. Union, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York, for further information.

The September issue of the Osmopolitan Magazine is a "woman's number" so far as the authorship of its articles is concerned, but the general interest of the periodical is sustained by the variety and timeliness of the topics treated.

Our Symposium.

Many and many an evil word and work would be avoided if Christian people would only remember that hope is a Christian duty, so high a duty that the Christian religion is pre-eminently a religion of hope; and the Christian life a life of hope. A hopeless Christian is no Christian, flatter himself as he may. The true Christian is resolutely hopeful; he hopes when other men despair; he does not know, and will not know, when he is beaten; and so it often comes to pass that he plucks victory from imminent defeat. His dutiful hopefulness is often his salvation, temporal as well as spiritual; he is "saved by hope."—The Churchman.

It is a mistake to sigh for "the good old times." True wisdom will make better times out of the present. Our modern experience may lack some few advantages known in earlier years, but we have new ones which were then unknown. The world moves forward, and it is true policy to adapt ourselves to the changing circumstances. New methods and forms are inevitable. Religious work has a wider field and more golden opportunities than ever before, if we shall only keep up with the advancing times, and take advantage of the new possibilities which open around us. Progress is the order of the day.—Pittsburg Christian Advocate.

Hon. William Pitt Kellogg, in a recent interview says: "The interests of the colored and white people in the South are identical. Their destinies are linked together and only one thing stands in the way of a prosperous and happy future, and that is a race prejudice chiefly engendered by politics. Let the colored man have a local office occasionally. Put him on the police force and let him have something to say in municipal elections, and very soon he will recognize that he really is a citizen and will vote as his interests direct. . . . And this I have to say to the Republicans of the North, the colored voters in five Northern States hold the balance of power and can elect the President in 1892. They should not be ignored."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Stands at the head of all blood medicines. This position it has secured by its intrinsic merit, sustained by the opinion of leading physicians, and by the certificates of thousands who have successfully tested its remedial worth. No other medicine so effectually.

CURES

Scrofula, boils, pimples, rheumatism, catarrh, and all other blood diseases.

"There can be no question as to the superiority of Ayer's Sarsaparilla over all other blood-purifiers. If this was not the case, the demand for it, instead of increasing yearly, would have ceased long ago. Like so many other blood medicines I could name, it is the result of a long and successful career. F. L. Nickerson, Druggist, 70 Chelsea St., Charlestown, Mass.

"Two years ago I was troubled with scrofula. It was all over my body, and nothing the doctors did for me was of any avail. At last I took four bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was completely cured. I can sincerely recommend it as a splendid blood-purifier."—J. S. Bart, Upper Kewick, New Brunswick.

"My sister was afflicted with a severe case of

SCROFULA

Our doctor recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla as being the best blood-purifier within his experience. We gave her this medicine, and a complete cure was the result."—Wm. O. Jenkins, Dewees, Neb.

"When a boy I was troubled with a blood disease which manifested itself in sores on the legs. Ayer's Sarsaparilla being recommended, I took a number of bottles, and was cured. I have never since that time had a recurrence of the complaint."—J. C. Thompson, Lowell, Mass.

"I was cured of Scrofula by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—John C. Berry, Deerfield, Mo.

A LIFE SAVED!

READ THE TWO STATEMENTS.

An Extraordinary Case!

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Nov. 22, 1890.

Last April I was attacked with Chagres Fever in Spanish Honduras and was given up to die by two physicians. During that spell and since I have used a pound of quinine and quantities of other medicines without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered untold agonies. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Royal Gernmetur. I have had no fever since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind. Am gaining strength very fast. Can walk miles at a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Gernmetur has been a God-send to me. I can not say too much in its praise. Any who wish to do so may call on me.

DANIEL PAPPOU,
461 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1, 1891.

My improvement continued, and soon after writing the above statement I was able to go to work and have been working ever since. My health is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony gladly, because I know that Gernmetur saved my life.

DANIEL PAPPOU.

Chagres Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Gernmetur has been tried on a number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It has a similar record as a remedy for Swamp Fever and Malaria, troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quick and most unfailing remedy for Fevers of all kinds, Dyspepsia, Debility, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidences from thousands of the best people in the country, and the evidences multiply in our midst every day.

For sale by druggists and country merchants, and at the Gernmetur office, 202 Canal street, New Orleans. For full information, circulars, etc., call on or address Kit Williams, Agent, 232 Canal street. $1 bottle; six bottles for $5.

SECOND QUARTER.—Studies in the Gospel of St. John. Lesson XI. Christ and the Blind Man. John 9. 1-11 and 35-38. Commit to memory verses 35-38. Sept. 13, 1891. A. D. 29 or 30.

HOME READINGS.

M. John 9. 1-11. Th. John 9. 35-38. W. John 9. 13-21. Th. John 9. 23-34. F. Mark 10. 46-52. S. Matt. 13. 10-17. S. 2 Cor. 4. 1-6.

GOLDEN TEXT.

One thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. (John 9. 25.)

LESSON HYMN. 11.

Delay not, delay not, O sinner, draw near,
The waters of life are now flowing for thee;
No price is demanded, the Saviour is here,
Redemption is purchased, salvation is free.

Delay not, delay not, why longer abase
The love and compassion of Jesus, thy God?
A fountain is open, how canst thou refuse
To wash and be cleansed in his pardoning blood?

Time—A Sabbath day in the fall of A. D. 29, between the feast of tabernacles and the feast of dedication.

Places—Jerusalem, and especially the Pool of Siloam.
Rulers—Herod in Galilee; Pilate in Jerusalem.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY.

1. The Light of the World, v. 1-5.
What sufferer did Jesus see by the way?
What question did his disciples ask?
What was Jesus's answer?
When did Jesus say he must work, and why?
Who is the Light of the world?
What then is every one's duty? (Chap. 12, 35, 36.)

2. The Pool of Siloam, v. 6-11.
What did Jesus do for the blind man?
What did he tell the man to do?
What was the result of his obedience?
What did his neighbors say when they saw him?
What conflicting opinions were uttered?
What question did they ask him?
What was his reply?
Of what was this man certain? (Golden Text.)

3. The Son of God, v. 35-38.
What did the Jews do to the man born blind?
What question did Jesus ask him?
What was the man's reply?
Then what did Jesus say?
What did the man say and do?

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.
Where in this lesson are we taught:

1. To do good as we have opportunity?
2. That we may gain knowledge by obedience?
3. That prejudice blinds people to the truth?

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG MEN.

Find the story of another blind man to whom Jesus restored sight. Find two references in the Old Testament to the Pool of Siloam, or Silome.

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

[For the entire school.]

1. What sort of a man did Jesus see as he passed by with his disciples? A blind beggar.
2. What did his disciples believe? That each man who suffered had sinned?
3. Why did Jesus say the man had been born blind? To show forth the work of God.
4. What did he do? Restored the man's sight.
5. What did the Jews do? Expelled the man from their synagogue.
6. What did Jesus do? Declared that he was the Son of God.

EXPLANATIONS.

He saw—He earnestly gazed, until his disciples noticed his interest in the blind man. From his birth—He probably repeated this sad fact over and over in a monotonous whine. Blind beggars in our own great cities nearly always, by painted sign or by their own words, tell passers by how they came to be blind. Who did sin—The Jews believed, and modern people often assume, that, "all special afflictions are divine punishments for special sins." "This man, or his parents—"As if they had said, What is the explanation, the man's own sin? That cannot be, for he was born blind. Is he then punished for his parents' sin?

Neither bath—His blindness is not a punishment. But that—In order that. The works of God should be made manifest—The poor blind man should become a voucher for the divinity of Jesus. Spat.... clay—It was a current idea of the Jews that both saliva and clay had curative properties. Jesus used them as means at hand. Wash in the pool—Wash off the clay into the pool.

Doctrinal Suggestion—Christianity as an experience.

THE CHURCH CATECHISM.

90. What is the third commandment? Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

The people at the World's Dispensary of Buffalo, N. Y., have a stock-taking time once a year, and what do you think they do? Count the number of bottles that have been returned by the men and women who say that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, or Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, didn't do what they said it would do.

And how many do you think they have to count. One in ten? Not one in five hundred?

Here are two remedies—one the "Golden Medical Discovery," for regulating and invigorating the liver and purifying the blood; the other, the hope of weakly womanhood; they've been sold for years, sold by the million bottles; sold under a positive guarantee, and not one in five hundred can say: "It was not the medicine for me!" And—there are any reason why you should be the one? And—supposing you are, what do you lose? Absolutely nothing!

CLARK UNIVERSITY

Is a Christian school of high grade, open to students of all classes, without regard to sex or color. It is located at Atlanta, Ga., on a high ridge of timber land, just outside of the city limits. It has 400 acres of the most beautiful lands for farm and campus of any school in the South.

There are four large buildings for college purposes, made of brick and stone, worth $75,000. This University offers superior advantages in the following departments:

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS.

This department offers to the student two courses, the regular Classical and the Philosophical. A third course has been recently introduced for the benefit of the "trade student," which takes the Academic Studies and completes a trade in the same time.

TRADE SCHOOL.

Clark University has one of the best trade schools in the South. Blacksmithing, carpentry, carriage-making, wagon-making, painting, harness-making, shoe-making, printing and draughting are all taught.

There was about $15,000 worth of work sold out of the shops this past year. Much of this work ranks with the best in the markets.

A Special course in the Trade School has been introduced, whereby a student with an English education can devote all of his time in the Trade school, and thus completing his trade in a short period of time.

GIRLS' INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society has a splendid building, well equipped, under two skilled teachers. The young ladies who have reached certain classes are put in this building, and taught all the principles of house-keeping, including dress-making and needle work. All the girls not in this building are taught some of these things in the grades.

NORMAL SCHOOL.

There is a normal department thoroughly organized, and conducted by a man of large experience in normal work. Special attention is given to methods of teaching.

ENGLISH GRADES.

There are the regular grades in English after the best common school methods, from the primary to the sixth year.

MUSIC SCHOOL.

The Music School is organized after the best methods, under a skilled teacher, and instruction is given on piano or organ, and also vocal drill to classes or individual lessons.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL.

The Gammon School of Theology is located within a few rods of the University, and offers the very best advantages to the student preparing for the ministry. For this school, address Dr. Thielhard, President.

NIGHT SCHOOL.

There will be a night school organized to help those students who are behind in certain studies, and especially those who have to work during the day for support.

GOVERNMENT.

The government of the school is strict, but seeks to develop in the student self-control and self-reliance.

EXPENSES.

The expenses are as low as they are in any first class school located at a great central city like Atlanta.

1. Board, room rent, fuel and incidental fee, per month.....$10.00
2. Washing, per month.....1.00
3. Student living off the grounds, tuition per month.....1.00

All bills must be paid in advance.

CALENDAR.

Fall term begins Sept. 30, 1891; closes December 31. Winter term begins December 28; closes March 11, 1892. Spring term begins March 14; closes May 11. May 12, Commencement.

DOWN with excursions. They only enrich heartless corporations and demoralize and impoverish our people. Away with them.

OUR ministers and members can consistently occupy but one position in reference to the lottery, and that is that of uncompromising an-tagonism.

BUT one voice is heard touching the action of the G. A. R. at their national encampment, upon the color question. That is one of gratitude that hateful race proscription was not permitted to triumph in that patriotic order.

OUR people cannot afford to ally themselves with the saloon, the lottery, the Sabbath desecrations and every vicious and immoral element in the country. Our salvation depends on our faithfulness to God, and alliance with good men.

THE Chestertown, (Md.) district Conference at its recent session, passed strong resolutions condemning the lynching of Asbury Green, a colored citizen of Queen Anne county, Md., and called upon the authorities to bring his murderers to justice. The lynching was a cold blooded murder and deserves the extreme penalty of the law.

A BEAUTIFUL church was dediconducted the dedication. In the afternoon Dr. McLaughlin preached in French to the Acadians. The entire occasion was a great success,

THERE are a good many good things advertised in our columns, some of which are medicines of well established reputation. It may be that some dealers will try to sell customers articles of an inferior kind when these are asked for, claiming theirs to be "just as good."
We hope all our readers when purchasing anything we advertise will always insist on getting what they call for. Our advertising patrons pay out their money to secure trade and they are entitled to the benefit of the outlay. Then we are careful to advertise nothing but what is good.

The Spread of Methodism in the South.

BY REV. J. B. MIDDLETON.

"The spread of Methodism among the colored people of the South; and how best promote it?" are themes of great importance, and in their discussion, require careful thought and intelligent treatment.
If by "Methodism," is meant the many branches of Episcopal and non-Episcopal Churches of this nomenclature represented in the section indicated; we are honestly of the opinion that the limit of division and expansion has been fully reached, and that now the desideratum is unity of purpose and action, as now there is unity of interest, both social, educational and religious. And this should be the result of organic union—if necessary—of all Methodisms, on a basis alike, honorable and acceptable to all. Such action would greatly promote the spread of Methodism, not alone in the South but throughout the entire country, and in her original aggressive spirit, contribute largely to the destruction of atheism, the check of the imperious claims of Roman Catholicism, the evangelism of the masses;
rejuvenate the National Constitution and enlighten the public conscience so that it will act more in the spirit of the sermon on the Mount. This view may be regarded as utopian or chimerical: if so it is indeed a pleasant dream and is so rendered, largely, if not entirely because so many of us serve our own ambition rather than the cause of Christ, and our personal interests instead of the salvation of souls. This much at least in recognition of other branches of Methodism in the South.

If however, the question relates solely to our own—the Methodist Episcopal Church; then the agencies we regard as most promotive of Methodist christianity are:

1. A pentecostal shower of divine grace. This, of all, and above all, by the ministry, officary and membership, of our church.
2. General Episcopal oversight coupled with special Episcopal visitation of the charges. Reduce this to a system. Under present conditions our bishops only "touch and go" from the conferences in the South—excepting Bishop Mal-laliu. The Southern Episcopal residences fixed by the General Conference are delusions and our work suffers in comparison with other churches.
3. This neglect may be partly remedied by the elevation to the episcopacy of a colored man who is not a candidate for the responsible office and who is fully equipped for it. Let the office seek the man. He will be found.
4. Systematic visitation of the charges by our connectational officers. Present arrangements of visiting our Southern conferences are highly unsatisfactory and but little is accomplished. Give us a "field secretary" if necessary, who will visit the most remote hamlet.
5. There are some men who are constitutionally fitted for the office of Presiding Elder. Other qualifications being equal, they should be continued in office—provided however, they remove to other districts and reside therein at the expiration of their term of service.

These are my sentiments and I do not fear to father them.

The Spread of Methodism in the South.

REV. J. F. MARSHALL.

The question of the election of a man of African descent to the Episcopacy in the Methodist Episcopal Church, now absorbing the attention of many, is a question of no small import.

That the election of such a person at the next General Conference or as early in the future as the combined wisdom and judgment of the church will order, will be hailed with delight by all true and loyal Methodists—especially those of the race in question—should go without saying.

The condition of our Southern work—and especially our work among the colored people—invites and would be highly improved by such an action.

The candidate for this most important place in the gift of our great church, should not be selected merely because of the accidental hue of his skin; but because Providence has endowed him, he has cultivated to the proper degree, and his fellows have discovered in him, traits of character and qualities fitting him for the position.

I believe such a person can be found. Let the church cast about for him, and when satisfied he is found, call him to the place which the great Head of the church will have provided.

An Important Question.

Brother, has it ever occurred to you that the Methodist Episcopal Church is losing ground? If it has not, look around you, in your own town or city, and see if you do not find ten persons on the streets and in places of amusement to one in church.

Perhaps you have asked yourself a number of times what is the cause of this, and what is the remedy? I suppose every Christian who prays that prayer, "Thy Kingdom come," has a remedy; I will give you mine.

There is a church in our country that is growing all the time; and it cannot be disputed, their buildings are not large enough to accommodate the multitudes that attend them, they have plenty of money to carry forward all their plans and schemes. Now, if they are so successful, would it not be wise in our church to adopt some of their plans for filling our churches and hasten the coming of Christ's Kingdom on earth? We must look after the education of the children, as that church does, and that is where it has its stronghold.

We will never convert the world,
nor half of it, as long as our church allows its children to mix with the world and its wickedness for six days in the week, and only a few hours on Sunday with Christian people and Christian teachings.
Our church must establish day schools where our children, and any others who may wish to attend, may be instructed in all the English branches and also in the Bible, catechism and like books pertaining to Christian knowledge.

Our church will have to come to this sooner or later, if we expect to hold our ground and make advancement in the world as a Christian church.

The subject of admitting women to the General Conference, and all like subjects, are of small importance in comparison with this.

Now, dear brother, as you and all your co-laborers are the educators of the people, put this plan before our people, or some plan, and in the light of which you are able to do, and by the time our next General Conference convenes those in authority in our church will make a movement in this direction, which, when it has worked itself to a complete success, will,
in time, fill our churches, redound to the glory of our Lord and Saviour, and be a credit to the whole church. I am, yours truly,

Social Morality.

WM. SMITH.

The flood of vice which ruins so many young men and women—aye, and old ones, too—is not altogether the result of inherent evil. The wise sayings of Solomon on training a child "in the way it should go and when it is old it will not depart therefrom," has been disputed.

Social surroundings develop an evil spirit, where to the superficial observer all seems pure and virtuous.

The professing Christian father and mother will indulge in a foul story or a lewd remark in the presence of their son; the mother insinuates a base motive, or gives expression to a tainted thought before her child, and the seed thus sown is diligently cultivated in younger company, where the parent little suspects.

The seeds of vice are sown at home, or on the street, and are harrowed in by everyday repetition. They germinate with opportunity, at the social gatherings around the hearthstone and in every day life. They grow into flaming passions, which take possession of the soul and fill it with the torments of the damned.

They ripen into lives of shame and debauchery. What sad wrecks are there all around us, whose early lives seemed laid amid scenes of the greatest purity and peace. But there was a worm gnawing at the root of their lives,
of which the world knew nothing, and for which parents or friends were responsible, and which at last so weakened their powers of resistance that they came toppling down to the earth like some forest oak swept down by an avalanche.

A people's morals are sustained by their religion—Christian morals by Christianity. And if our people lead such lives as will not allow them to become Christians in fact, in heart, in personal experience, in spirit and general character, in deed and in truth, the vital and all-sustaining power of our Christian morality is weakened by just so far as such a life is led. It lies at the foundation of our refinement and of our steady growth as a people; and as a necessary consequence it breeds depravity in heart and in life as no other system does, and more than any other. It needs a powerful support from some source—even the support which alone is found in the regenerated heart. It is the heart which determines the happiness of man, and restores him to the highest form of being.

Church Polity.

Q. What should be done with a member of fifteen years connection with the church who refuses to attend class meetings because he doesn't believe in them? M. W.

A. If he is a good man; faithful and dutiful in every other respect, reason with him, and you might convince him of his error. If he is worldly-minded and is otherwise a drag on the church, proceed as in any other case for neglect of the means of grace.

Q. 1. Who is the proper person to nominate a board of stewards to the quarterly conference for approval?

Q. 2. If the pastor in charge does not desire any change in the board of stewards, and a few members of the quarterly conference do, would it be legal for any of the members of the conference to present names of persons, and the conference to approve them against the wishes of the pastor in charge?
H. A. S.

A. 1. The preacher in charge.

A. 2. Stewards are accountable for the faithful performance of their duties to the quarterly conference, which shall have power to dismiss or change them at pleasure. Discipline §283.

It is the province of the quarterly conference to create the vacancy
"at pleasure." The vacancy can only be filled by the nomination of the preacher in charge and confirmation of the quarterly conference.
The conference cannot both nominate and confirm; it can only make the vacancy and confirm or reject nominations made by the preacher in charge.

Q. Should a minister hesitate to go anywhere and everywhere in case of serious illness? Is it not his duty to go whenever he is called, no matter what may be the character of the person's illness.

A. If a minister is called to visit in a case of serious illness, where the disease is of a contagious character, and liable to become epidemic, he should consult the physician of the person at once and propound two questions: Can I as a non-professional visitor call upon this person without a reasonable hazard of spreading the disease? If the physician says, "Yes," if you will take such and such precautions," the minister should observe them and immediately visit the sick person. If the physician says "No," he is absolved. Diseases as respects contagion or infection differ greatly. Typhoid fever is in one sense contagious, but it is safe for visitors to visit patients with that disease, and stay a sufficient length of time to pray with them. Such in general is true of diphtheria and of scarlet fever, except in a particular period known and recognized by physicians.

The writer never refused a call.

In the case of a small-pox patient
he went the house and offered prayer on the steps leading to the room in which the patient was,
and later on conversed with the patient through a window. In times of epidemic of fatal diseases the minister should gird up his loins, put his trust in God, take all precautions, and go from house to house. If he lives, it will be with the consciousness of having done his duty; if he dies, he will die as a moral hero; if he runs away, he will be as "alive coward."

Priests, rabbis, parsons, ministers and preachers have all shown true heroism, and instances of consum-mate cowardice have been seen among them all. "Thank God," said the late Stephen H. Tyng,
"no soul ever asked for my Christian sympathy and prayers without receiving them."

Q. Should a minister go to a house of evil repute to pray with sick and dying persons?

A. He should whenever asked,
but never without taking with him one of the officials of his church or his wife, or both.

THIS action of the Grand Army is hailed with pleasure, announcing as it does to the world that the patriots who fought for the unity of the nation, and incidentally for the abolition of slavery, are ready to recognize all those who fought in the ranks with them as brothers, regardless of color.—Pittsburg
Christian Advocate.

Why can't all the soldiers of the Lord Jesus Christ show the same degree of fraternity, seeing they all pray "Our Father?" What a shameful contrast in favor of the world, as against many christians who profess to preach the Fatherhood of God, and the unity of the human family!

Letters from the Districts.

South New Orleans District Conference.

P. M. J. W.

Was held at Thibodaux, La., August 28, 29.

By request of Presiding Elder Landry, nearly all of the preachers were present a day prior to the meeting of the conference. Distinguished among them were the Revs. T. G. Montgomery, J. W. Hilton, F. D. Bowers, H. C. Williams, W. S. Harris, Henry Taylor, H. J. Wright, T. Larkin, E. B. Richards, Simon Evans, Allen Luster, R. C. Barrow and others.

The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. J. W. Hilton.

The conference opened with Presiding Elder Pierre Landry in the chair.

The Elder and pastors reported the district and their charges in good condition, which showed an increase in membership and collections, a fair percentage over that of last year.

The Presiding Elder evidently manifested a marked display of ability and wisdom in the management of the conference.

The order of business was interspersed with sermons, reading of papers, etc.

Field Agent Rev. M. C. B. Mason and Presiding Elder W. P. McLaughlin were with us on the first day and delivered very interesting addresses. Bro. Mason spoke also at night, in the interest of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society.

Rev. Chas. M. Smith of Honma offered, and the conference passed, resolutions congratulating the Board for the appointment of Rev. M. C. B. Mason, A.M., B.D., Field Agent for the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society. Bro. Mason appreciated the resolution, as coming from one with whom he had spent so many hours of his early life.

On the second day Dr. L. G. Adkinson, president of New Orleans University, was with us and spoke in the interest of the school.

Bro. Travis Larkin preached the Missionary sermon to a packed house at 7:30 p. m.

Our very able young friend, Prof. G. C. Bryant, leader of the choir in our church at Thibodaux, deserves much credit for services during conference.

Mr. Bryant is not a full member of our church, but he, like all other intelligent young men and women, is Methodist inclined.

It cannot be denied that the Methodist Church skims the cream of intelligence in communities, and she organizes her forces with intelligent young men and women, and her motto is "the world is our parish."

Be fitting resolutions were offered to the honor of Bishop W. F. Malhallen, Drs. J. O. Hartzell, A. E. P. Albert, L. G. Adkinson, Wm. D. Godman and Rev. Pierre Landry.

Resolutions were also offered endorsing Drs. Albert and Hartzell for delegates to the General Conference, and congratulating Bishop J. P. Newman for the appointment of Rev. E. Lyon, A.M., Sunday School Agent.

Sunday was a day of glorious experience.

Sister Amelia Williams gave a reception to the ministers.

We were royally entertained by this dear sister.

At 7:30 o'clock Bro. Henry Taylor, of Clinton Street Church, New Orleans, preached an excellent sermon.

Among the resolutions adopted were those endorsing the position of Presiding Elder P. Landry, taken in his answer to an article published in the Crusader, charging him with disloyalty to the church; thanking Rev. Wm. Smith for the very nice manner in which he entertained the conference, etc.

The conference adjourned to meet at Clinton Street Church, New Orleans, La.

The following statistics were reported at the South New Orleans District Conference, at Thibodaux, La.: Probationers 155, full members 954, local preachers 83, deaths 5, baptisms 259, children 125, adults 134, churches 27, parsonages 21, Sunday schools 27, scholars of all ages 1309. Amount raised on the district $4539, cash $132, vouchers $359.60, total $491.60.

Birmingham District Conference.

A. B. ALLEN.

The Birmingham District, Central Alabama Conference, held its session in Enon M. E. Church, Birmingham, Ala., August 5-11, with Rev. I. Townsend, Presiding Elder, in the chair.

A. B. Allen was elected secretary, and N. H. Speight and L. W. Goodson assistants.

Dr. Wesley Prettyman was present and delivered an instructive and inspiring address.

Thursday morning was devoted to the work of the Sunday School Convention.

Dr. O. R. Franklin delivered an eloquent address on the Work of Sunday Schools, which was enjoyed by all that heard him.

able essays were read by Miss Young and Mrs. Hall.

Friday morning Rev. A. S. Williams, pastor of our church at Tuscaloosa, Ala., was introduced and addressed the conference in behalf of his contemplated camp meeting at Tuscaloosa.

The Presiding Elder's report showed increase all along lines of church work, with one or two exceptions. Several new churches had been built and the benevolent collections had been taken.

Pastors' reports showed that the pastors had not been asleep, but like their vigilant Presiding Elder, alive to every interest of the grand old church.

The Dadeville District Conference was in session at the same time, and sent greetings by telegram.

Saturday morning found the conference hard at work.

Dr. Wesley Prettyman preached on Wednesday night to a crowded house, to the satisfaction of all. R. H. Fleming, S. J. Robertson, N. H. Speight and others preached highly edifying sermons during the meeting.

Rev. M. C. B. Mason, A.M., B.D., reached us Saturday morning, and spoke with his usual eloquence in behalf of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society. He pleaded earnestly to the conference to stand by the church and the different societies.

At night the conference, members and friends of Enon Church, filled the house to hear A. B. Allen and Rev. M. C. B. Mason speak on the great Society which in the providence of God Rev. M. C. B. Mason has been called upon to represent; after which a collection of $8 was taken.

Sunday morning Presiding Elder Townsend preached with great power. Rev. M. C. B. Mason preached at St. Paul M. E. Church at 11 a. m., at 3 p. m. at Enon Church, and at 8 p. m. at St. Paul M. E. Church again.

The conference left a lasting impression for good on the city of Birmingham.

The SOUTHWESTERN was well represented.

Resolutions were adopted expressing appreciation for the appointment of Rev. M. C. B. Mason, and expressing deep sorrow upon the death of Rev. E. H. Gammon.

Nashville District Conference.

J. P. PRICE.

The district conference of the Nashville district has just closed one of its best and most successful sessions. White and black were out in crowds. Each day and night our big Sam Jones tent was crowded.

The regular business of the conference was dispatched with much credit.

Several visitors were introduced, among them Rev. Dr. Karry, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the whites in this city (McMinnville).

The sermons preached on the occasion were very powerful and aroused the people much.

Dr. J. Braden lectured on "The Relation of the Sunday School to the Freedmen's Aid Society and Church," on Saturday night.

Revs. Harden, Vaughn, Knight and others, preached with much credit to themselves and the cause.

The Elder gave several pointed lectures on general church duties.

The pastor and his good people cared well for the preachers and visitors.

Pine Bluff, Ark., District Conference.

J. QUALLS.

We have just closed one of the most interesting district conferences ever held on this district, Rev. G. W. Lacey, Presiding Elder, in the chair.

All reports were encouraging, and every interest of the church was represented.

Dr. Thomas Mason, president of Philander Smith College, met us August 27, and made a strong pull on the work of education. The Doctor made a deep impression.

The Sunday School Anniversary, on the 28th, was a grand success. Sunday was a high day in Pine Bluff.

The SOUTHWESTERN was not forgotten.

Letters from the Laity.

M. P. Moore, Rockyford, Ga., reports a glorious revival there, resulting in fifty-four conversions and sixty accessions. The pastor Rev. W. A. Holmes, is nerving in his efforts. Such a great interest was manifested in the saving of souls that the people did not leave the church night or day for a week.

Bro. J. S. Whittaker, of Marshall, Texas, writes of the farewell sermon of Dr. G. Whittaker. He expresses regret over the retirement of Dr. Geo. Whittaker, from the presidency of Wiley University.

O. W. Trammell, Fredonia circuit, Ala.

The third quarterly conference convened at Mt. Zion Church, Ang. 16, 17, Rev. W. F. Smith, P. E., in the chair. Reports showed progress. The Presiding Elder preached with power and made a good impression. After which he baptized and received into the church thirty-six children. He administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper to 116 communicants. The church was greatly revived, and ten members joined. Rev. I. Perry, P. C., is doing earnest labor. He has added a goodly number to the church. Paid Presiding Elder this conference year $36.85. He took several subscribers for the SOUTHWESTERN, and he makes it a special part of his labor to urge his members to supply themselves with our church literature.

W. H. Simpson, Fort Smith, Ark.

The Sunday school and church are in a growing condition. Rev. B. J. Griffin is leading us to the front. Rev. W. H. Morris, P. E., has held his second quarterly conference, and preached a grand sermon. Prof. Cox, of Philander Smith College, Little Rock, Ark., paid us an appreciated visit. Children's Day was observed, and we had a grand time. The program was nicely carried out by Mrs. Wm. Rignoy. The third Sunday in July was the church tribe day, each tribe worked hard to raise money. The amount received and paid on the Church Extension debt $140, for the addition of Philander Smith College, Little Rock, Ark., $430, for Children's Day $10, church tribe day $74.20, current expenses $47, Presiding Elder $25, pastor $85; total $455.70. Number of members reserved in the church 27. Adults baptized 12, children 6.

R. Cline, Peach Creek, Texas.

We are alive in Christ again. Through the goodness of our Presiding Elder Rev. H. Swan, we received Rev. A. J. Callen as pastor, on the first of July, 1891. Bro. Callen commenced an eight day meeting which closed July 22, which resulted in 22 converts, and 29 members received into the church. Collection for pastor $25. We expect to do all we can for our pastor. We are going to pay him $125, elder $50, and $40 for benevolences.

A. E. Morant, Alexandria, La.

Alexandria district is moving on to perfection. The brothers are striving with all their strength with the assistance of the Lord to make this year a grand success. Since the district conference convened at Washington on the 12th, their hearts have been revived. The Presiding Elder S. E. H. Morant, has been ill mentally and physically. He was overworked and was on the verge of insanity, but since his treatment by the best physicians our town affords he is recovering fast.

Palmer Cox has signed a contract with the Ladies' Home Journal, Philadelphia, Pa., whereby his amusing little Brownies, which he has made so marvelously successful in St. Nicholas and in his books, will hereafter belong exclusively to the Journal. Mr. Cox's contract begins with the October number, for which he has drawn the first of an entirely new series of adventures of his "funniest little men in the world." One dollar a year.

No better publications reach our office than the popular publications of D. Lothrop Company, Boston, Mass. The Pansy for September, is especially attractive. Ten cents a number, $1 a year.

Wanted, Ten Thousand Letters Like the Following.

Chaplain McCabe sends us this:—

To the Missionary Secretaries: "Yesterday was our Mission Day; amount received was $315. This will probably be increased to $400 by the gifts of the Sunday school and of members not present yesterday. The amount received already is fifty per cent in advance of last year. World Wide Missions and monthly prayer meetings did it. I am anxious for the day when our offerings will be at least $1 for every Methodist."

Yours for missions,

A Sunday School Chair or Teachership in the India Theological Seminary.

A bright thought comes as an inspiration: let the multitude of Sunday schools found this chair. Nothing like having a definite object. Let the children have a direct and personal interest in this as their Sunday school chair or teachership, and keep telling them about it. Some $10,000 from a multitude, means many silken threads of sympathy and interest stretching away to the "school of the prophets." The Sunday school is becoming the hope of missionary work. Here the scholars are learning to give to, and love the cause.

Presiding Elder, missionary, pastor, superintendent, pin this up, and help this chair. Tell your school of our seminary. An encouraging beginning has already been made. Give us a collection however small—something it possible from every scholar. Send to me,

T. J. SCOTT, Principal.

Bacilly, India.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the request published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

Mr. Editor: I want to find the following persons: Sarah Walker, who used to belong to Mr. Welcome, in Jefferson county, East Florida. She was brought away from there with three children. Their names were Elizabeth and William Walker. I am the wife of Bedugo Walker. His brother's names were Shadrach and Meshech Walker, and a sister Millie Walker. We all belonged to Minor Walker. Sarah Walker's father was Billy Burney. My mother was Esther Burney; brothers Green and William Burney, and sisters Mary, Nancy and Harriet Burney. Address William Walker, Coffeville, Texas.

Mr. Editor: I want to inquire for my mother's people, whom she left in Macklinburg, county, Va., before the war. I remember two of my mother's sisters and one brother. Sisters were Perueiller and Rose Ewps. Brother was named James Madison. Grandmother's name was Sarah, and mother's Rachael Ewps. They all belonged to Dan Dailey, in Macklinburg county, Va. His brother James was sold and carried to Tennessee. I heard last year that he was in Little Rock, Ark. Mother is dead, and I am the only son living. Any one finding my relatives will write me at Buffalo, Tex.

JAMES MADISON.

Mr. Editor: I want to enquire for my husband. He went by the name of Phillip Logan before the war, and since freedom he changed his name and went by his own name James Kanada. Before the war he lived in Yazoo county, between Lexington and Benton. My name is Julia Ann Kanada, I used to belong to Dr. Yandell. Address me, Julia Ann Kanada, 626 Openwood street, Vicksburg, Miss.

Mr. Editor: I wish to enquire for two men, Willis and Henry Johnson. Willis was here in the year 1866. His home was in New Orleans, La. He lived at one time on Union and Graten streets. About three years ago it was published in a New Orleans paper that a party of white men took him out of his house and beat him badly, and he has not been heard from since. Henry Johnson was owned by Ake Johnson, who lived in Honeywell, Mo., and was sold to Mark H. Clark, a Negro trader who carried him South, and when he got there he could not sell him because the war was so close at hand, he was then a boy about 11 years old. His mother's name was Rachael and his father Henry Reid. Any information from them would be gladly received. Address Mrs. Kate Porter, Mexico, Mo.

General News Items.

Ex-Senator Ingalls has gone to Europe for a six months trip.

Three shocks of earthquake were felt in St. Louis on Aug. 20. No harm was done.

A large manufacturing firm in Baltimore is soon to commence making tin plate on a large scale.

The waning fame of Oklahoma has been temporarily succored by a reported discovery of rich ores of silver and gold.

Col. Bragg, of Alabama, a member of the Inter State Commerce Commission, died a few weeks ago from the effect of wounds received while serving in the Confederate army.

The old war-ship Kearsarge, which destroyed the Alabama, has recently been put into good condition.

The city of Jacksonville, Florida, lost, by fire recently the greater part of ten blocks of buildings in the centre of the city. The estimated value of the property destroyed is upwards of 1,000,000.

Very interesting experiments were made recently in Texas to test the feasibility of producing rain by artificial means. The project is based upon concussion. Large volumes of oxy-hydrogen gas are sent up in balloons and exploded by electric current; also dynamite and blasting powder. Report says that the experiment was most satisfactory, being followed by copious rain in a few minutes. The agricultural department closely observed the operation.

Earthquake shocks followed the great hurricane in the West Indies, and it is believed that serious losses resulted.

A destructive hurricane on Aug. 18, did very great damage at the city of Martique, the principal port of the Island of Antigua, in the West Indies. All the vessels in the harbor are said to have been sunk or driven ashore. The latest reports indicate that the storm devastated almost the entire island, and that fully 300 persons perished. Other islands were visited also by the storm, but suffered only moderately.

The Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University is to have a new two hundred thousand dollar building.

The commission appointed by the pope to investigate the recent losses to the Peter's Pence Fund has already found a deficiency amounting to $6,000,000.

The United States leads the world in the number and extent of its libraries. The public libraries of all Europe put together contain about 21,000,000 volumes; those of this country contain about 50,000,000.

Books and Current Literature.

The Illustrated World's Fair for September is issued under the editorship of John McGovern. The number contains a beautiful full double page photographic view of the actual work at the site of the World's Columbian Exposition, showing rapid progress, of the structures; prospectuses of the Administration and Mines buildings; view of the Lagoon; and many other pictures. Price 25 cents. Chicago, McVickers Theatre Building. Jewell N. Halligan, General Manager.

The Treasury for Pastor and People for September is worthy of its name, being brimful of rich, suggestive and varied articles admirably adapted to be helpful to its readers. Leading Thoughts of Sermons are by Canon Liddon, Rev. C. H. Spurgeon, D. MacEwen, E. C. Goodwin, G. Fairclough, J. Lewis and G. A. Gordon. Dr. T. L. Cuyler writes an excellent picture of Dr. Stephen H. Tyng. All departments full.

Yearly, $2 50; clergymen, $2; single copies, 25c. E. B. Treat, Publisher, 5 Cooper Union, New York.

Miss Lettie Thompson, of Cleveland, Ohio, is compiling a small book to be known as the Social Guide. It is to serve as a social and religious directory, containing the names and addresses of all colored families and members thereof in that city.

The Arena for September is as usual fully abreast with the advanced thought of the times. The paper which will probably attract the most attention, owing to its timely appearance, is Fashion Slaves, a profusely illustrated contribution on woman's dress reform, by the editor. We do not know whether or not Mr. Flower had been informed of the proposed inauguration of the dress reform movement at Chautauqua, which has attracted such general notice by virtue of the radical position taken by its leaders and the encouragement given the move by such leading women as Miss Frances E. Willard and Miss Frances E. Russell, but he certainly scores another palpable hit in the timely appearance of this paper. The Arena has made for itself the foremost place as the review of advanced and progressive thought.

Grace L. Farniss, author of The Box of Monkeys, will contribute an entertaining story, entitled, The Society for the Suppression of Scandal, to the next number of Harper's Bazar.

Harper's Young People for September the 1st contained among other attractive features, a most interesting illustrated article on the Goat Carriages in Central Park, and a full illustrated description of how to prepare Miss Lydia Emmet's dainty tableau of King Cophetua, and the Beggar-maid.

Judith Trachtenburg, the new novel by Karl Emil Franzos, author of For the Right, has just been published in Harper's Franklin Square Library. The translation is by Mr. L. P. and C. T. Lewis.

Life, Wit and Wisdom of the World's Greatest Preacher, Pastor Charles H. Spurgeon, edited by R. B. Cook, D.D. This book has been very carefully and conscientiously prepared by the Rev. R. B. Cook, D.D., author of the Story of Jesus, etc. It will contain about 450 pages, 16 mo. and will be beautifully illustrated. About 150 pages of the book is devoted to the life and work of Mr. Spurgeon. His latest and best sermons are given, together with a large number of his short, witty and bright sayings, collected from his different books. A number of John Ploughman's Pictures are also given, which are very beautifully and appropriately illustrated. We take the best things from Mr. Spurgeon's books. A person who is thoroughly competent to judge, said, after reading the advance sheets, "It is worth its weight in gold." It is furnished to subscribers in elegant and durable binding at the following prices: Fine English cloth, gilt top $2, full morocco, gold edges $2.75, fine edition, cloth $1.50. Publisher, R. H. Woodward & Co., Baltimore, Md.

Why not organize the Epworth League on every charge in our territory. It is one of the best auxiliaries that we can put in operation in our churches. Write to the Rev. J. L. Hurlbut, D.D., corresponding secretary, S. S. Union, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York, for further information.

HAVE you registered? You must bear in mind that all registration papers issued prior to January 1, 1891, are worthless. If you want to record your vote as a citizen against the infamous lottery incubus, you must be sure and register. The registration office in this city is on Camp street, opposite Lafayette Square. Lose no time, but attend to this matter at once, before you are crowded out.

Do you know that you can buy a chimney to fit your lamp that will last till some accident happens to it?

Do you know that Macbeth's "pearl top" or "pearl glass" is that chimney?

You can have it—your dealer will get it—if you insist on it. He may tell you it costs him three times as much as some others. That is true. He may say they are just as good. Don't you believe it—they may be better for him; he may like the breaking.

"WINE is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." Shun the accursed stuff as deadly poison.

THE White-leaguers of this city celebrated the seventeenth anniversary of their 14th of September, 1874, revolution, and overthrow of the Kellogg government, last Monday.

"RELIGION is not a pot of hyacinth to be set in a parlor bay-window for passers-by to look at, and to be examined only by ourselves when we have company; but it is to be a perfume, filling all the room of the heart."

COMMENDING the appointment of Rev. M. C. B. Mason, B.D., Field Agent of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education, Dr. Thirkield says, "He will do go work, as he is strong intellectually, and is a loyal and devoted worker for the church."

A RACE that has been so long and persistently defamed by the white press, as immoral lepers, as has the Negro race, should be the last one to operate newspapers to propagate the same kind of a defamatory mission toward itself.

SCURIOUS white sheets display the obliquities of the lowest class of the white race; but it was left to the same kind of sheets in the hands of Negroes to seek to destroy the good name and reputation of their ministers and other professional men. Shame on the hyenas capable of such efforts at the destruction of those of their race who are seeking to lead exemplary lives.

THE call for a conference of the Republican presidents of the Parish of Orleans for last Sunday was an outrage upon decency, and deserves the scorn and contempt of every loyal, christian citizen. We have been free too long to continue such practices. We have six days and nights in the week, in which to attend to politics and secular matters, and we ought to frown down every attempt on the part, of any one, who seeks to entice us to disobey God, and desecrate the holy Sabbath. Any party or set of men that cannot carry on its mission without prostituting God's holy Sabbath is unworthy of our confidence and support.

Consecration and Concentration.

This is the one great duty of the individual Christian and of the church. We need to consecrate ourselves to Almighty God, and concentrate all of our powers of body, mind and spirit to His service. If we are Christians, although in the world, we are not of the world. We have been bought with a price, even with the precious blood of Christ. This is the first prerequisite to success in the Kingdom of God and men. First of all, we must be consecrated to the worship and service of Almighty God. We are to consecrate our bodies, as fit temples for the indwelling of the Holy Ghost. We are to consecrate our minds, so that all the evolutions and workings of our minds shall make us more and more separate from the world, and as one with God. We are to consecrate our souls to God so that we shall be wholly His, and be entirely separated from the world. Then we shall be God's, even as He is ours. This involves a renunciation of the "world, the flesh and the devil," and all their unholy claims upon us, and of our full acceptance of the easy yoke of Christ in their stead. "Here, Lord, I give myself to Thee, 'tis all that I can do." Such is the unconditional surrender implied in the entire consecration of our whole being to God and His cause.

"None of self and all of Christ." This should be the attitude, not only of the individual, but of the whole church. What a tremendous uplifting would be felt throughout the world in the propagation of our religion, could the whole church realize such a blessed experience! Then we might enter every open door that is set before us; we might answer every Macedonian cry that appealed to us to "Come over and help us;" our missionary and all of our benevolent treasuries would all be overflowing, our call for missionaries would all be answered even before they were made, and before the close of this century the Gospel would be preached to every creature. God help us all to a full and perfect consecration of all that we have and are to His service. In addition to this, we need the purpose to concentrate all of our efforts against the giant evils that confront the progress of the Kingdom of God among men. A guerrilla warfare, a stray shot here and there, will not accomplish the conquest of the world. We need to concentrate our efforts against the overwhelming sins of intemperance, Sabbath desecration, social impurity, and the like that threaten to engulf us all. "This one thing I do, forgetting those things that are behind, and reaching forth unto those things that are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

War No More.

Bishop John P. Newman deserves credit for a suggestion made to a select company of prominent gentlemen in Washington, to inaugurate a new movement in the direction of international arbitration, by having our government propose a supreme court for the world. The Herald and Presbyterian says: "This proposal is worthy of the best thought of this nation. If such a tribunal could be established, with a legal representative from every European government, selected because of his high character and fitness, there would be little danger of injustice to any nation involved in its judgments. The establishment of such a court would be a great blessing to the nations who are now forced by the present situation to have large standing armies that are eating up the substance of the government and wasting its resources. The disarmament of Europe is a problem that no one government can solve. Such a movement would be the crowning glory of the age, and would advance the policy of peace to a definite solution. We hope to see some good come from the suggestion without waiting for Europe to disarm."

SECRET State papers of the ex-Confederacy are coming to light. Most interesting is the information they give of the diplomatic efforts of the slave oligarchy. The slave aristocracy counted on certain recognition from England and France. They thought that "Cotton was King" there as much as in Dixie. And the republic-voting aristocracies in both those countries ached to recognize the Confederacy. Napoleon III. was especially anxious but he dared not make a move without England. Pius IX., to use an expression almost profane when touching so holy and infillible a personage, "put his foot in it" very badly. He wrote a letter fairly gushing with admiration and sympathy. "Viro illustrissimo," ("to that most illustrious man!") Jefferson Davis. But the great trouble in the way of practical recognition was the colored brother. He was in the board pile. The anti-slavery sentiment among the Englishmen and progressive classes in Europe was too powerful to permit recognition of an essay in government founded on the sanctity, the inviolability and the perpetuity of human slavery. Napoleon III. told Duncan F. Kenner, of New Orleans, special envoy, finally, that he would do whatever England would do. Kenner returned to London and reported this to Palmerston. But Sherman was then "marching to the sea,"—and the astute English statesman merely said to Kenner—"It is too late." It was!

The Twenty-fifth Annual Report of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, by the corresponding secretary Rev. J. C. Hartzell, D.D., is a magnificent exhibition of the grandest work ever accomplished by christian heroism. It shows that $2,939,785.29, had been expended by this society for christian education since its organization in 1866. The schools operated are among both races. The increase in every line of work, in efficiency and in the number reached, has been constant. The total receipts the past year amounted to $322,656.44; a net increase of 56,008.44 over any previous year. This is certainly an encouraging showing, and speaks volumes to the credit of the corresponding secretary, Dr. Hartzell, his associates and the board of managers of the society. The society employs 477 teachers and enrolled the past year 9,310 students, nearly half of whom are females. No more important work is being carried on by the church, and in no field is the return so great in proportion to the investment, and it deserves the undivided and enthusiastic support of our Methodism and of every patriot and humanitarian. The report is published in full in the Christian Educator.

No man is more highly honored by all our people than the venerable Bishop Payne, of the A. M. E. Church. We have differed with him, as have his own colleagues, in his wholesale denunciation of nearly all his colored brethren in the ministry, in the South; and he, himself, afterward signed a paper repudiating his hasty denunciations; but we have never, by word or action, ever sought to detract from his well-earned reputation as a Christian gentleman, a theologian, and a scholar. Those who assert the contrary, violate the ninth commandment.

Women in the General Conference.

The corrected vote of the spring conferences on the eligibility of women to the General Conference shows 2162 "for," 2649 "against." As there are about 10,000 preachers in the connection, and a three fourths vote is necessary to carry, it will be seen that the present defeat of the movement, as it now stands, is foregone.

Political Review.

The Massachusetts State Prohibition Convention has placed Wm. O. Armstrong, a colored man, on their ticket for State Auditor. It is feared that the refusal of the Republicans to nominate him, and this subsequent action of the Prohibitionists, will cause the loss of many colored votes to the Republican party, and may endanger its success at the approaching election.

Edward E. Brown, of Boston, in a speech sharply arraigning Republican politicians for the treatment of the colored people, presented the name of Wm. Oscar Armstrong, of Boston, for the position of Auditor.

Mr. Armstrong was nominated with one or two dissenting voices, after which three cheers were given for the first black man ever put upon a State ticket in Massachusetts.

The Pennsylvania Democratic Convention has nominated its candidates for State Treasurer and Auditor. Its platform denounces the Republican party in the State and nation.

Gov. Pattison's name, Democratic Governor, was tremendously applauded.

The New York Republican State Convention was the most enthusiastic held for years. United States Collector Fassett was unanimously nominated for Governor. The whole ticket is one of the strongest ever nominated by the party in New York, and the indications point to its triumphant election.

The lottery agitation continues in this State. Let our people vindicate the wisdom of their enfranchisement by aligning themselves against the iniquity.

City Church Notes.

[Brief items of news from the city churches welcome either handed us by pastors or lay men.]

The North New Orleans district Conference in its recent session extended thanks to Presiding Elder Emperor Williams, for his wise and fatherly administration; to secretaries F. T. Chinn, H. O. Wilson, D. J. Price and Geo. W. Simms for faithful services, and to Rev. Thomas McCary pastor, and the members and friends of Mt. Zion, for their splendid entertainment of the conference.

OLD FOLKS HOME. It also adopted the following: WHEREAS, The Old Folks' Home Association is an institution of our people, for our old people especially, controlled by the ministers and members of our church in the city and State, and should be supported and kept in a good condition by us and our friends. Therefore be it Resolved, That we appeal to every church in the city and State to take monthly collections for the home of our mothers and fathers.

They had a grand day at Union Chapel last Sunday night. The sacramental services were especially impressive; 223 communed. Rev. Wm. P. McLaughlin, Prof. Khalil Khayyat, A.M., of Beyrout, Syria, Dr. Albert and other ordained ministers present assisted Rev. J. W. Hudson, pastor.

Personal.

—In another column is the card of Jos. Mangno & Co., to which we call the attention of our readers. The firm will receive fruits and vegetables on consignment and dispose of it to the best advantage and make prompt returns. The senior member of the firm is a pillar in the Italian mission work of our church, and is a model citizen.

—Bishop Newman was given an ovation at Ouantanqua and his sermon on Sunday was highly appreciated. Among other things he said:

"Character is the essential condition of everlasting life, and 'holiness' is descriptive of it. Primarily the word means 'wholeness,' but its real meaning is completeness. We are all evolutionists, for we have need to develop into the perfect life."

The Great Teacher said, "First the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear."

—Prof. I. N. Cordoza, A.M., who was the subject of thorough caning by Prof. DeTreville, at Claflin University two years ago, and who afterward, because of the disposition of the case, joined the A. M. E. Church, has resigned from the latter church. We have not learned what church he has since joined. This reminds us that "a rolling stone gathers no moss."

—Prof. C. N. Grandison, of North Carolina, is very young. He must stand close up in the sunshine of thirty years. He is one of the pure black men like Dr. J. C. Price. He is thoroughly educated and a born orator of the restless agitator sort. There is nothing of the hero worshipper in him. Like the wild zebra of his ancestral clime he will not submit to the halter. His mission seems to be to lay inconclusive hands upon most that the race holds sacred, for he denounces with equal vehemence and sarcasm what he styles the religion of the people in which there is no christianity and the politics in which there is all madness and no method. Although he preaches these rank heresies he manages to do so in a way to arouse the enthusiasm of the largest audiences. Such a man will leave as much discontent and restlessness in his passing as a cyclone will destruction.—T. Thomas Forne, in New York Age.

—Rev. B. Carr and wife of Stony Point, La., are both reported sick. Bro. Carr's mother was summoned to their bedside, but has since returned to her home at Hartzell Chapel.

—Rev. Pierre Landry, Presiding Elder of the South New Orleans district, requests his correspondents to address him at this office; as he has established his headquarters at the SOUTHWESTERN office.

—Revs. T. Larkins, of Morgan City, and Wm. Smith, of Thibodaux, was on a visit to this city last week and paid us appreciated calls. They report prosperity in their borders.

—A telegram from Rev. A. J. Ford, Alexandria, La., informs us that Presiding Elder Morant of that district is suffering from mental aberrations. He is in a dangerous condition, and on the advice of his physician has been removed to Shreveport. Let the whole church pray for his recovery.

BISHOP VINCENT was pastor at Galena, Ills., in 1859-61, and in a letter expressing regret at his inability to be present at the recent unveiling of the Grant monument in that city, he said: "I well remember Capt. U. S. Grant, as he occupied Sabbath after Sabbath, a pew in the Bench Street Church, of which I was pastor. He was an attentive hearer of God's Word, and many personal statements of his to me, some of them in writing, bear testimony to the fact that the Word of God echoed in the Galena pulpit in those days of peril were not lost, but fell into the heart of our great leader."

THERE is no end to the friendly interest which the Propaganda takes in American affairs. The latest development comes by way of a convocation at Lucerne. It is proposed to appoint Bishops in the future speaking the same language as the immigrant, and perpetuate, as far as possible, the old world in the new. Thus we shall have a "little Hungary," "little Poland," "little Italy," "little Germany" and "big Ireland" in almost every municipality in the country. The real trouble is a jealousy of the countrymen of St. Patrick. It is felt that the Irish brother is carrying off too many mitres. And it does really seem so. The gentleman from Erin has a strange success in politics, both ecclesiastical and secular, and yet, he is crying himself hoarse over "home rule." Our Milesian fellow citizen evidently wants the whole picture—and wants it framed.

G. P. and T. A., Queen and Crescent Route, Cincinnati, O.

REV. THOS. COLE, of Marshall, Tex., has a service and visiting card which concludes as follows: "Subscriptions for the SOUTHWESTERN taken on pastoral visits." Go thou and do likewise.

The SOUTHWESTERN never advocated the color line in the G. A. R. We have rather occupied the contrary position; and those who represent us to the contrary, either willfully or ignorantly pervert the facts in the case.

There is great power in the religious press of this country, and if it would only unite its efforts to put down mob violence and all kindred evils, a great change would be witnessed in the present state of affairs which exist throughout this country, but especially in the South where, in many instances, the laws are of no effect. This heedlessness of the law at the present time is but a foreshadowing of the evils and insurrections that are to follow at no great distant day. It is better to call attention to these things now and have them stopped ere it is too late.—Christian Index.

BISHOP Turner says: "The table collections for everything have become a nuisance in our church. Would to God I could see the day when table collections could be dispensed with and reserved for extraordinary occasions."

DAILY BREAD.

"A good tree can not bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit."

A great many people who profess to have religion do not show it by the way they treat their horses.

Looking for flowers without thorns is one of the best ways in this world of fooling your time away.

No man has done his whole duty to God who has done less than his whole duty to his next-door neighbor.

It may be that sometimes God wants to show the world that you have a light by putting you in the dark.

The man who can be happy in the midst of trials and tribulations is the one who has hold of the hand of God.

The devil has never cared how much man worshipped, if he could only be allowed to tell him how to do it.

There is no road that has so many finger-boards on it pointing the other way as the road that leads to perdition.

Common sense is something that a good many people need more of a great deal worse than they need more money.

When the preacher has a revival in his heart the devil has to work hard to keep his church from catching fire for God.

There are people who have a good deal to say about growing in grace who slander the Lord every time they profess to belong to him.

Every man has something to do with making public sentiment, and public sentiment is the power that gives to government its life.

The better you become acquainted with Jesus Christ, the less fault you will have to find with the people who live in the next house.

Whenever the devil wants to perform a piece of extraordinary meanness he puts on his Sunday clothes and assumes a very solemn look.

It is only here and there that a man could get to heaven if he had to prove by his wife that he had the old-fashioned Bible kind of religion.

The devil will never be lonesome as long as there are people in the church who expect to get to heaven without it costing them a cent of money.

It must be something of a satisfaction to the devil to give some folks a little money, and then make it almost kill them whenever they try to spend it.

No man will ever be able to look up from the pit and claim that he got there because God didn't give him light enough to show him how to keep out.

If there is any one on this earth who does have positive and unmistakable evidence about anything, it is the man who knows something that he has learned from God.

"No man can serve two masters, for either he will love the one and hate the other; or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. Ye can not serve God and mammon."—Rams Horn.

The school of experience is not a free school. We all have to pay our own tuition.

The greatest thing one man can do for another is to tell him something about God.

Christ never sent anybody to anyone else who came to him for any kind of help.

Hearing a sermon without repentance means that you have become a greater sinner.

If there were no stingy people in the church the devil wouldn't get to play so much.

The house of a good man may be torn down, but the man himself will live on forever.

There are people who get credit for being good simply because they have poor health.

What some people call prudence is often what their nearest neighbors call meanness.

The man who knows that his house is built on a rock never trembles when it thunders.

There is no sweeter music in heaven than the song that goes up from a grateful heart.

On the day when God sees that a man has sold himself to the devil forever, grace stops.

It is better to kill a snake in an awkward and clumsy manner than not to kill it at all.

The man who is stingy with kind words is not likely to be very liberal with his money.

If you want people to fall in love with the religion of Jesus you must let them see it in you.

There cannot be any more blessed work anywhere than telling dying men that God loves them.

The joy that God puts in the soul is something the devil has never found out how to drive out.—Rams Horn.

It is not by change of circumstance, but by fitting our spirits to the circumstances in which God has placed us, that we can be reconciled to life and duty.—F. W. Robertson.

We must learn over and over again not to despise the day of small things.

Dr. Lyman Beecher, one stormy, snowy night, preached to but one hearer, who went away before the doctor could speak to him. Twenty years afterwards, in a pleasant village in central Ohio, a stranger accosted Dr. Beecher, saying:

"Do you remember preaching some twenty years ago, in such a place, to a single person?"

"Yes, sir," said the doctor, grasping his hand. "I do, indeed, and if you are the man, I have been wanting to see you ever since."

"I am the man, sir, and that sermon saved my soul, made a minister of me, and yonder is my church. The converts of that sermon are all over Ohio."

Pray and do as much as you can, and do not attempt to do more, or you will soon do nothing.

Let us be content in work to do the thing we can, and not presume to fret because it is little.

A friend sharing my sorrow takes away half its weight; sharing my joy he makes it double.—Taylor.

A holy life has a voice. It speaks when the tongue is silent, and is either a constant attraction or a continual reproof.—Hinton.

If a man is faithful to truth, truth will be faithful to him. He need have no fears. His success is a question of time.—Prof. Phelps.

How much trouble he avoids who does not look to see what his neighbor says or does or thinks, but only to what he does himself, that it may be just and pure.—Marcos Anselmus.

You may lose a great deal for Christ, but you will never lose anything by Christ. You may lose for time, but you will gain for eternity; the loss is transient, but the gain is everlasting.

Schools and Colleges.

A Bible College and Training School.

The very valuable property in Washington, D. C., which has so recently been given to the Woman's Home Missionary Society, by a wealthy layman of that city, to be used for the Lucy Webb Hayes Memorial College and Training School for Deaconesses and Missionaries, home and foreign, has been completely transformed by very extensive repairs, additions and remodifications, so as to adapt it to the requirements of such an institution. The course of study which will be combined with practical parish and mission work in the city, has been very carefully outlined, and will include Bible study, church history, its organization and doctrines, social science, pastoral work, general literature, nursing and elementary medicine, kitchen garden and kinder garden methods of teaching.

No effort will be spared to provide the best facilities for thorough preparation for parish and mission work.

Particular attention is called to special courses of lectures given by distinguished specialists, elucidating Bible truth or pertaining to some important phase of parish, mission or industrial work. The technical schools, public and private, the libraries, the varied nationalities, the intercommunication with foreign countries, combine to furnish unequalled advantages for study and improvement. Tuition and lectures are free, only the expense of living are to be provided for, which will be about $3 per week, or $100 a year. Candidates should apply at once as only a limited number will be received. Address the president, Rev. J. N. Dalby, 1138 40 North Capitol street, Washington, D. C.

Important Notice.

A department for deaf mutes will be opened in New Orleans University at the time of the regular opening, October 5, if a sufficient number of pupils can be secured.

Let all friends interested in these afflicted ones among us, notify them or send names or addresses immediately to

PRESIDENT ADKINSON.
1428 St. Charles Avenue.

Hon. W. H. Jack, State Superintendent of Education of Louisiana, has favored us with a copy of his address delivered in this city before the parish superintendents, June 3. The otherwise excellent address is marred by the dry rot which "his honor" introduces in his dilution upon the white man's inherent superiority over the Negro's innate inferiority.

The colored people of Greenville, Miss., met in mass meeting and appointed Hon. I. T. Montgomery, Rev. N. H. Williams, Mrs. B. F. Garrett, and Miss Ida B. Wells as a committee to confer with Miss M. E. Holmes, of Illinois, in regards to her endowment of a seminary for colored girls in Mississippi. Endowment Fund $75,000. The committee met in Natchez, September 3.

The public schools of this city open Sept. 28. New Orleans University and the Medical School opens Oct. 5. Let every student get ready to enter.

Students from Kansas, Chicago and San Francisco, have applied for admission to Clark University, in Atlanta. It is claimed the outlook was never so good for that school as now.

ONE of the most healthy signs in connection with the demoralizing exonerations that continue to be given among our people, is that the reputable ministers and leaders among our people are giving them a wider berth, and that they are now being given almost wholly by broken-down politicians and condemned preachers. This is prophetic of their speedy abandonment by all classes of our people.

A peculiar fact with reference to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is, that, unlike sarsaparillas and other blood medicines, which are said to be good for the blood in March, April and May, the "Discovery" works equally well all the year round, and in all cases of blood-taints or humors, no matter what their name or nature.

It's the cheapest blood-purifier sold through drug-gists.

Why? Because it's sold on a peculiar plan, and you only pay for the good you get.

Can you ask more?

"Golden Medical Discovery" is a concentrated vegetable extract, put up in large bottles; contains no alcohol to inebriate, no syrup or sugar to derange digestion; is pleasant to the taste, and equally good for adults or children.

The "Discovery" cures all Skin, Scalp and Scrofulous affections, as Eczema, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Fever-sores, White Swellings, Hip-joint disease and kindred ailments.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1884.

Pineville, La.—Sister Jane Mill, after five months of suffering, departed this life Sept. 3. Her last words were, "I am waiting on the Lord." She leaves a husband and a host of friends to mourn.

J. L. Angustus, P. C.

Winsted, La.—Sister Bettie Collins departed this life in full triumph of faith Sept. 3. She was a member of the Charleston M. E. Church.

E. B. Richard, P. C.

Waynesboro, Miss.—Sister Sallie Ann Pacely, a member of the M. E. Church, departed this life August 12, aged 22. She leaves a mother and a host of relatives to mourn, but we hope our loss is heaven's gain.

A. Butler, P. C.

Williams Chapel, New Orleans—Sept. 2, Sister Mary Willis, a member of Williams Chapel, departed this life in full triumph of faith. She was a faithful member of the Church for 23 years. She leaves a husband, two children and many friends to mourn her loss. Aged 26. Those who assisted the pastor with the funeral are: Revs. W. P. Forest, S. Evans, Dr. A. E. P. Albert, D. Young of B. C., S. Priestly and H. Taylor.

The prompt use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla will invariably cure all affections of the kidneys.

Conference Notices.

District Conferences and Special Meetings.

Paris Dist. Conf., Clarksville, Tex. Oct. 20

Navasota Dist. Conf., Bismarck, Tex. Oct. 21

Houston Dist. Conf., Sloan St., Houston, Tex. Sept. 23-28

The Editor or Business Manager will attend as many of these district conferences and special meetings as possible, but whether they are able to be there or not, we will send sample copies of the "Southwestern" to each of them, when we hope a general and united rally will be made to double our present circulation. It can be done. Will you do it?

Corner Stone.

The corner stone of St. Peter M. E. Church will be laid on the second Sunday in October. Presiding Elder Morant and all neighboring pastors and their congregations are most cordially invited.

Many Persons

Are broken down from overwork or household cares. Brown's Iron Bitters rebuilds the system, aids digestion, removes causes of bile, and cures malaria. Get the genuine.

A PERSONAL note from Rev. T. J. Scott, principal of Bareilly Theological Seminary, Bareilly, India, says: "We have a most wonderful turning of souls to God, and the work of training pastors and evangelists is very great. We need funds. Here is the place to consecrate now in the great battle with paganism." We publish his appeal for help in another column, which we hope will greatly move the church to the help of that great mission work.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the sympathetic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind. "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat I could not digest. I was so miserable, I could not get on my feet. I had a little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

OUR HONORED DEAD.—A Tribute To Rev. E. H. Gammon.

The bell has tolled the funeral march,
In such a sad and solemn way;
While friends and loved ones wept because
A man of God has passed away.

A servant of the Lord of hosts
Has gone from labor to his rest,
Has left this world of sin and woe,
And now on high dwells with the blest.

We come this day our love to show,
In this, our humble, feeble way;
And with our heart-felt gratitude,
A tribute to his memory pay.

We know that God has called him home,
And yet we loathe to have him leave;
And while we bow to God's own will,
Yet still for him our hearts do grieve.

And now from us our friend is gone,
His soul has left this sinful earth;
His name will not be soon forgot,
His life was one of sterling worth.

He lived to help his fellow-men,
And bore their heavy burdens too;
He lived not for himself alone,
But for the good that he could do.

He gave us of his earthly store,
That millions of our down-trodden race
Might hear the Gospel's charming sound
And know the power of saving grace.

He gave, and on our woodland hill
A building rose both grand and tall;
And stands in all its loftiness,
A structure great, a stately hall.

He gave that men who're called of God
To preach the glorious Gospel true,
To break the precious bread of life,
All o'er our broad land through and through.

Might come, and here within the walls
Of this our school to us so dear,
Might learn to study God's own word,
And for the work of life prepare.

And men have come from many States
And gladly entered year by year,
Because they knew that all their needs
Could surely be supplied right here.

And men have gone from out these walls
And told the story of the Cross,
And called men from their wicked ways,
And saved the erring sinner lost.

And thus the good that he has done,
Will never yet be fully told,
Until we meet around God's throne,
And walk the streets of shining gold.

His influence will be surely felt,
His name will sound from shore to shore,
His work will stand while time shall last,
And be remembered evermore.

Then rest, oh, brother, patron, friend,
At God's right hand in glory crowned,
Where angels sing the Savior's praise,
In one accord with sweetest sound.

REV. J. R. HOWARD.

The Household.

The Girl to Be Avoided.

She is the girl who takes you off in one corner and tell you things that you wouldn't repeat to your mother.

She is the girl who is anxious to have you join a party, which is to be "a dead secret," and at which, because people are very free and easy, you are uncomfortable and wish you were at home.

She is the girl who tries to induce you, "just for fun," to smoke a cigarette, or to take a glass of wine, and you don't know, and possibly she doesn't, that many of the sinners of to day committed their first sins "just for fun."

She is the girl who persuades
you that to stay at home and care and love your own, to help mother and to have your pleasures at home and where the home people can see them, is stupid and tiresome; and that spending the afternoon
walking up and down the street, looking at the windows and the people, is "just delightful."

She is the girl who persuades
you that to be on very familiar terms with three or four young men is an evidence of your charms and fascination, instead of being, as it is, an outward visible sign of your perfect folly.

She is the girl who persuades
you that it is a very smart thing to be referred to as "a gay girl."
She is very, very much mistaken.

And, of all others, she is the girl who, no matter how hard she may try to make you believe in her, is to be avoided.—Ruth Ashmore, in The Ladies' Home Journal.

Letters from the Pastors.

SPECIAL TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Please take notice, that all anonymous letters go directly to our waste basket; 2d, Letters must be written on only one side of the paper; 3d, No frivolous questions will be noticed; 4th, Abbreviations should

Our people at Cave Spring, Ga., are building a brick church. Rev.
J. H. Grant is pastor.

A. N. Jackson, LaFayette, Ala.
The night of Aug. 27, closed a series of meetings on this charge resulting in 30 converts and 36 accessions. The work is greatly revived. Sunday the 30th, the choir of St. John, Belle and town sang together here, and a fine time was had. Collection for pastor $47.06.

W. H. Smith, Philadelphia, Miss.
Just have closed a protracted meeting, at Mt. Zion and Liberty
M. E. Churches, in which we received 13 at Mt. Zion and 7 at Liberty into the church. Received into the church from the 1st to the 27th of August 27 persons, and baptized 23. The work is yet alive spiritually and financially.

T. J. Johnson, St. Paul Church, Shreveport, La.
Dr. Albert and family were in this city a few days ago. And while Sister Albert and Miss Laura were here they concluded to help St. Paul in her struggle. So they went to work and in a very little time gave a fine concert, which resulted in netting $37.55 for the benefit of the church. The officers and members thanked them kindly.
We hope the Doctor will visit us again soon with Sister Albert and Miss Laura. It is nothing but right that he should, as he married a Shreveport lady, and one of whom we all feel proud. We would be glad to welcome her and Miss Laura, who thus contributed so liberally to the benefit of our church, to our city again. We feel that Dr. Albert's heart is with us in our struggle to pay our debts, may the Lord aid him in his glorious work. Mrs. Albert and Miss Laura are great workers in the church of God. The Lord fill up our cities and all our churches with just such ladies.

General Church News.

Along the West African Coast
there are now about 200 churches, 35,000 converts, 100,000 adherents, 275 schools, 30,000 pupils; thirty-five languages or dialects have been mastered, into which portions of the Scripture and religious books and tracts and general educational books have been translated and printed, and some knowledge of the Gospel has reached about 8, 000,000 of benighted Africans.

The Huguenots in France number some 600,000, and are gathered into about 750 churches, though 30,000 or more are scattered and destitute of pastors and places of worship. They sustain three Bible societies, three book and tract societies, many young men's christian associations, two theological seminaries, two schools for evangelists, four societies for carrying on evangelistic work, and a host of colporteurs. The annual contributions for home missions amount to $100,- 000, and for foreign missions to $0,000.

The Century Magazine will celebrate the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by publishing a Life of Columbus written especially for that magazine by Emilio Castelar, the famous Spanish orator, statesman, and author.
The work is written in Spanish, and will be carefully translated.
Other articles dealing with the discovery of America are in course of preparation for the same magazine.

Our Symposium.

We are told that J. N. W. Otto, president of the Patriotic Sons of America, who signed the telegram to the recent national convention in Philadelphia, against the admission of colored members into the order, is the Mr. Otto who keeps a drug store at the corner of Rampart and Gravier streets, and who receives a large patronage from the colored people. Boycott him.
—Crusader.

The word of God is the only textbook upon whose truth we may build up the character. Let them be laid upon the young conscience, that our children may be God fearing men and women. Such a work requires diligence and self-sacrifice.
—Presbyterian Banner.

While the marked ability of Secretary Blaine has been directed towards making questions of commercial importance rank first in the principles of his party, and to make all other questions secondary, President Harrison has never forgotten that the basis principle of the Republic, is the equality of the citizen, and the government of the majority, and to that purpose have his public utterances been heard.
He has urged it upon Congress, and advised such legislation as would secure it, but against the advice of the leader of the party, and to the disgust of the Afro-American and all true Republicans, the most urgent and necessary legislation presented before the last Congress was made to give way to the tariff and financial legislation.
—Plain Dealer.

The mournful brethren are the death of the prayer-meeting. They look so doleful that a sight of them throws a chill over every one. Their voices are always in the minor key.
They are full of lamentation and mourning. The degeneracy of the times, the backslidden condition of the church, the frivolities of the people—all these weigh upon their spirits and form the burden of their prayers and songs. They love to sing:

"What peaceful hours I once enjoyed,
How sweet their memory still;
But they have left an aching void,
The world can never fill."

Such people can get to heaven, but they kill a good many religious meetings and discourage a great many faithful souls on the way.—
Pittsburg Advocate.

I SUFFERED from acute inflammation in my nose and head—for a week at a time I could not see. I used Ely's Cream Balm and in a few days I was cured. It is wonderful how quick it helped me.—
Mrs. George S. Judson, Hartford, Conn.

THE HAIR

When not properly cared for, loses its lustre, becomes crisp, harsh, and dry, and falls out freely with every combing. To prevent this, the best and most popular dressing in the market is Ayer's Hair Vigor. It removes dandruff, restores lustrous hairs of the scalp, restores faded and gray hair to its original color, and imparts to it a silky texture and a lasting fragrance. By using this preparation, the poorest head of hair soon

Becomes Luxuriant

and beautiful. All who have once tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, want no other dressing.
Gibbs & Stokes, Druggists, Sharon Grove, Ky., write: "We believe Ayer's Hair Vigor to be the best preparation of the kind in the market, and sell more of it than of all others. No drug store is complete without a supply of it."
"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor with great benefit and know several other persons, between ten and twenty years of age, who have experienced similar good results from the use of this preparation. It restores gray hair to its original color, promotes a new growth, gives lustre to the hair, and cleanses the scalp of dandruff."—Benjamin Ochoa, Boston, Spain.

After Using

A number of other preparations without any satisfactory result. I find that Ayer's Hair Vigor is causing my hair to grow."—
A. J. Gentry, General Merchant, Indian Head, N. W. T.

"Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only preparation I could ever find to remove dandruff, and itching humors, and prevent loss of hair. I can confidently recommend it."— J. C. Butler, Spencer, Mass.
"My wife believes that the money spent for Ayer's Hair Vigor was the best investment she ever made. It has given her so much satisfaction."—James A. Adams, St.
Augustine, Texas.

Our Children's Legion.

For Our Boys and Girls.

BY UNCLE CEPHAS.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I thought I would write to you again as it has been some time since I have written. This is my second attempt to write to you, and I hope you will notice it. Some write of their pets. I haven't any save my books. I am not going to school now but I hope to start soon. Papa takes the SOUTHWESTERN, and I delight in reading the Children's Column.

Your Niece,
IDA GRANT.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am 15 years of age. I attend Sunday school and church every Sunday. I am not a member of the church but hope to be soon. The pastor in charge is Rev. S. H. Hadley, and he is liked by every one.

Your Niece,
ABI GAIL WOOD.

Dear Uncle Cephas: This is my first letter to you. I am a little girl 15 years old. I go to Sunday school every Sunday. I belong to the M. E. Church. I am teacher of first catechism class. My mother and father belong to the M. E. Church. Our pastor is Rev. McGlocklin. Our teacher is Miss Nancy Davis, and we all love her.

Your Niece,
PEARLEAN TAYLOR.

Dear Uncle Cephas: This is my first letter to you. I am a little girl 11 years old. I go to school every day. My teacher's name is Miss Florence Sensley, and she is loved by all. My father is our pastor. His name is Rev. D. M. Seals. We take the dear SOUTHWESTERN, and I delight in reading it. I am a member of the Sunday school and belong to the Bible class. We have a large Sunday school.

Your Niece,
EDNA B. SEALS.

Dear Uncle Cephas: On Easter Sunday we had a grand time in our Sunday school. We had splendid exercises. The children made a grand display. The collection in our Sunday school was $37.75. The class of Dew Drops which is from 9 to 13 years of age which will get the banner. This was my mother's class which was composed of little girls. Our pastor and his wife are very nice, and every one is perfectly carried away with them. The young ladies decorated the church beautifully with the assistance of brother Bunton. Mr. N. R. Clay is still my teacher. I am in the seventh grade, and in my thirteenth year. The pastor preached a good sermon on the resurrection of Christ.

Your Nephew,
R. C. CLOPTON.

Aberdeen, Miss.

Why It Is Popular.

Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequalled record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 Doses One Dollar" is true—these strong points have made Hood's Scurvy Pills the most successful medicine of the day.

Why don't you get the boarding houses and different business houses with whom our people trade, to advertise in the SOUTHWESTERN?

FOR THREE WEEKS I was suffering from a severe cold in my head, accompanied by a pain in the temples. Elys's Cream Balm was recommended to me. After only six applications of the Balm every trace of my cold was removed.—Henry C. Clark, New York Appraiser's Office.

The Park Place, New York, disaster was graphically illustrated in the last number of Harper's Weekly, which also contained thrilling descriptions of that event as related by eye-witnesses.

An Unprecedented Offer!

We have made arrangements with the Chicago Manufacturing Company to supply one of their first-class Singer machines for only $14 cash. We will order a machine like the cut here shown, and send the SOUTHWESTERN a full year besides! It is a handsome oil-polished walnut, of latest design, Gothic cover, with beautiful panels, four end drawers and a swing drawer, nickel-plated, and warranted five years.

Each Machine is furnished with the following equipment: One Foot Hemmer, One Oil Can with Oil, One Gauge, and Screw, One Extra Check Spring, One Package of Needles, Five Bobbins, One Tuckor, One Foot Ruffler, One Set of Plate Hemmers, four different widths up to seven-eighths of an inch, One Binder and One Thread Cutter. The Improved Tension and Thread Liberator is used on this Machine. The manufacturers offer to refund the money if purchaser is not fully satisfied with the machine.

We receive many letters inquiring about the sewing machine premium, and how to obtain it. In order that all may understand the matter, we state in addition to the announcement, that remittances should be made to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, either by check, money order, or by express, naming the nearest or most convenient freight depot to which it is to be sent. Then we order the factory in Chicago to ship the machine. The company ships it, and receives from the railroad a bill of lading which, with the warranty, is sent to us, and which we send to the subscriber. This bill of lading is good and sufficient evidence that the machine has been forwarded, and holds the railroad company responsible for its safe delivery at the station named as its destination, and in due time, save unavoidable delays. In case of its loss the railroad which caused its loss is responsible, under the laws of the land. If not arriving in due time, show the bill of lading to the station agent and he will look it up. Don't give up the bill of lading, but it may be shown to the railroad agent. All orders are sent the same day as received, and the bill of lading is sent to the subscriber the same day we get it. We started this scheme with a view to helping our patrons, and shall carefully and faithfully carry out our part of the agreement in every case.

ALCORN A. & M. COLLEGE

STEPS are now being taken by the Trustees to open up Mechanical Shop this fall, so that hereafter this institution expects to offer to ambitious young men, not only advantages for a good English education and advanced agricultural knowledge, but also the opportunity for acquiring mechanical skill as well. Good board may be had for $6.50 per month in advance. By work on the farm and at the carpenter's trade, students may have a part of their expenses. The reading room, library, Y. M. C. A., and B. C. A., and Literary Societies, all afford excellent supplementary advantages to the earnest student. The place is beautiful and healthy, and the neighborhood quiet. The fall term begins Sept. 17. A number of young men wishing to enter during December, January, February and March, for the last four years, have been unable to do so because all dormitories were full. Hence those intending to come should be on hand early in the term. Write for catalogues to the President, J. H. BURNS.

A LIFE SAVED!

READ THE TWO STATEMENTS.

An Extraordinary Case!

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Nov. 22, 1890.

Last April I was attacked with Chagras Fever in Spanish Honduras and was given up to die by two physicians. During that spell and since I have used a pound of quinine and quantities of other medicines without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered untold agonies. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Royal Remedy. I have had no fever since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind. Am gaining strength very fast. Can walk miles at a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Germetue has been a God-send to me. I can not say too much in its praise. Any who wish to do so may call on me.

DANIEL PAPFON,
431 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1, 1891.

My improvement continued, and soon after writing the above statement I was able to go to work and have been working ever since. My health is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony gladly, because I know that Germetue saved my life.

DANIEL PAPFON.

Chagras Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Germetue has been tried on a number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It is a similar record as a remedy for Swamp Fever and Malarial troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quickest and most unfailing remedy for Fevers of all kinds, Dyspepsia, Debility, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhoea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidences from thousands of the best people in the country, and the evidences multiply in our midst every day.

For sale by druggists and country merchants, and at the Germetue office, 202 Canal street, New Orleans. For full information, circulars, etc., call on or address Kit Williams, Agent, 202 Canal street. $1 bottle; six bottles for $5.

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Perfectly Well.

FILLMORE, Dubuque Co., Ia., Sept. 1890.

Miss K. Munigan writes: My mother and sister used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for neuralgia. They are both perfectly well now and never tired of praising the Tonic.

Twenty-one Years.

writes the Rev. M. J. Fallis of Froelant, Pa., January 18, 1890, was born in Germany, suffering from fits and convulsions, she had three or four attacks every week, tried many remedies and doctors, without any relief, but since she began to use Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic she is able to work, and make her own living. Another case is that of M. GALAGHER, of the same place. He is 16 years old, had fits since his 9th year to severe that would render several times he would die, tried different doctors and medicines without relief; but since he used Koenig's Tonic he had only slight attacks, which were probably caused by violent exertion.

GOLDEN TEXT.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. (Psa. 23: 1.)

LESSON HYMN, S. 7, 4.

Saviour, who thy flock art feeding,
With the shepherd's kindest care,
All the feeble gently leading,
While the lambs thy bosom share.

Now, these little ones receiving,
Fold them in thy gracious arm;
There, we know, thy word believing,
Only there, secure from harm.

Never, from thy pasture roving,
Let them be the Lion's prey;
Let thy tenderness, so loving,
Keep them all life's dangerous way.

Then, within thy fold eternal,
Let them find a resting place,
Feed in pastures ever vernal,
Drink the rivers of thy grace.

Time—Probably A. D. 29.

Place—Probably the immediate vicinity of Jerusalem.

Rulers—Herod in Galilee; Pilate in Judea.

Connecting Links—This parable is closely connected with an address on blindness which Jesus preached after curing the blind man and warning the multitude against the Pharisees as blind leaders of the blind.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY

1. The Sheep-fold, v. 1-6. Who is here called a thief and a robber?

Who is the shepherd of the sheep? Who at once know the shepherd? Whom does he know by name? Why do the sheep follow the shepherd?

Whom will they not follow, and why?

What form of teaching was Jesus using?

How well was he understood?

2. The Door of the Sheep, v. 7-9.

Who is the door of the sheep? What were they who came before him?

What would they find who entered the true door?

Whom may we find by this door? (Eph. 2: 18.)

3. The Good Shepherd, v. 10-16.

Why does the thief visit the sheep-fold?

Why did Jesus come?

Who is the Good Shepherd?

How did he show that he was such?

How does the hireling act when in danger?

Why does the hireling fly?

What knowledge marks the Good Shepherd?

What says Jesus about other sheep?

What may all true Christians say of their Shepherd? (Golden Text)

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.

Where in this lesson we taught:

1. That Jesus is the only Saviour!

2. That Jesus died to save us!

3. That Jesus will save all who trust him!

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG BE-REANS.

Give the name of a Hebrew king who was a shepherd.

Give the name of a prophet who was a shepherd.

Give the name of one of the patriarchs who was a shepherd?

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

[For the entire school.]

1. How is the shepherd of the sheep known? He "entereth in by the door."

2. How is the thief and the robber known? He "climbeth up some other way."

3. Who is the door? The Lord Jesus Christ.

4. What else is he? The Good Shepherd.

5. What does he say concerning his sheep? "I know my sheep, and am known of mine."

EXPLANATIONS.

Thesheep fold.—Usually a stone-walled inclosure, with a well-roofed pen at one end. A thief—What we would call a "sneak-thief." A robber—A brigand. Entereth in by the door—The shepherd must enter the same way as his flock. "There is not one salvation for the teacher and another for the taught." The seventh verse tells us that Jesus is "the door." Callesth his own sheep by name—Asiatic sheep readily distinguish the voice of their shepherd, and sometimes each sheep has a name of his own, and knows it. The sheep follow him—"The true pastor is an example and leader as well as a teacher." They (the Pharisees) understood not—Their notions of the dignity of the priests and rabbis and the insignificance of the common people were radically different from the Christian conception of pastor and flock. I am the door—"Who-soever comes to preach any other gospel comes to rob the sheep of their Saviour and salvation." Before me—Claiming precedence, in rank or authority, over me.

Doctrinal Suggestion—Christian fellowship.

THE CHURCH CATECHISM.

91. What is the fourth commandment? Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

What is lacking is truth and confidence. If there were absolute truth on the one hand and absolute confidence on the other, it wouldn't be necessary for the makers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy to back up a plain statement of fact by a $500 guarantee. They say—"If we can't cure you (make it personal, please) of catarrh in the head, in any form or stage, we'll pay you $500 for your trouble in making the trial." "An advertising fake," you say. Funny, isn't it, how some people prefer sickness to health when the remedy is positive and the guarantee absolute. Wise men don't put money back of "fakes." And "faking" doesn't pay.

Magical little granules—those tiny, sugar-coated Pellets of Dr. Pierce's—scarcely larger than mustard seeds, yet powerful to cure—active yet mild in operation. The best Liver Pill ever invented. Cure sick headache, dizziness, constipation. One a dose.

Ecumenical Methodist Conference.

Reduced Rates for Delegates and Visitors

All the chief railroad lines of the country have agreed to transport delegates and visitors to the Ecumenical Conference at Washington, Oct. 7-21, at the rate of one full fare and one-third for the round trip.

The following conditions are to be observed:

1. Tickets must be purchased before October 3 and October 9, inclusive.

2. Each person availing of the concession will pay full first-class fare in going, and get a certificate from the agent of whom the ticket is purchased. Agents at all important stations are supplied with certificates.

3. At Washington they will promptly present their certificates to the Secretary of Transportation at the Conference, to have them properly indorsed for return passage.

4. These certificates, thus indorsed, must be presented within three days of the adjournment of the Conference to the ticket agent at Washington, who will issue a return ticket for continuous passage over the same lines at one-third the usual fare.

5. Certificates and return tickets are not transferable.

6. No refund of fare will be made on account of any person's failing to obtain a certificate.

7. If the ticket agent at the place of starting has no certificates, a local ticket should be purchased to the nearest important station, where the ticket agent will be able to furnish certificate.

The reduced rates will be available to all persons who actually visit the Conference, and all intending visitors are invited to avail themselves of the reduced fare.

The Secretary of Transportation would be glad to receive a postal card from every person intending to avail of such concession, so that an accurate idea may be formed of the number from each section of the country.

CLARK UNIVERSITY

Is a Christian school of high grade, open to students of all classes, without regard to sex or color. It is located at Atlanta, Ga., on a high ridge of timber land, just outside of the city limits. It has 400 acres of the most beautiful lands for farm and campus of any school in the South.

There are four large buildings for college purposes, made of brick and stone, worth $75,000. This University offers superior advantages in the following departments:

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS.

This department offers to the student two courses, the regular Classical and the Philosophical. A third course has been recently introduced for the benefit of the "trade student," which takes the Academic Studies and completes a trade in the same time.

TRADE SCHOOL.

Clark University has one of the best trade schools in the South. Blacksmithing, carpentry, carriage-making, wagon-making, painting, harness-making, shoe-making, printing and draughting are all taught.

There was about $15,000 worth of work sold out of the shops this past year. Much of this work ranks with the best in the markets.

A special course in the Trade School has been introduced, whereby a student with an English education can devote all of his time in the Trade school, and thus completing his trade in a short period of time.

GIRLS' INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society has a splendid building, well equipped, under two skilled teachers. The young ladies who have reached certain classes are put in this building, and taught all the principles of house-keeping, including dress-making and needle work. All the girls not in this building are taught some of these things in the grades.

NORMAL SCHOOL.

There is a normal department thoroughly organized, and conducted by a man of large experience in normal work. Special attention is given to methods of teaching.

ENGLISH GRADES.

There are the regular grades in English after the best common school methods, from the primary to the sixth year.

MUSIC SCHOOL.

The Music School is organized after the best methods, under a skilled teacher, and instruction is given on piano or organ, and also vocal drill to classes or individual lessons.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL.

The Gannon School of Theology is located within a few rods of the University, and offers the very best advantages to the student preparing for the ministry. For this school, address Dr. Thirkield, President.

NIGHT SCHOOL.

There will be a night school organized to help those students who are behind in certain studies, and especially those who have to work during the day for support.

GOVERNMENT.

The government of the school is strict, but seeks to develop in the student self-control and self-reliance.

EXPENSES.

The expenses are as low as they are in any first-class school located at a great central city like Atlanta.

1. Board, room rent, fuel and incidental fee, per month.....$10.00
2. Washing, per month.....1.00
3. Student living off the grounds, tuition per month.....1.00
All bills must be paid in advance.

CALENDAR.

Full term begins Sept. 30, 1891; closes December 24. Winter term begins December 28; closes March 11, 1892. Spring term begins March 14; closes May 11. May 12, Commencement.

WHY don't you get your friends and neighbors to take the SOUTHWESTERN?

PUSH the revival work brethren.
That is our one great mission among men, even the salvation of the world.

EDUCATE the people, and present every benevolent cause, and take up a collection for the same. No church can prosper long that fails to give to the great connectional causes.

THE attention of our readers is invited to the communication in another column from Dr. Godman, president of Gilbert Seminary, Winsted, La. Dr. Godman is one of the most devoted friends and benefactors that have ever labored among our people in the South, and his school one of the best operated by the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society for our people. Parents and young people bent upon preparing themselves for usefulness on earth and eternal bliss in heaven, will do well to avail themselves of the privileges Dr. Godman offers them at Gilbert Seminary.

THE question now before the people of Louisiana is, shall the State be branded with the infamy of the "Gambler State," or shall she wear the garb of a civilized christian State in the proud galaxy of American States? Every citizen, white and colored, is interested in the issue, and no man can evade it without prostituting the dignity of his self respect and manhood.
We plead with our people to stand for the freedom of the State from the infamous lottery curse. Register, and prepare to join in the battle against the criminal immorality and in favor of God and good men. Stand up for the right, and God will take care of the consequences.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

The Spread of Methodism Among the Colored People of the South.

JEREMIAH.

That the present is a propitious time for the spread of Methodism and the strengthening of the work among the colored people in the South I suppose no one will deny or question. And it is equally clear to every thinking mind that as the years roll on this opportunity passes to return no more.

We are living in a period when the colored man has but few ties to bind him to any particular creed or denomination.

They who seek him find him.
And finding him simple-hearted and free from many environments and prejudices, he becomes in their hands as the clay in the hands of the potter. But he is being shaped.

The clay will soon become stone.
Whether he is to be a vessel unto honor or dishonor the present must determine.

Even now in many of our congregations we find persons who will worship with us and resist all inducements to join, on the plea that this is not the church of their parents.

In future this will more and more prevail. And I think that I need not quote history to prove that in settled society the church may safely estimate its strength in the succeeding generation by the heads of families in the present.

In my town is a church organized under peculiar circumstances, and for the last decade they have had no conversions and no accessions.

The explanation is found in the fact that there are no families—that is no family with growing children among the members.

It has been said that all the colored people are either Methodists or Baptists. However true this has been in the past it is now true no longer. They are dividing.
Roman Catholicism is in the field with all her machinery, and as is her custom, she will contend for the lion's share.

Her priests are becoming exceedingly friendly towards our people, and collections are now taken in all their churches for the propagation of Roman Catholicism (the true religion, as they put it) among the colored people of the South.

It has been said that the cold formalisms of Rome ill suit the fiery nature of the colored man.
This may do to say, but it will not do to trust. The present is the time to determine whether the future of the colored race in the South is to be Roman or Protestant.

Of all protestant denominations
Methodism is best adapted to this work. Baptists may prevail on the water courses—and this is a fact worthy of observation—but Methodism will flourish alike on hill and dale.

And of all branches of Methodism the Methodist Episcopal Church is best prepared to prosecute the work of evangelizing the colored people of the South.

She has the force; moral, spiritual, intellectual and financial.
She alone has the courage to face great questions and conquer great enemies with the sword of the spirit.

Yet some have gone so far as to say that the Methodist Episcopal Church does not want any considerable number of colored communicants. That she is willing to help them, to educate and uplift them.
But as soon as they become self reliant and capable of demanding and filling positions, she is glad to see them go out to other churches.
That she is, to use a quaint and homely phrase, "afraid of biting off more than she can chew."

That she cannot, or fears she cannot, homogeneously assimilate the great multitude of sable sons and daughters who willingly flock to her standard.

Be this as it may, and let all think of it as they may, two things
I know.

First. That if the Methodist Episcopal Church will, she can double her membership in the South by the close of the present century.

Secondly. The teaching touching the matter of equal rights, fair play and due recognition of true piety and fitness, etc., so often inculcated by our Bishops and other representative men, will henceforth be received as in good faith only so far as the practical policy of the church shall bear it out.

There is quite a difference between the case of the man who fell among thieves and was by the good Samaritan helped and sent on his way, and that of the Israelites who were admitted into the promised land.

The colored man wants to know which case is his. He waits as "one who watches for the morning."

Having been often deceived and ostracized on every hand—even at the altars of the church—he expects it everywhere and in every thing.

While he is clothed and in his right mind, he is restless and anxious for the question concerning himself to be settled. He waits for it as outraged innocence waits for decision at the bar of judgment.
Every word and act means something to him.

A colored man has been appointed field agent of the Freed-men's Aid and Southern Education Society. The colored man wants to know: Is this a piece of political church diplomacy prior to the General Conference of 1892; or is it a step toward recognition of that merit and utility which we have prayed for so long? The sequel will prove. I will say however, that in my own mind there is no doubt about the matter. The history of the church proves that she takes no backward steps.

She does not always step according to other people's notions. But when she does step, you must give her foot room. Hence this is the beginning, and there is more to follow.

The election of a colored Bishop at the General Conference of 1892 would be hailed by the colored race of the South as an event next in importance to that of the Emancipation proclamation.

It would for all time set at rest the question of the recognition of the colored man in the Methodist Episcopal Church. Those colored denominations that have received such large returns by fighting us would have to nimbly turn their guns and pay the expense of the unholy war. A mighty shaking—a coming together of mighty armies—would be witnessed all over this South land. Thousands would crowd the aisles and altars of the churches already built and congregations would be born in a day.
True, that old serpent—the dying Southern Confederacy—would wriggle his tail, the old South would groan in the spirit and spit fire, but holier beings would assist our mighty joys and strike all their harps of gold.

Men who have studied the situation have concluded that the colored race is to be a power in the South and that so far as human foresight can discern they are here to remain till the end of time.
Then who can estimate the benign influence that a colored Bishop would have on the religious life of these multiplying millions a hundred years hence! Such a man touching the religious life of the present generation would set waves and cords in motion like those touched by Bishop Asbury a hundred years ago. I verily believe, with many of my brethren, that this is the longest step that can be taken toward the spread of Methodism among our people.

Other things might be named, but they are of lesser moment. When this is done all else will follow.

But on the other hand, let the Methodist Episcopal Church postpone this matter till Rome elects a colored Bishop; then she would be as the Southern Confederacy, who, when driven to desperation, proposed to free the slaves to secure recognition abroad. Lee had already surrendered to Grant and she was answered: "You have proposed a good thing but it is too late."

But where is the man? Have we the man? is often asked. The time was when that question was in good use, but it is now obsolete.
This gray-haired question has long been gathered to its fathers. Let it rest. The only proper question now is, which one of the many competent men will you agree upon and put forward?

Perhaps it would not be wise to name any single person or number of persons as suitable for that important position. To do so would possibly be to invite defeat. A better plan we find in Acts 1, 15, 1-24.

"And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias, and they prayed, and said, Thon Lord which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, that he may take part in this ministry."

At the fifteenth verse of this same chapter it is said: "In those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples and said, 'Men, brethren,' etc., down to the twenty-third in his speech on this occasion. But my point is, that it was in the midst of the assembled disciples that the two, Barsabas and Matthias were named.

By what process these two were nominated we are not told directly, yet the circumstances as herein set forth will help us to picture the scene. 1. They had just returned from the Mount called Olivet where they had witnessed the Lord's ascension.

2. They "all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication."
Barsabas and Matthias were nominated in a prayer-meeting, and perhaps it was because of their power in prayer that they were judged to be fit persons to fill the place from which Judas by transgression fell.

So let the church pray in this case. Let no unholy ambition be tolerated.

Our colored Bishop ought to be a man above thirty-five years of age, of sound body and mind, endured, noted for his piety and zeal in the cause of the Lord, true to every interest of the church, one that has been proved, not a novice.
The rest you may read in Paul's letter to Timothy.

Again, in order that the best thing may be done, let our colored conferences be careful as to the character of the men they send to the General Conference. Let men be sent in whom the church can have confidence. Men who can do as well as talk—men who pray.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.

Notes From San Antonio and the World's Fair City.

G. J. STARNES, M. D.

The writer left this city July 15th, to visit Chicago as delegate to the National Grand Lodge, triennial session, Grand United Brothers of Friendship and Sisters of the Mysterious Ten.

The session lasted six days and was crowned with unprecedented success, being made up of some of the most progressive and intelligent men of the race. The delegation was conspicuous for the unusually large number of A. B.'s,
B. D.'s, D. D.'s, M. D.'s and LL.
D.'s that represented different Lodges and Temples throughout the country.

The reports from nearly every quarter of the United States, and petitions asking for new lodges in unorganized States and Territories, showed the growing popularity of the order.

The interest manifested on the part of the reception committee and citizens generally was such that every delegate was made to feel at home and perfectly natural;
the most timid could find vent for his most remote thoughts, so genial was the manner of Chicago's elite society.

Dr. W. D. Peyton, N. G. M., although small in stature, performed the functions of that high office with such grace and dignity that great and small alike were compelled to admire and obey. The institution displayed its appreciation for intelligence and fitness by electing Dr. Peyton for a second term by unanimous vote.

The writer took advantage of the occasion during recesses to call upon the president of the World's Fair Commission, General Davis, and found him to be in every respect a most affable gentleman.
Called also upon Mr. Dickson, of Texas, the World's Fair Secretary, and was assured by him that grounds sufficient to erect a building 150x500 feet for the Texas exhibits had been secured. Mr.
Dickson urged the writer to use his influence to have the colored people of Texas make every effort possible to make themselves felt in the World's Fair by sending in their very best productions. Mr.
Dickson advised that every county go immediately into organization and collect means to forward the project.

In calling on Judge Gresham of the Supreme Court, the writer had no occasion whatever to feel himself anything but a full-fledged American citizen with all the rights and privileges accorded the most exalted in all our liberty-loving and free America, in spite of all the charms and attractions of our Southern "Jim Crow" cars, etc.

It is a settled question among the most knowing politicians that Judge Gresham will be a prominent candidate for presidential honors at the next National Republican Convention.

The prospects for good crops all along our route, with a few exceptions, are flattering.

Drs. Walton and Vosburg deserve great credit for faithful and skillful services rendered our patients during our absence.

Negro Problem.

Some Things Settled.

BISHOP A. G. HATGOOD, D. D.

In some things we should now be beyond theory.

1. It is settled that the Negro must be educated—not at all because he is a Negro, but because he is a man.

2. It is settled that he is capable of education in books. How far he can go I do not know—I have no means of finding out. He has not been going long enough. As far as he has gone he has succeeded.
I have seen him learning his letters, and I have seen him reading Greek and Latin classics. In both he did admirably well. I have seen him keeping his accounts on his "notch-stick." I have seen him adding up simple sums. I have seen him working out complicated problems in algebra, and I have seen him cross the pons asinorum of geometry without dizziness or disaster. I have heard him reading in the simplest primers, and I have heard him discuss "Conscientiousness" in his mental philosophy studies. The worst students among them fail; the best succeed, just as other people do. I am not afraid that the Negro will learn too much.

I do not know any people who are too well educated. Overeducation is a very remote danger.

3. It is settled that there is slow but sure progress in the common schools, in which Negro children learn the rudiments of an English education. It is due to better work in the training schools that prepare the teachers. The better work is due to wiser methods learned by experience, and to the gradual uplifting of the whole Negro population.

4. It is settled that mere booklearning is not enough for the Negro race, because it is not enough for any race. Head-training alone may be dangerous. There must be heart-training also.

Another thing is settled not so clearly to all, but as surely in the minds of those who have familiar and general knowledge of the facts:
Head-training and heart-training together are not enough for any people. It is not enough to know things, and be trained to think; it is not enough to be good, and to be trained in morals. People who are to succeed, who are to be what they can, and therefore ought to be, must know how to do things also. Hand-training must go along with head and heart-training. In the education of the Negro industrial-training needs to be stressed, because the Negro has at this time great need of it.

All these people know how to do plain, simple work. They must learn also how to do higher work and better-paying work. There will always be enough people, in every race, to do the simplest work, knowing no other sort.

To me it seems almost silly to ask, why should industrial-training go along with other training for these Negro pupils? For these same reasons it should go along with the training of other pupils, with this difference: The need of the Negro is now greater; also, because at this time their progress in the use of tools that belong to skilled labor will find less to hinder it than their progress in what are called the professions. If you imagine that this is suggested because I would bar his way in any direction his capacity allows him to go, then you do not understand me. I only respect facts.

The Negro lawyer will not, for a long time, have as good a chance as the Negro who is master of tools. The reasons do not now concern the fact; the fact abides, no matter what the reasons are.
Enough of them will try law to make the experiment. A few will do well; but every Negro man who can do good work with tools will find employment and be well paid.
The man who has skill commands
the field.—The Christian Educator.

Old Folks' Home.

At the regular meeting of the Old Folks' Home Association, held Monday September 7, we were the recipients of the sum of $50 from the Teamsters and Loaders' Association to which we extend many thanks, for their sympathy and benevolence toward those old mothers and fathers of our race. May Di-

Letters from the Districts.

Austin District, West Texas.

MACK HENSON.

Dear Dr. Albert: I cannot begin this brief letter without first saying a word about the late Presiding Elders' Convention. It was my great pleasure to sit in the assembly of intelligent and representative men of the race at different times, but never have I met a more representative body composed so largely of colored men anywhere; not excepting the Colored Men's National Convention, which convened in Louisville, Ky., in 1882. I was a member of that body, and the whole country watched its proceedings with curious apprehension. And now the eyes of all Christendom are fastened upon the actions had at this convocation of Christian Methodist ministers. I rejoice that many approving expressions have been made with reference to what was done there.

The whole Church has reason to congratulate itself on the appointment of Rev. M. C. B. Mason as Field Agent of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society. I believe that a long prayed for want has been supplied in this important appointment. I believe that if there had been no such convention there would have been no such appointment made. Not that the church was unwilling to grant any such request made by her large colored membership, but that the will of this ever-increasing membership was never concentrated upon a given object and so expressed before.

I believe most firmly that the Church will never express a doubt or fear of the men whom she has trained and educated. The difficulty of recognition rests more with ourselves than with the whole Church. Another great difficulty with which we have had to contend is, that whenever the question of promotion of a worthy man of African descent arises, it has been regarded by some as a signal to draw the color line. Whenever the question of selecting a man of African descent for the bishopric is brought forward, these enemies, in friendly disguise, ask great and long questions, some of which can never be answered.

A denomination that is educating thousands of Negroes, and conferring upon them degrees of scholarly titles, can and will find one who possesses ability and sufficient piety to occupy her episcopal office. And to elect one of this number will dispose of all speculations relative thereto.

I set out to say a word about the Austin District. To sum it all up in a nutshell; the district is in a healthy and growing condition, spiritually and temporally. There never was a time when money was scarcer, and the stewards, class leaders and pastors achieved more success. If half of the skill and energy had been displayed in by-gone days of plenty, no telling what would have been our success financially, leaving off all the low methods and ways resorted to to get money by many ministers and influential persons in the churches of to-day. If one-third of the common-sense, Holy Ghost preaching had been done when men's hearts were tender as is done now-a-days, more than two-thirds of our suffering and bleeding race in the South would have been gathered into the fold of Christ long since, and four-fifths, instead of less than one-third, of the children born and being reared in Christian families, would be in the Sunday schools, instead of running at large like stray horses in the streets of the towns and cities, and over the hills and valleys, with guns and hunting dogs, on the Lord's day. Thousands of the young people, who have spent most of their days at public and private schools, either spend their Sabbaths on excursions or on the baseball grounds. The Sunday schools and churches are deserted; and we firmly believe that God will forsake this heady, godless race of pleasure-seekers and Sabbath breakers if a speedy halt is not called.

It has come to pass, also, that no more spring times of piety come; the camp meeting grounds are places of speculation now-a-days; even preachers and official members must erect a selling-stand almost alongside God's altar, and thus the power of the Gospel is neutralized. No true Christian minister cares to preach at such meetings any more. We said, at a meeting so surrounded, not long since, that any man who worked seven days a week for a living would fail in the end. Notwithstanding these gigantic evils, which stalk almost without rebuke through the land, the Lord has given us, up to August 6, the convening of the session of the Austin District Conference, 203 conversions. We have 32 Sunday schools and only 1506 scholars. We gave special attention to formulate plans for a Sunday School Institute on the district. We have, including local deacons and elders, 8 local preachers and 24 exhorters. But few of those striving to enter the ministry could pass the examination, though reduced to the lowest modified course. This, of course, has caused some to leave us and seek such honors among other denominations, where it seems that they are conferred without any regard to gifts, grace, or any other qualification of merit, etc., except unworthy ambition. One fellow whom we rejected told a white merchant in a neighboring town that his chief reason for wanting to enter the ministry was for women and money. But we are determined, by the help of God, that so far as we can prevent it, men cherishing such bellish thoughts shall have no place among us. And every preacher and Presiding Elder who permits such lecherous scoundrels to enter are inflicting a great injury upon the Christian community at large. That dastard spirit of unholy rivalry prompts to such proceedings.

West Texas Conference has raised between six and seven thousand dollars to get a school, but we have no school yet. Why the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society doesn't complete our building and operate this school, is indeed hard to understand. If there is to be found a spot where such a school is more needed, let the Society continue to pour out its thousands upon them. Our Church requires an educated ministry; we of the West Texas Conference occupy the extreme limit of American Methodism, and have no school to provide it. Our young men need the aid of such a school; our Methodism needs the stimulus which emanates from such an institution. The SOUTHWESTERN is powerful in her advocacy of education, therefore we plead for her all around.

The Houston (Tex.) District Sunday School Institute.

G. J. IZARD.

Met in its third session in St. James M. E. Church, Beaumont, Tex., August 13.

Rev. I. B. Scott, D.D., P. E., was elected president; V. M. Cole, vice-president; G. J. Izard, secretary, with Miss A. N. Benchley, assistant; W. S. Curtis, recording secretary; Mrs. A. L. Martin, librarian, and Mrs. E. C. Seymore, assistant.

Rev. H. R. Smith, delegate from the Navasota district, was introduced to the Institute. He made a good talk in behalf of having a State Sunday School Institute, which was readily agreed to.

T. Edwards, G. J. Izard, V. M. Cole, Wm. P. Brooks, W. B. Phillips, W. S. Curtis, W. W. Brown, all read grand papers, which were fully discussed.

Rev. I. B. Scott, D.D., Presiding Elder, comes fully up on every line of duty. He is wide-awake and fully equipped to do the work of the church.

Resolutions as follows were adopted:

1. Resolved, That the officers and teachers of our Sunday schools throughout the Houston district unite with the pastors in securing 500 subscribers for the SOUTHWESTERN.

2. Resolved, That the Institute extend a vote of thanks to the pastor and good people of Beaumont for their kind and hospitable entertainment, and to Miss A. N. Benchley for furnishing music, and to the secretaries.

Rev. T. Edwards, Miss A. N. Benchley, Wm. P. Brooks, W. S. Curtis, and Wm. Brown were elected a committee on address to Sunday school workers.

W. B. Phillips, T. Edwards and V. M. Cole, committee on Institute. There was preaching during the Institute by Rev. H. R. Smith, and lecturing by Revs. I. B. Scott, G. J. Izard and Tenola Edwards.

The Institute adjourned, to meet at Harrisburg, Texas.

St. John M. E. Church, Natchez, Miss.

The Lord is with us and we are having success. We have enlarged our membership greatly this year, erected a neat church edifice, and greatly strengthened our cause.

This church was completed a few weeks since, and entered with joy by our patient and faithful little flock.

"We are not entirely out of the woods." We need $270 to pay off our contractor. The Mississippi Conference, at its last session at Moss Point, pledged $300 for Natchez M. E. Church. At this writing only two or three have done anything. We need that money, and need it now. If all the brethren will send the money to me by October 15, we will be able to pay every cent and leave our work at Natchez with a bright future ahead.

Let me hear from the Mississippi Conference at once. "The strong must help to bear the infirmities of the weak."

S. A. COWAN, P. E.

Vicksburg, Miss.

Monroe (La.) District Conference.

M. H. HUNTER.

The second session of the Monroe District Conference convened at Mt. Olive M. E. Church, Bastrop, La., August 21.

There were 52 members present. Rev. S. Priestley, president; M. H. Hunter, secretary; H. H. Phillips, assistant; E. C. Goings, statistical secretary; H. B. Hart, assistant; C. W. Kershaw, treasurer. Welcome address by Miss Estelle Levy.

Opening sermon by Rev. F. M. Lashington.

The Presiding Elder's report was full of encouragement. Success had been had in all the departments of the old church. Conversion of souls and improvements are the encouraging results.

The reports of pastors, local preachers, exhorters, Sunday school superintendents, district stewards, and class leaders, were read from nearly every charge on the district.

The district is now having a tidal wave of revival.

There is a great deal of unoccupied territory in this part of the State, where our Methodism ought to be established.

The conference was favored with the presence of Rev. S. Duncan, Presiding Elder of the Shreveport district, and Profs. J. E. L. Haskins of Winsted, and B. M. Hubbard, A. B., of Alexandria. These Brethren's visit to Bastrop was a benediction to the community.

H. H. Phillips was recommended for admission into the travelling connection.

The local preachers had their characters passed and their licenses renewed.

The case of J. W. L. Young was referred to the quarterly conference.

The following resolution touching local preachers was adopted: Be it Resolved, That every local preacher must get the books as laid down, or a part of them, and subscribe for the SOUTHWESTERN, and attend the district conference with a written report, unless they give satisfactory excuses.

The following was also adopted:

Resolved, That we request Drs. Hartzell and Albert to petition the Board of Bishops to ask the General Missionary Committee to make a special appropriation for the work in North Louisiana, as the field is ripening in this large territory.

Resolutions respecting our church institutions, the circulation of the SOUTHWESTERN, and of thanks to the pastors of Bastrop, Washington and Mt. Nebo Chapels for their hospitable entertainment; and to Presiding Elder S. Priestley for his fatherly and Christian manner of conducting the work on the district, were unanimously adopted.

The following pastors read able essays on the subjects assigned to them: C. W. Kershaw, E. C. Goings, F. M. Lashington.

Our district conference union meeting, on Sunday, was an enjoyable time. Two persons joined the church. G. W. Washington, E. C. Goings, C. W. Kershaw, H. H. Phillips, F. M. Lashington, M. S. Goings, A. Gray and H. B. Hart preached effective sermons. Lake Providence was chosen as the seat of the district conference.

J. Jones, Anderson, Tex.

My fourth quarterly conference was held Sept. 5, 6, by Rev. W. H. Logan, Presiding Elder.

The Presiding Elder preached a wonderful sermon to a crowded house. Paid Presiding Elder $18.00, pastor $49.50, benevolences $7, total $74.50. I have just closed my protracted meeting with 25 conversions, 8 reclaimed and 4 received on probation; a total of 36 added to the church. Four received in full membership. I am pushing to raise all of my benevolent money by October 27, and am doing all I can for the good old SOUTHWESTERN. I want to send in some new subscribers with the cash in a few days.

A. Butler, Waynesboro, Miss.

Our conference met with Rev. M. Shumppert, Presiding Elder, in the chair. The reports all showed the work prospering. One new church had been built, in which we held the conference. One subscriber to the SOUTHWESTERN was sent in with the cash. On Sunday the Elder preached a very forcible sermon, which reached the hearts of all. Then came the dedication of our new church.

H. Matthews, Opelika, Ala.

My church and Sunday school are in a healthy condition. Our new church is now framed. Our protracted meeting has opened with excellent prospects. We have lost 3 members this year.

William Barly, Texarkana, Tex.

We have just closed a three weeks' meeting, which resulted in 19 conversions and 23 accessions. Our meeting closed with the third quarterly conference on the 30th of August. The Presiding Elder was not with us, so the pastor held the conference. Two joined the church. Collection for the day $16.55. We are preparing to meet the Annual Conference this year with a full report on all lines, the Lord being willing. Pray for us.

Joseph Johnson, Bunkie, La.

Our third quarterly conference convened August 29, 30. Paid Presiding Elder $8, pastor $38. Received 11 in the church. We are moving along nicely. Total this quarter $78.

D. Richardson, Howells Cross Roads, Ala.

My second quarterly conference was held August 24, 25, in the midst of our revival. The visiting pastors who labored with me in our revival were: Revs. I. Townsend, Presiding Elder, S. J. Robinson and A. Nichols. After two weeks our meeting closed with 14 converts and one accession. Paid Presiding Elder $11.15.

E. Z. Goodman, Peltier, Tenn.

Rev. C. Boyd, Presiding Elder, held my fourth quarterly conference August 22. Paid Elder $3.60, pastor $3.40, raised for Church Extension $1. The Elder preached a wonderful sermon. Received 3 into full membership. The writer held the conference at Jonesboro Mission, Rev. G. W. Jackson pastor, for the Presiding Elder. Reports showed they were moving right along. Paid Elder $2.80, pastor $75. The grand old SOUTHWESTERN was not forgotten. Our beloved Elder makes it a part of his work all over the district to press it upon the attention of everybody.

H. Dunlap, Atoka, Tenn.

I have just closed my protracted meeting, and we had a glorious time. Some of the worst gamblers were converted and are now holding family prayers. We had 18 converts and added 16 to the church.

S. McDonald, Marche, Ark.

Our revival meeting, just closed, resulted in 8 conversions, 2 reclaimed and 5 accessions to the church. The spiritual condition of this charge is good. I am trying to put the SOUTHWESTERN in every home, and hope to be able to send you 100 cash subscribers before conference.

C. W. Butler, Ingrams Mill, Miss.

Bright Prospect Circuit. My second quarterly conference was held August 22, 23. Our much beloved Elder, Dr. Revels, was not present. He was called to Greenwood to dedicate a church. Paid pastor $51.20, Elder $9. We are preparing to build a new church. The lumber is on the ground.

H. M. Renfro, Jacksonport, Ark.

Our week's revival meeting resulted in 12 conversions, 10 of whom joined our church.

A. J. McNair, Shubuta, Miss.

The third quarterly conference for Shubuta Charge was held at Liberty Hill M. E. Church Sept. 4. Presiding Elder J. M. Shumppert in the chair. Reports indicated progress. 71 souls had been happily converted to God and added to the church. Paid pastor $105.45, Presiding Elder $15.35. The Elder gave an impressive address to the conference for the SOUTHWESTERN. He preached to a crowded house with much acceptability, and administered the Lord's Supper to 92 persons.

C. P. Westbrook, Dennison and Pilot Point, Texas.

Our revival meeting at Dennison resulted in 5 conversions and 7 additions. At Pilot Point 7 conversions and 2 additions. Total thus far for the year 21. This is my third and, I guess, my last year on this work. I feel that I have done what I could for it. When I entered the work, February of '89, I found very poor churches. I set to work and improved them, and now I venture to say that they will compare favorably with any of our churches in ordinary towns. When I took the work our congregations were small, but they have considerably increased. I trust the brethren will bring every dollar of their benevolent collections on the Waco district. We must not be behind.

Wm. Perry, New Berne Circuit, Ala.

Our revival at New Berne resulted in 35 happily converted and 23 accessions. At Walthall Circuit 21 were converted and 13 joined our church. At Allen's Grove 7 were converted and 4 joined our church. Total converted 63, joined our church 40. We have 60 mourners on hand.

A. J. Fletcher, Loneok, Ark.

My church is now in the midst of a glorious revival. Several have been converted and many more are at the altar.

H. R. Smith, Hockley, Texas.

Our second and third quarterly was held recently with Rev. W. H. Logan presiding. Paid Presiding Elder $35. Paid pastor $70.85. Six joined the church.

H. I. Rich, Snow Hill, Md.

I have just closed a grand camp meeting with 40 converts. White and colored shared in it. I baptized 30 children and 20 adults. The Lord is with us.

Elijah Knott, Oliver's Spring, Tenn., reports the close of his revival, which resulted in ten conversions, and several additions to the church. He was assisted by Revs. A. Merton and Scott.

W. W. Brown, Tabernacle M. E. Church, Galveston, Texas.

One night not long since I went to our East End Church to meeting, leaving my wife and children alone at the parsonage. During my absence a crowd of my members came there, loaded the table with groceries and other good things, put a new stove in the kitchen, sang and prayed and then left. I was sorry, very sorry; that is sorry I was not present. Tabernacle members praise God and take care of their pastor.

Lost Friends.

We make no charge for publishing these letters from subscribers. All others will be charged fifty cents. Pastors will please read the requests published below from their pulpits, and report any case where friends are brought together by means of letters in the SOUTHWESTERN.

Mr. Editor: I wish to enquire for my husband and son. I left them or was sold from them in Shelby county, Kentucky, before the war. I belonged to a man named Josiah Reaser. My husband's name was William Roman. He belonged to a man named Reuben Dale. My son's name was William Thomas Roman, and was but 4 years old when I was taken from him. When I was sold from husband and son I was called Emeline Reaser, and my husband was called Will Dale. The last I heard of my child my master had given him to his daughter, Mrs. Mahoney. Any information concerning either will be gladly received. Address me, Emily Patterson, corner East Bluff and Pecan street, Fort Worth, Tex.

Mr. Editor: I want to enquire for my people whom I left in Georgia. We came to Mississippi in 1866, with a man by the name of Dick Walton. My mother's name was Phillis Walton. She had two sisters, Frances and Esther, and one brother named Harrison Walton. My father's name was York Jenkins. He had three sisters, Creasy, Amanda and Eliza, and two brothers, Sam and Joe. Mother had four girls, Margaret, Susan, Emma and Rachael. Any one knowing these persons please address S. A. Laird, Sardis, Miss.

Mr. Editor: I want to inquire for my people. Bob, Dave, Sie, William, Daniel, Millie, Emma and Nancy Johnson. These are my brothers and sisters. Any information will be gladly received. Address Washington Jackson, Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. Editor: I want to enquire for my husband, Charley Sims. We are both from Durham, N. C. We were married in North Carolina by Elder Long in the Baptist Church. My husband left me in Millville, Miss., Dec. 3, 1890, in time of high water and went to Greenwood, Miss. He wrote to me to come to Greenwood, but on account of high water I could not come at the time he wrote for me. When I went he was gone and I have not seen him since. We were married May 30, 1889. Any one finding him will oblige me by writing me, Clairro Sims, care of pastor M. E. Church, Greenwood, Miss.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know what to say; read what he says:

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times, and its effects are wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Five Thousand Dollar Rally For the Building of Meridian Academy.

Dear Brethren: Below is the apportionment for each charge on the $5,000 plan. I have arranged through the courtesy and assistance of Presiding Elder Shumpert, to visit your charges in the near future. Dates will be furnished you in due time. Don't wait however till I come. Begin the work at once. Let our people know how necessary it is to have a new building at Meridian, but tell them that the society can do nothing until this amount is raised. Get as much cash as possible and the balance in subscriptions to be paid no later than the second Sunday in November. Bro. Payne and his noble band at Meridian have started off with cash and subscriptions amounting to more than $1,200. Let all others do as well and the new building for the seminary is safe.

Your Brother,
M. C. B. MASON.

Bishop Hurst to Chaplain McCabe.

My Dear Chaplain:—I congratulate you on the great increase in the missionary collections. No one could have dared prophesy this great advance. The Lord is leading our people in this marvelous movement. If, as now seems almost certain, when our Missionary Committee meets in November we are once more out of debt, we shall sing the Doxology as never before. God bless you and your associates in this great achievement!

Yours fraternally,
JOHN F. HURST.

General Church News.

Since Protestantism entered Mexico, about twenty-five years ago, sixty-six Protestants have given their lives for their faith.

The Baptist Missionary Society celebrates next year the centenary of its existence, when it is proposed to raise $500,000 for the extension of the society's operations.

During its long period of existence the British and Foreign Bible Society has issued one hundred and twenty-four million copies of Scripture writings, translated into two hundred and ninety tongues.

The growth of Protestantism in Japan during the last three years has been remarkable. Three years ago there were only thirty-eight Protestant Churches in that country; now they have 151. Then they had 3,700 members, and now 11,600.

Before christianity entered India, lepers were treated with shocking inhumanity. Many of them were buried alive. The English rulers have put a stop to this custom, and for fourteen years there has been a special christian mission to the 135,000 lepers in India.

The progress made in the translation of the Bible during the last century has been marvelous. Now the Bible is translated into the languages of fully nine tenths of the earth, whereas in the beginning only one fifth were able to read it with their native tongue.

A missionary writes: "Evangelization among the South Sea Islands has been largely carried on by native converts. It is wonderful to see their devotion to the work. Hundreds have sacrificed their lives to carry the Gospel to the heathen. Sixty from one church in the Harvey group have been killed while acting as missionaries."

It is noble to minister to the body; to minister to the soul is nobler; but the noblest of all is to minister to both body and soul. Christ attended to both body and soul, and the missionaries in general are treading in his footsteps; but who has a greater or better opportunity of doing so than a medical missionary? Hence the work of a medical missionary is greatly valued. He is loved by all, because he is looked upon as a well-wisher, and hence his teaching is listened to with great attention. We have a few such medical missionaries; we want many more.

General News Items.

The Second Annual State Fair of the Louisiana State Fair Association, will take place at Baton Rouge, Oct. 6-10, 1891. The grounds will be open for the reception of exhibits Oct. 25. The indications are that the fair will be one of the grandest ever held in this State.

The colored people of Boston are making an effort to place Wm. H. Dupree (postmaster Station A) on the Republican ticket for State Auditor.

Joseph Lloyd, is a merchant at Haynesville, Ala., and an extensive land owner in Lowndes county, owning 400 acres, and otherwise worth $250,000.

The first Afro-American chaplain to be appointed and commissioned was H. V. Plummer, chaplain of the ninth cavalry; the second was Allen Ailesworth, chaplain of the twenty-fourth infantry, and the third is T. G. Stewart, chaplain of the twenty fifth infantry.

The Pullman Palace Car Company has issued orders to its agents to sell tickets for berths to any one who is able to pay for the same, regardless of color and the laws of the States which provide for the separate cars.

Selma, Ala., is full of colored bookmen and others who are worth in stock and real estate from $50 to $1,000.

The unclaimed bounty fund for colored sailors and soldiers in the national treasury amounts to $2,000,000.

The colored citizens of Birmingham, Ala., have organized a cemetery association whose capital stock is $10,000.

Scott Brutley owns a four hundred acre farm and runs a grocery in Selma, Ala. He is worth $12,000. Jeff Richardson owns a three hundred acre farm, runs a grocery, and is worth $50,000. Ben Matthews owns a wholesale and retail liquor house, as large as is in the city. Miller Hardy is proprietor of the Madagascar House.

Rev. Dr. James M. Townsend should be made a bishop in his church. The great A. M. E. Church would honor itself by elevating the soldier, legislator, scholar, orator, christian gentleman. He would be a light in the bishopric that would shine for the race and humanity the world over.—Alexandria Leader.

Mr. Frederick Douglass maintains that the emancipated slaves of the South should be pensioned by the government as payment for the unpaid labor which they performed while in slavery. This is an interesting offset to another claim once made, that the government should pay the slaveholders for the slaves whom they lost by the act of emancipation.—N. Y. Sun.

Books and Current Literature.

The Season for October is just out, and is full of beautiful autumn designs in dress and art work. All the articles shown from month to month can be depended on as originals—not simply copies from other periodicals—thus making it more valuable. Single copies 30 cents. Yearly subscription, $3.50. The International News Company, 83 and 85 Duane street New York.

Choir singers have great difficulty in finding new and suitable anthems of a practical character. Books are expensive, and the few really good things in them are soon snatched to death. The Musical Visitor, a monthly magazine, which, after a thorough investigation of its merits, we can heartily endorse, furnishes each month sixteen pages of short anthems and voluntaries of an entirely practical character, which can be well prepared in one or two thorough rehearsals. Published by the John Church Co., Cincinnati.

The Clafin University Catalogue, Orangeburg, S. C., for 1890-91, a pamphlet of 88 pages, exhibits the marvelous development of that great centre of power and influence, which is doing so much for the elevation of our people in the South Atlantic States.

Hon. Carroll D. Wright will begin in the October Popular Science Monthly a series of papers under the title Lessons from the Census. In the first of these he sketches the changes in scope and methods which the United States census has undergone in the past hundred years, and shows that its immense growth has made it a somewhat clumsy machine. Prof. A. E. Dolbear will contribute to the October Popular Science Monthly an essay on Metamorphoses in Education. It is a thoughtful paper, and shows that, since education is a process of fitting men for their environment, a change in its character was necessitated by the change in the conditions of human life that has taken place in modern times. The Rivalry of the Higher Senses is the title of a paper by Prof. G. T. W. Patriok, to appear in the October Popular Science Monthly. It points out how greatly we differ from the ancients in receiving most of our information through the eye while they took in theirs more largely through the ear. Some of the consequences of this change are also noted. The second of Prof. Frederick Starr's articles on Dress and Adornment, in the Popular Science Monthly, will be published in the October number. The author maintains that dress arose from a desire for ornament rather than from a sense of shame. He describes a number of beautiful garments that are made by savages, and illustrates his descriptions with a large number of pictures.

Songs of Joy and Gladness No. 2 now ready. The success of Songs of Joy and Gladness No. 1 is unparalleled, having reached a circulation of nearly half a million copies in six years. All this has been accomplished without advertising the book in any paper. In issuing No. 2 the publishers are persuaded that in every particular it is the equal of No. 1. It contains the latest and best compositions of its compilers, while its reprints are among the most popular in use. It is replete with new pieces, which are destined to make the book a favorite in all christian circles. McDonald, Gill & Co., 36 Bromfield street, Boston, and 57 Washington street, Chicago.

Help Poor Africa!

Some weeks ago we published a very pathetic letter from Africa, appealing for papers for the reading room of our mission school at Cape Palmas, West Coast of Africa. In answer to this, the Rev. J. B. Middleton, of Sumpter, S. C., offered $10 toward the establishment of the African Christian Advocate. To this we offered to add our subscription of $10, and others have been solicited to join their contributions for the same purpose. To this we have thus far received no responses. In the absence of a printing press in Liberia, there remains but one thing for American christians to do, and that is, to see that those poor people are supplied with the right kind of reading matter from the American press. We therefore appeal to our readers to supply the means whereby we may be able to furnish the SOUTHWESTERN to our Cape Palmas school reading room, and to worthy and needy ones in the Black Republic. For $2 we will send the SOUTHWESTERN to such persons for a whole year, postage prepaid. Who will send us $2 and thereby assist in the evangelization of Africa? If you can't go there yourself, send them the SOUTHWESTERN as a missionary agent to assist in their evangelization and salvation.

Have you a Pittsburgh, Rochester, Duplex, or a Student Lamp?

Do they work satisfactorily? Do your Lamp Chimneys break? You get the wrong sort! The right ones are the "PEARL GLASS," made by Geo. A. Macbeth & Co., Pittsburgh, makers of the celebrated "Pearl-top" lamp chimney, which have given universal satisfaction.

Official paper for the following Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church: Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas, West Texas, Tennessee, East Tennessee, Little Rock, Central Alabama, Savannah, Florida, North Carolina and South Carolina.

Largest Circulation of any Religious Newspaper in New Orleans.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 17, 1891.

SPECIAL RALLY!

We offer the SOUTHWESTERN for the balance of the year, till January 1, 1892, for only

50 CENTS.

This offer should bring us at least 2000 new cash subscribers within the next thirty days. Let every pastor rally and send us at least ten new subscribers. Now is the time to double our circulation. The eye of the whole church is upon us.

RALLY, RALLY, RALLY!

Send Your Name With the Cash.

75 cents pays for 6 months, $1.50 for 12 months, and $14 pays for a brand new Singer Sewing Machine, warranted for five years, and the paper for 12 months. Order at once. Address

HUNT & EATON,
139 Poydras St., New Orleans.

THE next civil service examination for the customs service will be held at the customhouse, Oct. 6. Blank applications can be obtained from J. M. Holland, secretary.

THE second Sunday in October is Good Tidings Day. Let it be observed in every church. Send the collection to Rev. J. L. Hurlbut, D.D., corresponding secretary of the Sunday School Union, New York.

How is your Sunday school? Is it provided with every available Sunday school help? The pastor that fails to have his school thus supplied, may be prosperous now, but with a loose grip upon the young people, it will not flourish long.

WHY not organize the Epworth League on every charge in our territory. It is one of the best auxiliaries that we can put in operation in our charges. Write to the Rev. J. L. Hurlbut, D.D., corresponding secretary, S. S. Union, 150 Fifth Avenue, New York, for further information.

THE following changes take place in the presidency of Annual Conferences on account of Bishop Vincent's absence in Europe: Bishop Bowman will take the Wisconsin Conference; Bishop Newman the Upper Iowa, and Bishop Andrews the Northwest Swedish and the West Wisconsin Conferences.

I. E. STARNES, of Beeville, Texas, read a paper at the recent session of the San Antonio, (Texas), district Conference, entitled "Should Pastors do Manual Labor." It gave evidence of a perfect mastery of the subject, and is of such high merit that we would gladly publish it, as requested by that district conference, but for its length and our pressure for space.

HAVE you registered? You must bear in mind that all registration papers issued prior to January 1, 1891, are worthless. If you want to record your vote as a citizen against the infamous lottery inebrius, you must be sure and register. The registration office in this city is on Camp street, opposite Lafayette Square. Lose no time, but attend to this matter at once, before you are crowded out.

Will Colored Students Be Admitted?

The editor of the Central Methodist (M. E. Church South), being disturbed over the prospects of seeing all classes of Americans admitted into the great American University, which is being so vigorously pushed forward by Bishop Hurst, wrote the Bishop to find out whether Negroes would be admitted therein or not. To this the Bishop answered:

"The students to be received, when once we are ready, will be determined in a way satisfactory to the whole Christian constituency, I am very sure. So far we have not considered the question you ask. There are three representatives of the Methodist Episcopal Church South on our Board—Bishop Wilson and two laymen. I am very sure they are excellent representatives and will advise wisely."

This evasive answer, Dr. Meeks construes to be "as good as a denial" that colored people are to be admitted. For their admission, Dr. Meeks declares, "would not be satisfactory to the whole Christian constituency."

We submit that from our knowledge of Bishop Hurst, we are satisfied that such is not the proper construction to be placed upon his answer to Dr. Meeks. But since such a construction has been placed thereon, there remains but one honest course to pursue, and that is to give an unequivocal expression touching the proposed attitude of the American University toward this omnipresent color question. To collect money for its erection and endowment upon any other grounds would not be fair to those occupying either side of the question. Let us know once for all whether this great institution is to be a great national institution, open to all Americans irrespective of race or color, or whether it is to be another national monument for the perpetuation of the hateful spirit of unchristian caste or proscription. Honesty is the best policy, every time.

The Better Way.

Our people spend entirely too much time in taking up their collections. In many of the churches nearly half the time spent at a service is spent in drumming up the people to the collection table. The thing is a nuisance. We all know our Christian duty. We know the minister cannot live on air, nor his family dress in fig leaves, neither can churches be built, lighted, cleaned, etc., for a song. It takes money to do those things. Now why not crowd each aisle as soon as the collection is called for and give in one trip to the table all you can possibly contribute? Why wait for a regular ding-dong of songs, clapping and a whole lot of wicked flatteries from stewards and preachers to rally you up to the table to give a nickel? Far better, too, it would be if our people would encourage by their liberality the basket collection system. As it is, unless invited to come to the table, to exhibit their bonnets and fine dresses, they give so little that pastors and stewards have had to return to the table system after adopting the basket system, and all its confusion. We have been free nearly thirty years, and it is high time that we leave such customs of slavery to the days that are past. Another thing, many will not give anything until somebody sings a shouting, "praise" that one can scarcely distinguish from a jig or a roudou dance song. Pastors, officers, people, the thing is outrageously repulsive to the growing intelligence around us. It tends to drive intelligent young people away from the church, to the club house, the saloon, the baseball grounds and other demoralizing places, to their ruin and the loss of the church. Let a general halt be called. We fear that our people are not sufficiently instructed on these lines from the pulpit. We are given to be too much satisfied with a shout, a good time, in our churches. Man is a three fold being, and should be provided for by the church accordingly. The church should provide healthful and pleasant recreation of untainted moral character for her young people, lest they go to the world for such as will destroy their soul and body. Every possible effort should be exerted to provide for their intellectual wants, by means of good books, papers, organizations of a literary character, and the pastor's regular weekly lectures on various topics of interest. Brethren let us all give weekly lectures to our people regularly. Teach the people something. Take care of their intellect. For what enters the brains, drips down into the heart, and is diffused into all our lives and actions. Suppose the pastor preceded his weekly class meeting with a twenty or thirty minutes' lecture; one week on education; another on temperance; another on mission church extension, Methodism, wholesome reading, race interest, etc. What a tremendous uplift would be felt on all lines, throughout our church among our people! Try it.

Southern Education Day.

By the action of the Board of Directors of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society at its last meeting, July 14th, the time set apart as Southern Education Day was changed from the second Sunday in May to the fourth Sunday in November of each year. This was done to accommodate the Epworth Leagues, so that their celebration might come upon the anniversary of their organization. We call special attention to this change, and urge every pastor to observe the fourth Sunday in November as Southern Education Day.

A special Sunday Service will be prepared for this day. It will be full of interesting information.

The only charge will be sufficient to cover postage.

Write Dr. Hartzell, Cincinnati, for further information.

An Earnest Appeal.

Rev. S. E. H. Morant, Presiding Elder of Alexandria district, has lost his mind. His friends have decided to send him from Shreveport to this city for treatment. He will reach here this week. Having a large family of a wife and eleven dependent children, he has not the means for their support and his treatment. Will not every pastor in the Louisiana Conference take up a collection for him, and every one reading these lines send a dime or a dollar to help him. Please help him, and help at once. Send to this office, to Rev. A. E. P. Albert, D.D., Secretary Louisiana Conference.

"IMMEDIATE help or death!" Such is the desperate appeal which Dr. T. C. Carter, of the Methodist Advocate, makes for his paper in the last issue. The paper is in the hands of the law for execution of judgment, and unless immediate relief comes its death is inevitable. We greatly sympathize with our dear brother, and hope he will be speedily helped out of the present stringency. It is indeed a great pity that after Dr. Carter has sunk $5000 in keeping his paper alive it should perish, when, if what is due it were paid, it would be free to continue in its career of great usefulness. Brethren, pay up. Those of you who owe the SOUTHWESTERN, take this lesson of our confrere's to heart, and pay us what you owe us. Pay us, brethren, pay us.

THE Ecumenical Methodist Conference which meets in Washington, D. C., October 7-21, promises to be the grandest Protestant convocation the world ever witnessed. Let the church pray that it may be most powerfully visited with a pentecostal baptism of the Holy Ghost, such as will result in wonderful revival fires all over the world.

Political Review.

Massachusetts Republicans held their State Convention last week, and nominated a strong ticket, headed with Chas. H. Allen for Governor.

New York Democracy, weakened by the factional fights between Tammany, county Democracy, Cleveland, and Hill Democrats, nominated a ticket last week, headed with Rosewell P. Flower for Governor. Republicans are correspondingly jubilant and express the hope that Hon. J. S. Fessett, Republican candidate for Governor will be elected with a sweeping majority.

The campaigns in Ohio, Iowa, and Pennsylvania are fairly open now, with the most favorable indications for the success of the Republican party.

The Farmers' Alliance, like other movements favoring any class, is not assuming the proportions that was expected of it some time ago.

A call for a third party convention has been issued to meet at Alexandria, La., Sept. —, 1891. It calls upon all persons, regardless of political creed, who are in sympathy with the Ocala platform, to meet in convention for the purpose of devising the best means for advancing the general interest of the farming and laboring classes.

The secular press continues to laud the lottery, and to exaggerate the meetings which are held nightly in its behalf. The people are awakening however, and will not be misled by such "paid advertisement" matter. Let all our people register and prepare to record their vote against the monstrous and outrageous fraud.

THE proceedings of the Fifth State Sunday School Convention held in this city May 5-7, is on our table, for which we return thanks to Mr. John E. Rodd, corresponding secretary, 70 Gravier street, New Orleans. It is neatly gotten up, but very defective. Without stating the fact, it ignores the thousands of colored children that attend Sunday school in this State every Sunday. It reports for the Methodist Episcopal Church South, 265 schools, 1,528 officers and teachers and 13,846 scholars, and for the Methodist Episcopal, 16 schools, 87 officers and teachers and 922 scholars. These must be statistics of our white schools, because our conference minutes of the Methodist Episcopal Church shows: 249 schools, 1,163 officers and teachers, and 13,819 scholars. In like manner the colored children of all the other churches are not counted. To what kind of a heaven are those people going?

The General Missionary Committee will meet in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Cleveland, O., on Wednesday, Nov. 11, 1891, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Personal.

Mrs. Pierre Landry who, with her two children and Miss Nellie Landry, had been spending part of the summer at Shreveport and Mansfield, is now home again.

President C. E. Libby, of Rust University, Holly Springs, Miss., has returned from his summer vacation, and is vigorously pushing forward the interests of that institution. His heart's in the work.

A note from Presiding Elder M. M. Alston, informs us that Rev. E. E. West, at Elberton, Ga., is sick and destitute, and needs the help of his brethren. Send him a dollar or whatever you can, in care of Rev. S. B. Beaufort, Elberton, Ga.

G. W. Thompson, trustee and leader of class sixteen in Wesley Chapel, residing at 142 Cypress street, this city, was agreeably surprised on the night of the 3rd inst by nearly a hundred of his friends, it being the first anniversary of his marriage. Many useful and amusing presents were left, and ice cream and cake was served in abundance.

Just as we go to press the news comes to us that Mrs. Fredonia Courtney, wife of Rev. Joseph Courtney, died at Springfield, Ohio, September 12. We greatly sympathize with the bereaved ones. Particulars next week.

Rev. E. H. Clark, of Wilson, La., is visiting his family here, and called last Monday. He is doing a good work.

Rev. Frank Harvey, called last Monday and reported his work at Central, La., in splendid shape. He has just completed a fine steeple to his church, at a cost of $175.

Among our visitors last Monday were Messrs. A. Edwards and A. J. Ford, and Revs. A. W. Page of the A. M. E. Church, and E. E. Rousseau of the Congregational Church, all of this city. Call again, brethren.

Prof. David Abner, Jr., of Marshall, Texas, takes to himself a handsome bride at 8 o'clock tonight, in the person of Miss Ella May, of Brenham, Texas. The nuptials take place at the Mt. Rose Baptist Church, in Brenham. Our best wishes are extended to the happy couple. Their future address is Guadalupe College, Seguin, Tex.

We were led into an error when we announced last week that Bro. Milo Hatcher was not in good standing in his church at Bunkie, La. Bro. Johnson, his pastor, simply meant to enquire of his whereabouts.

The Standard Pelican is to be congratulated upon the accession of so able a writer upon its editorial corps as Chas. B. Bourgeois, of St. Charles parish. Mr. Bourgeois supported the lottery in the last General Assembly. We hope his accession to his present position has no friendly reference to that infamous gambling institution. Has it?

We congratulate Rev. Dr. W. P. Stowe, of the Western Book Concern, upon the celebration of his sixtieth birthday, a few days ago.

Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon, the great London preacher, whose serious illness excited universal sympathy, is now said to be on the high road to recovery.

Dr. Homer Eaton, New York Book Concern Agent, is in California, giving attention to Book Concern affairs, and is having a generous welcome from all parties.

Rev. D. G. Pharris, pastor at Mtnson, called Saturday. His church is booming. The Sunday school has been supplied with helps and most of the apportionments raised.

BISHOP Vincent was pastor at Galena, Ill., in 1859-61, and in a letter expressing regret at his inability to be present at the recent unveiling of the Grant Monument in that city, he said: "I well remember Captain U. S. Grant as he occupied Sabbath after Sabbath, a pew in the Benoh Street Church, of which I was pastor. He was an attentive hearer of God's Word, and many personal statements of his to me, some of them in writing, bear testimony to the fact that the Word of God echoed in the Galena pulpit in those days of peril were not lost, but fell into the heart of our great leader."

Schools and Colleges.

Gilbert Academy and Agricultural College.

The fall term will begin Tuesday, October 6, 9 a. m. Professor L. D. Gilbert, from Ohio, is vice-president, and will be present at the opening. Mrs. Gilbert is preceptor. Professor H. A. Morton, formerly of Leland University, will also be present, in charge of the department of mathematics and of Smith Hall.

Dr. C. B. Anderson will have charge of the boarding hall, and Mrs. Anderson will be governess.

All the departments will be well filled. Miss M. A. Williams, of New Orleans, will also be at hand in charge of the same department as last year. Mr. H. A. Walsh, of Newburg, N. Y., will have charge of the printing office, and Mr. G. A. Young, of Manchester, N. H., will have charge of carpentry. Mrs. G. J. West, Jr., of Winsted, will preside in the sewing department.

We desire students, as far as possible, to be present the first day. All old debts must be promptly paid at the beginning. Every student must show a receipt for all the monthly bills before admission to the boarding hall or the classes. There will be no dead heads. The bills of a limited number of orphans will be paid for them.

We request ministers and pastors to call the attention of their people to the points named in this communication.

Thanks to God for all his goodness. W. D. GODMAN, Pres.

The New President of Wiley University.

Rev. P. A. Cool, A.M., of the Central Illinois Conference, has been selected by Dr. Hartzell, as president of Wiley University, at Marshall, Texas, and will be at his post in a few days.

President Cool graduated at Hedding College, Illinois, in 1870. Has been a leading pastor and Presiding Elder in his conference. Was a member of the last General Conference, and has traveled extensively in this country and in Europe. He has for several years been greatly interested in our Southern educational work, and we predict for Wiley University a great success under his presidency.

The Central Alabama Conference Academy, Huntsville, Ala., opened September 7. A brighter day has never been seen in the history of this school. Prof. A. W. McKinney at the head of this noble institution is a man of education, and a Christian gentleman. Under the leadership of such a man, the school is bound to reach its desired end. We have the best school in North Alabama. It is the place for our young people. We are glad to know that Dr. Hartzell has placed Bro. McKinney in charge. A more worthy man could not be found. He has the confidence of all. We are not ashamed of our school. The doors are open to all.

W. G. ALLEN.

Important Notice.

A department for deaf mutes will be opened in New Orleans University at the time of the regular opening, October 5, if a sufficient number of pupils can be secured.

Let all friends interested in these afflicted ones among us, notify them or send names or addresses immediately to

PRESIDENT ADKINSON.

1423 St. Charles Avenue.

Bishop Mallalieu has taken upon himself the burden of raising the money to establish and endow the Medical College in New Orleans in connection with our New Orleans University. He bought that splendid property, located on Canal street, on faith. God has honored that faith so that the property is paid for. To do this, the bishop was compelled to borrow five thousand dollars in addition to raising over ten thousand. Will not a few generous souls send the bishop this money?

In addition to this, he is raising an endowment fund of fifty thousand dollars, and has made an excellent start.

Bishop Mallalieu has been in the South seven years. He knows the needs of the colored people. He is interested in their welfare, and ought to be aided in his efforts to build up the Medical College in New Orleans. Do not fail to write to him in regard to this enterprise, and cheer his heart by a liberal contribution.

This Medical College will be a boon and a blessing to millions of our colored people in the South.

The death-rate among the colored people in the South is much greater than among the whites. We must care for the bodies of our colored people as well as for their souls.

His address is 1423 St. Charles Avenue, New Orleans, La.—Christian Educator.

DAILY BREAD.

God employs no hired help.

God loves people who walk straight.

Nothing that is done for Christ is little.

The best place for us is the one God picks out.

The truly great are those who conquer themselves.

"They that seek the Lord understand all things."

God's workers are never paid in the devil's money.

God is behind every man who leans against him.

To be a servant of sin is to be a servant of the devil.

The way to do hard things easy is to do them for Christ.

God's way of helping us is to help us to help ourselves.

The man who helps his brother is doing something that pleases God.

The young man who had great possessions kept them and lost Jesus.

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

Those who go upon errands of love for Christ must start with clean feet.

Jesus said: "I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

The devil is always there to listen when Christians get into a controversy.

To obtain salvation the sinner needs to take nothing to God but his sins.

There is no such thing as being a Christian without doing as a Christian does.

The man who does his best in the place he has now is on his way to a better place.

"Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace."

When some men pay their preacher they feel as though they were paying their gas bill.

The devil don't care how much praying we do against the saloon, if that is all we do.

The devil lives in the same house with the man who is always boasting about how moral he is.

Jesus praised two women for their liberal giving, but no man gave enough to attract his attention.

Mothers have it in their power to do as much toward lifting the world up to God as the preachers.

Never shake hands with the devil, no matter how nice and harmless his hands may look. There are claws under the skin.

You are doing one of two things, brother. You are either helping your neighbor out of the ditch, or helping to make a ditch for him to fall into. Which is it?

God loves to see a man take off his coat and roll up his sleeves as though he meant something. They are not building any mansions in heaven for people who are neither cold or hot.—Ram's Horn.

Homiletics.

Hymns—12: Jesus, thou everlasting King. 279: Come Holy Ghost, our hearts inspire. 272: I worship thee, O Holy Ghost.

Scripture Lesson—St. John xvi.

Text—St. John xvi. 14. He shall glorify me.

Subject—The Holy Spirit glorifying Christ.

Introduction—The Holy Spirit testifies of Jesus—this is the beginning of his office in the world. He glorifies Jesus—that is the goal and the end of his office in believers. The Saviour is about to leave the world by the via dolorosa of the Garden and the Cross. To his sorrowing disciples he promises "another Comforter," who is to abide with them forever. It is therefore expedient—better for them that he, their Master, should go away. "For unless I go the Comforter will not come, but if I depart I will send him unto you." It will be his office to convict the world of sin, of righteousness, of judgment. He will guide believers into all the truth. There is no promise here of infallibility concerning general truth, but the reference is solely to that divine truth which saves. The promise is first of all to the Apostles in that which we call inspiration. It is a promise also to all believers, that in so far as they really submit themselves to the Holy Spirit they will be guided into all the truth essential to their salvation. And now, in the words of our text, we see another office of the Holy Spirit—to glorify Christ.

Let us to-day look upon:

I. Christ glorified through his Father.

II. Christ glorified through his Kingdom.

III. Christ glorified through the Holy Ghost.

I. The Father has glorified the Son by sharing with him his eternal throne and glory. By making him the author and agent of creation—"All things were made by him, and without him was not anything made that was made." But especially has the Father glorified the Son by making him the author and agent of redemption. By sustaining him in his agony and passion against the gates of hell. By enabling him to triumph over his death in his glorious resurrection, and in his great ascension and exaltation to the right hand of the Majesty on high. So is Christ glorified through his Father.

II. Christ is glorified through his Kingdom. That wild but wonderful genius, Jean Jacques Rousseau—half sage, half savage—has said, "If the life and death of So crates be those of a philosopher, then the life and death of Jesus are those of a God." Bonaparte, on St. Helena, said, "Alexander, Caesar, Charlemagne and myself founded our empires upon force, and to-day where are they? Jesus Christ founded his empire upon love, and to-day millions are ready to die for him." Ernest Renan, in his "Life of Jesus," a book which may be termed two-thirds French novel and one-third New Testament, says as he gazes upon the cross and its meek sufferer, "Repose now in thy glory, noble founder, thy work is done, thy divinity is established. At the price of a few hours of suffering thou hast purchased the most complete immortality. Hereafter beyond the reach of human frailty, thou shalt witness, from the heights of divine peace, the infinite consequences of thine acts,—a thousand times more beloved since thy death than during the days of thy sojourn here below. Thou hast become to such an extent the cornerstone of humanity that to tear thy name out of this world would be to rend it from its foundations. Complete conqueror of death take possession of thy kingdom. Whither shall we follow thee, by the royal road which thou hast traced ages of worshippers." Thus Christ is glorified in the words of those who are nevertheless really the worst enemies of his church and kingdom. But when we look at his real kingdom in the world, how he is glorified thereby.

He who wandered with the peasant Jew And ate with publicans the bread of shame, And drank with blessings in his Father's name, The water which Samaria's outcast drew, Hath now his temples upon every shore, Altar and shrine and priest— And income dimly evermore rising, With low prayer and hymn.

Before the age of printing the custom of illuminating the manuscripts of the Bible with gold and silver, and richly wrought colors and pictures, prevailed. Copies of the Gospels were written on a blue ground in silver, with the name of God in gold. So we might compare all of Christian history to a great illuminated manuscript or Missal, all glorifying the central figure—Jesus Christ the Son of God.

III. But Christ is above all glorified through the Holy Ghost. And through the Holy Ghost as a revealer and teacher, "He shall receive of men and show it unto you." He reveals Christ as he really is—the divine, eternal Son of God, the Redeemer of men. He shall teach, but his teaching begins and ends in Christ. These words are decisive against all additions or pretended revelations, subsequent to and besides Christ. He is to glorify Christ to us, and in us—as the Alpha and Omega, the author and finisher of our faith.

Obituary.

After much suffering, surrounded by relatives and kind friends, death came to the relief of Sister Isabella Reynaud, wife of Mr. John A. Reynaud, of Donaldsonville, La., Sept. 8, at 4 p. m. Sister Reynaud was converted at the early age of 10 years, in 1867, during the successful pastorate of St. Peter's first pastor, the sainted Thomas Kennedy. In the absence of the Rev. H. J. Wright, P. C., Presiding Elder Landry attended her on the last day of her life on earth. To him she expressed perfect resignation to the will of God. Just before her death she called her husband to her bedside and said, "I must go, John. I want you to be a good man and take good care of our children and those of our dear sister," and died. Her remains were taken charge of by the officers and members of the Ladies of Prompt Assistance, of which Society she was an honored member, and from the St. Peter M. E. Church, where the funeral services were conducted by Elder Landry, assisted by Bro. Wallace Long and the Rev. Mr. Allen of the A. M. E. Church, the Association, the members of St. Peter, and a host of other friends, followed her mortal remains to their last resting place in the Protestant Cemetery. The St. Joseph Brass Band furnished the solemn funeral march. P. L.

Forest, Miss.—Sister Mary Gresham, wife of our district steward, Jessie Gresham, departed this life Sept. 7. She lived a faithful Christian 22 years. Age, 55. She leaves a husband, one son and a host of friends to mourn her loss. P. R. Crump, P. C.

Sturges, Miss.—Sister Mattie Smith departed this life August 25, aged 39 years. She lived a faithful member of the church 20 years, and died in full triumph of faith. She was well on the evening of the 25th. Her husband and older children went to church that night and left her well, and came back and found her dead. They have our prayers and sympathy. The funeral was preached to a large congregation. J. M. Walton, P. C.

Sister Payton Smith died in full triumph of faith Sept. 6. She was a faithful member of Mt. Pleasant M. E. Church.

Bro. M. Comings died in full triumph of faith, Sept. 1, after an illness of three years.

Sister Lulu Scott died in full triumph of faith Sept. 1. She leaves a husband to mourn her loss.

Brother Charley Colman, a faithful member of Mt. Pleasant M. E. Church, was killed by his wife while he was asleep, Sept. 6. She then drowned herself and child. She had lost her mind. J. I. Garrett, P. C.

Vidalia, La.—Bro. Washington Williams had been a member of the C. M. E. Church and a class leader for 30 years. I came to Vidalia last February, and he then joined the M. E. Church. He departed this life Sept. 9. Before he died he called his wife and said, "Anna, heaven, heaven, sweet heaven is my home." He then sang, "Shall we know each other there?" and he said, "Yes, we shall know each other there." He leaves a wife, six children and a host of friends to mourn his loss. Age, 46 yrs. He was our best member. His funeral was attended by the writer, assisted by Rev. Matthew, of the Baptist Church. H. B. Hart, P. C.

Hattiesburg, Miss.—Maranda Carmichael, the infant of Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael, departed this life Sept. 11. It was sick three weeks, and then it took the wings of the morning and soared to worlds on high. R. Threlkeld, P. C.

Sturges, Miss.—Mr. Andrew Jackson Gordain, aged 21, departed this life Aug. 4. He was not a church member, but four days before he died he professed a hope in Christ. He leaves a father, mother, two sisters and five brothers to mourn his loss. His funeral was preached by Rev. T. L. Inghram and pastor. J. M. Walton, P. C.

City Church Notes.

[Brief items of news from the city churches will be welcome either handed us by pastors or lay men.]

Old Folks' Home.

In accordance with an agreement made in the Louisiana Conference, that each church should pay an assessment monthly for the benefit of the Old Folks' Home; wishing to give honor to whom honor is due, we desire to place before the public and thank those churches that have kept the pledge, viz: St. Paul, Mt. Zion, First Street, Thompson's, Simpson's and William's Chapel. The following are the delinquents: Union, Haven and Cushman's Chapel, Boynton, St. Matthew, LaHarpe, Pleasant Plains and Camp Parapet. We are very much in need of all assistance to enable us to carry on this well begun work.

J. W. HILTON, Pres.
ALICE GREEN, Sec'y.

Mrs. Christiana Brown, District Manager of the W. H. M. Society for the North New Orleans district, sent us a notice for publication requesting all members and friends of the society to meet at Union Chapel last Monday at 11 a. m. We regret that it came too late for publication in last week's paper.

First Street Church, Rev. T. G. Montgomery pastor; and William's Chapel, Rev. Henry Taylor pastor, held their quarterly love feasts last Thursday night. They had each a glorious time.

Members and friends of First Street Church very agreeably surprised their pastor Rev. T. G. Montgomery, and wife, on the night of September 16. They came with songs in their hearts and voices, and with many choice presents in their hands. They left the gifts on Bro. and Sister Montgomery's table, and songs in their hearts; for which they return thanks, and an invitation to call again. Their latch strings is kept on the outside night and day; especially for such visitors.

Church Polity.

Q. 1. We have some people here that were baptized in infancy by sprinkling, but now they have been converted, and they want to be baptized by immersion, what is the law in such cases?

Q. 2. There are others that joined the church several years ago, that want to be baptized by immersion and were denied the right on the same grounds. They are now begging me to baptize them by immersion, and say they never will be satisfied until they are baptized by immersion. Some have quit our church, and they say that that is their reason for quitting. What is the law in this second case. Please give me your answer at once.

H. R. S.

A. Both cases may be considered as one question. We know of no law forbidding a converted man or woman from being baptized by whatever mode he prefers, provided he has not been baptized before. The rebaptism of persons who have been baptized in infancy is inconsistent; unless as in the cases here represented. That is, the parties renounce the mode chosen for them by their parents, when they could not choose for themselves. In the absence of any positive law in the premises, we would readily let every one be persuaded by their own opinions as to the mode they prefer.

Now that they are of age and able to choose for themselves, we would not think of repeating the rite however upon one who had been previously baptized by sprinkling or any other mode, by his own choice, on a previous occasion. If any special mode was forced upon them on a previous occasion, they are, in our opinion, free to the administration of baptism as they now prefer it.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELLA A. THE BOY WHO HELPS HIS MOTHER.

As I went down the street to-day
I saw a little lad
Whose face was just the kind of face
To make a person glad.
It was so plump and rosy-cheeked,
So cheerful and so bright,
It made me think of apple-time,
And filled me with delight.

I saw him busily at work,
While blithe as blackbird's song
His merry, mellow whistle rang
The pleasant street along.
"O, that's the kind of lad I like!"
I thought, as I passed by;
These busy, cheery, whistling boys
Make grand men by and by."

Just then a playmate came along,
And leaned across the gate—
A plan that promised lots of fun
And frolic to relate.

"The boys are waiting for us now,
So hurry up!" he cried;
My little whistler shook his head,
And "Can't come," he replied.

"Can't come! Why not, I'd like to know?
What hinders?" asked the other.
"Why don't you see," came the reply,
"I'm busy helping mother.
She's lots to do, and so I like
To help her all I can;
So I've no time for fun just now,"
Said this dear little man.

"I like to hear you talk like that,"
I told the little lad;
"Help mother all you can, and make Her kind heart light and glad."
It does me good to think of him,
And know that there are others
Who, like this "nearly little boy,"
Take hold and help their mothers.

Thirty years ago your city of Galena numbered among its citizens a man so modest that he was little known in the community; a merchant so humble that his activities were not felt in your business. Three years later his fame illuminated the earth, and the calculations of every commercial venture and of every constructive enterprise in the country were based upon the success or failure of his plans. He was then supporting

The Church Sociable.

The author of "The American Commonwealth," in referring to the "informal evening party, called a sociable," given by some congregations, says: "Even dances may be given, but not by all denominations.
When, some years ago, a Presbyterian congregation in a great Western city was giving a 'reception' in honor of its new church building—prosperous churches always have a building with a set of rooms for meetings—the sexton (as he is called in America), who had come from a Protestant Episcopal Church in the East observed, as he surveyed the spacious hall:
"What a pity you are not Episcopalian; you might have given a ball in this room." We suspect that the sexton's remark would not apply to very many Episcopalian congregations. But while sociables, picnics, and similar gatherings are quite proper, and are a valuable means of young people becoming acquainted with each other, those who have them in charge ought to be very careful not to admit worldly amusements and exercises of doubtful propriety, particularly such as are condemned by many good Christian people in any circumstances. "Whether, therefore, ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God."—United Presbyterian.

IT PAYS

To be cautious in the choice of medicines. Many are injured by trying experiments with compounds purporting to be blood-purifiers, the principal recommendation of which would seem to be their "cheapness." Being made up of worthless, though not always harmless, ingredients, they may well be "cheap;" but, in the end, they are dear. The most reliable medicines are costly, and can be retained at moderate prices, only when the manufacturing chemist handles the raw materials in large quantities. It is economy, therefore,

To Use

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the valuable components of which are imported, wholesale, by the J. C. Ayer Co. from the regions where these articles are richest in medicinal properties.

"It is a wonder to me that any other than Ayer's Sarsaparilla has a show in the market. If people consulted their own interest, they would never use any other; for it is not only the best, but, on account of its concentrated strength and purity, it is the most economical."—James F. Duffy, Druggist, Washington St., Providence, R. I.

Dr. A. L. Almond, Druggist, Liberty, Va., writes: "Leading physicians in this city prescribe

Ayer's

Sarsaparilla. I have sold it for eighteen years, and have the highest regard for its healing qualities."

"Although the formula is known to the trade, there can be no successful imitation of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Without having the enormous facilities of the J. C. Ayer Co., it is impossible for other parties to put together such valuable ingredients, at the low cost of Ayer's.

Sarsaparilla

tions.—Mark A. Jones, 50 years a druggist,

Letters from the Laity.

S. S. Jones, Oneonta City, La.
The lumber is on the ground for our new church. Our pastor Rev.
F. M. Lashington is doing a good work.

James A. Burns, Pearlington, Miss.
On Sunday August 30, the church at Bay St. Louis had a grand rally.
O. H. Flowers, T. C., and M. M.
Peters, assisted by Revs. H. May and Raphael of Pass Christian with their local preachers, the pastor in charge at Wolf River, the Rev.
Moseley of Bay St. Louis, together with their congregations united in the rally. Result $11.72. Rev. O.
H. Flowers is doing much good.

Fannie C. Moore, Monro, Miss.
Our third quarterly conference of the Trenton circuit, was held at Shady Grove M. E. Church, Aug.
29, 30, Rev. J. Campbell Presiding Elder was present. We are always glad to see the elder. Reports showed the circuit in better condition than ever before; 19 souls added to the church, and we hope to report 2 new churches by the fourth quarterly conference. We have a working pastor in the person of Rev. M. A. Hobson. He is loved by all. Paid Elder $8.00; pastor $17.15; SOUTHWESTERN taken by thirteen families.

W. H. Simpson, Fort Smith, Ark.
Rev. B. J. Griffin is doing a good work here for the church and Sunday school. I will do I can for the SOUTHWESTERN here.

Anna Wallace, Friendship, Tenn.
I am glad to know I am connected with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Whenever I get one of the church papers I always see what the old church is doing for our people. I am not a subscriber for the SOUTHWESTERN, but I love to read it. Our pastor tried to get some subscribers but they seemed to not understand what good news was in it. We had a revival which resulted in seven converts, among them my husband, after twenty-eight years a sinner. Our pastor is Rev. F. L. Yeargin. He is loved by all the people. I am going to subscribe soon for the paper. Our pastor's wife has been very sick, but is up again.

(Subscribe at once and be an example for others.—Ed.)

S. H. Carman, Enola, Miss.
Thank God we have our church organized on this island. Rev. S.
J. Wood our pastor, broke the ice for Christ and Methodism. This is the richest place in Yazoo county.
Our pastor is a noble preacher, and everybody loves him. We have 9 members, and I think if we can get 20 subscribers for our paper, we will have the best country church in this country. Every one that reads the SOUTHWESTERN joins our church. The SOUTH-WESTERN is the best preacher I have ever heard in my life. I have been taking it ever since I belonged to the church. Rev. F. G. Milburn was with us on the first Sunday in August, and preached a splendid sermon.

L. C. Edwards, Millen, Ga.
Our third quarterly conference convened at Trinity M. E. Church, August 22, 23, Rev. J. Watts Presiding Elder in the chair. The charge is progressing rapidly. On Sunday Elder Watts preached an earnest and reviving sermon.

P. Hirth, Browns Wells, Miss.
Our protracted meeting has just closed with a grand success at St.
Morace M. E. Church. Our beloved pastor Rev. J. H. Cook has done wonderful work here, 21 souls were converted and added to the church.
Our ex-pastor, H. Clay, was with us and preached one of his soul-stirring sermons. His visits will be long remembered among the people. Brother Cook is the right man in the right place. May God bless him and crown him with success. Our Presiding Elder, B. L.
Crumpp was with us on the 15th and 16th of August, and held his quarterly conference on Saturday and preached at 11 o'clock on Sunday and administered the sacrament.

Our Children's Legion. For Our Boys and Girls.

BY UNCLE CEPHAS.

Dear Uncle Cephas: This is my first letter to the Children's Legion. I am a little girl 12 years old. We take the SOUTHWESTERN, and I take great pleasure in reading it. I am a member of the church and Sunday school. We have a good Sunday school and good teachers. I try to learn something every Sunday from them. School will soon open then I want to go back again. My studies are sixth reader, Swinton's word book, geography, grammar, history and arithmetic. I take great pleasure in learning my lessons. Our pastor is Rev. H. James. Pray for me.

Your Niece,
CORINNE EUBANKS.

Clinton, La.

Dear Uncle Cephas: I am a little girl 11 years old. My father and mother belong to the M. E. Church. I am a member of the Sabbath school. We have a very large Sunday school. Rev. H. Golden is our superintendent, and we love him very much.

Your Niece,
DORA H. HILL.

Rosenath, Miss.

Dear Uncle Cephas: It has been some time since I have written to your grand old paper. I have been thinking of writing, but it seems so sad for me to say that I am a poor motherless girl. The last time I wrote my dear mother was living, but now she is dead and gone. She died on the 25th day of November, 1890. Some of the cousins can sympathize with me, and know how heartbreaking it is, but there is a chance for me to see her again, not in this world but in heaven. So all of us who have mothers in heaven ought to live right, and serve God with all our heart's so we can see them again. There are seven of us. Uncle Cephas pray that we may live and walk right before them and help them to turn and come on the Lord's side. Papa is the preacher here. He also takes the SOUTHWESTERN. Your Niece, MINNIE E. HUNTER.

Whitesville, Ga.

Dear Uncle Cephas: We have a nice Sunday school. Our teacher is Mrs. Eliza Davis. Our pastor is Rev. R. R. O'Neal, and we all love him. We have a nice every day school. Our teacher is Mrs. McCansel. She is a good teacher. I have four brothers and six sisters. My father takes the SOUTHWESTERN. My father, mother, two brothers and five sisters belong to the M. E. Church. I am a little girl 15 years old.

Your Niece,
ELLA ARNOLD.

Jonesboro, Ga.

Dear Uncle Cephas: My mother takes the SOUTHWESTERN, and I enjoy reading the letters from my little cousins. I am a girl 14 years of age. Our protract d meeting went on two weeks. We had a nice time. I professed religion then. I go to Sunday school every Sunday. Our day school has closed. We have a good preacher Rev. N. J. Johnson, and we all love him. I have three sisters and two brothers. The two oldest ones belong to the church. Uncle Cephas, if I never see you I hope that I will meet you in heaven. Pray for me.

Your Niece,
MARY L. WASHINGTON.

Hubbard City, Tex.

An Unprecedented Offer!

We have made arrangements with the Chicago Manufacturing Company to supply one of their first-class Singer machines for only $14 cash. We will order a machine like the cut here shown, and send the SOUTHWESTERN a full year besides! It is a handsome oil-polished walnut, of latest design, Gothic cover, with beautiful panels, four end drawers and a swing drawer, nickel-plated, and warranted five years.

Each Machine is furnished with the following equipment: One Foot Hemmer, One Oil Can with Oil, One Gauge, and Screw, One Extra Check Spring, One Package of Needles, Five Bobbins, One Tuck, One Foot Ruffler, One Set of Plate Hemmers, four different widths up to seven-eighths of an inch, One Binder and One Thread Cutter. The Improved Tension and Thread Liberator is used on this Machine. The manufacturers offer to refund the money if purchaser is not fully satisfied with the machine.

We receive many letters inquiring about the sewing machine premium, and how to obtain it. In order that all may understand the matter, we state in addition to the announcement, that remittances should be made to Hunt & Eaton, 139 Poydras street, either by check, money order, or by express, naming the nearest or most convenient freight depot to which it is to be sent. Then we order the factory in Chicago to ship the machine. The company ships it, and receives from the railroad a bill of lading which, with the warranty, is sent to us, and which we send to the subscriber. This bill of lading is good and sufficient evidence that the machine has been forwarded, and holds the railroad company responsible for its safe delivery at the station named as its destination, and in due time, save unavoidable delays. In case of its loss the railroad which caused its loss is responsible, under the laws of the land. If not arriving in due time, show the bill of lading to the station agent and he will look it up. Don't give up the bill of lading, but it may be shown to the railroad agent. All orders are sent the same day as received, and the bill of lading is sent to the subscriber the same day we get it. We started this scheme with a view to helping our patrons, and shall carefully and faithfully carry out our part of the agreement in every case.

Consumption Surely Cured.
To the Editor:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for consumption. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. Address. Respectfully,
T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St. N. Y.

The Alexandria Academy.

Preparatory to New Orleans University.

Will begin its third session September 28, 1891. Course of study same as that of New Orleans University. It is the aim of the Institution to be second to none in thoroughness and practicality, hence a good and experienced corps of teachers will be in charge. The faculty consists of three teachers: Prof. B. M. Hubbard, A. B. (a graduate of New Orleans University) is the popular principal. Students are carefully prepared for the University, at a reasonable rate. Special attention given to penmanship, vocal and instrumental music. Vocal music free. Instrumental music, $2 per month of four weeks. Tuition, from the first to the fourth grade, including fourth reader, 75c. From the fourth grade through the academic course, $1 per month of four weeks. Latin, Greek, Algebra and Geometry are taught with much proficiency. Board can be had in private families at reasonable rates. All bills strictly in advance. We want 20 students this session.

Prof. B. M. HUBBARD, A. B., Principal.

Cuticura Soap
For Bad Pimples, Red Rough Hands and Baby Humors.
BAD COMPLEXIONS, WITH PIMPLES, blotchy, oily skin, red, rough hands, with chaps, painful, sore ends and chapped nails, and simple Baby Humors prevented and cured by "Cuticura Soap." A marvelous beautifier of world-wide celebrity, it is simply incomparable as a skin purifying soap, unequalled for the toilet and without a rival for the Nursery. Absolutely pure, delicately medicated, exquisitely perfumed, "Cuticura Soap" produces the whitest, clearest skin and softest hands, and prevents inflammation and clogging of the pores, the cause of pimples, blackheads and most complexional disfigurements, while it admits of no comparison with the best of other skin soaps, and rivals in delicacy the most noted and expensive of toilet and nursery soaps. Sale greater than the combined sales of all other skin soaps. Sold throughout the world. Price, 25c.

A LIFE SAVED!

READ THE TWO STATEMENTS

An Extraordinary Case!

NEW ORLEANS, LA., Nov. 22, 1890.
Last April I was attacked with Chagres Fever, a Spanish Honduras, and was given up to die by two physicians. During that spell and since I have used a pound of quinine and quantities of other medicines without any benefit. From three to four days every week I have been down and have suffered untold agonies. Between these spells I could scarcely walk more than two blocks at a time. I did not expect to live through the coming winter. Ten days ago I commenced using Dr. King's Royal Gelmeter. I have had no fever since. All the symptoms have entirely disappeared. I have no pain or trouble of any kind. Am gaining strength very fast. Can walk miles at a time. My sudden and rapid improvement is simply wonderful. Gelmeter has been a God-send to me. I can not say too much in its praise. Any who wish to do so may call on me.
DANIEL PAPFON,
421 Jersey Street.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1, 1891.
My improvement continued, and soon after writing the above statement I was able to go to work and have been working ever since. My health is now perfect. I never felt better in my life. I give this testimony gladly, because I know that Gelmeter saved my life.
DANIEL PAPFON.

Chagres Fever is known to be not only a most dangerous form of sickness, but also very difficult to cure. Gelmeter has been tried on a number of cases. In every known instance it has cured quickly and completely. It has a similar record as a remedy for Swamp Fever and Malarial troubles of all kinds. Properly used, it is the quickest and most unfailing remedy for Fevers of all kinds, Dyspepsia, Debility, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Diarrhea, Dysentery and all diseases of the Blood and Skin.

These claims are sustained by evidence from thousands of the best people in the country, and the evidence multiply in our midst every day.
For sale by druggists and country merchants, and at the Gelmeter office, 202 Canal street, New Orleans. For full information, circulars, etc., call on or address Kit Williams, Agent, 202 Canal street. $1 bottle; six bottles for $5.

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

FILLMORE, Dubuque Co., Ia., Sept. 1890.
Miss K. Finnigan writes: My mother and sister used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for neuralgia. They are both perfectly well now and never tired of praising the Tonic.

Twenty-one Years.
writes the Rev. M. J. Fallis of Freeland, Pa., January 18, 1889, was CATAL. BRUISE suffering from fits and convulsions; she had three or four attacks every week, tried many remedies and doctors, without any relief, but since she began to use Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic she is able to work and make her own living. Another case is that of M. G. GAGNER, of the same place. He is 16 years old, had fits since his 9th year so severe that we thought several times he would die, tried different doctors and medicines without relief; but since he used Koenig's Tonic he had only slight attacks, which were probably caused by violent exercise.

GOLDEN TEXT.
Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. (Prov. 4. 26)

Connecting Links—The first portion of the Proverbs of Solomon is highly poetical; it has beautiful descriptions of Wisdom represented as a lady of rare attractiveness, who spreads a hospitable feast, and invites the youth of the city to partake of it. After this and similar scenes comes our lesson.

QUESTIONS FOR HOME STUDY

1. The Path of the Wicked, v. 13-17.

How should we treat good advice?

Why?

Into whose way should we not go?

If urged to do wrong, what should we do? (Prov. 1. 10.)

What four things are we advised to do?

What reason is given for this advice?

What is the food and drink of wicked men?

2. The Path of the Just, v. 18, 19.

To what is the path of the just likened?

What is the way of the wicked like?

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON.

Where in this lesson are we taught:

1. To heed good counsel?

2. To shun wicked ways?

3. To imitate good examples?

HOME WORK FOR YOUNG BE-REANS.

Who wrote the Book of Proverbs?

Find a place in the Proverbs in which Solomon tells of the evils of wine drinking?

THE LESSON CATECHISM.

[For the entire school.]

1. Into whose path must we not enter? The path of the wicked.

2. What are we to do? Avoid it, pass not by it.

3. What is the path of the wicked like? It is as darkness.

4. What becomes of them? They stumble.

5. What is the path of the just like? The shining light of the sun.

6. What is in waiting for them? The perfect day.

Doctrinal suggestion.—Growth in grace.

It's sometimes said patent medicines are for the ignorant. The doctors foster this idea. "The people," we're told, "are mostly ignorant when it comes to medical science." Suppose they are! What a sick man needs is not knowledge, but a cure, and the medicine that cures is the medicine for the sick. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures the "do believes" and the "don't believe." There's no hesitance about it, no "if" nor "possibly." It says—"I can cure you, only do as I direct." Perhaps it fails occasionally. The makers hear of it when it does, because they never keep the money when the medicine fails to do good. Suppose the doctors went on that principle. (We beg the doctors' pardon. It wouldn't do!)

Choking, sneezing and every other form of catarrh in the head, is radically cured by Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Fifty cents. Sold by druggists everywhere.

We want to get a copy of the SOUTHWESTERN into every Methodist home! Will the pastor help us? A united rally within the next sixty days will insure us a circulation of 15,000. Who will start first?

I HAVE had catarrh for twenty years, and used all kinds of remedies without relief. Mr. Smith, druggist, of Little Falls, recommended Ely's Cream Balm. The effect of the first application was magical, it allayed the inflammation and the next morning my head was as clear as a bell. I am convinced its use will effect a permanent cure. It is soothing and pleasant, and I strongly urge its use by all sufferers.—Geo. Terry, Little Falls, N. Y.

Vacation is over. Let every one prepare for the opening of the schools. Go in the first day; and put in a solid year's work.

After all, the best way to know the real merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla, is to try it yourself. Be sure to get Hood's.

St. Louis, Jan. 9, 1872.—Messrs. J. & C. Maguire. No remedy can be more effective for complaints of the bowels, such as Cholera, Diarrhea, Dysentery, etc., than Maguire's Remedy. I have always found it such. P. J. DESMET, S. J.

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND PHOSPHATES OF LIME & SODA IRON.

For the Cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Pneumonia, Influenza, Bronchitis, Debility, Wasting Diseases and Scrofulous Humors.

Invalids need no longer dread to take that great specific for Consumption, Asthma and threatening Coughs, Cod Liver Oil and Lime. As prepared by Dr. Wilbor it is robbed of the nauseating taste, and also embodies a preparation of the Phosphates, giving nature the very article required to add the healing qualities of the Oil, and to re-create where disease has destroyed. It also forms a remarkable tonic, and will cause weak and debilitated persons to become strong and robust. It should be kept in every family for instant use on the first appearance of Coughs, or Irritation of the Lungs. Manufactured only by A. B. Wilbor, Chemist, Boston, Mass. Sold by all Druggists.

Editorial Notes.

And if sometimes the way be rough
And steep,

Be heavy for the grief He sends to me,

Or at my waking I would only weep,

Let me be mindful that these things must be,

To work His blessed will until He come

And take my hand and lead me safely home.

HELP the Citizens' Committee of this city in its efforts to raise money to test the "Jim Crow" car law.

THE detailed program of the great Ecumenical Conference, which opens in Washington, D. C., Oct. 7-20, came too late for this issue. It spreads out a real feast of good things.

THE presidents of all the Republican clubs in this city have issued an address calling upon their followers to register, so as to be prepared to take part in the party's primaries and in the next general election.

IN a personal note, the Rev. C. C. Scott, Spartanburg, S. C., who has just returned from Europe, says: "I am proud of the SOUTHWESTERN, and I admire the manliness of your character, as I see it evidenced in your editorial utterances. I am with you 'tooth and toenail' on the colored bishop question."

HIS friends will be glad to learn that on or about October 1, Dr. G. T. A. Walker will open a strictly private office, well arranged and suitably situated, for treating all cases in the most private manner, at 133 S. Boulevard street, opposite his residence, in Baton Rouge, La.

CONFERENCE is coming. Have you raised your benevolent collections in full; and are you now prepared to settle every cent due the SOUTHWESTERN and the Book Concern? No pastor who fails in these elementary principles should expect the approval of the Bishop and the words, "come up higher."

John W. Johnson, a colored man, was violently set upon by three white men in this city last Saturday night. He was attacked with knife and pistol. He fatally stabbed Emanuel DeRosa, one of his antagonists, who died within five minutes. Notwithstanding the fact that it was a clear case of self-defense, wherein a lone Negro was attacked by several white men "because he was a nigger," some of the more excitable young men of the vicinity threatened to "lynch the nigger." Better judgment, however, prevailed.

Quarto-Centennial Address.

In Honor of the Organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in South Carolina.

[Delivered by Rev. A. G. Townsend, A. M., at Bethel M. E. Church, Charleston, S. C., April 3, 1891.]

The address was an interesting and masterly effort. In the course of his able address he said:

To my conception our work is of a comprehensive nature, embracing directly the moral, or spiritual, intellectual, and material elevation of a race cursed by the degenerating vices of two centuries and a half of abject slavery in America, and remotely the evangelization and civilization of our unfortunate brethren in benighted Africa and the priest ridden islands of the sea.

Our work is to exalt Christ and lift humanity Godward; to lift man from the deepest and most revolting defilements to the summit of moral excellence; to give dexterous cunning to his daft hands, stimulate the latent energies of his proud but dormant mind, to overthrow the antagonisms growing out of a deep, active and malignant prejudice and arrest effectually the insidious encroachments of that mother of harlots, the Roman Catholic Church.

At this point we may very fittingly enquire, "Who is sufficient for these things?"

For twenty-five years we have assiduously applied ourselves to this stupendous work with the vigor and diligence of heroes and have enjoyed the satisfaction of seeing the most marvelous progress made by any people since the beginning of history.

What work presents more magnificent possibilities than that we have to do? What work calls for the exercise of greater wisdom and adaptability and more unselfish consecration than that to which we have been called and set apart?

Truly, may it be said:

"Tis what might fill an angel's heart,
And filled a Savior's hand."

Much has been accomplished during the past twenty-five years, but immeasurably more remains to be done.

Our hope for the work lies in the church, the school house, the workshop, and the graveyard.

Our church, true to her birth-right, has next to the witness of the Holy Spirit attached chief importance to knowledge, insisting that "to know God and Jesus Christ whom he has sent is eternal life" and constantly exhorting its adherents to "grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

As a distinct branch of the Christian Catholic Brotherhood, the Methodist Episcopal Church was founded in a prominent institution of learning by the century sainted John Wesley, a man who easily occupies the chief place for consecrated piety and refined intellect among the most illustrious men of the eighteenth century.

Methodism from its incipency has advocated and insisted on the intelligent worship of the Supreme Being.

That ignorance is the mother of devotion is an exploded theory that belongs to the class of shocking and effete superstitions of the Roman Catholic hierarchy.

The belief of our church is that the more cultured the human being becomes the more comprehensive is his knowledge of things human and Divine. On this very account the General Conference, our chief legislative body, has prescribed a full course of required studies for entrance into the ministry of our church in addition to the gifts and graces evidencing the Divine call. She believes and insists that the pastor's lips should keep knowledge. And further, that the people may become more intelligent worshippers of the Divine Being she establishes and maintains at enormous cost, wherever practicable, institutions of learning for her numerous followers.

The pulpit is a throne of great power. Its influence over the masses for good is incalculable. It is therefore of highest importance that those who occupy the pulpit be not only devoted to God as blind zealots, but that they be also devoted to those studies and practices that will best acquaint the few with a saving knowledge of God.

The minister of the Gospel must not only proclaim the truth as it is in Jesus; but in its defense must combat and by its irrefragable power confute the gross errors of the unfeeling materialist, the blatant infidel, the scoffing atheist, and the unscrupulous, officious, and insinuating Roman Catholic priest.

A complete education is indispensable to the thorough equipment of the Gospel minister for his exalted station.

It will scarcely be denied by any thoughtful reader of history (whatsoever may be claimed for the so-called ignorant Gaililee fisherman selected by Christ for the promulgation of his glorious Gospel), or for the heroic pioneers of Methodism that the most effective and ameliorating christian work resulting in permanent good to men and the ever increasing propagation of the christian religion, has been accomplished by entirely consecrated men of the highest intellectual culture.

In confirmation of this proposition I need but mention the Apostle Paul, Martin Luther, and John Wesley.

Education dissipates darkness and vitalizes dead powers and means indeed as is repeatedly claimed more power and a larger life.

It must be in touch with divinity and confirm the claim of St. John's saying; "In him (Christ) was life; and the light was the light of men." That was the true Light which lighteth every man that cometh into the world; and further, the saying of the Master himself, who said: "I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly."

So impressed was our church with the need of christian education for the accomplishment of the work already outlined, that its thoughts materialized in the organization of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, which, under the wise and energetic management of Bishop Walden and the zealous and indefatigable secretary Rust, has wrought a marvelous work in the South.

I would not minify and I can not exaggerate howsoever greatly I may magnify the magnificent work already done, that which is now being carried forward, and that which is being projected by the wise and beneficent management of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society.

At strategic points in many parts of this sunny Southland, flourishing literary and industrial institutions of high grade have been founded and run by this society during its now rapidly closing first quarter-centennial period of its history.

It was of almost simultaneous organization with our own conference.

Its influence for good during its brief historic period is simply inestimable.

To say that we appreciate the work accomplished very feebly expresses our profound gratitude therefor. In saying this I express, I think, the sentiments of all the worthy recipients of its munificence. The noble men under whose guidance the society has operated have been wise in planning and energetic in executing their work.

We look with widely increasing interest and constantly deepening gratitude upon the marvelous and magnificent work that is being done by this society for the christian training of the hearts, heads, and hands of the youth of this caste cursed Southland.

The society aims at the symmetrical development of the whole man, in order that he may be thoroughly fitted for the practical duties of life.

Notwithstanding its past glorious achievements, there are increasing and imperative demands upon it for the occupancy and development of much outlying and unoccupied territory.

The funds received yearly are wholly inadequate to meet the present pressing demands upon the society; how much more so, to undertake new work.

It greatly needs and asks our ready and generous help.

Why should we hesitate to accept the apportionment requested of our conference and give our most liberal assistance in raising every dollar of it?

Be it said to our shame that our contributions to this society in the past have been very meager.

Graduates from its schools are winning laurels for themselves in the learned professions and in industrial pursuits in many parts of the South in spite of the prevalent intense, but slowly abating color prejudice of this section.

The christian and industrial education idea of this society has done, is doing, and will do more towards solving the much talked of race problem than anything else under the sun.

This society has the key to the solution and the Lord has commissioned the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church to solve the problem fully and satisfactorily.

It has had twenty-five years of glorious success and now we gladly hear and heed the clarion call for a grateful jubilee.

God grant unto this chief benevolent society of the grand old church of heroic achievements, a millennium of ever-increasing success in lifting humanity Godward.

The Baker Theological Institute and Claflin University have done more for Methodism in South Carolina than can be estimated by human power.

Boys and girls that without these might have grown to physical maturity with dwarfed intellects and obtuse moral sensibilities, have, because of them, developed into beautiful and symmetrical manhood and womanhood and are the joy and admiration of the communities blessed with their presence and labors.

We can not too highly appreciate our church schools or do too much for their prosperity.

I only refrain from a more extended reference to our own Claflin, because one of her worthy and honored alumni, Elder Minns, has this day in your presence been so lavish of praise. Permit me, with a hearty amen, to what he has so well said, to omit further allusions to that excellent school.

Who can measure the influence of the Gammon Theological Seminary under its present consecrated, cultured, zealous, and energetic faculty? Who can tell the good that is being done there for the development of our work in this country?

Grandison and O'Connell at Greensboro, N. C., Emory at Hot Springs, Ark., Hibbler in Miss., Mason, Lindsay, Wragg and others in Georgia, Brown in Alabama, and our own Coit, are admirable ex-ponents of this excellent school of the prophets.

May God's choicest blessings continually rest on this school.

Look at the unique work that is going on at Bennett Seminary, Greensboro, N. C., under the excellent and commendable control of a Negro president and faculty.

By a seemingly magic power the record of the present year exceeds that of all the previous years of its history.

With the grasp of a master, President Grandison has taken hold and infused new life into every department of the school, and has inspired the numerous patrons and friends thereof with hopeful and restful confidence.

Rev. C. N. Grandison, (whose name by interpretation is: "Come Negroes Grand-enr is on us at Bennett"), occupies a place of singular prominence in the history of the Methodist Episcopal Church, being the first and only Negro president of one of her prominent schools. May he be long spared to carry forward the good work, and may God grant unto Bennett a millennium of prosperity.

I fail to see how we can in any way eliminate education from our work.

As so much has been recently said about the moral and intellectual fitness of Methodist ministers for their high and holy calling, because of what Prof. Washington and Bishop Payne have published to the world, you naturally expect some reference to that controversy in my address, I suppose.

What shall I say? Shall I, as some, deny outright that there is a particle of truth in the allegation, on the ground that Prof. Washington has no acquaintance with two-thirds of the Methodist ministers, and that Bishop Payne criminated himself for allowing such a state of thing to continue so long, when he could have used his influence against it?

Shall I admit the truth of their allegation or shall I express no opinion?

To deny outright might be to palliate a palpable but shocking condition of things. To admit that their allegation is true, would bring on my devoted head a flood of condemnation. To express no opinion would be unmanly.

Had Prof. Washington no endorsement by Bishop Payne, I would dismiss the subject without consideration, because Prof. Washington's knowledge of the men and their fitness is very limited; but can we say this of the venerable Bishop Payne? By no means. He is eminent for piety, veracity and scholarship and has had large experience among the men whom he has denounced.

Shall we believe him or not?

Nobody denies that he is a competent judge of those among whom he has had experience; and it may be he spoke only of those.

Eliminating other branches of the Methodist fraternity and permitting him to speak ex cathedra concerning his own, why should we feel umbrage?

He represents a painful and deplorable condition of things and we can only question his discretion in giving publicity thereto. How dare we, not knowing the facts in the case deny or confirm?

We do, however, know that there is room for great improvement in our own fraternity, and it does not help us to claim that a similar condition of things may be found in other churches and other races. It is no mitigation of our moral faults and intellectual defects that others are alike guilty. It is not sufficient before our righteous Judge that we be as others; but that we be found blameless, "without spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing;"

that we be holy and without blemish.

Is this our condition? If not, our duty is plain.

Judged by the highest standards of morality and scholarship, are we what we ought to be? Judge ye.

Do we live blameless the husband of one wife, forsaking all others, cleaving only and lovingly unto her constantly till death? Do we pay our just debts without baffling and embarrassing our indulgent and trustful creditors?

Do we walk uprightly, work righteousness, speak the truth in our hearts, backbite not with our tongues, or pens, do no evil to our neighbors, take up no reproach against our neighbors, despise the vile, honor them that fear the Lord, swear to our own hurt and change not, put not out our money to usury, take no reward against the innocent?

Do we abstain wholly from intoxicating drinks and tobacco even after taking our solemn ministerial vows, and observe scrupulously the ethical code throughout?

Are we as diligent students even of the Holy Scriptures as we ought to be? Judge ye.

I will neither incenpate nor exonerate any. Let him who is without fault rebut the accusers.

Let us put more of our children into the workshop, and in time we shall be able to control strong corporations that will furnish employment for them.

The graveyard will help our work by receiving as soon as possible the old white and black fogies, who Rip van Winkle like have been in comatose sleep the past twenty-five years and have no apparent knowledge of the wonderful transitions through which the races have passed, and who seem to think and act as though things were in statu quo ante-bellum.

The educative influence of the christian press can not be measured.

Let me exhort my readers to a more liberal patronage of our church papers.

For the SOUTHWESTERN.
The Spread of Methodism Among the Colored People of the South.

VERITAS.

What are the fundamental reasons for the Methodist Episcopal Church re-entering those States whence she has been excluded? No one either witnessing the thrilling facts or studying them now without bias, will fail to agree that it was for the moral, spiritual and economic welfare of the Freedman.

Furthermore, since sympathy and principle were such large factors in this movement it was not strange that white racial affinities and christian conscience should lead these devoted men to help the loyal whites of the South. These two elements have been "scattered and peeled" by the terrible cross fires of the surging battle lines as they zizzaged over their once prosperous fields and peaceful homes.

It would have been criminal to have failed to aid the one or to neglect the other, if the latter could be aided without crippling the agencies designed for the former. But the most needy and greatest wronged surely has the first and strongest claim, while both called for our fostering care, and churchly aid. These efforts should never have fortified the latter in the prejudices against the former; much less to oppose the original purpose of our denominational activities.

Yet when supporters were needed to overthrow the pronounced policy of our church these new accessions were at once available

Letters from the Districts.

South New Orleans District, Louisiana Conference.

PIERRE LANDRY, P. E.

My Dear Brethren: Our financial showing at the late session of our district conference, at Thibodaux, August 28, was good, but if we would reach the point in view, there must be no relaxation. Let us set out for another mighty pull, a pull altogether; and let the rally cry be, "Settlement in full at our Fourth Quarterly Conference."

For the purpose of an accurate report at the fourth quarterly conference, by the boards of trustees and Sunday schools, preachers in charge and other proper officers will please have their meetings before the session of the fourth quarterly conference. To avoid mistakes and delays at the approaching session of our Annual Conference, preachers in charge will be provided with their statistical blanks at the fourth quarterly conference, when same can be filled out with care.

Members of all church benevolent committees are requested to be present at the fourth quarterly conference.

Nashville District, Tennessee Conference

JESSE P. PRICE.

The good Lord has enabled me and my brethren, with their people, thus far, to have one of the most successful year's labor we have ever experienced. We have held two district conferences and two Sunday school institutes. The Epworth League is organized on nearly every charge and is doing well. None of the preachers have died this year.

Farmington—W. Ellison pastor. Has done good work this year. He has three very flourishing Sunday schools and has improved his churches somewhat.

Flat Rock—J. R. F. Summerhill pastor. Labored faithfully here for three quarters, and on account of suffering had to leave his work, after which I appointed Rev. D. C. Ransom, local preacher, who is doing well.

Fox Camp—S. Knight, pastor. At first Bro. Knight seemed not to have much fruits from his labor, but now he is doing a good work. He has had a splendid revival. His people are following him. This circuit is now doing well.

Hillsboro Circuit—J. R. Reasonover pastor. He is doing a good work. Is teaching day school and has organized the Epworth League.

McMinnville—J. W. Richmond pastor. Has proven to be a good pastor. This is his first year here. When he came here his church had just burned down, and people scattered, but by the help of God and his pleasant and calm management, he has brought his work up and is building his church again. He had a good revival, which resulted in 25 conversions and many added to the church. His people all love him. We held our district conference here with grand results. I have held four quarters here with grand results.

McMinnville Circuit—J. C. Wade pastor. He has done hard work. Murfreesboro Station—C. B. Wilson pastor. This is his third year here, and has proven his best. Bro. Wilson is much loved. They have paid their assessments. He has organized the Epworth League. The Sunday school is doing well.

Murfreesboro Circuit—J. Pickett pastor. He is one of our old heroes, is true, and is still doing good work. He has organized the Epworth League. They have paid their Elder's assessment, and came up with other collections.

Linsden Hill Mission—James Price pastor. He has done good work. This is Bro. Price's first year here, and he has paid some of the debts and improved his church. He has added 29 members and has had 20 conversions.

Seay's Chapel—W. H. Vangh Pastor. Is a splendid preacher and hard worker. This is his first year at this place. He is building a parsonage, had 80 conversions, and added 90 to the church.

Thompson Chapel—J. Braden pastor. This charge is in connection with the Central Tennessee College, which has had its best success this year. He has had good revivals and good meetings, and added several to the church this year.

Nolensville Circuit—G. C. Harden pastor. He has been much embarrassed with sickness in his family, yet he trusted in the Lord and took courage. He has greatly brought up this circuit. Conversions this year 45, and several additions. He has two Epworth Leagues organized and two Sunday schools.

Sparta Sta.—A. D. Scott pastor. He has improved his church and dedicated the same in connection with the fourth quarterly conference. Bro. Scott has done good work this year.

Sparta Circuit—T. Allen pastor. Everybody loves to hear him preach. He has done a good work on his circuit this year.

Stone River Circuit—W. Dillard pastor. He knows how to lead his people. Is building a church and has done a good year's work. He has organized an Epworth League.

Shelbyville—A. P. Blakemore pastor. He has improved his church nicely. This has been his best year of church work.

Spencer Circuit—P. R. Woodson pastor. He has done a good work, is loved by all his people, and is one of our future young men.

Tullahoma—J. W. Kensch pastor. He has done a great work here this year. Conversions 22, and 30 odd added to the church. Bro. Kensch bought a new church and had it moved on the church ground. It is valued at about $2000.

Beach Grove, Dillard's Mill and Manchester—J. D. Davidson pastor. He has built one church and improved others. He has taken in nearly 100 members and had 40 conversions. We have had about 450 conversions this year on my district. My preachers have worked like beavers, although only about half paid. Their wives and children, with mine, have staid by their husbands and fathers in every need of the church work.

Proceedings of the Greenville (S. C.) District Epworth League Convention.

REV. E. B. BURROUGHS.

Pursuant to call, twenty-five delegates, representing the various stations and circuits of the Greenville district, met in the John Wesley M. E. Church, Greenville, S. C., on the 14th and 15th inst., for the purpose of organizing a District Epworth League Convention.

The devotional exercises were conducted by the Presiding Elder, the Rev. I. E. Lowery, A. M., after which an address of welcome was delivered by the pastor, the Rev. E. B. Burroughs, to which a reply was made by the Rev. L. Arthur.

A temporary organization was effected with the Rev. I. E. Lowery, A. M., president, and the Rev. E. B. Burroughs secretary.

A committee on credentials, consisting of Revs. L. Arthur, W. S. Thompson and B. Robertson, was appointed.

While awaiting the report of the committee, the Rev. O. C. Scott, A. M., delivered a forcible, eloquent and highly instructive address on "The Rise, Progress and Future Prospects of the Epworth League."

The committee on credentials reported the following as being regularly elected delegates: Rev. I. E. Lowery, E. B. Burroughs, Mrs. Maria C. Davis, L. Arthur, O. C. Scott, F. W. Vance, E. D. Littlejohn, B. F. Millan, B. Robertson, C. L. Lindsay, W. H. Greer, G. P. Miller, C. E. Cherry, W. S. Thompson, Mrs. R. L. Morris, Miss O. J. Pickinpack, S. A. King, W. H. Jones, J. C. Martin, Fred Johnson, J. H. Priestly, and J. R. Rosemond.

The following permanent officers were elected: president, I. E.

Lowery, first vice-president, C. O. Scott; second vice-president, L. Arthur; secretary, E. B. Burroughs; assistant secretary, W. S. Thompson; treasurer, Mrs. Maria C. Davis; directors, F. W. Vance, Benj. Robertson, B. F. Millan.

The committee on constitution and by-laws, consisting of E. B. Burroughs, E. D. Littlejohn and F. W. Vance, submitted their report, which was adopted without division.

The election of six delegates to attend the Sixth General Conference District Epworth League Convention, to be held at Chattanooga, Tenn., in November next, resulted in the selection of I. E. Lowery, E. B. Burroughs, O. C. Scott, W. H. Jones, C. L. Lindsay, Miss C. J. Pickinpack. Reserves: Mrs. Maria C. Davis, F. W. Vance, Mrs. R. L. Morris.

In order to meet the expenses of the delegates to Chattanooga, the following assessments were made: Gaffney $1.50, Spartanburg $4, Willford $1.50, Greenville $5, Greenville Circuit $2, Greenville Mission $1, Williamston $2.50, Belton $2, Greenwood $2, Anderson Circuit $3, Anderson $4, Deep Creek $2, Seneca $1.50, Pendleton $1.50, Walhalla $1, Liberty $1.50, Easley $3, Marietta $2, Green $5, Reidville $1, Spartanburg Circuit $3, Coopers $2, Mulberry $3, Blacksburg $1, Yorkville $4, Yorkville Circuit $1.50, Clover $5, Rock Hill $2.50, Newberry $3.

The convention was full of enthusiasm and evinced a determination to not rest satisfied until every charge on the district has been regularly organized into a chapter.

At night Revs. L. Arthur and F. W. Vance delivered strong and telling addresses to a large, intelligent and appreciative audience.

The convention adjourned, to meet at the call of the president.

Cumberland River District Conference.

A. PHILLIPS, P. E.

The second district conference met in Gordonsville, Tenn., Aug. 25, with Rev. A. Phillips, Presiding Elder in the chair.

M. Williams was chosen secretary, with B. F. Whitley and A. L. Nelson assistants.

All the pastors, with one or two exceptions, were present the first day.

Rev. C. L. Seward is pastor at this place. The members of the conference found the pastor and his people with their doors and hearts open for their reception.

It was the first district conference ever held in that part of the district.

The people crowded the house day and night to see the business of the conference carried on.

Many came forward for prayer and two or three were converted every night.

They have a new church, which when finished will be a credit to the pastor and congregation.

The reports of the pastors showed that the salvation of souls and the benevolent causes of the church were well looked after.

The work of the Sunday schools is being carefully looked after.

Dr. J. W. Brown, of the (white) Missionary Baptist Church; Bro. White, of the Central Alabama Conference; and Elder A. F. Whitley, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, were introduced to the conference. They made encouraging addresses.

The usual vote of thanks was tendered the good people of Gordonsville for their hospitality; also to the Presiding Elder and pastor for their faithful work.

The next district conference is to be held in Cherry Valley, Tenn.

Tennessee River District.

J. N. STEPHENSON.

The second session of the Tennessee River district conference met at Dickson, Tenn., Sept. 2.

There having been some mistake as to the date of the conference, the attendance was small the first day, but on the second day the attendance was exceedingly large.

Presiding Elder J. B. Bradford was in the chair.

J. W. Stephenson and Dr. J. F. K. Moreland were elected secretaries.

The morning session was devoted to a theological institute.

Rev. S. W. Walker, of the A. M. E. Church, was introduced.

The Presiding Elder made his report and it showed a marked increase along his line of work. He spoke well of the pastors in their different fields of labor.

The pastors also made good reports.

Rev. G. C. Harden, the fraternal delegate from the Nashville district, was introduced and addressed the conference in an impressive Dr. Moreland responded in an able and pointed address.

The Sunday school superintendents, local preachers, district stewards and class leaders made good reports.

The reports from the pastors showed the material, numerical and spiritual growth of the district.

The following had their licenses renewed: M. Mardie, S. Jenkins, J. L. Wilson, P. Hughes, W. B. Boyd, W. Vanleer, H. Hollingsworth, W. T. Jordan, Wm. Hutton, P. R. Perkins, D. Hampton, Osborne Aden, W. D. Wells, S. B. Danley.

Resolutions were passed thanking the pastor, members and citizens for their hospitality; the railroads for reduced rates, and to the Presiding Elder for the able and impartial manner in which he presided over the conference.

The conference chose Lawrenceburg as its next seat.

G. W. Rieves, Oncocta, Ala.

My second quarterly conference was held by Rev. W. Prettyman, Presiding Elder. We have built a new church 30x30 feet. This makes my second year on the work and I have built three churches. The one that I built last is the best of all. Paid Presiding Elder Prettyman $11.25. This is one of the strongest charges on the district. Rev. W. Prettyman is the best Elder that has ever been on this part of the district.

T. S. Brown, Centerville, Ga.

Our camp meeting at Rock Spring Church was a glorious time. We had several conversions. Our third quarterly meeting was held by Presiding Elder M. M. Alston. Rev. J. A. Holiday of Atlanta, O. J. Samples, B. Boston of Athens, I. A. Hinesman of Swannee, Ga., were with us in the camp meeting. Elder Alston preached a soul-stirring sermon on Sunday. Collection $31.15.

H. B. Gladney, Tampico Circuit, Trim-cane, Miss.

Our second quarterly conference was held August 6, by Presiding Elder Sewell. We had good reports, which showed that the work is in a better condition than ever before. We are about to close our protracted meeting with 60 souls added to the church. Paid Presiding Elder $12, pastor $65.

N. Toole, Heidelberg, Miss.

My third quarter was held at Ellisville, Sept. 12, 13. Rev. J. M. Shumpert, Presiding Elder, was present. The reports showed the circuit spiritually and financially alive. 24 precious souls had been converted, and 6 had been received into full connection. Amount of money raised in the quarterly conference $32.10, for Presiding Elder $13.20, missions $7, Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society $6, Church Extension $1, episcopal fund 60c., tracts 25c., Sunday School Union 25c. The following persons presented the Willing Workers' Cards and money: Hnly Oleg $3.15, Mary Thigpen $2.25, Maggie Keller $1.20, Fanny Dace $2.80. Edneational cards: Lena Coleman $2, Lanra Toole $15, S. Terrel $1, A. Terrel $1, W. S. Jones $1, Elaney McCarty $1.

W. J. Holland, Gibson, Texas.

Elder Morgan has held our third quarterly conference. He preached three sermons that never will be forgotten. Raised for the Elder this quarter $13.45, pastor $5. Accessions this quarter 55, conversions 35, 15 children. Look out, for the Paris district is in the lead yet. If the good Lord lets me live until the 20th of October I intend to bring up all of my benevolent money.

A. S. Williams, Tuscaloosa, Ala., reports the close of his recent series of meetings, which resulted in 24 conversions and a general revival in every church interest. He was ably assisted by Rev. H. N. Brown, Presiding Elder, and Bros. Hurd, Washington and Potts. This much he has accomplished amid the severest opposition. Now the church is alive.

D. P. Shaw, Vaiden, Miss.

My third quarterly conference convened at Martin Grove M. E. Church, Sept. 12, 13, Rev. H. R. Revels, D.D., in the chair. The work is in a prosperous condition. The Elder preached on Sunday to a crowded house. Paid Elder $14.70. We will soon have our new church completed.

Thomas Wadkins, Gonzales, Texas.

This is my first year on the Gonzales charge. The Lord has blessed us with 35 converts this year, and 10 backsliders reclaimed. Rev. A. Brown held my third quarterly conference Sept. 12, 13, and preached two soul-reviving sermons. 77 persons partook of the Lord's Supper. Collection for the Presiding Elder $13, pastor $67.10; total raised during the quarter $92.60. We all love our Presiding Elder, Rev. H. Swann. Every thing is moving on nicely.

S. J. Wood, Green Hill, Miss.

I have been suffering much the last three weeks with malarial fever, and may have to leave my work. Malaria is quite bad here. Our picnic was a success. We were able to pay $139 on the debt that was standing against St. Paul M. E. Church.

B. J. Reddix, Campti, La.

Thursday evening, Sept. 10, a hail storm passed over Grand Ecure, just about 500 yards wide, and swept Mt. Zion M. E. Church to the ground. The hail was as large as plums. It ruined cotton, corn and potatoes. There are now several bales of cotton on the ground.

V. D. Jenkins, Greenville, Ga.

A glorious revival is in progress at our church here. The writer preached four times on Sunday, Sept. 13, with great success, spiritually and financially. Scores of people were turned away through the whole day, because they could not gain admittance.

Wm. Josey, Bellville Circuit, Texas.

Our third quarter was held Aug. 29, 30. Collection $15.75. Paid Presiding Elder $12.75. Our protracted meeting closed with 25 converts and 22 accessions. We have made improvements on the parsonage amounting to $59.

Washington Brooks, Wabbaseka, Ark.

The Lord has blessed me to build the M. E. Church here. The church is 28x46, and 17 feet to the ceiling. There are 4 churches here, but the M. E. Church is the best.

J. C. Allen, Valdosta, Ga.

Our third quarterly conference was held by Elder A. P. Melton, Aug. 29, 30. The writer preached at 11 a. m., and the Elder preached a soul-stirring sermon at 3 p. m. and at night. In spite of all opposition we had a full church on Sunday, and raised $5 for the Elder.

J. K. Comfort, Brandon, Miss.

We have finished our new church and will dedicate it on the first Sunday in October, and we want you to dedicate it if you can come. We have added 74 young converts to the church during the last four weeks. Our third quarterly conference was a success. 223 partook of the Lord's Supper. $65 worth of improvements have been done on the work this year.

Dr. Albert regrets that he will not be able to attend your dedication. He will be in Washington, D. C., at that time, to attend the Ecumenical Methodist Conference, which opens Oct. 7.—Ed.

G. W. Staples, Greenville, Tenn.

Our church and Sunday school was never so good as now. Attendance very good. Many of the very old people are regular attendants. We have a large young men's class. We have five classes and faithful teachers. On the fifth Sunday in August, Sunday school rally day, it was agreed that the teacher who raised the most money should be styled the Banner Teacher. Miss Addie Cannon having raised $2.63, the largest sum, she was declared the Banner Teacher, and her class the Banner Class. The entire church is getting along as never before.

James A. Arthur, Oakland and Brown's Chapel, Weimar, Tex.

A grand missionary sermon was preached by Rev. W. H. Stevens assisted by Rev. G. W. Brothers of the San Antonio district, at Brown's Chapel, Aug. 23. The pastor Rev. A. M. Mason and Rev. E. E. Cooper were also present.

After the sermon a collection of $14.80 in cash and $13.35 in subscription was taken for the cause. From thence the brethren proceeded to Oakland where they again officiated in the services at 3 p. m., and took a collection of $2.80 in cash and $5 on subscription. At 8:30 p. m., Rev. A. M. Mason delivered quite an interesting lecture on the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, at Independent. His talk was full of practical argument. A collection of $5.40 was taken. Finishing the day's work with the round of the circuit the sum of $42.35 was received in subscription and cash as benevolences. Our quarterly convened on the 29th. The meeting was largely attended and the session very pleasant. Receipts showed $110 paid to pastor and $133 raised for all purposes. On Sunday the Independent Church was crowded to overflowing. During the day Presiding Elder C. L. Madison delivered two noble sermons.

"Continual dropping wears away the stone."

The continual breaking of lamp-chimneys costs a good deal in the course of a year.

You can stop it. Get Macbeth's "pearl top" or "pearl glass." You will have no more trouble with breaking from heat. You will have clear glass instead of misty; fine instead of rough; right shape instead of wrong; and uniform, one the same as another.

You will pay a nickel a chimney more; and your dealer will gain in good-will what he loses in trade; he will widen his trade by better service.

The SOUTHWESTERN will be sent from now till January 1, 1893. The sooner you subscribe the more papers you will get.

Let all the Pastors make special canvass at once. Good crops and plenty of work at good wages give the opportunity.

All MUST have the paper during '92! See why: General Conference at Omaha, with the probable election of a Colored Bishop.

Presidential campaign with the probable election of a Republican President;

Congressional and State campaigns fraught with tremendous interests to the colored race in America;

Great and momentous questions will be decided, and the PEOPLE will help decide them.

Get the SOUTHWESTERN and learn how to decide them rightly.

It will educate your family.

It will Christianize your family.

It may SAVE your family.

It will bring health and happiness to your home.

It is the greatest uplifter of the colored race in America.

And therefore it demands a hearty support.

It gives valuable premiums, among which is a Sewing Machine for one-fourth the price sold by agents. See another column for particulars.

WHY don't you get your friends and neighbors to take the SOUTHWESTERN?

THE stewards of our church at Grenada, Miss., advocate the appointment of their pastor, Rev. J. W. Parks, as an evangelist or general agent, to travel over the Mississippi Conference, in the interest of East University and of our connectional interests generally. They think he is calculated to do so much good in a work of such general character.

A Word to Our Agents.

The next session of your conference comes just before the next General Conference, wherein we have to give a quadrennial account of our stewardship. During the past four years the General Conference has contributed $8,000 toward the support of the SOUTHWESTERN. This it gave upon the assurance that our people would rally to the support of this paper and bring it up to the point of local self-support. It is true we have greatly increased our circulation, and made some advances toward the cash system, but we are yet far behind what could have been accomplished if every pastor had done his full duty in pushing the circulation, and in paying for the papers he has ordered. We now make this special appeal to every pastor in our territory to push the circulation of the SOUTHWESTERN, and to settle in full every cent due this office, either before or at the next session of the annual conference. These accounts must be settled by your next conference. We do not desire to resort to extreme measures, but we cannot, if we would, give the Book Concern accounts away, and if brethren will not pay us, there is nothing left to us but to arrest their character in open conference. It is not our fault if the people failed to pay you. You ordered the papers, and we sent them on your orders and we look to you for the pay. Now, brethren, we pray you, do not drive us to the necessity of resorting to extreme measures. Some kind of a settlement must be reached in every case. Send for your bills and settle now, so you can show our collector at conference that you have already settled your account. This is the honest and honorable course. God help every one to pursue it. If every cent due us were paid at once, instead of asking the General Conference for eight thousand dollars the next quadrennium we would be able to contribute a handsome sum to the conference in dividends. Brethren the eyes of the whole church are upon us. Let us do our whole duty by our paper in circulating and paying for it, and the next General Conference and the whole church will applaud us, and say, "Well done; come up higher."

That Colored Convention.

Bishop Halsey, of the C. M. E. Church, is decidedly opposed to the Colored Methodist Convention to be held during the Ecumenical Conference. While he claims that the call does not clearly specify any definite object in view, he reads between the lines such meanings as to bring him to reflections as follows:

"All initiatory steps looking to the unification of our Methodisms, should begin and end with undoubted and established authority. Without this, none of such movements, no matter how desirable they may be, or however necessary for the promotion of the cause of Christianity, cannot be expected to produce the best results, and may prove the defeat of the very ends aimed at, and leave nothing but chaos and ruin in its dreadful wake. Instead of union, whether organic or otherwise, we may have divisions, schisms and misrepresentations, and pandemonium may rise and usurp the fair plains where once operated great unities in perfect harmony, and the last end infinitely worse than the first."

If Bishop Halsey reads aright the inner meaning of this call, it is certain that we should have absolutely nothing to do with it. We don't believe in "a great big black Methodism" as do some people; and if the call means anything looking in that direction we can have nothing to do with it. Another thing, nobody was elected and authorized to initiate any movement looking to the consolidation of Negro Methodism in a body, and it would be presumption for the colored delegates appointed to the Ecumenical Conference, to take any steps whatever in that direction. If Bishop Halsey is right in his interpretation of what this call means, we are with him heartily, and pronounce against the convention.
